TEXAS: DID YOU KNOW?

THE STATE SEAL — featuring the prominent “lone star” symbol — was adopted in 1836 by the Congress of the Republic of Texas. The oak and olive branches encircling the star were added in 1839.

The current state seal was adopted as part of the 1845 state constitution and is identical to that of 1839, except the word “State” has replaced “Republic.”

TEXAS CLAIMS MANY OTHER OFFICIAL STATE SYMBOLS, AS WELL.

Nickname: Lone Star State

Motto: Friendship

Song: “Texas, Our Texas”

Bird: Mockingbird

Tree: Pecan

Flower: Bluebonnet

Reptile: Horned Lizard

Large Mammal: Texas Longhorn

Small Mammal: Armadillo

Flying Mammal: Mexican Free-tailed Bat

Plant: Prickly Pear Cactus

Fruit: Texas Red Grapefruit

Pepper: Jalapeño

Jalapeño Peppers

THE TEXAS LEGISLATURE has designated many symbolic capitals across the state. Here are a few:

Alligator Capital: Anahuac

Barbecue Capital: Lockhart

Bluebird Capital: Wills Point

Cactus Capital: Sanderson

Citrus Capital: Weslaco

Danish Capital: Danevang

Pancake Capital: Hawkins

Polka Capital: Fredericksburg

Pump Jack Capital: Electra

Rodeo Capital: Mesquite

Sausage Capital: Elgin

Sunflower Capital: Hearne

MORE TEXAS FACTS:

Texas covers 268,581 square miles (land and water), according to the Statistical Abstract of the United States.

Texas is as large as the following 10 states combined: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and North Carolina.

Texas extends 801 straight-line miles from north to south and 773 miles from east to west.

The state's highest mountain, Guadalupe Peak, stands at 8,749 feet.

Trees cover about 13 percent of Texas' total land area.

Of the state's 22 million acres of forests and woodlands, 12 million acres are in the East Texas Piney Woods area. The Piney Woods extend over all or parts of 43 counties and includes four national forests totaling more than 637,000 acres and five state forests of more than 7,500 acres.

Bluebonnet

The longest river in the state is the Rio Grande, which forms the international boundary between Texas and Mexico and extends 1,254 miles along Texas.

The next longest river in Texas is the Red River, which forms much of the boundary between Texas and Oklahoma.

Texas — second only to Alaska in total area of inland water — has more than 4,959 square miles of lakes and streams.

The largest body of water wholly within the state is Sam Rayburn Reservoir, with a normal surface area of 114,500 acres.

Caddo Lake was the only natural lake in the state before being dammed in the 1900s, increasing its size to 26,800 acres today.

Texas' vast state highway system encompasses 79,513 miles of state-maintained highways, of which 40,990 miles are paved farm and ranch roads.

Texas has more public roads than any state in the nation, with 301,797 miles.

It's like a whole other country.

TO THE TANTALIZING TERRITORY THAT IS TEXAS.

YOU WILL FIND enticing diversity here—in the scenery, the history, the food, and the people. And you will discover a hospitality born of gracious Southern roots, sprinkled with old-fashioned Western grit, and spiced with the cultures and customs of Hispanic, German, Czech, and two dozen or so other significant ancestries. Texas is, indeed, like a whole other country.

Scenery ranges from craggy mountains in the west to pine forests in the east. And, in between, landscapes showcase surf-kissed beaches, stream-carved canyons, and cedar-studded hills. Two national parks offer spectacular panoramas, and more than 100 state parks provide camping and picnicking amid attractive surroundings. In the spring, bluebonnets (the official state wildflower) mingle with other blossoms of red, yellow and white to paint stunning roadside scenes.

Energizing cities and charming communities invite you to stay awhile and share in their treasures. You can visit outstanding museums, thought-provoking historic sites, and excellent zoos. And you can tarry awhile in marvelous resorts and charming small inns.

Throughout the state, a fascinating melange of restaurants will delight you, as well. Cuisines, especially in the larger cities, prove as varied as the many faces of Texas. Asian, Pacific Rim, Thai, Southwestern, and a full slate of other popular foods now grace almost as many menus like favorites such as barbecue, chicken-fried steak, charbroiled T-bones, fried catfish, and Mexican food.

Get an adrenaline rush aboard a colossal roller coaster and slow down the pace with a walk down a nature trail. Shop at a Mexican-style market or a discount mega-mall. Try out your golf game at dozens of challenging courses. Watch an exhilarating sport: football, baseball, basketball, hockey, soccer, and NASCAR racing—you name it; Texas has it. And, of course, you can savor the flavor of the Old West at dude ranches, rodeos, and chuck-wagon dinners throughout the state.

Festivals and fairs abound. Say hello to “Big Tex” at Dallas’ State Fair of Texas. Crack a piñata at Fiesta San Antonio. Lift a lager at Fredericksburg’s Oktoberfest. And salute the spirit of America at Laredo’s Washington’s Birthday Celebration.

Come along and join the festivities. Texas welcomes you!

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

TEXAS IS A BIG PLACE—really, really big. Need an example? Well, the distance between Houston and Big Bend National Park is 603 miles; That’s 10 hours traveling by car at 60 mph, and you still haven’t left the state!

So, we’ve divided this Guide into seven regions: Panhandle Plains, Prairies and Lakes, Piney Woods, Gulf Coast, South Texas Plains, Hill Country, and Big Bend Country. The cities and towns in each respective region are listed alphabetically, so you can quickly find and read about them as you travel through the vastly different areas that make up the great state of Texas. Each city’s “Map” code shows grid coordinates corresponding to its location on the Texas Official Travel Map.

At the beginning of each regional section, you’ll find a detailed map as well as an overview describing the distinct features that define each region. Following the regional sections, you’ll find a thorough listing of all lakes in Texas. In addition, there’s also a listing of state and national forests included for your reference.

We’ve included listings for chambers of commerce and convention and visitor bureaus that belong to the Texas Association of Convention and Visitors Bureau. Addresses, phone numbers and Web sites are included for more information.

Highway designations in the book include I- for interstate highways, U.S. for U.S. highways, Texas for state highways, and F.M. and R.M. for Texas Farm-to-Market or Ranch-to-Market roads. Remember, Texas is a very big state with lots of roadways, so make sure you plan ahead if you are motoring through the state.

Thanks for visiting, and enjoy your stay in the Lone Star State!

Use this guide to help discover the wondrous treasures that Texas has to offer.

Texas State Travel Guide is published by the Texas Department of Transportation, 150 E. Riverside, Austin, Texas, 78704. The guide encourages recreational travel to and within the state by listing Texas cities with publicly accessible sites of scenic, historical, and recreational interest.

NOTE: We want you to experience the best that Texas has to offer. However, please understand that changes often occur with attractions. Hours change, days of operation change, and unfortunately, some attractions close. So, to ensure your visit to the Lone Star State will be great, please call the local chamber of commerce, convention & visitors bureau and/or attraction, prior to your trip, to verify the attraction will be open during the time of your visit. Welcome to Texas, y’all!

TRAVEL INFORMATION CENTERS

The Texas Department of Transportation operates travel information centers for the convenience of the traveling public. Uniformed, professional travel counselors welcome visitors and provide a wealth of free literature, information, and suggestions to make every Texas trip more pleasant.

Working with the Texas Official Travel Map, counselors expertly chart routes to any area of Texas. They point out the most convenient short-line directions, or leisurely scenic drives to your destination. They supply comprehensive statewide travel publications, plus detailed brochures about points of interest, attractions, and recreational areas along the way. All of those services are free. The centers are open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Memorial Day weekend through Labor Day. The Capitol Visitor Center hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday, and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday year-round. All centers are closed on New Year's Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve day, Christmas Day, and Easter.

Travelers may receive road condition information by visiting our Web site at www.dot.state.tx.us or by calling 800/452-9292 for 24-hour automated road condition information and seasonal reports on locations of scenic spring wildflowers and fall foliage. Travelers may also call daily from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. central time, to speak to a professional travel counselor for travel information and trip planning assistance. (TDD for the deaf 800/687-5288.)

HIGHWAY REST AREAS

Throughout the superb system of Texas highways, motorists find bonuses of travel pleasure in highway rest areas. Texas pioneered the concept of miniature parks along travelways, an idea that has been adopted nationally.

Today more than a thousand Texas rest areas, picnic areas, and scenic turn-outs invite motorists to pause and relax from the concentration of driving. Often the site has been selected for its impressive landscape views, and each of the small parks is landscaped to complement its individual surroundings. All are equipped with shaded arbors, tables, benches, and cooking grills. Remaining in a rest area for more than 24 hours or erecting any kind of structure is prohibited by law.

SPEED LIMITS

In Texas, the maximum speed limit for cars and light trucks (pickups, panels, vans, etc.) is 70 mph daytime, 65 mph nighttime on all numbered highways in rural areas. Lower speed limits are posted on many Texas highways to account for their individual operating characteristics. Speed limits on urban freeways typically range from 55 mph to 70 mph. In certain counties with low population density, the maximum speed limit can be 75 mph, but only where 75 mph signs have been posted.

TRAFFIC SIGNS

Speeds, caution areas, stops and directions are marked along the more than 79,000 miles of Texas highways by more than half a million signs. Passing is illegal when there is a continuous yellow stripe on the driver's side of the center line. Center lines are yellow dash stripes. White dash stripes separate dual lanes of traffic in the same direction. Painted or reflectorized pavement arrows often show approved directions or turns. Arrows pointing toward you or showing red reflectors indicate you are driving the wrong way on a freeway ramp or one-way street.

AUTO SAFETY BELTS AND CHILD SEATS

Texas law requires front seat occupants, regardless of age, be buckled up while riding in cars and trucks. Further, the law requires children under age five or who are less than 36 inches tall must be secured in a federally approved child safety seat. Children under 17 years of age must wear a safety belt no matter where they sit in the vehicle. Fines may be levied for failure to use safety belts and child safety seats as prescribed.

AUTO INSURANCE

A motor vehicle may not be operated in Texas unless a policy of liability insurance is in effect. Evidence of insurance must be furnished when requested by a peace officer.

TEXAS CLIMATE

There's an old expression that Texans use when talking about the state's ever-changing weather: "If you don't like it now, just wait five minutes." With such a big state, it's easy to see why the climate in the Panhandle Plains Region is drastically different than it is in the Gulf Coast Region. However, Texas is blessed with fairly mild weather year-round. Sunshine is prevalent no matter what part of Texas you visit.

Also, Texas does get very hot in the summertime. Almost the entire state experiences daytime highs in excess of 90 degrees during July and August, and many areas are quite used to triple-digit readings during these months. So, remember to dress lightly and bring along your sunscreen.

Winters are usually mild, but it can get cold and snowfall isn't uncommon in the northern parts of Texas. Winter daytime high temperatures average from the 40s north to the 60s south, and lows can dip below freezing in much of the state. Fall is also quite marvelous in Texas, as the heat begins to dwindle in October. Daytime highs average in the upper 70s and lower 80s, and lows are in the 40s and 50s.

Springtime is fantastic. From March through June, daytime highs average from the 70s north to the upper 80s south, and spectacular wildflowers appear in much of the state, thanks to generous rainfall that is usually plentiful at this time of year. You'll probably need a wide range of clothing options, from shorts and t-shirts during the day to jackets and hats at night.

Before departing on your trip, be sure you contact the convention & visitors bureaus or chambers of commerce in the cities you plan to visit to get relevant weather information.

MEXICO

Entrance and Exit Regulations—The enchantment of Mexico is but a bridge away from much of Texas. Visitors find Mexican shops and markets colorful and fascinating, filled with a variety of gift, handicraft and art items at attractive prices. The people of Mexico are gracious and friendly.

General—U.S. citizens must carry proof of citizenship when crossing into Mexico. Mexican immigration officials require a passport, birth certificate, voter registration card, or any other document that proves citizenship. On returning to Texas from Mexico, a stop at U.S. Customs is required, stating nationality and declaring Mexican purchases. Visitors to Mexican border cities seldom use Mexican currency. U.S. dollars are readily accepted at the current exchange rate. Mexican banks, large hotels and motels and tourist service facilities provide currency exchange, if needed.

A Mexican tourist card is required for visiting Mexico beyond the border cities, or for stays longer than 72 hours. The free cards are available from Mexican immigration authorities at the border, and also from Mexican consulates and Mexican government tourist offices in the U.S. A birth certificate or other proof of U.S. citizenship, such as voter registration, military I.D. showing place of birth, or passport, is required to obtain the tourist card. Your tourist card is good for 30 days, but if you plan to stay longer you must request a 180-day visa. You must return your cards prior to leaving Mexico.

If you plan on driving your personal vehicle into Mexico beyond the 13-mile free trade zone along the border, you will need to obtain a vehicle permit for a $15 fee. In order to obtain this permit you must have a valid driver's license, the vehicle's title (in the driver's name) and tourist card. If you plan on using someone else's car during your trip beyond the border, the vehicle's owner will need to be with you. Also, be sure to check your auto insurance policy before you start your trip into Mexico, as many policies exclude coverage in a foreign country. Finally, you'll need to return your permit prior to leaving the country.

Canadian citizens who visit Mexico from Texas should have a passport or birth certificate. Other foreign nationals should have a passport and appropriate visas both for entering Mexico and returning to the U.S.

For more information call 800/44-MEXICO or visit www.visitmexico.com.

WARNING

Unauthorized possession/importation of a firearm of any type is a felony in Mexico. At minimum, this could result in a stiff fine and seizure of the weapon. Possession of a "military caliber" weapon may result in jail time and confiscation of car. Entering the country with unauthorized weapons carries a penalty of two to eight years in jail. Pleading ignorance to the law cannot be used as a defense. Mexico's weapons ban includes all weapons and ammunition—rifles, pistols, shotguns, black powder handguns and long guns, reloading components, and any kind of ammunition. Even a few shotgun shells in the trunk can cause a big problem.

★ THE SEVEN REGIONS OF TEXAS ★

SAY “TEXAS” and think BIG. Big country. Big hospitality. And big opportunities for a fun-filled vacation. But the state is so large (some 275,416 square miles that encompass 254 counties) that the “big picture” can sometimes become a confusing jumble of cities and towns and lakes and parks.

And a guide such as this one, if it is presented strictly alphabetically, might describe a city in the Panhandle, followed by a town in the Hill Country, almost 500 miles away.

To make it easier to learn about traveling in Texas and to add to your reading enjoyment, this guide is organized by region. They coincide with the seven travel regions originated by the Texas tourism industry and with the listings in the quarterly Texas Events Calendar; as well as those used by Texas Highways, the official travel magazine of Texas.

The regions progress alphabetically by title, with listings of the cities and towns they enclose. The sections begin with the Big Bend Country in far West Texas.

The Big Bend Country region contains two national parks, as well as cities such as Del Rio, El Paso, Midland, and Odessa. (The guide, of course, also lists and describes most of the small communities within each section.)

Next comes the Gulf Coast, which stretches from the Texas-Louisiana border southward to Brownsville, and covers Beaumont, Houston, Galveston, and Corpus Christi. The Hill Country section encompasses the geographical center of the state (near Brady) and includes the capital city of Austin, LBJ National and State parks, as well as Fredericksburg.

In the Panhandle Plains, you will find Abilene, Amarillo, Lubbock, and Wichita Falls and beautiful Palo Duro Canyon State Park. The Piney Woods brings you a large segment of East Texas, including Marshall, Texarkana, and Tyler.

Prairies and Lakes sweeps down through the center of the state and embraces Bryan-College Station, Dallas, Fort Worth, and Waco, while the South Texas Plains presents the lower Rio Grande Valley towns of McAllen and Mission, along with Laredo and San Antonio to the north.

An introduction describes each region and many of the sites and sights within it, and a map gives you a snapshot view of the area. Photographs throughout the guide illustrate the colorful attractions awaiting you.

Read on, and have a big time in Texas!

★ BIG BEND COUNTRY ★

IN BIG BEND COUNTRY, the sky's no limit. Nowhere else in Texas do the stars at night shine quite so bright or the sunsets seem quite so rosy. Here, too, the earth displays its own vigor. Prickly pear cacti bloom with fuchsia ferocity and golden exuberance, as desert vistas shimmer far into the distance. Nomadic tumbleweeds bounce erratically across lonesome prairies, and craggy mountain peaks form a jagged phalanx on the horizon. Nature needs no introduction in this awe-inspiring terrain.

Two spectacular national parks—Guadalupe Mountains on the north and Big Bend on the south—encapsulate the rugged grandeur of the area and provide an outdoor feast for hikers, campers, naturalists, artists, and all who savor nature's untamed beauty.

Cities carve out a comfortable niche here as well. On the western edge of the region, venerable El Paso enchants visitors with its multicultural festivities, multispedic cuisines, and numerous museums. On the eastern rim, Midland, Odessa, and Del Rio invite you to enjoy an eclectic array of attractions such as a collection of vintage airplanes, a Shakespearean theater, and the recreational opportunities of massive Amistad Reservoir. And in between, towns like Pecos, Fort Davis, Alpine, Marfa, and Marathon serve up surprises of their own, including ghostly lights, frontier forts, and splendid views of the heavens.

Let's take a leisurely tour across the diverse landscape and vast terrain that is Big Bend Country.

PARKS ALONG THE RIO

Tucked into the inner elbow of the Rio Grande as it meanders southward, Big Bend National Park spreads across more than 801,000 acres of land so diverse that the Chihuahuan Desert floor gives way to Chisos Mountain peaks in mere minutes. Hikers find 150 miles of trails within the park's confines and campers can occupy primitive campgrounds and sites with RV hookups. In the Chisos Basin, a lodge provides a restaurant and accommodations for those unprepared for roughing it.

Options abound. You can walk a short and easy path to the base of fabled Santa Elena Canyon, where the Rio Grande cuts a bronze swath through soaring 150-foot limestone walls. Or, you can don serious hiking gear and trek to the South Rim of the Chisos Mountains for an unparalleled view. At your feet, a vast, undulating landscape rolls southward some 16 miles to the Rio Grande and the country of Mexico.

Rafters often ply their crafts along the Rio Grande here. It's a great way to gain a refreshing perspective of the park—and you don't have to set sail on your own. Several professional river outfitters in the area will gladly provide gear and guides.

Wildlife in Big Bend National Park ranges from jackrabbits to javelinas and from beavers to black bears, though many of the park's four-footed creatures venture out mostly at night. Throughout the park, birders seek a peek at some of the 450 species found here, including the rare Colima warbler and the golden eagle.

West of the national park lies the approximately 300,000-acre Big Bend Ranch State Park. Like its national park neighbor, the state park boasts desert lands, mountains, canyons, and waterfalls, but there are few modern amenities here. Hikers and backpackers encounter a rugged brand of nature that encompasses two mountain ranges with long-extinct volcanoes, while sites along the scenic River Road (F.M. 170) offer rafters and canoers access to the waters of the Rio Grande.

The park's eastern gateway, Barton Warnock Environmental Education Center, showcases Chihuahuan desert plants, as well as the archeology, history, and natural resources of the Big Bend. Fort Leaton, the western visitor center for the park, stands on the site of an 1848 adobe trading post. Here you'll find historic ruins, interpretive exhibits, and shaded picnic areas.

SCOUTING THE AREA

Although the vast parklands draw lots of visitors to this area of Big Bend Country, other interesting sights and pastimes exist here as well, providing intriguing, and sometimes quirky, attractions.

In Lajitas, the Old West rises up to meet you, as you visit shops, offices, and eating places where buildings boast frontier-like façades. And where else can you greet an office-holding billy goat that swills beer? At the Lajitas Trading Post, say howdy to brew-guzzling goat Clay Henry III, the duly elected "mayor" of the town.

And then there's chili! Each fall at the old ghost town of Terlingua, you can join about 5,000 rabid chili fans, who stoke their fires—and your palate—during heated chili cook-offs.

GUADALUPE MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK

Some 240 miles north of the Big Bend, along the Texas-New Mexico border, 86,416-acre Guadalupe Mountains National Park safeguards its own share of natural treasures. Fortress-like El Capitan mountain and nearby Guadalupe Peak, Texas' highest point at 8,749 feet, provide a dramatic introduction to the park's spectacular scenery.

The Guadalupe Mountains site includes four of the highest peaks in Texas, as well as glorious McKittrick Canyon, where aspens, madrones, and maples mingle their crimson, bronze, and yellow hues to breathtaking advantage in the autumn.

Though you can drive through the southeastern edge of the park, you can appreciate the Guadalupe Mountains fully only by hiking into the interior. Backpackers who appreciate nature at her most solitary particularly enjoy long hikes into the park's inner regions. Some 80 miles of trails lead through stands of

Gold Poppies in Franklin Mountains State Park

Ponderosa pines, Douglas firs, and mountain junipers, and to upland meadows, where deer and elk graze. Day-trippers savor the short excursion into the more accessible environs of McKittrick Canyon.

Since Guadalupe Mountains National Park lies miles from communities of any size, be prepared to "rough it" in these isolated but beautiful surroundings. But if you treasure extraordinary and remote natural beauty, Guadalupe Mountains National Park rewards every challenge.

Blessed with Guadalupe Mountains National Park, Big Bend National Park, and Big Bend Ranch State Park, Big Bend Country boasts almost 1,170,000 acres of wilderness terrain that offer scenic vistas and outdoor adventures you will never forget.

EL PASO DEL NORTE

Okay. You've hiked. You've rafted. You've camped under the stars. You've seen nature at her comeliest and quirkiest. But it's time to move on. Now you're ready to rub elbows with Texans in the big city. Let's begin with gusto—in El Paso.

Sprawled along the westernmost tip of the state, delineated by the Rio Grande and Franklin Mountains, El Paso combines metropolitan modernity with a delightful bicultural charm born of its 16th-century Spanish origins. The city, which grew from settlements that date to 1598, forms the largest U.S. city on the Mexican border and sits across the Rio Grande from Ciudad Juárez, Mexico.

El Paso offers activities and places of interest that can entertain you for days. You can tour historic sites, including missions such as Nuestra Señora del Carmen—called Ysleta Mission by El Pasoans—founded by Spanish Franciscans in the early 1680s (thus predating those established in California in the late 18th century). At the 1875 adobe Magoffin Home (a state historical park), you can view original family furnishings and learn how an affluent El Paso family lived in the 19th century.

You can explore a dozen museums in the city and in neighboring Fort Bliss that offer artwork and exhibits as varied as the vivid fiberglass sculptures of Luis Jimenez, a portrait of George Washington by Gilbert Stuart, and replicas of the original adobe buildings at Fort Bliss.

For a bird's-eye view of El Paso and adjacent Juárez, go to Franklin Mountains State Park on the western rim of the city. Here, you can take a five-minute ride aboard the Wyler Aerial Tramway, which climbs 940 feet to a vantage point on Ranger Peak. Look around you at a scene that encompasses some 7,000 square miles, two countries, and three states. Awesome!

If shopping is your game, El Paso is your game board. Specialty stores sell imported furnishings and exotic art objects, foodstuffs, such as spicy salsas and seasonings, cowboy boots made from snakeskin and ostrich hide, and scores of other unusual items.

Time for dinner? Head about 35 miles southeast toward the town of Fabens, where Cattleman's Steakhouse at Indian Cliffs Ranch cooks up charbroiled steaks extraordinaire and plentiful Western atmosphere to boot. Where else can you polish off a T-bone amidst a display of antique saddles, while watching the sunset paint the horizon a dusky red and gold?

Sports teams, such as professional baseball, soccer, and hockey, as well as college football and baseball, find a lively home in El Paso. The city also boasts some of the finest—and most inexpensive—public golf courses in the state. And for the kids, Wet 'n' Wild Waterworld (near Anthony) and Western Playland Park provide hours of frolicsome fun.

At the Tigua Indian Reservation at Ysleta (the oldest community in the present boundaries of Texas), you can visit a museum that focuses on the Tigua's cultural history.

Texas' oldest mission, Corpus Christi de la Ysleta in El Paso, dates from 1681

POINTS CENTRAL

Deep in the heart of Big Bend Country, towns such as Marfa, Marathon, Fort Davis, and Langtry tantalize you with glimpses of the rough-and-tumble Old West. They provide some unlikely surprises, as well. In Fort Stockton, you can salute Paisano Pete, probably the "world's largest roadrunner," and visit the restored Grey Mule Saloon, while at Iraan, you can say howdy to the old cartoon character Alley Oop at Fantasyland.

In the summer, take a dip in the cool waters of Balmorhea State Park's artesian pool, fed at the rate of more than 22 million gallons a day by San Solomon Springs. Slice up a rich, juicy cantaloupe from the fertile fields of Pecos for a luscious taste treat, then visit the West-of-the-Pecos Museum, where 50 rooms of exhibits enlighten you about Pecos and West Texas. In any season, you can surf the sands of Monahans Sandhills State Park, near Monahans, where 4,000 acres of wind-sculpted sand dunes provide an unusual playground.

For an out-of-this-world experience, try Marfa. This friendly community has gained worldwide fame for its "Marfa Lights," an unexplained, unscheduled, and unchoreographed nighttime phenomena of bright orbs that swoop and pulsate on the nearby prairie. There's even a new viewing area on the highway just a few miles east of town for those who seek the lights.

About 25 miles east of Marfa lies attractive Alpine, the seat of vast Brewster County. Spend some time in the Museum of the Big Bend at Sul Ross State University and learn about the ancient peoples and the early settlers who shaped this area, then stop by the Last Frontier Museum for a look at rocks, gems, and minerals of the region. You can unearth some unusual gifts at the Woodward Agate Ranch, about 18 miles south of Alpine, where you can search for lovely pom-pom and red-plume agates, as well as precious opals.

Thirty miles further east lies Marathon. Here, you'll find intriguing art galleries that feature one-of-a-kind Mexican and Indian handcrafts and outstanding landscape photography.

North of the Marathon-Alpine-Marfa area, the picturesque Davis Mountains are home to some of the most photogenic sights in Texas. Here, the stark white domes of the McDonald Observatory stand atop Mount Locke, visible for miles against the cobalt sky. During the day, you can tour the observatory, operated by the University of Texas at Austin, for a look at the sun's turbulent surface, and, in the evenings, you can attend "Star Parties" for unparalleled views of the heavens. Davis Mountains State Park, four miles north of Fort Davis, offers pleasant walks, abundant bird life, and the distinctive and charming Indian Lodge hotel, as well as a scenic drive.

Visit the arboretum and cactus greenhouse of the marvelous Chihuahuan Desert Research Institute, then spend a reflective hour or so at the impressive Fort Davis National Historic Site. Here, you can listen to the haunting tones of a bugle echo across the parade ground as you explore the fort's reconstructed barracks and other buildings that evoke 19th-century frontier Texas.

Another vivid reminder of the Old West sits some 160 miles southeast of Fort Davis at Langtry. Here, the Judge Roy Bean Visitor Center, staffed by professional Texas travel counselors, chronicles the life of rascally old Judge Roy Bean, the "Law West of the Pecos," who dispensed his own high-handed brand of justice.

Just a few miles east of Langtry, a highway turnout at the U.S. 90 bridge over the Pecos River provides one of the prettiest views along Texas highways. Below, the river tumbles through precipitous canyon walls as it nears the end of its journey at mighty Amistad International Reservoir. The spot is also near Seminole Canyon State Park, where you can see 4,000-year-old Indian pictographs and displays that cover the early history of the area. Down the road, the hospitable city of Del Rio awaits.

Del Rio, which bills itself as "The Best of the Border," is a gateway to huge Amistad International Reservoir, a fishing and boating bonanza, and is home to the oldest bonded winery in Texas, Val Verde Winery, founded by the Qualia family in 1883.

If you looked for Judge Roy Bean's gravesite at Langtry, you didn't find it. That's because Roy and his son Sam are buried here on the expansive grounds of the Whitehead Memorial Museum. When you pay your respects to the old judge, you can also visit the museum's other many interesting exhibits.

Del Rio's sister city, Ciudad Acuña, lies just a stone's throw across the Rio Grande and offers abundant Mexican border town shopping, restaurants, and nightspots.

MIDLAND AND ODESSA

Aim due east from El Paso about 300 miles [or aim north from Del Rio about 250 miles] and set your sights on the "mini-metroplex" of Midland and Odessa. This dynamic duo on the eastern edge of the Big Bend Country encompasses a wide-ranging assortment of attractions, sports, and activities, and boasts a number of locations where the Bush families, of presidential fame, once resided, worked, and attended school.

Along with minor league baseball, located between Midland and Odessa you will find a 20-acre water park and the American Airpower Heritage Museum. If you thrill to the sights of a nationally recognized community theater and more than 40 city parks, Midland offers an interesting mixture of museums.

If your quest is geology, at the Petroleum Museum, you can probe the oil-rich Permian Basin through exhibits that re-create the story of oil exploration in West Texas. Other Midland museums offer a planetarium and displays of Western memorabilia, saddles, and guns.

For entertainment on the offbeat side, attend a summer production at the flamboyant 1920s Yucca Theatre, where mummies perform madcap melodramas amidst the theater's elaborate Assyrian-style architecture.

Odessa, a scant 20 miles to the west, also delights visitors with an uncommon abundance of attractions. Here, you can pose for a snapshot with an eight-foot-high "World's Largest Jackrabbit." The Globe of the Great Southwest, an authentic replica of the original Globe Theatre in England, brings Elizabethan England to life. The theater hosts Shakespearean plays and other stage productions year-round.

Exhibits at the Presidential Museum chronicle every U.S. presidency since that of George Washington. Remember "I Like Ike" buttons? Campaign mementos such as buttons, posters and banners, as well as political cartoons and portraits take you on an interesting walk through American political history. Then, some 10 miles west of town, you can stroll across the spot where a meteor crashed to earth some 20,000 to 30,000 years ago. The Odessa Meteor Crater marks the second largest meteor site in the United States.

Meteors and Marfa Lights. Mountains and metropolises. Stars-so-bright and awesome sights. Savor them all, sprinkled with the Southwestern flavor of Big Bend Country.

GENERAL—Established in 1882, is seat of Brewster County. Centrally located between the Davis and Glass Mountains and near Big Bend National Park, Alpine is a designated Texas Main Street city, and it is a retail center and shipping point for huge ranching area, headquarters for mining companies, and home of Sul Ross State Univ. There's also a historic downtown shopping district with several antique stores and art galleries to be found. Climate and location make town popular vacation area. Visitors enjoy golfing, mountain climbing, rock and mineral collecting, swimming, and camping amid spectacular vistas. During seasons, hunters take mule and white-tailed deer, pronghorn antelope, javelina, and upland game birds. Golfers find the public golf course a challenge year-round. Special events throughout the year include Texas Cowboy Poetry Gathering in February, Big Bend Balloon Bash (during Labor Day weekend), local and collegiate rodeo events, and much more. Bed and breakfast accommodations are offered in historic buildings.

For more information, visit Alpine at www.alpinetexas.com or call the Alpine Chamber of Commerce at 800/561-3735.

APACHE TRADING POST—Rustic log cabin and family oriented gift shop features Big Bend collectibles, books on the history and geology of the Big Bend, Mexico, and Indian heritage. It houses the largest selection of topographic maps and three-dimensional relief maps highlighting the mountains of West Texas.

Find out about the mysterious Marfa Lights in an eight-minute video shown continuously in the "Stars of Texas" room, filled with movie posters of films shot in the area, including "Giant." Meet Quicksilver Pete, a camera loving burro and Sasha, the Wonder Dog. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 6 p.m. On U.S. 90 three miles west of Alpine. 432/837-5506.

FINE ARTS—Several theatre groups offer seasonal productions, including the Theatre of the Big Bend, which offers musicals and dramas under the stars during the summer; 432/837-8220. Big Bend Players presents between four and six shows each year; call 432/837-2921 for more information. The theatre department at Sul Ross State University highlights student talent from September through May, and for details visit www.sulross.edu.

LAST FRONTIER MUSEUM—Small museum features rocks, gems, and minerals of the region. Located in the lobby of the Antelope Lodge at 2310 W. U.S. 90. Open seven days a week, 9 a.m. - 9 p.m.

SUL ROSS STATE UNIV. MUSEUM OF THE BIG BEND—For more than 70 years this museum has been collecting and exhibiting artifacts of the vast Big Bend region. Here, people have traveled and lived for over 11,000 years. Throughout that time, four distinct cultures emerged and shaped the history and heritage of the region. The exhibits capture this history and the contributions of the Native Americans, the Spanish, the Mexicans, and the Anglo-Americans. Visitors enjoy learning about yesterday in the Last Frontier of Texas. The museum is accessible to the disabled. Gift shop. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Free admission; donations accepted. 432/837-8143 or visit www.sulross.edu/~museum.

GENERAL—One of Texas' newest towns (incorporated in 1952); a two-state city. On Texas 20, which in this area follows historic route of El Camino Real, Spain's royal highway that connected Mexico with Texas, California, and Florida. In 1598 Don Juan de Oñate and a band of colonizers traveled this road to settle Santa Fe, at rate of only 40 miles in 15 days. Economy now keyed to food canning and packing, cotton, and federal correctional institution.

TRAVEL INFORMATION CENTER—In West Texas at the Texas-New Mexico state line on Interstate 10, one of the 12 Texas Travel Information Centers operated by the Texas Department of Transportation for the convenience of the traveling public. Uniformed, professional travel counselors welcome visitors and provide a wealth of free literature, information, and suggestions to make every Texas trip more pleasant.

Working with the Texas Official Travel Map, counselors expertly chart routes to any area of Texas. They point out the most convenient short-line directions, or leisurely scenic drives to your destination. They supply comprehensive statewide travel publications, plus detailed brochures about points of interest, attractions, and recreational areas along the way. All of those services are free. Open daily 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., but beginning the Friday before Memorial Day through Labor Day the center is open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

To speak to a professional travel counselor for travel information and trip planning assistance, call 800/452-9292 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. central time, daily. Travelers may also call for 24-hour automated road condition information and seasonal reports on locations of scenic spring wildflowers and fall foliage. 8799 South Desert Blvd. 915/886-3468, www.dot.state.tx.us.

WET 'N' WILD WATER WORLD—Water-oriented recreation park pumps a million gallons a day to provide "volcano" with water slides. Includes a lazy water tube float, barbecue restaurant, and picnic area. Open daily, May - Aug.; weekends in Sept. On I-10 near Texas Travel Information Center. Admission fee.

BIG BEND NATIONAL PARK AREA

Alt. 1,850-7,825

Map R-6/7

GENERAL—Big truly describes this area. The soaring peaks of the Davis and Chisos Mountains contrast with the deep canyons worn by the Rio Grande. The floor of the Chihuahuan Desert exhibits a wide variety of wildlife and vegetation that thrive in the desert climate.

The arrival of the railroad in the late 1800s brought opportunities for business and development. Today immense ranches dominate this scenic part of the state, but hardy communities offer a variety of recreation and entertainment facilities. Several museums document life in this area. Big Bend Area cities include Alpine, Lajitas, Marathon, Study Butte and Terlingua in Brewster County; Sanderson in Terrell County; Fort Davis in Jeff Davis County; and Marfa and Presidio in Presidio County. The combined counties cover 14,671.3 sq. miles.

Because of the vast distances between towns, be sure the gas tank is filled going to and from Big Bend National Park.

BIG BEND NATIONAL PARK—This huge park encompasses 801,163 acres of magnificent contrasts. Visitors can travel from the Rio Grande with its spectacular canyons and jungle-like floodplain up through Chihuahuan Desert, which constitutes majority of the park, to Chisos Mountains with cool woodlands. Its variation in elevation and temperature makes Big Bend an ideal year-round park. The desert areas are very challenging in the summer. The Chisos Basin is at an elevation of 5,400 feet and trails go higher from there, thus temperatures are relatively moderate even in summer with low humidity. The basin and higher Chisos offer backpacking, day hiking on numerous trails, wildlife watching, camping, hotels, restaurants, and ranger programs through the summer.

May and June temperatures in the Chisos Mountains can reach 95 degrees. With a diversity of Mexican and American plants, more than 1,200 plant types are found in the park. Animal life is just as varied. Desert wildlife is mostly nocturnal, but deer, coyotes, javelinas, gray fox, skunks, raccoons, and jackrabbits might be seen during the day. Lucky visitors might spot some of the rarer animals, such as ringtail, black bear, beaver, and mountain lion. More than 450 bird species have been identified—more than at any other national park.

One hundred million years ago, this area was ocean. And 65 million years ago, dinosaurs roamed the area.

It is a vast land that invites exploration, not a park that can be seen in just a few hours. More than 150 miles of trails range from short, easy nature walks to primitive trails for experienced hikers. More than 100 miles of paved roads and about 170 miles of dirt roads are in the park; check with any ranger for current conditions of all primitive, backcountry and graded roads before attempting travel.

A permit is required for all backcountry and primitive camping; also for all river users. Free permits may be obtained at park visitor centers.

Pet owners take note: Pets are not permitted on any trail and must be kept on leash at all times. In fact, pets aren't allowed outside developed areas: campgrounds and road sides. Also, because of wild animals roaming the park, do not leave any pet unattended, and because of extreme heat, do not leave pets locked in cars. It's best to leave your pets at home.

Rangers present walks and illustrated talks throughout the year.

Basic facilities in the park include visitor centers, post office, National Park Service campgrounds, a trailer park, store-gas stations, and a restaurant-gift shop-lodge in the Chisos Mountains Basin. Lodging is available in 58 motel-type rooms and eight lodge-type units, plus six more rustic cottages—all located in the Basin area of the park. Advance reservations are strongly advised throughout the year, especially around holidays and during spring break. Write Chisos Mountains Lodge, Basin Rural Station, Big Bend National Park, Texas 79834. Phone 432/477-2291.

For further information, write Superintendent, Big Bend National Park, Texas 79834, or call 432/477-2251.

Big Bend National Park Visitor Centers offer information, maps, literature, and exhibits about the area. Visitor center in lobby of Park Headquarters at Panther Junction open year-round, 8 a.m. - 6 p.m. Visitor centers in Chisos Basin, Persimmon Gap, and at Rio Grande Village open seasonally, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

The national park is accessible from Marathon via U.S. 385 (70 miles), from Alpine via Texas 118 (108 miles), and from Marfa/Presidio via U.S. 67 and F.M. 170 (156 miles). Admission fee.

BIG BEND BIRDING EXPEDITIONS—Headquartered at the Terlingua Ranch, guided tours take visitors to all parts of the area. Custom birding trips range from hiking to rafting along the Rio Grande, by mountain bike, by horseback, or by van into the back roads of the area. For information, call 888/531-2223 or 432/371-2356.

HALLIE'S HALL OF FAME MUSEUM—Houses mementos and relics found on the late Hallie Stillwell's ranch. Mrs. Stillwell's book, "I'll Gather My Geese," recalls her life as a teacher and rancher in and around the rugged national parklands. Nearby is Stillwell RV Park and Store. Just north of Big Bend to F.M. 2627, then east to the facilities. 432/376-2244.

RIO GRANDE FLOAT TRIPS—Licensed river outfitters in area towns provide one- to nine-day float trips through the remote canyons of the Rio Grande. Advanced reservations required for lengthy trips. For information, call Big Bend River Tours at 432/424-3219 or 800/545-4240; Far Flung Adventures, at 432/371-2489 or 800/359-4138 (visit www.farflung.com); Rio Grande Adventures at 432/371-2567 or 800/343-1640; Texas River Expeditions, 432/371-2633 or 800/839-7238 (visit www.texasriver.com); and Scott Shuttle Service Canoe & Float Rental at 800/613-5041.

SCENIC DRIVES—A 74-mile loop through the Davis Mountains (from and back to Fort Davis) leads to a host of choice mountain landscapes. Two miles south on Texas 17 take Texas 166 west to intersection with Texas 118, then south-east back to Texas 17 and Fort Davis. Features include nine scenic roadside parks, Mount Locke topped by McDonald Observatory, beautiful Madera Canyon, and Davis Mountains State Park.

El Camino del Rio, Spanish for “The River Road,” local name for F.M. 170 that stretches from Lajitas northwest to Presidio and beyond. An excellent paved route, it’s one of the most spectacular drives in Texas, plunging down mountains and through canyons along the sun-drenched Rio Grande. Drivers are cautioned that the route encounters steep grades (15 percent), sharp curves, occasional loose livestock, and low-water crossings; special alert for large RVs or vehicles pulling large trailers.

GENERAL—Del Rio bills itself as “The Best of the Border.” It is the seat of Val Verde (green valley) County with more than 3,000 square miles. Agriculture includes cattle ranching, extensive production of sheep, lambs, wool, and mohair from Angora goats. Abundant hunting for white-tailed deer, wild turkey, javelina, dove and quail. Fishing, boating and water sports on Amistad Reservoir. Home of Southwest Texas Jr. College and Sul Ross State Univ. Rio Grande College.

With some 400 archaeological sites, area is among nation’s richest in aboriginal cave paintings. See Amistad Recreation Areas below, and Seminole Canyon State Park, LANGTRY.

Local transportation makes it easy to visit Mexico just across the border. Regularly scheduled crossings throughout the day to Ciudad Acuña, see below.

For complete visitor details, maps, brochures and Mexico information, visit the Del Rio Chamber of Commerce, 1915 Ave. F; open weekdays 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.; 830/775-3551 or visit www.drchamber.com. 800/889-8149.

CIUDAD ACUÑA, MEXICO—City across Rio Grande from Del Rio. Intriguing night spots, restaurants, fascinating shops offering decorative wrought iron, jewelry, woven goods, leather craft, pottery and souvenirs.

DEVILS RIVER STATE NATURAL AREA—A remote and picturesque 20,000-acre preserve at the ecological junction of the Chihuahuan Desert, the Hill Country and the Tamaulipan Brushlands of northern Mexico. The terrain is dry and treeless but the nearby Devils River springs provide sufficient moisture for groves of pecans, sycamores and live oaks. Open by reservation only. Bring all necessary food, water, gas and other supplies. Admission fee. 830/395-2133.

LAKE—Amistad Reservoir. See LAKES listing.

SAN FELIPE SPRINGS AND MOORE PARK—Lush oasis in semiarid setting, springs were important watering stop on historic Chihuahua Road that connected Texas port of Indianola with Chihuahua City, Mexico. Springs flow some 90 million gallons of clear pure water daily. San Felipe Country Club golf course (semiprivate) surrounds springs, and Moore Park provides a large swimming pool.

VAL VERDE WINERY—Family enterprise in its fourth generation, founded in 1883 by Italian immigrants. Grapes had been grown in the area since 1825, but other varieties from Spain, America and Mexico were introduced. Still operated by the family, the winery welcomes visitors during regular business hours. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Access via Pecan St. south.

WALKING TOUR—Visit downtown area of historic buildings, churches and homes dating from the 1800s, including the 1887 courthouse. Also ancient acequia system (irrigation canals) still in use. Walking tour brochure available from the chamber of commerce.

WHITEHEAD MEMORIAL MUSEUM—Dedicated to life and legends of frontier Southwest, museum includes rustic structure that was early trading post serving both Texas and Mexico. Plan at least two hours to roam through the 2 1/2-acre and 13 exhibit sites. Judge Roy Bean (see LANGTRY) and his son are buried on museum grounds. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. 1308 S. Main St. For information, call 830/774-7568. Admission fee.

MISSION TRAIL—El Paso's Lower Valley is site of several graceful old Spanish missions that are older than the better-known missions of California. For more information, call 915/534-0677 or visit www.missiontrail.com. Open daily, daylight hours, tour mapped by El Paso Convention & Visitors Bureau includes the following:

Nuestra Señora del Carmen, was established in 1681, and later dedicated Corpus Christi de la Ysleta, 1690; damaged by both floods and fires, but restored and maintained in original style and now familiarly called Ysleta Mission. Oldest mission in Texas, established for Tigua Indians. When founded, the mission pueblo was south of the Rio Grande, but has been left on the Texas side by changes in the river channel. Some mission land has been in constant cultivation since 1682, more than 300 years. 100 block of Old Pueblo Rd. (Zaragoza exit from I-10 east).

Cactus garden at Wilderness Park Museum, El Paso

Nuestra Señora de la Concepción del Socorro was established in 1682 as mission for Piro, Thanos, and James Indians. Originally located about 12 leagues from Guadalupe Mission at Paso del Norte and about 7.5 leagues from Ysleta. However, when a group of Indians threatened to revolt, mission moved to new location about one league from Ysleta Mission. Early 19th-century flood changed course of Rio Grande and left village and mission on Texas side. Present village of Socorro adjacent to southeast El Paso, F.M. 258 south.

San Elizario Presidio Chapel was founded 1777 to serve Spanish military garrison and government. Still in daily use, chapel stands as built 200 years ago, preserving a type of architecture that supplanted more austere styles of Ysleta and Socorro missions. Village of San Elizario served as El Paso County seat for years and was location of a presidio (fort) of the same name. F.M. 258 south.

NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM OF EL PASO—This museum, in association with the Texas Museum of History, features more than 300 exhibits spanning the wonders of the universe, the progression of life on earth, and the dawn of civilization. Open Sat. and Sun. 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. At 9348 Dyer St. in Northgate Center. For information, call 915/545-4257.

PARKS—Many parks, plus Franklin Mountains State Park, are popular picnic areas. During year, a variety of stage productions are presented in an amphitheater in McKelligon Canyon Park.

SAN JACINTO PLAZA—It's the original historic city square and park, right in the heart of downtown. The plaza features a fiberglass sculpture, "Plaza de los Lagartos," by sculptor Luis Jiménez depicting the alligators that used to call San Jacinto Plaza their home.

SCENIC DRIVES—Scenic Drive traces a winding course on southern flank of Mount Franklin above downtown El Paso, with view of Juárez across the river. Reached from Richmond St. on the east, from Rim Rd. on the west.

El Paso is "V" shaped, divided by imposing steep slopes of Franklin Mountains. Connecting top ends of "V" is Loop 375 (Transmountain Road) that climbs through mile-high Smugglers Gap with impressive views of rugged mountain-desert scenery. Accessible from I-10 northwest of city and from U.S. 54 northeast.

SIERRA DE CRISTO REY—The Mountain of Christ the King looms above El Paso at point where territories of Texas, Mexico, and New Mexico meet. Prominent on the 4,576-foot summit is a massive monument of Christ on the Cross by artist Urbici Soler, built of Cordova cream limestone quarried near Austin. Not recommended to climb except during Pilgrimage last Sun. in Oct.

TIGUA INDIAN RESERVATION: YSLETA DEL SUR PUEBLO—Oldest community in present boundaries of Texas, now part of the city of El Paso, was established in 1681 by refugees from a bloody uprising that expelled Spanish and Christian Indians from present New Mexico. Spanish missionaries and loyal Tigua Indians settled here at El Paso del Norte and built Ysleta Mission. The mission church is still the religious focal point of the Tigua Indian community.

The Ysleta del Sur Pueblo Cultural Center is owned and operated by the Tigua Indians. It features a museum, gift shop, Indian social dancing, the Cacique Cafe, and delicious, fresh Indian bread. Open Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sat., Sun. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. At 305 Yaya Lane (off Socorro Rd.). For information, call 915/859-7913.

TRAVEL INFORMATION CENTER—I-10 west. See ANTHONY.

VIVA! EL PASO—Outdoor drama that captures the culture and heritage of the Southwest. Spectacular Franklin Mountains serve as a backdrop at open-air McKelligon Canyon Amphitheater. Traces El Paso's history through four eras: Indian, Spanish, Mexican, and Western. Thurs. - Sat. performances Jun. - Aug.

Shakespeare-on-the-Rocks features four of the Bard's best-known works each weekend during Sept. Optional Renaissance-style dinner and backstage tours available. For information, call El Paso Association for the Performing Arts 800/915-VIVA, or visit www.viva-ep.org.

WESTERN PLAYLAND—25-acre amusement park with dozens of rides, including the Splashdown Log Ride and El Bandito Roller Coaster. Games, shops, and foods. Open Mar. - May, Fri. 7 - 11 p.m., Sat., Sun. 2 - 10 p.m.; June - Aug., Mon. - Fri. 7 - 11 p.m., Sat., Sun. 2 - 11 p.m.; Sept. - Oct., Sat., Sun. 2 - 8 p.m. On landscaped grounds adjacent to lake in Ascarate Park, 6 mi. east of city off I-10; Trowbridge Exit, south to Delta Rd. Admission fee.

WET 'N WILD WATER WORLD—37 acres of good clean family fun, with 24 water attractions, including a six-story tall water slide and wave pool. Restaurants, locker rooms and reserved group areas. I-10 at Anthony Exit "O." Open every day through summer. Admission fee. 915/886-2222.

WILDERNESS PARK MUSEUM—Dioramas depict ancient Indian tribes of the Southwest, their survival in the desert, and life to a changing environment. Also nature trail and native plants. Open Tues. - Sun. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; 3401 Transmountain Rd. (Loop 375). For information, call 915/755-4332. Admission fee.

WYLER AERIAL TRAMWAY STATE PARK—Get an eagle-eye's view of seven-thousand miles of Southwestern natural beauty from atop Ranger Peak in El Paso's Franklin Mountains. Upon reaching the top at 5,632 feet, sky-travelers spot the Hueco Mountains, New Mexico's white sands and Mexico. Open Thursday through Monday. Extended hours on weekends. Admission fee. 915/566-6622.

Map O-6

GENERAL—Fort Davis was established and grew under protection of U.S. Army post of the same name that was founded in 1854 at crossroads of famous Chihuahua Trail and Butterfield Overland Mail Route. The city has served as county seat of Presidio County and later Jeff Davis County created largely from Presidio. Altitude and climate make it a popular tourist and camping area. The Prude Guest Ranch is popular for meetings and vacations. Horseback riding, hayrides, chuck-wagon cookouts, and more; for information/reservations call 800/458-6232.

Additional information on accommodations, events, and dining may be obtained from the chamber of commerce by calling 432/426-3015 or 800/524-3015. Also visit www.fortdavis.com.

CHIHUAHUA DESERT VISITOR CENTER—A natural area owned and managed by the Chihuahuan Desert Research Institute for scientific research and education. The facility includes an arboretum comprised of plants native to the Chihuahuan Desert Region and a cactus greenhouse. Modesta Canyon Trail is a self-guided nature trail to Modesta Springs, and Clayton Overlook is the highest point on the property. Signs along the trail point out geologic formations and give facts about plants and animals. Visitors to Clayton Overlook are almost always rewarded with a glimpse of aoudad sheep from the southwest slope of the mountain. Open April 1st - Labor Day Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat. and Sun. 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. The rest of the year the center is open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. On Texas 118, 3.5 mi. south. For information, call 432/364-2499.

rooms, nature study, hiking. Six miles west of Fort Davis; Texas 118, Park Road 3. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

FORT DAVIS NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE—When pioneers and gold seekers surged west in the mid-1800s, national concern focused on secure travel routes. In Texas, nearly 600 miles of wilderness stretched between San Antonio and El Paso. Throughout the distance, wagon travelers fell prey to some fiercely hostile Native American tribes. Fort Davis, established in 1854, was the first military post to guard the route and offer haven by the precious waters of Limpia Creek.

But the trauma of the Civil War stripped the frontier of military protection, and little of value remained when federal troops returned to Fort Davis in 1867. New construction eventually produced substantial rock and adobe buildings that housed up to 12 companies of cavalry and infantry. Post-war troopers were black "buffalo soldiers," many of them former slaves from Southern plantations.

As the western movement resumed, troopers patrolled the long immigrant road, escorted mail and wagon trains, and mounted wide-ranging expeditions into the vast wilderness territory. After years of conflict, peace and civilian settlement finally came to the frontier. With the bluecoats no longer needed, Fort Davis was deactivated in 1891.

Operated by the National Park Service, Fort Davis today is a superb example of frontier forts from that epic era, including both ruins and restorations. A museum, open daily in reconstructed barracks, vividly interprets frontier military life.

Another feature is a sound re-creation of a 19th-century military parade—bugles and hoofbeats...the clank and jangle of mounted troops...music from band manuals of 1875. Echoing over the empty parade ground, it is a haunting fragment of the past.

Open daily 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. except national holidays. On the northern edge of town. From I-10 on the north, or U.S. 90 from the south, the site can be reached by Texas 17 and Texas 118. Admission fee.

HISTORIC INN—Hotel Limpia—Restored country inn, c. 1912; sturdy, turn-of-the-century oak furniture, second-story veranda and glassed-in sunporch with rattan rockers; Boarding House restaurant. Two other restored buildings, plus cottage; 20 rooms, 12 suites. Hotel Limpia Dining Rooms include the Sutter's Club. On the town square in Fort Davis. For information, call 432/426-3237 or 800/662-5517.

INDIAN LODGE STATE PARK—On the slopes of the Davis Mountains, this rustic inn was built in the 1930s and modeled after Southwestern Indian pueblos. This full-service hotel offers mountain views, Southwestern decor, air-conditioned rooms with color cable TV and telephones. Hike the Davis Mountains, visit the Fort Davis National Historic Site, relax by the swimming pool and have meals at the Black Bear Restaurant. Admission fee. 432/426-3254.

NEILL MUSEUM—Antique toys made in Texas, 300 antique dolls, bottles, and furniture. In historic 1898 Truehart House seven blocks west of courthouse. Museum open June - Labor Day daily 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Admission fee. Also two rooms bed-and-breakfast with antique furniture; year-round. 432/426-3969 and 426-3838.

OVERLAND TRAIL MUSEUM—Named for historic trail that once passed its front door, small museum was former home, office and shop of Nick Mersfelter, early resident who was justice of the peace, barber, and area music master. Austrian-born Mersfelter could play almost any instrument, was once member of San Antonio Philharmonic Orchestra. Pioneer ranch, trail, and law enforcement artifacts. Open Wed. - Sun. afternoons in summer; admission fee.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS McDONALD OBSERVATORY AT MOUNT LOCKE—Built in 1932 following bequest from William J. McDonald, amateur astronomer. On 6,791-foot peak of Mount Locke. Site selected because of clear air, high ratio of cloudless nights, distance from concentrations of artificial lights, and dust-and radiation-filtering growths of shrubs and timber. Original instrument was 82-inch reflector; 107-inch reflector is in larger dome.

The Hobby-Eberly Telescope (HET), the third largest in the world, was designed to specialize in spectroscopy, the technique astronomers use to break down light into its component wavelengths. The telescope was built and is owned by a consortium of five universities: The Univ. of Texas at Austin; The Pennsylvania State Univ.; Stanford Univ.; Ludwig-Maximilians Univ. of Munich, Germany; and Georg-August Univ. of Goettingen, Germany. The HET is connected to the George T. Abell Gallery. Interpretive programs in the Abell Gallery highlight the HET's design and purpose. Free self-guided tour of the Abell Gallery. A more extensive guided tour of the HET is available with admission fee. For those driving recreation vehicles, limited-seating shuttle service is available from the Visitors Center for guided tours only.

The Visitors Center, at the foot of Mount Locke, is open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Solar viewings are presented daily at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. General admission fee required for the solar viewing and entrance to new Decoding Starlight exhibit at the Visitors Center. Guided tours (fee) of the large telescopes are at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. daily and also includes the solar viewing and exhibit admission. Each Tues., Fri. and Sat. evening, the center conducts "Star Parties" for the general public, with viewing of stars and planets through telescopes set up by the observatory. An alternate program will be conducted in the event of inclement weather. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day. The observatory is 16 miles northwest via Texas 118, Spur 78.

Once a month, visitors can view celestial objects through 107-inch telescope by making reservation with visitor center. (Very popular and sometimes booked months in advance.) Fee charged for large telescope viewing. 432/426-3640 or visit <http://McDonaldObservatory.org>.

FORT STOCKTON

Pop. 7,846 Alt. 2,954 Map O-7

GENERAL—Town developed with establishment of military post in 1859, an outpost on Butterfield Overland Mail Route at crossing of Old San Antonio Road and ancient Comanche War Trail. Popular with Native Americans long before white men arrived because of large springs nearby. Area was one of earliest irrigated farming efforts in Texas; some 8,000 acres irrigated as early as 1877. Today seat of Pecos County, retail and shipping headquarters for vast ranching, natural gas and oil activities, and major West Texas crossroads. Hunting excellent for mule deer and pronghorn antelope.

ANNIE RIGGS HOTEL MUSEUM—The old hotel, built in 1899, was built on this stage route. Restored and maintained by local historical society. 14 rooms display area collections; 19th-century clothing, photography, Indian artifacts, cowboy regalia, kitchen utensils, geology, archeology and religion. Open daily Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; extended hours in summer. 301 S. Main St.; 432/336-2167. Admission fee.

COMANCHE SPRINGS—Once among largest springs in Texas, now site of Olympic-sized swimming pool.

COURTHOUSE SQUARE—Historic features include courthouse (1883), first Catholic Church (1875), first schoolhouse (1883), and Zero Stone placed by survey party in 1859, used as origin point for all land surveys in this part of West Texas. Nearby St. Stephens Episcopal Church (1872), was first Protestant Church west of the Pecos River.

HISTORIC FORT STOCKTON—Typical frontier military post established 1858 as Camp Stockton; abandoned in 1886. Fort consisted of 35 buildings made of adobe and hand-hewn limestone. Four original buildings remain: Three of the eight officers' quarters, and guardhouse with jailer's quarters, three solitary confinement cells, and a larger holding cell. Some of the other buildings reconstructed. Open Mon. - Sat., 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. and 2 - 5 p.m.; admission fee. 300 E. 3rd; 432/336-2400.

HISTORICAL SITES TOUR—A series of special signs on city streets provide guidance for do-it-yourself tour of historic sites. Historical notations date from days of Cabeza de Vaca's explorations, 1534, and other explorers such as Espejo in 1583, Mendoza in 1684. Friendly citizens will fill in details.

JAMES ROONEY COUNTY PARK—Green and spacious park on southern edge of city at historic Comanche Springs. Swimming, picnicking and tennis courts.

J. GRIFIS SMITH/XPOT

McDonald Observatory at Mount Locke near Fort Davis

LAKE—Imperial Reservoir. See LAKES listing.

OLD FORT CEMETERY—Records on existing tombstones indicate few people lived beyond age 40; indication of hardships among those who opened and settled this harsh country.

PAISANO PETE—At 20 feet long and 11 feet tall, Pete is probably the world's largest roadrunner. A popular photo subject. U.S. 290 at Main St.

TUNIS CREEK STAGECOACH STOP—Former way station on Butterfield Overland Mail Route; later a Texas Ranger station. Historic structure was moved to a highway rest area on U.S. 290, 20 miles east. Original location was approximately two miles south.

VISITOR INFORMATION CENTER—For information on dining, accommodations, events, and other area information, stop by the center at I-10 and U.S. 285. The center also offers Roadrunner Bus Tours Mon. - Fri. at 1 and 4 p.m.; Sat. - Sun. at 2 p.m. The tour covers 16 points of interest. Or, drive the tour with map and cassette tape. Open Labor Day to May 11 a.m. - 6 p.m.; summer 10 a.m. - 8 p.m. For information, call 432/336-8052

IRAAN

Pop. 1,238 Alt. 2,200 Map O-9

GENERAL—With 1928 discovery of oil, town exploded into existence of hastily constructed frame buildings and tents. Name, chosen in a contest, combines names of the townsite owners, Ira and Ann Yates.

CITY PARK—40-acre park adjacent to Fantasyland. Picnicking, grills, swimming pool, camping.

DISCOVERY WELL A NO. 1—Gusher blew in more than half-century ago, remains one of largest producing oil wells in North America. Tremendous jet of oil sprayed tent city four miles away. Historical marker in city park gives details.

FANTASYLAND—Alley Oop, comic strip caveman, was created by V.T. Hamlin while he lived in Iraan. Visitors can see Alley Oop and Dinny in gigantic figures in the 7.2-acre park. On U.S. 190.

IRAAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM—Located in Fantasyland Park, museum features excellent fossil exhibits, plus Indian artifacts, ranching antiquities, and oil field relics. Open Apr. 1 - Sept. 1, Wed. - Sun. 2 - 6 p.m.

SCENIC DRIVE—U.S. 190 offers views of rugged terrain as you drive through scenic mesas.

Map Q-10

GENERAL—In deep Southwest Texas by the Rio Grande, the village was established 1881 when Galveston, Harrisburg, and San Antonio Railway was building through; was junction of construction from east and west. Two origins of town's name exist; one prosaic, the other romantic. One credits town name to a civil engineer named Langtry who directed a group of Chinese laborers in railroad construction. But colorful Judge Roy Bean insisted he named town after his idol, English actress Lillie Langtry, the "Jersey Lilly."

Primitive camping is available along the Devil's River at Baker's Crossing. For information, write HC 69, Box 200, Comstock, TX 78837, or call 432/292-4503.

JUDGE ROY BEAN VISITOR CENTER—In Southwest Texas on U.S. 90 West, 60 miles west of Del Rio, one of the 12 Texas Travel Information Centers operated by the Texas Department of Transportation for the convenience of the traveling public. Features rustic saloon, courtroom and billiard hall and the opera house of Judge Roy Bean, the colorful and controversial "Law West of the Pecos" in 1880s. The center preserves historic site where Judge Bean ruled with high-handed, but appropriate brand of homespun law, outrageous humor and six-shooter justice.

Adjacent modern visitor center interprets highlights of Judge Bean's career in "The Magic of Pepper's Ghost Revealed" where dioramas come to life with live historic re-enactments in miniature stages. The "ghost-like" characters recall events during Bean's tenure as judge.

Uniformed, professional travel counselors welcome visitors and provide a wealth of free literature, information, and suggestions to make every Texas trip more pleasant. Working with the Texas Official Travel Map, counselors expertly chart routes to any area of Texas. They point out the most convenient short-line directions, or leisurely scenic drives to your destination. They supply comprehensive statewide travel publications, plus detailed brochures about points of interest, attractions, and recreational areas along the way. All of those services are free. Open daily 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., but beginning the Friday before Memorial Day through Labor Day the center is open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

To speak to a professional travel counselor for travel information and trip planning assistance, call 800/452-9292 from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. central time, daily. Travelers may also call for 24-hour automated road condition information and seasonal reports on locations of scenic spring wildflowers and fall foliage. U.S. 90 West/State Loop 25 at Torres Avenue. 432/291-3340. www.dot.state.tx.us.

SCENIC OVERLOOK—U.S. 90 spans arid, primitive land little changed since pioneers first made their way across it in creaking wagons. One of the most formidable barriers to early-day travel—and civilization—was the precipitous canyon of the Pecos River. Modern travelers can pause and picnic in roadside park by U.S. 90 on east rim of canyon, about 18 miles east of Langtry. View is spectacular and provides insight into difficulties faced by pioneers who had to negotiate crossing without a bridge of any kind.

SEMINOLE CANYON STATE PARK AND HISTORIC SITE—Guided hiking tours (strenuous) Wed. - Sun. at 10 a.m. & 3 p.m. to Fate Bell Shelter where 4,000-year-old rock art may be seen; visitor center houses displays of early man and area history. Remainder of park open daily; campsites and picnicking. Note: Call park for public hunt dates. On U.S. 90, 20 miles east. Admission fee. 432/292-4464.

GENERAL—Marathon's name was suggested by sea captain who said the area reminded him of Marathon, Greece. Once a cattle and mining shipment center in its heyday, today the town on U.S. 90 at the junction with U.S. 385 is a tourist crossroads, a major gateway to Big Bend National Park, and a headquarters for vast ranching activities. Visitors can catch glimpses of the town's colorful past at the Marathon Museum at N. Third St. and Ave. E, and the old Marathon Jail at S. Second St. and Ave. C. In Sept. the town hosts WestFest, complete with a cabrito cook-off, and the Fiesta de la Noche Buena takes place in early Dec. For more information about shopping, restaurants, lodging and more, call the Marathon Chamber of Commerce at 432/386-4516 or visit www.marathontx.net.

BLACK GAP WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREA—100,000 acres devoted to management study of native wildlife. Visitors welcome, though formal tours not available. Species include bobcat, mule deer, pronghorn antelope, javelina, fox, coyote and reintroduced desert bighorn sheep. Permit hunting and fishing in Rio Grande at specified times. Camping area for authorized hunters and fishermen only. South 55 miles via U.S. 385 and R.M. 2627.

GREAT MARATHON BASIN—Widely known geologic area noted for extensive surface outcroppings of varied rocks and minerals, popular with professional geologists and amateur rockhounds.

HISTORIC INN—Gage Hotel—Restored West Texas hotel of the 1920s, original pine floors and woodwork; utilitarian rooms (19) with ranch-style furnishings. Traditional Texas and Southwestern fare in restaurant. U.S. 90 in Marathon.

THE POST—Located 5 miles south of town on the Post Road lies what remains of old Fort Pena Colorado, built in 1879 to protect area residents from Indian raids. Natural springs feed a large pond, a feature that has made it an oasis for centuries. Abandoned in 1893, some of the foundations of the original structures can still be found. Today the site is a public park and a popular site for picnics and birdwatchers.

