Liz Smith for President - or at least Texas Governor...

Dear Ms. Smith,

I hope this letter finds you as spectacular as always. You may recall that you included an item about my magazine when our dear mutual pal, Carolyn Farb, was on the cover last year. We remain so appreciative for that to this day!

As a huge fan of yours, I'd like to offer you an open invitation to contribute to my magazine in any way, shape or form that you would like to – to enhance the exposure of any of your projects. We love everything you are about and consider you Texas' greatest natural resource. And a true blue, natural blonde, of course.

I regret I missed your visit to Austin recently. Last year I met Iris Love at dinner at Fonda San Miguel when she was here with my New York City Editor and brother-in-spirit, the great John Danielson. We dined with Robert Walker and Katy Gafney of the Texas Film Hall of Fame organization. What a neat lady she is – you are truly fortunate. There was a lot of Liz Smith love at the table that night!

Enclosed you'll find the latest issues of the magazine so that you'll know see how we are progressing. As you know, we only represent the best in Texas and are working hard seven days a week, 24 hours a day to make that happen as "the little magazine that could." As a fellow journalist and sixth generation, I can attest how important that is to our goals.

Again, we offer you an open door policy for anything we can help you with – always! Stay spectacular and I'm toasting your continued success.

Best regards,

Lance Avery Morgan
