More prizes add up to lots of fun

Now, The Games of Texas are even more fun and exciting!

That's because the 76th Legislature has removed the 52 percent prize payout cap on all Lottery games, which means that payouts will return to the levels prior to legislative action two years ago.

The bill restoring the prize payout, House Bill 844, was passed by the House and Senate during the final weekend of the session. It took effect immediately upon the Governor's signing of the bill. In essence, the bill reverses the actions of the 75th Legislature, which in 1997 set a 52 percent limit on the overall payout of all Lottery games. HB 844 amends Section 466.015(c), Government Code, to eliminate the limit on the total amount of lottery prizes that may be awarded in a fiscal year.

In the past two years, Lottery sales have decreased significantly. While online games like Cash 5 and Pick 3 have maintained a steady player base, scratchoff games have experienced a dramatic decline in sales. Linda Cloud, the Texas Lottery's Executive Director, indicated the higher prize payout returned starting with the introduction of the scratch-off games Bingo and Double Doubler, released in June.

Monday, May 31, 1999, marked the last day of the 76th Regular Legislative Session. The Texas Lottery Commission's Intergovernmental Affairs Department (IGA) includes Nelda Treviño, Melissa Villaseñor-Dye, and Colin Haza.

Of the 265 bills the IGA team was tracking, 51 passed both the House and Senate and were sent to the Governor for

Winning Stories from around the State

Lots of folks take home some very nice prizes. Here are a few of their stories.

Connie Osmic. Victoria

Millions of Texans love to play the Texas Lottery's on-line games, and they also enjoy the convenience of the 'Quick Pick' option available for each game. Victoria's Connie Osmic played Cash 5 on May 14 and, with just a single 'Ouick Pick' purchase, won $1,025 by matching 4 of 5 numbers drawn that night. "I was watching the news at 10 p.m. (when I found out I won) and I had to call my mother to check the accuracy of the numbers," she says with a laugh. Congratulations, Connie!

William Jones, Hearne

Hearne's William Iones knows just how to convince his fellow Texans that people really do win the Texas Lottery. He says his example would be "by showing them what I won." Although his favorite Lottery game is Cash 5, William recently won $660 by playing Pick 3. This was William's first time to win, and he says he'll keep right on playing The Games of

Sandra Frvar. Big Spring

Being a Texas Lottery retailer, Big Spring's Sandra Fryer sees first-hand just how people play and win with the Texas Lottery. She's also a regular Lottery player, and on May 8 she decided to buy a Lotto Texas ticket for that night's drawing. She says she went to her store the next morning to see if her ticket was a winner. "I didn't even look at the ticket," she laughs. "I just scanned it, and (the on-line terminal) didn't beep and say 'Sorry'!" She says that she was so excited that she immediately called her home to tell her family that her ticket had matched 5 of 6 numbers and was worth $1,377! Sandra has won with Lotto Texas before, matching 5 of 6 numbers for a $1,700 prize! She enjoys playing the Lottery's on-line games, and plans on taking her family out to dinner to celebrate her good fortune!

his signature. The following bills, that directly impact the Texas Lottery Commission, were HB 844 - Relating to the amount of state lottery prizes that may be awarded in a fiscal year.

- Effective immediately upon the Governor's signature on June 19, 1999, this bill removed the cap on our prize payout.
- Through FY2000, each additional 1% increase in the overall prize payout above 57% will result in a $1 million reduction in our advertising budget.
- Beginning with FY2001, the $1 million reduction in the ad budget for each 1% increase in payout will apply to prize payouts above 52%.

HB 550 - Relating to the eligibility of certain persons to enter into a lottery contract or to purchase a lottery ticket or receive a lottery prize.

• Expands the ability of the Executive Director to enter into promotional contracts.

• Allows an employee of a vendor, other than a primary vendor, to purchase a lottery ticket or claim a prize.

HB 703 - Relating to the purchase and sale of lottery tickets.

- Amends the law to authorize specific ways to buy lottery tickets. These would include (1) cash; (2) checks; (3) debit cards; (4) vouchers or coupons issued by the Texas Lottery Commission; and, (5) mail order subscriptions authorized by the Commission.
- The addition of debit cards and subscriptions will provide greater convenience to lottery players. These will not take effect until additional rules are passed by the Texas Lottery
- Any other means not listed, such as credit cards and food stamps, are prohibited.

Unless otherwise noted, all bills become effective on September 1, 1999.

Tracy Adams, Floydada

Tracy Adams likes to play The Games of Texas, and she knows that people win when they play the Texas Lottery. "I see a lot of winners (when I'm) working (as a clerk) at my uncle's convenience store," she says. Although she says she's not a steady player, she occasionally plays the scratch-off game 3 Across. However, the Floydada resident decided to play Cash 5 on April 12 and, to her delight, matched 4 of 5 numbers for that night's drawing to win $623! She encourages everyone to have fun playing the Texas Lottery!

Doug Gary, Huntsville

the rest of his winnings in the bank!

Some folks say there's nothing good on television, but Huntsville's Doug Gary would disagree. Doug was sitting at home recently, watching the local 10 p.m. newscast, when he saw the Lotto Texas results for that night's drawing. He says he was in disbelief when he realized that the ticket he purchased matched 5 of 6 numbers and was worth $2,038! Doug says he'll buy himself a new computer and put