GENERAL—Marfa was established in 1881 as water stop of Texas and New Orleans Railroad. Today it is a trading point for many large ranches in surrounding mountains. Superb climate makes Marfa a popular tourist center. In season, hunters are attracted by plentiful mule deer and pronghorn antelope.

Check out the El Paisano Hotel. In 1955, it served as base of operations for filmmaker George Stevens while filming the movie "Giant."

Marfa Municipal Golf Course is the highest golf course in Texas, at 4,882 feet above sea level with nine holes, 18 tee boxes and bent greens. Visitors and locals enjoy golfing in the clear, dry mountain air.

For more information on the Marfa area, contact the chamber of commerce at 432/729-4942.

CHINATI FOUNDATION/LA FUNDACION CHINATI—Contemporary art museum founded by the late artist Donald Judd, dedicated to the creation and preservation of permanent installations of large-scale works or large groups of work by a small number of artists, located on 340-acre site of the former Fort D.A. Russell. Guided tours available every Thursday through Sunday starting at 10 a.m. Tours also available on Tuesdays and Wednesday by appointment only, by calling the museum office at 432/729-4362 at least one week in advance. 1 Calvary Row just off Route 67 south of Marfa.

MARFA MYSTERY LIGHTS VIEWING CENTER—First reported by early settlers in 1883, the mysterious lights still defy explanation. The new viewing center, expanded to eight acres, features a viewing deck, rest room facilities, information about the Marfa Lights, local flora and fauna and more. Located about 8 miles east of Marfa on U.S. 67/90.

McCAMEY

GENERAL—Before 1925, only a lone boxcar occasionally stood on siding at this featureless site. Then an oil driller named McCamey hit a gusher. In less than a year, McCamey was brawling boom town of 10,000 housed in tents and hastily constructed buildings. Much quieted, McCamey today is still a center of oil activity and is a livestock shipping point for surrounding ranches. In addition, a growing number of wind turbine generators on the surrounding mesas make McCamey the wind energy capital of Texas.

MENDOZA TRAIL MUSEUM—Exhibits include relics of this recent frontier: Indian artifacts, fossils, mementos of oil boom, antique furniture. Also on museum grounds are historic Adrian House, and Santa Fe RR depot. Open Mon., Wed. & Thurs., 1 - 5 p.m.; Tues. 1 - 4 p.m. On U.S. 67 east. 432/652-3192.

SANTA FE PARK—Large pecan and elm trees, rare in this region, shade picnic areas and grassy playground. At east city limits of McCamey on U.S. 67. Free overnight parking is available behind the museum.

GENERAL—Both Odessa and Midland can proclaim, "George Bush Lived Here." George H.W. & Barbara Bush brought their young family to Odessa in 1947 where they lived in three locations, then moved to Midland to continue working in the oil & gas industry. George W. & Laura Bush claim Midland as home and continue to have close ties today.

Midland and Odessa were established in the late 1800s as water stops for the railroad and became hubs for farming and ranching until oil was discovered in the 1920s. The area, known as the Permian Basin, contains tremendous quantities of natural gas and oil. Farming and ranching were the main sources of income until the discovery of oil in the 1920s when they became headquarters for the vast petroleum industry in the Permian Basin. Today, both cities remain active in the oil and gas business, but diversification efforts are going strong. Manufacturing, industrial services, educational and medical facilities are all important aspects of the local economy.

Geographically, Odessa and Midland are located approximately midway between Ft. Worth and El Paso on Interstate 20, a main east/west route. U.S. 385, a main north/south route, provides for excellent transportation into Odessa, while U.S. 349 provides easy north/south access to Midland. Rail service is supplied by the Union Pacific Railroad and offers reliable access to all major U.S. markets. Midland International Airport, located approximately halfway between Odessa and Midland, is the ninth largest airport in Texas, and provides service on American Eagle, Continental, and Southwest Airlines.

Through "booms" and "busts," the cities have grown and developed with high-rise buildings, a strong educational system, economic diversification and dedication to the fine arts. Education is a priority with the University of Texas of the Permian Basin, Texas Tech Health Sciences Center and two community colleges, Odessa College and Midland College. From community theatre to historic buildings and museums, from Jackalopes Professional Hockey to RockHounds AA Baseball you'll find it all in Odessa-Midland.

For additional information on events, accommodations, or dining facilities, contact the Odessa Convention & Visitors Bureau at 800/780-4678. The Midland Convention & Visitors Bureau can be contacted at 800/624-6435.

AMERICAN AIRPOWER HERITAGE MUSEUM AND COMMEMORATIVE AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS

—After World War II, a handful of former service pilots put their wartime flying experience to use as crop-duster pilots in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. But when a group of them paid $2,500 for a surplus P-51D Mustang in 1957, the seed was planted for the growth of the nation's finest and most complete collection of flyable WWII combat aircraft.

When these dedicated pilots found that virtually all of the nearly 300,000 aircraft that had been produced during the war had been destroyed, they vowed to try to preserve at least one of each type so that future generations would understand and appreciate the importance and accomplishments of American airpower.

The museum remains dedicated to acquisition, restoration and preservation in flying condition of these vintage military aircraft. The CAF maintains an impressive array of World War II planes including foreign aircraft. The museum also owns the world's largest collection of aviation nose art, now housed in a new, 6,000-square foot gallery featuring 33 original nose art panels. Major flying demonstration is "Airsho," usually held the first full weekend in October.

Approximately 14-20 of the 142 aircraft in the CAF are on display at any one time, with different aircraft quarterly. On display could be combat stalwarts such as P-40 Warhawk, P-47 Thunderbolt, P-51 Mustang, P-39 Aircobra, P-63 King Cobra, P-82 Twin Mustang, F4F Wildcat, F6F Hellcat, F8F Bearcat, F4U Corsair, and German Heinkel HE-111. Other flyable planes include B-24 Liberator, B-17 Flying Fortress, B-29 Superfortress, A-26 Invader, B-25 Mitchell, C-47 Skytrain, and several trainers.

Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. and holidays noon - 5 p.m. (closed Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day) at Midland International Airport, on I-20 Business Route. 432/563-1000, or visit www.airpowermuseum.org. Admission fee.

ODESSA METEOR CRATER AND MUSEUM, THE—The Odessa Crater was formed in prehistoric times when a shower of nickel-iron meteorites collided with the earth. The crater, the second largest in the nation, is approximately 550 feet in diameter and was originally 100 feet deep. Over the centuries, desert winds silted the crater almost level with the surrounding plains. It now appears as a shallow, nearly circular depression surrounded by a low, rock-butressed rim. The site was not identified as a meteor crater until the 1920s. A 5,000 square-foot museum and visitors center opened in February 2002. It has exhibits on meteorites, tektites, meteorite impact products, as well as historical videos and related items of interest with an emphasis on material from outer space. The museum hours are Tues. - Sat., 9 a.m. - 6 p.m., Sun. 1 - 6 p.m. Self-guided tours of the crater are available every day from 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Just west of Odessa off I-20, exit 108, follow signs to crater site. ODESSA PARKS—More than 30 parks in Odessa offer a wide variety of activities such as softball, tennis, swimming, playgrounds and walking trails year-round. Notable parks include McKinney Park with huge lighted Christmas holiday displays; barrier-free Progressive Park, designed to meet the needs of disabled children; and Noël Heritage Plaza, which hosts numerous outdoor cultural events throughout the year and a beautiful display of Christmas lights during the holiday. Memorial Gardens is a tribute to the original pioneer families who settled this area and includes a paved walking trail. Comanche Trails Park encompasses 160 acres with a 3.5-mile paved trail system that features a playground, baseball and soccer fields, and more. The University of Texas of the Permian Basin features a naturally landscaped walking trail. For more information, call the Odessa Parks & Recreation Department at 432/368-3548.

PARKER HOUSE MUSEUM—This historic home, completed in 1935, was owned by Jim and Bessie Parker and was headquarters for their ranching operations, which eventually encompassed some 175 sections in Andrews and Ector counties, including two sections east of the Odessa townsite. The house has been restored and features the life and times of the Parker Family from the 1930s to the 1950s. Gallery rooms upstairs feature changing historical exhibits. Open Wed.-Sat., 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. Donations accepted. At 1118 Maple St. in Odessa. 432/335-9918.

PERMIAN BASIN PETROLEUM MUSEUM, LIBRARY AND HALL OF FAME—The museum's variety of collections, exhibits and interpretation of the oil industry make it an outstanding visitor site. Historical highlights include thousand-year-old reed mats and woven fiber articles from the area's prehistoric population; superb historical paintings; cowboy tack and early railroad artifacts. Petroleum exhibits include great historic photos of early boom-town activities; fascinating well-drilling techniques in paintings, models and hardware; 3-D models of oil strata; geological AV shows and the story of oil formation; actual oil-well cores from deep underground. Step back 230 million years and walk 30 feet "under water" in a Permian-age sea. Stand amid a wrecked drilling rig and experience a simulated wild well blowout. Experience transportation history as you view the Jim Hall Chaparral racecars displayed in the new transportation wing. Rarely seen by the public, these racecars were instrumental in the development of technology still used in racing today. Outside you can find a large collection of antique oil drilling rigs and equipment as well. This museum also features the largest collection in the nation of Tom Lovell works. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 2 - 5 p.m. at 1500 I-20 west, exit 136 in Midland. 432/683-4403. Admission fee.

Located at the Midland International Airport.

THE PERMIAN PLAYHOUSE—The only community theater in Texas that has competed and won the privilege to perform at the state Theatre Festival since 1983. For more than 40 years, the Permian Playhouse has been enriching the lives of West Texas residents with music, dance, drama, suspense, tears and laughter. The Kaleidoscope Company, a group comprised of young people in grades 7-12, present a season of four shows. 310 West 42nd St. in Odessa.

Admission fee. For performance dates and times call 432/550-5456.

PLISKA AIRPLANE—John V. Pliska, born in Tync, Austria, came to Texas with his parents in 1897 and settled in Flatonia. In 1903 he started on a trip to Mexico by train. When the train stopped in Midland, he got off to look over the local blacksmith shop. Pliska was hired as a blacksmith and became the first person in Midland County to become a U.S. naturalized citizen. Fascinated by airplanes, Pliska planned to build one and by 1909 had started gathering materials. In 1911, a Wright Brothers Model B plane landed in Midland on a cross-country flight. Pliska viewed it and began to build his own plane along with Gary Coggin, a local auto mechanic. Pliska flew his plane in 1912. Pliska's flying machine can be viewed daily in the Midland International Airport lobby. 432/560-2200.

GENERAL—Spanish explorers crossed area of present Ward County more than 400 years ago, but it remained undisturbed habitat of Native Americans until mid-1800s. City established about 1881 as stop on Texas and Pacific Railroad, building west from Fort Worth. County seat, today a financial and marketing center for more than 800 square miles of cattle and oil country.

Oil wells, drilled at a distance from the downtown area, are slanted to draw oil from beneath city hall, courthouse, banks and business houses.

LAKE—Imperial Reservoir. See LAKES listing.

MILLION BARREL MUSEUM—Built in 1928 as oil-storage facility, huge tank was abandoned due to leakage. Converted in 1987 to museum featuring relocated and restored Holman House that served as hotel at terminus of Monahans-Fort Stockton Stage Line early in 20th century. Period furnishings. Also on site is first Ward County jail, display of antique oil field equipment and amphitheater. Open daily. On U.S. 80, 1.5 mi. east of city.

MONAHANS SANDHILLS STATE PARK—4,000 acres of wind-sculptured sand dunes like classical landscape of the Sahara. Park has modern museum and interpretive center, picnicking, camping and sand surfing. Huge sandhills area, only part of which is in park, was formidable obstacle to pioneer travelers and wagon trains. Indians knew it better and frequently camped here because pure, fresh water could be found between certain dunes by scooping a trench in sand. Not apparent to eye is one of largest oak forests in nation, stretching across 40,000 acres of arid land. The "forest" is not apparent because mature trees (Havard oaks) are seldom more than three feet high, yet they send down roots

GENERAL—Established 1881 as stop on Texas and Pacific Railroad, Pecos gained early fame as hangout for rowdy cowboys and fast-draw lawmen. Touted as "Home of World's First Rodeo," Pecos was scene of cowboy contest in 1883 that was forerunner of today's popular sport. (West of the Pecos Rodeo, 4th of July, re-enacts 1883 events.) Today, a hub of travel both east-west and north-south; commercial center for ranching, irrigated farming, produce processing, and oil production. Area hunting for mule deer, javelina, upland game birds. Visit the chamber of commerce, 111 S. Cedar St. (U.S. 285), for details or visit www.pecostx.com.

LAKES—Balmorhea and Red Bluff. See LAKES listing.

MAXEY PARK & ZOO—Among several species of animals are buffalo, Longhorns, deer, javelina, mountain lions, and antelope. Picnic area, a gazebo, and a botanical garden with regional flowers and shrubs are found in the park area. Also, "kid's city" playground for children of all ages. Full facility campground and RV park west of the park. On I-20 access road between U.S. 285 and Texas 17.

PECOS CANTALoupES—Grown in irrigated fields, luscious melon is the delight of gourmets throughout the United States. Quality derives from natural combination of alkaline soil, western sunlight and altitude. Pecos cantaloupes enjoy comparable status with Maine lobsters, French wines and Swiss cheeses. Harvested late July through Sept. with a festival held in late summer. For festival schedule, call 432/445-2406.

WEST-OF-THE-PECOS MUSEUM AND PARK—Celebrating its 42nd anniversary in 2005, museum occupies old saloon and three floors of historic hotel, once the area's finest. See restored ornate fixtures, accurate displays of life in the late 1800s, and site where two outlaws were gunned down by quick-draw bartender, Barney Riggs. Fifty rooms of exhibits showcase Pecos and West Texas history. Information on other Pecos attractions. Open Labor Day to Memorial Day, Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Memorial Day to Labor Day, Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. U.S. 285 and First St. For more information, call 432/445-5076. Admission fee.

PINE SPRINGS

Pop. 20 (est.) Alt. 5,634 Map L-4

GENERAL—The tiny community on U.S. 62/180 just south of the New Mexico state line was the location of a station on famous stagecoach run, Butterfield Overland Mail Route. Station was established in 1858; tumbled stone ruins and a granite historical marker are all that remain today.

GUADALUPE MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK—Dedicated 1972, the park contains 86,416 acres with elevations ranging from 3,650 to 8,749 feet at the summit of Guadalupe Peak, highest point in Texas. Four of the state's highest peaks are in the park, as well as many other unnamed peaks more than 8,000 feet, along with deep canyons and a rare mixture of plant and animal life. The barren, desert outer mountain slopes belie a wooded, game-rich interior of great scenic beauty. Forests of ponderosa pines mingle with aspens, maples, mountain junipers and madrones. Abundant deer and elk graze upland meadows.

Access to the park's rugged, majestic interior is by hiking and backpack camping along 80 miles of marked trails. The National Park Service advises that only experienced, well-equipped backpackers should enter the primitive back country for extended stays. Permits are required for overnight trips and camping is allowed in designated areas only. All should check in and out at the headquarters visitor center on U.S. 62/180 near Pine Springs. A natural history museum is in the 1870s Frijole Ranch House. Wildlife exhibits, slide program, and bookstore are in visitor center.

Visitors may drive near mouth of McKittrick Canyon, where easy hiking trails lead into enchanting scenery (day use only). A geology exhibit and slide program are at the McKittrick Canyon Visitor Center.

Tent and self-contained RV camping at Pine Springs campground near the ruins of historic "Pinery" stage station. Water, rest rooms, evening programs. Containerized fuel stoves (gasoline, propane, alcohol) only. On U.S. 62/180. Fee. 202/208-4747.

PRESIDIO

Pop. 4,167 Alt. 2,594 Map R-5

GENERAL—Town grew from early Spanish settlement once protected by a presidio (fort). Texas' most mountainous country, averaging more than 5,000 feet above sea level, with some spots above 8,000 feet. Home to the only legal border crossing between El Paso and Del Rio. Mexican town south of the river is Ojinaga.

BIG BEND RANCH STATE PARK—This state park has almost 300,000 acres in the Chihuahuan Desert wilderness encompassing desert, mountains, canyons, and the Rio Grande. Hiking, backpacking, nature study, river rafting, and canoeing available. Entrance and user fees. Visitors check in at Barton Warnock Environmental Education Center in Lajitas or Fort Leaton State Historic Site in Presidio. 800/792-1112.

FORT LEATON STATE HISTORIC SITE—One of Texas' most unusual historic sites, massive adobe fortress built by frontiersman Ben Leaton in 1848 immediately after Mexican War at strategic site on Chihuahua-San Antonio Trail in arid West Texas by the Rio Grande. Leaton cornered lucrative trade with area Native American tribes, supplied far-ranging U.S. Army patrols, and was accused of encouraging Indian raids on settlements in Mexico by trading weapons and ammunition for stolen livestock. Of more than 40 original rooms around large patio, 24 are architecturally restored and roofed with cottonwood vigas (beams) and rajas (split cottonwood), sheathed with adobe. Restoration, not yet complete, eventually will include frontier furnishings of living and guest quarters, dining room, kitchen, storerooms and grainary. Interpretive exhibits trace area history and culture; audio-visual program on desert ecology. Open daily 8 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., closed Dec. 25; 3 miles east of Presidio on F.M. 170; admission fee. (Daily, annual, restricted annual, annual group entrance permits and Parkland Passports are not valid.)

West-of-the-Pecos Museum in Pecos

RANKIN MUSEUM—Housed in historic Yates Hotel (c. 1927) built by oil tycoon Ira Yates; features restored lobby, original wicker furniture and ceiling fan, pioneer artifacts, meteorite believed to be fragment of the one whose crater can be seen between Odessa and Monahans, and restored 1940 Ford firetruck. Open Thurs. - Fri. 2 - 5 p.m.; Sat. 1 - 5 p.m. at 200 W. Fifth St.

SALT FLAT

Pop. 35 (est.) Alt. 3,715 Map L-4

GENERAL—Small community that grew near extensive surface salt deposits left by intermittent lakes in Hudspeth County just west of the Guadalupe Mountains. Area was focus of bloody dispute known as the Salt War in 1860s and '70s. Before the dispute reached a confused, tragic end, it had involved both Mexican and U.S. citizens, political parties, judges, legislators, mob action, army troops and Texas Rangers. Murder, assassination and revenge killings took place on both sides. Some of the gray-white salt deposits may be seen today from U.S. 62/180.

SANDERSON

Pop. 861 Alt. 2,980 Map P-8

GENERAL—Before relocating to Langtry, Judge Roy Bean disembarked at Sanderson's still-standing 1881 depot and attempted to start a saloon. Sensing competition, the established saloon owner poisoned Bean's whiskey barrels with kerosene, forever branding Sanderson as "the town too mean for Bean." Vestiges of its wild and wooly frontier beginnings abound, from the bank once robbed by the Wild Bunch to the old hotel and vaudeville theater that soon will re-open as the Big Bend Bucking Bullroom. Sanderson has the largest Cinco de Mayo celebration in far West Texas. Designated the "Cactus Capital of Texas" by the Texas State Legislature, the town celebrates the Prickly Pear Pachanga each Columbus Day weekend with food booths, border music, and everything cactus. For more information, visit the Terrell County Visitor Center in downtown Sanderson, call 432/345-2324 or visit www.sandersontx.org.

TERRELL COUNTY MEMORIAL MUSEUM—Ranch, railroad, community memorabilia and photographs. Open weekdays 10 a.m. - noon, 1 - 3 p.m. At 211 East Mansfield St.

VISITOR CENTER—Terrell County Visitor Center is located at U.S. 90 downtown. For more information call 432/345-2324 or visit www.sandersontx.org.

SIERRA BLANCA

Pop. 533 Alt. 4,512 Map N-3

GENERAL—Now on modern I-10 in far West Texas, town grew at juncture of the nation's second transcontinental rail route in 1881 (Southern Pacific and Texas & Pacific). Historical marker commemorates the event downtown at corner of Sierra Blanca Ave. and U.S. 80. Town named for Sierra Blanca Mountain (6,950 ft.) just northwest.

ADOBE COURTHOUSE—Under a neat white stucco sheath, the Hudspeth County Courthouse is the Southwest's only in-use governmental structure of adobe. It's a popular snapshot subject. A replica of old Fort Hancock is on display, the last fort built to protect against Native Americans (1882-1895).

RAILROAD DEPOT HUDSPETH COUNTY MUSEUM—In original Southern Pacific Depot building in 1882, which served both Southern Pacific and Texas & Pacific railroads. The building was moved a couple of blocks to present location near post office on U.S. 80. Exhibits include railroad memorabilia, Native American artifacts, and history of county. Also houses offices of local historical society. Open Wed. 1 - 5 p.m.

SCENIC DRIVE—F.M. 1111 north 43 miles to intersection with primary east-west route of U.S. 62/180. Generally flat ranching areas edged by mountains on the horizon. Profuse stands of giant yuccas growing 15 to 20 feet high. These desert "forests" are most spectacular in March and April when each stalk is topped by huge cluster of white blossoms.

SIERRA DIABLO RANCH—This working cattle ranch offers plenty of activities with Texas hospitality. You can relax, put your feet up, or saddle up and ride the range. The ranch also has three cattle drives a year. For information, call 800/986-9940 or visit www.sierradiablo.com. Take F.M. 1111 north to Big Tank Rd. and follow the signs.

STUDY BUTTE

GENERAL—Is in the wild, harsh region of the Big Bend and civilization came slowly. Rich deposits of mercury were discovered here about 1900, and the mining town of Study Butte (Stew-dy Beaut) came into being around the Big Bend Cinnabar Mine, managed by Will Study. But fame and progress, elusive as the quicksilver itself, faded as the mine became less and less profitable and was closed in the early 1940s. Today a few families live among old stone and adobe structures. Visitors pause to absorb silent impressions of a colorful past, and occasional rockhounds search tailing heaps for fragments of cinnabar, agate, and other colorful rocks.

GENERAL—In the 1800s, the area around Terlingua was inhabited by a few scattered Mexican herders, living in a precarious relationship with Apache and Comanche tribes who regularly moved through the wild country. Mercury was discovered in 1890, and soon thriving city of almost 2,000 was devoting its energies to extracting the rich red ore (cinnabar) from beneath barren hills. Millions of dollars worth of quicksilver was marketed before the boom tapered off. The hundreds of wooden shacks are gone entirely; many rock and adobe buildings stand roofless, walls crumbling.

Some modern residents have come of late—leisure homes in the remote desert setting, a country store with grocery staples, souvenirs and mineral specimens, a few motel-type accommodations, a couple of restaurants, and the Terlingua Ranch Resort.

Once a year, on the first Sat. in Nov., some 5,000 "chiliheads" converge on the desolate area for the International Championship Chili Cookoffs. The first, started in 1967 as a contest both of wit and chili between humorists Wick Fowler and H. Allen Smith, has become a cherished Texas tradition. The other contest includes individuals and representatives from the Chili Appreciation Society International.

CHRISTMAS MOUNTAINS SANCTUARY—Numerous remote and primitive campsites available, as well as miles of trails and roads for hiking, mountain biking (non-motorized only), and horseback riding. Several private operators offer guided tours to some of the old mining operations found on the property. For information, call 888/531-2223 or 432/371-2356.

VAN HORN

ers with sunny climate, interesting rock and mineral deposits, hunting for mule deer, pronghorn antelope and upland game birds.

John Madden, colorful television football broadcaster, designated Chuy's Restaurant for his "Haul of Fame." Madden frequently crisscrosses the country in his bus to broadcast games. Just before Super Bowl weekend, he annually names his "All-Madden Team." Plaques and photos of inductees hang in the restaurant at 1200 W. Business Loop 10.

Information on events, accommodations, and area attractions may be obtained by calling the Van Horn Convention and Visitor's Bureau at 866/4 AHOWDY or 432/283-2682 or visiting www.vanhorn-texas.org.

CLARK HOTEL MUSEUM—Displays of Native American artifacts from a prehistoric era combine with antique ranch, farm and home implements provide a vivid reminder of civilization which came slowly to this remote region. A fantastic antique bar, complete with ornate hardwood, mirrors and a brass rail recalls lusty frontier times. Have your picture taken as you lean back against the bar, then head upstairs to relive the days of the Old West as they transitioned into the era of the automobile and neon signs. 110 W. Business Loop in Historic Downtown Van Horn. For more information, call the Van Horn Convention and Visitors Bureau.

CULBERSON COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Displays of Native American artifacts, antique ranch, farm, and home implements. A resplendent antique bar, complete with ornate hardwood, mirrors and brass rail, recalls lusty frontier times. In historic Clark Hotel, 110 W. Business Loop 10 downtown. For information, call the Van Horn Convention and Visitors Bureau at 432/283-2682.

RED ROCK RANCH TOURS—Guided driving and hiking tours provide visitors with magnificent views of wind-carved Precambrian rock formations, panoramic vistas, centuries old Indian campsites, petroglyphs and pictographs, and an old Western movie set. Native plants and wildlife combine with an original 1880 homestead and a working talc mine to make Red Rock Ranch a fantastic and fun experience for everyone including children, bird watchers, rock hounds and geologists, and anyone else interested in seeing West Texas at its best. 800/735-6911.

WINK

Map M-7

GENERAL—The town began in 1926 when oil was discovered in the Hendrick oil field in Winkler County. By the next year, the Wink Townsite Co. began selling lots on a local ranch. The oil boom brought new people to the town causing a shortage of housing. Wink was originally named Winkler, in honor of C.M. Winkler, a colonel in the Confederate Army, a member of the Texas legislature, and a justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, and for whom the county was named; however, the post office said there was already a Winkler and the name was shortened to Wink. Today Wink's economy is still based on the petroleum industry, as well as ranching.

ROY ORBISON MUSEUM—Orbison grew up in Wink and called it home. The museum features memorabilia from his boyhood and his musical career. Record albums and singles are displayed in cases, along with the singer's trademark sunglasses. For tours, call 432/527-3622. Located downtown on Texas 115.

★ GULF COAST ★

THE VAST GULF OF MEXICO weaves its watery spell upon seafarers and landlubbers alike. In Texas, "land ho!" is as exciting a cry as "anchors aweigh!" For, in addition to the bounty of the shimmering sea surfing its shores, Texas offers an abundance of terrific terra firma along its 624-mile coastline.

Peninsulas and islands, cities and towns, beaches and parks, all extend their own magical allure. You will find every citified and seaside attraction imaginable along the scimitar-shaped slab of Texas known as the Texas Gulf Coast.

Let's journey from coastal north to valley south and sample the delights along this Gulf-kissed stretch of Texas that offers something for all visitors, for all seasons.

Detailed information about each site appears following this introduction.

UPPER COAST

At Orange, experience your first slice of Lone Star hospitality at the Texas Travel Information Center. You have but to enter the door and friendly travel counselors greet you with the typically Texan "howdy, y'all," and provide you with suggestions and literature for your Texas visit.

Plan to explore Orange. The city harbors treasures such as the 1894 Stark House and the Stark Museum of Art, which houses a superb collection of Southwestern art, as well as unusual Indian art and artifacts. For a rousing look at area wetlands, try an airboat ride that zips you through swamps lined with giant cypress trees draped in Spanish moss and teeming with bird life. Watch, too, for frogs, turtles—and alligators.

Journey south and you will note Texas 87's graceful Rainbow and Veterans Memorial bridges that span the Neches River on the route to Port Arthur. The 176-foot-high-clearance Rainbow Bridge, completed in 1938, was, then, the highest elevated highway bridge over tidal waters in the world.

In Port Arthur, you can laissez le bons temps rouler (let the good times roll), while celebrating the Cajun heritage of many of its citizens and enjoying tasty seafood specialties such as shrimp gumbo and crawfish etoufee.

Remember the rocking Sixties? You'll rekindle a bit of them in Port Arthur's Southeast Texas Musical Heritage Room at the Museum of the Gulf Coast. Here, an exhibit memorializes, among other musicians, the legendary Janis Joplin, a Port Arthur native. You can admire the psychedelic Porsche painted in kaleidoscopic patterns by the late rock star.

Nature takes the forefront at nearby Sea Rim State Park, where a boardwalk trail makes it easier to view coastal bird life and marshland vegetation. And history holds sway at Sabine Pass Battleground State Historical Park, which marks the site of an 1863 Union attempt to invade Texas during the Civil War.

Just up the road, Beaumont offers a chance to revisit the days of Spindletop, the first great Texas oil gusher. You can walk through the re-creation of the Spindletop/Gladys City Boomtown and relive the fever pitch of the 1901 discovery of oil. Wooden oil derricks, a saloon, livery stable, and other buildings help capture the era.

Museums here cover a surprising range of subjects, including art, steamboats, firefighting, and police work. While the Texas Energy Museum focuses on 19th-century discoveries of oil, the Edison Plaza Museum exhibits thousands of items owned, invented, or influenced by Thomas Edison, including prototype light bulbs, vintage hair dryers, movie cameras, and phonographs.

From Beaumont, head south toward the Gulf and you'll soon be driving along the pleasant ocean-washed stretch known as the Bolivar Peninsula. Here, resort communities such as Crystal Beach persuade you to tarry awhile and enjoy fishing, shelling, birding, and crabbing. On the peninsula, you can see the stately old Bolivar Lighthouse and, at Port Bolivar, you can drive aboard a Texas Department of Transportation ferry for a free 18-minute ride across a three-mile section of waterway to Galveston, the island was once a stronghold of the infamous pirate Jean Laffite.

Beaches on the Gulf Coast

No matter whether you arrive in Galveston by water, land, or air, you will find an island and a city overflowing with exciting entertainment and boasting a captivating history.

A horse-drawn carriage ride takes you through areas such as The Strand (a National Historic Landmark District), where you can visualize Galveston as a bustling 19th-century port and financial center. At the Texas Seaport Museum, recall the thrilling era of graceful sailing ships by touring the 19th-century Elissa, a square-rigged barkentine.

Numerous historic mansions and buildings grace the island's cityscape and bespeak its prosperous past. You can tour the opulent Bishop's Palace, built in the late 1800s and visit the Italianate magnificence of the 1859 Ashton Villa and the elegant Moody Mansion. At the artfully restored Grand 1894 Opera House, stage productions still enthral audiences.

Don't miss Moody Gardens, 156 feature-packed acres that encompass the Aquarium, Rainforest, and Discovery pyramids, an IMAX® Theater, and Palm Beach, a freshwater swimming lagoon complete with white sand beach.

And, of course, Galveston Island lures anglers with deep sea, pier, bay, and surf fishing. Adding to the fun are 32 miles of beaches that beckon swimmers, surfers, strollers, and sunbathers, and a multitude of shops throughout the island that comprise a browser's paradise. Nightlife thrives here, too, particularly on Post Office Street, where the sound of live band music emanates from clubs and the savory scents of Italian, Greek, and Mexican cuisines tempt diners. Galveston serves up a hefty helping of goodies for everyone.

Between Galveston and Houston, Santa Fe as well as several communities that form the Bay Area Houston. Among them, the Kemah Boardwalk in Kemah raises the fun level several notches with waterfront-themed restaurants, specialty shops, a water garden, and amusement rides. Also in Bay Area Houston, the immensely popular Space Center Houston launches you on intriguing journeys through the nation's space program. Here, you—and the kids—can drive a simulated lunar rover, command a shuttle, and man a space station.

Houston, Texas' largest city, is a happening place. What else would you expect from the number four city in the nation? Theatrical, musical, and dance productions captivate spectators in acclaimed venues such as the Wortham Center, the Jesse H. Jones Hall for the Performing Arts, and the Alley Theater. Art and antique collections abound in museums that present extraordinary ranges of paintings, sculptures, antiquities, and artifacts.

Shoppers delight in upscale stores like those in the Galleria, and find pleasure, too, in the shops and restaurants of the Houston Underground, a six-mile system of pedestrian tunnels that connect numerous buildings and several hotels. If you like to seek bargains midst a kitschy assortment of goods, visit Traders Village, the largest flea market on the Texas Gulf Coast.

For the kids, Adventure Bay water park, Six Flags AstroWorld, Six Flags WaterWorld, and the wonderfully hands-on exhibits of the Children's Museum of Houston provide hours of fun. And sports-minded visitors can whoop it up at professional football, basketball, hockey, and baseball games, while golfers and tennis buffs can pursue their favorite pastimes at dozens of courses and courts.

In the mood for something different? To experience sights and sounds a tad unusual, visit the whimsically decorated vehicles at the ArtCar Museum, or the gewgaws and naive art in the labyrinths of the Orange Show. At the Houston Museum of Natural Science, view the Sams Collection, an assortment of 600 gems and minerals whose glitter rivals London's Crown Jewels. Here, too, you can enjoy the tropical environs of the Cockrell Butterfly Center, where beautiful butterflies flutter about in colorful abandon.

After you sample the impressive attractions that Houston offers, you can pursue equally interesting adventures in the small towns around the city.

Spend some reflective moments at San Jacinto, one of the most hallowed spots in Texas. Here, just east of Houston, the 570-foot-tall San Jacinto Monument marks the site where Sam Houston and his troops wrested Texas independence from Mexico by routing the larger forces of the Mexican Army under Santa Anna. Within the same park, the Battleship Texas, which served in World Wars I and II, rests at permanent mooring in the Houston Ship Channel.

North of Houston, the restored early 1900s railroad village of Old Town Spring in the city of Spring tempts travelers with an array of restaurants and shops featuring arts, crafts, and antiques. Also at Spring, you can explore the Jesse H. Jones Park and Nature Center and the Mercer Arboretum and Botanical Gardens, then whisk the kids over to SplashTown Waterpark, where rides and slides rule. If you thrill at the thought of piloting a combat plane, try it here at Texas Air Aces. During this adventure, you fly in the front seat of an aircraft and blast targets with a laser gun while an instructor supervises from the rear seat. Bam!

At Hempstead, Liendo Plantation provides monthly tours of one of Texas' earliest cotton plantations, once home to famed sculptress Elisabet Ney, while the George Ranch Historical Park near Richmond offers historic 19th-century buildings and cowboys who work cattle at a 1930s-style ranch.

Reward yourself at Katy with an amazing side trip to the Orient. Here, the breathtaking grandeur of China's Forbidden City at Beijing rises in miniature at Forbidden Gardens, a 40-acre outdoor museum. Fascinating displays chronicle China's history and include a one-third scale replica of the 3rd-century terra-cotta warriors that stand 6,000 strong near the tomb of China's first emperor at Xian.

Hugging the coastal region south of Houston, Angleton boasts the Brazoria County Historical Museum and the Brazoria National Wildlife Refuge, while Clute is home to the Center for Arts & Sciences. In nearby Brazoria, visitors can revisit early Texas history at the Brazoria Museum. Just a stone's throw away, the Brazosport Area envelops towns such as West Columbia, Freeport, Lake Jackson, and Surfside Beach, and provides beaches, parks, and museums aplenty for leisurely touring. In particular, Varner-Hogg Plantation State Historic Site provides an engaging look at an 1830s Greek Revival plantation filled with period furnishings and artifacts.

CENTRAL COAST

Head southwest from the Beaumont-Houston-Galveston triangle and you will soon enter the broad vistas of the Gulf plains. Small communities abound and most offer ample pastimes for visitors. The towns that rim the Gulf quite naturally center their attractions on waterfront activities, while cities toward the interior, such as Danevang, Victoria, Refugio, and Kingsville spotlight their histories of oil production, farming, and ranching.

In addition to two fine museums, Victoria offers 400-acre Riverside Park and the Texas Zoo, where native Texas species, such as javelinas, red wolves, and armadillos, roam areas that replicate their natural environment. In Port Lavaca, take a look at the hexagonal Halfmoon Reef Lighthouse, (originally established in 1858 in Matagorda Bay), then head over to Port Lavaca Causeway State Park for a fun day of saltwater fishing from the 3,202-foot-long pier.

Along the Texas coast, fishermen tend to stake out a tried-and-true destination and return season after season. One such favorite is Port O'Connor. From this small village, you can fish the bays, jetties, and deep waters of the Gulf for redfish, flounder, whiting, red snapper, kingfish, and ling, as well as sailfish, marlin, and tarpon. And, for a back-to-nature camping experience bar none, try the primitive sites on Matagorda Island State Park, accessible from Port O'Connor by boat or ferry. On the island, the stark silhouette of the long abandoned Matagorda Island Lighthouse rises in the middle of the park, on the northern end of the island. Take your mountain bike and wheel around the island free from traffic woes; no cars allowed.

Farther south along Texas 35, the bayside towns of Rockport and Fulton attract birders, fishermen, and artists alike. Together, the just-about-joined-at-the-hip communities offer abundant water sports, excellent arts-and-crafts shopping, and idyllic over-the-ocean sunsets. Here, too, you can visit the ornate and impressive 1876 Fulton Mansion and the Texas Maritime Museum, where exhibits illustrate Texas' coastal heritage. Birders flock to the area to view hundreds of species and to catch glimpses of the endangered whooping cranes that winter in nearby Aransas National Wildlife Refuge. In mid-September, you can observe swarms of migrating hummingbirds hovering at feeders throughout town.

Continue south along Texas 35 and visit Aransas Pass, home to numerous sport-fishing opportunities as well as a hardworking—and picturesque—shrimp fleet. Then, drive aboard the free ferry for about a five-minute ride to Port Aransas, where you will find a quintessential coastal resort town offering fishing, birding, shelling, and beach activities. Here, too, you'll relish good restaurants and shops aplenty, as well as numerous camping sites and a host of hotels, motels, and rentable condominiums. And, if you like to tempt lady luck, you can set sail on a twice-daily cruise that offers games of chance.

The largest Texas city south of San Antonio, Corpus Christi proves one of the most attractive as well. Visitors enjoy its pleasant palm-lined boulevards, balmy climate, distinctive "T" head docks, and harmonic blend of Texan and Mexican cultures. In the cuisine arena, seafood rivals TexMex, while Greek, Italian, and Southwestern specialties find their niche, too.

The Gulf of Mexico and its sealife come alive in the stunning exhibits at the Texas State Aquarium, which houses more than 250 species of marine life. Don't miss oohing and awwwing at the frisky seahorses, water turtles, and Texas river otters.

The city is awash in interesting museums. At the Corpus Christi Museum of Science and History, you can even board an exact scale replica of Christopher Columbus' ships Pinta and Santa Maria. And, in Corpus Christi Bay, the USS Lexington, a vintage wartime aircraft carrier, houses a floating naval museum that displays restored aircraft, anti-aircraft guns used during World War II, and now it even boasts an IMAX theater inside its hull.

Corpus Christi provides living vignettes of nature at her most interesting. If you share a fascination with dolphins, check out "Dolphin Connection," which takes you by boat to rendezvous with the gentle, neighborly creatures in Corpus Christi Bay. At the Corpus Christi Botanical Gardens, you can view exotic flora in the Orchid House, then wander through rose and hibiscus gardens.

Corpus Christi also serves as the gateway to Padre Island National Seashore, an 80-mile section of Padre Island that provides pristine stretches of Gulf-washed beaches and unparalleled opportunities for sea, surf, and sand activities.

Be sure to tour Kingsville, where ranching "reins" supreme, with visits to the King Ranch, the King Ranch Museum, the King Ranch Saddle Shop, and the Joe E. Conner Museum.

LOWER COAST

Wend your way along U.S. 77 toward the southern tip of Texas and its Rio Grande border with Mexico. Here's your chance to enjoy solitude, for you will drive about 50 miles—from Sarita to Raymondville—with nary a sizable community in sight. Near Raymondville, you enter a region rich in agricultural bounty, where a lengthy growing season means an almost year-round harvest of products such as peas, carrots, spinach, cabbage, oranges, grapefruits, sugar cane, grain, and cotton.

If fishing tops your to-do list, head eastward from Raymondville toward Port Mansfield. This popular outpost of saltwater sports gives you access to the lower Laguna Madre, where the shallow waters shelter game such as redfish and sea trout.

At Harlingen, stop by the hospitable Texas Travel Information Center for expert advice about interesting sites. The city offers many treats for visitors, including the majestic Iwo Jima Monument, the original working model for the statue in Washington, D.C.

For a fun shopping excursion, browse the bountiful shops of the Jackson Street District, where storefronts and streetlights reprise the 1920s. Golfers relish the city's challenging courses, and baseball fans delight in watching games played by the area's minor league team, the Rio Grande Valley White Wings.

From its waterside perch on the lower end of Laguna Madre, Port Isabel provides a fine base for anglers and serves as a link to South Padre Island, reached by the 2.6-mile-long Queen Isabella Causeway. At Port Isabel Lighthouse State Historic Site, climb the spiral staircase of the picturesque lighthouse and look to the east, where you will glimpse the sandy splendor of Padre Island.

A beach-lover's utopia, South Padre Island offers numerous resort hotels, dozens of restaurants, RV parks, and camping areas. Activities include snorkeling, diving, fishing, boating, biking, and riding horses along the beach. In season, Schlitterbahn Beach Waterpark lures kids and grownups alike with fantastic water rides and slides.

Brownsville, the Lone Star State's southernmost city, brings its own cultural grace and beauty to the tip of Texas. Here, you will find a serendipitous mixture of museums, historical sites, and nature preserves.

Among Brownsville's many treats for the visitor, the Gladys Porter Zoo proves a standout. A zoological and botanical preserve set amidst lush tropical foliage, the zoo provides a special look at more than 1,500 animals representing some 400 species from all over the world.

You will find an abundance of historical sites in the Brownsville area as well. Buildings from old Fort Brown, established in 1846 during the Mexican-American War, now house facilities for Texas Southmost College. North of the city, Palo Alto Battlefield National Historic Site marks the 1846 artillery duel between U.S. troops and Mexican forces that began the Mexican War, and a historical marker east of Brownsville cites Palmito Ranch Battlefield, the last land engagement of the Civil War.

For an exciting introduction to Mexico, cross the Rio Grande and visit Brownsville's sister city, Matamoros, with its festive assortment of shopping, restaurants, and nightclubs.

Then, return to Texas and coast on over to the dunes and the beaches of the Gulf.

Inhale the tang of the salty sea breeze. Stroll the surf and feel the ocean's warm waters tug gently at your toes. Revel in the mighty roar of the powerful waters. Nothing in the world quite compares.

Map R-21/AA-14/VV-15

GENERAL—In northeastern Brazoria County, city founded in 1876 when railroad built through connecting Galveston with Richmond. It's named for founder Alvin Morgan. City has survived hurricanes, notably the 1900 and 1915 storms, and a disastrous fire in 1902. Agriculture and oil-related products sustained the economy for years, but, with its strategic location on the southeastern Houston metropolitan area and close proximity to NASA, today Alvin is center for diversified industries.

Cultural aspects are influenced by Alvin Community College. An abundance of parks offer places for picnicking; for those looking for sandy beaches, Alvin is just minutes from the Gulf Coast.

During the spring, Shimek Gardens on C.R. 237 one mile west of the city is spectacular with more than 800 varieties of daylilies and roses on 4.3 acres. It's worth a drive by.

Visit Froberg Farms for home-grown fruits and vegetables. Visitors often pick their own items. On Texas 6 and C.R. 190.

For information on accommodations, dining facilities, and events, contact the Alvin Convention and Visitors Bureau at 105 West Willis, or call 281/585-3359.

Map S-21/CC-12

GENERAL—Nestled on the banks of the Brazos River, city was founded in 1828 by Stephen F. Austin as one of his original settlements in Texas. Brazoria derives its name from the Spanish word Abrazar, meaning embrace, which was the Brazos River's original name. Today, visitors can find restaurants, bed & breakfasts, and easy access to nearby beautiful Gulf Coast beaches. The Masonic Oak Park is the location that the first Masonic Charter in Texas was signed, and the original oak tree still stands in a grove of beautiful trees within the park. For more information, contact the Brazoria Chamber of Commerce at 979/798-6100 or visit www.brazoriachamber.net. E-mail: brazoriachamber@sat.net.

BRAZORIA MUSEUM—Visitors can find a treasure trove of interesting artifacts documenting the role the area played in the time of Texas' birth. Items on display include exhibits on Dr. Sophie Hertzog, the first female railroad doctor in Texas, photos and documents detailing early city history, copies of Mexican land treaties, the area's early plantation life, Civil War and Texas Ranger memorabilia, artifacts and more. Open Sat. noon - 4 p.m., but private tours available other days by appointment. At 620 S. Brooks. 979/798-2372. No admission fee.

BRAZOSPORT AREA

Pop. (Comb.) 51,000 (est.) Alt. 15-32 Map S-21

GENERAL—A community of nine cities situated at the mouth of the Brazos River, each separate, but joined in similar outlook and destiny. Brazosport communities are Freeport, Jones Creek, Lake Jackson, Oyster Creek, Quintana Beach, Richwood, Surfside Beach and West Columbia. This area came into prominence when the first Texas settlers landed on Quintana Beach. Since then, it has been home to the first Texas capital of an elected government of the Republic of Texas, to Stephen F. Austin's 300 settlers, and to several historic plantations. Today, the area offers an exceptional small town quality of life with big city amenities. Excellent specialty and antique shops await shoppers.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

Begin your visit with a drive or walk on the 21-mile stretch of drive-on beach. You can walk or swim in the surf, or just watch the seagulls and schools of fish. Recreational activities include fresh- and saltwater fishing, swimming and boating, surfing and crabbing. There are a number of parks with RV facilities on or near the beach. An 18-hole public golf course is just minutes from the beach.

The Brazosport Convention and Visitor Council at 420 Texas 332 W. offers details on area attractions, accommodations, restaurants, and other visitor data. For information, call 979/265-2505 or 888/477-2505.

BRYAN BEACH STATE RECREATION AREA—On Gulf of Mexico, Intracoastal Waterway and Brazos River. Activities include fishing, beach-type recreation, primitive camping. From Angleton, southwest 2 mi. on F.M. 1495, then 3 mi. south on Gulf beach.

COLUMBIA HISTORICAL MUSEUM—During Texas Revolution, West Columbia was known simply as Columbia; town figured prominently in history of Texas. Was first capital of the Republic of Texas from Sept. - Dec. 1836. The first Congress convened under a triple-trunk live oak tree known as the Independence Tree. Sam Houston was inaugurated president, and Stephen F. Austin served as the first Secretary of State. A replica of the first capitol (reconstructed in 1977) is at 14th and Hamilton.

Reflecting the area's prominent role in Texas history, the museum traces the historical significance of the Victorian era with artifacts from the joys of childhood through the grief of death. Displays document the West Columbia Oilfield, largest producer of its time in the U.S., and the ranching industry that still exists. An entire room is devoted to East Columbia with a diorama of the town as founded in 1823 by Josiah H. Bell, photographs of early-day homes, bells from the Hiawatha and the Brazos Belle, and grand steamboats that sailed the Brazos River, first for trade, and later, pleasure.

New additions to the museum include set of woodworking planes dating back to 1860 and two beautiful wedding gowns from the 1890s.

The museum is open Wed. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. For Sat. tours call 979/345-6125. Located at 247 E. Brazos (Texas 35) in West Columbia. www.westcolumbia.org.

FISHING—Extensive facilities for fishing, both inshore and deep-sea. Local jetties, piers and surf are popular spots for catches of speckled trout, drum, redfish, sheepshead, flounder and gafftop; tackle and bait available nearby. For deep-sea fishing there are party and charter fishing vessels for hire at several docks. Offshore fishermen seek bonito, ling, marlin, snapper, dolphin, king mackerel, warsaw and sailfish.

GULF INTRACOASTAL WATERWAY—Slicing through lowlands near Surfside Beach, canal is most valuable waterway in America, carrying as much annual tonnage as the Panama Canal and more than twice that of St. Lawrence Seaway. The protected waterway was authorized in 1942 and completed in 1949. Now stretches 1,066 miles from Brownsville, Texas, to Carrabelle, Florida. Surfside bridge on Texas 332 east spans Intracoastal Waterway to waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

HISTORICAL DRIVING TOURS—Printed booklet for self-guided driving tour describes the historical sites in and around the first Capitol of the Republic of Texas. Booklets are available at the West Columbia Chamber of Commerce. For information, call 979/345-3921.

JACKSON PLANTATION ARCHEOLOGICAL SITE—A Texas Antiquities Archeological Landmark, the site is on the banks of Lake Jackson. The plantation was destroyed by a hurricane in 1900. Ruins of eight buildings subject of study of Univ. of Houston-Clear Lake and the Brazosport Archeological Society. Free, guided walking tours available the first Sat. of the month 10 a.m. - sunset. Handicap assessable via utility vehicle. From Lake Jackson, NE 1 mi. on F.M. 2004 from Texas 332. For information, call the Lake Jackson Historical Museum at 979/297-1570.

LAKE JACKSON HISTORICAL MUSEUM—The facility chronicles the rich history of the city with interactive exhibits and high-tech displays. Four eras are featured: the prehistoric era, the plantation era, development of the area's petrochemical industry and the founding and growth of modern Lake Jackson. Gift shop. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Closed Mon. and major holidays. At 249 Circle Way in Lake Jackson. For information, call 979/297-1570, or visit www.lakejacksonmuseum.org.

QUINTANA BEACH COUNTY PARK—Offers exceptional recreational facilities on picturesque island. Day-use facilities include: paved, off-beach parking, shaded pavilions, rest rooms, showers, multilevel fishing pier, and playground. Two historic homes within park: Coveney House features period museum and natural history display, and Seaburn House is park office. Elevated boardwalks (all with wheelchair ramps) connect pavilions, rest rooms, and showers.

RV facilities include 56 camping sites, full hookups, dump station, RV bathhouse with rest rooms, showers, and laundry facilities. Reservations accepted for camping. From Texas 288 in Freeport, take F.M. 1495 south 1.7 miles; C.R. 723 east three miles to park entrance. 979/849-5711, ext. 1541, or 800/872-7578. Fees.

SAN BERNARD NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE—Snow and blue geese winter in 24,000-acre refuge between Cedar Lake Creek and San Bernard River on the Intracoastal Waterway; herons, egrets, and ibis found on marsh ponds; shorebirds, gulls, terns on mud flats, and mottled ducks nest in area. Bird list for refuge contains nearly 250 species. For information about access, hunting, and fishing, contact headquarters at Brazoria National Wildlife Refuge. No admission fee.

SEA CENTER TEXAS—This is a marine development, aquarium, and education center developed by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept., Dow North America, and the Gulf Coast Conservation Association. The marine fisheries center has hatchery with the capacity to produce 20 million fingerlings annually, primarily red drum and spotted seatrout, for release into Texas coastal waters. The complex also has 35 one-acre rearing ponds, a saltwater marsh demonstration project, and visitors center. It also has a 24-foot "touch tank" for visitors to study certain animals, wall displays on marine life, two 2,500-gallon aquariums, two 5,000-gallon aquariums, and one 52,000-gallon aquarium. Open Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sat., 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun., 1 - 4 p.m. Hatchery tours by reservation.

BRIDGE CITY

Pop. 8,651

Map P-24/MM-17

GENERAL—In southern Orange County, town was originally called Prairie View for its location on the coastal prairie. When the Rainbow Bridge was completed in 1938 over the Neches River linking Orange County to Port Arthur, name changed to Bridge City. Industrial growth came with the channeling of Cow Bayou and the presence of nearby oil fields and petrochemical plants.

For more information, visit www.cityofbridgecity.org.

BRIDGE CITY HISTORICAL MUSEUM...FORMER PRAIRIE VIEW TEACHERAGE—The building was a house built in 1930 as a residence for former Prairie View school district teachers and principal's family. The school district was renamed later named Bridge City. Former teachers and students have donated items. Also includes memorabilia on city's growth. Building also houses the chamber of commerce office. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. At 150 W. Roundbunch Rd. For information, call 409/735-5671.

LOWER NECHES WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREA OBSERVATION PLATFORM—The 100-foot wheelchair accessible boardwalk is located on an old abandoned oil well drilling site. The platform overlooks the Sabine River marsh, allowing visitors to see herons, egrets, ducks, and other wildlife in natural habitat. From Texas 87, turn south on Lake St. Open daily.

RAINBOW AND VETERANS MEMORIAL BRIDGES—A high, graceful arc on Texas 87 spans the Neches River joining Bridge City on the north with Port Arthur to the south. The two-lane, vintage Rainbow Bridge, completed 1938, spans salt marshes and industrial river channel for 1.5 miles including approaches. The bridge's 176-foot clearance height resulted from requirement that any U.S. Navy ship could pass under; tallest ship of the Navy's 1938 fleet was a dirigible tender that never sailed up the Neches.

Veterans Memorial Bridge was completed in 1991; with 143-foot navigation clearance, it is first cable-stayed bridge on Texas highways. Park at south end has playground, picnicking, and good view of bridge and ships in the Intracoastal waters.

BROWNSVILLE

Pop. 139,722

Alt. 23

Map Z-17/CC-20

GENERAL—Texas' southernmost city, international seaport, airport and railroad interchange point on Mexican border. Area dates from colonial days of Imperial Spain, covering periods of exploration, wars, revolutions, and colorful, though infamous, banditry.

City began in 1846 after Gen. Zachary Taylor established the first Fort Brown to confirm Rio Grande as national boundary after Republic of Texas became a U.S. State. Regrettably, that very incident touched off Mexican-American War, 1846-48. Several existing buildings of Fort Brown are now part of The University of Texas at Brownsville/Texas Southmost Jr. College.

Brownsville is the Rio Grande Valley's largest city whose industries include electronics, automotive components, apparel, industrial services, shipping and tourism. Vacationers are attracted by subtropical climate, proximity to Mexico, excellent golf courses, and access to South Padre Island. Visitor activities include tennis, fishing, nature viewing, wildlife viewing, swimming and going to the beach.

Brownsville, "On the Border by the Sea," is a bird-watcher's paradise. The convergence of two major flyways afford the birder an abundance of Northern species migrating for the winter. More than 485 bird species share the refuges and wild places in and around the city. Check with the information center, below, for more details.

Major annual event is Charro Days, a spectacular four-day costume fiesta, in late Feb., that features parades, carnivals, music, dancing, and foods of this colorful two-nation region. Other special events include the CAF Air Fiesta in March, Shrimp Fiesta and the Brownsville International Birding Festival, and the Latin Jazz Festival in October.

BIRD & BUTTERFLY PARADISE—Tour aviaries with many species of butterflies and birds. Video presentation on butterfly life cycle. Open Mon. - Sat. 9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. 940 California Road off routes 100 and E.M. 803 between Brownsville and Los Fresnos.

BROWNSVILLE HERITAGE COMPLEX—HOME OF THE STILLMAN HOUSE MUSEUM—Residence was built about 1850 for Charles Stillman, founder of Brownsville. The Brownsville Heritage Museum has a collection of pictures of the beginnings of Brownsville since the Spanish arrival to modern times. Also, research can be done at the Heritage Resource Center for persons interested in the local history of the lower Rio Grande Valley. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. 1305 E. Washington. Admission fee. For information, call 956/541-5560.

BROWNSVILLE HERITAGE TRAIL—Collection of turn-of-the-century homes and businesses located in the historic downtown area. The original 3,000-acre townsite, now downtown Brownsville, boasts historic structures and a cathedral dating back to the mid-1800s. Buildings are marked with Heritage Trail markers.

BROWNSVILLE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS—In historic Neale House built in 1834; moved to present location in 1950. William Neale served two terms as mayor in the 1800s, and established stage lines between Matamoros and Bagdad, Mexico, as well as Brownsville and Point Isabel. Gazebo once was the Fort Brown bandstand built in 1912. Museum features a permanent collection including works by Chagall, Daumier, Samuelson, Whistler and many more. Local artists are often seen painting inside the complex. Open Tues. - Fri. 10:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.; Sat., 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. In Ft. Brown area at 230 Neale Dr. For information, call 956/542-0941. www.brownsvilleartleague.net/firms.com.

BROWNSVILLE VISITOR INFORMATION CENTER—Beside U.S. 77/83 (E.M. 802 exit) in north Brownsville. Detailed visitor information, maps and tourist literature about local attractions and Matamoros, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande. Birding guides and logoed souvenirs sold here. Open Mon. - Sat. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; closed Thanksgiving and Christmas. 956/546-3721, or 800/626-2639. www.brownsville.org.

COMMEMORATIVE AIR FORCE RIO GRANDE VALLEY WING—Museum featuring memorabilia, equipment, uniforms, video presentation, and artifacts display from World War II. Flying museum includes numerous fully-operational vintage aircraft from World War II and the Korean Conflict. Gift shop and Crew Member Lounge open to the public. Popular Air Fiesta held in March. Open May - Sept., Wed. - Sat. 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.; and Oct. - Apr., Mon. - Sat. 9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Brownsville/South Padre Island International Airport. 956/541-8585. GENERAL—City is major deep-water port and one of Texas' most popular sea-coast playground cities. First European to have visited area is believed to have been Spanish explorer Alonzo de Piñeda in 1519. First settlement began as frontier trading post founded 1839 by impresario-colonizer Col. Henry Lawrence Kinney; obscure settlement until about 1845 when accelerated growth began. Institutions of higher learning are Del Mar College and Texas A&M—Corpus Christi.

Seawall, with steps to the water, was built in the late 1930s as part of a major landfill that created Shoreline Boulevard and the popular "T" head docks for pleasure boats. Corpus Christi Beach, north of downtown over the bridge, is the site of the USS Lexington and Texas State Aquarium, and offers park areas, picnic tables, showers, and rest rooms. For maps and current information on Corpus Christi attractions see Visitor Centers.

In keeping with the city's image of having glistening waterways, Corpus Christi's Water Garden at Bayfront Arts and Science Park sparkles for visitors who see, hear, and touch the garden's water. Some 150 fountains form nucleus of park, which is lighted at night.

AQUARIUM, TEXAS STATE—Discover the mysterious underwater world of the Texas State Aquarium. Come face-to-fin with a sand tiger shark or a barracuda in the Islands of Steel. Get your hands wet at the Star Pool where you can touch horseshoe crabs and a variety of other creatures, or touch bamboo sharks and stingrays at Stingray Flats another one of the touch pools.

In Dolphin Bay! visitors can view these incredible mammals from above and below the water line. In the underwater Atlantis room come nose-to-nose with these marvelous creatures. Or, observe the dolphins' natural behaviors outside in a beautifully shaded area during daily interactive programs. New "Trainer for a Day" program allows participants to feed and attend private dolphin training sessions. Reservations required for this program. Call 361/881-1307 or e-mail reserve@txstateaq.org for more program information.

Labor Day through Memorial Day: Open Mon. - Sat., 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Summer hours: Open Mon. - Sat., 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.; Sun. 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. Closed Christmas Day. 2710 N. GENERAL—Crystal Beach, originally known as Patton, stretches about seven miles along Texas 87 on Bolivar Peninsula. Patton was a railroad stop until the trains stopped operation in the early 1940s. At that time, the name was changed to Crystal Beach. It's the largest residential and commercial community on the peninsula. Main industry is shrimping and oystering, and tourism. Summer visitors swell population where miles of sandy beaches offer many recreational activities.

Birding is exciting during the springs and fall migrations. The fields, bushes, trees and marshes are alive with colorful and rare species. Many northern species winter here.

Ferries operate every 20 minutes between Galveston and Port Bolivar, Texas 87. The ferries are part of the Texas transportation system, operated toll-free by the Texas Department of Transportation.

The old Bolivar Lighthouse, after 61 years of service, still stands near Texas 87. Although not open to the public, it is a symbol of mariner history along the Texas coast.

FORT TRAVIS SEASHORE PARK—The peninsula has a long history of military fortifications. In 1898, with federal development of the Port of Galveston, Fort Travis was constructed and named for William B. Travis. The fort was completed in 1899. The fort sustained heavy damage in 1900 Storm. Repairs were well underway by 1903 to include the present seawall around the fort. During World Wars I & II, troops were stationed here to defend the shores. In 1930, the first Galveston/Bolivar ferry landed on the Bolivar side and was in use until the 1950s. Today, the 60-acre park still has gun battery sites. It also has picnic areas, cabanas and campsites. It's part of the Galveston County Beach Park Board. GENERAL—Established in 1894 in southern Wharton County, earliest settlers were Danish immigrants who relocated from the Midwest to Texas to extend and promote Danish culture in the U.S. Historical records, by word and photos, were kept by these early settlers and continued by following generations, and are now housed in the Danevang Museum. Danevang was declared "The Danish Capital of Texas" by the Texas Legislature in 1991. Danevang, translated from Danish, means "Danish Fields."

COMMUNITY HALL—Oldest building in town, still used today for community functions. Texas Historical Marker signifies the building's age of more than 100 years old.

DANEVANG CULTURAL CENTER—A three-acre museum complex includes the following exhibits:

Pioneer Home, built in 1896, was moved from its original farmsite to the Center and restored to its original floor plan. The furniture and appliances recall life in Danevang from the 1890s through World War I. Open Tues. - Thurs., Sat. - Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. or by appointment for groups.

Hansen Shed is an 'on the farm' museum that houses the private collection of Harold and Ella Hansen. It was donated to the center and moved to the current site in 1993. Many artifacts also donated to the center are on display as well.

Danish Cultural Museum was dedicated in June 2001, and the museum depicts the local Danish community and its background, a history of the Viking era, cotton and grain farming history in the area, and the community's school, family and social history. Visitors can also see Harold Hansen's extensive barbed wire collection. Open Tues. - Thurs., Sat. - Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. or by appointment for groups.

For more information, call 979/543-3332 or 979/543-2106. Texas 71 and C.R. 426 (one mile south of blinking light).

DANEVANG CEMETERY—Consecrated in 1895 when the first death occurred in the colony. Many headstones in the family plots bear names of up to the fourth generation of descendants of the original settlers. Guide maps are available at the Museum.

DANEVANG LUTHERAN CHURCH—When the town's Pioneer Church Building was destroyed by a hurricane in 1945, the community purchased the chapel from Camp Hulen, a deactivated U.S. Army training base in Palacios. The chapel was disassembled and moved to Danevang, where it was reassembled and is still in use today. Some of the furnishings from the original building were salvaged after the hurricane and are being used in the church.

570-foot San Jacinto Monument, near Deer Park, marks site of final battle for Texas independence

SAN JACINTO BATTLEGROUND STATE HISTORIC SITE—Site where Texas won independence from Mexico on April 21, 1836, at the Battle of San Jacinto. After retreats and disasters halfway across Texas, Sam Houston's small army turned on Mexican Gen. Santa Anna's superior forces and defeated them in just minutes. Commemorating the decisive battle, San Jacinto Monument rises 570 feet above flat coastal plain. Famous monument is constructed of reinforced concrete faced with Texas fossilized buff limestone. At base of shaft is San Jacinto Museum of Texas History; exhibits trace region's history from Indian civilization encountered by Cortez, to Texas as a state. "Texas Forever! The Battle of San Jacinto" is a 35-minute history lesson reliving Texas history from the days of Spanish rule in Mexico to the expansion of the American West in 1848. The multi-image presentation utilizes 42 projectors. Show fee. Museum open daily 9 a.m. - 6 p.m.; elevator and observation deck open daily 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. Elevator fee. Closed Dec. 24 & 25.

Another landmark of the park is Battleship Texas, moored in permanent slip at battleground. One of few monuments of its kind in the world, it is only survivor of the pre-World War I dreadnoughts. Battleship was presented to State of Texas by U.S. Navy. Commissioned shortly before World War I, the venerable warship served in that conflict and in World War II as flagship in 1944 D-Day invasion commanded by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, a native of Denison, TX. Open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; closed Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, and Christmas Day. East of downtown Houston 22 miles via Texas 225, Texas 134. Admission fee.

GENERAL—Railroad reached area in 1880s, and Mexican cowboys who brought cattle herds to railhead called the site "el campo" (the camp). When the cowboys bedded down they could see the lights of a little village called Prairie Switch. They said it looked like a "pearl on the prairie." When incorporated in 1905, city fathers used the Spanish words in naming city, and the city still refers to itself as pearl of the prairie. Now a center for agriculture (largest rice-producing county in state), oil, gas, and manufacturing.

El Campo is well known for its great waterfowl hunting and excellent fishing. The city boasts a variety of restaurants and is famous for its barbecue.

History is a favorite of many with more than 20 historical murals painted on buildings throughout the town.

GENERAL—When first explored by Europeans, the island was an Akokisa Indian site. The Karankawa Indians used the island for hunting and fishing. Pirate Jean Laffite established a settlement in 1817. During the Texas Revolution the harbor served as the port for the Texas navy. Following the war, a group of investors obtained ownership of land at the harbor to found a town in 1838, and the following year the Texas legislature granted incorporation to the City of Galveston. Early years gave city many firsts in Texas: first Roman Catholic convent, first electric lights, and first medical college. Disastrous Galveston storm of 1900, the entire island was inundated during a hurricane, which claimed more than 6,000 lives. A seawall was built two years later, presently 10 miles long, it has proved its staying power several times over.

