Brilliant Magazine Makes Its Debut

A new Texas magazine hits the stands this week. Brilliant magazine is headquartered in Austin. Its creators say the publication focuses on the very best Texas has to offer in business, design and fashion.

Co-publisher Lance Morgan says Brilliant offers Texans something other publications do not.

"We know that there are a lot of city and state magazines out there, but Brilliant is different. It's offering only a finer look at the lifestyles in Texas. We're not going to uncover the bad stuff, we're not going to tell bad things about bad people," Morgan said.
