Jeannette Stout Killingsworth served in the Peace Corps in Sarawak, Malaysia from 1965-1967. She worked with the native IBAN (Head Hunters) communities in the Up-River

Jungle area. She and her husband also served as 4H club advisors and Agriculture Extension Agents in the third world country. She'll tell us what has happened to that area in the past 25 years.

New Trip Policy

Due to the increased popularity of all the Lee College Continuing Education Senior's trips, we've instituted a new RESERVATION POLICY. It is our goal that this will indeed give MORE people the opportunity to take advantage of all the College has to offer.

Some of the reservation problems we want to correct with this new system are those of limited parking in the mornings in front of the college, congested phone lines at the time of sign up, inclement weather conditions, and just the realization that over 900 FOCUS readers cannot go on one or two buses on any given trip.

New Guidelines

After you have read the FOCUS, call Continuing Education at 425-6311 and give your name and phone number for EACH trip you would like to go on. On a specified date in the FOCUS, a drawing will held for the seats on that trip. 20 names will be drawn with each of these people being able choose a partner for the trip.

All of the rest of the names will be put in the order they are drawn onto a waiting list. In the event another bus can be secured and/or people cancel, the waiting list names will be notified. You are invited to attend the drawing, but you do NOT have to be present to be picked. You will be notified and then have a week to make your payment of trip fees.

Drawings will be held at 1pm in Tech-Voc 1, Rm 119, on the Lee College Campus. Drawing dates are included with trip announcements.
