

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, On January 20th, 2005, the Crawford High School Band
2   became the only high school band from Texas to perform in the 3   Inaugural Parade of President George W. Bush; and

4           WHEREAS, Even before this momentous occasion, this group of 5   musician-students also proudly took on the role of a key
6   spirit-raising group in the undefeated season of the Crawford 7   Pirates football team; and

8           WHEREAS, Where taking on even one of these tasks would have 9   been more than enough for one band, the Crawford High School Band 10  took on both without missing a beat; and

11          WHEREAS, The efforts of this group to raise community spirit 12  as well as funds for their trip to Washington, D.C., gained national 13  attention and captured the hearts of all, highlighting the can-do 14  spirit of the Crawford community; and

15          WHEREAS, The undying determination of this band to offer its 16  support to the school and community was expertly summed up by 17  Director Paul Thronburg, who said, "We keep going. As long as 18  they're going, we're going"; now, therefore, be it

19          RESOLVED, That the 79th Legislature of the State of Texas 20  hereby congratulate and honor the Crawford High School Band for 21  their outstanding, successful, and eventful year; and, be it
