The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag
Of the United States of America

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the united States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. (Francis Bellamy)

The Salute to the Texas Flag

Honor to the Texas Flag. I pledge allegiance to thee, Texas, one state under God, one and indivisible.

The American's Creed

I believe in the United states of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states, a perfect union, one and inseparable, established upon thnose principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support it's constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies. William Tyler Page

The Star Spangled Banner
Francis Scott Key

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilights last gleaming
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O're the ramparts we watchfd were so gallantly streaming
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that Star Spangled banner yet wave
O're the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when free men shall stand Between their loved homes and the wars desolation?blest with vic'try and peace, May the heav'n rescued land

Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved jus a nation!
Then conquer we must when our cause it is just
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O're the land of the free and the home of the brave.
