Around the college--

"Alice in Wonderland" opens Monday

- ◆ From Oct. 9-14, the New Lee College Players will present their production of "Alice in Wonderland," created by The Manhattan Project, under the direction of André Gregory and based on Lewis Carroll's classic tale. Curtain is at 8 p.m. nightly at the Melva Johnson Theater. For reservations, call x255.
- ◆ Ference Illényi, Houston Symphony Orchestra first violinist, will be the soloist as Baytown Symphony Orchestra performs the first concert of its 1995-96 "Affettuoso" season. The concert is set for 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 15, at Rundell Auditorium. Admission is free — bring a friend!
- ◆ Also, in the area of music, "Mayhem" is coming to Baytown! This rock-n-roll group, featuring Lee College's own Wayne Matthews, shipping and receiving clerk, as drummer, will perform at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13, as part of Boom Town Blow-Out. The group also performed Sunday, Oct. 8, at 2:30 p.m. at Bicentennial Park.
- ◆ It's a boy for Susan Sheley, journalism instructor and husband Scott! Born Sept. 25 at St. Luke's Hospital in Houston, Scott Austin Sheley weighed 7 pounds, 15 ounces and measured 21 3/4 inches. All are at home and doing well.
- ◆ Congratulations to Shirley Wallace and

- Vanessa Smith, nursing instructors, who have completed the Family Nurse Practitioner Program at Texas Woman's University. The program was 25 credit hours beyond the master's degree in nursing and included 465 hours of clinical work. Clinical emphasis was on physical assessments, treating clients and managing care for clients of all ages.
- ◆ Welcome to Chuck Carter, instrumentation instructor and Timothy E. Stone, custodian, both new this fall at Lee College.
- ◆ Conoley Ballard, former Lee College music department staff accompanist, died Sept. 21 after a series of heart attacks and a stroke earlier this year. Also, a recent Baytown Sun obituary noted the death of Warren W. Spivey, a former member of the Lee College Board of Regents.
- ◆ Shana Judge, government instructor, learned at the end of September she passed the bar exam she took in New Mexico before coming to Lee College. Congratulations "counselor"!
- ◆ Dr. Rene Maher, who chairs the Allied Health Division, served as a member of a Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board evaluating team that recently visited Howard College in Big Spring (Dean Steve Evans' old stomping grounds).

"I LIKE MY JOB BECAUSE it's varied from day to day. You really don't know what's going to happen. I've had a lot of freedom to be creative."

"PEOPLE MAY NOT KNOW I'm a retired piano teacher. I studied with both Tom Stone and Dr. Charlotte Mueller at Lee College and am now taking organ with Merle Epperson. All of my family are musicians. I started teaching for a part-time job and it just grew."

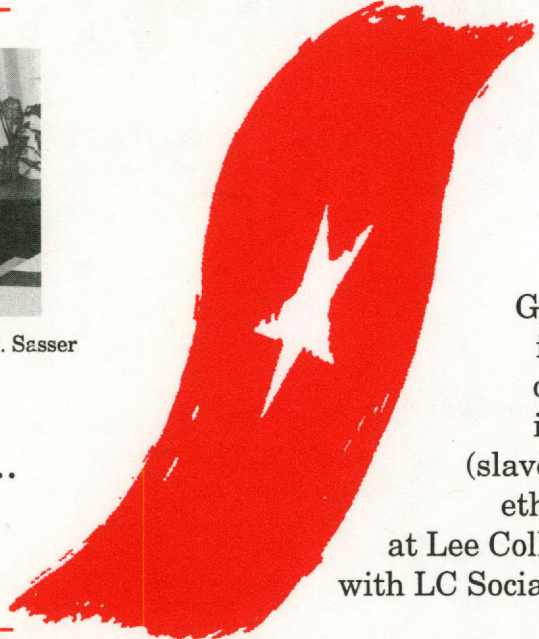

"WHEN I WAS GROWING UP, I always played office. My aunt would bring me forms at home. She worked for the government. I had an office set up in my bedroom."
