

UNIVERSITY OF
NORTH★TEXAS™

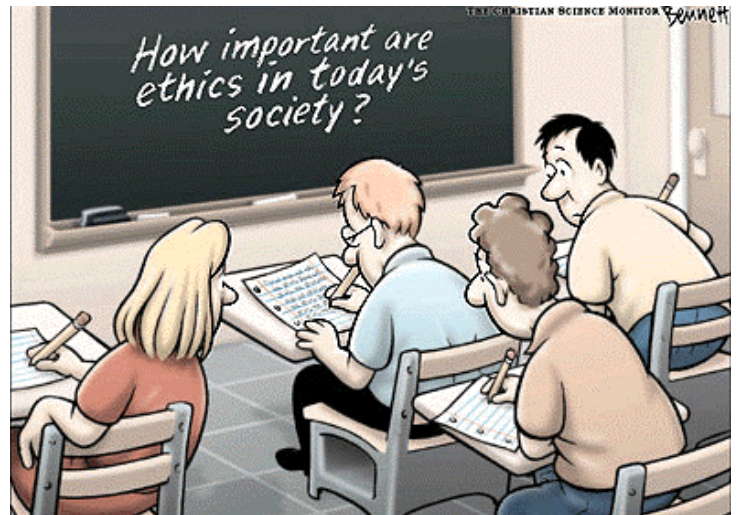

Department of Philosophy and Religion Studies and the Center for Student Rights and Responsibilities present

THE ETHICS BOWL

Two teams of North Texas students will debate contemporary moral issues including questions about free speech, reproductive rights, religious freedom, racial profiling, whistle blowing and more.

Possible topics to be discussed:

- The morality of purely sexual, no strings-attached relationships
- Denying biology students letters of recommendation based on their beliefs about evolution
- Working for morally questionable companies
- Imprisonment of a historian for denying the Holocaust
- Refusing to fill prescriptions for the “morning-after pill”
- Racial profiling
- The recent display of highly graphic, oversized photos of aborted fetuses next to the Union
- Communication restrictions placed on government scientists concerned with global warming

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2:30 – 4:30PM

IN THE UNION - ONE O’CLOCK LOUNGE

This lecture is free and open to the public.

For special accommodation, contact us at 565-2266 or philosophy@unt.edu