9 552.117(a) and 552.1175(a), Government Code, and Section
10 25.025(a), Tax Code, apply only to a request for information that is 11 received by a governmental body or an officer for public
12 information on or after the effective date of this Act. A request
13 for information that was received before the effective date of this 14 Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the request was 15 received, and the former law is continued in effect for that 16 purpose.

17 SECTION 5. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives
18 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as 19 provided by Section 39, Article III, Texas Constitution. If this 20 Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this 21 Act takes effect September 1, 2017.

FISCAL NOTE, 85TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

May 25, 2017

TO: Honorable Joe Straus, Speaker of the House, House of Representatives

FROM: Ursula Parks, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB1278 by Dutton (Relating to availability of personal information of certain current and former prosecutors.), As Passed 2nd House

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would amend the Government Code relating to exempting personal information including home address, home telephone, emergency contact information or social security for select public officials. The bill would add a current or former district attorney, criminal district attorney, current or former employee of the Department of Family and Protective Services, code enforcements officers, or county or municipal attorney or any former employee of these offices if the jurisdiction includes criminal law or child protective services matters.

The bill would take effect immediately if it receives a two-thirds vote in each house; otherwise, the bill would take effect September 1, 2017.

The Office of Court Administration (OCA) states that the bill would not likely result in significant fiscal impacts to the state and local court systems.

Local Government Impact

No significant fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
