News anchor, friend split $37 million Lotto jackpot

When Peter Torgerson purchased $5 worth of Lotto Texas Quick Picks as a birthday present for his longtime friend Mark Hulings, he gave his buddy the tickets with one stipulation:

"I told him as I handed him his present that we'd have to split the jackpot if the ticket hit," Peter says.

Little did Peter know that he and Mark, just days later, would be splitting a $37 million Lotto Texas jackpot, since one of those Quick Picks matched all six numbers drawn on July 17.

Not only did the two men become multi-millionaires, Peter also found himself in an unprecedented situation after discovering that Mark's ticket was a winner. A 20-year veteran news anchor at television station KRGV in the Rio Grande Valley, Peter is the first member of the news media to win a Lotto Texas jackpot.

Peter says, "The hardest part of all this was sitting next to my co-anchor while she talked about the Harlingen Lotto winner that hadn't come forward yet. It would have been too hard to keep a straight face if I would've had to read that story."

Peter bought the ticket at Tienda Crossroads in his hometown of Harlingen before giving it as a birthday present to Mark, a landscaper who lives in nearby Rio Hondo. However, it was Mark's wife, Trinidad, who discovered the gift was worth $37 million and called Peter's wife, Julie, to share the exciting news.

"The mysterious-sounding message on the answering machine said 'Julie, you've really, really got to call me,'" adds Julie. "Since then, we've had lots of excitement and a few sleepless nights."

Trinidad and Mark Hulings (left) and Julie and Peter Torgerson (right) happily display the checks they received for winning a $37 million Lotto Texas jackpot drawn on July 17. Since they chose the Cash Value Option on their winning ticket, they received a lump sum of $19.4 million.

Winning Stories from around the State

Lots of folks take home some very nice prizes. Here are a few of their stories.

Michael Williams, San Angelo

Who says that loose change doesn't add up? If you ask Michael Williams, he'll tell you the coins in your pocket could quickly turn into crisp bills if you play the Texas Lottery. Michael had just left a meeting on October 25, 1998, when he noticed his truck was nearly out of gas. He pulled into the Texaco Star Stop in San Angelo to fill up with gas, and decided to play The Games of Texas. Since the Lotto Texas jackpot was more than $50 million at the time, he bought one ticket, then noticed the store sold his favorite scratch-off game, Shooting Dice. With his last $1 bill he bought one ticket, but he decided to use the change in his pocket to get one more. It was the Shooting Dice ticket purchased with that loose change that wound up being a $1,000 winner! He decided to wait on cashing in his winning ticket until just a couple of months ago so he could take his wife and family on a vacation.

Alberta Sherow, Longview

When it comes to telling others about the excitement of the Texas Lottery, Alberta

Sherow has a simple statement: "Just play." The Longview resident felt the thrill of playing, and winning, when her Cash 5 ticket matched 4 of 5 numbers for a $484 prize on June 3. She said she discovered her good fortune just minutes after the drawing: "I was very happy." She adds she'll keep playing Cash 5 and she's also a big fan of the scratch-off game Weekly Grand.

William Henley, Amarillo

Winning with the Texas Lottery can happen anytime, and sometimes it happens more than once. Amarillo's William Henley knows what it's like to be a multiple Lottery winner by playing Cash 5. William has matched 4 of 5 numbers in two separate drawings this year already; once on January 29 for $829, and again on May 20 for $523. William says he'll keep on playing, hoping he'll someday buy a ticket that matches all five numbers. And, he adds that he'll make copies of his checks, so when friends drop by to visit he can show what can happen if they play the Lottery!

Janna Donnell, Graham

Although it's been a little more than a year since Janna Donnell experienced her Cash 5 thrill, her story reminds all Texans that people really do win playing the Texas Lottery. Janna bought her Cash 5 ticket last September and, while watching television that same night, was surprised to find that her ticket matched all five numbers drawn and was worth $100,836. She's a big fan of Cash 5, Lotto Texas, Pick 3, and Texas Million. In addition, she likes the scratch-off games Fire Ant Fever and Buck$ 'N Truck$, and she's won $300 playing Weekly Grand.

Nellie Faye Worthington, Brenham

Some Texans love to play all the games offered by the Texas Lottery, while other folks have a particular game or two that they play faithfully. Brenham's Nellie Faye Worthington is a regular Lottery player, but she's devoted to the scratch off favorite Break The Bank. Nellie says, "I was sitting in my car scratching tickets (when she won). I was totally speechless." She adds she's won $200 playing scratch-off games and she'll keep on playing!

Now that Peter is making the news instead of reporting it, he says he's not sure what he'll do next.

"I don't know if I'll quit my job just yet," he says. "I'm not sure what I'll do, but I'll get to spend a lot more time with my children. I get home around midnight every night from the station, so now I'll get to see my kids every evening."

Since the Cash Value Option was chosen on the winning Quick Pick ticket, Peter and Mark will split $19.4 million. The friends claimed the prize through the H.T. Partnership. The winning numbers for this ticket were 21-22-27-28-31-35.
