

(left) The class of Mrs. Paula Parker at Dillingham Intermediate School in Sherman has a yearly "1775 Tea Room" party. The children dress in period costume and partake of tea and crumpets and discuss events of 1775. (right) Compatriots Mike Radcliff, Peter Rowley and Willie Walker.

Mike (right photo), Peter and Willie circulated among the children and discussed current events of 1775.

Compatriots Mike Radcliff (left), Willie Walker (right) and Peter Rowley (not shown) were color guards at Princeton Intermediate School on February 10, 2004.

Wosar Teddy Rector portrays Betsy Ross sewing the first American flag as Compatriot Don Rector (right) talks about our flag. Compatriots Mike Radcliff, Peter Rowley and Willie Walker talked about their SAR ancestors.

Photos from Compatriot Willie Walker