New scratch off has players shouting,

Everyone is familiar with the game of Bingo. From our memories as children playing the game with friends, we know what fun it is to try to match our cards to the letters and numbers called and finding that we could shout, "Bingo!"

And now you can have the opportunity to experience that fun once again, thanks to the Texas Lottery, as it unveils its latest scratch-off game, Bingo.

"We're very excited to introduce a Bingo game to our players," says Stephanie Reber, the Texas Lottery's Instant Product Manager. "Other states have been successful with this type of game, and since we're entering a realm of extended play scratch games, we felt it was the appropriate time for Bingo to debut."

Beginning June 23, you can purchase your own Bingo scratch-off tickets. The $2 game includes four Bingo "cards," as well as a "Caller's Card" box, on each individual ticket. Each "Caller's Card" box contains 25 Bingo numbers (e.g., B4, N40, etc.) that you match to the four cards to make either a line, four corners, or an 'X' pattern. You'll have a chance to win on each card, up to four times on every ticket, with a top prize of $25,000!

In addition, the Bingo scratch game promotes Charitable Bingo in Texas. You can call the toll-free number (1-800-48-TEXAS) printed on each ticket and find the Bingo hall closest to you so you can enjoy playing Charitable Bingo, as well.

Bingo is the latest in the Lottery's new line of extended play games, which features a play style that is suspenseful and exciting. The Lottery's first extended play game, Money Maze, debuted in April.

Stephanie says, "As an extended play

Winning Stories from around the State

Lots of folks take home some very nice prizes. Here are a few of their stories.

Angela Mathis, Burton

Sometimes it pays to be in the right place at the right time. Just ask Angela Mathis! The Burton resident stopped into a convenience store on February 9 and bought a Coyote Cash scratch-off ticket. She began scratching almost immediately and, she says, "When I scratched and saw (the winning symbol) my heart almost stopped!" That's because she'd just scratched her way to a $1,000 winner! She says she'll put her winnings into her savings account and maybe do a little shopping as well.

Jan Harris, Quinlan

Quitting time is what most folks look forward to at the end of each workday, and Quinlan's Jan Harris is no exception. However, she remembers the afternoon of February 9 very well, thanks to the Texas Lottery! "While

I was sitting in my car getting ready to go home from work, I kept saying to myself, 'Oh my God!'" Jan's surprise was due to discovering that she'd just scratched her Texas Road Trip ticket and uncovered a $3,000 winner! She says she'll use her winnings to remodel her home's bathroom and put the rest in the bank!

Cherry Poe, Quanah

Quanah's Cherry Poe loves the Texas Lottery's on-line games, and she's especially fond of Lotto Texas and Cash 5. As an employee at a convenience store, she's constantly selling Lottery tickets, too. She fondly recalls the night of March 1 when she discovered she'd matched 4 of 5 numbers playing Cash 5. "A customer came in and asked for the numbers," she says. "It was after 10:30 p.m., so I printed the results and I saw what numbers had been drawn. I had to make sure my eyes were seeing clearly and, yep, I had got four numbers!" The next day she found that the Cash 5 ticket she'd purchased was worth $601! She says she'll buy some new dining room furniture for her home, and she reminds folks to drop in and see her while she's on duty and buy their Texas Lottery tickets!

Ernest Escochea, Corpus Christi

Corpus Christi's Ernest Escochea is a loyal Cash 5 player, and he's glad to tell his fellow Texans that people win when they play the Lottery. "I'm living proof," he says proudly, referring to his good fortune playing his favorite Texas Lottery on-line game. Ernest purchased his Cash 5 ticket on October 31 and learned the very next day that he held a winning ticket worth $17,238! He says he'll pay some bills with his winnings and also take a week-long vacation to celebrate! Congratulations, Ernest!

Toni Spiering, Victoria

Our eyes don't always tell us the truth, thank goodness. That's especially true for Victoria's Toni Spiering, whose eyes led her to believe she'd matched 3 of 5 numbers in the December 28 Cash 5 draw. "I thought I had three numbers, but when I went back to the retailer I found out I had four!" Because her Cash 5 ticket matched 4 of 5 numbers, she won $880! Toni says she's a faithful Cash 5 player, and she plans on paying her son's college tuition with her winnings. She also encourages folks to play Cash 5.

game, it takes more time to play and determine if you've won, so you get your money's worth of entertainment value, and then some."

She adds that a television and radio advertising campaign will introduce Bingo to Texans, and she feels that the game will not only be exciting for scratch-off players, but also expose the fun of playing Charitable Bingo to those folks who haven't visited a Bingo hall before.

"We hope our players will enjoy it and become loyal Bingo players, and that loyalty will expand into the Charitable Bingo arena," says Stephanie.

Texas Lottery's official website coming soon

If you surf the World Wide Web, you'll soon have the opportunity to check out the latest news about the Texas Lottery on line!

The Lottery is excited to bring you its website, which is scheduled to debut early this summer. You'll be able to point and click your way to the most up-to-date Lottery news, the latest drawing results for every on-line game, and complete information about new and current scratch-off games.

The web site will also include information about Charitable Bingo, including an easy-to-use locator to help you find a Bingo hall near you.

You'll be able to reach the official website of the Texas Lottery at www.txlottery.org.

Look for more information in an upcoming issue of Winning.
