February 6 - Tuesday

1996 TRAVEL SHOW

11:30 a.m.

Join us today for a presentation on a couple of fun trips for the 1996 year. Come for information, slide show and videos and share some ideas we can pursue for future trips for the Lee College Seniors program.....

February 15 - Thursday

MOE BANDY CONCERT

4:15 p.m.

Come join us as we hear and see one of the most popular entertainers in Branson as he appears here in our area for a one night concert. We'll leave the College parking lot at 4:15 p.m. to eat dinner at the new Pappasittos on I-10 (Dutch Treat). Showtime is at 7:00 p.m. Call immediately to make your reservation. Tickets are limited. The price for show and transportation is $11, payable by Mastercard or Visa on phone, by check in the mail or in person in the Continuing Education office. You will be called back only if the trip is full.

February 20 - Tuesday

CLINT BLACK HOUSTON LIVESTOCK SHOW AND RODEO

6:00 p.m.

We'll leave the College parking lot at 6:00 p.m. to go to the Rodeo performance of Clint Black. We will not stop for dinner on the way, the Astrodome/Rodeo food concessions have some great food and are all available throughout the show too. The Rodeo activities begin at 7:00 p.m. and the Clint Black performance around 9:00 p.m. We should be back at the College around 11:30 p.m. Call immediately at 425-6416 for a reservation. Payment of $2 for transportation is payable by Mastercard or Visa on phone, by check through the mail, or by payment in the Continuing Education office. You will be called back only if the trip is full.

March 26 - Tuesday

and many truly special items made by the residents of this special community. We'll eat Dutch Treat at a Country Inn nearby and return to Baytown by late afternoon. Call at 425-6416 to make a reservation. Payment of $3 is payable by Mastercard or Visa on phone, by check through the mail, or by payment in the Continuing Education office. You will be called back only if the trip is full.

June 3-7

A WEST TEXAS COWBOY AND CULTURE TOUR

Palo Duro Canyon featuring the musical "TEXAS", June 3-7, 1996. We'll travel to Amarillo and Palo Duro Canyon, "the Grand Canyon of Texas." One of the state's largest parks, there are over 15,000 acres of beautiful scenic landscape in the area. We'll enjoy a true Texas barbecue before experiencing the fabulous outdoor musical, "TEXAS." During our stay in the area we'll tour the American Quarter Horse Heritage Center, Cal Farley's Boys' Ranch, Cadillac Ranch, Helium Monument, Cattle Baron's homes, the Plains' Historical Museum and hear many "tall Texas tales." One evening we'll enjoy an Old Wild West Show and Chuck Wagon dinner and one morning we'll take a wagon ride to a real "cowboy breakfast." On our way home we'll stay in Fort Worth and visit the Amon G. Carter Museum and the old Fort Worth Stockyards. Don't miss out on the fun!! 5 days/4 nights/11 meals/$572. Call 425-6416 for a brochure and hear more about the trip at the Feb. 6 Travel Show.

April 23 - 25

SAN ANTONIO FIESTA

Join us for three days during "Fiesta Time" in the Alamo City of San Antonio. We'll leave Lee College early Tuesday morning. Upon arrival, we'll check into the La Quinta Inn at Ingram Park Mall. That evening we'll have a delightful time at the Lonestar Brewery, the Buckhorn Hall of Horns, a catered dinner and live country music. Wednesday, we'll attend the "Senior Fiesta" (the only Fiesta commissioned event exclusively for Seniors), sponsored by Secure Horizons and RSVP (Retired Senior and Volunteer Program). After freshening up at the hotel, shuttles will be available for a choice of fun evening activities. They are "NIOSA" (Night in Old San Antonio), the "Coronation Of the Fiesta Court" celebration, or strolling and shopping on the Riverwalk. Thursday morning we'll take a three-hour "city tour" of historic San Antonio, including the Alamo, La Villita, San Fernando Cathedral, the Spanish Governor's Palace, Mission San Jose, King William District, the Steves Homestead, some German and Texas style homes and then eat lunch (Dutch Treat). After three festive days, we'll return to Baytown by late afternoon. Tour cost is $249 which includes round-trip deluxe motorcoach from the College front door, two nights accommodations at the La Quinta Inn at Ingram Park Mall, continental breakfast daily, all transfers and shuttles, full catered dinner at the Lonestar Brewery, line dancing lessons, and "City Tour" of San Antonio. Call 425-6416 to sign up. A $50 deposit is due upon registration, the balance due by mid-March.