Galveston Island offers 32 miles of beach and also is a treasure trove of things historically Texan. Details available at the Galveston Island Visitors Centers.

Many city parks, picnic areas and recreation centers offer playground equipment, athletic fields, tennis courts, and golf courses.

Seat of Galveston County, major port, tourist, and convention center. Home of Univ. of Texas Medical Branch, Texas A&M Univ. at Galveston, and Galveston College.

CENTER FOR TRANSPORTATION AND COMMERCE (RAILROAD MUSEUM)—On once-active tracks are more than 35 vintage railroad cars and steam engines; historic Santa Fe depot restored to 1932 art deco style, HO-gauge working model of Port of Galveston with tracks, ships, and port activities. HISTORIC HOMES AND BUILDINGS—As Texas' earliest prominent city, literally scores of fascinating historic structures were built by sea captains, merchants, businessmen, and prominent officials. Among most notable are:

Ashton Villa, showplace of Galveston Historical Foundation in restored 1859 Italianate house-museum reflecting opulence of era in carved moldings, elaborate mantel-work, and lavish furnishings. Site of first Juneteenth where slaves learned they were free on June 19, 1865. Guided tours include the ornate Gold Room and elegant family quarters upstairs. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. noon - 4 p.m. 2328 Broadway. Admission fee.

Bishop's Palace, Galveston's most celebrated landmark, is Texas' only structure on the list of nation's 100 outstanding buildings by American Institute of Architects. Built as a private home by Col. Walter Gresham in 1886, purchased in 1923 for the bishop of the Galveston-Houston Diocese. Showplace furnishings include a mantel that was first-prize winner at 1876 Philadelphia World's Fair, Venetian crystal chandelier, damask wall coverings from London, and grand staircase of rosewood, satinwood, and mahogany. Open daily noon - 4 p.m. during winter; summer hours Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun., noon - 5 p.m. 1402 Broadway. Admission fee.

Fort Crockett was a primary artillery defense installation built 1897. Closed 1947, several buildings remain in use by Galveston College, Texas A&M Univ. at Galveston, and National Marine Fisheries Service. Massive coastal artillery bunkers can still be seen, but most have been incorporated into the foundation of the nearby hotel and conference center. Seawall Blvd. between 45th and 53rd sts.

Grand 1894 Opera House, a performing arts hall built in 1894. Multimillion-dollar restoration returned the ornate structure to its original grandeur. Theater has showcased such theatrical icons as John Philip Sousa, Helen Hayes, and more. The 73rd Legislature named it the "Texas Official Opera House." Stage productions frequently scheduled; open daily for self-guided tours. 2020 Post Office St.

HARLINGEN

Pop. 57,564 Alt. 39 Map Y-17/BB-16

GENERAL—Harlingen is home to everything tropical, from the red-crowned parrots to the palm trees and bougainvilleas that dominate the landscape. Aloe vera farms and citrus groves surround the city. Mexico and the seashell-littered beaches of South Padre Island are only minutes away.

Harlingen developed at the crossroads of major national rail lines, and has long been an important trade and transportation center. Incorporated in 1910, its namesake was a canal-encircled town in the Netherlands, the ancestral home of railroad president Col. Uriah Lott.

Cotton, sugar cane, and vegetables became early reasons for the city's prosperity. Harlingen has survived freezes, floods, and a hurricane in 1933. The city changed forever with start of World War II and the creation of an aerial gunnery school at Harlingen Army Air Field, which later became Harlingen Air Force Base. The Port of Harlingen opened in 1952 and began barging Valley sugar and grain north.

Today, the city continues to be a magnet for thousands of retirees from the Midwest and Canada. Some have become full-time residents, while others known as "Winter Texans" live in Harlingen during the winter months. In addition, numerous visitors from Mexico shop and dine in Harlingen on a regular basis. Amateur sports tournaments and annual events such as RioFest, the Jackson Street Jubilee, and the 10K Rio Run attract visitors from throughout the region and the state. Harlingen's Rio Grande Valley Birding Festival attracts birders from around the world. Harlingen also is home to Texas State Technical College and the Marine Military Academy.

GENERAL—County seat of Waller County. Established in 1856 as railroad town when Hempstead Town Company offered lots and blocks to Houston and Texas Central Railroad as inducement for line to run through town. Because the railroad made it an important shipping and receiving area during the War Between the States, several camps were established in the vicinity. Long known as "Six Shooter Junction" because of an era of violence around the turn of the century that gave it a nickname. Most notable fight shocked the nation in 1905 when U.S. Congressman John Pinckney and his brother, and two others, were gunned down in the courthouse while meeting with prohibitionists, recent victors in an election to ban booze. Heckling began, and in less than two minutes, four people were dead, and the Waller County Courthouse was riddled with 75 shots in the fight. Today, economy is primarily farms, ranches, oil and gas. The close proximity to Houston (52 miles) offers opportunity for cosmopolitan city activities.

For water fountains, yard statuary, or bird baths, stop by Frazier's Ornamental and Architectural Concrete on Business U.S. 290. They have acres of concrete products from estate-sized entry pieces to tabletop creations. Open daily, except Wed.

LIENDO PLANTATION—Built in 1853 by Leonard Waller Groce, son of Jared Groce, who was one of largest land owners in Texas. Originally a Spanish land grant of 67,000 acres assigned to Justo Liendo, plantation's namesake. One of Texas' earliest cotton plantations. Liendo was occupied by sculptress Elisabet Ney and her husband, Dr. Edmond Montgomery, from 1873 to 1911. Both are buried on the grounds. Liendo is a Texas historic landmark and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Private residence; however, tours offered GENERAL—Named after Sam Houston, general of Texas army that won independence from Mexico, and president of the Republic of Texas. The city, largest in Texas and fourth largest in nation, has experienced phenomenal growth since a small riverboat landing was established on Buffalo Bayou by Allen brothers in August 1836. Today, SpaceCity USA is an industrial and financial hub for much of the state. Houston lies on I-10, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

Institutions of higher learning include Baylor College of Medicine, Houston Baptist Univ., Rice Univ., South Texas College of Law, South Texas Junior College, Texas Southern Univ., Univ. of Houston, Univ. of St. Thomas and Univ. of Texas Health Science Center.

Major annual events include the Freedom Over Texas in July; and the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo in Mar., the largest livestock exposition in the world. The Houston International Festival each April celebrates Houston's multiculturalism with a 10-day outdoor festival of multicultural music, dance, arts and crafts, and food.

Professional sports are presented throughout the year. Teams include the Houston Astros, baseball; Houston Rockets and the Houston Comets, basketball; Houston Texans, football; and the Houston Aeros, hockey.

For full details about Houston's abundant attractions and events, stop at the city's Visitor Information Center in City Hall at 901 Bagby St. You can also call 800/4-HOUSTON or visit www.visithoustontexas.com.

ADVENTURE BAY—12 acres of water highlighted by Houston's only Master Blaster, a water coaster that defies gravity and sends its riders uphill. Explore Pirates Cove children's area with its huge interactive pirate ship. Brave the waves in Paradise Bay wave pool, or relax and unwind in Rio Lento, the laziest of rivers. For the daring, there are plenty of thrills in the Lost Falls Speedslides and Slidewinders Tube Rides. Relax at the Galley and full service food and beverage court. Open Memorial Day - Labor Day. GENERAL—Just east of Houston Intercontinental Airport, town was named after founder, postmaster and Justice of the Peace, P. S. Humble in 1886. In 1904, oil was discovered; by 1905, town was a “boom town.” In 1909, local feed store owner Ross Sterling along with a few others founded Humble Oil & Refining Co. (now Exxon).

Drilling for oil in 1912, artesian water was discovered. The precious water was used in bathhouses for oil field workers and piped to nearby houses. Today site of historic Lambrecht Town & Artesian Well.

HUMBLE HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Features oil field equipment, farming tools; home furnishings and clothing of early families; historic photographs. Open Tues., Wed., Fri. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Thurs. & Sat. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., at 219 Main St.

INDIANOLA

Map T-19

GENERAL—From what she was, she’s the biggest ghost of them all, but not to the eye. At the terminus of Texas 316 south of Port Lavaca, all is clean tranquility—a deception. Sea and desert have defeated many towns. The sea is more ruthless—implacable until every trace is scoured away, until all is virgin sand where the footprints of men apparently never trod.

The prints of 6,000 and more did tread here, when concrete and stout-timbered structures lined what was considered the finest harbor on the Gulf of Mexico. Piers thrust into the bay for half a mile, funneling rich cargoes to and from great ships. In the 1840s German colonists landed, led by Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels (see NEW BRAUNFELS). In the 1850s an army depot supplied the frontier forts of all Texas. Here two shiploads of Arabian camels landed, beginning that imaginative experiment of Jefferson Davis. Warehouses stored ice, winter-cut on the Great Lakes, prized during Texas summers.

The bustling, prosperous town survived shelling, capture and recapture during the Civil War, yellow fever epidemics, and a storm thought severe in 1866. But all were only prelude to Sept. 17, 1875. The sea that had created and nourished Indianola rose in monstrous salty gray hummocks, lashed by shrieking winds—hurricane! Nine hundred perished, and three-fourths of the city lay in matchbox shambles. Disaster on an unimagined scale.

But Indianola was too prosperous, too vital to quit because of one freak tragedy. Larger warehouses were raised; new piers of heavier pilings sprouted. Eleven years passed before a brutal fact was driven home: that earlier black September was no freak. An even more savage storm sounded the city’s death knell.

Indianola was literally gone. Even wreckage was scarce. The few citizens who somehow survived did not return. The county seat, in name, was moved to Port Lavaca for there was really nothing left to move.

Today the tide laps at a few stones of the courthouse foundation. Inches above the smooth sand, outlines of a few shattered concrete cisterns remain. Some fishermen’s homes have come of late, and the state has erected a historical marker.

One thing more, appropriately: a solitary rose granite statue of Rene Robert Cavalier, Sieur de la Salle. The French explorer was first to leave a boot print on the sands of Indianola more than 300 years ago. Today his stone likeness surveys the same featureless, unmarked sands.

GENERAL—First settled in 1872, the town square was laid out in 1895. The city was named for the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad. William Eule introduced rice farming to the dry-land farmers in 1901, and rice replaced cotton, peanuts, and corn. Today, Katy is still renowned as a rail and rice farming center and is also known for one of the largest gas fields in the state. Katy's city limits are in three counties—Harris, Waller, and Fort Bend. Proximity to Houston provides the city with all the benefits inherent to a big city, yet allows residents to enjoy the community life of a small hometown. Numerous parks provide recreational opportunities throughout the city.

The Katy Heritage Society restored the old MKT Depot and is open by appointment only.

Shoppers find bargains at Katy Mills mall and the Bass Pro shops at I-10 and Katy - Ft. Bend Rd.

The area on the Katy Prairie is excellent for hunting, bird watching, and nature study. The chamber of commerce can provide additional information at 281/391-2422.

FORBIDDEN GARDENS—This unique museum is the only one of its kind in the U.S. Two large exhibits recreate the Forbidden City and the tomb of the first emperor of China, Emperor Qin, on 40 acres. The outdoor museum is designed to educate the public on Chinese history. Visitors are led to a 1:20-scale replica of the Forbidden City, home and office for 24 emperors from the 14th through the early 20th centuries. Buildings, landmarks, and monuments of the walled-in capital recreate the mysterious past of the Middle Kingdom. Open Fri. - Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. (Group tours available other days by appointment only). At 23500 Franz Rd. Take the Grand Parkway exit off I-10, left on Franz Rd less than one mile to entrance. For information, call 281/347-8000 or visit www.forbidden-gardens.com. Admission fee.

HERITAGE PARK—Restored historical buildings, including the Wright Museum, Featherston House, and old Post Office. Open first Sat. of the month from 10 a.m. - 1 p.m. At 814 East Avenue. For information, 281/391-8122. Admission fee.

VETERANS MEMORIAL MUSEUM—“The G.I. Joe Museum” in V.F.W. Park features exhibits of every foreign conflict involving the U.S. It also recalls the careers of the 130-VFW group, which includes men and women from every branch of the armed forces who served in combat. Open weekends noon - 5 p.m. At 6202 Sixth St. For information, call 281/391-8387. Contributions appreciated.

GENERAL—Located in the Wild Horse Desert, just west of the Gulf of Mexico, and the birthplace of the American ranching industry. Established on Fourth of July 1904 as the first St. Louis, Brownsville, and Mexico Railroad pulled through town. Land was donated by Mrs. Henrietta King of the famous King Ranch. Kingsville became Kleberg County seat in 1913.

Today the city is a birding and wildlife hotspot, with more than one million acres of habitat. Kingsville is home to the King Ranch, Naval Air Station Kingsville, Texas A&M-Kingsville, and the agricultural and ranching industries.

Visitors find an array of boutiques and antique shops nestled in downtown historic buildings featuring western wear, leather goods, crafts, jewelry, home-baked goods and gift shops. To receive a calendar of festivals and events, call 800/333-5032.

DEPOT TRAIN MUSEUM—Restored 1904 Depot Museum in downtown Kingsville displays artifacts and history highlighting the railroads' impact on the city. A reproduction of the original 1904 bandstand sits next to the museum to offer a shady respite for visitors. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. 104 E. Kleberg St. 351/592-8516. No admission fee.

JOHN E. CONNER MUSEUM—Hall of South Texas History has displays of Indian, Spanish, Mexican, and pioneer Texan cultures; ranching and agriculture equipment, railroads, and land promotion. Gallery of changing exhibits.

Kleberg Hall of Natural History features plants and animals of South Texas in natural habitats; Discovery Area has specimens for “hands-on” examination. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Next door is Peeler Hall of Horns (open Mon. - Sat. 1 - 5 p.m.) featuring 264 mounts of North American game.

Santa Gertrudis St. on campus of Texas A&M-Kingsville just west of Armstrong St. 361/595-2810.

KING RANCH—National Historic Landmark established in 1853 when Capt. Richard King purchased 75,000 acres that had been Spanish land grant called Santa Gertrudis. Now-famous Santa Gertrudis breed, first strain of beef cattle originating in Western Hemisphere, was developed here. Today, King Ranch sprawls across 825,000 acres of South Texas land, an area larger than the state of Rhode Island. It remains a working ranch with 60,000 head of cattle and 300 quarter horses.

Historical and guided tours are offered daily. Nature tours showcase the ranch's abundant wildlife and birds. Available by reservation. Special group tours are also available. King Ranch Visitor Center is open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., Sun.

noon - 5 p.m. Entrance is immediately west of Kingsville off Texas 141. Please call 361/592-8055 for tour information and reservations. Admission fee.

LOS FRESNOS

Pop. 4,512 Alt. 31 Map Z-17/AA-20

GENERAL—Located in south central Cameron County, the town was named for the fresnos (ash) trees scattered in the woods and along streams. In 1912, Lon C. Hill, an early land owner, formed a company to develop a canal system that would use the Rio Grande River to irrigate land for farming. Railroad construction in the early 1900s began to bring settlers to the area, and by 1915 a post office was established. Because of the fertile, irrigated land, farm products increased and with the long growing season in the Valley, farming flourished. Today the city is still surrounded by fertile farm/ranch land. Major crops are cotton, sugar cane, sorghum, and citrus.

For information on events, accommodations, and dining facilities, and other area happenings, contact the Los Fresnos Area Chamber of Commerce at 956/233-4488.

LITTLE GRACELAND—Contains large collection of Elvis Presley memorabilia, including photos, posters, watches, and more. The owner served in the U.S. Army with Elvis while stationed in Germany. At times during the year, there are Elvis impersonator contests. Usually open weekends; otherwise by appointment. West Ocean Blvd. (Texas 100) downtown. For information, write Rt. 1, Box 94, Los Fresnos, TX 78566. For information, 956/233-5482. Admission fee.

MONT BELVIEU

Pop. 2,324 Alt. 48 Map Q-22

GENERAL—Located on a salt dome in Chambers County, the community was established in 1849 as Barbers Hill. Postal authorities suggested a name change to Mont Belvieu to avoid confusion with other offices of similar names. The community lay quietly as a center for farming and cattle-raising until oil was discovered in 1916. Though this early discovery was of limited dimensions, land lease speculators quickly grabbed up leases, buying and selling at a frenzy. In 1926, wildcatter Mills Bennett tapped into the first gusher production. The salt-dome storage capabilities were initiated in the 1950s and expanded. Today products processed through the grand underground caverns are shipped worldwide, providing the life-blood for nearly all of the petrochemical industry. On I-10, the city is closely tied to the Houston-Baytown area.

GENERAL—In the late 1800s, Arthur Stillwell, owner of the Port Arthur Townsite Company, constructed a railroad from Kansas City to Lake Sabine and gave many of the towns along the way Dutch names because of financial backing in Holland. It was his hope that Nederland become a transplanted Dutch settlement. While many Dutch did settle here, people also came from other parts of Texas and the United States. On December 24, 1897, Robert Gilham, civil engineer, filed a certificate describing the finished survey for the Nederland townsite. Rice farming, truck farming, and dairy farming played an important role in the settlement. But growth began in earnest with discovery of the Spindletop Oil Field, just seven miles north, in 1901. See BEAUMONT.

ARMAND BAYOU NATURE CENTER—2,500 acre nature preserve in southeast Harris County at the southern end of city, very close to Space Center Houston. The preserve is in the Central Flyway, which is the largest migratory bird route in North America. More than 220 species of birds may be seen at the Nature Center and more than 350 species of wildlife. The preserve encompasses three major ecosystems: hardwood forest, tall grass prairie and the estuarine bayou. Visitors can enjoy a bird blind with interpretive material, more than five miles of trails and a turn-of-the-century farm site. Weekend visitors may enjoy demonstrations, and guided walks. Open Wed. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. noon - 5 p.m. Closed Mon. & Tues. and major holidays. 8500 Bay Area Blvd. (7 mi. east of I-45.) Call 281/474-2551.

HERITAGE PARK—A newly dedicated area featuring two homes in their original locations. Both the Pomeroy House, built in 1906, and Anna's House, built in 1928, are featured with the William Parks "Strawberry House," recently relocated to this park. A museum collection features local history from pioneer times to the present. Open Wed. - Fri., 9:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.; Sat., 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun., 1 - 5 p.m. Group tours are welcome. 204 Main at Eagle streets (one block south of Texas 225, use Shaver St. Exit). 713/477-7237.

GENERAL—First established as Mark Belt in 1893 in northern Brazoria County; name changed to Pearland for abundance of pear trees in the area. Although growth was slow, city survived the 1900 Galveston hurricane. Oil and gas discoveries nearby helped swell the population in 1934. Its proximity to Houston has paralleled growth in the area. The city is 15 minutes equidistantly between the Houston Medical Center and the Johnson Space Center, and 45 minutes from Galveston Beach, but maintains its country-style living. It was named a 1999 All-America City by the National Civic League.

For additional information on accommodations, events, and restaurants, contact the Pearland/Hobby Chamber of Commerce at 3501 Liberty Drive, or call 281/485-3634.

COLE'S ANTIQUES AND FLEA MARKET—Covers more than 40 acres with more than 600 dealers from across the state. Open six days a week 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. (closed Wed.). Located at 1014 N. Main St. (Texas 35), just south of Beltway 8.

SRI MEENAKSHI TEMPLE—Rising from the flat, coastal plains in Brazoria County, this Texas Hindu temple resembles the way temples look in southern India. It provides a spiritual base for many Houston-area Hindus. For tour information, call 281/489-0358, or visit www.temple@meenakshi.org. At 17130 McLean Rd.

GENERAL—On Mustang Island, reached by causeway and free, 24-hour ferry service; one of the most popular tourist destinations on Gulf Coast. English settler built ranch house on site in 1855; later developed as fishing village. Summer visitors swell population by thousands. Hotels, motels, resorts, bait and tackle shops, superb open beaches, shrimp boat port, U.S. Coast Guard Station.

Port Aransas lies along the Great Texas Coastal Birding Trail, which extends from Brownsville to Orange along the Texas coast. The trail is cosponsored by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department and the Texas Department of Transportation.

BIRDING CENTER—Texas has four of the country's top 12 bird watching sights, and the Port Aransas-Rockport area is one of the best. Local and migrating birds find the wetlands a perfect habitat. Vegetation pockets in the Center are designed to attract hummingbirds as they migrate in the spring and fall. A brochure is available from the Port Aransas Visitor Center listing species of birds likely to be viewed. In addition to bird and plant life, the Center is home to "Boots," a six-foot alligator, who is occasionally seen basking in the sun. It's also home to a family of nutria. Open daily. Center is off Cut-Off Rd. on Ross Avenue.

FISHING—Advertised as place "where they bite every day," each season offers variety of species to tempt anglers. Free fishing available from beaches, south jetty, and Station Street Pier; catches may include redfish, red snapper, tuna, shark, speckled and sand trout, sheepshead, flounder, croaker, skipjack, and drum. Group boats provide bay and deep-sea fishing; charter cruises available for offshore sport seeking sailfish, marlin, kingfish, mackerel, ling, pompano, bonito, red snapper, warsaw, and others. For boat owners, docking facilities and several free launching ramps.

Series of fishing tournaments span calendar from Jun. to Sept., including tarpon, billfish, and surf fishing tournaments. The Deep Sea Roundup, held in July, is the oldest fishing tournament on the Gulf Coast.

HISTORIC INN—Tarpon Inn—Vintage wooden structure dates from 1886; still popular and now 80 percent restored. Famous guests have included Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Duncan Hines who spent his honeymoon here. Seafood restaurant; 26 rooms with baths. 361/749-5555.

MUSTANG ISLAND STATE PARK—3,474 acres of sand dunes, sea oats, and beach morning glory with five miles of Gulf beach frontage offering the best of seaside camping, surfing, fishing, swimming, and shell collecting! Multiuse campsites with hookups plus large beach area for primitive camping. Other facilities include picnic arbors, rest rooms, showers, and dump station. Rewarding bird-watching for abundant shore and migratory birds. Fourteen miles south of Port Aransas on Texas 361 Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

PARADISE POND BIRDING HABITAT—Port Aransas' newest birding site, offering three excellent viewing areas along a wooden boardwalk winding over a freshwater pond. Owned and operated by the city's Parks and Recreation Department. Open daily. 400 Cut Off Road. For more information, call 361/749-4158.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS MARINE SCIENCE INSTITUTE—Research facility with visitor center includes aquariums with Gulf marine life and plants. Movies shown at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Mon. - Thurs. Center also has fascinating oceanographic poster displays. Along ship channel between Mustang and San Jose Islands. Open weekdays 8 a.m. - noon, 1 - 5 p.m. For more information, visit www.utmsi.utexas.edu. 361/749-6806.

GENERAL—On northwest shore of Sabine Lake nine miles from Gulf of Mexico, site of settlement known as Aurora in 1840. City named after Arthur E. Stilwell, Kansas City financier, who was instrumental in building railroad to edge of townsite. Home of Lamar State College (formerly Port Arthur College). Queen of Peace statue and Oriental gardens at 801 9th Ave. are especially beautiful when decorated with 700,000 lights at Christmas.

Port Arthur comes alive during Mardi Gras. This pre-Lenten celebration is growing in the Cajun city and it's family oriented. Call the convention and visitors bureau at 409/985-7822, or 800/235-7822, or stop by at 3401 Cultural Center Dr. (9th St. exit from Texas 73) for information on events, accommodations, and other area attractions. www.portarthurtexas.com.

City is year-round fisherman's destination. Average temperature varies from 55 degrees in winter to 82 in summer. Port Arthur Convention and Visitors Bureau has an area Waterways Guide showing many excellent locations to catch more than 25 varieties of freshwater and saltwater fish, along with charts, marina, fuel and services information.

LAKE—Sabine. See LAKES listing.

MUSEUM OF THE GULF COAST—In former bank building downtown, the museum is outstanding. Note the striking murals on walls. Exhibits depict great strides made in the span of Port Arthur's history. Relics from Battle of Sabine Pass, mortgage note issued by Santa Anna ($500 mortgage bond issued by Mexican general on his personal property to raise funds for his army), and an Edison Talking Machine.

Southeast Texas Musical Heritage Room features memorabilia of rock star Janis Joplin. Joplin's painted psychedelic Porsche sits on top of a spinning gold record. Some two dozen other musical stars are also featured, including J.P. "Big Bopper" Richardson, Jr.; Richard Valens; and Tex Ritter.

The museum is open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. It's at 700 Proctor St. 409/982-7000.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES—McFaddin and Texas Point National Wildlife Refuges are to the south on the Gulf along Texas 87. At Sabine Pass is Texas Point Refuge, once called Sea Rim. As with other Gulf Coast refuges in the state, tremendous concentrations of waterfowl are seen as well as a great variety—more than 60,000 snow geese (along with white-fronted and Canada geese) use the marsh; 23 species of ducks are represented and the number on the refuges reaches 100,000. The mottled duck, the only resident waterfowl species, uses the marsh for its summer nesting habitat. The McFaddin Refuge contains one of the densest populations of American alligators in Texas. Public activities include wildlife observation, photography, waterfowl hunting, fishing and crabbing. For directions and information contact refuge headquarters in Sabine Pass at 409/971-2909 or visit McFaddin Refuge office on Shell Oil Company road off Texas 87.

PLEASURE ISLAND—Connected to city by M. L. King-Gulfgate Bridge that arcs 138 feet above ship channel; access from island via Texas 82 causeway to Cameron Parish, LA. Island is in Sabine Lake, 100-square-mile lake that opens into Gulf of Mexico. Disc golf course, new championship golf course, marina, lakeside RV parks, boat ramps and miles of free roadside fishing levees from which anglers take redfish, drum, speckled trout, croakers and other species; excellent crabbing year-round. Fun Island Depot playground is on the island and is a replica of city's old railroad station.

POMPEIIAN VILLA—Built for Isaac Ellwood, "Barbed-wire King," in 1900; sold to president of Diamond Match Co. who traded it for Texas Company (Texaco) stock worth $10,000. Stock's value now would exceed hundreds of millions of dollars. House on National Register of Historic Places. Open Mon. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. 1953 Lakeshore Dr.

RAINBOW AND VETERANS' MEMORIAL BRIDGES—A high, graceful arc on Texas 87 spans the Neches River joining Orange and Bridge City on the north with Port Arthur to the south. The two-lane, vintage Rainbow Bridge, completed 1938, spans salt marshes and industrial river channel for 1.5 miles including approaches. The bridge's 176-foot clearance height resulted from requirement that any U.S. Navy ship could pass under; tallest ship of the Navy's 1938 fleet was a dirigible tender that never sailed up the Neches.

Veterans' Bridge was completed in 1991; with 143-foot navigation clearance, it is first cable-stayed bridge on Texas highways. Golden Triangle Veterans Memorial Park at the south end honors area veterans and has static display representing all branches of service. It also offers a pavilion for picnics and great views of the bridges and passing ships.

ROSE HILL—Built in 1906 by Rome H. Woodworth, a 14-room Southern Greek Revival home with an upstairs balcony that wraps around the home that was designated a historical landmark in 1978. Tours offered daily. 100 Woodworth Blvd. 409/985-7292.

SABINE PASS—Laid out in 1836 by Sam Houston and Philip A. Sublett. Name changed to Sabine Pass in 1839. At one time population numbered around 6,000 but storms in 1886, 1900 and 1915 took heavy tolls. Historically significant event was Battle of Sabine Pass during War Between the States. City was annexed by Port Arthur in 1978.

SABINE PASS BATTLEGROUND STATE PARK AND HISTORIC SITE—Site of astonishing Civil War battle on Sept. 8, 1863, between a Union fleet attempting to invade Texas at Sabine Pass, against a force of 47 Confederate artillerymen. Union fleet numbered some 22 vessels and 5,000 men; Confederate defense was small earthen Fort Griffin with six cannon and 42 men under Lt. Richard W. Dowling. Accurate fire by Dowling's men crippled three Union gunboats in a battle lasting approx. 45 minutes. Federals lost 68 men killed or missing, another 350 taken prisoner by the Confederates who suffered no casualties. Remaining Union force retired to New Orleans. Today, an interpretive pavilion illustrates the story of the 1863 battle. A sidewalk takes visitors past chronologically-arranged historical markers detailing additional facts about the battle and other highlights of local history. Overlooking the Sabine Ship Channel, the statue Richard W. Dowling stands near the original site of the fort. Park features seven RV camping sites with water/AC hookups and dump site, ample spots for fishing, boat ramp, rest rooms, picnic facilities with water and grills. Primitive camping is permitted in non-historical area of the park on a first-come, first-serve basis; no reservations accepted. Fine view of ships entering and leaving Gulf of Mexico. 12 miles south of Port Arthur on E.M. 3322 (Dick Dowling Road) off Texas 87. 409/971-2559.

SEA RIM STATE PARK—With a 5.2-mile coastline and more than 4,000 acres of marshland, the park offers a variety of recreational opportunities. The visitors center features a 300-gallon aquarium, two boardwalk nature trails, canoe rentals and paddle boat rentals at the Marshlands Unit, Marsh Airboat Tours (reservations required in spring and fall), beachcombing along the shore, surf fishing or fishing in the marsh lakes by boat, swimming in the gulf. 20 RV campsites and 10 tent pad sites. Call 512/389-8900 for campsite reservations. Rest rooms, hot showers, grills, fire rings, and primitive campsite on the beach also available. Abundant wildlife and located on the Great Texas Coastal Birding Trail. 22 miles south of Port Arthur on Texas 87. 409/971-2559. Admission fee.

SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE—Dedicated in 2002 by the Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church, this outdoor shrine features the 17-foot bronze statue set upon rocks brought to the site from Mount Tepayac in Mexico City, where the Virgin Mary appeared to Juan Diego. Surrounded by arched rock walls that showcase stained glass depicting various symbols relating to Our Lady of Guadalupe. 9th Avenue at Sgt. Lucian Adams Drive. No admission fee.

TEXAS ARTISTS MUSEUM—Primarily exhibits work by artists in or originally from Jefferson and Orange counties. Once a month, usually the second Sun., the museum offers a cultural/entertainment program featuring area musicians, singers, dancers, actors, and artists. This enables residents and visitors to experience all types of art. Open Tues. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. At 3501 Cultural Center Dr. For information, call 409/983-4881.

WHITE HAVEN—Victorian elegance fills this Southern Greek Revival mansion in the city's Historical District. Porcelains from the 18th and 19th centuries, unique candelabra from Persia, historic furniture pieces. For tour information, call Lamar State College, Port Arthur at 409/984-6101. 2545 Lakeshore Dr. Donations.

GENERAL—Closely tied to the sea, the town is home port to commercial fishing and shrimp boats, plus charter boats and a fishing pier. A wide variety of sea birds draws birders to this colorful community. The coastline and bays were first mapped by Alonzo de Piñeda in 1519; he called the mainland "Amichel"—the earliest recorded designation of what was to become Texas. For more information, call the Port O'Connor Chamber of Commerce at 361/983-2898 or visit www.portoconnor.com.

MATAGORDA ISLAND STATE PARK AND WILDLIFE

MANAGEMENT AREA—For several years, beginning in 1942, a portion of Matagorda Island was used for practice bombing by the U.S. Air Force. Now, as a state park, the 7,325-acre area has largely returned to its natural state as a haven for migratory water fowl and deer. The park is seven miles south of Port O'Connor, separated from the mainland by Espirito Santo and San Antonio Bays. Facilities include primitive beach campsites, dockside campsites, pit toilets and outdoor showers. Picnicking, camping, fishing, boating, swimming, beach-combing, and nature study. Birding is very popular; more than 300 species of migratory birds have been spotted here. Among most noted birds that migrate to the island are whooping cranes, which spend winter on portions of the island across from Aransas National Wildlife Refuge. Accessible only by charter or private boat. 800/792-1112.

GENERAL—In southeastern San Patricio County on bluff overlooking Nueces and Corpus Christi Bays. Town was dream of John G. Willacy who effectively merged the New England Land Co. of Portland, Maine, New England Real Estate Co., and Portland Harbor and Improvement Co. of Wichita, Kansas, into working unit and purchased 1,920 acres of land from Coleman-Fulton Pasture Co. in 1891. Post office authorized on March 9, 1891; incorporated in 1949. City forms almost perfect triangle with Portland, Maine, and Portland, Oregon.

FRED JONES NATURE SANCTUARY—Beautiful site owned by Audubon Outdoor Club of Corpus Christi, open daily from sunrise to sunset and is area hot-spot for birders looking for warblers, vireos,orioles, and other songbirds during migration. Buff-bellied hummingbird is a resident, and many other species inhabit the native brush and trees along the creek year-round. No vehicles allowed in park, as walking path is only access. From Portland, travel five miles west on F.M. 893, then south on C.R. 69E approximately one mile and look for wooded area and sanctuary sign on left. For more information, call the Portland Chamber of Commerce at 361/643-2475.

INDIAN POINT PARK AND PIER—55-acre city park attracts both nature lovers and anglers. 720-ft. pier with 280-ft. T-head over Corpus Christi Bay featuring some of the best saltwater fishing grounds in the Coastal Bend. Two raised boardwalks extend more than one thousand feet into wetlands; home to 36 bird species, 33 sea creatures, and 35 plant species, several listed as endangered. Wade fishing area, picnic area. Concession building with restaurant, rest rooms, live bait and other fishing necessities. Admission fee to pier; no fee for use of park. Open 24 hours. On U.S. 181, northbound side. 361/643-5483.

PARKS—More than 188 acres of city parkland with playing fields for soccer, baseball, and softball, and tennis and volleyball courts.

Sunset Lake Park is a 333-acre protected park operated by City of Portland. An ecologically rich wetland and saltwater lake, also lined by a two-mile hike and bike trail. The lake and its marshlands act as a nesting ground for several migratory birds. Visitors can enjoy birding, fishing, kayaking, canoeing, swimming and sailing in Sunset Lake. To access park, from Portland take Moore Ave. exit and go south toward bay, then take right on Sunset Drive. Open daily dawn to dusk. HISTORIC INN—Queen Isabel Inn—Opened in 1906 as the Point Isabel Tarpon & Fishing Club to serve tourists and businessmen traveling on the Rio Grande Railroad. As the Point's first and only hotel for more than 20 years, the hotel was the site for many significant events in the town's history, including President-elect Warren Harding's vacation in November, 1920. The hotel was also the birthplace and headquarters for the Rio Grande Valley Fishing Rodeo started in 1934 by the hotel's manager, Dr. J. A. Hockaday. The rodeo is now the Texas International Fishing Tournament. Hurricanes in 1933 and 1967 changed some of the building's exterior features. Storms, modernization, and ownership are reasons for some floor and name changes of the hotel over the past 90 years. At 300 Garcia St. For information, 956/943-1468.

PADRE ISLAND—See SOUTH PADRE ISLAND.

PORT ISABEL HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Housed in the historic Charles Champion building, the museum shares its grounds with a water well used by Zachary Taylor's troops when Port Isabel served as a supply depot during the U.S./Mexican War. Built at the turn of the century, the structure served as a general store, post office, railroad depot, and at one time, the source of the only telephone in town. Nationally known for its fish mural painted in 1906. Exhibits include hands-on displays, audiovisual film interactives, original artifacts, rare documents, and vintage photographs that tell the story of Port Isabel and area. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. 317 Railroad Ave. For information, 956/943-7602. Admission fee.

PORT ISABEL LIGHTHOUSE KEEPER'S COTTAGE—When lighthouses were built in the early days, people who manned them lived in a small house beside the lighthouse known as the Keeper's Cottage. A new cottage stands beside the historic lighthouse re-creating the past; however, this cottage is home to the Port Isabel Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center. The center has information on area attractions, events, and accommodations. Open Mon. - Fri., 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat., 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. For information, call 956/943-2262 or 800/527-6102.

PORT ISABEL LIGHTHOUSE STATE HISTORIC SITE—Built 1853, remained in use until 1905. Always a popular subject with photographers. HALFMOON REEF LIGHTHOUSE—Established 1858 on Matagorda Bay. Kept dark during War Between the States for benefit of blockade runners, was reactivated in 1868. Severely damaged in 1942 hurricane, but keeper kept light operating. Condemned following storm and moved in 1943 from location on WW II bombing range to Point Comfort. Moved again in 1979 to site next to chamber of commerce, Texas 35 Bypass near causeway.

INDIANOLA COUNTY HISTORIC PARK—At site of old Indianola town. Down through history many ghost towns have dotted the Texas landscape, but none lived longer, thrived more successfully—nor died more tragically than Indianola on Matagorda/Lavaca Bays. For details, see INDIANOLA. Picnicking, fishing, boat ramp, camping (with hookups); 13 miles southeast via Texas 238 and 316.

LA SALLE MONUMENT—Erected at site of Indianola to commemorate where La Salle is thought to have first landed in Texas in 1685. Entire memorial is of Kingsland pink granite, 22 feet in height. Highway rest area is adjacent to monument; about 14 miles south on Texas 316. See INDIANOLA.

LIGHTHOUSE BEACH & BIRD SANCTUARY—Beautiful sandy beach, waterfront camping sites, along with swimming pool and playgrounds make this a fun place to visit. Birders find many species here. The Formosa Wetland Walkway and Alcoa Bird Tower, made completely out of recycled plastic, provide visitors a place to watch the birds.

PORT LAVACA STATE FISHING PIER—Old highway causeway, replaced by modern span, now popular lighted fishing pier extending 3,202 feet into Lavaca Bay. Swimming, boating and saltwater fishing. Facilities include snack bar, bait stand and rest rooms. Port Lavaca City Park at base of pier has boat ramp, picnicking and recreational vehicle facilities. Fee for pier use. GENERAL—Until 1948, the little-used highway from Raymondville to point on Laguna Madre called Redfish Bay was traveled by occasional fishermen going to deserted beaches. No community marked the road's end at the water's edge. People of Willacy County, employing own financing, set about creating a port. They built wharves, docks and turning basin; laid out townsite, and called it Port Mansfield. Ship channel completed 1962, slicing across shallow Laguna Madre, through Padre Island into deep waters of Gulf of Mexico.

Port Mansfield's surrounding salt flats and small spoil islands support an amazing variety of resident and migratory birds. The nearby Laguna Madre area is well-known among bird watchers.

The town is also home to U.S. Weather Bureau and U.S. Coast Guard Stations.

Contact the chamber of commerce office for additional information on events, accommodations, and dining facilities at 956/944-2354.

BOATING AND FISHING—Launching ramps, marine supplies, docking facilities, and both wet and dry storage available. Fishing by boat or from piers in Laguna Madre; fishing and beachcombing on Padre Island; deep-sea fishing in the Gulf of Mexico; charter boats available. Depending upon season, fishing location and proverbial luck, catches may include redfish, speckled and sand trout, sheepshead, flounder, croakers, skipjack, drum, tarpon, sailfish, marlin, kingfish, mackerel, ling, pompano, bonito, red snapper, warsaw, and others.

Before the Civil War, the area became a center for ranching and cattle as herds were shipped north to the market centers. When the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway extended its tracks through the area, it bypassed Richmond. Post-Reconstruction era brought "Jaybird-Woodpecker War" with heavy casualties among rival political factions 1888-90. Carrie Nation's crusade against "demon rum" began in Richmond. Silver-domed Fort Bend County Courthouse dates from 1908 and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places; historical markers on grounds.

Growth has paralleled nearby Houston and Harris County. Fertile coastal plains are devoted to farming and ranching. Industries include oil, salt, sulphur production, steel fabrication and diversified manufacturing.

Morton Cemetery contains graves of many early pioneers of Texas.

The chamber of commerce offers information on historic sites and recreation throughout area, as well as information on accommodations and dining facilities at 4120 Avenue H, or call 281/342-5464.

DECKER PARK—Historic buildings include 1901 railroad depot, and the McNabb House, c. 1850, (Carrie Nation's daughter's home) located adjacent to the 1896 county jail. The county jail houses the Richmond Police Dept. and is an excellent example of Richardsonian Romanesque revival style of high Victorian architecture. 500 block of Preston.

FORT BEND MUSEUM—Cited as one of state's best small museums. Walk through galleries representing the 1821 settlement of Spanish Texas by Anglo-American colonists and the role of Stephen F. Austin in that settlement; the Texas Revolution — its causes and the role of Fort Bend County in the encampment of the Mexican Army during the battle of San Jacinto; the plantation era; the Civil War; the ranching era; and the importance of the sugar and cotton industries. Open Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. 500 Houston St. For more information, call 361/342-6478.

GEORGE RANCH HISTORICAL PARK—484-acre living history site where visitors step back in time and experience Texas history. Guests visit the 1820s Jones farmstead, tour 1890s Victorian mansion, and see cowboys working cattle in 1930s working ranch area. Open year-round 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Admission is $9 for adults, $8 for seniors, $5 for children, and kids four years old and younger are free. On F.M. 762, approx. 9 miles south of Richmond. Call 281/343-0218 for group tours, special events or more information. www.georgeranch.org.

LONG-SMITH COTTAGE—Built in the 1840s, home originally on land owned by Jane Long, the Mother of Texas, whose land grant covered most of present-day Richmond. Tour available through the Fort Bend Museum, 500 Houston St.

McFARLANE HOUSE—Built in 1882-83 by merchant Isaac McFarlane, the restored house houses the Fort Bend Museum administrative offices. The historic building played a significant part in the 1889 Jaybird/Woodpecker clash. 410 Jackson St.

MOORE HOME—Home built in 1883 by John M. Moore for his bride, Lottie Dyer. The neo-classical home built by architect Thomas Culshaw, native of Liverpool, England, was remodeled in 1905 from its original Victorian design.

GENERAL—Situated on eastern bank of Arroyo Colorado; land promoters divided lots for town in 1910 and sponsored contest to name townsite. Rio Hondo selected, which means "deep river;" incorporated in 1927. City is part of very fertile farmland in the Rio Grande Valley with cotton and grain principal crops. Mild Valley temperatures lure many winter visitors.

One of two lift-span bridges in Texas is in Rio Hondo. Built in 1953, bridge allows barge and boat traffic to make their way to port at Harlingen.

ADOLPH THOMAE, JR. COUNTY PARK—The popular park on the Laguna Madre is operated by Cameron County and is located within and surrounded by the huge Laguna Atascosa National Wildlife Refuge. Facilities include lighted fishing piers, picnic areas, a playground, boat ramp, nature trail, and 35 RV sites with full hookups. Take F.M. 106 east 3.1 mi. to F.M. 2925; north 14.8 to park entrance. For information and reservations, call 956/748-2044.

LAGUNA ATASCOSA NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE—46,000-acre refuge at southern end of Central Flyway, includes 7,000 acres of marshland, and saltwater and freshwater. Thousands of waterfowl winter here. Resident species include many kinds of gulls, least grebe, Harris' hawk, kiskadee flycatcher, and painted bunting. Other wildlife include coyote, bobcat, javelina, and white-tailed deer. Foot and driving routes. Visitor Center features wildlife exhibits, bird and animal lists; picnic area; access (some 7 miles east) to intersection F.M. 106/ F.M. 1847. Open daylight hours except federal holidays. Saltwater fishing on Harlingen Ship Channel at West Side Recreation Area, access from Arroyo City. Admission fee.

GENERAL—Although separate municipalities, towns share heritage, business, and recreational areas. Abundant access to saltwater recreational opportunities; on peninsula between Copano Bay and Aransas Bay, sheltered from Gulf of Mexico by St. Joseph Island.

Rockport established 1867 as shipping point for wool, hides, bones, and tallow. Became seat of Aransas County in 1871; today important commercial fishing area. Tourists, boaters, and anglers gather to enjoy mile-long swimming beach.

Fulton settled in 1866 and named for George Ware Fulton, who built a French Second Empire style house in the mid-1870s in north Rockport. Coleman-Fulton Pasture Co. ranched in area and promoted efforts toward a deep-water pass and railroads in order to market their beef; now a tourist community.

Rockport-Fulton lies along the Great Texas Coastal Birding Trail, which extends from Brownsville to Orange along the Texas coast. The trail is cosponsored by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. and the Texas Department of Transportation.

Chamber of Commerce office at 404 Broadway St. in Rockport has information about local events, accommodations, dining, and points of interest. Self-guided historical driving tour available; audiocassette tape can be rented to accompany tour. For additional information, call 800/242-0071.

ARANSAS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE—Famed as principal wintering ground for near-extinct whooping crane, refuge is on broad peninsula about 12 miles across bay northeast of Rockport. Passenger boats carrying from 25-90 people are narrated by self-taught ornithologists who will intrigue you with sightings and identifying birds along the way. Administered by U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service as refuge for protection and management of various species of wildlife inhabiting this coastal area. Some 400 species of birds—Canada geese, pintail ducks, American Widgeons, sandhill cranes, and more—have been recorded. Other inhabitants include alligators, white-tailed deer, javelina, and raccoon. Sight-seeing, nature observation, hiking, and photography permitted along designated public-use roads, trails, and at observation towers; also picnic areas. Most rewarding time to view wildlife is Nov. through Mar., when greatest numbers of species are at refuge (including whoopers). Refuge is open daylight hours. Wildlife Interpretive Center features mounted specimens, slide show on whooping cranes, literature. Open daily 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.; closed Thanksgiving and Christmas. At refuge headquarters, about 35 miles north-east of Rockport via Texas 35 north; F.M. 774 east, and F.M. 2040 south. 361/286-3559. Admission fee.

One of the best ways to view wildlife, especially whoopers, is from boats in the Intracoastal canal. From early November through early April, boats from the Rockport Yacht Basin and Sandollar Marina cruise past tidal flats and salt marshes (where many species may be seen) into the whoopers' habitat. Fares vary.

BIRD GARDEN AND WETLANDS POND—Community project to promote understanding of functions and values of plants as a natural resource worthy of protection and survival, and to promote development of low cost, low maintenance landscapes that provide food for birds, in particular, hummingbirds. Includes 19-stop nature trail. Great place to picnic. In Texas Department of Transportation's rest area on east side of Texas 35 N. in Rockport.

CONNIE HAGAR COTTAGE SANCTUARY—Trails designed to protect the wildlife habitat lead nature lovers to select spots where they most likely might see resident and Neotropical migrant birds. Self-guided tours on property where renowned Texas bird-watcher Connie Hagar lived and learned from her feathered friends. Open sunrise to sunset. At First and Church sts.

COPANO BAY STATE FISHING PIER—Former highway causeway across bay north of Rockport (replaced by a modern span); now excellent fishing piers administered by Texas Parks & Wildlife Dept. Piers extend from north and south sides (not connected); total length of both over mile and a half. Concessions on both sides provide tackle, bait, food; public boat ramp south side. Near the present Texas 35 causeway. Modest fee.

FISHING—Jetty sheltering Rockport Yacht Basin is popular spot for bay fishing; dawn hours generally most productive. Many hotels and motels on bayfront maintain private fishing piers for guests. Depending upon season of the year and proverbial luck, catches may include redfish, sand and speckled trout, croaker, sheepshead, flounder, and drum. Group-boat bay fishing available at yacht basin. Offshore species may include tarpon, sailfish, marlin, ling, wahoo, king mackerel, bonito, pompano, red snapper, warsaw, grouper, and others. Public fishing piers are the Fulton Harbor Pier and public piers at north and south ends of Rockport Beach Park and Copano Causeway Pier. Make navigating shallow bay waters a fun experience by chartering a fishing trip. Choose from an array of some 40 professional fishing guides.

FULTON MANSION STATE HISTORIC SITE—Originally named "Oakhurst" by George Ware and Harriet Smith Fulton, the mansion exemplifies classic French Second Empire architectural styling. Completed in 1877, the ornate four-story house was the first in South Texas to feature systems such as indoor plumbing, gas lighting, and centralized heating. Purchased by Texas Parks & Wildlife in 1976, the house was restored to its original splendor and opened to the public in 1983. Open Wed. - Sun.; tours 9, 10, and 11 a.m. and 1, 2, and 3 p.m. (Groups of ten or more need to call in advance, 361/729-0386). Grounds available for weddings, portraits, and reunions. Located at corner of Fulton Beach Rd. and Henderson St. Admission fee.

GOOSE ISLAND STATE PARK—307 acres on peninsula between Copano and St. Charles bays. Rest rooms, showers, picnic sites, open shelters, children's play area, fishing pier, fish cleaning table, boat ramp, tent and trailer camping permitted. Site of "Big Tree," an immense live oak, estimated 1,000 years old. About 12 miles north of Rockport; Texas 35, Park Road 13. Admission fee. 361/729-2858.

MEMORIAL PARK—52 acres with tennis and basketball courts, playground, picnic sites and shelters, soccer and baseball fields, walking/jogging trail with exercise stations, rest rooms, open area. At Enterprise and F.M. 2165.

PAWS AND TAWS RECREATION HALL—Waterfront facility offering square dances, arts and crafts shows, and other activities for winter visitors and area residents. On Fulton Beach Rd. in Fulton. For information, call 361/729-2388.

ROCKPORT CENTER FOR THE ARTS—Rockport has been listed as one of the best 100 small art towns in America, and the ace up its sleeve is the Rockport Center for the Arts. Housed in a restored 19th-century home, the Center is the hub for all areas of the arts, including visual, performing, and literary. Gallery exhibits, workshops and classes, summer day-camp programs, quarterly concerts, an annual art festival, and gift shop are offered by the Center. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. 902 Navigation Circle, at Rockport harbor, in the Museum District. 361/729-5519.

ROCKPORT HARBOR—Situated on Aransas Bay, the harbor offers transient slips with electricity, showers and rest room facilities. Fishing boats feature the day's catch for those wanting the freshest seafood. The harbor is close to Rockport Beach Park, attractions, restaurants, laundry and groceries.

SALTWATER PAVILION—Waterfront meeting facility offering seating for 250, audio-visual support, ample parking, and a covered patio overlooking the ski basin. Easy access to restaurants, lodging and attractions on a mile long sandy beach at Rockport Beach Park. For information, call City/County Parks and Recreation at 361/729-2213, Ext. 134.

TEXAS MARITIME MUSEUM—Experience the rich maritime heritage of Texas from Spanish exploration to the search for offshore oil and gas. With changing exhibits, interactive displays and educational public programming, visitors experience how Texas has relied on the sea. Located across from picturesque Rockport Harbor. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. Closed major holidays. 1202 Navigation Circle at Rockport Harbor. Admission fee. 361/729-1271.

ZACHARY TAYLOR PARK—In 1845, Gen. Zachary Taylor was sent to claim Texas as the 28th state. The flag claiming such was placed at St. Joe Island. Gen. Taylor then led his troops inland and camped under some live oak trees. That campsite today is a city park with a gazebo, pond and butterfly garden. Located at Pearl and Bay streets in Rockport.

lished a station at the junction of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe and the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railroads. Rosenberg was named for Henry Rosenberg, president of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway in 1883. In the 1920s oil was discovered in Fort Bend County and the city became a boomtown. Economy based upon a strong mineral petroleum industry, as well as agribusiness. Growth has paralleled nearby Houston and Harris County.

The city's historic downtown district offers an abundance of shopping opportunities, including antique shops, an old-fashioned soda fountain shop and tea room. The antique district is home to the Rosenberg Railroad Museum, a replica of Rosenberg's original Union Depot.

The Rosenberg Civic and Convention Center, at 3825 Texas 36 South, is home to the Rosenberg Convention & Visitors Bureau and offers information concerning city and area attractions. Open Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. For more information, call 832/595-3520 or visit www.rosenbergtourism.com.

BRAZOS BEND STATE PARK—4,897 acres of Gulf Coastal Plain includes Brazos River bottomlands, beautiful live-oak woodlands draped by wild grape vines and Spanish moss, oxbow lakes and marsh. Abundant wildlife includes white-tailed deer, coyotes, Russian boar, migratory waterfowl, shore- and wading birds, and large population of American alligators. Tent and RV camping, picnic sites, screened shelters, rest rooms, showers, dump station. Fishing pier, hike and bike trails, wildlife observation platforms. 979/553-5101. Access via F.M. 762, 20 miles south. Admission fee.

GEORGE OBSERVATORY—Located within Brazos Bend State Park, this facility is a joint project of Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept., the George Foundation, and Houston Museum of Natural Science. There are three domed telescopes here, the largest a 36-inch Gueymard Research Telescope, one of the largest telescopes in the nation open to the public on a regular basis. It is open for public viewing on Sat. evenings, and is available by reservation on Fri. nights for groups of 30 or more.

The Observatory houses the Challenger Learning Center for Space Science Education, which takes participants on simulated space missions, complete with mission control. This center is a living memorial to the seven Challenger astronauts who lost their lives in 1986. Access via F.M. 762, 20 miles south. For information, call 713/639-4629 or visit www.hmns.org.

RAILROAD MUSEUM—When the railroads purchased land in 1883 and laid out the town site, railroads help build the area. Visitors see the history of the railroad through a collective display of artifacts, memorabilia, rolling stock equipment and exhibits. At 1879 Avenue F. For hours and information, call the chamber of commerce.

SEABOURNE CREEK PARK—164-acre park is home to many species of birds and a large wetland area, including a four-acre stocked lake. A 700-ft. boardwalk lets visitors get a closer look at wildlife. Other features include hiking and biking trails and rest room facilities. Take U.S. 59 south and exit on Texas 36.

Map Z-17/BB-16

GENERAL—City is known as the "Resaca City." A picturesque resaca, 400 feet wide, flows through the city, serving as the main canal of a large irrigation system. Only 8 miles from the Mexican border, city was first named Diaz, for Mexico's president, because the people of the area were predominantly of Mexican ancestry. Anglo settlers didn't arrive until 1906, after the completion of the first irrigation system. Prior to this, the region was an arid, mesquite-cactus-brush covered wilderness. As a result of irrigation, the city, as well as all of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, developed an extensive agribusiness. The mild winter climate allows crops to grow year-round, not to mention the colorful flowers and native trees. A birder's paradise!

Note the name of the streets, particularly in the central part of town. Generally, north-south streets are named after Texas heroes; east-west streets for early community leaders. In other areas of the city, streets are named after landmarks and notable figures in Mexican and American history.

Col. Sam A. Robertson, founder of the city, promoted and built the San Benito and Rio Grande Valley Railroad to provide efficient transportation system for shipping farm products. Because of the intricate network of lines and spurs, the railroad was commonly known as the "Spiderweb Railroad."

Hayrides offered year-round every weekend at 1220 West Business U.S. 77. For schedule and information, call 956/399-7888.

Historical markers are found within the city and area. For information on events, accommodations, and dining, contact the chamber of commerce at 210 E. Heywood, or call 956/399-5321.

LOS INDIOS FREE TRADE BRIDGE—The bridge is centrally located about ten miles south of Harlingen/San Benito on F.M. 509 at Los Indios on the U.S./Mexico border.

NARCISO MARTINEZ CULTURAL ARTS CENTER—Dedicated to the preservation, promotion, and development of Mexican heritage in visual arts, music, theater, dance, film, and literary works. Named for Narciso Martinez, who is considered the "Father of the Texas Mexican Conjunto" music. Open Sat. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. At 225 E. Stenger. For exhibit/event schedule, call 956/361-0110.

FISHING—Available from beach, piers and jetties where catches may include redfish, speckled and sand trout, sheepshead, flounder, croakers, skipjack, and drum. Group boats provide bay and deep-sea fishing for full or half days; charter cruisers available for individual or small-party offshore sport. Offshore species may include tarpon, sailfish, marlin, kingfish, mackerel, ling, pompano, bonito, red snapper, warsaw, and wahoo. Marinas provide fuel, bait, tackle, launching ramps, and boat rentals. Small boats with guides available for bay fishing.

HORSES ON THE BEACH—Scenic horseback rides along the beautiful Gulf of Mexico and the Laguna Madre on South Padre Island. Open year-round with horses suited for riders of all experience levels, ages 6 and up. Groups welcome. Call 956/761-HOSS (4677) for schedules and rates. www.horsesonthebeach.com.

PADRE ISLAND—The long, narrow sand island sweeps in a golden arc north some 110 miles to Corpus Christi. Modern hotels and motels edge several miles of the Gulf at the island's southern tip. Farther north, the island is entirely natural—sand dunes, sea oats, and beach morning glory. (There is no bridge or ferry between South and North Padre.) Beautiful, gently sloping beaches are perfect for swimming and surf fishing. Beachcombers will find bright shells, perhaps floats from the West Indies, driftwood, and occasionally flint points of Karankawa Indians who roamed area.

PARKS—Isla Blanca Park, on the southernmost tip of the island, features more than a mile of clean, white beach along the Gulf of Mexico, for waterfront recreational facilities. The park includes picnic and playground areas, two beachfront pavilions, fishing jetty, restaurants and clubs, a full-service marina with daily charters, a water park, a 1,000-foot sea walk, and boat ramp. Camping facilities include more than 600 RV sites with full hookups. Open 6:30 a.m. - 11 p.m. For information and reservations, call 956/761-5493. Admission fee.

Map Q-20/TT-12

GENERAL—Town built around sugar industry on land granted to Samuel M. Williams in 1828. Williams' brother, Nathaniel, purchased the land in 1838 and with a third brother, Matthew, operated Oakland Plantation growing cotton, corn and sugarcane. In 1853, Benjamin Terry and William J. Kyle purchased the plantation. Terry is known for organizing Terry's Texas Rangers during the Civil War and for naming the town. Upon the deaths of Terry and Kyle, Col. E.H. Cunningham bought the 12,500-acre plantation soon after the Civil War and developed town around sugar refining plant. In early 1900s refinery was sold and named Imperial Sugar. Sugarcane is now imported. Primarily a company town until incorporated in 1959; today the city has a diversified economic base. Growth parallels the huge growth of Houston and Harris County.

MUSEUM OF SOUTHERN HISTORY—Museum, housed in a replica of Thomas Jefferson's retreat house, recalls history of Sugar Land and Fort Bend County. Memorabilia exhibited include an extensive handgun collection from the War Between the States; a bell from the Union Ship, USS Harriet Lane, captured during the Civil War's Battle of Galveston; furnishings and clothing from the antebellum era; exhibit of Terry's Texas Rangers; medical supplies and surgi-

GENERAL—Established in early 1900s on the San Antonio and Aransas Pass RR in east central San Patricio County. Town named for Charles Taft of the Coleman-Fulton Pasture Co. for which the station was a shipping point. Other partners in the enterprise were named Mathis, Fulton, and Sinton—all of whom have towns named for them also. Today's economy is based on agriculture and diversified industries.

TAFT BLACKLAND MUSEUM—Housed in building once headquarters of the giant Coleman-Fulton Pasture Co. Exhibits range from antique farm and ranch equipment to personal and household items of early settlers. Museum also contains valuable memorabilia from the Taft Ranch. Open Thurs. 10 a.m. - noon, 1 - 4 p.m., Sun. 2 - 5 p.m. 301 Green Ave. 361/528-2206.

TEXAS CITY-LA MARQUE

Pop. (Comb.) 55,203 Alt. 12 Map R-22/VV-18

GENERAL—Although separate communities, twin cities share heritage, business and living areas. Texas City was originally called Shoal Point; real growth began in 1891 when financiers from Minnesota purchased site for real estate, rail, and port development.

La Marque was originally known as Highland; name changed in 1882 when post office was granted. It became a station on the International-Great Northern Railroad in 1896.

Today the two cities between Houston and Galveston are both a pleasant residential area and site of major industrial and port facilities. Industries include tin smelter, oil refineries, metal fabrication and chemical plants. Port ships grain, cotton, sulfur, petroleum and chemical products. Location of College of the Mainland.

Recreational opportunities include boating, fishing, swimming, sailing and picnicking; municipal golf course and all-weather municipal shooting range.

Shoppers find bargains at the Lone Star Factory Outlet Stores on I-45 at Delany Rd. in La Marque. An information center inside the mall provides information on area attractions.

For a list of special events, dining opportunities, or additional information for both cities, visit the chamber of commerce office Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. at 8419 Emmett F. Lowry Expwy., Suite 105, or call 409/935-1408 or 281/280-3917.

COLLEGE OF THE MAINLAND ART GALLERY—Exhibits of art by regional and national artists. Open Mon. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. during exhibitions. 8001 Palmer Highway. For information, 409/938-1211, ext. 348.

DIKE AND MARINA—Texas City Dike extends five miles into Galveston Bay with 600-foot fishing pier beyond tip of dike. Pier offers the deepest water for pier fishing in state where anglers often take speckled trout, redfish, flounder, and tarpon. Visitors also find beach, boat launching and service facilities, bait, camping, and motel accommodations.

FRANK B. DAVISON HOME—1897 Victorian structure with period furnishings and archives dating back to Karankawa Indians and Jean Laffite's pirates. Tours 1st Sun. each month. 2 - 5 p.m. 109 Third Ave. N. Admission fee.

GULF GREYHOUND PARK—Greyhound racing year-round. Air-conditioned grandstand facility features four levels, each offering dining and viewing options. Evening racing Tues. - Sun. with post time at 7:30 p.m. Matinee racing is Wed., Fri., Sat., Sun. with post time at 1:30 p.m. Gates open 30 minutes prior to post time. One block west of I-45 South at Exit 15 in La Marque. For racing information, 409/986-9500 or 800/ASK 2 WIN (275-2946) outside 409 area code.

PARKS—Twelve municipal parks offer playgrounds, 2 swimming pools, baseball diamonds, tennis courts and picnic grounds.

VISITOR CENTER—Gateway Visitors Center, operated by Galveston County, offers information on events, accommodations, dining and points of interest for Galveston County. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. At 13001 Delany Rd., Exit 13 off I-45 in La Marque. 409/938-0772.

★ HILL COUNTRY ★

MAYBE IT'S THE SERENE VALLEYS tucked between rolling, cedar-studded hills ... or the abundant indigo and scarlet wildflowers of spring. Perhaps it's the cypress trees that line meandering riverbanks ... or the friendly small towns where time ticks at a slower tock. Then, again, it could be the siren song of Austin's musical melting-pot. Whatever the appeal, the Texas Hill Country captivates fans the world over.

Geographically—and nostalgically—speaking, the region encompasses the heart of Texas, with terrain that varies from hilly to undulating to downright flat. Defined on the east and south by the Balcones Escarpment and bordered on the west and north by plains and prairies, the area incorporates both the geographical center of the state, at Brady, and the governmental core, in the capital city of Austin.

Drive from the Hill Country's eastern edge at Austin to its western limit at the Pecos River, and you will travel about 270 miles. Start from the town of Goldthwaite on the north, slice southward through the region's center to Uvalde, and you will cover some 220 miles. Whatever direction you take in this section of the state, you can count on seeing some of Texas' most scenic vistas.

While fabled hills, clear-running rivers, spacious parks, hike-and-bike trails, and a wealth of lakes feed your fresh-air fantasies, you will find that the Texas hills are intellectually alive as well—with fascinating museums, thrilling theatrical performances, and numerous historical sites.

If you appreciate good wines, there are vineyards and wineries galore to explore, while the shopper in you will relish the multitude of arts-and-crafts shops in the heart of the hills and the clusters of factory-direct discount stores along Interstate 35. Sports-minded? You can exercise to your heart's content at golf, tennis, swimming, biking, and hiking. Or, you can find a flat rock on a pretty hilltop and just sit and ponder.

Your sojourn in the Hill Country can be as active or relaxing, as upscale or rustic as you choose. And, if you decide to sample "all of the above," you have come to the right place!

Detailed information about each site appears following this introduction.

EASTERN RIM

Begin your excursion to the Texas Hill Country in capital fashion. Visit the dynamic city of Austin, where hills and lakes offset high-rise buildings, and hike-and-bike trails provide a haven from the rush of busy thoroughfares.

Austin offers top-notch lodging, renowned restaurants, and shopping that ranges from lavish to low-cost. Nightlife thrives, especially in the cache of clubs that line East Sixth and other downtown streets. Visit during Halloween, and you can watch—or join—throng of costumed cavorters haunting Sixth Street.

If you yearn to learn about Texas, its glories and its eccentricities, visit the Bob Bullock Texas State History Museum near the impressive State Capitol. This marvelous museum (the brainchild of the late Texas lieutenant governor, Bob Bullock) engagingly encapsulates and interprets the essence of Texas culture, geography, industries, peoples, and personalities. Exhibits include the original "Goddess of Liberty" that stood atop the capitol and an AT-6 Texan airplane made in a Texas factory.

Though it costs a little extra, don't miss viewing the museum's The Story of Texas. This multimedia production chronicles the state's history with powerful images, thundering sound, and sensory surprises (among other sensations, you feel the ground shake as oil bursts from a derrick).

Austin, which bills itself as the "Live Music Capital of the World," regularly orchestrates a full range of concerts, club gigs, and impromptu performances. Chances are, you can choose from venues that feature country, rock, Tejano, jazz, classical, and gospel—whatever fits your musical fancy.

