Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation

Directory of Services

The Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation operates a coordinated system of more than 700 residential and outpatient services for Texans with mental illness or mental retardation.

This directory contains a comprehensive list of those services, including address and telephone information, listed alphabetically by city. The services listed include state hospitals for persons with mental illness, state schools for persons with mental retardation, a center for emotionally disturbed youth, and state and community outreach centers with a variety of services for persons with mental retardation or persons with mental illness.

Community centers throughout the state offer a wide variety and depth of services, listed in this directory: 24-hour emergency care, diagnosis and evaluation, day treatment and outpatient services, alcohol and drug abuse treatment, supervised community homes, respite care, rehabilitation and sheltered work training, family counseling, services for the elderly, early childhood intervention, genetic screening and counseling and many others.

The goal of TDMHMR's expanding case management system and client record-keeping system is to ensure that clients receive the services they need for as long as they need them. This directory is a part of that effort to bring continuity of care to the clients we serve.

County Guide To Services

To determine the services nearest you, locate your county in the alphabetical list below. The cities named beside it contain one or more agencies which serve your county. Turn to the cities named and locate which agencies there include your county among those they serve. Exception: Austin, Carlsbad, Cedar Park, Fort Worth, Richmond, Rusk, Vernon and Waco have facilities which serve all residents of Texas.

If there are no services near you, contact the local Mental Health Authority or Mental Retardation Authority, listed in the two right-hand columns below. It is the responsibility of these authorities to see that services are available at the local level.

Certified Diagnostic and Evaluation Centers

The Mentally Retarded Persons Act (Art. 5547-300, V.T.C.S.) requires that any person thought to be mentally retarded has the right to receive a comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation (D&E) to determine eligibility for mental retardation services. A comprehensive D&E must be performed at a center certified by a D&E committee appointed by the commissioner of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Of the 55 D&E centers, 54 are under the auspices of a TDMHMR facility, and one is privately operated. Every center is listed by city in this directory and designated "Certified Diagnostic and Evaluation Center." The list below is a guide to help you locate the full listing in the directory for each certified D&E center.
