relating to injury leave and related benefits for certain state peace officers injured in the course of performance of duty.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the Peace Officer Protection Act.

SECTION 2. Subchapter Z, Chapter 661, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 661.918 to read as follows:

Sec. 661.918. INJURY LEAVE FOR CERTAIN PEACE OFFICERS. (a)

This section applies to a peace officer under Article 2.12, Code of Criminal Procedure, who is commissioned as a law enforcement officer or agent, including a ranger, by:

(1) the Public Safety Commission and the director of the Department of Public Safety;

(2) the Parks and Wildlife Commission; or

For the purposes of

1 this section, the course of performance of a person's duty does not
2 include transportation to or from the person's designated
3 headquarters or the site of an assignment.

4 (c) To be eligible for injury leave under this section, a
5 person must submit to the person's employer evidence of a medical
6 examination and a recommendation for a specific period of leave
7 from a physician licensed to practice in this state.

8 (d) The maximum amount of leave available under this section
9 for all injuries occurring at one time is one year.

10 (e) A person may simultaneously be on injury leave under
11 this section and receive workers' compensation medical benefits
12 under Title 5, Labor Code, but is not eligible for disability
13 retirement benefits under Chapter 814 during the leave period. A
14 person is entitled to workers' compensation indemnity benefits
15 which accrue pursuant to Title 5, Labor Code, after the 16 discontinuation or exhaustion of injury leave under this section.

17 SECTION 3. Section 661.918, Government Code, as added by 18 this Act, applies only to an injury resulting from an assaultive
19 offense that occurs on or after December 1, 2004.

20 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect immediately if it receives 21 a vote of two-thirds of all the members elected to each house, as