As you tour Austin, take time to explore two sites bearing the LBJ initials. The Lyndon B. Johnson Library and Museum displays memorabilia, photographs, and films that illustrate LBJ's presidency (1963-1969). Exhibits include a moon rock and a seven-eighths scale replica of the Oval Office in the White House. On the southern edge of the city, the Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center focuses on educating people throughout the world about native wildflowers and natural vegetation, a project close to the heart of the former first lady. The spacious and attractive facilities offer exhibits, garden displays, and walking trails on some 42 acres of native flowers and grasses.

Perhaps one of Austin's most unusual attractions is the Congress Avenue Bridge across Town Lake. On spring and summer evenings (late summer seems the best viewing time), about 1.5 million bats thrill hundreds of onlookers by exiting their roosts on the underside of the bridge and swirling column by column into the darkening skies.

To enjoy a different kind of bat-mania—as in baseball bat—head to Round Rock, just north of Austin, where you can watch the Round Rock Express (a team whose owners include pitching great Nolan Ryan and his son Reid Ryan), the Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros. Just a stone's throw away is the "Official Hippo Capital of Texas," the city of Hutto. At nearby Georgetown, you can visit the intriguing underground cave (no bats included) of Inner Space Cavern.

Follow Interstate 35 south through Austin to San Marcos, home of attractive parks, historic buildings and an airport hangar bursting with vintage World War II aircraft. You can stroll the lush grounds of Aquarena Center and board a glass-bottom boat on Spring Lake for an underwater view of the bubbling springs that produce up to 150 million gallons of water a day. South of town, you can shop for bargains in the dozens of stores that form Texas' largest factory outlet complex.

A short drive west on R.M. 12 takes you into the hills to Wimberley, a scenic resort town where art galleries, quaint shops and swimming holes vie for your attention.

Back along I-35, south of San Marcos, lies New Braunfels, a bustling town with a proud German heritage. You can swim away an exuberant warm-weather day here at popular Schlitterbahn, the state's largest water park, and at spacious city-owned Landa Park, with its spring-fed, short-but-sweet Comal River (great for tubing).

To gain insight into the town's founding and settlement by German immigrants, visit the intriguing Sophienburg Museum and tour the historic buildings in Conservation Plaza.

Spend an hour or a day at New Braunfels' historic district of Gruene (pronounced "green"), a captivating village replete with antique stores, arts and crafts shops, restaurants, and Gruene Hall, which claims to be "the oldest dance hall in Texas." Sit a spell and sip a long-neck (beer in the bottle).

At Gruene and New Braunfels during warm weather months, you can rent inner tubes and float the cool, clear waters of the Guadalupe River as it courses southward. For an incomparable look at the scenic river, lined with majestic cypress and oak trees, drive westward along the River Road that wanders from New Braunfels to Sattler.

Castroville, southwest of New Braunfels and west of San Antonio, blends yet another European ancestry into the Texas cultural mix. Known as "The Little Alsace of Texas," the town preserves its distinctive Alsatian ancestry in sites such as the Landmark Inn, a state historic structure, where overnight guests enjoy ceiling fans and rocking chairs, but no television. An old gristmill and other historic structures enhance the inn's grounds.

CENTRAL

Some of the region's most scenic and varied terrain lies within the central segment of the Hill Country. Here, you can treat yourself to outdoor adventures with a real Texas flair. Water ski on a massive reservoir one day, then saddle up and ride horseback into the hills the next.

Bandera, about 65 miles west of New Braunfels, ropes you in gently, but firmly, with a whole passel of Western-style pastimes. In fact, if you've ever hankered to experience the "Old West," you've come to the right place. Here, dude ranches introduce you to cow-puncher pleasures such as roundups and rodeos, cowboy breakfasts and chuckwagon dinners, and hayrides and trail rides. Even if you've never so much as seen a horse before, you won't stay a dude for long in Bandera.

Visit the town's Frontier Times Museum with its many Western and Indian artifacts, then spend the evening kicking up your boot-heels to the strains of catchy country tunes at a local honky-tonk.

Blessed with a mild climate and panoramic vistas, Kerrville boasts a variety of lodgings, including resorts and bed and breakfast accommodations. It is also home National Center for American Western Art (formerly the Cowboy Artists of America Museum) and to James Avery Craftsman, a renowned designer of silver and gold jewelry. If you roll into Kerrville around Memorial Day you'll have lots of company. During that time the town hosts thousands of folks attending the Texas State Arts and Crafts Fair and the Kerrville Folk Festival.

Head west to Ingram, which offers "Old Ingram," an area of art studios, galleries, antique shops, and restaurants. Then, follow Texas 27 and Texas 39 about six and-one-half miles west to Hunt and two miles along F.M. 1340. Don't blink. That startling scene before you does not mean you've been transported to Salisbury Plain in England. What you see is Stonehenge II, an eye-popping replica of those marvelous megaliths of Great Britain.

Meander northward from the Kerrville area through the hills to Fredericksburg, a charming town that was settled by German immigrant families in 1846. Fredericksburg brims with bonuses for visitors, including some 300 bed and breakfast and guest house lodgings, shops galore (how about a jar of preserves made from local peaches?) and abundant eateries that often feature tasty German food and delicious breads and pastries. During harvest season, many orchards in this peach-growing center invite you to pick your own—for a price, of course.

The town's strong German heritage plays a role in several popular annual events, especially Oktoberfest in the fall and Kinderfest and Weihnachten during the Yuletide season.

For an insightful look at the part played by the United States Navy and by native son Admiral Chester W. Nimitz in the Pacific during World War II, explore the National Museum of the Pacific War, with life-size and lifelike exhibits that include Allied and Japanese aircraft, tanks, and guns. Then, for a change of pace, tour the peaceful, aromatic gardens at Fredericksburg Herb Farm. Be sure, too, to visit the Wildseed Farms a few miles east, where fields blaze with vivid floral blooms in springtime and you can buy a wildflower seed mixture for your own patch of the planet in any season.

Do you remember the Willie Nelson-Waylon Jennings country classic, "Luckenbach Texas," from 1978? Well, the song memorializes a tiny hamlet southeast of Fredericksburg. Here sits Luckenbach, with its rustic beer tavern and rural dance hall. Sunday afternoons you might find banjo pickers, guitar pluckers, and fiddle players and singers aplenty performing an impromptu concert.

As you travel from Fredericksburg to Johnson City, you're in LBJ country. Here, on land alongside the Pedernales River, the late president was born, spent his early years, and returned as often as he could during his decades of public service. He died at his ranch in 1973.

National and state parks at Stonewall mark the site of the LBJ Ranch, once known as the "Texas White House," as well as LBJ's birthplace and his grave in the small family cemetery. (Be sure to take the National Park Service bus tour of the ranch.) LBJ State Park and Historic Site encompasses a comprehensive visitor center and the Sauer-Beckmann Farmstead, where costumed interpreters demonstrate rural Texas life in the early 1900s. At nearby Johnson City, the National Park Service also maintains the LBJ Boyhood Home.

In the spring, few areas of Texas prove quite so “flora-fied” as this section of the Hill Country, especially around Marble Falls, Llano, and Burnet. Most years, hosts of vibrant bluebonnets, red Indian paintbrushes, and golden coreopsis blanket roadsides and weave trails beside granite outcroppings along highways such as Texas 29 from Llano to Burnet, F.M. 1431 from Marble Falls through Kingsland, and a stretch of county road near Willow City.

Marble Falls also provides a view of Granite Mountain, the source for the stunning red and pink granite used in the construction of the state capitol. A few miles to the north, Burnet harbors an air museum, where World War II aircraft and memorabilia form interesting exhibits. The town serves as the western terminus for the steam-engine-driven Hill Country Flyer excursion train, a two-hour ride from Cedar Park near Austin.

Both Marble Falls and Burnet are great starting points for any visit to the Highland Lakes, a chain of six impoundments that begin with Lake Buchanan on the north and stairstep along the Colorado River southward to Austin. Each lake offers its own special characteristics, but all provide wonderful fishing and boating. Canyon of the Eagles on Lake Buchanan serves as home port to the Vanishing Texas River Cruise, an ecological tour that affords guests a view of rugged cliffs and canyons along the Colorado River and, November through March, possible sightings of the American Bald Eagles that winter here.

Two state parks in the area, Inks Lake and Colorado Bend, are popular with campers, fishermen, and seekers of splendid scenery. In Colorado Bend State Park, time your stay so that you can join a weekend tour to lovely Gorman Falls, its rivulets sparkling midst ferns and moss-kissed cliffs.

To the west, Llano offers several city and county parks, as well as lodging in two historic inns, the Badu House and Dabbs Railroad Hotel. A short drive south takes you to Enchanted Rock State Park, where you can marvel at an immense, 500-foot-high dome of solid granite once revered by Indians and always admired by all.

Hunters particularly prize the area around Llano and nearby Mason, famed for its abundance of white-tailed deer and wild turkeys. North of Mason, the town of Brady is also a favorite of hunters and holds the distinction of being near the geographical center of Texas.

WESTERN EDGE

The western Hill Country’s inner reaches shelter canyons carved by the Frio and Nueces rivers, limestone cliffs that gleam in the sun, and hills crowned by massive trees whose leaves glow crimson and amber in the fall. Cattle, sheep, and goats range over thousands of ranch acres, and one of the most beautiful caverns in the world lies near Sonora.

Here, too, you see traces of the Old West. Menard, west of Mason, served as a stop along the old cattle trails of the late 1800s. Today, a park on the San Saba River marks the site of the old livestock crossing. The town celebrates its western heritage each June with Jim Bowie Days and the musical drama “Song of Silver,” staged in a natural amphitheater.

Travel west toward Eldorado and you know you’re in wool and mohair country. Stop for a shopping spree at the Eldorado Woolen Mill, which weaves fabrics from virgin wool and mohair produced on Texas ranches. West of Eldorado, Ozona markets more than two million pounds of wool annually, making the area one of the top wool producers in the nation.

From Ozona, turn eastward toward Sonora and the fabulous Caverns of Sonora, where crystalline formations adorn ceilings, walls, and floors. Each summer, Sonora’s Covered Wagon Dinner Theater presents performances that recall the area’s early days.

About an hour’s drive to the east, Junction, too, is a major player in wool and mohair production and is the county seat of Kimble County, which boasts more flowing streams than any other Texas county. The area offers good fishing and seasonal hunting for deer, wild turkey, and other game birds.

South of Junction, as you drive to Rocksprings, Camp Wood, Leakey, and Vanderpool, you are surrounded by some seriously stunning scenery. Rocksprings, with an elevation of 2,450 feet, is in the highest area of the Edwards Plateau. The region boasts cool, dry summers, and mild, sunny winters, making it a great destination for camping, picnicking, hiking, rock collecting, hunting, and fishing.

Vanderpool, on the Sabinal River, is a gateway to Lost Maples State Natural Area, where big-tooth maples enrapture visitors each fall with a leafy extravaganza of radiant red and gold. The park also offers 11 miles of hiking and backpacking trails, enhanced by some 350 plant species, abundant birdlife, and three state champion trees.

Near Concan, 1,420-acre Garner State Park borders the clear, chilly Frio River (frio is Spanish for cold). An immensely popular park, Garner provides stone and timber cabins, shaded campsites, with swimming and miniature golf in the summer, fishing, boating, hiking and nature study. South of the park, at a vantage point on F.M. 2690, you can watch the sunset flight of millions of bats as they emerge from a nearby cave. Nature puts on amazing shows in these magnificent hills.

Uvalde and Brackettville anchor the Hill Country’s southern rim. In Uvalde, the Garner Memorial Museum, once home of John “Cactus Jack” Garner, honors the former congressman and vice president under Franklin D. Roosevelt, while the Briscoe Art and Antique Collection provides a look at works by artists including Rembrandt, Gainsborough, Melvin Warren, and Porfirio Salinas Jr.

Brackettville, to the west, bids you linger at Fort Clark Springs resort, complete with 18-hole golf course and spring-fed swimming pool. Fort Clark, established in 1852 and deactivated in 1944, once served as headquarters for military luminaries such as Ranald S. Mackenzie, George Marshall, Jonathan Wainwright, and George S. Patton Jr.

Once upon a time, nearby Alamo Village was the movie set for John Wayne’s 1959 film, “The Alamo.” Complete with an adobe replica of the real Alamo, the site now hosts visitors in Old West-style buildings that include a cantina, trading post, and old-time jail. Sometimes “desperadoes” shoot it out with the “sheriff.” The good guys always win.

So, there’s your quick tour of the Texas Hill Country, just a small sampling of the treats that await. Whether you seek a return to the adventurous Old West, a restful sojourn amidst glorious scenery, or the warm welcome of a friendly town, when you “head for the hills” in Texas, you’ll find a spot meant just for you.

GENERAL—In 1839, five mounted scouts ranged over a broad area of wilderness seeking a site for a new capital city for the Republic of Texas. Location on north bank of Colorado River was chosen where rich blacklands meet scenic hills. Site occupied at the time by a four-family settlement called Waterloo. Name honors Stephen F. Austin, the “Father of Texas.” In early Sept. 1839, archives and furniture of Texas government were transported from Houston to Austin by 50 ox-drawn wagons.

Institutions of higher learning include Austin Community College, Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Concordia Univ. at Austin, Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, Huston-Tillotson College, St. Edward’s Univ., and The Univ. of Texas at Austin.

Major annual events include South by Southwest Music, Film and Interactive conferences in March, and the Austin City Limits Music Festival in Sept.

Austin is starting point for the Presidential Corridor via U.S. 290, Texas 21 to Texas 6 in Bryan/College Station connecting the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum with the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library and Museum in Austin.

The city bills itself as the “Live Music Capital of the World.” Austin has it all—blues, country, reggae, jazz, conjunto, Tejano, swing and rock. Performed in various clubs around city and at nightspots along Sixth Street.

SCENIC DRIVES—Beautiful Hill Country landscapes in almost any direction: Texas 173 north winds through scenic vistas to Camp Verde and Kerrville. Texas 173 south rolls to southern edge of hills and enters lower South Texas Plains. Texas 46 east explores steep-shouldered scenery through community of Pipe Creek to German-accented town of Boerne. Texas 16 and F.M. 470 west is one of the best—dramatic blue hills enfold small green valleys threaded by sparkling creeks.

BIG LAKE

Pop. 2,885 Alt. 2,678 Map N-10

GENERAL—Community developed with building of Orient Railroad in 1911; served as marketing and retail center for surrounding cattle and sheep ranches. The Univ. of Texas owned much of rather arid grazing land around Big Lake where, in 1923, a large oil pool was discovered with the Santa Rita No. 1. The discovery made the Univ. of Texas one of the richest schools in nation. Today Big Lake is seat of Reagan County; name derived from large, shallow depression to the south that forms a broad, shallow lake during rare wet seasons.

HICKMAN MUSEUM—Features memorabilia on Big Lake and Texon. Texon was developed by Texon Oil and Land Co., developers of Big Lake Oil Field. Museum features artifacts of the Santa Rita No. 1, and other oil related relics. Also houses the Big Lake Chamber of Commerce Office. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - noon. 609 Main St. For additional information on museum and city, call 325/884-2980.

OLD COURTHOUSE—Northwest about 12 miles, among flat tablelands and low hills, two-story building of native stone in community of Stiles, county seat at turn of the century. When large landowner refused to let railroad cross his property, the line built through Big Lake and Stiles withered.

REAGAN COUNTY PARK—Large park area with community center, pool, picnic shelters, camping (with hookups), replica of Santa Rita No. 1. North of city via Utah Ave.

SANTA RITA NO. 1—Actual well site with oil derrick and some of the original equipment used during gusher of May 28, 1923; 8,525-ft. well productive until 1990. Historical marker outside fenced site gives more details about the famous well that brought an era of prosperity to West Texas. Four miles west of town on U.S. 67.

BLANCO

Map Q-15

GENERAL—Settled 1853 by pioneer stockmen who had to fortify homes from attacks and raids. Named Blanco (Spanish word meaning white) for the Blanco River. Centerpiece of town square is the Old Blanco County Courthouse, fine example of Second Empire-style architecture. Town was Blanco County seat from 1858 to 1891, when moved to centrally located Johnson City. Now popular tourist and resort area of Hill Country. Town square joined to state park by two-block City Park, with nature trail featuring Xeriscape garden. Sunny climate attracts campers, anglers, and hunters. Hill Country streams offer game fish; hunters take white-tailed deer, wild turkey, quail, and dove during seasons.

Antique stores, art galleries, flea markets, restaurants, and artisans occupy the historic buildings around the old courthouse. The courthouse and 37 other buildings on or near the square are listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

BLANCO STATE PARK—110-acre park, in scenic Blanco River Valley, lies largely within city limits. Camping, trailer sites, picnicking, screened shelters, group pavilion, fishing, swimming, pedal boats, children's play area, rest rooms, showers. On U.S. 281. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

LAKE—Canyon. See LAKES listing.

SCENIC DRIVE—R.M. 32 from U.S. 281 two miles south of Blanco. Portions of drive toward San Marcos follow a ridge called "The Devil's Backbone," a treat of Hill Country landscapes where white-tailed deer are often seen, especially early or late day.

CIBOLO WILDERNESS TRAIL—65-acre inner-city greenbelt with three separate and distinct ecosystems. Includes walking trails, estuary, and year-round offering of environmental awareness programs.

GUADALUPE RIVER STATE PARK—1,900 acres of scenic Hill Country landscapes bisected by the beautiful, cypress-edged river that flows over natural rapids in the park. Wildlife includes white-tailed deer, coyotes, foxes, and armadillos; juniper thickets offer nesting habitat for rare golden-cheeked warbler. Tent and RV camping, rest rooms, showers, picnic sites. Fishing, canoeing, swimming, and hiking. Access via Texas 46, 13 miles east. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

KRONKOSKY HILL—Commanding the highest hilltop in Boerne; original homestead of Albert Kronkosky family, built between 1911-17. Currently St. Albert's Early Learning Center (infant - 13 years, including kindergarten and pre-first) and convent for Benedictine Sisters. Most prominent structure is stone Kronkosky Tower, now the school library, superb lookout site over scenic Hill Country landscapes of the Boerne area. Visitors welcome on the grounds during daylight hours.

KUHLMANN-KING HISTORICAL HOUSE—General history exhibits in historic building. Open Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. and upon request for groups; 830/249-2030. 402 E. Blanco St.

SISTER CREEK VINEYARDS—In scenic Texas Hill Country, this vineyard and winery is headquartered in a historic 1885 cotton gin. Visitors see artifacts of the gin as well as the vineyard and wine-making area. Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon blend, and other wines are produced here. Tours and tastings daily from noon - 5 p.m. (Groups of 15 and more need to call in advance.) Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. From I-10, take Exit 542 to Bus. 87 in Boerne, then F.M. 1376 north 12 miles to Sisterdale. 830/324-6704.

YE KENDALL INN—Stagecoach inn built in 1859; Texas historic landmark listed on National Register of Historic Places. Served as gathering place for lawmen, army officers, cattle drovers, and frontier celebrities. Today offers elegant bed and breakfast accommodations, and includes dress shop, boutique, restaurant, courtyard and meeting hall. Downtown plaza.

most complete ever constructed in the U.S. The Alamo replica, built by adobe craftsmen from Mexico, overlooks a complete frontier village of the 1800s. Operated by Shahan Angus Ranch, set includes a cantina-restaurant, trading post, Indian store, authentic stage depot, old-time jail, bank, saddle shop, and other typical Old West structures. This is a working ranch; don't be surprised to see cattle or hay placed in buildings during the off season. During summer months visitors see regular country/Western shows, often interrupted by shoot-outs between frontier lawmen and desperados. Set still used for movies, television, and commercials. Open daily at 9 a.m.; 7 miles north on R.M. 674. Admission fee. 210/563-2580.

FORT CLARK SPRINGS—Site of Fort Clark, established in 1852. Notable military officers who served here include Col. Ranald S. Mackenzie, Generals George C. Patton and George C. Marshall. Fort deactivated in 1944. Today a resort-retirement community open to public offering motel, restaurant, RV park, 18-hole golf course and giant spring-fed swimming pool. For reservations call 210/563-2493 or 800/937-1590.

Old Guardhouse Museum has local and pioneer history exhibits. Museum open Sat., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. Operated by Fort Clark Historical Society of Kinney County.

HISTORIC BUILDINGS—Several in area are of historical interest. St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church dates from 1878; Masonic Lodge Building, c. 1879, was original county courthouse. It stands next to present courthouse, and is dated by outside staircase.

KICKAPOO CAVERN STATE PARK—For information, visit www.tpwd.state.tx.us.

SCENIC DRIVES—Two highways lead north into scenic landscapes of the Hill Country, rich in wild game and beautiful vistas. Among sheep, goats, and cattle in rocky pastures, travelers may catch glimpses of white-tailed deer or wild turkey, especially in late afternoon. Several views of West Nueces River winding among steep cliffs and hills. R.M. 674 north to Rocksprings or R.M. 334 northeast to intersection with Texas 55.

SEMINOLE INDIAN SCOUT CEMETERY—Dating from frontier era, scouts descended from slaves stolen from plantations by Florida Seminoles. Moved to Oklahoma after Seminole War, many scouts migrated toward Mexico. Army hired 150 as scouts to follow trails of raiding Indians. A group settled in Brackettville around Fort Clark. Descendants remain as farmers and ranchers, and maintain old cemetery on county road about 3 miles south. Graves include four Medal of Honor winners.

BRADY

GENERAL—Settled mid-1800s, became seat of McCulloch County 1876. At edge of Hill Country on former Dodge Cattle Trail.

Historical markers note the geographical center of Texas: one is on the picturesque courthouse square, and another, some 15 miles north on U.S. 377, is five miles southeast of the exact center of Texas. Those markers have been superseded by an exact pinpointing of the center point by the Texas Association of Professional Surveyors. A third marker in place on private land was dedicated in March, 1997. In straight-line distance it's 437 miles to the Rio Grande beyond El Paso, 401 miles to the Rio Grande below Brownsville, 412 miles to the Panhandle border beyond Texline, and 341 to the Sabine River near Burkeville.

The longest fenced cattle trail in the world once extended from a railhead at Brady to Sonora.

The town is nestled around a picturesque courthouse square that features unique craft and antique shops. It offers excellent parks, city-owned lake and golf course, and fishing year-round. Hunting during seasons includes white-tailed deer, wild turkey, dove, and quail.

For information on events, accommodations, dining, or sports events, call the chamber of commerce at 325/597-3491.

HEART OF TEXAS HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Early ranch and home exhibits, farm implements, pioneer weapons, vintage photos, and memorabilia. Housed in restored county jail, circa 1910, still exhibiting cells and prisoner hardware. Open Sat., Sun., and Mon. afternoons. Corner of High and Main sts., one block west of town square.

Pop. 2,404 Alt. 716, Map Q-16

GENERAL—The city was formally established on April 1, 1881, when Mrs. Cornelia Trimble donated land for a townsite at an International-Great Northland Railroad depot there. The area had earlier been settled as part of a Mexican land grant. Common explanation for name is that it derives from the Spanish word, viuda, meaning widow. The town had gathered a reputation as a popular eating stop for rail travelers and the name may refer to a pair of widows who cooked at the establishment in the late 1800s. Only 17 miles from Austin on I-35, the town's growth has paralleled Austin's growth since the 1980s. Many original buildings along Main St. now house antique shops and related businesses, including a popular Farmers Market (May - Nov.).

For information on events, restaurants, and accommodations, call the Buda Area Chamber of Commerce at 512/295-9999.

CEDAR PARK

Pop. 26,049 Alt. 950 Map P-16/EE-12

GENERAL—Like many towns and cities in Texas, Cedar Park was originally settled in the late 1800s and owed much of its past growth to the development of the railroad. In 1881 a narrow gauge railroad running through Cedar Park, connecting Austin to Burnet, was used to haul granite for rebuilding the state capitol and establishing Cedar Park as a permanent settlement under the name of Brueggerhoff, taking its new name from one of the railroad company officials. The community was also known as Running Brushy after a heavy-flowing spring.

In 1973, a prehistoric archeological site six miles east of the city was discovered by the Texas Department of Transportation as they were excavating for the expansion of F.M. 1431. More than 150 fireplaces and campsites were uncovered and in 1982, archeologists discovered the skeleton of a human female, 10,000 - 13,000 years old, that became known as the "Leanderthal Lady." The significant archeological find is located by a historical marker.

The city voted to incorporate in 1973. Growth has paralleled Austin's growth to the northwest along U.S. 183.

NUECES "TREUE DER UNION" MONUMENT—Near high school campus, recalls Civil War hostilities that wracked the nation. Predominantly German settlers of Comfort were openly sympathetic with Union cause. Friction developed with Confederate forces, and some 65 men led by Fritz Tegener determined to leave area and go to Mexico. Group was surprised and attacked by mounted Confederate soldiers on west bank of Nueces River about 20 miles from Fort Clark. Nineteen settlers were killed and nine wounded. Confederate losses were two killed and 18 wounded. The nine wounded settlers were captured and executed a few hours after battle. Monument commemorates the Unionists killed in this tragic episode of a violent era. One of only six National Cemeteries permitted to fly the U.S. flag at half-staff in perpetuity.

GENERAL—The rural community in west Menard County occupies the site of a frontier Army fort founded in the mid-1800s as protection for settlers. On F.M. 864 just south of U.S. 190 (west of Menard).

FORT MCKAVETT STATE HISTORIC SITE—Fort established 1852 as Camp San Saba; later named for Capt. Henry McKavett, killed at Battle of Monterrey in Mexican War. Abandoned during the Civil War; reoccupied by Col. Ranald S. Mackenzie in 1868. By 1876 there were stone barracks for eight infantry companies, 12 officers' quarters, a hospital, guardhouse, magazine, bakery, post office, large headquarters building, storehouses and stables. Importance declined after 1874 when Army offensive produced several major victories, the most significant in Palo Duro Canyon (see CANYON). Post abandoned in 1883. Extensive restoration of ruins. Interpretive exhibits in original hospital feature historical photos, dioramas, and some 200 artifacts. Open daily, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Closed Christmas Day.

FREDERICKSBURG

Pop. 8,911 Alt. 1,743 Map P-15

GENERAL—Settled by immigrant families from Germany in 1846, led by John O. Meusebach. Although settlement was on Comanche frontier, Meusebach-Comanche Treaty of following year established lasting peace. Many older buildings retain traditional German styles; several units comprise National Historic District. German is still spoken occasionally, and old customs are regularly observed: Easter Fires, Schuetzenfestis (marksmanship tournaments), Oktoberfest, Weihnachten, and Kinderfest. Visitors attracted by scenic beauty, European atmosphere, historic landmarks, excellent fall and winter hunting, and famous bread and pastries. Birthplace of Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, Commander in Chief of the Pacific Fleet during World War II.

Fredericksburg is an outstanding spot for sportsmen to find year-round opportunities to hunt native and exotic species of animals. Fall hunting leases are available on many ranches throughout the area, and the Fredericksburg Chamber of Commerce offers a brochure on leases that is available at the visitor information center.

Approximately 40 percent of all Texas peaches are grown in Fredericksburg and surrounding Gillespie County, with more than 60 orchards located within the county. Peach season typically runs mid-late May - early Aug.

The city was also home to the first volkssporting event ever held in the U.S. in 1976, and the city's Pilgrimage Routes consist of three different sanctioned walking routes and one bicycle route that can be walked/biked year-round. For more information call 830/997-8056.

For nearby points of interest, also see KERRVILLE, LUCKENBACH, STONEWALL, and JOHNSON CITY.

ADMIRAL NIMITZ STATE HISTORIC SITE - NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE PACIFIC WAR—Consists of (1) the restored Nimitz Steamboat Hotel, famous frontier hostelry (c. 1852), which houses the history of Fredericksburg and the story of Admiral Chester Nimitz, who was born here in 1885; (2) the George Bush Gallery of the National Museum of the Pacific War, with life-size and lifelike exhibits from American and Japanese battles during the War in the Pacific; (3) Garden of Peace, gift from the people of Japan; (4) the Pacific Combat Zone, showcasing a collection of rare artifacts in realistic Pacific War settings; (5) the Memorial Wall; and (6) the Plaza of the Presidents, which recognizes 10 U.S. presidents from Franklin Roosevelt to George Bush, who served in the military during World War II.

At 304 E. Main St., interior exhibits open daily 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., outside exhibits open 8 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.; except Christmas. For information about the museum and for special events held throughout the year, call 830/997-4379 or visit www.nimitz-museum.org. Admission fee.

BED & BREAKFAST—More than 300 homes and buildings (many of them historic) have been transformed into bed and breakfasts or guesthouses (unhosted). cherished tradition remains today; hillside fires still glow each Easter eve while pageant retells the story.

ENCHANTED ROCK STATE NATURAL AREA—Massive dome of solid granite famed in Indian legend; said to be site of human sacrifices, some tribes feared to set foot on it; others used height as rallying point; all held it in awe and reverence. Indians believed ghost fires flickered on crest on moonlit nights. A National Natural Landmark, the dome about 640 acres; 500 feet high. Open year-round. Hiking, rock climbing and rappelling, picnicking, primitive camping in designated areas (reservations accepted). Note: Because of its popularity, the number of daily visitors is being limited. The park is experiencing erosion problems, soil compacting, and tree loss due to root exposure caused by the thousands of visitors in the park. Therefore, visitation is being limited to protect the natural and cultural resources. Once the park reaches capacity during heavy use periods, such as weekends, holidays, and spring break, it will temporarily close for the day and reopen at 5 p.m. for those who have camping reservations. For park information, call 915/247-3903. Eighteen miles north off R.M. 965. Admission fee.

FORT MARTIN SCOTT—Site of first federal fort established in Texas, 1848, (three years after Texas joined the U.S.) to guard the frontier. But German settlers had already arrived and established a treaty of friendship with Comanches residing in the area. Perhaps unique among Indian treaties, it was never broken by either side. With mutual trust, fort became a center of commerce between settlers, Indians, and soldiers.

Fort with 21 buildings served until 1853. The only original structure still standing was the post guardhouse, now restored. Visitor center exhibits model of the fort and plans for extensive restorations.

Also on display are artifacts, documents, and fascinating details about trade in bear grease, sugar, rice, and coffee. Beef was four cents a pound. Operated by the Gillespie County Historical Society; two miles east on U.S. 290. Open Tue. - Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. No Admission fee.

FREDERICKSBURG BREWING COMPANY—Located at 245 E. Main St. in an 1890s restored rock building, this is the largest brew pub in the area. The true German brewing tradition is utilized. 777 EXOTIC GAME RANCH—Historic, 15,000-acre ranch offers sportsmen from around the world access to the best in year-round hunting and fishing and wildlife photography. The ranch introduced wild game from Africa, India, Europe, and the Orient some 30 years ago, and these animals now flourish in well-established breeding herds. In addition to some 55 species of introduced exotic species, the ranch also has an abundance of native white-tailed deer, elk, bison, and javelina. Hunts conducted safari style by paying daily rate for meals, lodging, and guide, plus trophy fee for game taken. The Ranch has also been the location for filming several Hollywood motion pictures.

777 Ranch has more than 30 lakes and ponds that were developed through an extensive water conservation program. In addition to providing fresh water for the 3,000-plus wild game animals, it also grows some exceptional largemouth bass. All fishing is done on a catch-and-release basis, ensuring future anglers bigger and better fish.

The Ranch has recently opened a 10,000 square-foot lodge and eight new bungalows to offer the finest in accommodations. Reservations required; call 830/426-3476. Access via U.S. 90 two miles west of Hondo city limit; turn left on Richter Lane and follow signs to ranch headquarters.

HUTTO

Pop. 6,800 Alt. 665 Map O-17

GENERAL—Blackland prairie land was first settled in 1854 by a slave named Adam Orgain, then soon after a handful of families, including the Huttos, settled on the land. James Emory Hutto sold his portion of the land in 1876 to found the town and also donated land for the International Great Northern Railroad’s right-of-way through the area. The town was named after Mr. Hutto, who was a successful cattleman and respected civic leader. The town was named “Official Hippo Capital of Texas” by the 2003 Texas Legislature, and in 2004 it became a Home Rule Charter City.

Turn-of-the-century Texas architecture examples can be found in downtown Hutto, as several brick buildings more than 190 years old can be seen. The Hutto Olde Tyme Days Festival, held the third weekend in Oct., includes a children’s carnival, tractor show, car show, silent auction, arts & crafts, parade, food & vendor booths and much more.

Be sure to visit “Henrietta the Hippo,” a 14,000-pound painted concrete statue of a hippopotamus, located downtown on East St. There are also more than 100 smaller painted concrete hippo statues found all over the city (whose mascot is, of course, the hippo). For more information, contact the Hutto Chamber of Commerce at 512/759-4400 or visit www.hutto.org.

CAPTAIN PERRY TEXAS RANGER MUSEUM—The museum is the former home of Captain Cicero Rufus Perry, an early Texas Ranger who, at age 13, served as a courier for General Sam Houston in the Texas Army. Perry's legend comes from his survival of an attack while a Texas Ranger. Located west of Johnson City on U.S. 290 at 404 W. Main St. Open regular business hours. For more information, contact the chamber of commerce at 830/868-7684.

EXOTIC RESORT ZOO—Bring your camera and board one of the zoo's vehicles for a guided tour and close encounter with animals from around the world, such as the Greater Kudu, from Africa, whose horns can grow more than five-feet long. Other sightings might include the Nilgai (Blue Bull) from India, the Eland, Scimitar (White Oryx), or the North American Bison (buffalo). Resort is on 137 wooded acres. There is a petting area where young animals love all the attention they get from kids and grown-ups, too. Perfect for birthday or group parties. Open daily 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Apr. 1 - Oct. 31; Nov. 1 - Mar. 31, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Usually open during major holiday week. For information, call 830/868-4357. On U.S. 281 four miles north of city.

LYNDON B. JOHNSON NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK—Located two blocks south of U.S. 290 between Avenues F and G. Visitor Center features information, exhibits, bookstore, and audiovisual programs unique to facility, as well as ranger talks and monthly guest lectures. Down the street, with guided tours daily, is frame structure nearly 100 years old where Lyndon Johnson lived while attending public school. Furnishings include Johnson family household items and period furniture restored to the 1920 era. Tours of the home are given on the half hour. One block west, via a nature trail, is old ranch complex called Johnson Settlement, owned by President's grandfather and great-uncle 1867-72, and gathering point of seven-county area for cattle drives. The rustic 1856 dog-trot cabin, 1880 stone farm buildings, exhibit center, and pastures with grazing Texas Longhorn cattle reflect the frontier heritage. Operated by National Park Service, open daily, except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's days. (See STONEWALL.) For information, write to PO Box 329, Johnson City, TX 78636, or call 830/868-7128, ext. 231 or 244.

GENERAL—Seat of Kerr County, one of state's most popular health and recreation centers. Area beloved by many to have most ideal climate in the nation. More than two dozen boys' and girls' camps, scores of hotels, motels, dude ranches and religious encampments attract thousands annually. Rugged cedar and live oak-covered hills, picturesque green valleys and beautiful streams edged by towering cypress. White-tailed deer so numerous that motorists are cautioned to be on the alert for them, especially at night.

Capt. Charles A. Schreiner, born in Riquewihir, France, was early, prominent GENERAL—Kyle is eight miles north of San Marcos in Hays County and 20 miles south of Austin and is the second largest city in the county. Here the Balcones Escarpment meets the blacklands prairie. The town was established on July 24, 1880, when David E. Moore and Fergus Kyle (for whom the city was named) gave 200 acres for a townsite to the International-Great Northern Railroad. Lots were first sold in October 1880, at an auction held beneath a live oak tree, now known as the Kyle Auction Oak. An 1895 election incorporated the town but voters discontinued the status two years later. It was incorporated again in 1906. Farming and ranching add to the economy of other businesses in this fast-growing community.

LEAKEY

Pop. 387 Alt. 1,609 Map Q-13

GENERAL—Small community (pronounced LAY-key) is in one of most scenic and picturesque areas of rugged Edwards Plateau. Elevations range from 1,500 to 2,400 feet with deep, dramatic canyons cut by Frio and Nueces rivers. Archaeological excavations show evidence of prehistoric civilizations in area. At time of first Spanish explorers, game-rich area was inhabited by Comanche, Apache and Lipan-Apache Indians. Ranching predominates today featuring cattle, sheep and goats. Flocks of registered Angora goats produce prized mohair. Camping and hunting are popular with visitors. Game birds and animals include white-tailed deer, wild turkey, mourning dove, quail, squirrel, javelina, rabbits, and raccoons.

During the spring and summer visitors enjoy tubing the crystal clear waters of the Frio River, and, in the fall, seeing the beautiful hues of red and gold of autumn leaves on the tree-covered hills.

For information on events, accommodations, and restaurants, call the Frio Canyon Chamber of Commerce at 830/232-5222 or visit www.friocanyonchamber.com.

LLANO

Pop. 3,325 Alt. 1,029 Map O-15

GENERAL—Founded in 1855, on the clear, spring-fed Llano River, the town of Llano became the county seat in 1856. Well established by 1860 with stores, saloons and a hotel, there was no church in the rough frontier village. Llano courthouse dates from 1892.

The present farm-ranch community bills itself the “Deer Capital of Texas” and hosts many hunters seeking abundant white-tailed deer during Fall-Winter season. Year-round fishing in picturesque Llano River and nearby Highland Lakes. Entire downtown square is designated a National Historic District.

Llano has become home to many world champion team ropers and hosts rodeo events attracting participants and spectators from all around the state.

An entertaining and educational walking tour is sure to interest visitors. Information about the walking tour, as well as events, accommodations, hunting, and nearby area attractions around the Highland Lakes is available from the chamber of commerce office at 700 Bessemer, calling 325/247-5354 or visiting www.llanochamber.org.

CITY-COUNTY PARKS—Camping and picnicking available at all. Some with RV hookups, lake and pool swimming, fishing, boat ramp, playgrounds, 18-hole golf course, hiking trails, and scenic views. Black Rock and Shaw Island parks on Lake Buchanan; Robinson City Park on Llano River; Llano County Community Center (park) on west edge of town. Details at the Llano County Chamber of Commerce, 700 Bessemer (Texas 16) north of the river bridge; open Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. 325/247-5354.

ENCHANTED ROCK STATE NATURAL AREA—Massive dome of solid granite famed in Indian legend; said to be site of human sacrifices, some tribes feared to set foot upon it; others used height as rallying point; all held it in awe and reverence. Indians believed ghost fires flickered on crest on moonlit nights. Covers about 640 acres, 500 feet high. Open year-round. Note: Because of its popularity, the number of daily visitors is being limited. The park is experiencing erosion problems, soil compacting, and tree loss due to root exposure caused by the thousands of visitors in the park. Therefore, visitation is being limited to protect the natural and cultural resources. Once the park reaches capacity during heavy use periods, such as weekends, holidays, and spring break, it will temporarily ly close for the day and reopen at 5 p.m. for those who have camping reservations. For park information, call 915/247-3903. South 22 miles via Texas 16, R.M. 965. Admission fee.

HILL COUNTRY WILDLIFE MUSEUM—More than 700 mounted species reflect the collection of Charles K. Campbell, who was one of the first persons to collect all of the North American 27 big game animals. On the courthouse square at 826 Ford St. Open Thurs. - Sat., 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Admission fee. 325/247-2568.

HISTORIC INNS—Badu House—Originally a small-town bank, c. 1891, restored as a country inn and restaurant. Marble-floored front room, quaint dining rooms, original fixtures, and antique furnishings; six rooms and one suite with baths. On Texas 71 north. 325/247-1207.

Dabbs Railroad Hotel—Once a part of a group of hotels located on the Llano River at the end of the tracks, this quaint hotel is the last standing railroad hotel of the Victorian era. This bed and breakfast has kept old-fashioned pleasures like sun-dried linens and homemade meals. At 112 E. Burnet St. 325/247-7905.

LUCKENBACH

Pop. 25 (est.) Alt. 1,561 Map P-15

GENERAL—Settled in 1850 by German pioneers, the tiny hamlet remained obscure until bought in the 1970s by the late Hondo Crouch, Hill Country humorist, writer, and authentic Texas character. An enormously popular country/western song made the name known virtually worldwide.

Luckenbach remains as it was—one unpainted general store that also serves as a beer tavern, a traditional rural dance hall, and a sometimes-used blacksmith shop. Sunday afternoons are often spontaneous “happenings.” Banjo pickers, guitar strummers, and fiddlers form impromptu groups beneath huge old live oaks. Whittlers ply their leisurely craft, and washer pitchers exercise deceptively simple skills.

Luckenbach’s bemusing ambiance, according to one writer, “is like Brigadoon; you’re almost afraid to go back because it might not be there again.”

It’s there—east of Fredericksburg off U.S. 290, five miles south just off F.M. 1376. Don’t count on signs; souvenir thieves swipe them as fast as they can be placed.

MARBLE FALLS

Pop. 4,959 Alt. 764 Map O-16

GENERAL—Named for Colorado River waterfalls over marble outcroppings. Hunting, fishing and camping activities are popular. Native game fish abound in lakes and streams. Fall and winter hunting seasons offer plentiful white-tailed deer, wild turkey and excellent wing shooting of migratory and native game birds.

FOX MEMORIAL MARKER—A monument overlooking Colorado River and scenic Hill Country is dedicated to Oscar J. Fox, composer of the classic popular song, “Hills of Home.” In roadside park on U.S. 281 just south of town.

GRANITE MOUNTAIN—Huge dome of high-quality pink and red granite, prized worldwide. Quarrying began in the 1880s for construction of the Texas Capitol. Unending flow of the superb material has continued ever since, yet bulk of the dome has hardly been diminished. View from roadside picnic area on R.M. 1431 just north of town; visitors not admitted to quarry area.

LAKES—Buchanan, Inks, Lyndon B. Johnson, Marble Falls, Travis. See LAKES listing.

SCENIC DRIVES—R.M. 1431 offers breathtaking scenery both northwest and southeast over winding curves and hills, with frequent glimpses of Highland Lakes. Spring scenes are exceptionally beautiful.

Both R.M. 2147 (not shown on most maps) along western shore of Lake Marble Falls, and Texas 71 through Hill Country are routes to be remembered.

SPICEWOOD VINEYARDS—A family owned and operated vineyard and winery, located in an ancient bed of the Colorado River. Located in Spicewood, just 15 miles southeast of Marble Falls. Tour the vineyard and winery, then stop by the tasting room. Take U.S. 281 South to Texas 71 East, then take C.R. 408 South. Open Wed. - Sun. noon - 5 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; closed Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day. For more information, call 830/693-5328. www.spicewoodvineyards.com.

GENERAL—Seat of Mason County, grew under protection of Fort Mason, one of series of Texas frontier forts. Noted for camping, hunting and fishing. White-tailed deer and wild turkey attract hunters each fall and winter; fishing in beautiful Llano River is year-round sport. Historical interest centers around Indians who once roamed area, a bloody feud known as the Mason County War, and the fort. Many homes and businesses are constructed of original-cut sandstone blocks from old Fort Mason. Bluebonnets blanket surrounding hillsides and valleys during spring. Note picturesque rock fences stitched along scenic countryside. Topaz, the state gem, is found in Mason County's streambeds and ravines. For information about topaz hunts, contact the Mason County Chamber of Commerce.

Pick up "Walking Tour Brochure" at Chamber to explore historic town square. Quaint courthouse built in 1909 sits on lush green lawns amid soaring pecan trees and provides great photo opportunities. The Historic Oden Theater, located on the square, is the oldest continuously-operating movie theater in Texas, and first-run movies are shown Fri. - Mon.

Don't miss Roundup Rodeo Weekend held the second weekend in July.

For additional information on accommodations, dining facilities, events, and other area attractions, stop by the Mason County Chamber of Commerce at 108 Fort McKavett St. or call 325/347-5758. Visit www.masontxcoc.com.

ECKERT JAMES RIVER BAT CAVE—One of the largest Mexican free-tailed bat colonies is found here. Open May - Oct. Thurs. - Sun. 6 - 9 p.m. Take U.S. 87 south to R.R. 1723. Go two miles and turn right on R.R. 2389. Follow signs to cave. Watch for cattle and wildlife on road after dark. For information, call 325/347-5758.

FORT MASON—An officers quarters reconstructed on crest of Post Hill marks location of fort that commanded a wide view. A number of crumbling foundations still show some sites of 23 original buildings that included barracks, officers quarters, storehouses, stables, guardhouse and hospital. Primarily a cavalry post, Fort Mason was duty station for such military figures as Albert Sidney Johnston, John Bell Hood and Robert E. Lee. Fort Mason was Lee's last command in U.S. Army—from here he was called to Washington where he refused command of Union army being prepared for the War Between the States. Briefly activated after that war, Fort Mason was abandoned in 1869. The reconstructed building is on original foundations; double fireplace foundations are original, and rock used was from original building materials of fort. Fort Mason is on the Texas Forts Trail. About five blocks south of courthouse.

FORT MASON CITY PARK—125-acre park with picnicking facilities among large pecan trees, fully equipped RV camping sites, 9-hole golf course, rodeo arena, athletic fields, walking trails, and playscape. U.S. 87 1 mile south. For information and reservations, call 325/347-6449.

MASON COUNTY M. BEVEN ECKERT MEMORIAL LIBRARY—In addition to books, magazines, and other items found in libraries, special areas highlight local literary celebrities. Fred Gipson, author of Old Yeller and Savage Sam is from Mason. Take time to look at the full exhibit on him in the library and stroll out from the library to see the "Old Yeller" statue. Other exhibits include information of the Eckert James River Bat Cave and genealogical information on early Mason families. Open daily, except Sun., just south of the square. For information, call 325/347-5446.

MASON COUNTY MUSEUM—General collection of Mason County historical items is housed in old schoolhouse built in 1870s, largely from material from Fort Mason buildings. Open Mon. – Fri. 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. 300 Moody St.

MASON COUNTY VETERANS' MEMORIAL—Granite memorial located on Courthouse Square inscribed with names of Mason County veterans. Project initiated and completed by Mason High School's Class of 2001 as a tribute to military service given by Mason County veterans.

sion just east of town served as corral, holding up to 3,000 cattle on way to market. Only a historical marker on F.M. 2092 recalls history of mission today.

Currently, sheep and wool production are of primary importance, followed by beef cattle and Angora goats. Legends of a lost silver mine still circulate in area.

HISTORIC DITCH WALK—The Menard Irrigation Canal is locally referred to as "The Ditch." First dug in 1756 by early Spanish Padres for irrigation to the mission, it is still used today with modifications made during the years to supply water to members of the irrigation company. A walk along the canal through the downtown area passes by shopping and sightseeing opportunities. For more information, contact the chamber of commerce office.

MENARD COUNTY MUSEUM—Local history exhibits and frontier artifacts housed in small, vintage railroad depot at U.S. 83/ U.S. 190 (100 Frisco Ave.). For information, call the chamber of commerce at 325/396-2365.

PARKS—The city's parklands provide excellent recreational facilities for residents and visitors. American Legion Park is a plaza surrounding the courthouse complex in the downtown area, complete with swimming pool. Stock Pens Crossing Park, just west of the city on the San Saba River, is on the site of the original livestock crossing. Facilities include a pavilion and picnic tables. San Saba River Park is a 12-acre river bottom tract on the north side where the U.S. 83 bridge crosses the San Saba River. Facilities include picnic tables, swings, a half-mile walking/jogging track, and parking area.

RUINS OF REAL PRESIDIO DE SAN SABA—Spanish fort established 1751 to protect Mission Santa Cruz de San Saba. Mission experienced increasing hostility from Indians, and presidio commander urged missionaries to abandon their effort. They refused, and on Mar. 16, 1758, a strong force of Comanche and other Indians overran the mission, killed many occupants and burned the buildings. Only a few escaped. Small relief force of soldiers from this presidio were so fiercely attacked, they were unable to prevent mission destruction. Presidio was abandoned in 1769. Ruins maintained as county park 2 miles west off U.S. 190.

"SONG OF SILVER"—This musical drama is set in a beautiful natural amphitheater and recalls the historical account of the legendary Jim Bowie and his quest for the Lost Spanish Silver Mine. The performance is usually the third weekend in June, which coincides with the city's Jim Bowie Days celebration. Check with the chamber of commerce for additional information at 325/396-2365.

GENERAL—Not really among mountains, but the setting is picturesque. Established 1890 by storekeeper Thomas A. Dowdy to serve surrounding ranchers with staple foods and supplies. Community in western Kerr County on Texas 27/41 (just south of I-10) still provides much the same service in a rather sparsely populated area of several very large ranches.

Y.O. RANCH—Established 1880 by Capt. Charles Schreiner (see KERRVILLE), the vast ranch is one of Southwest's largest deer and exotic game preserves, with some 35 species of foreign wildlife. Guided hunting tours throughout year (but only during seasons for native species) can produce such trophies as blackbuck antelope of India (the Y.O. has more blackbuck than remain in their native habitat in India), wild Corsican ram, East African oryx, Axis deer and aoudad sheep. Both resident and nonresident hunting licenses available at ranch. Hunting fee guarantees success, or no charge. Photo safaris year-round, and summer adventure camp for youths; fees. Substantial herd of Texas Longhorn cattle. Several historic buildings are preserved on ranch, including stagecoach stop from 1850s; Wells Fargo office from near Boerne; pioneer cabin from near Fredericksburg, and pioneer schoolhouse. 2,110-foot sod airstrip. Daily tour (reservations required; 830/640-3222) at 10 a.m., includes lunch. Overnight accommodations; swimming pool, nature trails, horseback riding. Ranch entrance is 15 miles west of Mountain Home on Texas 41; ranch headquarters 8 miles north of entrance.

NEW BRAUNFELS

Map Q-16

GENERAL—Seat of Comal County, established 1845 on Comal River by German settlers led by Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels. Successful farming, ranching, abundant water from large springs contributed to early prosperity of settlement. German influence in tradition, culture and language still prominent; famous for sausages, breads, and popular river resorts.

The Guadalupe and Comal rivers provide excellent water recreation for visitors. The Guadalupe, between Canyon Dam and New Braunfels, is famous for its exciting rapids and sparkling clear waters and very popular with tubers. Much of the land along the river is private. Please respect the property rights and also help preserve this natural resource. Strict enforcement of laws and regulations applies to the river areas.

Wurstfest (sausage festival), 10 days early Nov., salutes the "best of the wurst." Features singing societies, traditional German bands, dancing groups and sausages of every description. Historical exhibits, art shows and special events.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

SAN MARCOS

Pop. 41,602 Alt. 581 Map Q-16

GENERAL—In 1851, William Lindsey, Gen. Edward Burleson and Eli T. Merriman bought the Juan Vermendi tract of land along the river and laid out the townsite. Legend says Franciscan monks paddling up the Guadalupe River discovered a clear river with large springs at its source and named the river San Marcos because the discovery was made on St. Mark's day. Gen. Burleson followed a bill through the legislature establishing Hays County in 1848 and San Marcos was designated county seat. The town was also a resting point in a three-day stagecoach trip from Austin to San Antonio. San Marcos has evolved from a gristmill, sawmill, and cotton farming town into a modern city.

The clear, cold San Marcos River rises from mammoth springs within town; noted for profusion of both plant and animal aquatic life, river is ranked among world's most fertile. White-tailed deer are numerous in Hill Country and fishing is enjoyed year-round in the San Marcos and nearby Blanco Rivers.

The city is home to San Marcos Baptist Academy and the alma mater of Lyndon B. Johnson, Texas State Univ.-San Marcos, whose campus commands an impressive view of city.

The historic downtown, listed in the National Register of Historic Places, features a quaint marketplace with art, gift shops and unique restaurants. In years past, these shops and restaurants on the square were grocery and clothing stores, doctors offices and bank buildings. Also in the center of town is the restored Hays County Courthouse, and the Hays County Veterans Memorial is located on the corners of Hopkins St. and Riverside Dr.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic district.

The 1867 Charles S. Cock House is featured annually in the Tour of Homes Event the first weekend in May. However, lunch is served in the cottage kitchen on Fri. 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. throughout the year. At C.M. Allen Parkway and E. Hopkins St.

Shoppers find bargains on name brand labels daily at Prime Outlets and Tanger Outlet Center south on I-35 at Center Point Rd. at exit 200. It's home to the largest factory outlet complex in the state.

AQUARENA CENTER—Take the famous glass-bottom boat ride, one of the most popular ways to view the bubbling springs and the Natural Aquarium of Texas. This ride introduces visitors to an excavation site from which artifacts dating as far back as 12,000 years have been recovered. The Endangered Species Exhibit gives visitors an up close look at the unique species that live only in the BELVIN STREET HISTORIC DISTRICT—One of two historic districts in the city; the other is the Downtown Historic District. Superb examples of 19th-century homes along street shaded by huge live oaks. Well worth a drive or stroll (only a few blocks) in southwest San Marcos. All are private residences not open to public except during Tour of Homes, first weekend in May.

COMMEMORATIVE AIR FORCE CENTRAL TEXAS WING—Located in the only remaining 1943 vintage wooden hangar at the San Marcos Municipal Airport. The Centex Wing houses 12 airworthy vintage military aircraft, including a rare P-39 Airacobra and a P-40 Warhawk. A Japanese “Kate” torpedo bomber replica, built for the movie “Tora, Tora, Tora” is also on display along with other privately-owned vintage aircraft. There is also a museum with a display dedicated to the Doolittle Raiders, including a B-25 Mitchell bomber similar to the one flown on the Tokyo raid. At the airport, follow the Perimeter Road along the fence to the Centex hangar. Open Mon., Wed., Fri. & Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Admission fee. 512/396-1943.

LAKE—Canyon. See LAKES listing.

PARKLANDS—31 city parks, of which 21 are developed, on 792 acres dot the city. Children’s Park, also known as Playscape, is a six-acre community built wooden playground located along the river.

SAN MARCOS’ LIVING HISTORY TROLLEY TOUR—View the town through the eyes of Gen. and Mrs. Edward Burleson, early founders of San Marcos, as they recall the history and beauty of the city. The guided tour passes by old mansions on tree-lined streets, the historic courthouse square, the San Marcos River, and Aquarena Center. Tours begin at 2 p.m. the first Sat. of the month at the Tanger Outlet Center Visitor’s Center. For information and reservations, call 512/396-3739. Admission fee.

SAN MARCOS RIVER WALKWAY—Unites five city parks along the picturesque river, accented by lush landscaping. Access from Juan Veramendi Plaza, C.M. Allen Drwy. at Hopkins St.

SCENIC DRIVES—R.R. 12 northwest to junction with R.R. 32, the winding ridge route called the “Devil’s Backbone,” offers exceptional views of Hill Country scenery. Also a great place for wildflower viewing in Mar. and Apr.

VISITOR CENTER—For additional information on San Marcos events, accommodations, and attractions, stop by the Convention and Visitors Bureau visitor center on I-35, exit 205 if traveling northbound or exit 204B if traveling southbound, or give them a call at 512/393-5930 or 888/200-5620. GENERAL—Town received its name (from early settler L.B. Vanderpool) when a post office was granted in 1885. On the Sabinal River in the exceptionally scenic Hill Country of western Bandera County. Largely utilized for sheep, goat and cattle ranching, area is a favorite of deer hunters during season, and year-round gateway to popular Lost Maples State Natural Area.

LONE STAR MOTORCYCLE MUSEUM—Located in the heart of the Texas Hill Country, and features collection of motorcycles dating from the 1910s to the 1980s. Located four miles north of Vanderpool on F.M. 187. Open Fri. 1 - 5 p.m., Sat. - Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., and weekdays by appointment. For more information, call 830/966-6103 or visit www.lonestarmotorcyclemuseum.com. Admission fee.

LOST MAPLES STATE NATURAL AREA—While they aren't really "lost," the bigtooth maples for which the park is named are very selective in their habitat. Widely scattered over several western states and northern Mexico, this maple thrives only in small, protected pockets in mountainous regions where temperature and humidity are moderate, where moisture is retained, and solar radiation is minimal. Because of their shallow roots, the trees are susceptible to damage by soil compaction and visitors are cautioned to stay on prescribed paths to ensure continued vigor of the maple stands. Fall color is usually at its peak in early Nov. (Note: Usually crowded in autumn when fall foliage at peak; it's recommended to see scenery during weekdays. Reservations needed this time of year for overnight stays. Also, nature sometimes plays tricks and autumn colors don't always attain usual brilliance. For information call 830/966-3413.) For reservations, call 512/389-8900.

Other vegetation in the scenic Hill Country park includes more than 90 plant families with some 350 species recorded. Bird life is also abundant, including the rare golden-checked warbler. Of many mammal species in the park, native white-tailed deer are most numerous.

Park facilities include campsites with water and electricity, picnic areas, rest rooms, showers, and primitive camp areas reached by almost 11 miles of hiking and backpacking trails.

Three trees are State Champion Big Trees—an escarpment chokecherry, a Texas ash, and a Bigtooth maple. The chokecherry and Texas ash have been nominated to the American Forestry Assn. Big Tree program for consideration as national champs. Park is four mi. north on R.M. 187. Admission fee.

SCENIC DRIVES—While the Hill Country is laced with scenic drives, the east-and-west route of F.M. 337 is unquestionably among the most spectacular—massive wooded steeps enfolding tiny, secluded valleys—beautiful! Remember to take your camera.

F.M. 187 north of Vanderpool climbs to the surface of the Edwards Plateau (2,300 ft.) as it joins Texas 39. Sinkholes, porous basins that feed rainwater into the deep Edwards Aquifer, abundantly dot the Hill Country. A textbook example lies immediately at the west edge of F.M. 187 exactly 8.9 miles north of Lost Maples State Park.

★ PANHANDLE PLAINS ★

THE PANHANDLE PLAINS. Some folks call this region of Texas gloriously flat, some say it's just plain glorious. These vast, open lands—like the overwhelming expanses of the ocean—often evoke superlatives and always excite the imagination. Artist Georgia O'Keeffe, who once lived here (in Amarillo and Canyon), reveled in “the beauty of that wild world” and portrayed the expansive luminosity of the Plains in her magnificent paintings.

Scenery? Ah, yes. Sunsets stretch scarlet and pink and golden across a seemingly endless horizon. Here lies the startling splendor of the Caprock Escarpment, whose 250-mile, north-to-south length marks the edge of the Llano Estacado (Spanish for “staked plains”). And rivers, like the Red and the Brazos, course across the rugged earth and carve out their own fascinating landscapes, producing splendid canyons, such as Palo Duro and Caprock, and scenic lakes such as Possum Kingdom and Meredith. In fact, lakes aplenty pepper these plains.

Throughout this section of Texas, you will find activities both enticing and entertaining. Many of them bring you the flavor of the Lone Star State's western heritage. You can relish a chuckwagon breakfast beside a colorful canyon and visit exciting old frontier forts. You can watch cowboys at work (this is, after all, cowboy country) and dance the night away to the strains of the fiddle—or the jukebox. And you can browse for antiques, arts, and crafts in shops that range from rustic to elegant, in tiny towns and sprawling cities.

Yes, there are intriguing cities here, too. Amarillo anchors the Panhandle, while Lubbock forms the hub of the western plains, and San Angelo, Abilene, and Wichita Falls rim the east. For a whirlwind tour of this fascinating territory, read on.

Detailed information about each site appears following this introduction.

THE PANHANDLE

Amarillo welcomes you to Texas in a big way. Start off with the friendly greeting of travel counselors at the Texas Travel Information Center. Visit the antique and specialty shops along a section of old U.S. 66. Take the kids to

Possum Kingdom Lake near Caddo

Wonderland Park for an unforgettable ride on the double loops of the “Texas Tornado” roller coaster, and enjoy the diverse attractions of the Don Harrington Discovery Center, where hands-on exhibits, an aquarium, planetarium, and botanical garden will intrigue the whole family for hours.

At the American Quarter Horse Heritage Center and Museum, exhibits showcase the equine elegance of the American Quarter Horse.

If you have a big appetite—make that a huge appetite—Amarillo gives you a chance at a free meal. Go to the Big Texan Steak Ranch, wolf down a 72-ounce steak and all the trimmings (salad, bread, potato, and shrimp cocktail) within an hour, and the meal is on the house. Thousands have tried; some have succeeded. Bon appétit. The restaurant also serves tasty regular-size meals, of course, and exhibits a live rattlesnake safely behind glass for your viewing pleasure.

Just west of Amarillo, you’ll see a strange array of 10 upended classic Cadillacs, ranging in years from 1949 to 1963 and planted at a slant, hood-first all in a row. These mega-finned, graffiti-decorated vehicles form “Cadillac Ranch,” a display that originated in 1974.

How about sipping a cup of coffee at the rim of Palo Duro Canyon, while the rising sun illuminates multihued canyon walls? Sign up for Cowboy Morning Breakfast and join other early risers for a chuckwagon meal in a setting unlike any other.

To experience cowboy life on a working ranch, spend some time at Bar H Dude Ranch near Clarendon. Here, you can help the cowboys with their chores, ride horseback across the prairie, and chow down on savory ranch fare. Best of all, you can stay here for a few hours or a few weeks.

South of Clarendon, the town of Turkey honors native son Bob Wills, the “King of Western Swing” in a big way with exhibits and memorabilia in the Bob Wills Museum. Stay in town awhile at the bed and breakfast facilities of the Turkey Hotel, a historic inn built in 1927.

At Shamrock, you can kiss a bit of the Blarney Stone (a fragment of the original stone from Blarney Castle, County Cork, Ireland) and at McLean, you can check out the Devil’s Rope and Route 66 Museum, dedicated to barbed wire, fencing, and relics from U.S. 66.

Pampa gives you 32 fine municipal parks and the Freedom Museum USA, where displays salute branches of the U.S. military. A historical marker in Childress’ city park honors the site of the Goodnight Trail, an extension of the Goodnight-

Loving Trail over which thousands of cattle trudged to markets in the north.

In the northwestern corner of the Panhandle, Dalhart’s XIT Museum commemorates the massive three-million-acre ranch formed from land sold to build the state’s capitol in Austin. Visit Dalhart during early August and join in the XIT Rodeo and Reunion festivities. You’ll get to partake of the world’s largest free barbecue and watch one of the longest parades in these parts. Also, glimpse into the area’s past when you visit the Wolf Creek Heritage Museum in Lipscomb.

Be sure to tour the outstanding Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum on the campus of West Texas State A&M University in Canyon. Excellent exhibits focus on the area’s western heritage, geology, and paleontology. A scale model of Palo Duro Canyon spotlights the Panhandle’s most exciting geological region.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park lies about 12 miles east of Canyon. The visual impact of this beautiful canyon, the second largest in the nation, stuns many a visitor. Etched by the waters of the Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Red River, the banded layers of the canyon’s walls glow red, pink, orange, yellow, gray, white, and even lavender. Impressive, often-photographed formations, such as the “Lighthouse” and the “Spanish Skirts,” abound.

In the 16,402-acre state park, you can camp, hike, ride horses, and enjoy a campfire breakfast. Summer nights ring with the sounds of the outdoor musical TEXAS Legacies, a tale of settling the Panhandle in the late 1800s, told with a topnotch cast and stupendous special effects.

Other favorite outdoor locales that showcase gorgeous Panhandle panoramas are Lake Meredith National Recreation Area, about 30 miles north of Amarillo, and Caprock Canyons State Park and Trailway in the southern Panhandle, near Quitaque. At Caprock Canyons State Park you can see a large herd of buffalo, shaggy reminders of the past, and you can relive the glory of Route 66 in Adrian and Vega.

WESTERN TEXAS PLAINS

Head south from the Panhandle toward Lubbock and Big Spring, and you will parallel the Caprock Escarpment, the ridge that divides the High Plains on the west from the Lower Plains on the east. Communities throughout this region take pride in preserving their pioneering past and many offer interesting museums and historical sites. Spend time here and you will be met with warmth and welcome.

Start with Lubbock, the largest city on the Texas High Plains. Lubbock provides visitors with activities and entertainment that celebrate the town’s youthful spirit as well as its Western heritage.

If you once bebopped to “That’ll Be the Day” and other songs by Buddy Holly, you will want to pay tribute to the late musician at the Buddy Holly Center and at the statue and Walk of Fame dedicated to this legendary favorite son. Then, scoot on over to the Historic Depot District, where you can dance the evening away at night clubs featuring a variety of musical styles.

Set aside time to tour the extraordinary Ranching Heritage Center, part of the Museum of Texas Tech University. Here, you can immerse yourself in the yesteryears of Texas ranching. In grand array on 14 acres of beautifully landscaped grounds stand some 35 authentic structures, many of which graced the great ranches of Texas or belonged to their owners.

