

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, The State of Texas boasts a richly diverse cultural 2 heritage, and through the years it has adopted a number of tangible 3 representations of that heritage as official symbols; and

4           WHEREAS, For nearly a century, the cowboy boot has enjoyed a 5 special status as one of the most treasured of Texas icons; and

6           WHEREAS, Although riding boots date back for centuries, and 7 although ranches first appeared in Texas during the Spanish 8 colonial era, the basic pattern of the cowboy boot was forged in the 9 crucible of the post-Civil War trail drives; between 1866 and 1890,
10 mounted cowboys drove millions of head of Texas cattle to northern 11 and western markets along such famous trails as the Chisholm, 12 Western, and Goodnight-Loving; and

13           WHEREAS, Boot makers in Texas and Kansas responded to 14 suggestions from those cowboys regarding the design of their 15 footwear, and a slimmer boot with a higher heel, more rounded toe, 16 and rounded, reinforced instep began to be developed; and

17           WHEREAS, During the course of the 20th century, cowboy boots 18 gained a mass appeal that ultimately extended to foreign lands;
19 this popularity was driven by an enthusiasm for the West that was 20 fostered in the 1920s and 1930s by radio shows and movie serials and 21 in the post-World War II decades by rodeos and dude ranches; the 22 public's fascination with cowboys and their apparel has also been 23 fired by movie screen idols such as Tom Mix, by entertainers such as 24 Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, and Dale Evans, and, in recent years, by

1 movies such as Urban Cowboy and Silverado; and

2         WHEREAS, The lore of the cowboy boot is replete with the names
3 of Texas boot makers who have contributed to the emergence of that 4 boot as a distinct type, as well as to the continuing development of 5 their craft; one of the most influential of the early boot makers
6 was H. J. "Big Daddy Joe" Justin, who set up a boot repair shop in 7 Spanish Fort, just off the Chisholm Trail in Montague County, in 8 1879; within a decade, Mr. Justin became one of the first to offer 9 cowboy boots by mail order; and

10         WHEREAS, Other Texas boot makers whose businesses gained 11 national prominence were Mr. Justin's daughter, Enid Justin 12 Steltzer, who established the Nocona Boot Company in Nocona in 13 1925, Sam Lucchese, who founded the Lucchese Boot and Shoe Factory
14 in San Antonio in 1883, and Tony Lama, who began with a shoe repair 15 shop in El Paso in 1912; and

16         WHEREAS, Smaller establishments also hold an honored place in 17 the annals of the cowboy boot; in 2002, more than 100 cowboy-boot
18 makers were plying their trade in this state, many of them revered 19 by connoisseurs who were willing to wait for periods of a year or 20 more for a custom pair; these artisans were making boots for 21 everyone from working cowboys to sports and entertainment
22 celebrities and heads of state; and

23         WHEREAS, While they hew to a basic form, cowboy boots have 24 evolved into an amazingly versatile article; fashioned with a 25 variety of toe and heel styles, types of leather, and 26 embellishment, they can be worn today on virtually any occasion; so
27 remarkable has been their diversity that they have been the subject

1 of several coffee-table books and at least two exhibitions: "These 2 Boots Are Made for Gawking," at the Grace Museum in Abilene, and 3 "Heels and Toes and Everything Goes: Cowboy Boots As Art," at the 4 Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in Canyon; and

5 WHEREAS, An integral part of cowboy gear, cowboy boots played 6 a valued role in one of the defining chapters in Texas history and 7 continue to figure in the mythic romance of the Lone Star State;
8 now, therefore, be it

9 RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
10 hereby designate the cowboy boot as the official State Footwear of 11 Texas.

Bohac

David Newhall
President of the Senate

Tom Caddell
Speaker of the House

I certify that H.C.R. No. 151 was adopted by the House on May 11, 2007, by a non-record vote.

Robert Haney
Chief Clerk of the House

I certify that H.C.R. No. 151 was adopted by the Senate on May 23, 2007, by a viva-voce vote.

Lacey Jewell
Secretary of the Senate

APPROVED: 15 JUN 07
Date

Rick Perry
Governor

FILED IN THE OFFICE OF THE
SECRETARY OF STATE
6 PM O'CLOCK

Roger Williams
Secretary of State
JUN 15 2007