

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1
2 WHEREAS, The Legislature of the State of Texas takes great 3 pride in recognizing Houston native Vincent Paul Young, Jr., of the 4 Tennessee Titans for his outstanding season in the National 5 Football League and in paying tribute to him for winning the 6 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award; and

7 WHEREAS, After leading The University of Texas Longhorns to 8 the 2005 national championship title, Vince Young was the third 9 overall pick in the 2006 National Football League draft; he took 10 over as the Titans' starting quarterback in the fourth week of the 11 season and quickly became the star player of one of the strongest 12 rookie classes in National Football League history; and

13 WHEREAS, A fearless athlete who is noted for his outstanding 14 talent and tenacity, Vince was the driving force behind the 15 Tennessee Titans' turnaround from an 0-5 record to open the season
16 to an 8-8 final season record, leading the team through a six-game 17 winning streak that included a spectacular overtime victory in his 18 hometown; and

19 WHEREAS, Famous for his great speed, as well as his accurate
20 arm, Vince became the first rookie quarterback in the Super Bowl era 21 to rush for more than 500 yards in a season; the combination of his 22 spectacular big plays and his single-minded will to win allowed him
23 to become the second quarterback ever to win the Offensive Rookie of 24 the Year Award in the award's 49-year history; and

1           WHEREAS, A dynamic leader and a champion since his days at 2 Madison High School in Houston, Vince has the ability to rally
3 players around him and inspire their spirit and performance; his 4 outstanding rookie season is certain to be a springboard to even 5 greater success in the future; now, therefore, be it

6           RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
7 hereby commend Vincent Paul Young, Jr., for his extraordinary
8 achievements and leadership on the football field and extend 9 congratulations to him on winning the Associated Press Offensive
10 Rookie of the Year Award; and, be it further

11           RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be prepared for him
12 as an expression of high regard from the Texas Legislature.