Pleasant walkways lead you to buildings such as the elegant Barton House, the Waggoner Ranch Commissary, the Masterson JY Bunkhouse, and Las Escarbadas, once a division headquarters for the XIT Ranch. The buildings, moved here from their original locations, represent ranching in Texas from the late 1700s through the early 1900s.

In the mood for a taste of the grape? You’re in luck. You can sample award-winning wines at area wineries such as Cap*Rock, Pheasant Ridge, and Llano Estacado, one of Texas’ largest. To appreciate another fruit that grows here, stop by Apple Country Hi-Plains Orchards, where you can pick your own apples, savor a little cider and a slice of German Apple Cake, and shop at the country store.

Visit Lubbock’s Mackenzie Park for a close-up view of frisky little prairie dogs, who live in their own “Prairie Dog Town.” You can also picnic here, play golf at a 36-hole course, and ride the water coaster and roller coaster at Joyland Amusement Park.

Many of the towns in the High Plains harbor hidden gems. One such town is Post, southeast of Lubbock, where the OS Ranch Museum dresses up for certain holidays, with special exhibits of Fabergé, Waterford, and Lalique eggs during the Easter season, and displays of crèches and ornaments at Christmas. (By the way, the town got its name from cereal maker C.W. Post, who founded it in 1907.)

To the north, Plainview offers shoppers several locations for antique browsing in its historic downtown. To the west, Muleshoe provides a great photo opportunity with its National Mule Memorial, a statue honoring the sturdy animals that helped settle the West.

During a summer drive through the region, you may notice bright lavender flowers with vivid yellow centers. You’re admiring Tahoka daisies (also known as prairie asters) named for Tahoka Lake, north of Tahoka, where they were first discovered.

South of Lubbock, the Plains brim with towns that offer an assortment of treats. Big Spring provides an eclectic mix of attractions, including the Heritage Museum, with the world’s largest collection of Texas Longhorn steer horns; Hangar 25 Air Museum, a restored hangar that exhibits airplanes and artifacts commemorating a World War II bombardier school; and Big Spring State Park, 343 acres with picnic sites, nature trails, and a prairie dog town.

Snyder, Colorado City, and Sweetwater, which form a triangle east of Big Spring, each provide reasons to stop and explore. Snyder boasts the White Buffalo Statue, recalling a rare albino buffalo killed near the town, and the Wagon Wheel Ranch, a working dude ranch where trail rides might involve rounding up the ranch’s Texas Longhorns. In Colorado City, you can explore the Heart of Texas Museum to see mementos and exhibits chronicling the early history of West Texas. Take an outdoor spin at nearby Lake Colorado City State Park, where you can fish, swim, and camp.

To the east, Sweetwater’s Pioneer City-County Museum houses more than a dozen display rooms focusing on the lives of area settlers. The museum also contains an exhibit honoring the Women’s Airforce Service Pilots, known as WASPs, who trained at Sweetwater’s Avenger Field during World War II. A memorial marker citing their service stands at the old training site, now the grounds of Texas State Technical College.

EASTERN TEXAS PLAINS

The Lower Plains east of the Caprock Escarpment encompass dozens of interesting small towns, as well as the three cities of San Angelo, Abilene, and Wichita Falls. Scenery here can captivate you, especially the rugged and ruddy terrain of Copper Breaks State Park, the rolling peaks of the Palo Pinto Mountains, and the craggy cliffs of Possum Kingdom Lake.

In this area, bounded on the north by the Red River and on the south by the Colorado and Concho rivers, you will discover a host of intriguing sites that spotlight the region’s pioneering past.

The remains of frontier forts, such as Fort Belknap at Newcastle, Fort Richardson at Jacksboro, and Fort Griffin at Fort Griffin State Park, march across the Plains landscape. Few are as beautifully preserved as Fort Concho in San Angelo.

Fort Concho National Historic Landmark lies today within the modern city of San Angelo. Built in 1867 and abandoned in 1889, it served as one of the major frontier outposts protecting West Texas. You can visit more than 20 original and restored buildings, including barracks, officers quarters, the post hospital, and the schoolhouse/chapel, comprise the impressive complex. In early December, “Christmas at Old Fort Concho” brings the fort festively alive with history reenactments and special holiday entertainment.

San Angelo offers you a full slate of interesting and fun attractions. Check out Concho Avenue, with its antique, collectible, and gift shops. Stroll the pleasant River Walk and the El Paseo de Santa Angela, a heritage trail that connects a mall and marketplace with “Old Town,” lined with historic homes. Be sure to seek out local artisans’ displays of jewelry featuring the famous Concho River pearls. These amazing gems, which range in color from pale pink to regal purple, form in freshwater mussels found in the Concho River. Beautiful!

Just southeast of San Angelo you’ll find Eden, which is home to the Don Freeman Memorial Museum and also boasts two local sons who served the nation in critical roles during World War I and World War II.

North of Eden is Ballinger, which lies between San Angelo and Abilene, where you’ll find two distinctive monuments to catch your eye. One, a massive, sculpted cross rises 100 feet from the prairie in graceful splendor alongside Texas 158. A grotto with a statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe stands adjacent. Lights illuminate the cross at night, so that you can see it for miles. The other impressive monument stands on the Runnels County courthouse lawn in Ballinger. Famed sculptor Pompeo Coppini produced the work. It portrays a cowboy standing beside his horse and memorializes Charles Noyes, who died in 1917 at age 21 when his horse threw him. The touching memorial, commissioned by Noyes’ father, beautifully captures the essence of the cowboy.

Cowboys loom large in these parts. In Stamford, the Texas Cowboy Reunion occurs each year around July 4, presenting the greatest amateur rodeo in the world. At Vernon, home to the headquarters of the huge W.T. Waggoner Ranch, you can learn about the ranch and about area history at the Red River Valley Museum. Abilene throws one of the state's largest celebrations honoring cowboys and ranchers annually in early May. Called the Western Heritage Classic, the huge event includes a rodeo, farrer competitions, recitations by members of the Cowboy Poet's Society, a "Stick Horse Rodeo" for little cowpokes, and many activities recalling early Western heritage. The city also boasts several attractions that tempt you to stay awhile, including Frontier Texas!, the Abilene Zoo, the Grace Museum, and the splendid Paramount Theatre.

The Paramount, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, reflects the 1930s, when ornately designed movie palaces proved entertainment centerpieces. Visit here and you will find yourself in theater heaven. The restored theater's stylish Art Deco exterior envelopes a "Spanish atmospheric" interior that boasts a ceiling complete with clouds and stars. Productions ranging from classic films to plays and concerts take place regularly at the Paramount. Plan to attend one; you'll be glad you did.

Buffalo Gap Historic Village, 14 miles south of Abilene, provides you with a chance to explore more than a dozen restored and furnished historic structures from the old frontier settlement of Buffalo Gap, where large herds of buffalo once roamed. And don't forget to visit Tuscola, just a few miles east of Buffalo Gap, on U.S. 83.

North of Abilene, the town of Albany welcomes you with a surprise or two. Head for the Old Jail Art Center (yes, it really was an old jail, circa 1878) and gaze upon artworks by Charles Umlauf, Henry Moore, Louise Nevelson, Amedeo Modigliana, and Pablo Picasso, then admire the exhibit of Chinese art from the Han, Wei, Sui, Tang, and Ming dynasties. Also in Albany, the annual production of the fantastic Fort Griffin Fandangle occurs each June when 200-plus townsfolk reenact the settling of Fort Griffin. You watch this colorful, musical mix of history and tall tales under the stars at night, which, of course, are big and bright.

Head for Breckenridge, up near Possum Kingdom Lake, and you realize you are in oil country. Once a boomtown, this pleasant community celebrates its "black gold" past with a series of murals marking the days of the boom. Stop by the fine Swenson Memorial Museum and J.D. Sandefer Oil Annex to learn more about area history. Pick up a picnic lunch and head for the city's lovely municipal park for a leisurely outdoor meal.

In Cross Plains, you can visit the home of Robert E. Howard. The author of the Conan the Barbarian series, Howard lived here from 1919 until he died in 1936. At Cisco, say hi to the Mobley Hotel. Bought by Conrad Hilton in 1919, the Mobley became the first in the illustrious Hilton Hotel chain.

When you visit Mineral Wells, pick up some of the town's famous mineral water, once ballyhooed for its medicinal qualities. And be sure to tour Clark Gardens, created by Max and Billie Clark to replicate an English garden. The Clark's elaborate 83-acre Texas version displays a virtual sea of irises and other blooms, as well as a rose arbor.

In Eastland, you can pay homage to the remains of "Old Rip," the legendary horned lizard that supposedly lived for 31 years sealed in a courthouse cornerstone. When the county built a new courthouse and opened the old cornerstone, Old Rip reportedly was still alive. Believe it—or not.

On the northeastern border of this region of the Plains, Wichita Falls offers a variety of activities, events, and attractions. Stop by the hospitable Travel Information Center first. You will get great information.

In Wichita Falls, you will find fun surprises: a 54-foot-high re-creation of the falls for which the city was named; the wildly popular Hotter 'n Hell Hundred Bike Race held each August; and Graham Central Station, where several clubs under one roof offer country/western, karaoke, Top 40, retro disco, and live entertainment. For a taste of the outdoors, stroll the pleasant paths of Lucy Park in town or head out to nearby Lake Arrowhead State Park, where you can camp, fish, and boat.

Take time to visit the city's elegant Kell House. The historic home, built in 1909 by a local business leader, contains seven fireplaces, hand-stenciled decorations, and original furnishings. In this and other sites, Wichita Falls preserves a proud heritage. And be sure to visit communities like Archer City, Seymour, Electra and Olney, located just south of Wichita Falls.

From ornate houses to historic ranches, from rugged canyons to placid lakes, and from trail rides to scenic drives, the Panhandle Plains promises to please. Come see for yourself.

GENERAL—Established by cattlemen as stock shipping point on Texas and Pacific Railroad in 1881, named for Abilene, Kansas. The city later became major cattle producing area with diversified farming. In recent years, oil has added great impetus to city's economy. When the city celebrated its centennial in 1981, the city set up a demonstration oil-drilling rig on the county fairgrounds just to illustrate the techniques of "making hole." By pure accident, it struck oil, not much, but enough for modest, profitable production. Cultural aspects influenced by Abilene Christian Univ., Hardin-Simmons Univ., and McMurry Univ., branches of Cisco Junior College and Texas State Technical College; community theater and a philharmonic association and fine arts museum.

Abilene is home to the Forts Trail Regional Office at 1025 N 10th, and the National Center for Children's Illustrated Literature at North 1st and Cedar sts. This one of a kind children's museum offers the best works of today's premier children's authors and illustrators, and it is home to the permanent collection of works by William Joyce.

The West Texas Fair, 10 days in mid-Sept., features exhibits and amusements reflecting early days of Abilene, plus modern attractions of West Texas.

The Western Heritage Classic in early May features ranch rodeo, campfire cook-off, sheep dog trials, farrier competition, Cowboy Poet's Society, Western art show, and many other activities recalling early Western heritage.

The second weekend in April features Celebrate Abilene, an outdoor festival held in the historic downtown area bringing the arts, history, railroad, and family entertainment into one fun-filled festival for the entire community.

Abilene lies on U.S. 84, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports, as well as on U.S. 83, 277 and I-20.

ABILENE STATE PARK—621-acre park near Lake Abilene; camping, trailer facilities, picnicking, shelters, swimming pool, rest rooms and showers, hiking and fishing. Large grove of some 4,000 native pecan trees, now a favorite picnic area, was once a popular campground for Comanche Indians. About 15 miles southwest on F.M. 89. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

ABILENE ZOO—One of five largest in state; animals displayed in modern areas simulating natural habitat.

Discovery Center is a "zoo within a zoo," housing comparative habitat displays of invertebrates, fish, reptiles, birds, and small mammals from the Southwestern U.S. and Africa.

The zoo is in Nelson Park, about 3 miles east of city on Texas 36 across from West Texas Fairgrounds. Open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. (Thurs., 9 a.m. - 7 p.m.) Memorial Day through Labor day; Open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Labor Day to Memorial Day. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas Day, and New Year's Day. Admission fee.

BUFFALO GAP—See BUFFALO GAP.

CENTER FOR CONTEMPORARY ARTS—The downtown gallery showcases contemporary art, sculpture and photography in its three galleries. Exhibits by local, regional and national artists change monthly. The center also houses working artists studios. Open Tues. - Sat. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. At 220 Cypress.

DYESS AIR FORCE BASE—Home of Air Combat Command's historic 7th Wing. Currently flies B-1B Lancers and C-130H Hercules. The base's Linear Air Park contains 30 aircraft from World War II to the present. Aircraft displayed along Arnold Blvd., main base thoroughfare. Open during daylight hours. Visitors must stop at main entrance for a temporary pass. (Note: Base may be closed temporarily during occasional military exercises.) For extensive base tours to flight lines, reservations must be prearranged with Public Affairs Office, 325/696-2863. Loop 312 south of Business Loop I-20/U.S. 84.

FORT PHANTOM HILL—Established 1851 to protect frontier from Indians, the post suffered a series of hardships; was abandoned in 1854. Historians say desertions were frequent due to monotony and loneliness. The fort burned shortly after abandonment; chimneys and foundations are principal remainders along with the stone commissary, guardhouse, and powder magazine. Site offers interpretive signs. 10 miles north via F.M. 600.

FRONTIER TEXAS!—Friendly travel counselors and travel information kiosks are ready to assist in your discovery of Abilene, the Texas Forts Trail, and the 63-county "Texas Frontier" region. In addition, see the big picture of the frontier of Texas between 1780 and 1880 as it comes to life, all found in this new facility in downtown Abilene. This multi-million dollar attraction includes:

Welcome Theater—A holographic introduction to "Spirit Guide" historical figures—Indians, frontier women and children, buffalo hunters, soldiers and settlers—all icons for stories that follow.

Spirit Gallery—Dramatic media and dimensional exhibits let you experience many different lives as soldiers, cowboys, homemakers, buffalo hunters, lawmen, gamblers and outlaws all seek their destinies. Via the magic of technology, hear and see stories in 'first-person' from Western legends like Doc Holliday, Cynthia Ann Parker, and George Reynolds, a man who lived for 15 years with an arrow in his stomach.

Frontier Experience Theater—A full-surround visual thrill ride through Texas frontier history. Feel the terror of a prairie wolf attack, the chaos of a buffalo stampede, the tension of a deadly shootout in the Beehive Saloon, and the magic of fireflies flitting around your head.

Admission to Frontier TEXAS! is $8 for adults, $6 for seniors and military, $5 for kids 12 and under. The facility features an open-air pavilion and forts-inspired parade grounds that can be rented for any size gathering. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 6 p.m., Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas Day and New Year's Day. Located at 625 N. First St. For more information, call Frontier TEXAS! at 325/437-2800 or the Abilene Convention & Visitors Bureau at 800/727-7704. www.abilene.com/visitors.

GRACE MUSEUM—Comprised of the Fine Arts Museum, Abilene Historical Museum, and the Children's Museum, all are in the historic Grace Hotel, known

GENERAL—Town began in 1900 when the Rock Island Railroad survey marked the site as a future station and shipping point. The railroad ran along the Ozark Trail, which later became Route 66, creating an economic boon for this tiny agricultural community for decades until Interstate 40 bypassed the town.

Adrian is the geo-mathematical midpoint of Route 66, and the town's motto is, "When you're here, you're halfway there." Today, travelers visit from all over the country to take their photo in front of the sign that reads, "1,139 miles to Chicago - 1,139 miles to Los Angeles." For more information about restaurants, shopping and more, contact the Oldham County Chamber of Commerce at 806/267-2828 or visit www.oldhamcofc.org.

ADRIAN LIONS FARM & RANCH MUSEUM—Collection of antique farm equipment and machinery and is a tribute to the agricultural community. Exhibits include a Caterpillar combine used in the 1930s, horse-drawn equipment, early tractors and a vintage windmill. Open year-round during daylight hours, and descriptive signs allow visitors to take self-guided tour. On East Route 66 in Adrian. GENERAL—Amarillo, which means "yellow" in Spanish, is the center of the Texas Panhandle, located at the edge of the Great Plains. It offers a true Western heritage, a unique geographical area with wide open spaces and breathtaking sunrises and sunsets. Amarillo is also gateway to Palo Duro Canyon, America's second largest canyon. With its relatively mild climate, the city is rated as having some of the cleanest air in the country.

Indians, conquistadors, buffalo hunters, settlers, cowboys, adventurers, lawmen, gunfighters, and the railroad all contributed in many ways to the development and growth of the area. That heritage is still felt here, where "cowboy" is still an honorable profession. Here you can enjoy the very best of the Old and New West.

Founded in 1887, the city charter was adopted in 1913. Amarillo is one of the first cities in the nation to use the City Commissioner-City Manager form of government.

Today, the city features excellent accommodations, a spacious convention/ civic center, symphony, ballet, little theater, opera, and is the home of Amarillo College.

GENERAL—Seat of Jones County. Founded in 1881 and named for Dr. Anson Jones, last president of the Republic of Texas. Area is one of richest farming areas in Texas; cotton production can be observed from field to gin. Other primary crops include wheat, sorghum, hay, and oats. Cattle, oil, and gas extraction, and gypsum products add to the economy.

Each December since 1885, The Cowboys’ Christmas Ball is held in Pioneer Hall. Popularized by Michael Martin Murphey’s musical rendition of the “The Cowboys’ Christmas Ball,” a poem honoring ranchmen of Texas written in 1890 by William Lawrence (Larry) Chittenden after attending one of the balls. Check out the “Cowboy Dance” art by Jenne Magafan in the U.S. Post Office. It’s one of the best preserved Post Office murals authorized by the section of Fine Arts within the Treasury Dept. during Franklin Roosevelt’s administration.

For information about the ball, or on restaurants and accommodations, visit the Anson Chamber of Commerce at 1132 West Court Plaza, or call 325/823-3259.

BENJAMIN

Pop. 254 Alt. 1,456 Map G-13

GENERAL—On divide between South Wichita and Brazos rivers, city was established in 1884 when 12 houses were built with lumber hauled from Wichita Falls. City named after town founder H.G. Bedford's son, Benjamin, was fatally struck by lightning as a child. Early center of cattlemen's activities, present seat of Knox County, still a major farming area for wheat, seedless watermelons, potatoes, and onions. Area is also known for wild hogs and was one of the first to post "wild hogs crossing" signs in the state. The area is also popular with hunters for its abundance of geese, duck, deer, dove, quail, turkey and wild hog. A jail built in 1887 still stands as a private home, and the safe of an old bank still stands next to the current sheriff's office.

Local lakes Benjamin, Davis, and Catherine offer abundant water activities.

KNOX COUNTY MUSEUM—Barbed-wire collection and other relics from early settlers on view in county courthouse, which was built in 1936 to replace previous stone structure built in 1888. New museum home is currently being constructed on U.S. 82 where 1920s home of country music star Ernest Tubb once stood. Open Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.; closed holidays.

KNOX COUNTY VETERANS MEMORIAL—Located at corner of U.S. 82 and Texas 6, impressive monument dedicated in 2000 honors all Knox County veterans from the Spanish-American War through current conflicts. Center arch is flanked by 10 granite slabs listing all county veterans' names.

SCENIC DRIVE—Thirty-six mile loop northeast provides views of farm and ranch lands cut by South Wichita River breaks, where fantastic shapes in layers of multicolored soils can be seen. North on Texas 6 to F.M. 1756, east to F.M. 267, south to U.S. 82, then west back to Benjamin. A roadside park on U.S. 82 provides impressive views north toward South Wichita River and south toward the Brazos River. Well-maintained park is at a point called "the narrows" on a ridge line that separates the two major watersheds.

BOYS RANCH

Pop. 435 (est.) Alt. 3,176 Map C-9

GENERAL—Cal Farley's Boys Ranch is a nationally known home for boys and girls who benefit from guidance and education in a ranch setting. Established in 1939 by the late Cal Farley, Texas businessman and world welterweight wrestling champion of the 1920s.

The first boys who came to the ranch lived in the abandoned courthouse of Old Tascosa that is now the Julian Bivins Museum. Founded and expanded by private donations, the ranch today covers 11,000 acres. Facilities include a chapel, clinic, schools, auditorium, visitors center, and 27 homes for children.

More than 400 boys and girls help operate the ranch, attend school and vocational classes, and enjoy a year-round program of athletics. A popular annual event is the Boys Ranch Rodeo, Labor Day weekend, featuring competition among youths of all ages. Approximately 40 students graduate from the fully accredited Boys Ranch High School each year, entering the adult world as useful, self-reliant citizens. Visitors are welcome at the ranch; open daily 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

BOOT HILL CEMETERY—When Tascosa was the wide open, riotous cowboy capital of the 1880s, gunfights were traditional means for settling disputes, and its cemetery was an essential part of the town. Boys Ranch students maintain the cemetery today. U.S. 385.

JULIAN BIVINS MUSEUM—Housed in the former Oldham County Courthouse, name honors Panhandle rancher whose donation of land formed the nucleus of Boys Ranch. Artifacts from Indian and prehistoric Panhandle cultures, cowboy and pioneer items, photos and documents about Boys Ranch history. Open daily year-round, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

OLD TASCOSA—Pioneer settlers in the early 1870s built adobe huts and irrigation ditches along area creeks. After 1875, village became a supply and shipping point for several huge Texas ranches, including the famed XIT and LIT. Bustling town was known as "the Cowboy Capital of the Plains;" became county seat when Oldham County was organized in 1880. The famous and infamous—from Kit Carson to Billy the Kid—once strode its rough plank sidewalks. But as with many Texas cow towns, decline set in when the open range was girded with fences, and the railroad bypassed the site. It was deserted by the 1930s.

BRECKENRIDGE

Pop. 5,868 Alt. 1,220 Map J-14

GENERAL—This "Mural Capitol of Texas" is the county seat of Stephens County. Breckenridge was established in 1876, but the great 1920s oil boom exploded and changed Breckenridge from 1,500 to 30,000 in 12 months, with hundreds of oil derricks sprouting within the city limits making it rich with oil history.

Original brick streets still welcome visitors to the historic downtown area built in the 1920s. Remnant of this boom time, original red brick and native sandstone buildings line Walker Street and play host to a variety of antique and eclectic gift shops. The Stephens County Courthouse, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is in the heart of downtown and is one of 28 historical markers in the county. A Texas Main Street City since 1997, Breckenridge has also qualified for National Main Street.

Presently, the economy is based on ranching, oil and gas, manufacturing, and industries. Home of Texas State Technical College, West Texas, Breckenridge Campus. They offer a variety of technical and education courses, including distance learning through Midwestern State University.

Sportsmen find the area prime for hunting white-tailed deer, feral hogs, wild turkey, quail, mourning dove, as well as excellent fishing in local lakes. Also for the outdoor enthusiast, other sports opportunities including water skiing, boating, jet skiing, sailing, camping, hiking, sailing, swimming and scuba diving. For the bird watcher, the area offers extensive selections of bird species.

BOOMTOWN BRECKENRIDGE MURALS—Winner of the TDA “Best Public Improvement Project” in 1999, this outstanding outdoor collection of mural art inspires the imagination to step back in time and experience boomtown first hand. Influenced by black and white photographs taken by Basil Clemmons, of Breckenridge in the 1920s, these enormous murals accurately depict the city’s rich history. A walking tour brochure of the murals is available downtown at the Friends of Historic Breckenridge Rest Station at 100 N Breckenridge Ave. Exhibits of Basil Clemmons photos can be viewed at the Swenson Memorial Museum and the University of Texas at Arlington.

BRECKENRIDGE FINE ARTS CENTER—The center is committed to furthering the arts and artistic environment by establishing and maintaining the fine workshop facilities and providing high quality exhibits for the general public since 1985. Home of the Kathryn Leach Doll Collection showcasing 750 dolls from around the world; extensive collection of festival gowns of Texas exhibit; the 2500 sq. ft. art gallery hosts changing exhibits all year long; an annual juried show, judged by nationally known artists; and permanent collection of paintings and sculptures, are available for viewing year-round. Open Tues. - Sat. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. 207 N. Breckenridge Ave. 254/559-6602.

BRECKENRIDGE PARK—Beautiful tree-shaded grounds with Aquatic Center featuring a swimming pool and slide, covered pavilion, picnic areas, playground equipment, playing fields for baseball, football and soccer. Located off 180 East (601 E. Walker).

LAKES—Daniel, Hubbard Creek Lake, Possum Kingdom. See LAKES listing. Possum Kingdom State Park-32 miles northeast on the popular reservoir. See CADD0.

SWENSON MEMORIAL MUSEUM AND J.D. SANDEFER OIL ANNEX—Housed in the historic First National Bank building, the museum features pioneer artifacts and traveling exhibits. The oil history is also preserved in the J.D. Sandefer Oil Annex. Exhibits inside show the exciting story of the 1918-1920 oil boom era through photographs, tools, and an antique truck and model oil derrick. The museums have developed both permanent and temporary exhibit areas. The permanent galleries feature history from Stephens County. The temporary exhibits give a more detailed survey of important sections of the area’s history, which includes the Basil Clemmons Photography exhibit. The museums offer special tours to individuals and school groups. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. -5 p.m. 116 W. Walker.

BURKBURNETT

Pop. 10,927 Alt. 1,040 Map F-15

GENERAL—First settled in the 1860s by pioneers D.P. McCracken and H.C. Ackers on Gilbert Creek in northeastern Wichita County. Cowboys on the giant Samuel Burk Burnett 6666 Ranch derisively called the community "Nesterville." In 1907 Joseph A. Kemp and Frank Kell from nearby Wichita Falls bought part of the Burk Burnett ranch for their railroad and laid out the present townsite. It's said town was named for Burk Burnett when President Theodore Roosevelt personally interceded with the Post Office Department. (Roosevelt had been Burnett's guest on a wolf hunt in the area in 1905.) The 1918 Fowler oil discovery turned the struggling farming community into a boom town. Oil derricks were so close together old-timers say it was almost possible to walk across town from derrick to derrick without touching the ground. The 1941 movie "Boomtown," with Clark Gable and Spencer Tracy, was based on those wild, oil-boom days.

The boom's gone and oil pours less freely today. Farming, ranching, and diversified industries provide stability to the economy. Several parks provide picnic facilities.

FELTY OUTDOOR OIL MUSEUM—Early oil field equipment from height of oil boom includes spudders used for drilling and cleaning out wells, a steel beam pumping unit, and a band-wheel power source. On Gresham Rd. (F.M. 240).

GENERAL—Caddo Indians camped on what is now the townsite. Today, city is an agricultural community and gateway to popular recreational areas on Possum Kingdom Lake.

LAKE—Possum Kingdom. See LAKES listing.

POSSUM KINGDOM STATE PARK—Scenic park on shore of huge Possum Kingdom Lake covers 1,615 acres with cabins, campsites, boat rental and ramp, playground, picnic areas and fishing pier. Boating, fishing, swimming very popular; clear water attracts scuba divers and snorkelers. Located 18 miles north of Caddo via Park Road 33. Admission fee. 940/549-1803.

CANADIAN

Pop. 2,233 Alt. 2,339 Map B-12

GENERAL—Canadian became county seat when Hemphill County was organized in 1887. It's located on the Canadian River and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad in the northwestern part of the county. Early settlers held one of the first rodeos in Texas. Today a chief commercial center of county, that derives much of its economy from ranching and some oil activity.

Northwest of Canadian is the Black Kettle National Grasslands, administered by National Forest Service. Visitors find campsites, cottages, picnic grounds at small Lake Marvin. Fishing for bass, channel catfish and sunfish. Nature trails popular during fall foliage season and visitors often see deer, wild turkey, and waterfowl.

CANADIAN RIVER WAGON BRIDGE—A 1916 steel bridge built over the waters of the Canadian River now is the focal point for a scenic hike and bike trail. The bridge provides a platform for viewing wildlife, including white-tailed deer, wild turkey and waterfowl. The area boasts an abundance of hills and valleys, cottonwoods and hackberries, a stark contrast to the surrounding treeless plains. A nearby recreation complex includes rodeo arena, fishing and duck ponds, group pavilion, driving range and RV park. Two miles north of city on U.S. 60/83. For information, contact the chamber of commerce at 806/323-6234.

LAKE—Marvin. See LAKES listing.

RIVER VALLEY PIONEER MUSEUM—Quaint museum features memorabilia on history of Canadian and Hemphill County. Traveling exhibits from other museums also displayed regularly. Open Tues. - Fri. 10 a.m. - noon, 1 - 4 p.m.; Sun. 2 - 4 p.m. 118 South 2nd St. (U.S. 60/83). Donations accepted.

GENERAL—Originated 1878 as headquarters for huge T Anchor Ranch; seat of Randall County and gateway to spectacular Palo Duro Canyon State Park; home of West Texas A&M Univ.

BUFFALO LAKE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE—One of the major waterfowl refuges on the Central Flyway, the 7,677-acre haven is a winter home for a million ducks and 80,000 geese. Once known as Tierra Blanca Water Conservation Project, the lake now holds very little water but refuge about 12 miles west continues to draw visitors on its interpretive walking trail and 4.5-mile auto interpretive trail. Activities include picnicking, sightseeing, birding, nature study, photography, and campsites with tables, grills; no water or electricity. Open daily 8 a.m. - 10 p.m. Refuge headquarters 3 miles south of Umbarger on F.M. 168.

PALO DURO CANYON STATE PARK—One of the state's largest state parks, 18,483 acres amid scenic landscape of Palo Duro Canyon. On the tabletop expanse of the Texas High Plains, a branch of the Red River has carved the incredible spires and pinnacles of Palo Duro. Walls plunge almost a thousand feet to the canyon floor, exposing brilliant multicolored strata. Camping, picnicking, rest rooms and showers, horseback riding, and hiking trails. Also, souvenir shop, interpretive center, and amphitheater where shows are staged during the summer season. Three newly restored cabins available for overnight rentals located on the canyon rim. For reservations call 512/389-8900. About 12 miles east via Texas 217 and Park Road 5. Admission fee.

Within park is historical marker citing last great Indian battle in Texas. On a sweep across the High Plains in 1874, the famous Col. Ranald S. Mackenzie, leading troops of 4th Cavalry from Fort Richardson discovered huge camp of Indians in the canyon and forced them to return to their own territory.

PANHANDLE-PLAINS HISTORICAL MUSEUM—On campus of West Texas A&M Univ.; honors pioneers of Texas' colorful past. Recently completed a $6 million renovation, featuring the main exhibit "People of the Plains," based on more than 12,000 years of human habitation of the Texas Panhandle. The building bears a State Antiquities Landmark designation awarded for its unique Art Deco architectural style of the 1930s, including the recently restored Pioneer Hall. Entrance doors adorned with historic brands; fascinating Old West exhibits include chuck wagon, extensive gun collection, prehistoric fossils and wildlife. Other collections show prehistoric Indian cultures, archaeology and Frank Reaugh Collection of Southwestern Art. New is "Let the Good Times Roll," which celebrates the 100th anniversaries of Ford and Harley-Davidson and the 50th anniversary of the Corvette in this newly renovated transportation exhibit. It's really five museums in one with sections dedicated to petroleum, Western heritage, paleontology, and art.

A Research Center is open to researchers and contains historic records and photographs documenting the history of the Texas Panhandle and Southwest region.

A museum store offers a wide variety of gift items, including authentic Indian jewelry, cookbooks, rock specimens, posters, and much more.

Don Harrington Petroleum Wing incorporates latest in exhibit design and museum interpretation. Geology, underground tool and oil field displays give viewer feeling of "being there."

Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. (6 p.m. June - Aug.), Sun. and holidays (except Thanksgiving, Christmas and the day before, and New Year's Day) 1 - 6 p.m. 2503 Fourth Ave. 806/651-2254. Admission fee.

PIONEER AMPHITHEATER—Setting for "TEXAS Legacies," spectacular outdoor drama by Paul Green, presented nightly, except Wed., from early June through mid-Aug. Located in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, a 600-foot cliff serves as the kaleidoscopic backdrop for the play, which features a new script, new score, and new special effects. Story features historical characters such as Quanah Parker, the last great Comanche chief; Col. Ranald "Bad Hand" Mackenzie, Civil War hero and Quanah's main nemesis; and buffalo hunter Billy Dixon. Also learn about the area's pioneering ranchers, cowboys, and settlers through a dramatic story, dynamic musical score, realistic effects and state-of-the-art lighting and sound. Plus don't forget the famous fireworks finale! This nationally acclaimed show begins at 8:30 p.m. Barbecue dinner (fee) served nightly before show. Separate admission fee for the park and show, but free park admission after 5:30 p.m. for those attending show. All seats reserved; advance reservations advisable. Canyon nights are cool even in midsummer, and a wrap is recommended. GENERAL—The city was founded in the early 1880s and developed rapidly after the construction of the Fort Worth and Denver City Railway in 1887. Ed and Will Jones established a store on the west bank of Wanderers Creek and adopted the name of their hometown in Missouri. Today, the city is a trading center for ranching and agriculture, as well as oil-related business. U.S. 287 runs through the center of town. The town is sometimes called the Iris Village because of the many irises planted around town. Iris Village Festival is usually celebrated Memorial Day weekend.

For information on the city, call the Chillicothe City Hall at 940/852-5211.

LAKE—Pauline. See LAKES listing.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE EXPERIMENT STATION—Established in 1905 stemming from a request by local farmers due to a lack of feed grains available to the region, this station's testing of grain sorghum led to the development of the hybrid grain sorghum found today. A Texas Historical Marker recognizes the station and the work of J. Roy Quinby. Visitors here find research plot equipment and other office equipment used in the testing programs. Open weekdays during business hours. Approximately 5 miles via F.M. 91 and F.M. 392. For information, 940/852-5125.

GENERAL—Established as stop on Fort Worth and Denver City Railroad in 1887. Today the seat of Armstrong County. Grain elevators and stockyards indicate major agricultural production. Shoppers attracted by several antique shops.

ARMSTRONG COUNTY MUSEUM—In three adjoining downtown buildings; museum tells history of Armstrong County. Features display on Boy Scouts, since Claude has one of oldest Scout Troops west of the Mississippi. Restored Gem Theater next door used for education and entertainment programs. Open Tues. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sat. noon - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. One-half block north of U.S. 287. For additional information, call 806/226-2187.

SCENIC DRIVE—One of most impressive drives in state is Texas 207 south toward Silverton. For miles agricultural riches spread from horizon to horizon; then the highway plunges into scenic grandeur at Palo Duro Canyon. Descend at a moderate speed, both for safety and to absorb beauty that unfolds in a riot of colors. In the nine-mile-wide canyon (which extends a hundred miles from northwest to southeast) is the Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Red River, a seemingly insignificant stream to have carved such an immense gash in the Plains.

Farther south the highway drops into another beautiful gorge, Tule Canyon. More varieties of rock strata are visible, and some magnificent sheer-facced, knife-edged buttes.

Map K-15

GENERAL—Established about 1875 as seat of Eastland County, grew primarily as a trade center for surrounding farms and ranches. Named for Capt. William M. Eastland, San Jacinto hero and Texas Ranger. Current area resources include oil, ranching, farming and manufacturing. Fruit, pecans, vegetables, and feed crops are also important.

A Downtown Walking Tour features historical buildings, all within two city blocks, and highlights Eastland's history. Pick up a map for this self-guided tour at the Eastland Chamber of Commerce or call 254/629-2332. For golf enthusiasts, a nine-hole course and driving range, as well as restaurant, is available at the Lakeside Country Club located just north of city on F.M. 1301. For more information, call 254/629-2892.

Don't miss "Old Ripfest," held the third Sat. in Sept. This annual festival features a parade, food booths, arts and crafts, games, rides and live entertainment. 254/629-2332.

LAKES—Daniel, Cisco, and Leon. See LAKES listing. Also Eastland and Ringling Lakes are popular local fishing spots one mile north of town. Primitive camping, trails, and RV hookups are available at Ringling.

MAJESTIC THEATRE—Built by one of Eastland's founding fathers, C.U. Connellee in 1920, it was originally called the Connellee Theatre and featured films and stage shows. Gene Autry and his horse, Champion, made an appearance here and live radio shows were broadcast from here every Sat. night. The old theater closed and reopened as the Majestic in 1947. Today, it is a first-run movie house Fri. - Mon. Tours and other programming can be arranged as scheduled. Building features a Texas Historical Marker. At 108 N. Lamar. Box office telephone number is 254/629-1322.

"OLD RIP" THE HORNE TOAD—According to apparently authentic records and witnesses, a Texas horned toad (a type of lizard) was sealed in cornerstone of an Eastland courthouse built in 1897. In 1928 a new courthouse was erected, the prior cornerstone was opened, and the horned frog was found alive! The small animal received great publicity; was displayed nationally. When it died the following year of pneumonia, it was placed in a glass-front casket, on view in the present county courthouse.

POST OFFICE MURAL—National and Post Office history depicted in 6- by 10-foot mural of postage stamps. Seven years and some 12,000 stamps were required to produce the mosaics of historical scenes and famous stamps. Post Office, 400 block E. Main. 254/629-2383.

GENERAL—Established in 1882 and named for Frederick Ede, upon whose land town was platted, Eden is 19 miles east of the geodetic center of Texas. Markers in town honor local sons: General Ira C. Eaker, aviator in World War I, who pioneered in-flight refueling technology and commanded Eighth Army Air Force in World War II; and General Earl Rudder, leader of Army Rangers who scaled 100-foot cliffs and silenced German artillery during D-Day invasion during World War II. Today, Eden boasts a shady town square that features shops, antique malls, a museum and a modern library. Visitors can also find a municipal golf course, deer and turkey hunting, and nearby O.H. Ivie Reservoir for fishing and boating.

DON FREEMAN MEMORIAL MUSEUM—Located on the east side of the square, next to City Hall, museum provides timeline of Concho County's development from early Indian presence, through the influence of farming and ranching, and foundings of schools, churches, post offices and businesses. Changing exhibits spotlight pioneer families. Large area devoted to county's military veterans includes personal histories and memorabilia. Open Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. Group tours available. 325/869-5074.

Map F-14

GENERAL—Named after cattle baron W.T. Waggoner's daughter, city is located in the western edge of Wichita County. The Waggoners were pioneers in the area when they established their cattle headquarters here in 1878. Confusion over the delivery of Waggoner mail and the name Beaver for nearby Beaver Creek led residents in 1902 to circulate a petition changing the name of the city to Electra in honor of Electra Waggoner. The townsite opened in October 1907. In 1911, an oil company leased a tract of land from W.T. and the famous North Texas Oil boom was begun as fortune seekers came to stake their claims.

Named the "Pump Jack Capital of Texas" by the Texas Legislature in 2001. The gusher of the Clayco No. 1 well, just north of town, in 1911 opened oil fields in the area, which today still support 5,000 pumping units within a 10-mile radius of town.

Annual festivals include the Pump Jack Festival (in April) celebrating Electra's oil heritage. Other community festivals include the Electra Goat Barbecue on Mother's Day weekend and the Holiday of Lights Christmas Parade the Saturday evening following Thanksgiving Day.

City of Electra maintains 8 RV hookups at Fairgrounds Park, which features 3 pavilions and a children's fishing pond; Crooked Creek Golf Course, north of city; public swimming pool at City Park. 940/495-2146.

Electra was designated a Texas Main Street City in 1998 and has been named a National Main Street community annually since 2000. In 2004 it was named a 'Preserve America' community, a White House initiative to recognize efforts to preserve and share our cultural and natural heritage. The Chamber of Commerce office at 112 W. Cleveland, open until noon, serves as the community welcome

GENERAL—Gateway to recreational areas around Lake Meredith and to Alibates Flint Quarries National Monument.

ALIBATES FLINT QUARRIES NATIONAL MONUMENT—Just 30 miles north of Amarillo on Texas 136. For thousands of years, people came to the red bluffs above the Canadian River. They came for flint, vital to their existence. Prehistoric people needed good raw material for tools and weapons and Alibates Flint was some of the finest. Demand for the high quality, rainbow-hued flint is reflected in the distribution of Alibates Flint throughout the Great Plains and beyond. Today, this area is protected by the National Park Service and is the only National Monument in Texas. The monument can only be viewed by ranger-led guided tours. Tours are offered by reservation only. Please give park staff ample time to schedule a tour, a few days in advance is best. For information, contact park headquarters at 806/857-3151 or visit www.nps.gov/alfi.

LAKE—Meredith. See LAKES listing.

LAKE MEREDITH AQUATIC AND WILDLIFE MUSEUM—Living specimens of some 16 species of fish found in Lake Meredith and the Canadian River are among primary features of the facility, which also offers a variety of excellent wildlife dioramas depicting American eagles, wild turkeys, pronghorns, coyotes, deer and raccoons. National Park Service display shows wide variety of colors of Alibates flint, and tools with which Indians made arrowheads. Open Mon. - Sat. noon - 5 p.m. 101 N. Roby (Texas 136). 806/857-2458

LAKE MEREDITH NATIONAL RECREATION AREA—Located 30 miles north of Amarillo on Texas 136, contrasting spectacularly with its surroundings on the dry windswept Llano Estacado. The Canadian River has cut and re-cut 200-foot canyons called breaks. Sanford Dam created Lake Meredith on the Canadian River and now fills many of the breaks whose walls are crowned with white dolomite caprock, scenic buttes, pinnacles, and red-brown wind eroded caves. Today, visitors enjoy fishing, water skiing, camping, hiking, hunting, and scuba diving. For information, contact park headquarters at 806/857-3151 or visit www.nps.gov/lamr.

LONE STAR RISING—America's newest outdoor musical set in the beautiful Fritch Fortress Amphitheatre. Be transported back in time and join Ma and Pa Carson and other residents of Lone Star on their journey through life in early Texas days. Meet historical characters like Sam Houston, Cynthia Ann Parker and Francisco Coronado; experience a cowboy poetry contest and a Spanish fiesta. The coyote trickster spirit of ancient Indian tradition is also a unique presence in this two-hour western spectacular. The season runs nightly, mid-June through mid-Aug., with a Texas-style barbecue served at 6:30 p.m. prior to show beginning at 8:15 p.m. Individual and group tickets are available by calling 806/331-2510 or 806/274-9050.

GENERAL—In southeastern Young County on the Wichita Falls and Southern, and the Chicago, Rock Island, and Gulf Railroads, Graham was founded in 1872 by Gustavus and Edwin S. Graham. The Graham brothers were from Kentucky and founded Graham Brothers Salt Works. In 1874, Young County was organized and Graham became the county seat. By 1876, the Graham Leader ran its first edition; this weekly publication is the oldest newspaper in the Northwest Texas region. Today Graham is the hub of agribusiness, oil and gas extraction, and other industries in the county.

Visitors like to shop on the historic downtown square and at a growing number of antique stores, and courthouse square is recognized as the largest downtown square in America. The city also has one of few remaining drive-in theaters left in the state.

History buffs enjoy touring the restored buildings of Ft. Belknap, one of many along the Texas Forts Trail (see Newcastle). Fishing, boating and other water sports draw visitors to Possum Kingdom Lake. Graham Country Club features a 9-hole golf course, ranked among the best 9-hole courses in the state according to The Dallas Morning News. Open to the public Tues. - Sat., and tee-time is not required. 940/549-7721.

Annual events include Art Splash on the Square in May, Red, White and You in July, Western Heritage Week in Oct. and Christmas Stroll & Lighted Parade in Dec.

GENERAL—At the center of Hale County, town resulted from compromise of two rival villages, Hale City and Epworth, that united in 1893. Buildings from both were moved to new townsite. Originally supplying large ranches, town became center of intensive farming as irrigation developed in 20th century. In the county, more than 400,000 irrigated acres produce cotton, grain sorghum, wheat, sunflowers, sugar beets, and table vegetables. Ten large outdoor murals that historically depict life in Hale Center are displayed on buildings throughout the city.

BELL PARK CACTI GARDEN—Established in honor of Hershell Bell, agronomy and range management authority; contains more than 350 specimens with 15 different species. Walk-through path, picnic tables. At intersection of F.M. 1424 and F.M. 1914 (Ave. K and Cleveland St.).

HALE COUNTY FARM & RANCH MUSEUM—More than 200 examples of vintage farm equipment from horse-drawn threshing machines to huge 1912 Case steam tractor. Museum consists of four buildings, including the 1910 Santa Fe depot. The first irrigation pumps developed by George Green (inventor, machinist, and engineer) are displayed, as well as some 20 stationary restored engines. On five acres one mile south on I-27, exit 36; open daily 1 - 5 p.m., weather permitting. Drive-by views at other times; donations. For information and group tours, call 806/839-2556.

HENRIETTA

Pop. 3,264 Alt. 915 Map G-16

GENERAL—The town of Henrietta was originally established prior to the Civil War; however, due to Indian hostilities, the city ceased to exist when early settlers abandoned their homesteads for the safety areas farther east protected by military posts. In 1873, both the city and county were reorganized by the legislature and Henrietta was designated county seat. According to legend, a group of citizens from the nearby town of Cambridge stole the courthouse records for a brief period and claimed Cambridge as county seat. A group of “cowboys” from Henrietta roped the safe with records intact and dragged the “courthouse” back to Henrietta. It served as the only court of justice for a 300-mile area until 1879.

The Immigrant Trail, the famous wagon train route of westward bound pioneers in the late 1800s, crossed Clay County south of Henrietta. The trail has been mapped and stones indicate its crossings at highway locations.

Today, Henrietta serves as a retail center with its economy based on agriculture, farming, and light industry.

A red granite monument at the northwest corner of the courthouse square stands as a war memorial with names of veterans who lost their lives in WWI, WWII, Korea and Vietnam.

For information on events, accommodations, and restaurants, call the chamber of commerce at 940/538-5261.

1890 JAIL MUSEUM-HERITAGE CENTER—The old jail served as the detention center until 1973. It now houses the original cells and a never-used gallows, in addition to the sheriff’s living quarters furnished in Victorian and period antiques. LUBBOCK

Pop. 199,564 Alt. 3,241 Map G-9/NN-5

GENERAL—Seat of Lubbock County and major city of the South Plains. The abundant grass and the expansion of the cattle industry in the 1880s led to the cattle empires on the Texas Plains and the settling of two towns: Old Lubbock and Monterey. In 1890, the two cities came together and mutually accepted a new site, which they called Lubbock, and it became the center of ranching and cattle operations in the area.

Today a city of industry, technology, oil, agriculture, warehousing, medicine and culture. Site of Lubbock Christian Univ., Texas Tech Univ., School of Law, and Health Science Center. Lubbock's citizens support the city's live music, ballet, and community theater productions, as well as the activities of its colleges and universities.

GENERAL—Matador was designated county seat when Motley County was organized in 1891, and was named for Dr. J.W. Mottley (named was misspelled in the law), signer of Texas Declaration of Independence who was killed at San Jacinto. The city was named for the Matador Land and Cattle Co., originally organized in 1882 by a Scottish syndicate. The area was founded and settled by cowboys of the Matador Ranch. The historic ranch house, with 26 rooms, was built in 1918 using native rock at a cost of $26,000. (Not open to the public.) Today, the local economy is still based on ranching (livestock) operations along with crop farming with cotton, wheat, and grain sorghum.

MOTLEY COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Housed in the old Traweck Hospital built in 1928 by Dr. A.C. Traweck, Sr., the first medical doctor in the county. Exhibits include collection of clothing, home furnishings, tools, firearms, and photos depicting early ranch and farm life in the county. Special exhibit rooms feature early medical care, school items, Plains Indians artifacts, a miniature display of the city as it existed from 1891-1910, and history of the Matador Land and Cattle Co. Open Mon. 1 - 5 p.m.; other times by appointment. One block north of U.S. 70 at corner of Duncce and Bundy sts. For information, call 806/347-2651.

SAND CRAWL MUSEUM—Named for the Sand Crawl formation south of town, the museum features pictorial representations of the area from Pleistocene riverbed to trail for Spanish explorers to settlement, ranching and farming. An outdoor exhibit features windmills, farm equipment and a half-dugout house, along with replicas of the Sand Hills. In Olton Library. Open Mon., Wed., Thurs., Fri. 8:30 a.m. - noon and 1 - 5 p.m.; Tues. noon - 8 p.m. At 701 Main St.

SAND HILLS—A chain of sand dunes extends for 130 miles, three to five miles wide. Archeological findings show that the area was inhabited 6,000 years ago. Comanches camped in the area because of wild game, vegetation, and protection from the wind and the availability of water. Spanish explorers and later Anglo-Americans used the old Indian trails that passed along these dunes. On F.M. 168 south of town.

PADUCAH

SCENIC DRIVE—F.M. 293 west to Texas 136 north provides views of modern High Plains agriculture contrasted with traditional ranch lands unchanged for centuries. Precise row crops are left behind as route enters rolling grasslands of broad Canadian River Valley. Fascinating historical marker beside Texas 136, some 10 miles north of F.M. 293, marks portion of trail that wound from Fort Smith, Arkansas, to Santa Fe, New Mexico. Though now covered by grass, wagon ruts are still visible. Texas 136 leads north to Lake Meredith and popular federal recreational areas around it (see LAKES listing).

SQUARE HOUSE MUSEUM—One of the most attractive small museums in state. Displays and dioramas interpret the history, natural history, and art of the Texas Panhandle. Thirteen structures include the historic Square House, oldest building in the city; Santa Fe caboose; reconstructed pioneer dugout; Eclipse windmill; community church; two art galleries; wildlife hall; early ranching barn; general store; bank; blacksmith shop; education building with Indian art and Texas flag exhibits. Self-guiding or tours by arrangement. Open daily. Pioneer Park on Texas 207. No admission fee.

THOMAS CREE'S LITTLE TREE—Set behind protective fence at south edge of U.S. 60 about five miles southwest of city is site of first tree planted throughout entire Texas Panhandle. Immense plains were once a sea of grass from horizon to horizon. In 1888 pioneer settler Thomas Cree hauled a sapling of bois d'arc from beyond the Caprock and planted it by his dugout home. Cree is long gone, but the tree thrived until 1969 when accidentally killed by an agricultural chemical. Carson County residents planted a new one as a memorial to early pioneers. Site is marked by two state historical markers and by a medallion from National Men's Garden Clubs of America.

GENERAL—Seat of Garza County, named for C.W. Post, cereal manufacturer who founded town in 1907 to demonstrate his economic ideas. Town designed to be center of a community of farmers who owned their own land and homes in region of giant ranches. All supplies were first brought in by mule train from nearest railhead, Big Spring, some 70 miles away. Between 1910-1913, city was scene of perhaps most elaborate series of experiments in rainmaking ever undertaken in U.S. Explosives were detonated in the atmosphere at timed intervals. Unfortunately, rainfall records do not indicate success. Post is at foot of majestic Caprock, southeastern edge of the Great Plains of the U.S.

Historic Main Street lined with gift and clothing stores, restored historic buildings. Details about city attractions at local chamber of commerce, 106 S. Broadway St.

Post lies on U.S. 84, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

RANGER

Pop. 2,584 Alt. 1,429 Map K-15

GENERAL—When oil boom towns are recalled, Ranger often leads the list. It was a quiet rural community established near a Texas Ranger camp in the 1870s. In October 1917, a gusher (see McClesky Number 1) blew in and touched off one of the greatest booms in petroleum history. World War I demand for oil was at an all-time high. The lure of instant riches was irresistible; the town erupted with every kind of frenzied activity. In one year population exploded from 1,000 to 30,000. Small farmers became millionaires. Four railroads raced to complete lines and one railroad's receipts jumped from $94,000 to $8,000,000 in two years. As in most instances, the boom was short-lived and today there is no evidence of that bigger-than-life era. Oil activity is evident in orderly fields, while farming and ranching is major interest of area citizens. Ranger Junior College is here.

LAKE—Leon. See LAKES listing.

MCCLESKY NUMBER 1—Site of 1,700-barrel-per-day oil gusher that touched off Ranger's fantastic oil boom in 1917. Marked by granite monument at T&P depot downtown.

PARKS—Two city-maintained parks, with shaded picnic facilities, playground equipment, swimming pool and lighted tennis court.

ROARING RANGER MUSEUM—Artifacts and abundant photos of city's oil boom days, housed in old depot. Also chamber of commerce office. Open Mon. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.; Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Main & Commerce sts. downtown.

ROARING SPRINGS

Pop. 265 Alt. 2,570 Map G-11

GENERAL—Roaring Springs, in Motley County, was named for Indian campground nearby on the Tongue River with natural, pure water springs and waterfall. A section of land purchased by the Quanah, Acme and Pacific Railroad from the Matador Land and Cattle Co. was platted in 1912, in anticipation of railroad construction. Lots were sold by the railroad, and in 1913, when the railroad line reached the site, it was named Roaring Springs by the Post Office. Economy is still based on ranching (livestock) operations along with crop farming with cotton, wheat, and grain sorghum.

Thacker Jewelry manufactures jewelry sold worldwide. Stop by for a visit and tour.

ROARING SPRINGS DEPOT MUSEUM—This mission-style building with red tile roof was built in 1913 and served as railroad depot until 1971. The city purchased the building housing the museum containing local memorabilia; it also serves as a community center. Open Tues. and Thurs. 10 a.m. - noon. For information, call 806/348-7216.

ROBERT LEE

Pop. 1,171 Alt. 1,922 Map L-12

GENERAL—In Central Coke County, the town was promoted as a townsite in 1889 by L.S. Harris and R.E. Cartledge, Confederate veterans who named the site for Robert E. Lee. In 1891, county seat moved from Haywick to Robert Lee, and most of the settlers from the former seat of government moved to the new community. Today, city is trade center for area. Economy is based on farm and ranching, oil, gas, and various light industries.

Recreational activities include facilities at E.V. Spence Reservoir a mile outside the city. Other activities include a nine-hole Mountain Creek Golf Course, county parks, and seasonal hunting.

COKE COUNTY MUSEUM—In a rustic 1907 building that housed the city's jail, the museum features antique exhibits and other memorabilia donated or loaned by area citizens. Open Wed. 3 - 5 p.m. grain and pecan production. A variety of industries, medical and retirement facilities and Goodfellow Air Force Base lend diversity. Symphony orchestra, ballet, Cactus Jazz Series at the Cactus Hotel, and Cactus Jazz and Blues Festival at the River Stage, and state's oldest civic theater. Home of Angelo State Univ.

Birding in and around the Concho Valley is great. More than 332 species of birds have been confirmed in the area.

Also, check out the old Cactus Hotel that was built in 1929, among the first Hilton Hotels. It houses a children's museum, as well as restaurant and coffee shop. The Crystal Ballroom is worth a peek.

Other spots of interest include the International Water Lily Collection, located in Civic League Park, the Old Chicken Farm Art Center, and the River Walk features beautiful gardens, 14 water displays, playground, walking/jogging trail, and a nine-hole golf course—all in downtown San Angelo.

ANGELO STATE UNIV. PLANETARIUM—Nation's fourth largest university planetarium features a three dimensional view of the universe with sparkling stars and celestial fireworks. Open when classes in session Thurs. 8 p.m. and Sat. 2 p.m. In Nursing-Physical Science Bldg. on campus. Admission fee.

CONCHO AVENUE—Was the first street in downtown area in "Santa Angela," and street's colorful history is reflected in its stores and buildings. Also features Miss Hattie's, the "Best Little Bordello Museum in Texas."

CONCHO RIVER PEARLS—Formed in freshwater mussels, pearls range in color from pink to rich purple. Local jewelers offer variety of settings for these rare pearls from lakes and rivers. Pearl seekers must have annual permit from Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Austin.

EL PASEO DE SANTA ANGELA—El Paseo extends between Fort Concho and Concho Avenue and follows a footpath from the fort used by the soldiers stationed here to the village across the river. The heritage trail covers the heart of San Angelo encompassing the "Pearl of the Conchos" mermaid statue, the river, Old Town—a collection of five frontier buildings that are beautifully restored, Fort Concho, the railroad area, and the Celebration Bridge. The landscaped walkway is also perfect for jogging and a leisurely stroll along the river area.

FORT CONCHO—One of the best preserved frontier military posts west of the Mississippi, this National Historic Landmark consists of 23 original and restored buildings on 40 acres near downtown.

Established 1867 as pivot post on frontier line replacing Fort Chadbourne (see BRONTE). Most stone structures built with pecan-wood beams and rafters by skilled German craftsmen from Fredericksburg.

Frontier troops protected stagecoaches and wagon trains, escorted U.S. mail runs, explored and mapped new territory and occasionally clashed with area Comanche and Apache tribes. Many well-known infantry and cavalry officers commanded the fort, including Col. Ranald S. Mackenzie, Col. William R. Shafter and Col. Benjamin H. Grierson. Both black and white troops took part in their campaigns, and the post was also the headquarters of the famed "Buffalo Soldiers," the black troops of the 10th Cavalry.

By the late 1800s, the railroad had arrived in West Texas and the military's protection was no longer necessary. And in a sentimental ceremony, on June 20, 1889, one small remaining company of the 19th Infantry took down the flag at evening retreat and left for San Antonio the very next day.

All buildings have been restored to their original appearance; up to 10 structures have either period interiors or displays to see. Regular and changing exhibits cover military history, the heritage of San Angelo and West Texas, and the daily life of a soldier and officer. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m.; closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's. Fort is just east of S. Oakes St., between Avenues C and D. Admission fee.

E. H. Danner Museum of Telephony—Models of telephones from Alexander Graham Bell's "Gallows Frame Phone" (only five ever built) through wooden phones and push-button phones of the 1880s to present models. Open museum hours; in Officers' Quarters No. 4.

Robert Wood Johnson Museum of Frontier Medicine—Instruments, medicines, surgical kits, hospital furniture, and other items of a typical 19th-century frontier hospital; some on loan from Johnson & Johnson collection. Also items related to San Angelo's medical history. In North Ward of Post Hospital.

HISTORIC MURALS—Located across from the Santa Fe depot, murals that depict early day transportation, from the 1840s to 1940s, are 85 feet long and 14 feet high.

HISTORIC ORIENT-SANTA FE DEPOT—The history of railroading in West Texas comes alive at the old depot. In addition to housing the Railway Museum of San Angelo, the facility features an operating diorama depicting the city in 1928 as well as static displays of railcars. Open Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Call ahead for special tours. 703 S. Chadbourne St. For information, call 325/944-1815.

LAKES—Nasworthy, O.C. Fisher at San Angelo State Park, and Twin Buttes. See LAKES listing.

MISS HATTIE'S MUSEUM—Restored "ladies of the evening" saloon/"parlor house" that was a surreptitious San Angelo landmark for decades. Faithfully restored with original furnishings and fashions to depict living style of those who entertained soldiers, ranchers and cowboys. House operated from mid-1800s until closed by Texas Rangers in 1946. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. At 18 E. Concho. Group tour appointments can be booked by calling 325/653-0112. Admission fee.

PARKS—Several city parks along Concho River offer golf, tennis, fishing, swimming and picnicking.

PRODUCERS LIVESTOCK AUCTION COMPANY—Livestock sold here include cattle, sheep and goats, making it one of the largest auctions in the state. Sale days: Tues. (and some Wed.), sheep; Thurs. - Fri., cattle. 1131 N. Bell St.

SAN ANGELO CHILDREN'S ART MUSEUM—In the Cactus Hotel, kids of all ages find hands-on activities to explore and create. Open Wed. - Fri. 1 - 5 p.m.; Sat. - Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. For information, call 325/659-4391.

SAN ANGELO MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS AND EDUCATION CENTER—This sleek, new facility offers varied and changing exhibits of different media from many eras. This is a cooperative project between SAMFA and Angelo State Univ. The 22,000-square-foot facility is on the Concho River adjacent to the Bill Aylor Sr. Memorial RiverStage. It's built of native Texas limestone that is reminiscent of historic Fort Concho, and the copper roof top resembles a covered wagon, a handsome scene from the Concho River overlooking the downtown skyline. It's adjacent to the El Pasco de Santa Angela. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. Admission fee. For information, call 325/658-4084.

SAN ANGELO NATURE CENTER—In former Lake Rangers Headquarters building at Lake Nasworthy built by Works Progress Admin. Natural science and history museum interpreting the Edwards Plateau region. Displays feature native wildlife: live reptiles and amphibians, mounted birds and other wildlife, 200-gallon aquarium, glass-enclosed beehive, and ant farm. Audiovisual programs. Alt. 3,173

Map B-10

GENERAL—Established 1901, a trade center and livestock shipping point at north edge of Canadian River Valley.

BATTLE OF ADOBE WALLS—Site where two famous Indian battles were fought. Col. Kit Carson (in his last fight) and his U.S. troops in 1864 narrowly escaped defeat by Kiowa and Comanche Indians who had been attacking wagon trains and settlers. Ten years later, in 1874, Indians under Quannah Parker and Lone Wolf attacked buffalo hunters camp at second battle of Adobe Walls near first site. A fierce dawn attack opened the siege, and though Indians were repulsed, the party of 28 men and one woman was surrounded, and it seemed only a matter of time before the superior number of Indians would prevail. On the second day a group of Cheyenne appeared on a high mesa overlooking the camp, setting the stage for William (Billy) Dixon's famous shot. From within the stockade he shot an Indian from his horse at a distance approaching seven-eighths of a mile. The Indians were so shocked at the white man's shooting ability that they mounted only desultory attacks thereafter and soon withdrew. Site is some 18 miles northeast of Stinnett on private ranch lands off highways; not readily accessible. Local directions available. Historical markers at site.

ISAAC McCORMICK PIONEER COTTAGE—Restored home of area's first settler, built in 1899. Furnished in pioneer style displaying artifacts from 1890s. Inquire locally for hours. On town square.

★ PINEY WOODS ★

IN THE PINEY WOODS of East Texas, Nature lays down a wondrous welcome mat. Carpeted with fragrant pine needles, brimming with lakes both mammoth and mysterious, and seasonally rich with radiant roses, delicate dogwoods, and exquisite azaleas, this inviting area both fascinates and captivates.

History resounds here, especially in towns such as Nacogdoches, San Augustine, and Weches. These early Texas communities, which lie along the famed El Camino Real (Spanish for The King's—or Royal—Highway), witnessed the founding of 17th- and 18th-century missions by Spanish Franciscans. Later, Nacogdoches and San Augustine played prominent roles in spurring Texas' independence from Mexico. Jefferson, too, boasts a colorful past and gives you exciting glimpses of its days as a bustling steamboat port.

Larger cities, such as Conroe, Longview, Texarkana and Tyler serve up interesting museums, good shopping, and fine restaurants. And you will find a full slate of fun activities and events to entertain you, as well. Here, festivals celebrate everything from yams to fire ants (yep, the Texas FireAnt Festival brings its wacky shenanigans to Marshall each October). And you can feast your eyes on spectacular scenes at the gorgeous Texas Rose Festival in Tyler and the superb holiday extravaganza, Wonderland of Lights in Marshall.

There are food feasts aplenty, too. In this lush region, you can reap a delicious seasonal bounty of fresh vegetables and fruits. Look especially for luscious ripe tomatoes from Jacksonville, crunchy sweet onions from Noonday (southwest of Tyler), earthy yellow yams from Gilmer, and juice-laden peaches from Pittsburg. And, for a dinner treat, try crispy fried catfish, served with delicately browned hush puppies. Yum!

The Piney Woods brims with these special delights and intriguing sites. For a sampling, let's take a quick journey from north to south.

THE PINEY WOODS, NORTH

In Texarkana, you can travel from Arkansas to Texas and back again a dozen times and remain in Texarkana the entire "journey." That's because the city lies in both states. For a fun photo, go to the "photographer's island" in front of the bi-state U.S. Post Office. Then, put one foot in Texas and the other across the line in Arkansas. You just did the Texas-Arkansas split!

To learn more about the area and about Texas, visit the friendly folks at the Texas Travel Information Center. Here, you'll get your first taste of terrific East Texas hospitality, spoken in a soft Southern drawl tinged with a Texas twang. And the travel counselors will give you literature about the city and the state, and will tell you about interesting Texarkana sites, such as the Perot Theatre.

Restored to its 1924 regal blue and gilt splendor, the Italian Renaissance-style Perot Theatre (once part of the Saenger Amusement chain) gleams with shiny chandeliers and elegant, mirrored lobby. You can enjoy dramas, ballets, and musicals in these opulent surroundings.

Not far from the theater, look for Main Street's Scott Joplin mural honoring Texarkana's native son and America's "King of Ragtime." You can pay further homage to Joplin, a Pulitzer Prize-winning composer, at the Texarkana Historical Museum, where exhibits include a piano on which he supposedly practiced as a boy. While in the museum, visit the other interesting displays, such as the Victorian parlor and "Grandma's Kitchen."

Don't miss the unusual Ace of Clubs House, which was built by James Draughon in 1885 supposedly from his winnings in a poker hand. The lavishly furnished Italianate Victorian mansion boasts 22 sides and takes on the shape of a playing-card club when viewed from above.

