W^m M. Rice, Esq,

Sir,

On the arrival of Col Camp last night he requested me to examine the bills again and see whether any goods marked for you could be found. We carefully examined all the trunks last night excepting the fancy shirt trunks but was unable to find it until this am. & on examining the trunks for shirts found the parcel I send you by Express to-day. This is all the goods for you I can find. The cases received Saturday contained shoes boots & hats.

Hoping this is satisfactory
I remain

Very respectfully
