Dear Cyndi:

Although the nomination materials for the Frank W. Mayborn Award for Community Leadership have already been sent out, I wanted to bring a couple of minor things to your attention that have kind of slipped through the cracks.

In previous years, I have been referred to in the history of the award as Mrs. Sue Mayborn, Publisher of the Temple Daily Telegram and Killeen Daily Herald, which I think is nice since I have continued to work as Editor and Publisher since Frank's death.

Also in the past when the award has been presented, no mention is ever made of the Killeen Daily Herald. I am always referred to as the publisher of the Temple Daily Telegram and Frank's work as publisher of the Telegram is mentioned, but the Herald is left out. The Killeen Daily Herald is equally important in our organization and Frank was owner, editor and publisher of both the Telegram and the Herald, as am I. Also, Terry Gandy, the general manager of the Killeen Daily Herald, is usually in attendance at the TDNA Convention each year.

If you could make this correction when presenting the award at TDNA each year, I would appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sue Mayborn
Editor and Publisher