About 18 miles west of Texarkana, Crystal Springs Beach provides refreshing warm-weather fun. You can laze on a white sand beach and swim in the 12-acre spring-fed lake.

Marshall's Wonderland of Lights

Near Atlanta, Atlanta State Park offers another sandy beach, this one lies alongside Lake Wright Patman. Camping, fishing, boating, bicycling, and hiking are among the outdoor activities at this 1,475-acre park set in an area once home to Caddo Indians.

Mount Pleasant, about 65 miles west of Texarkana on I-30, won a spot on the list of "100 Best Small Towns in America" twice in the 1990s. Visit here and you will find an attractive town on beautifully wooded hills, chock-full of antique shops, boutiques, and parks. Stroll along the pathways and footbridges of five-acre Tankersley Gardens where dogwoods, redbuds, and irises bloom amid other spring blossoms.

If you're hooked on fishing, prepare to grab your tackle box. First, stop by the Kountry Korner Store at the junction of E.M. 127 and E.M. 2882 southwest of Mount Pleasant. Here, you can ogle more than 2,000 photos of bass weighing 7 lbs. or more caught in nearby reservoirs, such as Bob Sandlin, Monticello, and Welsh. Incredible! Chances are, you'll stay in the area and cast a lure or two.

Drive south from Mount Pleasant about 14 miles and you'll enter Pittsburg. Visit the Northeast Texas Rural Heritage Center & Museum and view the full-size replica of the amazing "Ezekiel Airship." The original airship, built in the early 1900s by a preacher-inventor, was based on a description in the Biblical book of Ezekiel.

Further south stands Gladewater, the acclaimed "Antique Capital of East Texas," with about two dozen antique and crafts shops. If you visit here in mid-February to mid-March, do not miss the Helen Lee Estate Daffodil Gardens, aglow with brilliant yellow blooms. Another favorite seasonal event in the area occurs in October, with Winnsboro's Autumn Trails, one of Texas' most popular salutes to fall foliage.

Backtrack a few miles to the east and spend some quality time in Jefferson, once a major East Texas river port. So that you can explore Jefferson with the added zest of historical perspective, here's a quick review of its steamboating past.

From the 1840s to the 1870s, steamboats from New Orleans journeyed here along the Big Cypress Bayou, making Jefferson an important Texas port, with steamboats lined up a dozen deep. Then, in 1873, engineers destroyed the great Red River Raft, a natural dam on the river above Shreveport. That action improved the river's main course, but lowered nearby creeks and tributaries and rendered Jefferson practically inaccessible by water.

The emergence of railroad travel also affected the town's future. Thus Jefferson, its transportation routes strangled, became less important commercially. But the town looms large in historical significance, and careful preservation of its historic past has made it a natural for visitors seeking the quiet ambience of a bygone era.

Today, historic hotels and inns, old plantations, and numerous other sites, such as railway magnate Jay Gould's private railroad car, provide hours of exploration. You can tour the town by trolley, mule-drawn wagon, horse-drawn carriage, and stretch limo. And you can board the Turning Basin River Boat Tour for a riverside view complete with narration about the old river port.

Jefferson's fascinating history, its fine restaurants, specialty shops, and dozens of bed-and-breakfast inns make it a favorite destination year-round.

Two of the prettiest lakes in the state grace this area of East Texas. Lake O' the Pines, 10 miles west of Jefferson, ripples across rolling forest lands and produces great fishing, boating, and swimming. Caddo Lake, edged by dense vegetation and moss-draped trees, sprawls over some 26,800 acres just north of Karnack. The town is the birthplace of Claudia Alta Taylor, known as "Lady Bird," who became first lady of the nation as the wife of President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Waskom, on the Texas-Louisiana border, gives you another opportunity to visit a Texas Travel Information Center for travel literature and a smiling exchange of "howdy, y'all." West of Waskom about three miles, you'll get a kick out of Jonesville's T.C. Lindsey & Co., an old-fashioned general store that offers all kinds of fascinating merchandise.

Continue west to Marshall. Here, you can browse among the thousands of handsome pots, bowls, plaques, and figurines on display at the world-famous Marshall Pottery. And you can watch interesting demonstrations of pottery-making while you decide between the little red clay pot or a hand-turned stoneware version.

Marshall's impressive Ginocchio National Historic District offers a chance to explore three square blocks that surround the 1896 Ginocchio Hotel. The hotel, a splendid example of Victorian architecture, contains beautiful interior woodwork and decorative details. Also within the district, the Marshall Depot and Museum exhibits interesting railroad memorabilia.

During Wonderland of Lights, Marshall literally illuminates East Texas for the holidays by lighting some 10 million tiny white bulbs. Businesses outline their buildings, neighborhoods decorate houses, and more than 125,000 lights adorn the town's centerpiece, the historic courthouse museum. The sight will astound and delight you!

In Kilgore, oil is the key word. Here, the East Texas Oil Museum presents interesting displays that illustrate many aspects of the city's oil boom in the '30s. Dioramas, films, sound effects, mementos, a simulated 3,800-foot elevator ride to oil formations within the earth, and a full-size street scene, bring the boom days to life.

You can also visit downtown's "World's Richest Acre," where once stood the greatest concentration of oil wells ever, producing more than 2.5 million barrels of oil. Today, one original derrick remains alongside 12 new ones.

Tyler, the largest city in the Piney Woods, offers the unparalleled beauty of the Tyler Municipal Rose Garden and Museum. The magnificent gardens, at their best in early spring and early fall, spread across 22 acres, with some 38,000 rose bushes representing almost 500 varieties. Commercial rose gardens also flourish in the area.

In addition, the city encompasses the impressive Caldwell Zoo and several historic sites. Tyler State Park, with almost 1,000 forested acres, lies just 10 miles north.

You will find intriguing sites, sights, and activities throughout the area. South of Tyler, Henderson boasts the Depot Museum and Children's Discovery Center, housed in a restored 1901 Missouri Pacific Railroad depot. In Joinerville, the preservation of its heritage and history tied to the area's oil fields can be found at the Gaston Museum. At Carthage, the Tex Ritter Museum honors the Western actor/singer, and a life-size statue commemorates country-western singer Jim Reeves, who was killed in a 1968 plane crash.

Jacksonville—known as the “tomato city” in the 1930s and 1940s when it shipped more tomatoes than any other city—hosts the Tomato Fest each June. Nearby Lookout Mountain park offers year-round camping and is the site for a First Monday Trade Days, where you can sort through wares that include antiques and collectibles. At Rusk, you can board the Texas State Railroad, where antique steam engines power vintage railroad coaches on a 25-mile trip to Palestine. Take this fun ride down the tracks into nostalgia.

THE PINEY WOODS, SOUTH

Begin your southern tour with a visit to one of Texas’ oldest communities. Historically important Nacogdoches was an Indian settlement for centuries before European explorers, such as Frenchman René Robert Cavelier, Sieur de La Salle, and later Spanish Franciscan missionaries, entered the area in the 17th and 18th centuries. Nacogdoches, the oldest town in Texas, was the site of three abortive republics. Then, in 1832, citizens fired the opening shots of the Texas Revolution by attacking the Mexican garrison in the center of town. They succeeded in driving the Mexican troops out of East Texas.

The town’s North Street, once known as La Calle del Norte (Spanish for “Street of the North”) may be the oldest public thoroughfare in the United States, having once connected an ancient Indian community with another tribal village to the north.

Revisit history here at places like the Old Stone Fort, a museum housed in a replica of the stone house built by the town’s founder, Gil Y’Barbo about 1779. Millard’s Crossing Historic Village, a 37-acre complex, encompasses buildings that illustrate East Texas architecture from a log cabin to a Victorian-style house. And several other historic sites, such as Old North Church and the Sterne-Hoya Home (Davy Crockett once stayed here) invite your exploration.

On the campus of Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, you will enjoy strolling among the 23 gardens of the university’s splendid 19-acre arboretum.

West of Nacogdoches, Mission Tejas State Park at Weches commemorates the first Spanish mission built in East Texas, while, to the east, the town of San Augustine marks Mission Señora de los Dolores de los Ais, established in 1716 by the Domingo Ramon expedition. Several churches in San Augustine, including Presbyterian, Episcopal, and Methodist, lay claim to being the oldest of their denominations in Texas.

Cutting broad swaths across the southern Piney Woods, Toledo Bend and Sam Rayburn reservoirs form two of the largest lakes in Texas. They provide extraordinary fishing and boating, plentiful camping, and a full slate of water sports. Here, too, the state’s national and state forests encompass thousands of acres, with wonderful recreational areas (enhanced, of course, by the elegant presence of aromatic loblolly and short-leaf pines).

Lufkin, south of Nacogdoches, offers several city parks, the interesting Ellen Trout Zoo and Park, and the Medford Collection of Western Art, with more than 50 paintings by contemporary artists. Visit the Texas Forestry Museum and view exhibits of early logging machinery, a sawmill town, fire-fighting equipment, a fire tower, and antique railroad and sawmill steam engines.

Situated between Livingston and Woodville, the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation is home to some 500 Alabama-Coushatta Indians. The ecologically exciting Big Thicket National Preserve, in the southeastern section of the Piney Woods, forms a giant reverse “L” in units that extend from just south of Angelina National Forest to Beaumont and westward to Saratoga. A smaller segment stretches south from the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation. Long a place of mystery and lore, the Big Thicket brings together the ecosystems of the eastern hardwood forests, the Gulf coastal plains, and the midwest prairies. Here, you can see bizarrely diverse plant life that includes prickly pear cactus, orchids, ferns, and camellias, as well as pine, oak, and gum trees.

Travel west from Livingston and you will reach the attractive, historic town of Huntsville. Founded as an Indian trading post in 1836, Huntsville is Houston country—Sam Houston country, that is.

The town harbors several important locations that memorialize Houston, who held the offices of General of the Texas Army, President of the Republic of Texas, United States Senator, and Governor of Texas. The great man’s gravesite lies here, in Oakwood Cemetery. And the Sam Houston Memorial Museum Complex displays many of Houston’s personal mementos and preserves several original Houston-owned buildings on beautifully landscaped grounds. At the Huntsville Visitor Center stands a towering 67-foot-tall statue of Houston. It is said to be the world’s tallest statue of an American hero. You can’t miss it.

South of Huntsville, the lovely town of Conroe sits near the southern edge of the Sam Houston National Forest, awash in towering pines, rolling hills, and woodland lakes. Within the national forest, the 127-mile Lone Star Hiking Trail affords you a chance to see rare and uncommon birds like the red-cockaded woodpecker.

At Conroe, resorts, golf courses, tennis courts, campgrounds and marinas dot the tree-lined shore of Lake Conroe. Want to see the lake in style? Hop aboard the paddle wheeler Southern Empress, where you can dine, dance, and sightsee.

If you’re in the mood for music that will set your toes tapping, check out the Montgomery County Jamboree, where country/western, gospel, bluegrass, and Cajun musicians cut loose every third Saturday. And make sure you visit the communities of Montgomery and Shenandoah while you’re in the area.

Conroe also offers great shopping at outlet and antique malls throughout the city. On weekends, head over to the nearby village of Cut and Shoot, where flourishing flea markets tempt you to search for that perfect souvenir.

While you are in the area, take a look at The Woodlands, a planned community developed in the early 1970s. The town today, with a population of more than 55,000, retains the natural beauty of the forest, with designated greenbelts, parks, and protected reserves. Residents enjoy some 90 miles of hike-and-bike trails, 70 parks, and a 200-acre lake. The Woodlands is also home to the Cynthia Woods Mitchell Pavilion, a 16,550-seat outdoor performing arts center set amid luxuriant forest lands. Here, you can attend performances by major touring artists and festivals.

On the southern rim of the Piney Woods region lies Liberty, once a busy port when steamboats plied the Trinity River. Texas notables David Burnet, Sam Houston, and William B. Travis practiced law here.

In Liberty, you can visit the renowned Sam Houston Regional Library and Research Center for a look at displays of artifacts, furniture, and pirate Jean Laffite’s journals. The town also boasts Liberty Bell Tower, which contains a replica of the original Liberty Bell. Townsfolk toll the bell on special occasions.

No matter where you journey in this region of the Lone Star State, you will visit sites that evoke Texas’ thrilling, tumultuous past. You can explore interesting towns, scenic forests, and vast lakes. You can shop at malls and markets. And you can experience the endearing friendliness of the folks who call East Texas home. When it comes to hospitality and diversity, you will find it in the beautiful Piney Woods of East Texas.

GILMER

Pop. 4,799 Alt. 415 Map J-21

GENERAL—Seat of Upshur County, city was founded in 1848 on the historic Cherokee Trace, becoming a trade center for growing population of farmer-settlers. Cotton farming dominated economy, joined by lumbering boom at turn of the century. The East Texas oil boom of the early 1930s extended into county as cotton began to fade. Dairying, lumber, and beef cattle are important today.

More than 50 historical markers are found in the city and around the county, including a 1936 granite marker in Roosevelt Park on site of early 19th-century Cherokee Indian village. Markers on the courthouse lawn tell about the Cherokee Trace, traveled by Sam Houston and other Texas Revolution heroes on first trips to Texas.

Gilmer became a Texas Main Street City in 1998, won Texas Main Street City of the year in 1999 and in 2000 named a National Main Street City. Historic Gilmer Main Street features downtown square with red brick-paved streets, shops and restaurants. For information, call 903/843-0086.

Gilmer is also part of the Texas Forest Trail Region, the heritage tourism initiative of the Texas Historical Commission that encompasses 35 counties in East Texas.

Don't miss East Texas Yamboree, third weekend in Oct., which pays homage to the sweet potato and is one of the oldest annual festivals in Texas. For information on events, attractions, and accommodations, call the Gilmer Area Chamber of Commerce at 903/843-2413.

HENDERSON

Pop. 11,273 Alt. 505 Map L-22

GENERAL—Designated seat of Rusk County in 1843. Enjoyed rapid growth during its first two decades, but disastrous fire in 1860 destroyed most business houses. Oil discovered in 1930. City is now oil and agriculture commercial center; home of Texas Baptist Institute.

City is a Main Street City with walking tours of the historic downtown district available.

DEPOT MUSEUM AND CHILDREN'S DISCOVERY CENTER—Restored 1901 Missouri Pacific RR depot houses museum of county history in old waiting room and office. Warehouse portion is hands-on learning center for children 3 to 11. On grounds is 1908 restored "Arnold Outhouse," first in state to receive historical marker. Ornate, gingerbread-style, "thrice-holer" was built for prominent turn-of-the-century Henderson attorney. Restored 1841 log cabin on museum grounds is one of state's oldest. Other structures include barn, broom shop, 1881 doctor's office, and authentically restored 1880s dogtrot cabin. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat. 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. 514 N. High St. Admission fee.

EAST TEXAS DISCOVERY WELL—In 1927, Columbus M. "Dad" Joiner believed there was oil in Rusk County. Joiner and an Oklahoma attorney and oil promoter had won and lost two fortunes in oil, and despite nearing age 70, he was beginning another search "without even the proverbial shoestring." With inferior equipment, he drilled his first well on Daisy Bradford's land, about six miles from Henderson to a depth of 1,098 feet before junking the site. His second attempt was also unsuccessful. In January 1930, the third well was started by Joiner about 300 feet from his first attempt. On Sept. 3, 1930, the drill bit struck the Woodbine Sand and the core came up dripping with oil. On Oct. 3, 1930, the Daisy Bradford No. 3 blew in as a 300 barrel-a-day well at a depth of 3,592 feet. Thus began the East Texas Oil Boom.

Pioneer Park, with derrick-covered picnic pavilions, is about six miles west of Henderson on Texas 64 at C.R. 4148. Also in the park is the Joe Roughneck Monument, erected by Lone Star Steel as a memorial tribute to the working men in the oil fields known as "roughnecks." See JOINERVILLE.

The site of the Daisy Bradford No. 3 is about a mile north of Pioneer Park on C.R. 4136 and is marked by a 1936 pink granite marker.

Today, the city is part of the National Register of Historic Downtown Squares.

GENERAL—Various dates between 1836 and 1840 are cited as the beginning of Jefferson at a river landing on Big Cypress Bayou. Whatever the date, early settlers were already established when the town was laid out in 1842. Today one of Texas' most historic towns. More than 30 structures bear state historical medallions. Several antique shops.

Jefferson early became major East Texas river port of entry; Big Cypress was then navigable by steamboats from New Orleans. Discovery of nearby iron ore brought smelters and plow works, while plentiful pine and cypress stimulated lumber industry.

Near Jasper, B.A. Steinhagen Lake offers aquatic activities for area residents and visitors

Here was one of Texas' first breweries, and in 1873 world's first ammonia refrigerant ice plant. It was state's first city to utilize artificial gas for street lighting, and shortly after the Civil War, reached a peak population of 30,000 with as many as 15 steamboats at a time lining the docks, and scores of wagon trains passing through on the way West.

For today's traveler seeking quiet reflection of a past era, it is a fortunate result. More than 60 bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

Map K-21

GENERAL—Located on Texas 64, approx. six miles west of Henderson, is home to East Texas Oil Field's Discovery Well, once the largest oil field in the world. Town (previously known as Cyril) named in honor of wildcat driller C.M. "Dad" Joiner in 1931. In Pioneer Park, monument and historical markers honor those oilfield "roughnecks." Also, today city is part of Texas Forest Region.

GASTON MUSEUM—When C.M. "Dad" Joiner struck oil here on Oct. 3, 1930, this sparsely populated farming community became a bustling boomtown. Museum is dedicated to the preservation of the area's history and heritage, inviting visitors to step back into the 1930s. Focusing on life in an East Texas oil field, includes an oil field "tent house," a 1930s Dixie Service Station and a 1940s roadside cafe on the museum grounds, and each building contains original furnishings. Open Fri. - Sat., 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., other times by appointment. On Texas 64, 2.2 miles from East Texas Oil Field's Discovery Well. 903/847-2205. www.gastonmuseum.org.

GENERAL—Surrounded by the pine forests and clear blue skies of East Texas about 120 miles east of Dallas. In 1930, this quiet farming town was thrust into the world limelight by discovery of huge oil field in 1930; over 1,200 oil wells once within city limits; some still producing. More than 24 restored steel derricks are nostalgic reminders of early boom days; now decorated during Christmas.

For more information, contact the Chamber of Commerce at 903/984-5022 or visit www.kilgorechamber.com.

EAST TEXAS OIL MUSEUM—Every aspect of the oil boom days of the 1930s is re-created through dioramas, films, sound effects and mementos of the oil field, and from the daily lives of the people. See an old-fashioned drilling rig displayed outside. Walk in the footsteps of the boomers in the street scenes that bring the past to life. Also, hop aboard an elevator that simulates a 3,800-foot ride below ground to see oil formations within the earth. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. (till 5 p.m. Apr. - Sept.); Sun. 2 - 5 p.m. Special holiday schedule between Christmas and New Year's Day. U.S. 259 at Ross St. 903/983-8295. (On Kilgore College campus.) Admission fee.

RANGERETTE SHOWCASE—Films and displays of props, costumes, uniforms, awards and mementos of Kilgore College's world-famous precision drill and dance team, known for its trademark "high kick" routine. The first of its kind, the Rangerettes were formed in 1940 as halftime entertainment for local football games. Their performance at bowl games and internationally has brought fame to Kilgore College. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - noon, 1 - 5 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - noon, 1 - 4 p.m.; Special holiday schedule between Christmas and New Year's Day. On campus on Broadway at Ross. No admission fee. 903/983-8265.

WORLD'S RICHEST ACRE PARK—On part of one downtown block, actually about 1.2 acres, once stood greatest concentration of oil wells in the world producing more than 2.5 million barrels of oil. All but one of original derricks were dismantled in early 1960s. The original derrick and 26 new ones, a restored pumpjack, a granite monument to the pioneer oil families of East Texas, and brick walkways erected in a historical preservation program make the park a monument to the oil boom of 1930s. A historical marker details history of the plot. An interesting sidelight is that one well was drilled through terrazzo floor of the Kilgore National Bank that once stood on site. Located at Main and Commerce sts. across from railroad depot.

GENERAL—Established in 1895 in east central Jasper County, city is on the Gulf, Colorado, and Santa Fe Railroad, and the terminus of the Jasper and Eastern Railroad. Named for John Henry Kirby, who, along with R.P. Allen, laid out the townsite. Kirby was known as "Prince of the Pines," at one time producing more Southern Pine lumber than any man in the world.

Today, lumber is still king, but agribusiness and tourism play an important role in the economy. Kirbyville is minutes away from popular lakes—Toledo Bend Reservoir, Sam Rayburn Reservoir, and B.A. Steinhagen Lake. It's right in the middle of national and state forests, as well as the Big Thicket National Preserve. Because of the abundance of trees, birding is a popular activity here. Residents salute the forests with the popular Magnolia Festival each April.

For information on events, accommodations, and area attractions, contact the local chamber of commerce at 105 South Elizabeth St. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.; 409/423-5827.

CALABOOSE MUSEUM—Under the direction of the Kirbyville Area Heritage Society, the museum contains artifacts, information, and history of local significance. Housed in old jail house built in 1910. Open Wed. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. At Elizabeth and Lavielle sts.

EXOTIC CAT REFUGE & WILDLIFE ORPHANAGE—Non-profit reserve offers refuge and rehabilitation to endangered exotic cats and other wildlife. It's a state and federally licensed orphanage for lions, tigers, leopards, cougars, bears, and wolves, to name a few. Shelter is normally open Tues. - Sun. afternoons, but it's best to call for reservations. From U.S. 96, head east on Main St. one block to Elizabeth St.; right on Elizabeth St. to Shaw Guy St.; turn left to orphanage. For reservations and information, call 409/423-4847.

FORESTS—Angelina National Forest, Sabine National Forest, E. O. Seicke State Forest. See NATIONAL AND STATE FORESTS listings.

GENERAL—Established as railroad town 1881. Seat of Hardin County, an area more than 89 percent forested that produces more than 5.5 million board-feet of lumber yearly.

Kountze describes itself as The Big Light in The Big Thicket—that vast area of tangled, often impenetrable woods, streams and marshes, portions of which are now protected as the Big Thicket National Preserve.

Indian Springs Camp offers guided canoe tours as well as camping facilities, including an RV park. For information, call 409/246-2508.

Be sure to check out the Big Thicket Smokehouse and Craft Corral. In a room that used to be a washateria, it now features an arts and crafts shop in a re-created frontier sawmill town. Replicas of a jail, general store, a doctor's office, barbershop, trading post, saloon, hotel, and church give visitors an idea of what the Big Thicket used to be like.

For additional information on accommodations, dining facilities, and other visitor facts, call the Kountze Chamber of Commerce at 409/246-3413.

BIG THICKET INFORMATION STATION—Details about the Big Thicket National Preserve, interpretive panels, information on trails and boating. Hiking trails of various lengths have interpretive panels at several locations. Open daily except Christmas; 7 mi. north of Kountze on F.M. 420. For information, call 409/246-2337.

BIG THICKET NATIONAL PRESERVE—Some 97,000 acres in twelve units comprise this preserve where the southwestern desert meets the eastern hardwood swamps and coastal prairies meet the northern piney woods. Includes extremely diverse plant communities in close proximity, orchids, cactus, cypress, and pine. Also home to many species of birds, insect-eating plants and wide variety of wildlife. See Big Thicket information station above.

GENERAL—Among oldest settled areas of Texas, several hundred Anglo-Americans established farms in 1820s on Mexican land grants. Town laid out 1831, named Villa de la Santissima Trinidad de la Libertad, quickly shortened to Liberty by English-speaking residents. William B. Travis, Sam Houston, and David Burnet all practiced law in Liberty. Three brothers from town died at the Alamo; some 50 Liberty citizens fought in Battle of San Jacinto in 1836, when Texas won its independence.

Seat of Liberty County, town was a busy port when steamboats plied the Trinity River in the late 19th century. Today a farming-ranching community with substantial oil production dating from 1925. Each March the "Liberty Jubilee" is held downtown and features barbecue cook-offs, street dances, a parade, antiques show, food, arts & crafts, and a fireworks display.

GERALDINE D. HUMPHREYS CULTURAL CENTER—Project of local historical and arts groups, the center includes a museum, library, and performing arts theater. Adjacent is Liberty Bell Tower, replica of original Liberty Bell (Philadelphia, PA.) famed in U.S. history. STARR FAMILY HOME STATE HISTORIC SITE—Better known as Maplecroft, the name given when the house was built in 1870 by James F. Starr, son of Dr. James Harper Starr, early financier, Surgeon General of the Republic of Texas in 1837, Secretary of the Treasury for the Republic, Postmaster General of the Confederacy west of the Mississippi, and member of the first board of regents of the University of Texas. The family remained prominent in the state's political and economic scene through successive generations. The construction materials and furnishings of the home were shipped from New Orleans and reflect the Italianate style that was then popular there. Shipwrights were imported to do the construction and all the red heart pine was inspected by a lumber expert. Open Thurs., Fri., Sat. & Mon. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. 407 W. Travis St. 903/935-3044. Admission fee.

MINEOLA

Pop. 4,550 Alt. 414 Map J-20

GENERAL—Town developed in southwestern Wood County when the Houston and Great Northern RR built through the area in 1871. Railroadman Ira H. Evans named the town for his daughter Ola and her friend, Minnie Patton, and approved by I. E. Ward, construction engineer and resident of Mineola, NY. The town became shipping and retail center in the middle 1840s. When the Texas and Pacific and Missouri, Kansas, and Texas RRs arrived, railroad shops opened and town became a railroad junction point.

Diversified industries and agriculture play a dominant role in today's economy.

Known as "gateway to East Texas pine country," city sponsors Holiday Motor Trails throughout the year beginning in spring when dogwood, bluebonnets, and crimson clover bloom profusely over green carpeted meadows and on through autumn when hardwood leaves turn crimson, yellow and gold among the pines.

More than a dozen antique and craft shops await shoppers. For location and map check with chamber of commerce at 101 E. Broad St. 903/569-2087.

LAKES—Hawkins, Holbrook, Quitman, and Winnsboro. See LAKES listing.

RAILROAD MUSEUM—Railroad memorabilia housed in old depot on Front St. recall early days of Mineola. Exhibits document the cotton industry and shipping of bales of cotton on trains to markets. Nearby is restored caboos. Open Mon. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m.

MONTGOMERY

Pop. 489 Alt. 286 Map P-20

GENERAL—Known as the "Birthplace of the Texas flag," city was established in 1827 as the second of Stephen F. Austin's colonies. Dr. Charles Bellinger Stewart, a resident of the town from 1838 to 1885, designed the first Republic of Texas flag and official seal, which was approved by the legislature and President Mirabeau B. Lamar in 1839. Dr. Stewart was the Republic's first Secretary of State and the first to sign Texas' Declaration of Independence.

More than 30 historic homes and buildings are located throughout the city. A self-guided City Tour Guide is available for visitors interested in taking driving or walking tours. Private tours are also available through the Montgomery Historical Society by calling 936/597-4155.

For more information, visit the Greater Conroe/Lake Conroe Chamber of Commerce at www.conroe.org.

CHEESEMAKERS, INC.—See authentic Texas cheese made by hand. Tour the cheese plant to see artisans create Texas goat cheese and authentic Mexican cheeses. Fresh mozzarella is made on-site, by hand, and Mexican-style string cheese is also braided and fashioned into balls. Viewing window allows visitors to see fresh curds hand-ladled into forms. Gift shop also available. Tours available Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. For more information, call 866/593-1319 or visit www.cheesemakers.com.

LAKES—Conroe. See LAKES listing.

NATHAN H. DAVIS PIONEER COMPLEX & MUSEUM—An example of a pioneer home, the Davis log house was originally built in 1851 for local attorney Nathan H. Davis. Furniture and household belongings reflect the period 1850 to 1890. Adjacent to the museum is the Davis Law Office, built in 1845, which served as Davis' living quarters before the cottage was constructed.

A copy of Dr. Charles B. Stewart's original drawing of his design of the Republic of Texas flag hangs in the museum.

The museum is also home to a branch office of the Greater Conroe/Lake Conroe Area Chamber of Commerce. Open Wed. - Sat. 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. Open daily Jun. - Aug. 936/597-4155.

GENERAL—The community on U.S. 59 south of Lufkin was established in 1846; serves lumbering and agricultural area of heavily forested Polk County.

WOODLAND TRAILS—Bull Creek Trail parallels a clear, spring-fed stream among large magnolia, white oak, maple, holly, dogwood and other forest species, all identified. Entrance to trail 8.5 miles west of Corrigan on U.S. 287. (Corrigan is 5 miles north of Moscow on U.S. 59.)

Moscow Trail meanders beside Long King Creek, named for an Indian chief. Two trail segments, 1.5 and 0.5 miles, explore an area of exceptionally tall pines and other forest growth. Entrance 1 mile south of city on U.S. 59.

MOUNT PLEASANT

Pop. 13,935 Alt. 416 Map H-21

GENERAL—Named for location on beautifully wooded hills. In early 1900s, town attracted resort visitors to red mineral springs nearby. Today, commercial center for farming, livestock and oil. Home of Northeast Texas Community College, a three-county (Camp, Morris, Titus) college; rural campus is near Chappell Hill.

Mount Pleasant is a Texas Main Street City and has been named "One of the 100 Best Small Towns in America."

Visitors enjoy access to three nearby reservoirs famed for outstanding bass, crappie and catfish fishing: Lakes Bob Sandlin, Monticello and Welsh. In recent years, state records for largemouth bass have been set at two of the lakes; state and national bass tournaments held at the other. The Kountry Korner store at F.M. 127 & F.M. 2882 can verify large bass caught in nearby lakes with some 2,000 photographs displayed of bass caught weighing 7 lbs. or more.

Numerous antique shops and boutiques offer abundant shopping opportunities from home decorating to Western wear. Many feature restaurants and tea-rooms. Check with the chamber of commerce for details.

Although no comprehensive list of bluebird trails in Texas exist, there is a planned 150-mile trail stretching from Texarkana to Huntsville. Those little bird houses seen along the roads probably house bluebirds. A guided tour can be arranged; for information, check with the chamber of commerce.

For additional information on shopping, accommodations, and restaurants contact the Mt. Pleasant-Titus County Chamber of Commerce at 1604 N. Jefferson, 903/572-8567.

NACOGDOCHES

Pop. 29,914

Map M-22/FF-2

GENERAL—The “Oldest Town in Texas,” named for the Caddo family of Indians who once lived in the area. Remained a Caddo settlement until 1716 when Spain established a mission here. For more than a hundred years town was major eastern gateway to Texas. The city is often referred to as the “Cradle of Texas Liberty.” The town offers visitors insight into the fight for Texas independence. While six flags have flown over Texas, nine flags, including those of three abortive republics flew over Nacogdoches.

Numerous landmarks and museums pay tribute to the town’s historic past, which makes it a popular tourist destination today. The city is also home to Stephen F. Austin State University.

EL CAMINO REAL—“The King’s Highway,” first blazed in 1691 by Domingo Teran de los Rios, first provincial governor of Texas. Often called “Old San Antonio Road” (OSR), route is virtually that of today’s Texas 21.

LA CALLE DEL NORTE—Spanish for “The Street of the North,” currently North Street in Nacogdoches, believed to be oldest public thoroughfare in the U.S. Long before Spanish explorers discovered and named it, route connected the major Indian community of Nacogdoches with other Indian villages to the north.

London Museum and Tea Room in New London

LAKES—Nacogdoches, Sam Rayburn. See LAKES listing.

LANANA CREEK TRAIL—Six-mile rustic trail through Pecan Acres Park along Lanana Creek. Scenic trail follows paths once traveled by Indians.

MILLARD’S CROSSING—A reconstructed historic village on 37 acres just north of the city depicts a broad sampling of East Texas architecture from the most simple log cabin to Victorian, all furnished with antiques. Tours Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. 6020 North St. (U.S. 59 north). For information, call 936/564-6631. Admission fee.

OKA GROVE CEMETERY—Graves date from 1837. Several interesting monuments; four signers of Texas Declaration of Independence, including Thomas J. Rusk, buried here. On N. Lanana St. at Hospital St.

OLD NACOGDOCHES UNIVERSITY—Built 1845, modified Grecian structure was first nonsectarian university established during Republic of Texas. On Washington Square, campus of Thomas J. Rusk Middle School, building is museum featuring antique furniture, silver, other relics. Open Tues. - Fri. 1 - 4 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. Mound and Hughes sts. 936/569-7292.

OLD NORTH CHURCH—Believed to be oldest union church in Texas; several denominations worshiped here. First was Baptist service held under a tree on the site in 1835. Present “new” church built in 1852. Protestant services were unlawful in Texas during church’s early days. North of city off U.S. 59 on old Highway 35.

OLD STONE FORT—The museum is housed in a 1936 replica, built on a new site, of Don Antonio Gil Y’Barbo’s stone house. Y’Barbo, founder of Nacogdoches, built the stone house circa 1779 as the formal portal to the Spanish District of Texas. The original site of the house, torn down in 1902, is at the corner of Fredonia and Main sts. downtown.

During its history, the original house served as a public building, grocery store, candy store, and saloon, and as a temporary fortification during the Magee-Gutierrez, Dr. James Long and Fredonia Rebellion filibusters. In 1936, the same stones were in turn used to build the present structure on the campus of Stephen F. Austin Univ. The important landmark contains a continuing exhibit on the history of the house and temporary exhibits. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Closed Mon. and holidays. Guided tours by reservation only. 936/468-2408 weekdays for more information.

RUBY M. MIZE AZALEA GARDEN—Texas’ largest azalea garden features more than 6,500 azaleas spread over eight forested acres. The garden is located south of SFA Johnson Coliseum on University Drive. Peak bloom time is late March through the first week of Apr. Open daily dawn to dusk. 936/468-1832

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN MAST ARBORETUM—Started in 1985, this was the first arboretum at a university in Texas. Special features include an 11-acre arboretum of rare trees, shrubs, vines, ground covers, and a children’s garden that lies along the Lanana Creek Trail, 8-acre Ruby M. Mize Azalea Garden, filled with Japanese maples, hydrangeas, camellias, and more than 6,500 azaleas, and 39-acre Pineywoods Native Plant Center, home to endangered plant research and the Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Demonstration Garden, a satellite of the Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center in Austin. Open daily dawn to dusk. Universally accessible. At 2900 Raguet St. on the north side of SFASU campus. 936/468-1832.

STERNE-HOYA HOME—Built in 1830 by Adolphus Sterne, prominent merchant and Texas revolution leader. Sam Houston baptized into the Roman Catholic Church here, because Mexico required landholders to be Catholic. Guests in the home included Thomas J. Rusk and Davy Crockett. New Orleans Greys bivouacked here on their way to Goliad and the Alamo. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - noon; 2 - 5 p.m. 211 S. Lanana St., a block off E. Main St. (Texas 21). 936/560-5426.

Map K-21

GENERAL—In 1855 with the westward expansion, a post office called London was established and served until 1876. Agriculture was the main source of income. In 1930, the discovery of oil a few miles from the community gave way to the growth of a boomtown, almost overnight. A new post office was established in 1931, but since there was another post office named London in Southwest Texas, New London was chosen. A tragic school explosion in 1937 killed almost 300 children and teachers. A cenotaph of Texas granite was erected in front of the new school in 1939 in tribute to those who lost their lives in the worst school disaster in U.S. history. Agriculture, cattle and oil-related business still form the economy.

LAKES—Tyler and Tyler East. See LAKES listing.

LONDON MUSEUM AND TEA ROOM—Located across from the rebuilt school, this small museum recalls the horror of the 1937 school explosion that rocked the nation. Reminders from that day, including clothing, books, and photos, are displayed. A tearoom serves light lunches on weekdays. Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. For information, call 903/895-4602. On Texas 42 across from school. Admission fee.

GENERAL—Town evolved from fishing camps and resort operators around scenic Caddo Lake in Harrison County and incorporated in 1961. The site is near Uncertain Landing, so named because steamboat captains in earlier days often had trouble mooring their vessels. It was also the site of an old hunting, fishing, and boating society called the Uncertain Club, which existed in the early 1900s. Today, the town still relies on the lake's tourism attractions for its livelihood. The town limits are irregular in shape to include most of the resort areas along the shores of Caddo Lake.

Several antique shops and an art gallery are located around the lake, as are fishing guides. Bed and breakfast accommodations available.

WECHES

Pop. 26 (est.) Alt. 450 Map M-21

GENERAL—A rural community first settled before 1847. Originally called Neches, the citizens chose Weches when a post office application revealed the first name was already in use. A Spanish mission had been established 150 years earlier at large Tejas Indian village nearby. The town on Texas 21 west of Nacogdoches is within boundary of Davy Crockett National Forest. See NATIONAL FORESTS IN TEXAS.

MISSION TEJAS STATE PARK—Landmark structure in 363-acre state park commemorates Mission San Francisco de los Tejas, first Spanish mission in East Texas, built in 1690 to stem tide of French settlement, but was not successful and closed in 1693. Re-established in 1716, the mission was never prosperous, and with the French threat gone, the mission moved to San Antonio in 1731.

Also in the park is Rice family log home-stagecoach inn, one of many originally along El Camino Real (the Royal Highway). Started as a one-room building in 1828, hostile Indians forced abandonment for two years, but Joseph Redmond Rice Sr. returned and built this substantial way station. Camping, picnicking, hiking and nature study. Park is just southwest of Weches off Texas 21 (about 21 mi. northeast of Crockett). Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex

PRAIRIES AND LAKES.” Does that title really tell the tale? Well, yes—and no. Prairies and Lakes paints merely the pastoral brush strokes in this region’s richly textured panorama. The full picture emerges only when you add the dynamic cities, charming communities, and colorful history that enliven this attraction-packed section of Texas.

True, this region that dips south from the Red River through the heart of the state boasts a liberal sprinkling of prairies and farmlands. Yes, it harbors some 40 popular lakes and reservoirs. But it also encompasses the energizing collection of cities and communities known as the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex, along with an abundance of other thriving towns and intriguing historical sites as well.

In this distinctive area of Texas, the state’s East meets its West, and its North synchronizes with its South. All come together in a lavish tapestry of attractions, sites, events, and activities. Major museums, renowned restaurants, exciting amusement parks, and fun events can fill your calendar for a week or a month.

If you seek the art world’s masterwork paintings and sculptures, you will find a profusion here. If attending a superb symphony orchestra’s performance or a superstar’s concert is your heart’s desire, you can have that, too, and in settings that amplify your listening pleasure.

Do your trip plans center more on the sports arena? You have but to decide which sport you most want to watch or play. Professional football, basketball, baseball, hockey, and soccer thrive in the Metroplex, while college sports flourish in several cities throughout the region. NASCAR and Indy-style racing bring their VA-ROOOOM to the Texas Motor Speedway. Golfers—champion and otherwise—tackle numerous challenging courses, such as those at Irving's Las Colinas, while water sports of all types lure you to massive reservoirs and picturesque lakes.

Superb shopping venues abound here as well. Whether you frequent the sophisticated salons of Neiman-Marcus or the grab-bag booths of gigantic flea markets, you might just find the buy of a lifetime.

Something to tempt your taste-buds? How about the savory sausages of Elgin... a delectable creamy cheesecake from Athens... chewy, nut-filled fruit-cakes from Corsicana, Greenville, and Palestine... yeasty, yummy kolaches from Caldwell, Flatonia, and West... and scrumptious Blue Bell ice cream from Brenham? What a feast!

The Prairies and Lakes region offers all these treats and so much more. Let's sample just a sliver of this tasty slice of Texas.

THE METROPLEX AND THE NORTH

Dallas and Fort Worth anchor this teeming section of the state with exuberant flair. Each city displays characteristics decidedly its own. Dallas presents an urbane, bustling demeanor, while Fort Worth tips its Stetson to its Western heritage and a more casual ambience. Separately, these metropolitan centers offer a full slate of interesting sites for the visitor. Together, and combined with their close-knit neighbors, they absolutely overflow with things to see and experience.

In Dallas, you can opt for fascinating nights on the town at spots like West End MarketPlace, McKinney Avenue, and Deep Ellum and then spend your days golfing, shopping, and touring fascinating museums.

Dallas museums cover a mind-boggling variety of subjects that will absorb you for days. You can explore the diminutive world of the American Museum of the Miniature Arts, "think pink" at the Mary Kay Museum, soar with the Hindenburg at the Frontiers of Flight Museum, and come back quickly to earth with a sobering look at The Sixth Floor, where exhibits detail the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Historical sites include Old City Park, where more than three dozen structures represent the city's lifestyles from 1840 to 1910, and the Wilson Historic District, an area of restored buildings that evoke the Victorian era.

Terrific sights await the naturalist, too. Don't miss the Dallas Zoo, the Dallas World Aquarium, and the 66-acre Dallas Arboretum and Botanical Garden, a haven of ornamental gardens and natural woodlands.

Communities that border Dallas on the north and east add their own spice to the Metroplex mix. Richardson, immediately to the north, offers visitors a chance to visit the Owens Spring Creek Farm, with its museum and Belgian horses. Plano provides several sites, including the Heritage Farmstead Museum, a beautifully preserved 1891 farm, and Southfork Ranch, the mansion made famous the world over in the television saga Dallas. In Mesquite, you can reminisce about the Texas Western swing music of Bob Wills and Milton Brown and, from spring to fall, you can attend the weekly Mesquite Championship Rodeo. In Frisco, be sure to see the beautiful new Dr Pepper/7 Up Ballpark, home to the Double-A Frisco RoughRiders (affiliated with the Texas Rangers), and check out a Riders' Texas League baseball game during the season, from Apr. to Sept. In Celina, The Celina Area Heritage Museum offers visitors a glimpse into the city's interesting past.

Head northwest from Dallas and you enter the sprawling city of Irving. Be sure to visit the impressive Las Colinas complex, which encompasses shops, restaurants, a charming canal system complete with Venetian-built water taxis, and the magnificent bronze sculpture, Mustangs of Las Colinas, by Robert Glen. If you are in Irving on a Saturday or holiday, you can tour the Movie Studios of Las Colinas, where Silkwood, Robocop, JFK, and Walker, Texas Ranger were filmed.

Grand Prairie, south of Irving, harbors the colorful Palace of Wax and Ripley's Believe It or Not!, where exhibits include wax figures from Hollywood, history, and horror, as well as bizarre items from the collection of Robert Ripley. On weekends, you can spend hours shopping at Traders Village, an enormous, 118-acre flea market.

★ PRAIRIES AND LAKES

Continue west into Arlington and you are in “Six Flags” country, home of Six Flags Over Texas theme park and Six Flags Hurricane Harbor water park. Here, you and the kids can ride water rafts, roller coasters, parachute drops, high-speed trains, and all manner of exciting transports.

Arlington also gives you an in-depth look at baseball in the Legends of the Game Baseball Museum and Learning Center, housed at Ameriquest Field in Arlington (formerly known as The Ballpark in Arlington). At Air Combat, you can become a military fighter pilot, complete with flight suit, at the controls of a flight simulator.

Fort Worth, a town that Will Rogers once described as “where the West begins,” wears the badge of its Old West heritage proudly. Numerous sites throughout the city capture the era of cowboys and cattle and the Old Chisholm Trail.

Stellar among them is the Stockyards National Historic District, where you can watch cowpokes herd cattle into the corral, explore the Stockyards Collection and Museum, visit the old-timey White Elephant Saloon, cheer the cowboys and cowgirls at championship rodeos, and board the Grapevine Vintage Railroad’s steam excursion train to Grapevine.

Nearby, Billy Bob’s Texas—the world’s largest honky-tonk—offers cold libations, a huge rodeo arena, and topnotch country/Western entertainment. Downtown’s attractive Sundance Square features restaurants, art galleries, and live music venues with repertoires that include great jazz and pop offerings. Don’t miss the outstanding Sid Richardson Collection of Western Art.

Fort Worth boasts all this, plus a great zoo, gorgeous botanical gardens, the stunning Nancy Lee and Perry R. Bass Performance Hall for symphony, ballet, and opera productions, and some of the finest art museums in the world. Yep, right here in “cowtown,” sit the Kimbell Art Museum, the Amon Carter Museum, and the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth.

You can round out your Fort Worth cultural experience with trips to the American Airlines C.R. Smith Museum, the Vintage Flying Museum, the Tandy Archeological Museum, and the National Cowgirl Museum and Hall of Fame.

Cities and towns around the Metroplex offer their share of pleasures for the visitor, too. West of Fort Worth, Weatherford harbors the enchanting Chandor Gardens and the “Peter Pan Statue,” dedicated to hometown girl Mary Martin, who portrayed the role of Peter Pan on Broadway. To the northeast, Grapevine brings a harvest of wineries and the Grapevine Opry, a showcase of fun, family-style country-western entertainment. Bridgeport features the Bridgeport Nature Center and the Bridgeport Historical Museum.

When you reach Denison and Gainesville on the state’s border with Oklahoma, stop by the Texas Travel Information Centers for a friendly “howdy” and a handful of valuable Texas travel literature. Denison also includes the Eisenhower Birthplace, the house where Dwight D. Eisenhower was born in 1890, and Grayson County Frontier Village, a collection of buildings dating from 1840 to 1900.

Lake Athens

Texas Sports Hall of Fame in Waco

Between Gainesville and Denison lies massive Lake Texoma, an impoundment of the Red River that spreads over some 89,000 acres of Texas and Oklahoma. This popular lake encompasses numerous Corps of Engineers parks, as well as Eisenhower State Park. All provide fine camping and boating facilities.

A few miles east of Denison, Bonham’s Sam Rayburn House and Sam Rayburn Library afford an interesting look at the life of the Texas politician who served as speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives during every Democratic-controlled Congress from 1940 to 1961.

Further east, Paris brings you the Sam Bell Maxey State Historic Site, a lovely Victorian house and garden, and the intriguing Evergreen Cemetery, where some of the more than 40,000 graves date to 1866 and include beautifully carved headstones and monuments.

Due south of Paris sits Sulphur Springs, home of the Southwest Dairy Center, where exhibits recall the early days of the dairy industry. Sulphur Springs is the seat of Hopkins County, the leading dairy county in the Southwest, with almost 500 dairies.

Drive south another 45 miles or so and you reach Canton, where the monthly shopping and bartering extravaganza known as First Monday Trade Days takes place on the Thursday through Sunday before each first Monday. Got that? You will find some 300 acres chock-full of just about every negotiable item known to man.

MID PRAIRIES AND LAKES

Waco lies at the center of the Prairies and Lakes region in the heart of the fertile Brazos River Valley. Once one of the world’s leading cotton producers, the area was home to many thriving plantations and antebellum houses. Today, you can tour several of them, including the Earle-Harrison House, built in 1858-1859, and the Earle-Napier-Kinnard House, built in 1858 and expanded in 1869.

The city also boasts the interesting Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum at Fort Fisher, built near the site of the original Texas Ranger fort established in 1837. In the museum, exhibits chronicle the compelling story of the Texas Rangers and display famous guns and weapons of the Old West. On the campus of Baylor University, the Armstrong-Browning Library contains the world’s largest collection of works and memorabilia of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

Visit the city’s Texas Sports Hall of Fame and pay homage to stellar Texas athletes, such as boxer George Foreman, baseballer Nolan Ryan, and golfer Babe Didrikson Zaharias. At the Dr Pepper Museum, which is housed in the original 1906 bottling plant, you can learn all about the fountain drink that became delicious Dr Pepper, then sip some of the real thing. Take a look at 350-acre Homestead Heritage Crafts Village and watch artisans craft furniture, wrought iron pieces, and pottery.

Northeast of Waco, Athens presents you an enviable task—selecting from among 30 flavors of cheesecakes at award-winning New York (Texas) Cheesecake. A few miles west, Corsicana proffers Collin Street Bakery’s famed Deluxe fruitcake, and, several miles south, Palestine serves up its own delicious fruitcake from Eilenberger’s Butternut Baking Company. Also in Palestine, the Texas State Railroad whisks you by antique steam engine and vintage coaches to Rusk through scenic East Texas woodlands.

At Glen Rose and Granbury, Dinosaur Valley State Park shows you the tracks of a sauropod and other dinosaurs, while Fossil Rim Wildlife Center offers a chance to drive among free-roaming animals such as giraffes, zebras, and antelopes. You can spend a few hours touring this beautiful center or you can extend your stay at The Lodge or the Foothills Safari Camp.

Tarry awhile in Granbury, where you can enjoy a dinner cruise on Lake Granbury, a carriage ride through the city's historic district, and an evening of musical fun at the Granbury Opera House. At the Brazos Drive-in Theater, you can watch a movie in the milieu of the 1950s at one of the few drive-ins remaining in Texas. Historic homes, the Railroad Depot Museum, and the Great Race Automotive Hall of Fame take you back even further in Texas history.

Along the I-35 corridor, Hillsboro offers the Texas Heritage Museum, with dioramas and more than 3,000 volumes, maps, and photographs devoted to the Civil War era, while Waxahachie is home to one of the nation's few remaining Chautauqua Auditoriums and the elaborate 1895 Ellis County Courthouse. Each spring at Waxahachie, Scarborough Faire features medieval-style entertainment.

In Temple, you can visit the comprehensive exhibits on Czech-Texan life at the Czech Heritage Museum and the wonderful assortment of buildings and old-timey tools and farming equipment at The Grove Country Life Museum, about 15 miles northwest.

Salado serves up wonderful old Stagecoach Inn, an early-day stop along the Chisholm Trail. Today, the inn houses a popular restaurant noted for its home cooking. Visitors also delight in Salado's numerous antique shops, arts and crafts, and gift stores.

THE SOUTH

Scenery, Texas history, and shopping take the forefront in the southern portion of the Prairies and Lakes region. This lovely area especially entices you in springtime, when verdant fields glow with tableaux of bluebonnets and crimson Indian paintbrushes.

Here, the side-by-side cities of Bryan and College Station forge an urban area that encompasses sprawling Texas A&M University, several museums, and the award-winning Messina Hof Cellars.

At the George Bush Presidential Library and Museum, on the Texas A&M campus, you can learn about the senior Bush's service in the U.S. military, his political career, and his presidency. Museum exhibits include replicas of the former president's Camp David and Air Force One offices. Also on the university grounds, you can visit the Memorial Student Center's Forsyth Center Galleries for a look at late 19th-century works by American painters, as well as exhibits of art glass, including works by Tiffany, Steuben, and the Mount Washington Glass Company.

Messina Hof Wine Cellars, six miles northeast of Bryan, offers tours of the picturesque winery, as well as a fine restaurant, lovely bed and breakfast facilities, and special events throughout the year.

South of Bryan-College Station, Washington County, with Brenham as its center, boasts numerous attractive and historic communities. At Burton, you can visit the Burton Cotton Gin and Museum, which preserves a working gin originally built in 1914. Charming Chappell Hill offers several antebellum structures, the Chappell Hill Historical Museum, and two very popular events, the Bluebonnet Festival each spring and the Scarecrow Festival in the fall.

Independence harbors the beautiful Antique Rose Emporium, with gardens of aromatic, old-timey roses, while the village of Washington provides the intriguing Washington-on-the-Brazos State Historic Site and the outstanding Star of the Republic Museum.

In Brenham, some entertaining surprises await. Visit Ellison's Greenhouses and admire the year-round selection of blooming plants and seasonal crops of mums, poinsettias, and Easter lilies. At Blue Bell Creameries, you can tour the plant and sample a serving of absolutely delicious ice cream in lots of tantalizing flavors.

East of the city, the Monastery of St. Clare Miniature Horse Farm delights the entire family. Here, you can pet handsome and frisky little horses that grow to be diminutive versions of Arabians and Quarter Horses. The Franciscan Poor Clare nuns who run the farm also make and sell interesting ceramics.

If you seek solace in nature—maybe a weekend of camping and fishing—try 11,460-acre Lake Somerville, accessible from Brenham, Caldwell, and Somerville. Here, you can relax at several Corps of Engineers parks, as well as at Lake Somerville State Park, which also includes a trail bike area.

Southwest of Brenham, Round Top boasts intriguing Henkel Square, which includes structures dating from 1820 to 1870, and the acclaimed Winedale Historical Center, which encompasses a restored 19th-century farmstead complete with plantation houses, log cabins, a smokehouse, and barns. Here, too, the acclaimed International Festival-Institute presents periodic classical concerts performed by students and guest artists.

Drive a few miles further south and you discover La Grange, a friendly small town boasting several historical homes and two state historic sites, including Monument Hill, the impressive final resting place of early Texas martyrs. At Columbus, to the southeast, you find a treasure trove of Victorian homes and interesting walking/driving tours that help you learn about this attractive town.

In Schulenburg and Flatonia, you can enjoy local history museums and Czech cuisine, including sausages and kolaches. While in Schulenburg, ask about the "Painted Churches Tour" of four area churches distinctive for their colorful interiors. Flatonia offers the Arnim & Lane Mercantile, a genuine country store that dates to 1886.

South of Flatonia, the town of Shiner invites you to visit the legendary Spoetzl Brewery, which has been brewing beers since 1909. In Gonzales, to the west, you can glimpse a chapter in the history of the Republic of Texas. Here, the Gonzales Memorial Museum houses a replica of the cannon that helped precipitate the first battle of the Texas Revolution.

Bastrop County is home to the intriguing "Lost Pines," stands of loblolly pines that lie some 80 miles south of the nearest pine forests of East Texas.

Wind up your Prairies and Lakes tour in charming Seguin, where the "world's largest pecan" adorns the courthouse lawn and proclaims Guadalupe County's fame as a pecan-producing center. Before your visit, read Seguin native Janice Woods-Windle's book, "True Women," a novel based on the lives of pioneer women from the area, with many settings in Seguin. If you crave some watersports-action, head for nearby Lake McQueeney, which sports the title "water ski capital of Texas," or take a dip in the huge wave pool in Max Starcke Park, a gem of a municipal park.

There you have it. The Prairies and Lakes region of Texas brings you exciting cities and pastoral panoramas, historic towns and scenic lakes, exhilarating amusement parks and charming villages. The choice is yours. Go for it!

GENERAL—Chosen as the seat of Henderson County in 1850, Athens was so named because it was expected to become the cultural center of the state, as was its namesake, Athens, Greece. The city is located 76 miles southeast of the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex on U.S. 175. Home of Trinity Valley Community College.

Hamburgers, the great American fast-food staple, were created in late 1800s by Fletcher Davis, who was a vendor on the Courthouse square. Home to Annual Texas Fiddlers Contest and Reunion, the oldest such event in the U.S., held the last Friday in May on the Courthouse lawn.

Visitors can find shopping opportunities for antiques and unique gifts. ATHENS SCUBA PARK—With underwater visibility of up to 70 feet, there's no telling what you might see—a tour bus, houseboat, airplane, motorcycles and more. Divers flock to the park's clear blue waters for recreational certification. Average visibility is 30 to 40 feet. Park also features 12 dive platforms, camping sites, volleyball court, barbecue pits, swimming pool, and more. At 500 N. Murchison St. Open spring/summer Wed. - Sun. 8 a.m. - 6 p.m.; fall/winter Wed. - Sun. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. For information, call 903/675-5762. Admission fee.

CAIN CENTER—Nestled in the heart of 85 beautiful acres is the 50,000-sq.-ft. civic and conference center. Facilities include 25-meter pool, whirlpool, sauna, weight room, racquetball courts, tennis courts, two fishing ponds, walking/jogging trail, and 18-hole disc golf course. Closed New Year's Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. For information, call 903/677-2001. At 915 S. Palestine.

EAST TEXAS ARBORETUM & BOTANICAL SOCIETY—The 100-acre arboretum features walking trails and a bluebird trail. Site ranges from dry hills to large, permanent wetlands impounded by beaver dams into intermittent seasonal marshes. An outdoor pavilion provides a beautiful spot for picnics. Off U.S. 175 on Patterson Rd. For information, call 903/675-5630.

HENDERSON COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Vintage and antique memorabilia are displayed in 1896 Faulk-Gauntt building. First floor exhibits emulate a turn-of-the-century dry goods store while the second floor is a re-creation of an early law office, parlor, bedroom, bath, kitchen and schoolroom. Open Fri. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

LAKES—Athens, Cedar Creek Reservoir, Palestine and Richland-Chambers. See LAKES listing.

BARTLETT

Pop. 1,675 Alt. 599 Map O-17

GENERAL—Centered in renowned Blackland Prairie agricultural region. Named for John T. Bartlett, who donated the townsite to Missouri, Kansas, and Texas Railroad. In 1878, the community had three residences. Divided by Bell and Williamson county lines, history has it that enterprising saloon proprietors took advantage of the county line dissecting their business by having a bar on wheels to accommodate laws in both counties.

The Bartlett Historic Commercial District, listed on National Register of Historic Places, is a two-block area of early 20th-century buildings housing quality arts and crafts, and fine antiques. Streets paved in red brick link predominant red masonry construction. Replica street lamps, and corner benches with flower pots add to turn-of-the-century nostalgia.

BARTLETT AREA MUSEUM—Housed in the Bartlett Activities Center, formerly the old red brick grammar school building built in 1909 and used as a public school until 1988, now a restored Central Texas landmark. Museum houses a World War I exhibit, and antiques and artifacts from town's early history. Open the first Sun. of each month, 1 - 4 p.m. No admission fee. At 300 West Bell St.

BASTROP

Pop. 5,340 Alt. 374 Map P-17

GENERAL—One of Texas' oldest settlements, first called Mina, the town's name was changed about 1837 to honor a man of fame and influence in early Texas. The man was Felipe Enrique Neri, Baron de Bastrop, a prominent Dutch nobleman—or so the colonists thought.

Actually, he was a flamboyant impostor whose real name was Philip Hendrik Nering Bogel, born not of Holland's nobility, but in Dutch Guiana of ordinary Dutch parents. Appointed a tax collector after he and his parents returned to Holland, he was accused of embezzlement and fled the country.

Appearing in Texas as Baron de Bastrop in 1805, he obtained a colony grant, established a freighting business, and was appointed second alcalde of San Antonio in 1810. He was a primary negotiator with the government of Mexico for Stephen F. Austin's original Anglo-American colony. He was elected representative to the Mexican state of Coahuila (which included Texas), secured passage of a further immigration act, and was instrumental in establishing the port of Galveston.

Of impressive physical stature, dashing and energetic, the counterfeit baron's enterprises resulted in little profit. At his death in 1827, he did not leave enough funds for burial expenses; fellow legislators contributed the cost. In Holland, unclaimed for 20 years, was a reward of 1,000 gold ducats for return of the accused embezzler.

More than 125 historic structures are listed on the National Register of Historic Places, with 31 displaying a Texas Medallion marker. Main street is lined with century-old structures housing antique shops, restaurants, and specialty stores.

Main Street and Fisherman's Park on the scenic Colorado River offer great places to picnic, fish, and canoe. The old historic Iron Bridge crossing the river has been converted to a park with picnic tables, benches, and walkways above the Colorado River.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

GENERAL—Seat of Austin County, one of the original counties in Texas. In 1848, Bellville was established as seat of government on land given to the county by Thomas Bell, one of Stephen F. Austin's original Three Hundred Colonists, and for whom the city was named. The first issue of The Bellville Times was published in 1879 and is still in business today. The subtropical climate is excellent for hay, sorghum, corn, rice, and oats. Cattle farms are abundant. In spring, fields come alive with bluebonnets and other wildflowers.

A guide to many fine turn-of-the-century homes and downtown buildings, produced by the Bellville Historical Society, can be picked up at the chamber of commerce at #4 W. Main St. or by calling 979/865-3407.

Four city parks offer excellent picnic areas and playgrounds.

Shoppers find an abundance of antique and craft shops offering handmade items in historic buildings around the square.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

GENERAL—A small town of distinctive charm. Belton was founded in 1850, and in early years grew as a rustic trading center for nearby farms and ranches. The first merchant sold goods from his wagon before any stores were built; first "saloon" was a barrel of whiskey and a tin cup under a shade tree. A stagecoach line served the village, and cowboys herding Longhorns up to the Chisholm Trail enjoyed rest stops in Belton. Town is graced by architecture from the early 1860s to turn-of-the-20th-century. Preservation of historic structures is a current priority in Belton's graceful old downtown area. Some buildings and homes opened during annual tour late April, early May.

Belton is home to the annual 4th of July Celebration and PRCA Rodeo. This week-long event includes a parade, festival, carnival, fiddlers' contest, barbecue and more.

Belton lies on the I-35 corridor, and U.S. 190, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

For more information, contact the Belton Area Chamber of Commerce at 254/939-3551.

GENERAL—City is in northeast Tarrant County and was settled in the late 1840s. Milton Moore of North Carolina established a community between Fort Worth and Grapevine. Weldon Bobo came to the area and built a general store and gristmill to serve area farmers in the 1870s. Bobo and a group of farmers agreed to name the community Bedford, after the county in Tennessee from which many of them had come. The community grew and was also the home of Bedford College, founded in 1882. The combination high school-junior college survived until fire gutted the building in 1893. In the early 1900s, the Dallas-Fort Worth Interurban rail line was built south of the Trinity River to other nearby communities. In 1903 the Rock Island Railroad bypassed the city. Growth halted until the construction of nearby military bases and defense plants during World War II. Like most cities in the Metroplex, growth continues to parallel those of other cities in the giant suburban area.

LAKES—Dallas, Eagle Mountain, Grapevine, and Joe Pool. See LAKES listing.

OLD BEDFORD SCHOOL—This beautifully restored 1915 vintage schoolhouse is listed in the National Register of Historic Places and features a visitors center, a gallery with changing exhibits and an authentically furnished 1915 classroom. GENERAL—Bowie is in southwestern Montague County and is the largest city in the county. When the railroad built through the area in 1882, local settlers moved to the site of the construction camps and businesses appeared in canvas tents. A townsite was laid out and residents applied for a post office to be named for James Bowie. In 1867, Montague County was the last Texas county crossed by traildrivers heading to the Chisholm Trail and north to cattle markets. Today the city serves as a retail shopping center. Industry, ranching, agriculture, oil and retail trade form a diversified base for its economy.

Antiques, collectibles, gift shops, tearooms, homestyle cooking, bed & breakfasts and more. Annual celebrations include the Fantasy of Lights Parade in Dec., Jim Bowie Days in the summer and Chicken and Bread Days Heritage Festival in the fall.

Bowie has been designated a Texas Main Street City.

GENERAL—This county seat is situated in the east central part of Washington County, which is home to more than 120 historic sites and markers, many from the Texas Revolution era. The Texas Declaration of Independence was drafted and signed in this county and a state historical park is located on the site. It was settled on a part of the league of land granted to a settler under the colonization laws of Coahuila and Texas. Its predominantly German population began settling here in the 1860s. Home of Blinn College, Texas' first county-owned junior college, founded 1883.

Bluebonnets and other wildflowers bloom in profusion along county roads in March and April. The chamber of commerce provides a free "Bluebonnet Trails" map, which outlines the most scenic route for viewing. Call 888/BRENHAM (273-6426).

Brenham's "Main Street" district is the heart and soul of Washington County. The historic downtown features a variety of shopping opportunities. Brenham has been named a "National Main Street City" for 2001 and 2002.

Brenham lies halfway between Houston and Austin on U.S. 290 and on Texas 36, which is a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

BLUE BELL CREAMERIES—Founded in 1907 as the Brenham Creamery Co. Name changed to Blue Bell in 1930 after a wildflower that grows in the area and blooms in the summer. Beginning with ice cream production of only two gallons a day in 1911, the popular creamery is now home of what many believe to be the "best ice cream in the country." In 1994, Susan Ruland of Dairy Field magazine captured the Blue Bell mystique when she said, "Like a magic box with a huge kingdom tucked within its miniature walls, Blue Bell has managed to keep its growth tucked within the spirit of a small dairy. When employees tell you it's really still 'The Little Creamery in Brenham' you believe them." Judge for yourself!

Tours (weekdays only) are at 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 1:30 p.m., 2 p.m., and 2:30 p.m. No tours on weekends. Tokens are required for tour admittance; check with hostess upon arrival. Visitors are accommodated on a first-come, first-served basis.

GENERAL—This small, historic community is 12 miles west of Brenham on U.S. 290. The original community was situated two miles northwest of its present site of Yegua Creek. First known as Kerr Settlement, then later called Union Hill. When the railroad bypassed Union Hill, the settlement shifted around 1870 to property on the railroad line owned by John and Elizabeth Burton. This site became the terminal for the Houston and Texas Central Railroad. Cotton farming reigned in the area and Burton prospered throughout the late 1800s.

Annual Cotton Gin Festival usually takes place the third weekend in April.

