Guest Speaker:

Tonight's meeting Guest Speaker was Dr. James Johnson, Jr. Dr. Johnson is a former Art and Art Education professor in Denton, TX. Dr. Johnson's topic was Hoaxes, Scams, and Charlatans. Dr. Johnson presented himself as Count Alessandro Cagliostro and told his stories from the Count's perspective. The Count's stories ranged from George Psalmanazar's Formosa hoax, Dr. Berringer Mysterious Stones, Mary Toth giving birth to rabbit babies, Polly Baker being charged with indecencies with men to bring about the exposure why women were charged and not men; 30 years later we learn the story was reported by Ben Franklin. The Count discuss his involvement with the scam of "The Affair of the Necklace", then Dr. Gall's phrenology. During the stories, Ben Franklin was connected to no less than 3; by being a reporter, sitting on a review panel, and being beaten at chess by a "machine".

After his presentation, Dr. Johnson responded to questions from the floor. President White presented Dr. Johnson with payment of dual member dues.

After our Speaker, President White discussed a property in west Texas that the TXSSAR will raffle to raise money for the Patriot Fund. This property was raffled in the past, and tickets will be sold at the NSSAR Congress in July.

President White also discussed the wide variety of speakers we have had the privilege to hear on topics covering occupations, history, and medicine.
