iCarnival! 2007 Coming Soon!

Wednesday, September 19, 2007 • 10am-2pm • UNT Library Mall Area

iCarnival! is a celebration of Hispanic Cultures featuring informational booths representing the different Hispanic nations, and fun activities for all. Booths consist of historical, traditional, and cultural information about the country. Participants visit booths, learn about the country and their culture, and get their passports stamped to enter a drawing! Other activities include a piñata breaking, dance lessons/contest, and a culture bee. A good time is guaranteed for all!

Hispanic Heritage Month

Lispanic Heritage Month was officially established in 1974. It begins on September 15th to commemorate the anniversary of the Independence of five Latin American countries– Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Mexico and Chile also achieved their independence in September, Mexico on the 16th, and Chile on the 18th.
