Coalition of Black Organizations

The Coalition of Black Organizations is the official umbrella organization and unifying body for black organizations at UNT.

Since 2002, CoBO continues to expand both in numbers and popularity. It is the home to more than 20 campus-recognized organizations.

In 2005-2006 there were 24 organizations
under the CoBO umbrella:

- Alliance of Black School Educators
- Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.
- Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.
  - Basic Rhythm
- Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
  - FOCUS
- Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc.
- Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
  - Krimson Kourt Inc.
  - Models of Style Exposed
- National Association for the

CoBO meets once a month in order to continue to bring together its organizations on one accord as well as to support and promote the activities of each organization.

HISTORY OF CoBO:

CoBO was registered as an official student organization at UNT in May of 2002. The idea for the organization was presented to Jordan Spradley who, along with Ada Yovonie, researched black student alliances and unions at other universities for idea on the development of the constitution for CoBO.
