

PROCLAMATION
BY THE
Governor of the State of Texas

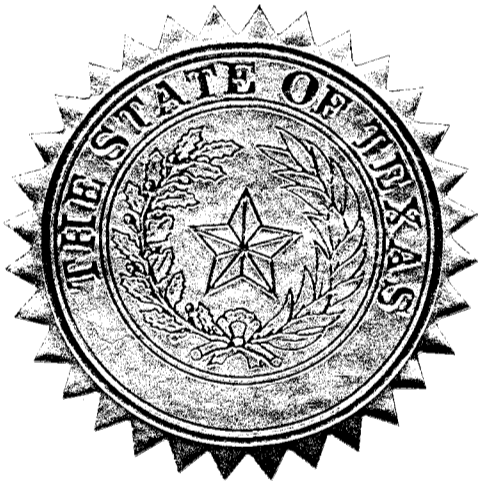

41-3219

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 14, of the Texas Constitution, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby disapprove of and veto Senate Bill No. 2325 as passed by the Eighty-first Texas Legislature, Regular Session, because of the following objections:

Senate Bill No. 2325 would make "confidential and privileged" all discussions, thought processes and individual votes of members of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct; discussions or thought processes of employees and special counsel of the commission; and identity of a confidential complainant or informant. As the protections the commission needs in order to perform its duties are already provided in law, I am vetoing Senate Bill No. 2325.

Since the Legislature by its adjournment has prevented the return of this bill, I am filing these objections in the office of the Secretary of State and giving notice thereof by this public proclamation according to the aforementioned constitutional provision.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 19th day of June, 2009.

Rick Perry
