

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 proposing a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature
2 to provide for an exemption from ad valorem taxation of part of the 3 market value of the residence homestead of a partially disabled 4 veteran or the surviving spouse of a partially disabled veteran if 5 the residence homestead was donated to the disabled veteran by a 6 charitable organization for less than the market value of the 7 residence homestead and harmonizing certain related provisions of 8 the Texas Constitution.

9 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

10 SECTION 1. Section 1-b(1), Article VIII, Texas
11 Constitution, as proposed by H.J.R. 24, 83rd Legislature, Regular 12 Session, 2013, is amended to read as follows:

13 (1) The legislature by general law may provide that a 14 partially disabled veteran is entitled to an exemption from ad
15 valorem taxation of a percentage of the market value of the disabled 16 veteran's residence homestead that is equal to the percentage of 17 disability of the disabled veteran if the residence homestead was 18 donated to the disabled veteran by a charitable organization for 19 less than the market value of the residence homestead, including at 20 no cost to the disabled veteran. The legislature by general law may 21 provide additional eligibility requirements for the exemption. For 22 purposes of this subsection, "partially disabled veteran" means a 23 disabled veteran as described by Section 2(b) of this article who is 24 certified as having a disability rating of less than 100 percent. A

1 limitation or restriction on a disabled veteran's entitlement to an 2 exemption under Section 2(b) of this article, or on the amount of an 3 exemption under Section 2(b), does not apply to an exemption under 4 this subsection.

5 SECTION 2. Section 1-b(1), Article VIII, Texas
6 Constitution, as proposed by H.J.R. 62, 83rd Legislature, Regular 7 Session, 2013, is redesignated as Section 1-b(m), Article VIII,
8 Texas Constitution, to read as follows:

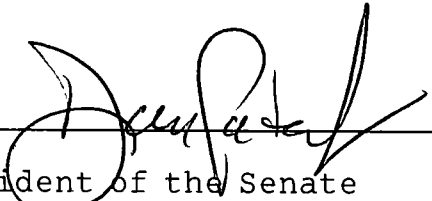

9 (m) [~~(1)~~] The legislature by general law may provide that 10 the surviving spouse of a member of the armed services of the United 11 States who is killed in action is entitled to an exemption from ad 12 valorem taxation of all or part of the market value of the surviving 13 spouse's residence homestead if the surviving spouse has not 14 remarried since the death of the member of the armed services.

15 SECTION 3. Section 1-b(m), Article VIII, Texas
16 Constitution, is redesignated as Section 1-b(n), Article VIII,
17 Texas Constitution, and amended to read as follows:

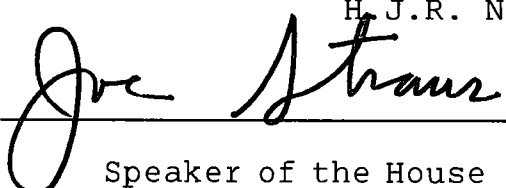

18 (n) [~~(m)~~] The legislature by general law may provide that a 19 surviving spouse who qualifies for and receives an exemption in 20 accordance with Subsection (m) [~~(1)~~] of this section and who 21 subsequently qualifies a different property as the surviving 22 spouse's residence homestead is entitled to an exemption from ad 23 valorem taxation of the subsequently qualified homestead in an 24 amount equal to the dollar amount of the exemption from ad valorem 25 taxation of the first homestead for which the exemption was 26 received in accordance with Subsection (m) [~~(1)~~] of this section in 27 the last year in which the surviving spouse received the exemption

1 in accordance with that subsection for that homestead if the 2 surviving spouse has not remarried since the death of the member of 3 the armed services.

4 SECTION 4. This proposed constitutional amendment shall be 5 submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 7, 2017.
6 The ballot shall be printed to permit voting for or against the 7 proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the 8 legislature to provide for an exemption from ad valorem taxation of 9 part of the market value of the residence homestead of a partially 10 disabled veteran or the surviving spouse of a partially disabled
11 veteran if the residence homestead was donated to the disabled
12 veteran by a charitable organization for less than the market value
13 of the residence homestead and harmonizing certain related 14 provisions of the Texas Constitution."
