No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill would abolish shampoo apprentice permits and shampoo specialty certificates. The Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation (TDLR) and Comptroller of Public Accounts estimate this would result in a revenue loss to the state General Revenue Fund of approximately $2,700 per fiscal year.

Based on the analysis of TDLR, duties and responsibilities associated with implementing the provisions of the bill could be accomplished by utilizing existing resources.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.
