Space Center Houston - February 10

Join in a visit to the new Space Center Houston at NASA. A project of the Manned Space Flight Education Foundation, it is a "Hands-On" experience center presenting the awesome story of human space exploration and a behind-the scenes view of the Space Center complex. The facility was just opened in October and a four-hour tour is conducted for visitors. Lunch will be Dutch Treat at the Silver Moon Cafe or the Food Fair. Afterwards, there will be time for browsing and shopping in the Space Trader, so remember to wear comfortable clothing and shoes. Except for shopping, walking will be limited since we board the NASA tram for most of the tour.