BURTON COTTON GIN AND MUSEUM—Built in 1914 and powered by a 1925 twin-type IV oil engine, this gin has been restored with the guidance of the Smithsonian Institution and the National Trust for Historic Preservation. It is a recorded Texas Historic Landmark; listed on the National Register of Historic Places; and a National Historic Mechanical Engineering Landmark. It is a working reminder of the era when cotton reigned supreme. Visitors Center open Fri. & Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Call 979/289-3378 or visit www.cottonginmuseum.org for information. Admission fee.

GENERAL—Founded 1840, has been seat of two counties. Before Burleson County organized in 1846, was seat of Milam County. Named for Mathew "Old Paint" Caldwell, noted frontiersman and signer of Texas Declaration of Independence. In 1850s town was rendezvous for westbound immigrants, and had one of finest hotels on Old San Antonio Road. One of state's best country inns is still located in Caldwell. Today the city is primarily a rural trade center for surrounding farms and ranches with diversified industry, including manufacturing service and technology. Town has been named "Kolache Capital of Texas" by state legislature.

Caldwell is on the Presidential Corridor linking the George Herbert Walker Bush presidential library in Bryan/College Station with the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library in Austin.

Caldwell lies on Texas 36, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

BURLESON COUNTY CZECH HERITAGE MUSEUM—This small, but rich, museum focuses on the history and culture of the Czech people and assists the public in understanding the Czech heritage. Items of interest include a wall mural of the city of Prague and a dulcimer, presented to the museum by a Czech artist, who also has paintings displayed. Other exhibits include Czech costumes, books, crystal, and beautiful hand-painted eggs. Located in the chamber of commerce building at 212 W. Buck St. Donations accepted.

BURLESON COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Items and relics of area pioneers, plus exhibits about Fort Tenoxtilán, a fort established by Mexico in 1830 to promote Mexican settlers and thwart Anglo-American colonists. It's a fascinating story—the Mexican commander eventually sided with the Texans and was a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence. Open Fri. 2 - 4:30 p.m. Burleson County Courthouse.

COLUMBUS

GENERAL—Site of an Indian village called Montezuma; settled 1823 by members of Stephen F. Austin Colony. Seat of Colorado County, the city bills itself “The City of Live Oaks.” A historical marker downtown identifies the trunk of one such landmark, under whose branches the first court of the Third Judicial District of the Republic of Texas convened in 1837.

Columbus is a treasure-trove of Victorian and turn-of-the-century homes. While most are private residences not open to the public except during the Live Oak Festival held the third weekend in May, drive-by views are rewarding. The United Daughters of the Confederacy Museum (admission fee), once known as the Old Water Tower, is open Mon. and Thurs. 10 a.m. - 3 p.m., Fri. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., and Sat. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. The Preston Kyle Shatto Wildlife Museum is open every first and third Thurs. of the month from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m., except Aug. or for group tours by prior appointment through the Columbus Convention & Visitors Bureau. 877/444-7339. E-mail: ccvb@intertex.net.

BED AND BREAKFAST REGISTRY—For information and reservations: call 979/732-5135.

COLUMBUS OPRY—Live country music entertainment billed as “Grand Ole Opry Style” every Sat. 7:30 - 10 p.m. in the Oaks Theatre, two blocks west of square. At 715 Walnut St. Admission fee. For information, call 979/732-6510.

TEXAS PIONEER TRAIL—Columbus is one of many pivotal points along trail covering Washington, Fayette, Colorado and Austin counties. Area known as Cradle of Texas where Stephen F. Austin’s “Old Three Hundred” planted roots in early 1820s. Visiting historic and scenic sights, the trail crisscrosses area extending north from Brenham and nearby Washington-on-the-Brazos south to Oakland, west to La Grange and east to San Felipe. For free map and information, contact the Columbus Tourism Office in opera house.

WALKING/DRIVING TOUR—Features historic homes, businesses, tea-rooms, restaurants, historic inns, antique emporium, and arts and crafts shops. Tour maps available at the visitor information center. Tour begins at the 1886 Stafford Opera House. The driving tour features “talking houses.” You can tune your car radio to the frequency listed and enjoy a narrative of several landmarks without leaving your vehicle. Below are some of the attractions featured:

Alley Log Cabin—Built in 1836, just after the Runaway Scrape, by one of the original “Old 300” settlers brought to Texas by Austin. The square-notch cabin is fully furnished, an excellent example of Texas Colonial Period. Doors open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. At 1224 Bowie St.

Colorado County Courthouse—Set among magnolia trees in center of town, the structure was built in 1891 in Second Empire style with locally made brick. It features a Neo-classic copper dome and a working, four-face Seth Thomas clock. A magnificent stained glass dome is above the original 1890 judge’s bench, bailiff box, and witness stand in the District Courtroom. On Milam St. Open Mon. - Fri. during business hours.

Dilue Rose Harris House Museum—Greek Revival-style 1860 cottage of “tabby” construction houses period furniture. 602 Washington. Admission fee.

Live Oak Art Center—In historic Brunson Building, features art studio and changing gallery exhibits of local, national, and international art from several centuries, as well as works of local artists. Open Thurs. - Fri. 10 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.; Wed. & Sat. 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. 1014 Milam. Donations accepted.

Mary Elizabeth Hopkins Santa Claus Museum—More than 2,000 old, new, foreign and American Santas in various media. Collected works include Santas from the Sundblom Coke Santas. 604 Washington. Open Mon. and Thurs. 9:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. Admission fee.

Stafford Opera House—Built in 1886 for cattle rancher Robert Stafford by famed Galveston architect Nicholas Clayton. Ground floor houses Columbus Tourism Office, where tour maps can be obtained along with information on area accommodations, restaurants and events. At 425 Spring St. Open Mon. - Sat. Call 979/732-5135 or 877/444-7339. Visit www.columbus-texas.org.

COMANCHE

Pop. 4,482 Alt. 1,358 Map L-15

GENERAL—Established as trade center for surrounding ranches 1858. Today seat of Comanche County with agricultural production, including peanuts, pecans, dairies, fruit, cattle, livestock feeds, and pottery. Boating, camping and fishing at four parks around Lake Proctor. At the 42-acre city park, there are facilities for picnicking, swimming, hiking, and jogging. Comanche has been named a Texas Main Street City and is on the Texas Forts Trail.

For information on events, accommodations, and dining facilities, contact the Comanche Chamber of Commerce at 915/356-3233. E-mail: chamber.ccd@itexas.net

COMANCHE COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Covered wagon, surrey, Indian and pioneer artifacts housed in replica of frontier store. Other exhibits include blacksmith shop, filling station, an early barber shop, and a doll collection. Texas gunslinger John Wesley Hardin moved to Comanche April 28, 1874. In a gun fight with a Brown County deputy sheriff, Hardin shot and killed the sheriff. Hardin was captured and convicted of murder in Comanche and was sentenced to 25 years in prison. A replica of the Jack Wright Saloon inside the museum depicts the notorious shootout. Open Sat. & Sun. 2 - 4 p.m. Moorman Rd. west.

FLEMING OAK—Only remaining member of a large grove of oaks around which town developed. Legend has it that city began clearing the grove many years ago to pave the square, but an ancient settler objected, saying the tree saved his life during battle and he would protect the tree with his very life. The city relented part of its paving project to spare the tree, and it stands today at the southwest corner of Comanche’s town square.

LAKE—Proctor Reservoir. See LAKES listing.

OLD CORA—Oldest original existing Texas courthouse, built in town of Cora, 1856, then county seat. When county was partitioned in 1859, Comanche became county seat. Vintage building relocated to southwest corner of town square.

Recently, workers restoring the park area around Old Cora rediscovered an old water well hand dug in 1859 to furnish water for the courthouse and the public. As part of the beautification project, the well is lighted so visitors can view the inside through a clear covering to see how sides are built and the water in the bottom.

COMMERCE

Pop. 7,669 Alt. 516 Map H-20

GENERAL—Originally known as Cow Hill, the town was established in 1872 by merchant William Jernigan between the Middle and South Sulphur rivers on the rich, black gumbo prairie in northeast Hunt County. The town incorporated in 1885, and nine years later Prof. William L. Mayo moved East Texas Normal College from Cooper to Commerce after the school burned. Mayo continued as president of the college, now known as Texas A&M University - Commerce, until his death in 1917 and is buried on the campus grounds.

Commerce was named the “Bois d’arc Capital of Texas” by the Texas Legislature because of its location in the geographic center of the indigenous range of the bois d’arc tree. The annual Bois d’Arc Bash paying homage to the lowly tree is usually held in late September.

GENERAL—Protected by five surrounding hills, and a source of abundant spring water (some of which was said to have a copper taste), the original town-site became a stopping point as drovers brought their herds to the Chisholm Trail. The coming of the railroad saw the town move about two miles east, and the "new" Copperas Cove, its growth accelerated by the arrival of Camp Hood in 1942 (later named Fort Hood), became the largest city in Coryell County. Home of Central Texas College.

Annual events include Rabbit Fest on the third weekend of May, the Ogletree Gap Heritage Festival the third weekend in Oct., and the Krist Kindl Markt holiday bazaar the first weekend of Dec.

The scenic area around the city is quickly becoming a mecca for bicyclists, and cycling route maps are available at the Copperas Cove Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Bureau. For more information, call 254/547-7571 or visit www.copperascove.com.

CUERO

Pop. 6,571 Alt. 177 Map S-17

GENERAL—(KWER-o) An unusual name derivation: A local creek was notorious for trapping cattle in bogs, but skimmers salvaged the hides. Indian word for rawhides translated to Spanish as cuero. When town was founded in 1872, town took name of the creek.

Once a round-up point for a leg of the Chisholm Trail, a true "wild west" outpost where women and children were forbidden after dark. Today seat of DeWitt County, a bountiful agricultural area among state leaders in cattle and calves; also pecans, peaches, apples, and fresh vegetables; substantial natural gas production. In 1999, the Texas State Legislature designated DeWitt County as the "Wildflower Capital of Texas," due to the more than 100 different species of wildflowers present.

Rich with small-town history—50 structures on the National Register of Historic Places; three historic districts, two residential and one commercial encompassing Main Street. The 1896 courthouse is among most handsome in Texas. Swimming, picnicking, fishing, golf and a basketball pavilion in 200-acre newly updated municipal park. Annual events include the Shakespeare-in-the-Country production in June, annual 4th of July celebration and the Turkeyfest Celebration every October.

For additional information on city's amenities, contact the Cuero Chamber of Commerce at 361/275-2112 or www.cuero.org. The Chamber is open Mon. - Fri. 8:30 a.m. - noon, 1 - 5:30 p.m.

CHURCHES—More than 40 churches represent 14 denominations in the city. Among those are five marked by the Texas Historical Commission and national registry: Grace Episcopal whose congregation moved to Cuero in 1874; St. Mark's Lutheran, built in style reminiscent of Spanish missions; First Methodist; First Presbyterian, whose congregation was chartered in 1878; and St. Mark's Catholic.

CUERO HERITAGE MUSEUM—Established in 1993, the museum houses the new permanent exhibit "Cuero Talks Turkey," which features news articles, pictures and memorabilia of the first five Turkey Trots dating from 1912-1927 and from more than 30 years of Turkeyfest Celebrations. The Royalty Room, a 2002 addition to the exhibit, displays costumes of Sultans and Sultanias who reigned over past Turkey Trots. The Museum is also home to the "WWII Brayton Flying Field" exhibit, a training school for pilots during 1941-1945 and the "Cattle and Cowhands" exhibit, a tribute to the working cowhand. Open Mon. - Fri. 8:30 a.m. - noon, 1 - 5:30 PM. 361/275-2822.

DEWITT COUNTY COURTHOUSE—Completed in 1896, was designed by two famed Golden Age architects, A.O. Watson and Eugene T. Heiner. Built in Romanesque style with a belfry, it is listed as a Texas Historical Landmark and on the National Registry of Historic Structures.

DEWITT COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM—Housed in a restored 1886 home, built partly with timbers salvaged from ruins of the original home destroyed in the old seaport town of Indianola by the storm of 1886. Features period furnishings, documents, clothing, ranch and home articles; also a restored log cabin. Special new exhibits each month. Open Thurs. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.; Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; closed during the noon hour; Sun. 2 - 5 p.m. The museum is open daily during the month of April, except Easter Sunday, for Wildflower Month. For information call 361/275-6322.

HISTORIC FEDERAL BUILDING OF CUERO—Built in 1915, this historical structure housed the post office as well as other federal offices. Home to the Cuero Chamber of Commerce & Agriculture and the Cuero Heritage Museum, the museum features city memorabilia. For information on events, accommodations, and restaurants, call 361/275-2112. Open Mon. - Fri. 8:30 a.m. - noon, 1 - 5:30 p.m.

HISTORIC HOMES—Many homes were built in the 1880s and 1890s and include a variety of architectural features—Classical Revival detailing, Tudor Revival detailing, Queen Anne Style, and "T" plans. Over 60 homes display a Texas Historical Commission marker. Call the Chamber of Commerce for tour information.

DALLAS

Pop. 1,188,580 Alt. 512 Map J-18/UU-8

GENERAL—In 1841, John Neely Bryan laid claim to this area and built a single log cabin. He envisioned a commerce center that capitalized on the expanse of land and its river. With the arrival of the railroad in the mid-1870s, Dallas became a thriving business town and market center. An influx of French, German, Swiss and English immigrants, highly skilled and cultured, gave Dallas a cosmopolitan air unmatched anywhere on the frontier at the time. Dallas continued to emerge as a major economic force due to a strong entrepreneurial, can-do spirit. Neiman Marcus was founded in 1907, followed by the Federal Reserve Bank in 1914, Southern Methodist University in 1915 and Dallas Love Field Airport in 1927. "Dad" Joiner struck oil nearby on the East Texas Oil Field in 1930 and the Texas Centennial Exposition was held in 1936. With DFW

International Airport's opening in 1973, Bryan's dream of a major inland port was unquestionably accomplished.

Dallas is a dynamic destination that tops the Texas charts for both business and leisure travel. It is the No. 1 visitor destination in Texas, the Southwest's largest banking center, a leader in wholesale business, home to numerous "million-dollar" companies and one of the top convention cities in the United States. Offering state-of-the-art convention services, world-class accommodations, some of the world's most sought after art, 79 international cuisines, and fabulous shopping.

Highland Park Village was the first shopping mall in America and literally paved the way for other retailers and wholesalers to make Dallas their home. NorthPark Center, Valley View Center and the Galleria soon followed and made Dallas a shopping mecca. Whether you are shopping for couture or casual, diamonds or denim, there's no place like it.

Dallasites pursue art and culture with almost as much enthusiasm as shopping. Collector and philanthropist, Raymond Nasher, and his late wife Patsy, gifted Dallas with the 70-million dollar Nasher Sculpture Center, located in the Dallas Arts District. The new Latino Cultural Center is buzzing with multicultural activities and artistic endeavors. On any given day or night, you can choose from a wide variety of events. Stroll the museums in the downtown Dallas Arts District or nearby Fair Park. Hear the symphony at the Morton H. Meyerson Symphony Center, an acoustical and architectural wonder designed by I.M. Pei. Public art and sculpture are incorporated in the Dallas landscape and provide a pleasing backdrop as you tour the city.

International cuisine and world-class accommodations are blended together in the very fabric of Dallas. With more restaurants per capita than New York City, Dallas boasts four of the Mobile 4-Star & AAA 4-Diamond award winners: Abacus, the Restaurant at The Mansion on Turtle Creek, the French Room at the Adolphus Hotel, and Nana Grill at the Wyndham Anatole. These superb offerings together with more than 7,000 restaurants throughout the city will surely please any palate.

Experience live theater, comedy to drama, and outstanding opera. The Dallas Summer Musicals are held June through October at the Music Hall in Fair Park with the last production running the length of the State Fair of Texas. Held in late Sept. - mid Oct., the State Fair draws more than 3 million visitors annually to the 277-acre campus of Fair Park. It is the largest exposition in North America and features prize livestock and horse competitions, Big Tex, Fletcher's famous corny dogs, big name entertainers, the annual Texas-OU Football Game, the Grambling-Prairie View Football Game and a huge midway with the "Texas Star" Ferris wheel, the tallest in the northern hemisphere and one of the largest in the world.

Professional sports are played throughout the year with seven teams making their home in the Dallas area: Dallas Cowboys, Dallas Mavericks, Dallas Stars, Dallas Desperados Arena Football League, Dallas Sidekicks, (indoor soccer), Dallas Burn, (outdoor soccer), and Texas Rangers baseball team. Or, perhaps your interest has a western twist. Enjoy Mesquite Championship Rodeo April through October, PBR rodeo at the annual Texas Stampede, or bet on the ponies at Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie.

Dallas and the surrounding cities provide excellent educational opportunities with Baylor Univ. College of Dentistry, the Univ. of Texas Health Science Center, Dallas Baptist College, Dallas Theological Seminary, Paul Quinn College, Southern Methodist University, the Univ. of Dallas, the Univ. of Texas at Dallas and seven Dallas County Community Colleges.

Getting around is a breeze on the Light Rail System of Dallas Area Rapid Transit System. DART provides fast, convenient service to work, shopping and entertainment areas in Dallas, Garland, Plano and Richardson. Plus, the TRE (Trinity River Express) commuter line links DART customers to DFW International Airport and downtown Fort Worth. For schedules and fares, visit their website www.dart.org.

When business or pleasure brings you to "Big D," we guarantee a visit filled with Southern hospitality, modern sophistication, and endless entertainment opportunities.

DIME BOX

Pop. 381 (est.) Alt. 520 Map P-18

GENERAL—Located in eastern Lee County, the town was originally called Brown's Mill for a sawmill built by Joseph S. Brown. Soon, British Americans and Polish, Czech, German, and German-Wend immigrants arrived and settled near the mill. The U.S. government opened a post office in 1877 and settlers deposited out-going mail and a dime in a small box for weekly delivery of mail to nearby Giddings. The Brown's Mill post office closed in December 1883; however, when it reopened a few months later, confusion with Brown's Mill and Brownsville caused the town to be renamed Dime Box.

DIME BOX MUSEUM—Artifacts recall the multi-culture settlement of the community. Exhibits include a pocket Communion Bible in Czech, a barber's chair, and other memorabilia. Open Fri. - Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. On F.M. 141 downtown.

DUBLIN

Pop. 3,754 Alt. 1,493 Map L-15

GENERAL—Established in 1854 by A.H. Dobkins and named in 1860. The name, originally spelled Doublin, is said to have been a practice by early settlers who "doubled in" their wagons to escape attacks. Another version says the town was named after the capital of Ireland. In 1881, the town moved four miles to a site owned by J.D. Bishop in order to be near the newly-laid Texas Central Railroad. Dublin is known primarily for peanut crops and dairy farming, but it is also supported by beef, feed and fertilizer.

In Erath Co., the city is 72 miles southwest of Fort Worth and 45 miles northeast of Brownwood. Hunters take deer, duck, dove, and quail in season.

For information on dining, accommodations, or events, contact the Dublin Chamber of Commerce at 800/9-DUBLIN or 254/445-3422.

EDGEWOOD

Pop. 1,348 Alt. 460 Map J-20

GENERAL—Because of a dispute between Canton and Wills Point over location of the Van Zandt County seat, Canton citizens wanted a shipping point other than Wills Point. They built a nine-mile road to a siding on the T&P Railroad in 1878, and Edgewood was born there. In 1890 a group from Mississippi settled in the town, and by 1915 the population had grown to 850.

EDGEWOOD HERITAGE PARK MUSEUM—More than a dozen historical structures, along with such displays as animal-powered farm equipment and a syrup mill, preserve the history of the area. Included are cabins from the 1800s, blacksmith shop, country store, barber shop, schoolhouse, and a museum of tools, clothing, and other pioneer items. Docents in period dress often demonstrate pioneer skills. Open Tues., Wed., Fri., Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. On F.M. 859 four blks. north of U.S. 80. For information, call 903/896-1940. Admission fee.

ELGIN

Pop. 5,700 Alt. 579 Map P-17

GENERAL—In Bastrop County, the city was established as a flag stop on the Houston and Texas Central Railroad in 1872 and named for Robert Morris Elgin, the railroad land commissioner who laid out the townsite. City owes its existence to a major flood of the Colorado River in 1869. Originally, the railroad was to have run 10 miles east of Elgin. When the river rose 60 feet over its banks, the railroad surveyed a new line through Elgin to Austin. Economy is based on light industry, agriculture, and brick manufacturing, and at one time was called “The Brick Capital of the Southwest.”

No visit to Elgin would be complete without tasting Elgin’s hot sausage. It’s wonderful! Three sausage companies make the tasty specialty. Information on location is available at the visitor center. In fact, Elgin was named by the Texas Legislature as the “Sausage Capital of Texas.”

Be sure to visit the antique mall on U.S. 290 with more than 50 dealers offering a large variety of antiques and collectibles.

All through the city, keep an eye out for beautiful old homes. Also, downtown, a Main Street City, is recapturing its early look by refurbishing and reusing its historic buildings. Movies and TV commercials often use Elgin’s quaint streets as backdrops.

Elgin lies along the Presidential Corridor linking the George Herbert Walker Bush Library in Bryan/College Station with the Lyndon B. Johnson Library in Austin.

Bed and breakfast accommodations are available in historic buildings in the city and surrounding area.

The Greater Elgin Chamber of Commerce is in the newly restored H&TC Freight Depot on Central Ave. For more information, call the Chamber of Commerce at 512/285-4515 or visit www.elgintx.com.

EULESS

Pop. 46,005 Alt. 603 Map J-18/SS-5

GENERAL—Early settlement called Bird’s Fort was established just south of the present city in 1841. The community began when settlers reached the confluence of Big Bear and Little Bear creeks on the eastern edge of present Euless, which is now part of the giant Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A post office was founded in 1857 and named Estill’s Station. Many of the settlers moved to present Euless and the post office closed in 1868. In 1881, Elisha Adam Euless, pioneer from Tennessee, built a home and cotton gin nearby. The settlement that grew around his gin was named in his honor.

Today the city is a thriving community in the middle of the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. Many national and regional businesses are headquartered here with the convenience to the D/FW Airport.

Euless is widely known for its Arbor Daze Festival, held the last weekend each April, that promotes and celebrates the planting of trees throughout the city by giving away 10,000 trees each year.

Heritage Park features a playground, picnic areas, a 1/2-mile walking trail, Ruth Millican Center, Fuller House and Himes Log House. The Fuller House, which is home to Euless’ museum, and the Himes Log House are open to the public the second Sat. of the month 1 - 5 p.m. No admission fee. 817/685-1649.

FAYETTEVILLE

Pop. 261 Alt. 411 Map Q-19

GENERAL—Along the Texas Pioneer Trail (Texas 159) lies the city formed by three families of Stephen F. Austin's Old Three Hundred. Later German, Czech, and Anglo-American immigrants helped to form the community. The city had several names: Wadis Post Office, Alexander's Voting Place and Lick Skillet (given by settlers arriving too late for festive occasions, found food devoured and were told to "lick the skillet.") Officially named by Philip J. Shaver, who laid out the town, for his birthplace, Fayetteville, NC.

Town had one of first bands in Texas, composed of German musicians, who played for meetings and festivals statewide. For more than 50 years a Czech band, conducted by Frank and John Baca, provided dance music and "Baca" music is still enjoyed today.

In the middle of the town square sits the 1880 precinct house that was built by Fayette County residents to avoid trips to the county courthouse in La Grange. Benches around the square invite citizens and visitors "to sit a while." Its Seth Thomas tower clock, donated by the Ladies Do Your Duty Club in 1937, chimes on the hour. Antique stores, art galleries and restaurants surround the town square. On the 1st and 3rd Sat. nights a Baca Band fills the night with music on the square.

Bed and breakfast guest cottages available in town and surrounding area. Information on dining facilities, accommodations, and events may be obtained by writing the chamber of commerce at PO Box 217, Fayetteville, TX 78940, or by calling 979/378-4021 or 888/575-4553.

Map Q-18

GENERAL—Agricultural village just off I-10 half way between Houston and San Antonio, founded by the Southern Pacific Railroad in 1873; named for a pioneer merchant, F.W. Flato. Waves of immigrants—English, German, Bohemian, Czech, and Italian—settled in and around Flatonia. Town most prominently celebrates colorful Czech traditions; for example, calling their annual (October) chili festival Czhilispicel. Local sausages and kolaches are popular. City is a very well known train watching spot, especially with the crossrails that run north and south and east and west.

A self-guided walking tour and driving tour is available from the chamber of commerce. For additional information on dining, lodging and area events, stop by the office at 101 E. ARNIM & LANE MERCANTILE—A genuine country store dating from 1886, still operating with fascinating variety of antique and modern merchandise. Open weekdays 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. corner of E. North Main St. and Texas 95.

E. A. ARNIM ARCHIVES AND MUSEUM—Wealth of historical miscellany from town, includes antique furniture, household items, clothing, china and glassware, historical documents. Also livery stable with wagons, buggies, vintage tack, farm implements and more can be seen. Open Mon. - Thurs. 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., Fri. 8:30 a.m. - noon. 101 E. North Main. For information, call 361/865-3920.

RAILROAD TOWER—One of the last manned switch towers for the Union Pacific Railroad, the manual controls remained in operation until 1997 when the rail switches became computerized. The chamber of commerce can arrange tours of the tower by calling 361/865-3920.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH—In nearby Czech village of Praha, modest frame church in picture-postcard setting dates from 1895. Remarkable interior: Common tongue-in-groove planks soar to classic vault; wooden pillars represent Gothic columns; painted with art nouveau style popular in 1890s—vines, ferns; and mock architectural details. Over altar, two small paintings unique in church ornamentation picture the main cathedral of Prague, Czechoslovakia, and a well-known convent outside that city.

Adjacent cemetery is site of annual Veterans Day (Nov.) memorial service, said to be largest attended in the United States. Nine graves honor Praha youth who fell in World War II, a heavy toll for one sparsely populated, rural Texas community. U.S. 90 2.7 mi. east to F.M. 1295, then south 8 mi. on F.M. 1295 to church and Praha.

GENERAL—Grew from military camp established at close of Mexican War by Gen. Winfield Scott, and named for Gen. William Jenkins Worth who saw action in that war. Forty-two men of Company F, 2nd Dragoons, established the camp on June 6, 1849. The Fort Worth to Yuma, Ariz., stage line was established 1850. Became seat of Tarrant County 1860. After the Civil War, became major shipping and supply depot for cattlemen.

Today Fort Worth is one of Texas' major cities with a wide range of industries including Lockheed Martin, American Airlines, and Burlington Northern Santa Fe.

The impressive Fort Worth Convention Center spans an area of 14 downtown blocks. Fort Worth calls itself the "Museum Capital of the Southwest" and is known for an outstanding group of museums, plus a season of summer musicals, winter theater, symphony concerts, opera, ballet, and art galleries.

City is home of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Tarrant County College, Texas Christian Univ., Univ. of North Texas Health Science Center, and Texas Wesleyan Univ.

Vast green parks and surrounding network of major lakes offer abundant opportunities for water sports and outdoor recreation. Burnett Park at Lamar and Texas sts., on land donated by cattle baron Samuel Burk Burnett, features sculptures, pools, and granite walkways.

There's a calendar full of annual events, including the Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show and Rodeo in late Jan. - early Feb. (one of the nation's best); Main Street Fort Worth Arts Festival in April; Mayfest in May; Texas Frontier Fests Muster in Spring; Fort Worth Symphony's Concerts in Garden in June-July; and Red Steagall Cowboy Gathering and Western Swing Festival in Oct.

American Airlines." Through interactive displays, films, videos, and hands-on exhibits, visitors see the operation of an airline—today and in the past. More than 80 small airlines merged to become American Airways in 1930; that name changed to American Airlines in 1934. A vintage Douglas DC-3, Flagship Knoxville, meticulously restored by retired AA pilots, mechanics and employees, was flown to Fort Worth and hoisted into its place of prominence. Open Thurs. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. Adjacent to American Airlines Flight Academy at Texas 360 and FAA Rd. southwest of D/FW Airport. 817/967-1560. www.crsmithmuseum.org.

AMON CARTER MUSEUM—The newly expanded Amon Carter features American art. The 109,000-square foot building has three times the exhibition space as before, allowing four times the amount of artwork to be on view. First opened to house Amon G. Carter, Sr.'s collection of 400 paintings, drawings and works of sculpture by Frederic Remington and Charles M. Russell, the museum has gradually expanded to include works from a vast array of artists, from Frederic Edwin Church to Georgia O'Keeffe. The American photography collection, one of the largest in the country, was started in 1961 with Dorthea Lange's portrait of Charles M. Russell and now includes works by Matthew Brady, Man Ray, Alfred Stieglitz and Paul Strand, among others. In the Cultural District. Open Tues., Wed., Fri. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Thurs. 10 a.m. - 8 p.m.; Sun. noon - 5 p.m.; drop-in tours everyday at 2 p.m.; closed Mon. At 3501 Camp Bowie Blvd. See www.cartermuseum.org. 817/738-1933. GAINESVILLE

Map G-17

GENERAL—Originally a point on the California Trail, town was established in 1850 (near Fort Fitzhugh, an outpost that dated from about 1845), but town's frontier location made it too convenient for raids until 1868. Stabilized conditions allowed growth around cattle and cotton. Seat of Cooke County and gateway to Texas on two major cross-country highways. Home of North Central Texas College. Recreational facilities include a large municipal park, swimming pools, golf course, and nearby lakes.

Shoppers find bargains at Prime Outlets, Gainesville on I-35 north.

FRANK BUCK ZOO—Named in honor of the adventurer of "bring 'em back alive" fame and Gainesville native, Frank Buck. Founded in 1950, this 25-acre zoo is one of the oldest in the state. The zoo is undergoing an ambitious master plan that divides the facility into three geographic regions: African Savannah, North America, and South America. Each region displays animals in naturalistic settings with a focus on conservation. Located in Leonard Park, which offers parking, picnic tables and recreational facilities in the shade of oak trees. Exit 496B off I-35 and head west on California St. Open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. (till 6 p.m. Jun. - Aug.) Closed Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

HISTORIC HOMES—City noted for brick-paved streets and 19th-century brick Victorian homes. Of some 26 historic homes, most are on Church, Denton, and Lindsay streets. Also of interest are firehouse built 1884; Episcopal Church, 1884; First Methodist Church, 1892; Catholic Church in Lindsay, four miles west on U.S. 82. Other sites will be identified by chamber of commerce, Culberson at California St.

KINNE'S JEWELERS MUSEUM—Quaint museum on the mezzanine of the jewelry store features a treasure of old items found in the attic and an old safe. Sparkling mesh handbags from the 1920s were found in the safe with the original $50 price tag on them. Other items found include a sterling silver shaving soap stick and small sterling oil container, supposedly used when oiling a sewing machine. The store is one of three Texas jewelers listed in the Jewelers of America 100 Club (over 100 years old). Open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sat. 9 a.m. - noon. 210 E California St. For information, call 940/665-3931.

LAKES—Moss, Ray Roberts, Texoma. See LAKES listing.

MORTON MUSEUM OF COOKE COUNTY—Housed in the 1884 former City Hall-Fire Station-Jail, the museum underwent a complete interior renovation in 2000. Visitors enter the exhibit area through an 1870s log cabin, original to Cooke County, where all facets of pioneer life are displayed on a rotating basis. Exhibits in the galleries, which focus on different aspects of the county's history from Native American life to the Civil War, cattle drives, immigrants, discovery of oil, formation of the Gainesville Community Circus, construction of Camp Howze during WWII, and much more, change every three months.

Several pieces of stained glass dating to the early 20th century are on permanent display, including a large stained glass skylight that is the focal point of the museum. A series of advertising mirrors from the same era are also on permanent display. The building has a Texas state Historical Marker. Open Tues. - Fri., 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. 940/668-8900.

SANTA FE DEPOT MUSEUM—Located in the 1902 newly renovated Santa Fe depot, the museum opened in January, 2002. Managed by the staff of the Morton Museum of Cooke County, the Depot Museum contains three main rooms of displays. One highlights local transportation history, including the Harvey House restaurant, which was located in the building, and the others focus on Gainesville's Coca-Cola industry and Gainesville's Community Circus, an all-volunteer circus that operated from 1930 until the early 1960s, traveling and performing in dozens of towns before crowds of thousands. A re-created bedroom of one of the Harvey House waitresses is located upstairs. A film on the circus prepared for "Unusual Occupations" in the 1930s is shown in the museum's theater. Located at 605 E. California, the museum is open Wednesday-Sunday, 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. No admission fee. For information, call 940/668-8900 or 940/612-4906.

SCENIC DRIVES—F.M. 678, F.M. 372, and F.M. 902 east and south lead through rolling hills of the Cross Timbers region, offering many panoramic views.

TEXAS TRAVEL INFORMATION CENTER—In North Texas at the Texas-Oklahoma state line on Interstate 35, one of the 12 Texas Travel Information Centers operated by the Texas Department of Transportation for the convenience of the traveling public. Uniformed, professional travel counselors welcome visitors and provide a wealth of free literature, information, and suggestions to make every Texas trip more pleasant.

Working with the Texas Official Travel Map, counselors expertly chart routes to any area of Texas. They point out the most convenient short-line directions, or leisurely scenic drives to your destination. OLD FORT PARKER—Established 1834 by Silas, James and John Parker families to protect settlement of eight or nine homesteads. In 1836, surprise attack by several hundred Comanches overran fort, killing five of the Parker family and carrying into captivity five persons including Cynthia Ann Parker, then age 9. She grew up, married a Comanche chief and lived with the Indians until captured with her 2-year-old daughter, Prairie Flower, 24 years later in 1860. She was mother of the last great Comanche chief, Quanah Parker. Cynthia Ann never became reconciled to her forced return to her white kinsmen, and tried several times to escape. Unhappy and virtual prisoners, both she and her daughter died about four years after they were separated from the wild, free life of the Comanche. Restored in 1936 and in 1967, fort has pioneer memorabilia, authentic log blockhouse and stockade. Operated by City of Groesbeck; open Labor Day to Memorial Day 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; summer, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. Four miles north via Texas 14, Park Road 35. Admission fee.

CAMP HEARNE—This WWII prisoner of war internment camp, 1942-47, once housed as many as 5,000 prisoners and personnel. The prisoners entertained themselves and passed the time with elaborate stage productions, musicals and the construction of numerous castles and fountains using available native materials. A scale model of the camp, built by women prisoners in the minimum security unit in Bryan, is on display at the Chamber of Commerce office. Many period photos of the camp are also on display. Numerous artifacts, as well as the remains of many of the stone castles and fountains, have been found during an archeological dig and study. Group tours to the camp site may be arranged with the Chamber. The Chamber is open Mon. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. at 304 S. Market St. (Texas 6).

HICO

Pop. 1,341 Alt. 1,006 Map L-16

GENERAL—Pronounced "High-Koe." In northeastern Hamilton County, city was named by founder Dr. John R. Alford for his hometown in Kentucky. Original site was on Honey Creek; when the Texas Central Railroad was built nearby, the citizens moved two and-a-half miles to the railroad line. Hico was incorporated in 1883 and became the county's shipping center. Over the years the city prospered as a cotton and cattle market center; today ranching and tourism are major contributors to the economy.

Downtown area—U.S. 281 and Texas 6—features antique stores, artist studio, restaurants, a leather shop, and much more. Free musical entertainment by local talent on Sat. night, as well as free horse-drawn buggy rides on Sat. nights provided by the Jersey Lilly Restaurant.

HUBBARD

GENERAL—City was established when the St. Louis and Southwestern Railway (Cotton Belt) extended its tracks through Hill County from Mt. Pleasant to Waco. It was named for Richard B. Hubbard, a former governor of Texas. Agriculture has been the primary support for the economy for many years; cotton was in abundance and the city had its own cotton exchange. Today, most of the land is ranches, and the Hubbard Livestock Auction provides a market for a wide area of Central Texas. During the early 1900s, the city was noted for its hot mineral wells and bath houses. People came from all over Texas in search of relief from rheumatism and other illnesses. The wells are still here along with five city lakes built after discovering the mineral water.

HUBBARD MUSEUM—Contains memorabilia of city's old buildings and businesses since 1889. Exhibits include photos and documents. There is an exhibit on Tris Speaker, late great baseball player born and buried in Hubbard. Speaker was the first Texan to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame, and also inducted in the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. GENERAL—First settled in 1840 by 40 families led by Dr. William P. King, from Mississippi, who purchased land and built a fort on a hilltop that overlooked his new home. This became known as Kings Fort. As the community grew, the name changed to Kingsboro. In 1846 when the state established Henderson County, Kingsboro became part of that county. In 1848, land was taken from Henderson County to establish Kaufman County, named for David S. Kaufman. Three years later the community became county seat and was renamed for the county. Just southeast of the Metroplex, Kaufman has prospered from a diversified economy. The city bills itself as the Red Tail Hawk capital of Texas.

Turn-of-the-century buildings make up most of the town square. Visitors may stop by the chamber of commerce at 2100 S. Washington St. for information on festivals, accommodations, dining and special events, or call 972/932-3118.

GENERAL—For years, Lancaster (Lank-aster) was the second largest city in Dallas County. It still retains the look and feel of a small town although only minutes from metropolitan Dallas. Some of the finest Victorian homes in the county are preserved here. Extensive restoration of the downtown area was accomplished in the late 1970s; then, on April 25, 1994, a tornado struck the city doing extensive damage to the downtown and residential areas.

During the War Between the States, a pistol factory here produced the huge Colt .44 Dragoon revolver that collectors call the "Lucker & Sherrod Confederate Colt." Memorabilia of the CSA foundry and gun factory are preserved in the city library.

For more information, contact the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce at 972/227-2579 or visit www.lancastertx.org.

Map J-18/QQ-6

GENERAL—First settlers at present townsite were John and Augustus King, 1844, who received land through the Peters' Colony, jointly owned by U.S. and British businessmen. The colony was plagued by lawsuits and disputes, once leading to a mob attack and burning of the land office. In 1855 town got its first mill, trading post, dry goods store, and the first cotton gin in Denton County. The Dallas and Wichita Railway arrived in 1881 and city became significant trading post. Today's growth is stimulated by the expanding Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex and convenient proximity to the D/FW Airport.

Visitors can take advantage of the city's 23 public parks, with amenities ranging from hiking trails, biking trails, playgrounds, picnic areas, swimming, disc golf, tennis, athletic fields and amphitheater. One of the city's largest parks is nestled along the south shore line of Lewisville Lake and offers a swim beach, 110 RV camping sites, picnic facilities and an 18-hole disc golf course.

Golfers find Tour 18's re-creation of the 18 most famous golf holes in America all in one a challenge, while The Tribute offers the 18 holes from Scotland where the game of golf originated, as well as the 18-hole course at Bridlewood. Lake Park Golf Course on Lake Lewisville features 18 holes, an executive 9-hole par 3 course, and an 18-hole miniature golf course, and driving range. Other local courses include Castle Hills, an Arnold Palmer planned course, Coyote Ridge Golf Course, and Indian Creek Golf Course.

For additional information on the city, including events, its 150 dining establishments, or its 1,200 hotel rooms, call the Lewisville Visitors Bureau at 972/436-9571.

LAKES—Grapevine, Lewisville, and Ray Roberts. See LAKES listing.

MARLIN

Pop. 6,628 Alt. 383 Map N-18

GENERAL—Established in 1830s, early settlers suffered numerous attacks, with out-numbered colonists often on losing side. Sites of such conflicts marked about town. In the early 1890s drillers struck hot artesian well whose curative qualities made town a spa and health resort for thousands who came to bathe in the "miracle" waters.

Today the water is again leading the way as residents investigate the promise of geothermal energy. A hospital and the chamber of commerce are heated by hot spring water. In 1903 the city built a municipal health center on the site of the first hot artesian well drilled in 1893. The pavilion became a popular gathering place for the townspeople and visitors who gathered for the "healing" waters. The Main Street program has renovated the pavilion including the building of a hot mineral water foot bath for weary visitors.

The Brazos Rehab & Fitness Center offers hot mineral water therapy using the famous Marlin mineral water.

Historic downtown area features quaint turn-of-the-century storefront buildings where shoppers find antique shops and other stores. The Palace

Theatre Association produces live shows throughout the year in restored Vaudeville-era theater.

TEHUACANA HILLS—Highest point between Houston and Dallas, a focal point of history for nearly 200 years. In 1797 Philip Nolan's trading expedition found peaceful Tehuacana Indians farming here. Fierce Cherokees destroyed farming tribe around 1830. Tehuacana Academy, organized 1852, provided incentive for founding of Trinity Univ., now located in San Antonio. Silvery-towered former administration building dominates the site. Once again classes are being held in the administration building under the fitting name of Trinity Institute. Homecoming is usually held in the spring.

MIDLOTHIAN

GENERAL—Settlers started arriving here in the 1840s. The William Alden Hawkins and Larkin Newton families were the first to obtain permanent land titles at the site under the authority of the Peters Colony. As with many Texas towns, growth came when the railroad arrived. In 1883 the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad constructed a rail line from Dallas to Cleburne. Local legend says that one of the civil engineers surveying the route noted the area looked like his hometown, the Lothian Valley in Scotland. The name stuck and Midlothian was used on survey maps to identify this area of Ellis County. The Fort Worth Railroad further spurred development with a line from Fort Worth to Waxahachie. The town incorporated in 1888.

Today the city is situated within the D/FW Metroplex, 25 miles from both cities of Dallas and Fort Worth. The city bills itself as the "Cement Capital of Texas" and the "Steel Capital of Texas" due to the number of cement and steel manufacturers in the area.

For additional information on accommodations, events, and restaurants, contact the Midlothian Chamber of Commerce at 310 N. 9th St., or call 972/723-8600. You can also visit www.midlothian.org.

LAKE—Joe Pool. See LAKES listing.

LARKIN NEWTON CABIN—The cabin is built from hand hewn red cedar logs about five inches thick. It is one of the few remaining Peters Colony structures in North Texas. The cabin was moved to a downtown city park. Open daily 8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

MOODY

GENERAL—Established 1852 as Perry, Texas, by settlers from Perry, Illinois. Renamed in 1881 to honor Col. W. L. Moody, director of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad, when that line built through. Moody Drug, established 1881, is one of oldest drug stores in Texas; the Moody Courier, established 1889, is city's second oldest business. City's varied architecture is of interest. A Texas A&M experimental farm is 5 mi. north.

MOTHER NEFF STATE PARK—First state park in Texas, site donated by mother of Gov. Pat Neff. Shady 259-acre site on Leon River. Fishing, picnicking, playground, tent and trailer camping, nature study, hiking. West 8 mi. via F.M. 107, Texas 236. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

MOULTON

Pop. 944 Alt. 375 Map R-18

GENERAL—Established in the 1850s in Lavaca County at the headwaters of the Lavaca River. In 1887, the San Antonio and Aransas Pass Railroad built north to Waco, within two miles of the community. A railroad station was constructed and named Topeka; however, realizing the economic potential of the rail connection, the old community gradually drifted over to the new station, which inherited the name, post office, and business of Old Moulton. City boasts a Czech-German heritage, which is still evident. Today, it is a center for agribusiness and manufacturing.

In season, hunters take white-tailed deer, quail, and dove.

City park includes a picnic area, small lake, playground, jogging trail, tennis courts, baseball field, and hookups for RV camping.

City's quaint storefronts are reminiscent of late 1800s, complete with porches and benches. Shoppers find old-fashioned antique shops and restaurants to visit. Bed & breakfast accommodations available in the city.

For more information, contact Moulton Chamber of Commerce at 361/596-7205 or visit www.moultontexas.com. E-mail: moultontexas@gvec.net.

MOULTON PUBLIC LIBRARY AND MUSEUM—Extensive collection of historic photographs and documents of city and Lavaca County. Museum established to perpetuate the strong Czech-German heritage and the city's history. Rotating exhibits throughout the year. Open Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. 102 S. Main St.

ORRIN WINTERS CABIN—Originally a two-room cabin built around 1853 near the Lavaca River by Orrin L. Winters, one of the original settlers of the town. The cabin was torn down in 1902 and the lumber used to construct a barn. In 1973 the barn was dismantled and restored as the original cabin. It was moved to City Park to represent the pioneer heritage of Lavaca County.

ST. JOSEPH'S CATHOLIC CHURCH—Built in 1924, over the years has had many renovations. In the spring of 1994, parishioners rededicated the church after an extensive renovation. Many of the church members provided much of the work to restore its original design—an early 20th-century Gothic style church with a long nave, a pair of side aisles supported by ten columns, stained glass windows, and a chancel. At the corner of Church and Pecan sts. Included in Schulenberg's Painted Churches Tour. For information call 979/743-4514 or 361/596-4674.

MOUNT VERNON

GENERAL—In 1849, Stephen and Rebecca Keith donated land for a townsite. Since there were two other Mount Vernons, the post office was called Keith and then Lone Star before taking the name Mount Vernon. Franklin County was formed from part of Red River County in 1875. Cotton and farming were important crops at that time. Today the economy is more diversified through oil, dairies, farming, and light industry.

More than 50 homes built before World War I are marked with signs designating the original owners and year of construction, and tour maps are available. The Cherokee Trace runs along the county's eastern edge, while the Choctaw Trail runs through the town's center, and the Bankhead Highway (first east-west transcontinental automobile route through the U.S.) remains the town's Main Street. Various remnants of all three of these travel routes still remain open to the traveling public. Maps/guides available at local museums.

This Texas Main Street City has a downtown area still reflecting a small-town atmosphere. The central plaza has a picturesque gazebo and park benches. On the north side of the square is a Grecian-style 1912 grey limestone courthouse with a chiming clock tower. The city boasts a restored town square and historic courthouse and more than 65 historic homes. Several historical markers are located in town and the outlying area.

Mapped and marked for year-round use are trails for bicycling, hiking, as well as a Bluebird Trail, Indian Heritage Trail, and equestrian trail. Check with the historical association offices at 7012 S. Kaufman St., 903/537-4760 for trail maps; and with chamber of commerce at 109 S. Kaufman St., 903/537-4365, for additional information on accommodations, dining facilities, and events or visit www.mt-vernon.com.

GENERAL—Founded in 1889 by Emil and Carl Flusche on the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas Railroad. The German brothers wanted to call their settlement Westphalia, but after discovering a town of that name had already been established, they called their colony Muenster, for the capital of their native Westphalia, Germany. Oil was discovered in the 1930s with pump jacks dotting pastures and fields in every direction. Until then, the economy was dairy farming and agriculture. Today, the rural community's economy is rich with agricultural products, as well as diversified manufacturing. Muenster's traditional German customs and Texas hospitality blend well and visitors are always "willkommen." Be sure to visit town's glockenspiel, the German-style clock tower that features carved wooden dancing figures and plays music. One of just a handful of glockenspiels in the country.

Information on events, accommodations, and dining opportunities are available from the chamber of commerce at 800/942-8037.

KEEP MUENSTER BEAUTIFUL PARK—The park, in the heart of downtown, features a fountain, statues, benches, antique-style lighting, and an ornate gazebo. The city has won the Governor's Community Achievement Award three times for beautification, preservation and cleanup efforts.

LAKES—Moss, Ray Roberts, Texoma. See LAKES listing.

MUENSTER MUSEUM—Housed in the home of Ben Seyler, Muenster's first fire chief. Among prized collections are 1890 Edison Victrola, 1876 Mason Hamlin pump organ used in city's first school, and other exhibits that include memorabilia of Muenster and Cooke County. Open Thurs. and Fri. noon - 4 p.m. and by appointment. 420 N. Main St. For information, call 940/759-2227.

GENERAL—Area settlement began as early as 1822. City established in 1859 when Houston & Texas Central Railroad built through and platted town. Other railroads followed, and city became cotton processing and shipping center for region. Downtown area is listed on National Register of Historic places and features ornate 19th-century architecture, antebellum and Victorian-style homes, and beautiful parks and museums. Visitors will find a collection of shops filled with treasures of past and present.

Driving tours, location maps, and visitor packets available through local Grimes County Chamber of Commerce or by calling 936/825-6600 or 800/252-6642. 117 S. Lasalle. www.navasotatx.com.

HORLOCK HISTORY CENTER—In two-story Eastlake home built in 1892. Authentically furnished; three rooms devoted to exhibits that reflect the ethnic diversity of the area. Open Mon. 3:30 - 7:30 p.m.; Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 6 p.m., Sat. 9 a.m. - noon. For group tours, call the Chamber of Commerce at 800/252-6642 or 936/825-6600. The center is located at 1215 E. Washington St. (Texas 105). Admission fee.

LA SALLE MONUMENT—130 years before first Anglo-American settlers, the French arrived in Texas led by Robert René Cavelier, Sieur de la Salle. It was a mistake: He was actually seeking mouth of Mississippi River, but series of misadventures brought his fleet of three ships to Matagorda Bay. He established a coastal colony called Fort Saint Louis. Two years later while exploring inland, one of his men murdered La Salle near present Navasota. Statue on Texas 105 downtown honors the French trader-explorer.

Map G-17

GENERAL—Town's history can be traced back to early 1500s when Spanish explorers established missions in the area. Native Americans battled with Spanish settlers and forced them to vacate the area in 1750s. By 1800s Kiowa and Comanche tribes roamed freely. In 1860 Chief Peter Nocona and his Comanche warriors waged a fierce battle, which lasted three days, along the banks of the Pease River, against a group of Texas Rangers led by Capt. Sul Ross. Town, founded in 1887 and incorporated in 1891, was named for Nocona.

Today, Nocona is known as the leather goods center of the Southwest and is famous for its family-owned business that manufactures baseball gloves, sporting goods, cowboy boots, saddles, and more.

The city is home to two city parks and two 18-hole golf courses. The Chisholm Trail Rodeo and Parade is celebrated the second weekend in July, and Nocona Fun Days are held the third Saturday in May.

For more information, call the Nocona Chamber of Commerce at 940/825-3526.

TALES & TRAILS MUSEUM—Visitors can learn about Nocona's colorful history, from early Native American tribes that lived in the area to its growth thanks to the oil boom. Exhibits on this three-acre site highlight the era of Native American settlement and trade, early immigration, trail drives, ranching and farming, oil, transportation and the leather industry. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. East edge of Nocona along U.S. 82 East. Admission fee. For more information call 940/825-3150 or visit www.noconacn.net.

GENERAL—Settled near site of large post oak grove that was a prominent landmark for pioneer travelers and a lookout point for the Native Americans. Dripping Spring, just north of the grove, encouraged settlement, as did the rich rolling blackland prairies. The public square of the town was platted and laid out by George Newcomb on Christmas Day, 1854. Goods were hauled from Jefferson to supply the needs of the community until the Texas and Pacific built to the city. Today town is center for agriculture and varied businesses.

A city-wide effort to preserve buildings on Historic Courthouse Square, built between 1870s and 1890s, has resulted in Pilot Point being chosen as a Texas Main Street City. Visitors can find antique shops, cafes and historic City Hall downtown. A monument has also been erected at the site of the founding of the Church of the Nazarene.

HIDDEN SPRINGS WINERY—Nestled just a few miles northeast of city, winery offers beautiful turn-of-the-century oak bar, an antique brass chandelier with 300 full-lead crystal drops and solid oak doors brought to Texas from an Austrian winery. SALADO

Pop. 3,475 Alt. 695 Map O-17

GENERAL—Charming village on I-35 south of Temple in Central Texas dates from Texas' early days. The town grew around the Sterling C. Robertson home and plantation, and was incorporated in 1867. Named for Salado (salty) Creek, town prospered with the founding of Salado College in 1860, and was prominent on the Chisholm Trail. First farmer's Grange in Texas established 1873. But when bypassed by the railroad, the late 19th century's ultimate transportation mode, the college closed and town dwindled to the status of an isolated village.

Today's visitors find a fascinating variety of shops—art galleries, antiques, crafts and women's fashions. Several outstanding craftsmen and artists reside in Salado. Also excellent restaurants, drive-by historic sites. Eighteen listings on National Register of Historic Homes.

The chamber of commerce can provide additional information by calling 254/947-5040.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic building.

CENTRAL TEXAS AREA MUSEUM—Small, excellent showcase of local history, but open irregularly for group appointments and on special occasions several times a year. Across from Stagecoach Inn.

LAKE—Stillhouse Hollow. See LAKES listing.

PACE PARK & SALADO CREEK—Tree-shaded picnic area beside picturesque Salado Creek, which was Texas' first designated natural landmark. Site was an Indian campground long before recorded history. Since Main St. was part of the Chisholm Trail, ruts from wagon wheels still appear in the bedrock of the creek just north of the park.

Henkel Square in Round Top

STAGECOACH INN—Originally the Shady Villa Inn, a prominent site on the Chisholm Trail in the 19th century. Inn's guest book reads like a frontier Who's Who: Gen. George A. Custer, Robert E. Lee, Sam Houston, Jesse James and Shanghai Pierce. The primary old frame structure is today restored as a notable restaurant, surrounded by modern motor inn. Off I-35, Salado exit.

SAN FELIPE

Pop. 868 Alt. 155 Map Q-20

GENERAL—Known as the "Birthplace of Anglo-American Settlement in Texas," San Felipe de Austin was named for Stephen F. Austin, who located his first Texas colonists here in 1823. Historic village was home of Texas' first English-language newspaper (the "Gazette," 1829), origin of Texas postal system, and saw beginning of legendary Texas Rangers. Location of Conventions of 1832 and 1833, and Consultation of 1835—meetings that led to Texas Declaration of Independence. Community razed by fire and occupied by Santa Anna's invading Mexican army in 1836; restored after Texan victory at San Jacinto. Stephen F. Austin Park Assn. operates information center at San Felipe Post Office where literature and information are available.

San Felipe lies on I-10, a segment of the Ports to Plains Highway connecting the state's heartland to coastal ports.

City is pivotal point on the Texas Pioneer Trail covering four-county area. For additional information and map, contact local information center.

For additional information on dining facilities, accommodations, and other opportunities, call the town of San Felipe at 979/885-7035.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE PARK—664-acre park is in two sections, historical and recreational. Historical section is near an old ferry crossing of Brazos River; includes replica of Austin's dog-run log cabin where he conducted business of the first colonists. Dominating many monuments and historical markers is magnificent statue of Stephen F. Austin, "The Father of Texas." Restored J.J. Josey Store, built in 1847, is now museum displaying merchandise of pioneer era. (Open Sat. 9:30 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Admission fee.)

Recreational portion of park offers picnic, camping and trailer sites, group recreational hall with kitchen facilities, screened shelters and golf course; also dining hall. Nature trail, and fishing in Brazos River. Just north of San Felipe on Park Road 38. Admission fee. 800/792-1112.

SCHULENBURG

Pop. 2,699 Alt. 344 Map Q-18

GENERAL—Established in 1873 as GH&SA Railroad (now part of Southern Pacific) was moving west, town was named for Louis Schulenburg who donated land for depot. Schulenburg is German word meaning "school town." German-Czech heritage is reflected in offerings of city's eating establishments.

Wolters Park, at south end of Bohlmann St., includes area for picnicking, rest rooms and other recreational facilities. Also includes Jacob Wolters' 1835 log cabin.

City lies along the Texas Pioneer Trail covering four-county area; noted for many historic buildings, homes, and historical markers. Chamber of commerce at 101-B Kessler Ave. (U.S. 77) has information and map.

SEGUIN

Pop. 22,011 Alt. 520 Map R-16

GENERAL—One of the oldest towns in Texas, founded in 1838 by a group of Rangers. Named in honor of Juan N. Seguín, distinguished Mexican-Texan. In the second half of 19th century, many German immigrants settled here and cotton was king. An oil boom in the 1930s financed a legacy of handsome Depression-era public facilities.

Be sure to visit the “World’s Largest Pecan,” a concrete statue that pays homage to a valuable local crop. Located on the courthouse lawn.

For more information, contact the Seguin Convention & Visitors Bureau at 830/379-6382.

DOWNTOWN HISTORIC DISTRICT—Notable early 20th-century architecture surrounds the Art Deco courthouse. Central Park is ringed with reproductions of vintage street lamps first installed in 1922.

HERITAGE MUSEUM—Just across from City Hall, museum highlights the contributions made by German immigrants and other settlers to the area. One exhibit traces the history of Wilson pottery, the first successful African-American business in Texas that was started by freed slaves. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

JUAN SEGUÍN STATUE—In the heart of downtown, a handsome bronze sculpture pays tribute to the Tejano patriot Juan N. Seguín. Dispatched by Sam Houston to urge settlers to flee from Santa Anna in the Runaway Scrape, Juan Seguín came to be called “the Paul Revere of Texas.” He also fought with the other Texans at San Jacinto. Made a Colonel by Texas President David G. Burnet, Seguín went on to serve as a Senator of the Republic of Texas and as Mayor of San Antonio.

JUAN SEGUÍN BURIAL SITE—On a hillside across from the coliseum, a monument marks the grave of Texas patriot Juan Seguín. The inscription on the grave recounts his life.

LAKES—Lake Placid is small lake on Guadalupe River southwest of city offer a public boat ramp. Lake McQueeney, 5 miles northwest, is touted as “water ski capital of Texas.”

SEBASTOPOL HOUSE STATE HISTORIC SITE—A landmark in the history of concrete, Sebastopol is split-level, Greek Revival-style architectural structure. Built by slaves of Col. Joshua Young prior to the Civil War, when town experimented with Limecrete, a 19th-century version of concrete. More than a century ago, city had more concrete buildings than any other place in the U.S., although only 20 of those relics survive today. Exhibits recount technology used to build these concrete buildings. Open Fri. - Sun. 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Off U.S. 90-A, west of downtown. Admission fee.

STARCKE PARK—A waterfall over a gracefully curving dam highlights a scenic river drive beneath towering Cypress trees. Golf course, wave pool, ball fields, Kids’ Kingdom playscape, hike-and-bike trails, pavilions, and picnic area. At Guadalupe River off Texas 123 south.

TEXAS LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY—This highly rated university has a student population of 1,500 at its 184-acre campus between U.S. 90 and U.S. 90A.

Fiedler Museum in Langner Hall has geological displays. An adjoining rock garden is open at all times and includes trail guides just outside the gate.

Jackson Auditorium is the home of the Mid-Texas Symphony.

SHERMAN

Pop. 35,082 Alt. 728 Map G-18/QQ-1

GENERAL—Established as county seat when Grayson County organized in 1846. First laid out a short distance west of present location, but because of scarce firewood and water, moved to present site in 1848. City named after Gen. Sidney Sherman, the Republic of Texas cavalry officer credited with the famous slogan, “Remember the Alamo!” Early establishment of several colleges, as well as a drama club, earned Sherman title of “Athens of Texas.”

Today, Sherman remains a jewel in its cultural offerings, especially for a city its size, featuring the Sherman Symphony Orchestra and the Sherman Community Players live theatre troop. Live music abounds, especially in the summer-time, with the Hot Summer Nights free concert series on the Municipal Lawn. Austin College, a private, coeducational liberal arts institution, provides residents and visitors with cultural and educational offerings throughout the year.

THURBER

Pop. 8 (est.) Alt. 1,100 Map K-15

GENERAL—Looking over the handful of buildings left standing in Thurber today, you’d have a hard time believing it was once a thriving company town at the turn of the century and the most important mine site in Texas for 30 years. At one time a town of more than 10,000 residents representing 20 nationalities, Thurber was the largest town between Fort Worth and El Paso. It was believed to have been the first city with totally unionized industries. Electricity, provided in 1895 made it one of the first towns in world with complete electric service. The discovery of oil brought about the decline of Thurber. The last coal mine closed in 1921, and the 10,000 or more inhabitants of Thurber began to move away. By 1936, the town had been abandoned, and many of the buildings were dismantled. It had quickly become a ghost town. Today, only about 6 original buildings still stand in Thurber, including the old Mercantile building, original water treatment plant, and the 128-foot-tall smokestack from the second electric power plant built in 1909. Now with a population of just 8, Thurber stands as a testament to the power of economics and technology to build and destroy communities.

W.K. GORDON CENTER FOR INDUSTRIAL HISTORY OF TEXAS—Museum, opened in 2002, celebrates the unique history of Thurber, which went from boom town to ghost town in almost a blink of an eye. Visitors can see exhibits, artifacts, and more that detail how the mining, brick, and oil industries shaped the town’s rise and ultimate fall. Museum named for William Knox Gordon, Sr., best known behind the discovery of the Ranger Oil Field. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., Sun. 1 - 4 p.m. From I-20, take Exit 367 (Thurber/ Mingus) and museum is on south side of interstate. 254/968-1886

VAN

GENERAL—Van is in central Van Zandt County at the intersection of I-20 and Texas 110. In 1894 Henry Vance established a post office and the name Van was chosen when the post office named it for Vannie Tunnell and postmaster Vance. On Oct. 14, 1929, oil was discovered under the Jarman #1. Van became a boom town with about 30 structures, some hotels, built within 10 days. It still remains an oil-related town; however, the economy has shifted to more diversified industries, as well as agriculture.

For information on events, accommodations, and dining facilities, call the Van Area Chamber of Commerce at 903/963-5051.

LAKES—Cedar Creek, Fork, Holbrook, and Palestine. See Lakes listing.

VAN AREA OIL AND HISTORICAL MUSEUM—The museum is in an old warehouse originally built in 1930 by the Pure Oil Co. to house oil field materials used in the development of the oil field. All of the oil derricks in the Van field have disappeared; however, the museum obtained a derrick and relocated it on the grounds as a reminder of bygone days. Displays include various types of oil-related memorabilia as well as history of the area and city. Open Wed. - Sat. 10 a.m. - noon, 1 - 4 p.m. Closed Thanksgiving Day, New Year’s Day, and Christmas. At Texas 16 and County Rd. 1501. For information, call 903/963-5435.

Map M-18/MM-10

GENERAL—One of Texas' major cities, located in rich agricultural region of the Brazos River Valley. Modern industry thrives, but city retains flavor of its past when five "C's" were its support: cattle, cotton, corn, collegians, and culture. Large, cold springs on the Brazos River were long popular with the Waco Indians. First non-natives to see area were remnants of De Soto's band in 1542. Texas Ranger fort established near Indian village in 1837; first white settlers came 12 years later. Great plantations along the Brazos prospered briefly, but Civil War wrecked plantation economy and scattered population. Renewed Western movement and Chisholm Trail through Waco brought another boom—and frontier wildness that nicknamed the town "Six-shooter Junction."

Today known for educational, cultural, and recreational facilities. Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo, first week in Oct., is professional rodeo with entertainers, livestock and horse shows, and fine arts exhibits. Institutions of higher learning are Baylor Univ., McLennan Community College, and Texas State Technical College.

A beautiful scenic riverwalk meanders along the Brazos River from Fort Fisher Park past the suspension bridge and through Cameron Park to Herring Avenue.

ARMSTRONG-BROWNING LIBRARY—On campus of Baylor Univ., world's largest collection of works and memorabilia of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Fifty-nine stained-glass windows depicting Browning themes in 18th-century Italian Renaissance-style building. Contains bronze sculptures and numerous Renaissance paintings. Open weekdays 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sat. 9 a.m. - noon. Closed Sun. 254/710-3566.

ART CENTER WACO—Features rotating exhibits of various media including paintings, sculptures, woodcarvings, pottery, and weaving. Beautiful Mediterranean-style one-time home with courtyard, loggia, and colonnades. Sits on a bluff with magnificent views of Brazos and Bosque River valleys. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. 1300 College Dr. 254/752-4371. No admission fee.

CAMERON PARK ZOO—51-acre natural habitat zoo near the Brazos River amid pecan, elm, live oak, burr oak, cottonwood, bamboo, and mesquite trees.

Recreational, as well as educational; check out the signboards at viewing points for animal trivia questions. Home for gibbon apes, Sumatran tigers, white rhinos, giraffes, lions, antelopes, as well as other species. Also home to a Herpetarium. Two restaurants: Plaza Cafe and African Treetops Village. Open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day. 1701 N. 4th St.; take Exit 335A from I-35. For information, call 254/750-8400. Admission fee.

DR PEPPER MUSEUM—A fountain drink mixed in The Old Corner Drug Store in the 1880s was dubbed a "Waco" by early patrons because it could not be found outside the city of Waco. It later acquired the name Dr Pepper. Dr. Charles Alderton, Waco beverage chemist and patron of the drug store, became interested in the new drink and began extensive research. In 1885, after some two years of testing, blending, and processing, the new flavor was originated and put on sale commercially. So perfect was Dr. Alderton's work that the formula has remained basically unchanged. Museum housed in original 1906 bottling plant, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places. It features restored operating soda fountain along with other Dr Pepper memorabilia with interactive audio visual displays. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. noon - 5 p.m. (open extended hours in summer). Last ticket sold at 4:15 p.m. At 300 S. 5th St. For information, 254/757-1024. Admission fee.

