Who is SLR?

Success for Life through Reading (SLR) is a nonprofit organization located in the College of Public Affairs and Community Service dedicated to increasing early childhood literacy in North Texas.

How SLR serves the community

SLR is a student volunteer program whose mission is to promote early childhood literacy.

SLR provides literacy activities and take-home books to low-income preschool children in Denton to help develop the cognitive capacity necessary for achievement in school, relationships, and future work environments.

“Every week I look forward to the occasion of becoming ‘Ms. Blair, the book lady.’ While I do thoroughly enjoy playing a role in these children's literacy development, it is the meaningful relationships I have built with them that brings me the greatest satisfaction.”
