

AN ACT

relating to the collection and maintenance of DNA samples taken from certain offenders.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Subchapter G, Chapter 411, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 411.1481 to read as follows:

Sec. 411.1481. DNA RECORDS: CAPITAL MURDER. (a) This section applies to:

(1) an inmate serving a sentence in the institutional division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for an offense under Section 19.03, Penal Code (capital murder); and

(2) a juvenile committed to the Texas Youth Commission for an adjudication as having engaged in delinquent conduct that violates Section 19.03, Penal Code (capital murder).

(b) The institutional division or the commission, as appropriate, shall obtain a sample or specimen from an inmate or juvenile described by Subsection (a) for the purpose of creating a DNA record and shall perform duties in respect to obtaining, preserving, maintaining a record of, and sending the sample or specimen to the director in the same manner as if the sample or specimen were obtained under Section 411.148.

SECTION 2. (a) This Act takes effect on the date on which the director of the Department of Public Safety certifies to the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker of the house of

1 representatives that the state has received funds from the federal 2 government or from other sources in a sufficient amount to pay all 3 costs to the state associated with taking samples or specimens from 4 all inmates serving sentences for an offense under Section 19.03,
5 Penal Code, and all juveniles committed to the Texas Youth
6 Commission for an adjudication as having engaged in delinquent 7 conduct that violates Section 19.03, Penal Code, for the purpose of 8 creating a DNA record under Subchapter G, Chapter 411, Government
9 Code, as required by this Act.

10 (b) As required by Section 411.1481, Government Code, as 11 added by this Act, the institutional division of the Texas
12 Department of Criminal Justice shall collect a blood sample or 13 other specimen from an inmate serving a sentence for capital murder
14 from whom a blood sample or other specimen was not required before 15 the effective date of this Act or from an inmate previously
16 convicted of capital murder. The division shall collect the sample
17 or specimen during the diagnostic process, but only from an inmate
18 who has not completed the diagnostic process before the 120th day 19 following the effective date of this Act. The division shall 20 collect the sample or specimen not later than the first anniversary
21 of the effective date of this Act from an inmate who has completed
22 the diagnostic process before the 120th day following the effective
23 date of this Act.

24 (c) As required by Section 411.1481, Government Code, as 25 added by this Act, the Texas Youth Commission shall collect a blood 26 sample or other specimen from a juvenile committed to the 27 commission for capital murder from whom a blood sample or other

1 specimen was not required before the effective date of this Act or 2 from a juvenile previously committed to the commission for capital
3 murder. The commission shall collect the sample or specimen during 4 the initial examination, but only from a juvenile who has not 5 completed the initial examination before the 120th day following 6 the effective date of this Act. The commission shall collect the 7 sample or specimen not later than the first anniversary of the 8 effective date of this Act or 30 days before the juvenile's 9 scheduled release or transfer from a facility operated by the 10 commission, whichever is earlier, from a juvenile who has completed 11 the initial examination before the 120th day following the 12 effective date of this Act.
