It has been a tradition to write an introduction to the yearbook and entitle it "Foreword", but before we can look forward, let us reflect on the past, the 1970's.

Ideas have bred theories and these are now accomplishments of an advancing people. Some found peace and prestige in self-defined success, while others searched and dreamed in vain. The misguided and disillusioned shocked a negligent society with widespread murder and terrorism.

To have lived through the 70's is to experience joy for the athlete who achieved perfection, sorrow for the leader who stepped down in shame and to feel compassion for those who survived disasters and tragedies. Events of the 70's will linger in our memories for as long as we live.

In looking forward, one can see that we at Panola are the 80's — all memories of tomorrow will rest on decisions we make. We are the leaders of the future and time will tell whether we have grown wiser as a result of the past.

Therefore, we at Panola are responsible for making tomorrow's memories. But before we take that giant step into a new decade, let's pause a moment and remember 1979 at PJC.

In Dedication To . . .

This year the Pony Staff wishes to recognize a very valuable member of the PJC Family.

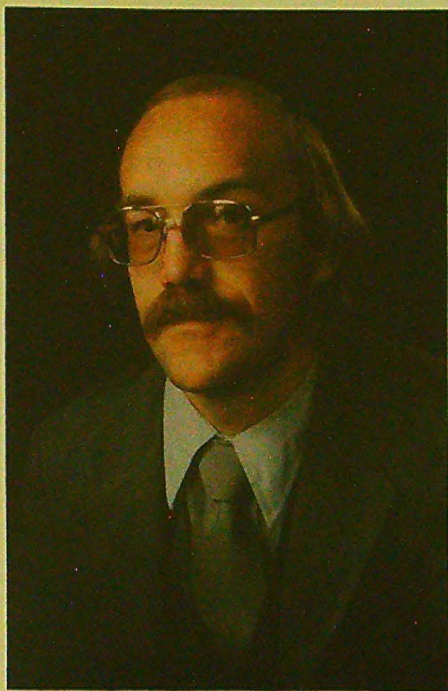

Charles Langlotz is more than the college's business manager. He is an educator, a dependable co-worker and a friend to faculty and students alike.

It is because Mr. Langlotz gives so unselfishly to all of us that we dedicate the 1980 PONY to him.

Who's Who

Each year students who have made outstanding contributions to the scholastic or social life of Panola Junior College are honored with inclusion in 'Who's Who Among Students In American Junior Colleges.'

This national honor comes to these students through the nominations of both students and faculty members. After nominations are complete, a faculty committee makes the final selections. Those selected are then approved by the staff of the national publication.

Those selected this year have all made superior academic records. Some have been exceptionally active in campus life and the group includes actresses, editors, singers, athletes and even busy mothers.

Included this year in 'Who's Who' are Valerie Anderson, David Carroll, Rick Eberlan, Mark Farrar, Glenda Fisher, Tanya Grissom, Rhonda Haynes, Leonard Hill, Hayward Johns, Doris Johnson, Rhonda Leach, Annette Lister, Parti McGinn, Joe McMillan, Larry Nichols, Drew Nixon, Barbara Perk, Teresa Sepaugh, Dianne Tomlin, Charles Townes, Susi Wall, Karon Williams, Charles Worley and Rob Yuergens.

Phi Theta Kappa Sponsors PJC's First Honors Banquet

For the first time, PJC's Phi Theta Kappa organization sponsored an Honors Banquet, saluting the outstanding academic students at the college. Faculty members and students were entertained by the PJC Pipers and Tarum Mayor Cecil Williams was the featured speaker. Bill O'Neal, PTK sponsor, said that hopefully the banquet will become another PJC tradition.
