

Media Relations Contact:
Morgan Lyons
Mark A. Ball

April 26, 2012

DART completes first test run of Blue Line extension to Rowlett

DART successfully completed the first test run of the five-mile Blue Line extension linking Garland and Rowlett on Wednesday, April 25. The extension of DART's Blue Line is scheduled to open December 3. DART will test the new line section several times each day leading up to the opening. Pedestrians and motorists near the tracks and crossings need to be on the lookout for trains.

[web-archive version includes media]

Click here to view a photo slide show of the first test run of the Blue Line extension to Rowlett from Wednesday, April 25.

(Opens in a new window)

Click here to download a high resolution JPG of this photo