

Richmond, Nov. 8th 1864
J. C. Davis Esq
Dr Sir

The cotton you send in is too late to pay the fifth of the crop of 1863. as you have forfeited the privilege to pay in kind as the estimates have been turned over to the collector of the money taxes;

I have advised the boy to put the cotton into Mr Lyons cotton yard instead of having it baled. Some

The 11 Bales sent some time ago for the Section Office is of the Dogtail brand and is rejected. It is offered to Mr. Miller to burn it
