products.

(b) Not later than August 1, 2010, the board shall submit to

Each day a violation continues constitutes a separate violation.

(e) The amount of the penalty shall be based on:

1. the seriousness of the violation;
2. the history of previous violations;
3. the amount necessary to deter a future violation;

and

4. any other matter that justice may require.

(f) The board or the attorney general may sue to collect a civil penalty under this section. In the suit the state may recover the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the penalty, including investigation and court costs, reasonable attorney's fees, witness fees, and other expenses.

Act does not receive the vote necessary for immediate effect, this
