SPRING 2006 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

EACH ONE TEACH ONE

multicultural film series

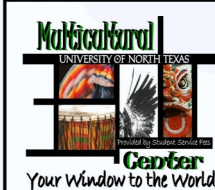

February 14th Tuesday Noon Multicultural Center	Bring up your lunch, a snack, or just chill with us and watch How Biased are You? (2001), a Discovery Channel film that explores the history and practice of racism through its extreme manifestations such as slavery, racial profiling, the Holocaust, and hate crimes.
February 28th Tuesday Noon Multicultural Center	Come up and watch episodes of The Boondocks , the 2006 NAACP Image Award Nominee for Best Comedy Series. "The Return of the King" and "The Itis", raise thought-provoking questions and make strong statements while delivering biting social commentary wrapped in humor. Discussion follows.
March 7th Tuesday Noon Multicultural Center	Go grab some friends and come up to the Center to watch Paris Was a Woman (1995), a film which takes a look at the important and exciting time of Paris in the early 20th century, when women, many of whom were lesbians, gravitated to the Left Bank to form a creative community.
March 22nd Wednesday Noon Multicultural Center	Bring up your lunch, a snack, or just chill with us and watch Radical Harmonies (2002), a film which gives us an exciting look at the women's music movement and how the movement came to prominence. This film features performance footage as well as interviews- don't miss it!
April 4th Tuesday Noon Multicultural Center	Come up and watch When East Meets West (2000). When an aspiring Chinese actress is told in an audition, "You should be more Chinese," she is confused. This film explores ethnic and cultural identity through some of today's most prominent Asian and Chinese American filmmakers, actors, and actresses.
April 19th Wednesday Noon Multicultural Center	The Center is proud to present Bittersweet (1994), a film that features interviews with East Indians living in the United States and with Americans of East Indian descent, inter-cut with fictional exchanges between members of an Indian-American Family, into an entertaining and enlightening film.

Student Activities Awards Ceremony

ASIAN / PACIFIC AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH (MAY)

A national celebration established in 1977, the month of May was chosen to commemorate the immigration of the first Japanese to the United States on May 7, 1843, as well as to mark the anniversary of the completion of the trans-continental railroad on May 10, 1869. The majority of the workers who laid the tracks were Chinese immigrants. At the UNT Multicultural Center, we have moved our observance to April to ensure better student participation during a long semester.

Pete Chan (left) and Betty Phan (right) of the UNT Asian Student Association welcome conference attendees to one of the many exciting breakout sessions at the Asian Pacific American empowerment Conference held October 2005. The conference, the first of its kind at UNT, attracted attendees including student groups from Baylor and Southern Methodist Universities, as well as many UNT students, faculty, and staff.
