The Collin County Genealogical Society meets on the second Wednesday of each month, September through June, at the W. O. Haggard, Jr. Library, on Coit Rd, between Park and Parker Roads, Plano, Texas at 6:30 p.m.

Individual Membership is $25.00 per year. All memberships start July 1, and include a one year subscription to the Society's publication - the Collin Chronicles and its newsletter.

COLLIN COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

PURPOSE: The Collin County Genealogy Society is a non-profit, educational society created to foster and maintain interest in genealogy among citizens of Collin County and surrounding areas. Out of state members with Collin County ancestors are encouraged to join. The Society publishes and disseminates genealogical and historical information to the public and assists the Haggard Library in acquisition of genealogical and historical research material. Through monthly meetings and other activities, the society encourages the exchange of ideas and helps its members to develop efficient methods for genealogical and historical research.

MEMBERSHIP & DUES: Membership runs yearly from July 1. Dues are payable at that time, $25 for an individual, which entitles you to one set of publications and one vote, or a married couple may pay $27 which entitles you to one set of publications but two votes. Non-voting spouses are always welcome to attend meetings.

COMMENTS AND SUGGESTIONS: The society welcomes letters from members about its publications and activities. The address is: Collin County Genealogical Society, P O Box 865052, Plano TX 75086-5052. Queries are free, and encouraged. Non-members may also submit queries which will be published as space permits.

LIBRARY: Periodicals received from other societies on an exchange basis, books and manuscripts presented to the society and books sent for review in COLLIN CHRONICLES are placed in the W.O. Haggard, Jr. Library, Plano, Texas for use by the general public

PUBLICATIONS: The COLLIN CHRONICLES, dedicated to preserving the historical records of Collin County and surrounding counties, is mailed or emailed to all members, and to exchange societies. Write to the Society for information on availability of back issues.

The newsletter is mailed to members and other societies. It contains notification of upcoming events, timely material from local societies, general research information, available materials from area libraries, spotlighting members, and other news. The option to download them is also available.

MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION: The society solicits unpublished Collin County related material. Emphasis is placed on source material, such as: Bible records, Church and Lodge records, Cemetery and Funeral Home records, Military records, Newspaper clippings, obituaries, old letters, maps and diaries, school, tax, voter and jury lists. In submitting Bible records, please send photocopies, including the title page and a typed copy of the record, in addition to a brief sketch about the family. Members may also submit their ahnentafel charts for publication, whether they have a Collin County connection or not. The editor reserves the right to edit all material. Submitted material may be returned if requested and accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope, otherwise it becomes the property of the society.

ADDRESS CHANGES: When you move, please send new address, including 9-digit zip code, as soon as possible.

Newspaper Obituaries Collected from Celina, Texas

The "Newspaper Obituaries Collected from Celina, Texas" will include obituaries from the 1900s through 2010 and was submitted to CCGS by Gayle Maxson, author of three Collin County cemetery books:

1. The people of Cottage Hill Cemetery. Denton, Texas: G. Maxson (1999)
2. The people of Old Celina Cemetery, Celina, Texas. Decorah, IA: Anundsen Pub. (2002)
3. Cottage Hill Cemetery, Collin County, Texas. Decorah, IA: Anundsen Pub. (2004)

*A large portion of the obituaries were clipped from old Collin County newspapers by Juanita (Francis) Maxson, Gayle's deceased mother-in-law. Jane Huddleston at the Celina Heritage Museum allowed Gayle to transcribe six scrapbooks full of old obituaries (cut out and pasted with no documentation by persons long deceased). The Celina Record newspaper began publishing weekly in 1902. Papers from 1923-1924 are missing from the collection. Thanks Gayle for preserving, consolidating, organizing and sharing this historical content!

Ben Alan Hawkins: In a heroic attempt to save two people from a motel swimming pool that had become electrified, Ben Alan Hawkins, 25, grandson of Wanda Powell from Celina, Texas, died Monday, June 17, 1991 in Orange, Texas. Mr. Hawkins lived in Vidor, Texas and was a cook at a Days Inn in Orange, Texas. According to the Associated Press account, a Louisiana man and his family were at the motel and when the man's three children entered the pool, they began screaming. Two of the children managed to get out of the pool, but the third did not leave the water. The father jumped in and tried to save the child and lost consciousness. It was at that point Mr. Hawkins entered the water and attempted to rescue the father and daughter. The father was in serious condition in an Orange, Texas hospital and Mr. Hawkins was dead on arrival at the hospital. Reports said an electrical maintenance crew had worked on the pool's lighting the day before, and after the accident, police discovered a neutral ground wire had been connected to a live circuit that served the pool's lights. As a result, about 110 volts of electricity were present in one of the underground pool light covers. (The Celina Record, Celina, Texas, Thursday, June 27, 1991)

(The Celina Record, Celina, Texas, Thursday, July 12, 1990) (2) Popular CHS grad perishes in fall by Dave Lewis: What began as a July fourth celebration among family and friends ended in tragedy last week when the body of Miles Miller, 19, was discovered at the foot of an abandoned water tower near Anna, Texas where he apparently fell to his death after climbing the tower to shoot fireworks. A 1989 graduate of Celina High School, Miller was respected and well-liked by friends and teachers alike. "It's just a shame," said CHS principal Eddie Burkett. "I'd never known him to show any kind of negative or despondent behavior, and if I know Miles, he probably climbed the tower to look at the moon or watch fireworks and just slipped or lost his balance and fell." Mr. Burkett said his family had joined the Miller family the afternoon of July 4 for a fish fry at the Miller home near Anna. Several of Miles' friends from Celina and Anna were there, including Miller's roommate from Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, where Miles had just completed his first year of college. Later in the evening, the group of young men went to another part of the Miller farm to shoot off fireworks and that was the last time Mr. Burkett said he saw Miles. Miller's body was discovered about 5 p.m. the next day by a Sherman man searching the U. S. Hwy 75 right-of-way for cans to recycle. According to Collin County Medical Examiner William Rohr, death was caused by multiple injuries caused by the fall. Collin County Sheriff's Sgt. Anthony Hancock said fireworks were found atop the 25 foot tower, and more were found in Miller's auto, parked nearby. Funeral services were held Saturday, July 7, 1990 at First Christian Church in Anna where he was a member. His parents, Virgil and Jan Miller, have taught at Celina High School for several years. Mr. Miller having retired as high school principal this May. Young Miller was twice the recipient of the Fighting Heart Award, presented annually to the Celina athlete who best exemplifies the indomitable spirit and determination that characterize a winner. He excelled in football, baseball and track at CHS. He was a starter on the state quarter finals football champion Bobcats team and was on the CHS sprint relay at the state track meet in Austin his senior year. Miller also participated in UIL academics competition and received a local scholarship to attend college. "Miles was the kind of person who all he did was brighten everybody's day," said Mr. Burkett. "It's just hard to believe he's gone." (The Celina Record, Celina, Texas, Thursday, July 12, 1990)
