

The SMU De Golyer Library & The Bush Presidential Library
Hosted a Community Day to Display George Washington's personal copy of the US Constitution

SMU DeGolyer Library

celebrates presidential history from George Washington to the present day with an exhibition featuring materials from our Hervey A. Priddy Collection of American Political Memorabilia, the Doris A. and Lawrence H. Budner Collection on Theodore Roosevelt, as well as books, pamphlets, photographs, maps, and ephemera from other DeGolyer collections. In cooperation with the George W. Bush Presidential Library, the National Archives, and the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association, DeGolyer Library will host George Washington's copy of the Acts of Congress, including the U.S. Constitution, complete with his personal annotations for two weeks in July.

The exhibit is free and open to the public.

SAR Color Guardsmen who attended in uniform. They represented the Amb. Fletcher Warren, Arlington, Dallas, East Fork /Trinity, and Plano Chapters.

L to R front row: Robert Kittrell, Don Sielert, Blair Rudy, Bill Covington, row #2: Bill Neisel, Drake Peddie, Jack Hughes, Walt Thomas, Dan Reed, back row: Charles Baker, John Greer, Dennis DeAtley, Tom Whitelock

Bill Covington tells about the things on his display table.

Replicas of wooden silverware and wooden plate, wooden canteen, a period pistol, a large cast iron spoon to melt lead to make bullets and a bullet mold to shape them.

Early arrivals start the questions.
John Greer, Bill Covington , and Walt Thomas with the answers

A lovely Lady dressed in period clothing is visiting with handsome Tom Whitelock. His outfit is magnificent and very dressy! Dennis DeAtley , Chuck Sprague, and John Greer are in the background solving the world's.

The Heritage Band played period music and were in period uniforms.

^ Robert Kittrell & Charles Baker, Dallas
Jack Hughes, Plano, John Greer, AFW, with Drake Peddie, Plano in the back ground. v

^ Walt Thomas, EF/T, Dan Reed, Don Sielert, Plano.
John Greer, AFW. Jack Hughes, Plano, Ann Sielert, Plano, Walt
Thomas, Monty Monzingo, EFT v Monty was teaching a class and brought them all to the Library!

A Big Texas Thanks to Tom Whitelock, Walt & Barbara Thomas, Ann Sielert and others for the Photos!