

1 AN ACT
2 relating to participation by a defendant in a state boot camp
3 program.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

5 SECTION 1. Section 8(a), Article 42.12, Code of Criminal
6 Procedure, is amended to read as follows:

7 (a) For the purposes of this section, the jurisdiction of a 8 court in which a sentence requiring imprisonment in the 9 institutional division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice
10 is imposed for conviction of a felony shall continue for 180 [~~90~~] 11 days from the date on which the convicted person is received into 12 custody by the institutional division. After the expiration of 75 13 days but prior to the expiration of 180 [~~90~~] days from the date on 14 which the convicted person is received into custody by the 15 institutional division, the judge of the court that imposed the 16 sentence may suspend further execution of the sentence imposed and 17 place the person on community supervision under the terms and 18 conditions of this article, if in the opinion of the judge the 19 person would not benefit from further imprisonment. The court 20 shall clearly indicate in its order recommending the placement of 21 the person in the state boot camp program that the court is not 22 retaining jurisdiction over the person for the purposes of Section 23 6 of this article. A court may recommend a person for placement in 24 the state boot camp program only if:

1           (1) the person is otherwise eligible for community
2 supervision under this article;

3           (2) the person is 17 years of age or older but younger 4 than 26 years and is physically and mentally capable of 5 participating in a program that requires strenuous physical 6 activity; and

7           (3) the person is not convicted of an offense
8 punishable as a state jail felony.

9           SECTION 2. Sections 499.052(a) and (d), Government Code, 10 are amended to read as follows:

11           (a) The institutional division shall establish a program to 12 confine persons who are required to serve not more than 180 [~~90~~]
13 days in the institutional division as a condition of a sentence
14 imposed under Section 8, Article 42.12, Code of Criminal Procedure.
15 The institutional division may limit the number of persons
16 participating in the program.

17           (d) The institutional division shall adopt rules of conduct 18 for persons participating in the program under this section. If the 19 institutional division determines that a person is not complying 20 with the rules or is medically or psychologically unsuitable for 21 the program, the division shall end the person's participation in 22 the program and request the sentencing court to reassume custody of 23 the person. If the court does not reassume custody and remove the 24 person from the institutional division before the 12th day after 25 the date the division notifies the court, the division shall 26 transfer the person from the program to any unit within the division 27 for the duration of the person's sentence or until further order of

1 the court, provided the order is entered before the expiration of 2 the 180 days from the date the execution of sentence actually
3 begins. If on the 181st [~~90th~~] day after a person begins 4 participation in the program the court has not suspended the 5 imposition of the person's sentence of confinement, the 6 institutional division shall transfer the person from the program
7 to any unit within the division.

8 SECTION 3. (a) The change in law made by this Act applies 9 only to a defendant convicted of an offense committed on or after 10 the effective date of this Act. For purposes of this section, an 11 offense is committed before the effective date of this Act if any 12 element of the offense occurs before the effective date.

13 (b) A defendant convicted of an offense committed before the 14 effective date of this Act is covered by the law in effect when the 15 offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for 16 that purpose.

17 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2003.
