

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The celebration of Black History Month in February
2 2007 provides an opportunity to recognize the rich cultural 3 heritage of African Americans and the significant contributions 4 they have made and are making in the Lone Star State; and

5 WHEREAS, An event celebrating black history was established
6 in 1926 as a week-long observance by Dr. Carter G. Woodson, an 7 author and scholar and the son of former slaves who sought a means 8 of educating non-black Americans about African American culture and 9 engendering pride among black Americans; the tribute was expanded
10 to a month in 1976 and was officially recognized by President Gerald 11 Ford, who encouraged all Americans to pay " . . . tribute to Black 12 History Month and the message of courage and perseverance it brings 13 to all of us"; and

14 WHEREAS, People of African descent have a long history in 15 Texas; in 1528, a Moor named Estevan accompanied the Spanish
16 explorer Alvar Nunez Cabeza de Vaca on a trek across our state; by 17 the end of the 18th century some 450 individuals of African origins 18 lived in Spanish Texas, and in the early 1800s many African 19 Americans enslaved in the American South crossed the Sabine River, 20 seeking their freedom and settling in East Texas; and

21 WHEREAS, In the 19th century, before emancipation, African 22 Americans played an enormous role in producing the state's 23 agricultural bounty and also worked as skilled artisans; after the 24 Civil War, many moved to urban centers, and in the years to follow,

1 provided manpower for new industries that were established; and

2 WHEREAS, African American infantry and cavalry garrisoned
3 forts in West Texas during the Indian Wars; known as "Buffalo 4 Soldiers," they patrolled the frontier with the assistance of 5 Seminole-Negro Indian scouts, built roads, and escorted mail 6 carriers; Sergeant Emmanuel Stance, stationed at Fort McKavett, was 7 the first African American who fought in the Indian Wars to be 8 awarded the Medal of Honor; and

9 WHEREAS, Since the early 1800s, African Americans have been 10 involved in the cattle industry; one of the most famous black native
11 Texan cowboys was William Pickett, who became a Wild West rodeo
12 performer and who is believed to have originated the bulldogging 13 event; and

14 WHEREAS, In the mid-20th century, African Americans in Texas
15 significantly advanced the civil rights movement by filing and 16 winning lawsuits that outlawed the white primary and helped to 17 integrate graduate and professional schools; today, influential 18 African American leaders continue to follow in the footsteps of 19 their predecessors, taking their rightful place in the public arena 20 and promoting social justice; and

21 WHEREAS, African Americans have been a significant part of 22 the population of Texas for hundreds of years, and the celebration
23 of Black History Month acknowledges and promotes the immeasurable
24 benefits of living in a truly diverse society; now, therefore, be it

25 RESOLVED, That the 80th Legislature of the State of Texas
26 hereby designate February 2007 as Black History Month in Texas and 27 encourage all citizens to learn more about the history and