EARLE-HARRISON HOUSE & GARDENS ON 5TH STREET—One of state's finest antebellum Greek Revival houses, built in 1858-59 by Dr. and Mrs. Baylis Wood Earle. Mrs. Earle sold the mansion in 1872 to her brother, Gen. Thomas Harrison, one of Waco's six Confederate generals. House is constructed of East Texas cypress and plantation-made brick. Detached kitchen is the repository of the Gov. Pat M. Neff kitchen collection. Gardens include five acres of flowers, pond and rare double gazebo. Gardens open Mon. - Fri., 9 a.m. - 4 p.m., and Sat. 1:30 - 5 p.m. Home open only by appointment. At 1901 North 5th St. 254/753-2032. Admission fee.

Map P-19

GENERAL—Known as Washington-on-the-Brazos or Old Washington, the town was established in 1834 near the location of a Brazos River ferry that had operated since 1822. The town achieved prominence during the Texas Revolution in 1836 as the site of the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence and the drafting of the Constitution of the newly born Republic of Texas. From 1842 to 1846, Washington-on-the-Brazos served as the capital of the Republic. Through the 1840s and 1850s the town flourished as a retail and commercial center for the cotton-producing Brazos Valley. The little village today (southeast of Bryan-College Station) lies just off Texas 105 between Brenham and Navasota.

For visitor information, call the Washington County Chamber of Commerce at 979/836-3695 or 888/BRENNHAM.

STAR OF THE REPUBLIC MUSEUM—In Washington-on-the-Brazos State Park, the museum is dedicated to presenting the history of the Texas Republic through state-of-the-art interactive exhibits, publications, and media presentations. The newly renovated 10,000 square foot exhibits depict all aspects of the Republic period, including social life, agriculture, transportation, politics, and military affairs. Additionally, the museum's research library is accessible to the public.

The museum's Discovery Center features interactive displays for visitors to experience the Republic period, exploring the early events and individuals in Texas History. Open daily 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Closed for Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. Call 936/878-2461 for special programs and group rates. Administered by Blinn College.

WASHINGTON-ON-THE-BRAZOS STATE HISTORIC SITE—The 293-acre park includes the site where Texas declared independence from Mexico on March 2, 1836. Visitors can commemorate this event in a replica of Independence Hall. A visitor center includes exhibits about the town of Washington and the convention of 1836 and offers a complete description of park activities and facilities.

The park also includes Barrington Living History Farm, a working farm of the 1850's centered around the home of Anson Jones who was the last President of the Republic of Texas. Open Wed. - Sat., 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Park facilities include a conference center, an education center, an outdoor amphitheater, a picnic area, a restaurant facility with catering available, and nature trails. Call 936/878-2214 for tour times. Open daily 8 a.m. to sundown for day-use activities; no overnight camping. Texas Independence Day celebration is held annually on the weekend nearest Mar. 2. Entrance on F.M. 1155. Fee for tour. www.birthplaceoftexas.com.

Map K-18

GENERAL—Name derives from Indian word meaning “cow (or buffalo) creek.” Now seat of Ellis County, town was once squarely on the Chisholm Trail. Town is noted for abundance of elaborate Victorian-style homes with “gingerbread” trim. Several movies have been made in the city featuring its old buildings and homes. For a map of historic homes and buildings and where movies have been shot, visit the Waxahachie Chamber of Commerce, Mon. - Thurs., 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Fri. 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. 102 YMCA Dr., or call 972/937-2390. www.waxahachiechamber.com.

Born in Atlanta, Bessie Coleman grew up here. She became the first black person in the world to become a licensed pilot in June 1921. In 1995 the U.S. Postal Service issued a commemorative stamp in her honor.

The late Paul Richards called Waxahachie home, too. He was a longtime player and manager for the Chicago White Sox, Baltimore Orioles, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He also served as special advisor to Eddie Chiles and the Texas Rangers. Richards Field, named in his honor, is home for the high school baseball team.

CHAUTAUQUA AUDITORIUM—Built 1902, rare survivor of the Chautauqua circuit that brought live talent for religious and cultural events to rural towns around the turn of the century. With advent of radio, Chautauqua waned and ended in 1930s. Today site of city events, restored structure is on National Register of Historic Places. Situated in 55-acre Getzendaner Park on S. Grand Ave. off W. Main.

ELLIS COUNTY COURTHOUSE—Elaborate structure of red sandstone and granite, built 1895 for then-lavish cost of $150,000. Italian artisans were imported for exterior stone carving. (Recurring face said to be Mabel Frame, railroad telegraph operator with whom one sculptor became enamored.) Clock uses windup mechanism weighing 250 pounds; bell-striker weight exceeds 800 pounds.

ELLIS COUNTY MUSEUM—Historical artifacts, photos, household furnishings and toys depict history of the region. In restored 19th-century building on courthouse square. Open Mon. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun. 1 - 5 p.m.

LAKES—Bardwell and Joe Pool. See LAKES listing.

NICHOLAS P. SIMS LIBRARY—Original structure built 1904, is classic example of Roman Doric architecture. Gold leaf and Carrara marble used in interior; exterior features enameled brick, copper cornices and carved replica of the Greek torch of knowledge. Contains over 33,000 volumes. 515 W. Main.

SCARBOROUGH FAIRE—Springtime Renaissance festival features arts, crafts, foods, and medieval-style fun—wizards, jugglers, jesters, and puppet shows. Also witness full combat jousting, falconry exhibits, children’s activities, rides, games and 10 stages of live entertainment. Costumes of royalty and rascals, poets and peasants. In rural setting. Open Apr. 9 through May 30, 10 a.m. - 7 p.m. On F.M. 66, 1.6 mi. west of I-35E. For more information call 972/938-3247 or visit www.scarboroughrenfest.com. Admission fee.

WAXAHACHIE CREEK HIKE & BIKE TRAIL—Visitors can enjoy a picnic along the banks of a creek, then walk or ride bikes along the trail all the way into town. Trail is five miles in total length.

WEIMAR

Pop. 1,981 Alt. 408 Map Q-18

GENERAL—In western Colorado County, city was founded in 1873 on the Texas and New Orleans Railroad and originally named Jackson Station. Name changed to Weimar because the land reminded many German settlers of their home in Germany. The city is on land of the original Stephen F. Austin Colony and is rich in history. Incorporated in July 1875, it became an early cotton center. Today the city is still an agriculture production center as well as a modern business community.

Weimar Gedenke is celebrated annually on the Sat. before Mother's Day. Gedenke is a German word that means "remember." Celebration includes beauty pageant, parade, and home-baked goods.

St. Michael's Catholic Church, established in 1888, was destroyed by storm six months after completion; present building with its conservative Gothic-style interior was built in 1914. On State Historical Register.

Library is housed in old train depot and is on State Historical Register. Caboose, adjacent to depot, used as library office.

WEIMAR HERITAGE SOCIETY MUSEUM—Focuses on exhibits tracing city's history beginning with original land grant. Displays include a turn-of-the-century doctor's office, farm and ranch implements, photos, and other memorabilia. One room dedicated to World Wars I & II, and the Korean and Vietnam wars.

The museum also features a pharmacy section that includes items such as pharmaceutical tools, patent medicine, glass bottles, and a wide assortment of mortars and pestles. It also featured an old-fashioned soda fountain and a doctor's office with period equipment and tools, medicine bags, examining table and surgical instruments. Open Wed. 2 - 4 p.m.; Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. At 125 E. Main St. (U.S. 90).

WEST

Pop. 2,692 Alt. 648 Map M-18

GENERAL—Originally established as Bold Springs, the town was renamed West in 1881 when the railroad laid lines through the area. The community was named for Thomas W. West who sold land for the railroad and for businesses wanting to locate close to the rail depot. West became a successful businessman, owning a hotel, furniture store and bank. Czechoslovakian immigrants came to the area purchasing the rich farmland. Many descendants of the original settlers continue to farm the lands with wheat, maize and cotton.

Czech traditions remain today and can be seen in cooking, baking, arts, crafts, and the love for polka music. The Texas Legislature recognized West as the "Czech Heritage Capital of Texas" and "home of the official Kolache of the Texas Legislature."

Since 1976, thousands converge on the city each Labor Day Weekend for the Westfest celebration. The event features music, arts and crafts, and plenty of Kolaches and sausage. For information, write to Westfest, Inc., PO Box 65, West, TX 76691 or call 254/826-5058. www.westfest.com.

Bed and Breakfast accommodations available in historic building. Bakeries and restaurants feature Czech foods and numerous stores feature antiques, arts and crafts, and imported Czech crystal and jewelry.

KATY DEPOT MUSEUM—Old photographs depict relationship between the railroad and the community. Also included is a photo exhibit of the staged head-on collision involving two trains near West in 1896 that attracted national attention. An information center for the city is also in the depot. Open Thurs. and Fri. 3 - 5 p.m., Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. and Sun. 1 - 5 p.m.

LAKES—Aquilla, Navarro Mills, Waco, and Whitney. See LAKES listing.

WHITESBORO

Pop. 3,760 Alt. 840 Map G-18

GENERAL—In 1848 Ambrose B. White arrived here and established White's Westview Inn that became a stagecoach stop along the western route for the Butterfield Overland Mail Co. White was elected mayor after the city was incorporated in 1873. Whitesboro is in western Grayson County on U.S. 82 and one of the key cities to recreational activities at Lake Texoma and Lake Ray Roberts. The city serves the needs of lake visitors with shopping for everything from antiques to zucchini.

Numerous historical markers are in the area and bed and breakfast accommodations are available.

The annual Peanut Festival on the 3rd Sat. of Oct. honors area peanut farmers.

The Younger-Sullivan House was built in 1889. The ornate Victorian home is available for local receptions and for tours with appointment.

For additional information for dining, accommodations, and events, contact the Whitesboro Chamber of Commerce at 903/564-3331.

CROSS TIMBERS HIKING TRAIL—The trail begins at Juniper Point recreation area built by the U.S. Corps of Engineers in 1969. The trail is 14 miles long and is well marked; mile posts have been erected along the way as reference points. Adjacent to Lake Texoma 12 miles north of city.

HAGERMAN NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE—11,300 acres of land and water offers food and haven for migrating and wintering waterfowl on the Big Mineral Arm of Lake Texoma. Some 300 bird species have been recorded on the refuge that's visited by 135,000 people each year. In addition to huge flocks of migrants passing through each fall and spring, observers may see killdeer, snowy egrets, rails, plovers and sandpipers in summer; great blue herons and other wading and shore birds in winter; native white-tailed deer and other animals year-round. When oil was discovered on the refuge in 1951, development proceeded with care. Significantly, some 200 carefully maintained wells produce vital energy today in harmony with the wildlife that perches on, feeds by, and rests near the well sites. Self-guided driving tour of the refuge. Visitor center has interpretive displays, information, and bird lists. From U.S. 82, go east to F.M. 901, then north to refuge.

LAKES—Ray Roberts and Texoma. See LAKES listing.

WHITESBORO WATER WELL—This well served as a watering stop for trail drivers along the Butterfield Stage Line until 1902. The well was rediscovered and rebuilt and a historical marker gives details. Located downtown on Main St.

★ SOUTH TEXAS PLAINS ★

SAY HELLO TO THE ALAMO—and adios to the winter blues and the summer doldrums. Soak up some sun in the tropical Rio Grande Valley. Stroll the streets of Laredo. Attend a fiesta, admire a Picasso, and savor a salsa-spiced snack. You will soon find that there is nothing plain about the South Texas Plains. Throughout the year, this fascinating region, from San Antonio to the Rio Grande, offers delights muy especial!

Here, where Texas and Mexico come together, you will experience the excitement of a zesty TexMex blend of languages, music, cuisine, and customs. And you will reap the benefits of some of the most interesting attractions and activities this side of the border.

Play golf and tennis year-round. Birdwatch in a host of prime birding spots. Explore museums and historical sites famous the world over. Shop in malls and markets and boutiques that offer an amazing array of merchandise. And pluck luscious grapefruits and oranges right from the trees. You will never lack for entertaining diversions in the South Texas Plains.

Let's learn a little more about this exciting region of Texas.

THE VALLEY, THE BORDER, AND POINTS SOUTH

Folks who vacation in the lower Rio Grande Valley often call it the "Magic Valley"—and with good reason. Cities and towns in this tropical tip of Texas brim with extra excitement for visitors, offering frequent fiestas, rollicking RV rallies, and numerous welcoming parties. Add to these benefits the proximity of South Padre Island's great saltwater fishing, water sports, and scenic seashore and you have a tempting variety of vacation possibilities.

In the winter, the Valley's temperate climate brings generally balmy weather, ensuring extra days for golf, tennis, swimming, fishing, and basking in the sun. On both sides of the border, you find shopping chock-full of bargains, such as wrought-iron furnishings, jewelry, and leather goods. Bird-watching is superb in places such as the Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge and Bentsen-Rio Grande Valley State Park. And the area's agricultural bounty serves up delicious fresh vegetables, like onions, and carrots and cabbage, and citrus fruits, such as grapefruits and oranges.

Cities and towns in the lower Rio Grande Valley form a closely woven tapestry. One town gives way to another before you even realize you have exchanged city limits. But each community boasts its own characteristics and each offers something interesting to visitors.

In McAllen, visit the International Museum of Art & Science and view the excellent exhibits of Mexican folk art, including multicolored masks and costumes. If you are in a shopping mood, look for antiques (especially those from Mexico) in shops sprinkled throughout the city, and search for gifts and specialties in La Placita, a complex of shops in refurbished historic homes. After your shopping jaunt, take the kids to Mountasia and you can all enjoy the rides, video arcade, and miniature golf.

By the way, if you spy birds of bright hues flitting about in McAllen's trees, you may be seeing the Red-crowned Parrots and Green Parakeets that call the city home, or you could be gazing at Green Jays, the "city birds" of McAllen.

Just east of McAllen, Pharr gives you a chance to whirl with the Wurlitzers at Smitty's Juke Box Museum. And, you can tick away some time at Ye Old Clock Museum, where a collection of some 2,000 timepieces dates to 1690.

Admire the crimson bougainvillea blooms that edge the highway at adjacent San Juan, then seek out the Shrine of La Virgen de San Juan del Valle. The shrine harbors a small, wooden statue of Our Lady of San Juan that remained unscathed after a fire destroyed the church where it once stood.

At nearby Alamo, hike or drive the impressive Santa Ana National Wildlife Refuge, where plants, wildlife, and rare birds find haven. In winter and early spring, you can ride a tram through the refuge. Also visit Sunderland's Cactus Garden, just north of Alamo, and marvel at the 25-foot-tall Pachycereus pringlei, or elephant's cactus, one of the largest nursery-grown cacti in Texas.

In Weslaco, the Valley Nature Center offers a pleasant trail through five acres of natural vegetation, including a butterfly garden, lily pond, and cactus gardens. At Mercedes, kick up your heels—or at least lift them—and let one of several world-renowned custom bootmakers measure your feet and fashion for you a truly fine pair of boots.

Mission, sometimes called the "Home of the Grapefruit," is a gateway to nearby Bentsen-Rio Grande Valley State Park, which encompasses 589 acres of native flora and fauna. Birders treasure this park, which harbors birds from the eastern and western United States, as well as species from southern Mexico. Spring migrations bring unusual sightings, such as the Clay-colored Robin, Green Kingfisher, Blue Bunting, and Rose-throated Becard. (You can even rent bird-observation blinds here.) Mexican ground squirrels, ocelots and jaguarundi also live in the park's luxuriant vegetation.

For a sampling of great Western action, watch the cowboys at Edinburg's Sheriff's Posse Rodeo and Quarter Horse racing every Saturday evening. If it's warm weather time, you can cool off at the Edinburg Municipal Waterworks by zipping down the 125-foot, figure-eight water slide and diving into one of three pools.

If you want to shop, dine, and sightsee across the border, you have several options here, including crossing the Rio Grande into Mexico at Hidalgo to enter Reynosa and at the small town of Progreso to visit Nuevo Progreso.

Next, head for Laredo, some 143 miles northwest of McAllen on U.S. 83. Along the way, you can visit Rio Grande City, where the 1899 La Borde House, a historic inn, offers lodging in rooms sporting late 19th-century decor. Here, you can also spend a moment of quiet reflection at Our Lady of Lourdes Grotto, a replica of the famous shrine in Lourdes, France.

In Roma, the impressive Roma National Historic Landmark District gives you a chance to view some 38 historical buildings that date between 1848 and 1928. The town, along with Zapata, is a gateway to Falcon Reservoir, owned jointly by the United States and Mexico.

As you enter Laredo, be sure to stop by the Texas Travel Information Center on I-35. Here, friendly travel counselors greet you with a "howdy" and ¡bienvenidos! and provide you with great maps and Texas information. And of course they can tell you about interesting things to see and do in los dos Laredos, "the two Laredos." (Laredo's sister city, Nuevo Laredo (New Laredo) lies just across the border.)

A major international border crossing, Laredo gives you a fine sampling of history along with great border-style entertainment. Established by a Spanish land grant in 1755, Laredo has existed under seven flags. The intriguing Republic of the Rio Grande Building and Museum relates the city's history as capital of the unsuccessful Republic of the Rio Grande.

Nearby, beautiful San Agustín Church occupies an honored site on San Agustín Plaza. Though the present church has stood here since 1872, today's structure is the third building since San Agustín was established by the bishop of Guadalajara in 1760. The first church was built in 1767.

Washington's Birthday Celebration in Laredo

Shopping is great in Laredo, with several malls and many specialty shops. And, just across the international bridge, Nuevo Laredo brings you more shopping, plentiful restaurants, and nightclubs that never seem to close.

Every February, Laredoans stage the patriotic and exuberant Washington's Birthday Celebration, a 16-day extravaganza filled with parades, balls, street parties, pageants, concerts, and fireworks. For a kick, enter the festival's Jalapeño Eating Contest. You will never forget it.

On the eastern edge of the city, Lake Casa Blanca International State Park invites you to camp, picnic, and try your bass-fishing skills on 1,656-acre Lake Casa Blanca. Another interesting outdoor site, the Lamar Bruni Vergara Environmental Science Center, on the campus of Laredo Community College, provides a wonderful opportunity to view plants and animals found along the Rio Grande Watershed. Before you leave the border area, explore bustling Eagle Pass and neighboring Piedras Negras across the Rio Grande. Eagle Pass is home to the restored stone buildings of Fort Duncan, where a museum chronicles the old fort and the history of the area. In Piedras Negras, where a chef invented the tasty snacks called nachos, you can celebrate this culinary achievement at a festival each October.

THE NORTH OF THE SOUTH

Travel from Laredo toward San Antonio and you drive through vast sections of brush country, land punctuated mostly by cactus and mesquite. In Cotulla, where Lyndon B. Johnson once taught school and writer William Sydney Porter (O. Henry) once lived, you can visit the Brush Country Museum and learn about this prickly area through displays of memorabilia and photos of ranch life.

A few miles north, Dilley honors the watermelon—the gem of its agricultural bounty—with a giant watermelon statue, whereas, just up the road, Pearsall salutes its phenomenal peanut crop with a large monument to the tasty legume. While you're paying homage to South Texas' appetizing array of vegetables and fruits, be sure to take a look at the statue of the "world's largest strawberry" in Poteet, about 30 miles south of San Antonio. And don't forget the likeness of Popeye at Crystal City, west of Dilley. The celebrated cartoon sailor salutes this winter garden area's plentiful spinach and vegetable production. Between them, Dilley, Pearsall, Poteet, Carrizzo Springs and Crystal City serve up a veritable feast of fun monuments.

Along the U.S. 281 corridor between the lower Rio Grande Valley and San Antonio, lie several interesting towns, including Alice (named after the daughter of Captain Richard King of King Ranch fame), which offers a host of pleasant city parks and outdoor band concerts in the summer. Stop by the South Texas Museum for a look at the history of the area.

Town Square in Piedras Negras, Mexico, across border from Eagle Pass

George West is home to the West Hotel Emporium, a 1919 hotel that now boasts antique and arts and crafts boutiques. North of George West, Three Rivers provides fishing, picnicking, and camping opportunities at the city-operated Tips Park on the clear and scenic Frio River and at nearby Choke Canyon State Park on Choke Canyon Reservoir.

Head east from George West to Beeville. Here, in the Beeville Art Gallery and Museum, you can view antique furnishings, paintings, and sculptures housed in the home of early settlers. Then set your sights on Goliad, where Goliad State Park and Presidio La Bahía bring Texas history to vivid life.

Goliad State Park harbors a beautifully reconstructed replica of the 1749 mission, Nuestra Señora del Espíritu Santo de Zúñiga, popularly called Mission Espíritu Santo. Established in 1749, the mission served the Spanish Franciscans in their efforts to Christianize the Indians.

Nearby Presidio La Bahía, an excellent example of a Spanish frontier fort, was built in 1749 to protect the work of the mission. In March of 1836, the presidio housed Colonel James W. Fannin Jr., and more than 300 Texian troops after their surrender to Mexican forces during the Texas Revolution. (Fannin Battleground State Historic Park marks the site of Fannin's surrender at the town of Fannin, about 10 miles east of Goliad.)

A week after they surrendered, Fannin, his men, and other prisoners were executed at the order of Mexican General Santa Anna. Their graves lie a few hundred yards from Presidio La Bahía. After this massacre, the Texian Army added "Remember Goliad!" to the fabled cry, "Remember the Alamo!"

Today, you can examine interesting historical exhibits at the mission museum and at a museum at the presidio. Religious services still take place in Presidio La Bahía's chapel. You can camp and picnic at the state park, as well.

The presidio grounds also harbor the General Zaragoza State Historic Site, which honors General Ignacio Zaragoza, who was born at La Bahía. Zaragoza's outnumbered and ill-equipped Mexican army troops routed French forces at Puebla, Mexico, in 1862. The battle date, Cinco de Mayo (May 5), is a national holiday in Mexico. Several Texas cities celebrate the day, as well.

Northwest of Goliad lies tiny Panna Maria. Established in 1854, the village is probably the oldest Polish community in the United States. Here, you can visit St. Joseph's School Museum, the site of the oldest Polish school in the U.S., and view many artifacts depicting the life of Polish pioneers.

Between Panna Maria and San Antonio, you can, believe it or not, enter the Promised Land. Of course you will be visiting Floresville's Promised Land Dairy, which boasts one of the largest registered all-Jersey herds in the world. Here, the kids will enjoy the petting barnyard and the whole family can savor delicious treats in the ice cream parlor and play a fun round of miniature golf at the nine-hole course.

SAN ANTONIO

Take a look at a Texas map. Notice something? All roads in the south central part of the state lead to San Antonio. Follow them. You will find much to enjoy in this multicultural and historical treasure of a city.

San Antonio offers just about every pleasant vacation element that you could want. Exciting history. Terrific restaurants. Wonderful hotels, motels, and bed and breakfast lodgings. Sensational museums. Super theme parks and entertainment centers. Splendid shopping and music and sports. And celebrations and festivals just about every week of the year.

First, explore the sites that encapsulate the city's history. Begin in the heart of downtown at the small adobe building whose distinctive façade you recognize immediately—the Alamo. Pause for a quiet moment inside the hallowed chapel of this famed shrine to liberty, formally called Mission San Antonio de Valero. Examine the stirring displays in the chapel and in the Long Barrack Museum, then stroll the beautifully landscaped grounds. The hustle and bustle of the surrounding city will fade as you remember the brave men who died here in March of 1836. You can tip your hat, too, to the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, who have maintained this important shrine so devotedly since 1905.

You will also want to explore the chain of four additional missions—Concepción, San José, San Juan, and Espada—that stair-step along the San Antonio River and form the San Antonio Missions National Historical Park. These majestic missions, which were established in the first half of the 18th century, illustrate vividly the work of Franciscan missionaries in bringing Spain's religion and dominion to Mexico and Texas. Mission San José is particularly lovely, with its famed ornamental "Rose Window," and its gristmill, granary, and beautifully landscaped grounds. For an exhilarating experience, attend one of the mariachi masses that take place at San José each Sunday.

The King William District provides a look at the important contributions made to San Antonio by the prominent German merchants who settled here. Several restored homes serve as bed and breakfast lodgings. You can visit the Steves Homestead Museum, in a house built in 1876, and the lovely 1859 Guenther House, which today encompasses a museum, gift shop, and popular restaurant.

The city's many museums offer an assortment of subjects to explore, including pioneers, Texas Rangers, military medicine, history and science, and even transportation. Art finds marvelous venues here as well, including the outstanding San Antonio Museum of Art and the magnificent McNay Art Museum, where paintings by artists such as Cézanne, Gauguin, Picasso, and O'Keeffe join sculptures by Rodin and Hepworth.

Downtown, in HemisFair Park, the Institute of Texan Cultures features dynamic exhibits that highlight the varied ethnic and cultural makeup of the people of Texas. Visit in June and you can attend the Institute's annual Texas Folklife Festival. During this tremendously popular celebration, participants dress in ethnic costumes and demonstrate their ancestors' customs, music, and foods. You can join in. Great fun!

Flora of the Rio Grande Valley area

Ready for some mouthwatering barbecue or enchiladas or a steak as big as a platter? Or, maybe you want to shop for a special Texas memento, or sip a margarita while you listen to terrific jazz. Well, you will find restaurants, shops, and clubs galore when you take a stroll along one of the most famous pathways in the world—the River Walk.

Descend a stairway alongside one of the several bridges that cross the San Antonio River and you find yourself one floor below street level. Here, you can follow the walkways amid lush foliage beside the cypress-lined river, or you can hop aboard a colorful river cruiser for an entertaining narrated tour. Watch for unusual and artistic touches along the river, such as the mosaic at the Navarro Street bridge that marks the Old Mill Crossing, and the bas-relief of an Indian chief on the street level of the Commerce Street Bridge. The River Walk brims with neat surprises.

Family fun abounds in San Antonio. Chill out at Splashtown—San Antonio, and say "hi" to your heroes and heroines in wax at the Plaza Theater of Wax. Check out the wild rides, like "Scooby Doo Ghostbusters" and "Scream," and the topnotch live musical productions at Six Flags Fiesta Texas. Make the acquaintance of porpoises, penguins, and beluga and killer whales, as well as giant Clydesdale horses, at SeaWorld San Antonio. Here, too, you can ride pulse-pounding such as the "Steel Eel," with a 15-story drop, and the "Great White," an inverted coaster.

If you are shopping for gifts and furnishings with artistic Mexican flair, try areas such as La Villita and El Mercado, where you can also dine on tasty TexMex specialties and listen to thrilling mariachi music. Then, visit the shops and restaurants and clubs of Sunset Station to cap off a rousing day.

San Antonio doesn't forget sports enthusiasts, either, with professional basketball and minor league hockey and baseball teams. Golf courses here are among the best in the state, and tennis courts and swimming pools abound.

And, oh, yes, don't miss the marvelous San Antonio Zoo and the beautiful Botanical Gardens. San Antonio's riches just go on and on.

So, you see, the South Texas Plains can enchant and entertain you with a nonstop fiesta of attractions. In this exciting region of Texas, you will enjoy one of the most special vacations of your life! ¡Bienvenidos! Welcome!

Map V-16

GENERAL—Seat of Jim Wells County. First called Bandana, then Kleberg, the town was finally named Alice after the daughter of Captain Richard King, who established the King Ranch. When the Texas Mexican Railroad and the San Antonio & Aransas Pass Railroad intersected the city, the community became the world's largest cattle shipping point from 1888 to 1895. Town is a dividing point between brush country to the west and coastal plains to the east; also between the border region and rest of Texas. Oil was discovered in 1930s, and town became hub for petroleum business and continues to serve in this capacity for agribusiness, tourism, and as distribution center for South Texas. Beefmaster cattle breed was developed here.

Town's lifestyle is outdoor oriented. Eleven city parks offer sports fields, tennis courts, swimming pools and 18-hole municipal golf course. Outdoor band concerts on summer evenings. Hunters seek white-tailed deer, javelina, wild turkey, quail, and dove.

Annual extravaganzas include the Fiesta Bandana, celebrating the first settlement of the town when it was known as Bandana, is held in early May, the Hispanic Heritage Festival in Sept., and the Jim Wells County Fair in Oct.

EAGLE PASS

Pop. 22,413

Map T-12

GENERAL—First U.S. settlement at site on Rio Grande began during Mexican War with establishment of temporary Camp Eagle Pass. In 1849 permanent Fort Duncan was founded. After Civil War, the site became burial plot of the Confederacy when, on July 4, 1865, Gen. Joseph Orville Shelby, on his way to Mexico to offer his troops' service to Maximilian, paused in the middle of the Rio Grande stream to bury the last Confederate flag to fly over his men.

Today an international gateway and tourist center, seat of Maverick County, and retail shipping center for 40,000-acre irrigated winter-garden region.

International bridge to Piedras Negras, just across Rio Grande, connects U.S. 57 with Mexico 57 that leads to Monclova, Saltillo, San Luis Potosí and Mexico City. Portions of the route through scenic areas of Sierra Madre. Sportsmen enjoy fishing for the famous (and huge) Rio Grande catfish, and hunting for white-tailed deer and upland game birds.

Eight miles south of city is 125-acre site developed as federal reservation for Kickapoo Indians, a tribe that for years had special border-crossing permission.

Campuses for Southwest Texas Jr. College and Sul Ross State Univ. are also here.

Stop by and visit Fort Duncan, established in 1849 and was home to three companies of 1st U.S. Infantry Regiment, as well as Confederate troops during Civil War. Many old stone buildings at center of municipal park.

Annual events include the International Friendship Festival, in late March or early Apr., which includes a carnival, parade, baseball and golf tournaments and more. For detailed visitor information, contact the Eagle Pass Chamber of Commerce at 888/355-3224 or visit www.eaglepasstexas.com.

FORT DUNCAN—Established 1849 and occupied by three companies of 1st U.S. Infantry Regiment. During Civil War, post was occupied by Confederate troops of Frontier Regiment. Federal troops reoccupied post 1868; it remained under military authority until 1916. Many restored stone buildings form center of municipal park.

FORT DUNCAN MUSEUM—Housed at Fort Duncan post headquarters building, the museum includes exhibits, artifacts, and photographs from colonial period, early exploration, Civil War, and early 20th century covering Texas, Northern Mexico, and Eagle Pass. Open Tues. - Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. Donations accepted. 830/758-1445.

GUERRERO, MEXICO—28 miles south of Piedras Negras, on Mexico Highway 2, lies the Spanish Colonial Villa de Guerrero with Mission San Bernardo ruin, claimed as the single most important Colonial ruin in Coahuila. From Guerrero, the famed Camino Real crossed the Rio Grande into Texas.

LUCKY EAGLE CASINO—Operated by the Kickapoo Indians, this handsome facility features bingo hall, and Las Vegas-type games with state-of-the-art equipment. Also features restaurant, sports bar and scheduled live entertainment. Off E.M. 1021 (El Indio Highway) at Rosita Valley Rd. Open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. For information, call 888/255-8259 or visit www.kickapooluckyeaglecasino.com.

PIEDRAS NEGRAS, MEXICO—A comfortable walking distance from downtown Eagle Pass, across the Rio Grande, is the busy Mexican city of Piedras Negras; population about 280,000. Handicraft items at bargain prices in many shops and traditional Mexican market area. Restaurants and popular night clubs; bullfights at intervals throughout summer months. A nachos festival is held every Oct. to celebrate the origin of the internationally savored nacho snack in this city.

GENERAL—Established 1883, Falfurrias is Spanish for "Heart's Delight," the name of a local wildflower. Seat of ranch-oriented Brooks County, nationally noted for cattle breeding and meat production. Beefmaster breed of cattle originated in county. Dairying began when the town's founder, Ed Lasater, divided 60,000 acres of ranchland into small dairy farms in the early 1900s.

To provide an outlet for these products, Lasater constructed the Falfurrias Creamery, still famous for its "sweet cream butter." Other agriculture products include cotton, peanuts, vegetables, and melons.

Hunters take deer, turkey, javelina, and many types of birds in season.

DON PEDRITO SHRINE—Falfurrias tell the tale of Don Pedrito, a Mexican faith healer born in Jalisco, Mexico. Legend said he was cured through faith and given the gift of healing in a vision. He came to Los Olmos Ranch in 1881 and for some 25 years thousands of people came to him to be cured. Thousands still visit the shrine each year. Take Texas 285 east 2 mi., E.M. 1418 north to shrine. Texas Historical marker at site.

HERITAGE MUSEUM—Pictures, weapons, and other mementos of early frontier heritage as well as artifacts of pioneer days in Brooks County. Open Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - noon, 1 - 4 p.m.; Sat. 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. 300 N. St. Mary's St. (U.S. 281).

GENERAL—Community in eastern Goliad County. Named for James W. Fannin Jr., Texas Revolutionary hero.

FANNIN BATTLEGROUND STATE HISTORIC SITE—A handsome monument marks site where Col. James W. Fannin Jr. and his men surrendered to Mexican army after the Battle of Coleto Creek Mar. 20, 1836. Though Fannin believed surrender was on honorable terms, Gen. Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna overruled local Mexican commander's clemency petition and ordered the Texans (some 342) executed at Goliad about a week later. See GOLIAD. Park is open daily. Facilities include water, rest rooms, electricity, and picnic accommodations. One mile south on Park Road 27.

Map S-16

GENERAL—Named for early rancher, Don Francisco Flores de Abrego, who established his ranch about six miles northwest in 1832. In 1833 nucleus of present town founded on land donated by Flores family; became Wilson County seat, 1885. Growing season of 285 days; marketing point for watermelons, flax, cotton, beef cattle, dairy and poultry products. Huge peanut statue on courthouse lawn recognizes peanut crop grown in area.

CANARY ISLANDERS CEMETERY—Established prior to 1732 by islanders who formed first organized civil settlement in Texas at San Fernando de Bexar, now San Antonio. Several Texas families trace lineage from those colonists. Off U.S. 181 some two blocks north at Texas 97/E.M. 536 intersection (Plum & 10th sts.).

PROMISED LAND DAIRY—This is home to one of the largest registered all Jersey herd in the world. The farm is on 1,100 acres just outside the city. The dairy produces ice cream the old-fashioned way and uses only Texas-grown fruits and nuts when possible. Gift shop and ice cream parlor feature old-fashioned ice cream cones and a wide variety of sundaes, as well as hot meal and deli sandwiches. There is also a petting barnyard where children of all ages can feed and pet the animals, and a 9-hole miniature golf course. Restaurant/gift shop hours, Sun. - Thurs. 11 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Fri. - Sat. 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Call for extended seasonal hours. Three miles west on Texas 97. For information, 210/533-9151.

battle cry honoring Col. James W. Fannin Jr. and his men who were massacred at Goliad. Memorial services at grave of Colonel Fannin and his troops on weekend near Mar. 27. City celebrated its 250th anniversary in 1999.

Goliad was named a Main Street City in 1984 and a National Main Street City since 1999.

FANNIN PLAZA—City park at S. Market and Franklin sts. Includes Texas Revolution cannon, memorial shaft and several historical markers. Nearby is "hanging tree" on courthouse lawn, and Market House Museum. Newly built children's park, "Fort Fun," is located next to the city park.

GOLIAD STATE PARK—184-acre park features reconstructed, refurbished replica Mission Nuestra Señora del Espíritu Santo de Zúñiga, generally called Mission Espíritu Santo. Excellent interpretive displays, plus camping and picnicking area, rest rooms and river fishing spots. Mission established 1749 to Christianize Indian inhabitants of the area. One mile south off U.S. 183. Admission fee.

A junior-size Olympic swimming pool, across the highway and not a part of the state park, is operated by the city of Goliad. Open 2 - 8 p.m. in summer. Pool closed on Wed. For information, call 361/645-3405.

GRAVE OF COL. JAMES W. FANNIN JR. AND MEN—Monument marks grave of Colonel Fannin and his men who had surrendered to Mexican forces during the Texas Revolution, and were massacred at the order of General Santa Anna on Palm Sunday morning, March 27, 1836. Two miles south of Goliad off U.S. 183, a few hundred yards from Presidio La Bahía.

LAKE—Coleto Creek. See LAKES listing.

MARKET HOUSE MUSEUM—Quaint structure with cupola on the courthouse square. First public use on Aug. 30, 1853; in 1886, building became a firehouse with meeting hall. Local volunteer fire department used the building until 1964 and restored for use as museum in 1967. At Franklin and Market sts. 361/645-8767.

PRESIDIO LA BAHÍA—As conquistadors of centuries ago explored new lands for "God, Gold and Glory," the Church played an integral part in colonization and dominion over vast New World empires. Missions were often first permanent Spanish settlement in new areas. To protect mission endeavors, a presidio (fort) was usually built nearby and manned by Spanish military forces.

Such was Presidio Santa María del Loreto de la Bahía, established in 1749 near Mission Espíritu Santo. It grew into one of the more important forts on the Spanish frontier, and is the finest example of a complete Spanish presidio in Texas. Its chapel is still in regular use for religious services.

Excavation and restoration of massive stone walls and other structures of fort have been completed by Kathryn O'Connor Foundation.

It was in this presidio that Fannin's men, during 1836 Texas Revolution, were imprisoned after their surrender, and were massacred in violation of honorable terms upon which they had laid down their arms.

A museum houses articles discovered during restoration, memorabilia of the Texas Revolution, and artifacts indicating nine levels of civilization at the site. Annual re-enactment is held weekend nearest Mar. 27. Open daily 9 a.m. - 4:45 p.m. except major holidays. Two miles south off U.S. 183, immediately south of San Antonio River. Call 361/645-3752 for information. Admission fee. www.presidiolabahia.org.

VISITOR CENTER—For information on accommodations, restaurants, and events, stop by the chamber of commerce office Mon. - Fri. 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. at 231 S. Market St., or call 800/848-8674 or 361/645-3563. Visit www.goliadcc.org.

ZARAGOZA BIRTHPLACE STATE HISTORIC SITE—Both a state park and international historic site, reconstructed birthplace and statue of one of Mexico's most famous military figures, Gen. Ignacio Zaragoza (1829-1862). Mexican general and liberal leader was minister of war under Juárez. In 1862 he commanded outnumbered, poorly equipped Mexican army in defense of the Central Mexico city of Puebla against elite French force. Zaragoza flung back attacking army, inflicting heavy losses and forcing its withdrawal to east coast; Zaragoza died of typhoid fever on Sept. 11, 1862. It is not generally known that this French army had proposed to march into Texas to establish aid and supply line to Confederate forces—but they reckoned without Zaragoza. The battle date, Cinco de Mayo (May 5), is a national holiday throughout Mexico, and is celebrated here and in several Texas cities. Site is two miles south off U.S. 183 at Presidio La Bahía.

HELENA

Pop. 35 (est.) Alt. 305 Map S-16

GENERAL—Though a few homes remain in rural Karnes County, Helena is a ghost town—killed, so they say, by one gunfight too many. Helena was established in 1852 near routes of famed Chihuahua Trail and Indianola-San Antonio Road. It was a boisterous frontier settlement with more than its share of outlaws and sudden death. During a saloon shooting one night in 1884, 20-year-old Emmett Butler, son of area's wealthiest rancher, Col. William Butler, was killed. Unable to determine who fired the fatal shot, Butler vowed to kill the town that killed his son. He persuaded the railroad, then building across South Texas, to bypass Helena by offering free land miles away. Other towns sprang up along railroad; Helena lost its role as county seat, and its citizens drifted away. Today old courthouse and other silent ruins are testimony to Butler's vow. On Texas 80 between Karnes City and Gillett.

Historic buildings around the square include a small turn-of-the-century farmhouse, a barn, the old post office, and one of the four original jail cells. All open same hours as Courthouse Museum.

COURTHOUSE MUSEUM—Helena's abandoned courthouse is now a museum of area history with early trail, ranch and home artifacts, tools and implements. Upstairs area features early courtroom setting. Schoolroom setting recalls days when building was used as a school, 1894 - 1945. Open Tues. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

HIDALGO

Pop. 7,322 Alt. 95 Map Z-16/DD-16

GENERAL—Hidalgo is on the Rio Grande south of McAllen in southern Hidalgo County at the junction of Texas 336 and U.S. 281. Members of José de Escandón's colony settled in the area as early as 1749. Over the years the course of the Rio Grande forced residents to move the town's buildings inland. For half a century, 1852-1902, the city served as the county seat, before the county government was moved to Edinburg. The first international toll suspension bridge was constructed in 1926 to Mexico's border city Reynosa. Today, the Hidalgo-McAllen-Reynosa International Bridge is one of the major ports of entry in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, serving 11 million people within a 250-mile radius.

The Valley's subtropical climate attracts outdoor enthusiasts year-round. Golfers can choose from the area's numerous courses. Nearby wildlife refuges host birders from throughout the world.

For information on accommodations, dining facilities, and events, stop by the Hidalgo Chamber of Commerce at 611 E. Coma St., or call 956/843-2734.

HIDALGO PUMPHOUSE HERITAGE & DISCOVERY CENTER—Restored historic structure offers a hands-on experience and includes exhibits on the effects of irrigation on the Lower Rio Grande Valley. It contains the only remaining steam pumps in the nation, and is listed as a National Register of Historic Places Landmark and a Texas Recorded Historic Landmark. When the pumps were built in 1909, the landscape was dotted with horses and cows. After the pumps began distributing water to some 72,000 farms, agriculture boomed and the scenery changed from vast ranchland to a garden of orchards and cotton fields. Open Tues. - Fri. 11 a.m. - 6 p.m., Sun. 2 - 6 p.m. At 902 S. 2nd St. For information call 956/843-8686. Admission fee.

KILLER BEE—The discovery of the first Africanized bee in the United States was found just outside Hidalgo in 1990. The fiberglass and steel insect, originally built as a float for Hidalgo's Borderfest Parade, now sits adjacent to city offices at 704 E. Texano.

REYNOSA, MEXICO—Reynosa is a charming Mexican city just across the Rio Grande. Several fine restaurants long famed for elaborate wild-game dinners; occasional Sun. afternoon bullfights. Gift shops cater to U.S. visitors with wealth of handicraft items in the Zona Rosa, and in traditional Mexican market in midtown. Several hotels offer van service to and from International Bridge. Access via Texas 336 to McAllen-Hidalgo-Reynosa International Bridge.

Another popular destination for Mexico-bound visitors is Monterrey. The drive is easy thanks to the new Autopista, an excellent highway from Reynosa straight into the heart of the city.

LAREDO

Pop. 176,576 Alt. 438 Map V-14/MM-20

GENERAL—Rich in south-of-the-border flavor, city is the major international crossing along U.S. - Mexican border. Established by Spanish land grant 1755; became county seat when Webb County organized in 1848. City has served under seven flags. Today this bustling border city, known as the Gateway to Mexico, has a diversified economy stemming from such sources as retail and wholesale consumer products, importing and exporting (Laredo is nation's largest inland port), petroleum and natural gas, feeds and fertilizers, brick and tile, and visitors from both sides of Rio Grande. Laredo Community College and Texas A&M International Univ. call Laredo home.

Recent "maquiladora" industry, a binational manufacturing system where U.S. products are assembled in plants on the Mexican side, is prominent in Laredo and Nuevo Laredo.

Since 1898, the Washington's Birthday Celebration has honored George Washington as first Western Hemisphere leader to free a New World country from the dominion of European rule; 16-day February fiesta celebrated on both sides of the border includes parades, fireworks, dances, and impressive Abrazo coronation ceremony on International Bridge II. Festivities strengthen friendly ties between Texas and Mexico.

For more information on dining, lodging, and area events, contact the Laredo Convention and Visitors Bureau at 800/361-3360 or visit www.visitlaredo.com.

FORT MCINTOSH—Established by Army in 1848 immediately following Mexican War, fort was in continuous use until May 1946. It was originally among series of border forts guarding against attacks and was base for border patrol. Laredo Community College now on grounds. The old guardhouse, chapel, warehouse, living quarters, infirmary, commander's house, and commissary remain in use as college department facilities and housing for faculty and students. The original earthen fort is now part of the Paso Del Indio Nature Trail. West End of Washington St. on banks of Rio Grande.

LAKE CASA BLANCA INTERNATIONAL STATE PARK—371-acre park near eastern city limits on the Bob Bullock Loop (Loop 20), just north of U.S. 59.

Picnic facilities, RV facilities, camping, rest rooms, dump station, boat ramp, and fishing pier. The 1,656-acre lake is among the state's best for largemouth bass fishing and is also an excellent spot for birding and wildlife watching. 800/792-1112.

LAKES—Casa Blanca, Falcon. See LAKES listing.

LAMAR BRUNI VERGARA ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE CENTER—

Away from the hustle and bustle of the downtown area on the campus of Laredo Community College, this oasis offers a learning experience about plants and animals found in the Rio Grande Watershed. Four outdoor ponds feature a breeding pair of American alligators in one area, large gar, catfish and bass in another, one with five species of turtles, and another featuring a wetland area where young alligators are placed. The planted area includes more than 50 types of native vegetation numbered for easy identification. A cactus garden, wildflower hill, and two areas of South Texas brush plants can also be examined. Indoors, species of fish, amphibians, reptiles and rodents are displayed in aquaria and terraria. Open 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. during the college's class days and Sat. 9 a.m. - Noon on Laredo Community College Campus at West End Washington St. For information, call 956/764-5701. Admission fee.

LAREDO CENTER FOR THE ARTS—Houses galleries that present changing exhibits of work by local, national, and international artists. Open Tues. - Fri. 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Sun. 1 - 5 p.m. At 500 San Agustín. 956/725-1715.

Map Y-16/CC-16

GENERAL—McAllen is in Texas' lush lower Rio Grande Valley, noted for subtropical climate, access to Mexico and tourist facilities catering to thousands of summer and winter visitors. It's a great destination for birders and other nature-oriented visitors. Many Midwesterners and Canadians spend entire winter here, strolling amid blossoming citrus groves. Mobile home parks and tourism organizations cater to visitors with planned daily activities such as dances, tours, bridge, domino and shuffleboard tournaments, shows, and concerts. Economy based on tourism, citrus, vegetables, oil, gas, international trade with Mexico and conventions that enjoy extensive facilities.

Outdoor activities are enjoyed year-round due to the subtropical climate. Golf is very popular and there are numerous courses available.

This area is one of the best birding locations in the entire country. Several wildlife refuges and state parks offer excellent bird watching activities. The McAllen Marsh on Idela St. is a popular place for birding when the ponds are full. Birders often see grebes, black terns, and black-necked stilts. Flocks of red-crowned parrots and green parakeets are frequently seen and heard throughout the city, including the unique setting at La Quinta Mazatlan. Debate ensues over whether the birds are escapees or have been pushed to the northern reaches of their habitat. Nonetheless, they are thriving in McAllen. Best time to find them is at dusk.

Several citrus groves and fruit and vegetable growers offer tours. The McAllen Information Center can provide the information and location.

Shoppers find La Placita a great place to shop in renovated historic houses in the downtown area at 301 South Main St. Antique hunters enjoy several good antique stores sprinkled throughout the city, many specializing in Mexican antiques and furnishings.

INTERNATIONAL MUSEUM OF ART & SCIENCE—The city's 'edutainment center' for collections featuring Mexican folk art, colorful masks, and costumes in Ethnography Gallery. Museum also features paintings and sculptures, as well as exhibits on science and natural history. New is the Discovery Pavilion, a hands-on exhibit for the whole family. MERCEDES

Pop. 13,649 Alt. 61 Map Z-17

GENERAL—Mercedes refers to itself as “Queen City of the Valley” or “La Reina del Valle.” It is one of the oldest towns in the Rio Grande Valley. The townsite was first located two miles east of the present site and named Lonsboro by Lon C. Hill, who had been active in bringing St. Louis and New York financiers to the area to look into land and irrigation possibilities. The present site in southern Hidalgo County was part of the Capisallo Ranch, and is named for Mercedes Díaz, wife of Porfirio Díaz, president of Mexico.

Today, Mercedes is a center for agriculture and varied industries, and it is well known for custom-made boots. The city’s proximity to the Gulf of Mexico and Mexico offer abundant recreational opportunities.

More than 100 native and indigenous shrubs and trees were planted on the Mercedes Civic Center grounds by volunteer Fleet Lentz for Texas’ 150th Anniversary. Visitors, as well as school children, often visit the site to see the collection of native plants found in the surrounding four counties. The Center is at 530 E. 2nd St.

For information on historical markers, dining, accommodations, and events, contact the Mercedes Chamber of Commerce at 956/565-2221 or stop by the office at 316 S. Ohio St.

DOLL DISPLAY—More than 500 dolls from 40 countries are displayed in the city’s municipal building. The collection includes dolls from 11 tribes of native Americans, former presidents, and several movie stars. Some dolls date back to 1890. In the Mercedes Municipal Building at 400 South Ohio St. Open Mon. - Fri. 8:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

VINTAGE FARM EQUIPMENT MUSEUM—Outside display of vintage farm equipment is displayed third week in March and for special events. The museum is on the Rio Grande Valley Livestock Show grounds at 1000 North Texas Ave. For information, call the chamber of commerce at 956/565-2221.

MISSION

GENERAL—In Jim Wells County, the townsite was part of the Ventana Ranch. In 1889 when the railroad reached the area, ranch owners donated land to the railroad for a stop on the ranch. In 1908, 2,500 acres of land were cut from the ranch lands for the development of the town. A large portion of the land was sold to German settlers from other predominantly German Texas towns. Town named for the growing citrus industry in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Today, prime farms and ranching facilities sustain the economy. Year-round hunting opportunities abound in the area. Nearby lakes and the Texas coast provide excellent boating and fishing facilities.

For additional information on events, accommodations and restaurants, contact the Orange Grove Chamber of Commerce at 361/384-1300.

ORANGE GROVE AREA MUSEUM—Historic artifacts and other memorabilia recall the history and German influence in the area. Exhibits include a replica of an early dry-goods store, the old post office front from the 1920s, and one of the first pianos to arrive in the area in the early 1800s (It has only 85 keys.) Open Thurs. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. At 119 S Eugenia St. For information, call 361/384-2231.

PANNA MARIA

Pop. 96 (est.) Alt. 175 Map S-16

GENERAL—On the National Register of Historic Places as the oldest permanent Polish settlement in America; is certainly the mother of Polish settlements in Texas. Established Dec. 1854 by Polish Catholics; because of a deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary, immigrants named their new town Panna Maria, meaning Virgin Mary in Polish. Early years of the colony were severely difficult, plagued by disease, climate extremes and outlaws who infested the region. Neighboring cowboys often ridiculed the strange, non-English-speaking foreigners. The community established the first Polish school in the United States, and other villages like Cestohowa, Pawelekville and Kosciusko sprang from this original settlement.

Today, the older generation still speaks an antiquated Silesian dialect (difficult for modern Polish speakers to understand), but Polish is no longer taught in local schools, and the language is being lost.

Visit the community cemetery and Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, topped by a cross carried from Poland by the original colonists more than a century ago. During the renovation of the church in 2000, the old painted ceiling was restored. The church is open daily. A museum near the church may be visited by request at the visitors' center. Southeast of San Antonio, just off Texas 123 between Stockdale and Karnes City; near Helena ghost town (see HELENA).

PANNA MARIA VISITORS' CENTER—Administered by the Panna Maria Historical Society, the center is housed in the 1875 Pilarczyk Store. Souvenirs, handmade crafts, religious articles, local foods, as well as information and guided tours are available. A bed and breakfast facility is available in a convent no longer used by the nuns. Visitors' Center hours Wed. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., and Sun. 2 - 4 p.m. For information, 830/780-4471.

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL MUSEUM—Housed in the oldest Polish school in the U.S.; artifacts (many from 19th-century Poland) depict life of Polish pioneers. The second floor was originally a convent for the teaching nuns. A project is under way to raise funds to restore the entire building. Museum may be visited by request at the Visitors' Center.

GENERAL—Founded in 1765, part of José de Escandón's Colony, around mission established 16 years earlier. On banks of Rio Grande, town was important riverboat shipping point until coming of railroads and highways. (Rio Grande is no longer navigable.) Homes, stores and ancient mission resemble town lifted bodily from interior of Mexico. Producers of film "Viva Zapata" chose Roma for outdoor scenes.

The Roma National Historic Landmark District encompasses most of the original townsite and highlights 38 identified historical structures and features that date between 1848 and 1928. The Conservation Fund, representing The Meadows Foundation, was joined by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. to form the Roma Restoration Project to restore historical buildings and to accomplish as much of the work as possible with local craftspeople. Although not open to the public, the buildings and restoration work can be viewed from the city's plaza.

GENERAL—In 1718, at an Indian village at the southern edge of the Texas Hill Country, Spain established Mission San Antonio de Valero (later called the Alamo). A customary accompanying presidio (fort), San Antonio de Bexar (Bay-her), protected mission endeavors. Today's city and county names derive from those 18th-century Spanish beginnings that predate founding of the United States by more than half a century.

Institutions of higher learning include the University of the Incarnate Word, Our Lady of the Lake Univ., St. Mary's Univ., National Univ. of Mexico, Trinity Univ., San Antonio College, Palo Alto College, St. Philip's College, Univ. of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, and the Univ. of Texas at San Antonio.

Some popular events include the the Holiday River Parade and Lighting Ceremony in Dec., the Texas Folklife Festival in Jun., the San Antonio Livestock Show and Rodeo in mid-Feb., the Starving Artists Show held at La Villita and along the River Walk each Easter, and the San Antonio New World Wine and Food Festival each fall.

Fiesta San Antonio spans 10 days the third and fourth weeks of Apr. This major event includes art exhibitions, coronation of King Antonio, Pilgrimage to the Alamo, concerts, parades, "Night in Old San Antonio" festival and more.

For literature and details about city attractions and events, and for a schedule of the San Antonio Streetcars—an inexpensive, fun way to get to many of the city's downtown attractions—see VISITOR INFORMATION.

The Nelson W. Wolff Municipal Baseball Stadium is the home for the San Antonio Missions. The beautiful facility is at Callaghan Rd. and U.S. 90 West. For schedule and ticket information, call 210/675-7275.

San Antonio is noted for excellent golf courses with numerous municipal courses throughout the city. The newest are the Palmer Course at La Cantera, La Cantera Golf Course near Six Flags Fiesta Texas and the Quarry Golf Course, 444 E. Basse Rd. For more golfing information, call the San Antonio Convention and Visitors Bureau at 210/207-6748 or 800/ALAMO-07.

THE ALAMO—The most famous spot in Texas, where 189 defenders fell on March 6, 1836, after repeated attacks by Mexican General Santa Anna's army. Mission San Antonio de Valero (The Alamo) was established in 1718 as the city's first mission. The highly-photographed chapel and the Long Barrack are all that remain of the original fort. The museum contains relics and mementos from the Republic of Texas and offers narrations on the fall of the Alamo.

The Alamo is open Mon. - Sat. 9 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.; Sun. 10 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. Closed Dec. 24 and 25; restricted hours Mar. 6. Alamo Plaza. For information, call 210/225-1391, or visit www.thealamo.org.

ALAMO CENOTAPH—Dominating the plaza in front of the Alamo, the monument was designed by Pompeo Coppini, eminent Italian-born sculptor who adopted Texas as his home. Names of those who died at the Alamo are inscribed in marble.

MISSIONS OF SAN ANTONIO—In addition to the Alamo, which is managed by the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, four other San Antonio missions form the San Antonio Missions National Historical Park. They were established by Franciscan friars in the early 18th century. A map for the "Mission Trail" driving route (signed on city streets) is available from the Visitor Information Center. All missions are open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

Mission Nuestra Señora de la Purísima Concepción—Established in 1731, more than 20 years under construction. Massive church with twin towers and cupola is oldest unrestored stone church in U.S., standing as completed in 1755. Church acoustics are equated with the Mormon Tabernacle. 807 Mission Rd.

Mission San Francisco de la Espada—Also established 1731, favorite of many students and popular with photographers. The little church building, restored several times, is still in use. Ruins of walls that once surrounded the mission compound; foundations of a granary; baluarte, or fortified tower, can still be seen. Near the mission is an aqueduct over Piedras Creek, part of mission's irrigation system built in 1740s. System includes dam on San Antonio River and acequia (irrigation ditch) still in use after more than 200 years. The aqueduct is a National Historic Landmark.

Mission San José y San Miguel de Aguayo—Known as the "Queen of Missions," is both a State and National Historic Site. Founded 1720; church built between 1768-82. Entire mission compound has been restored. Visitors are fascinated by rich facade of domed church, and by sculptured exterior of sacrist window known as "the Rose Window," or "Rosa's Window." 6701 San José Dr. at Mission Rd. Visitor center open daily 9 a.m. - 5 p.m., except for Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day. For information, call 210/932-1001.

Mission San Juan Capistrano—Like both Espada and Concepción, established 1731. Besides charming little chapel with open bell tower, there are ruins of a larger church that was never completed. Restored missionary residence displays artifacts from Spanish colonial period. Church still serves community of Berg's Mill, now part of city. Graf Rd. off Mission Rd.

MONARCH COLLECTIBLES—Dolls of every description can be found in the quaint Queen Anne-style house. More than 3,000 dolls on display. Miniature doll houses, furniture, and accessories. Open Tues. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. At 2012 NW Military Hwy. For information, call 800/648-3655 or 210/341-3655.

Map Y-16/CC-17

GENERAL—In irrigated valley of Rio Grande on Missouri Pacific Railroad; organized 1909, name derived from Spanish name given town organizer John Closner. One of South's largest plants for manufacture of concrete irrigation pipe is here. Colorful banks of scarlet bougainvillea edge the highway. On special days, San Juan invites visitors to "pick a grapefruit" free.

Bed and breakfast accommodations offered in historic buildings.

SHRINE OF LA VIRGEN DE SAN JUAN DEL VALLE—An elaborate Catholic church, completed in 1954, included many imported objects of art. It was destroyed by fire after an airplane crash (apparently deliberate) in 1970. A wooden statue of Our Lady of San Juan was, however, undamaged. Ten years later the small statue was placed in a new shrine built mostly from small contributions. North of downtown on Business U.S. 83 and Raul Longoria Rd.

GENERAL—Earliest civilized settlement in present Zapata County was Hacienda Dolores founded by José Vasquez Borrego in 1750. (Ruins designated a state historic site.) Other sites found throughout county. Town was named in honor of Antonio Zapata, Mexican army officer and fierce fighter. When the historic old town on banks of Rio Grande was flooded by Falcon Reservoir, new Zapata was built on U.S. 83. Zapata is the site of ranching, oil and natural gas production.

Zapata joins Texas under six flags, but also boasts a seventh flag, the Republic of the Rio Grande, to fly over the area from Mar. - Apr. 1840.

Inquire locally about the nature conservatory, which rescues and rehabilitates birds and animals.

The shores of Lake Falcon are perfect for birdwatching. Almost any prized birds on any birder's list can be seen here. The white-collared seedeater is a rare prize. Also found are the Green Jay, Kiskadee Flycatcher, and the fall migration of Hummingbirds.

For information on events, accommodations, and other area attractions, call the Zapata County Chamber of Commerce at or 800/292-LAKE (5253) or 956/765-4871, or visit www.zapatausa.com. E-mail: zapatachamber@sbcglobal.net.

SO MUCH TO SEE AND DO at Texas State Parks and State Historic Sites—more than 100 parks for you to explore.

TEXAS! The very name calls forth heroic images of wide open plains, bison roaming freely, western forts, Longhorn cattle and deep forests. Camp by a lake, hike in the mountains, go fishing and birdwatching. Stay in a cozy cabin, guest room, lodge or bed and breakfast. See deer, raccoons and sometimes an armadillo in Texas State Parks.

TEXAS STATE PARK CAMPGROUNDS offer a range of amenities, from full-hookups to wilderness camping. The improved camping areas have restrooms with flush toilets and hot showers. Some primitive camping areas do have self-composting toilets but no showers. Wilderness areas offer trails and maps but no utilities—those operate on the principle of “pack-it-in, pack-it-out.”

IMPROVED CAMP SITES have utilities, a tent pad or trailer parking pad, a picnic table and fire ring. Many also include a grill standing waist-high as well as a pole with a lantern hook.

READ ABOUT each Texas State Park in this book. They are listed under the name of the nearest town—see the charts on the following pages for that information. The chart also gives you phone numbers and details regarding the facilities.

TEXAS STATE PARKS CHARGE entry fees for each adult over 13, tour fees for historic sites, camping fees, and fees for group dining halls or other facilities.

TEXAS STATE PARKLANDS PASSPORT offers free state park entrance to everyone who reached 65 before September 1, 1995, and to veterans with a 60 percent or greater disability. Texas residents who were 65 after September 1, 1995, pay discounted entry fees, while nonresidents pay the regular prices if their 65th birthday occurred after September 1, 1995.

Texas State Parks often match National Parks for beauty and sheer outdoor adventure, but are not part of the National Parks System. For that reason, they do not accept passes or passports from the National Parks.

HUNTING AND FISHING IN TEXAS

Hunting and fishing in Texas rank with the best in the nation.

The variety of fish and game is great, and is often abundant.

Anglers may try more than 5,175 square miles of inland freshwater creeks, rivers and lakes, plus scores of tidal bays and 624 miles of shoreline along the Gulf of Mexico.

Freshwater game fish include black bass (largemouth, smallmouth, Guadalupe, spotted bass), crappie, bluegill and other sunfish, white or sand bass, striped bass, hybrid striped bass, and catfish including channel, blue and flathead (yellow).

Along the Gulf Coast some 250 different species await lure or bait. Among the most popular are redfish, speckled trout, king and Spanish mackerel, wahoo, bonito, tuna, sailfish, marlin, pompano, flounder, grouper, jewfish, red snapper, sheepshead and drum.

The feature Texas game animal is the white-tailed deer, found almost statewide, but most densely in the Hill Country of Central Texas. Mule deer and pronghorns are found in West Texas and the Panhandle. Other wild animals include javelinas, wild boars, feral hogs and squirrels.

Game birds include a great variety of migratory waterfowl that winter in Texas, plus wild turkey, bobwhite and blue quail, mourning, white-tipped, and white-winged doves, pheasants, prairie chickens, sandhill cranes and chachalacas.

Hunting in Texas can be very rewarding, though requiring some special arrangements for the nonresident. Texas has four large areas of public lands (national forests) in the eastern part of the state freely accessible for hunting.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department offers a variety of public hunting opportunities on more than one million acres of land under its control in which people may participate either through purchase of an annual permit, daily permit, or selection in a drawing.

Public hunting information is available from the Parks & Wildlife Dept. by calling toll-free in Texas 800/792-1112 or 512/389-4505 for nonresidents.

TEXAS STATE FORESTS

Texas' five state forests are managed by the Texas Forest Service, a member of the Texas A&M Univ. System. They display modern forestry practices and techniques, as well as provide an outdoor educational arena for students and adults.

State forests are wildlife refuges; hunting is prohibited. Fishing is permitted in designated areas. No overnight camping permitted in any state forest.

The Forest Service operates Indian Mound Nursery on Texas 21, near Alto, which provides some 20 million pine and hardwood seedlings annually to private landowners for reforestation practices.

For information about state forests, urban and rural issues, environmental education, wildlife preparedness, emergency management and office locations, visit texasforests.tamu.edu.

 ☆ Electrical hookups on selected sites at Ratcliff and Red Hill Lake. ☆ No Motors Allowed

Referred to collectively as the National Forests and Grasslands in Texas, the Angelina, Sabine, Davy Crockett, and Sam Houston National Forests are in the heavily forested "Piney Woods" of East Texas, and the Caddo and Lyndon B. Johnson (LBJ) National Grasslands are in north and northeast Texas. The forests and grasslands are comprised of 63,675,658 acres of federally owned land scattered throughout 15 counties. The U.S. Forest Service manages the National Forests and Grasslands following standards, guidelines, and objectives in the land management plan. Recreation, timber, water, forage, wildlife and wilderness resources are part of the coordinated, balanced plan. Primitive camping is allowed in all areas except where posted. Some areas have loops with electricity; however water or sewer hookups are provided only in the Double Lake Recreation Area in the Sam Houston National Forest. Hunting and fishing in National Forests is regulated by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. Developed recreation areas have varying facilities as shown in the chart. Fee areas require self-deposit of fees for overnight camping or day use of areas. Some areas have been designated as "wilderness areas" for those desiring a totally primitive camping experience. No wheeled vehicles of any kind are permitted in the wilderness areas.

Angelina National Forest—Smallest with 153,179 acres in Angelina, Jasper, Nacogdoches and San Augustine Counties, with nine recreational areas (including trails).
Davy Crockett National Forest—160,653 acres in Houston and Trinity Counties, containing six recreational areas.
Sabine National Forest—Includes 160,656 acres in Jasper, Sabine, San Augustine, Newton and Shelby Counties with nine recreational areas.
Sam Houston National Forest—162,984 acres in Montgomery, San Jacinto and Walker Counties with seven recreational areas.
