FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUSTIN-

The Texas Judicial Council released today statistics on the 1978 activities of the Texas courts. The Texas Supreme Court delivered a total of 176 opinions and disposed of 899 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals during 1978. The Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 2,878 opinions, and the fourteen courts of civil appeals wrote a total of 1,896 opinions during the same period. Some 365,624 cases were disposed of by the 305 district courts, an increase of six percent over 1977. In county courts, 381,484 cases were disposed. In the reporting justice of the peace courts, over one million one hundred thousand traffic cases were filed, comprising 68 percent of the total cases filed in those courts. Total revenue collected by the justice of the peace courts was $38,278,150. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater reported over 2,300,000 traffic cases filed during 1978, accounting for 84 percent of the total number of cases filed in those courts. Revenue collected by those courts totalled $59,047,162.

SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court of Texas is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices. It is the highest State court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the State.

The Court delivered 114 deciding opinions in 1978, compared with 84 in 1977. A total of 176 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 20 per justice.

The Supreme Court disposed of 899 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, compared to 717 in 1977. Eleven percent of these were granted. Of the granted writs, the courts of civil appeals were reversed in 76 percent of the cases for an effective reversal rate by the Supreme Court of eight percent.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS. The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest State court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges.

Two thousand eight hundred seventy-eight opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1978, four percent more than the 1977 total of 2,778. Twenty-four percent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 77 percent of the cases reviewed and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional 12 percent.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS. The 14 courts of civil appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographic jurisdiction in a Supreme Judicial District. Eleven of the courts have three justices and three have six, for a total of 51 intermediate appellate justices in the State.

In 1978, a total of 1,896 opinions were written by the courts of civil appeals, compared to 1,771 in 1977.

The average number of written opinions per judge for all courts of civil appeals was 45.

DISTRICT COURTS. The 305 district courts experienced a four percent increase in cases filed — to 370,382 cases from 356,042 in 1977.

In 1978, three percent more civil cases were docketed in the district courts than in 1977. New criminal cases increased from 71,839 in 1977 to 75,740 — an increase of five percent.

Civil cases accounted for 74 percent of the new cases filed in 1978. Almost half (45 percent) of the civil cases filed were divorce or annulment actions. Personal injury cases comprised nine percent and tax cases seven percent of the civil cases filed.

Criminal cases accounted for 20 percent of the total new cases filed in 1978. Of the criminal cases, 19 percent involved a charge of burglary, 19 percent theft, six percent robbery, seven percent felony DWI, and 14 percent drug offenses, including marijuana.

An average of 1,199 cases per judge was disposed of in 1978, down 21 cases per judge from 1977.

Texas courts granted five percent more divorces in 1978 than 1977. In 1978, 127,319 divorce cases were disposed of -47 percent of all the cases handled by district courts.

COUNTY COURTS. In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 67 percent of the 434,717 new cases filed or cases appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 20 percent and probate 13 percent. New juvenile cases filed were less than 1/2 percent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 39 percent (87,605) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Fourteen percent (30,987) were for worthless checks and eleven percent (24,542) for violations of laws concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 381,484 cases, which is a few tenths of a percent more than the 380,287 cases filed or appealed.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 68 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over one million one hundred thousand traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1978. Non-traffic criminal cases and civil cases (including "small-claims" cases) provided 21 and 11 percent of the new cases filed, respectively.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-one percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 17 percent at trial and seven percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 80 percent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 15 percent that went to trial, 98 percent of the cases were tried before a judge alone and the remaining two percent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 96 percent of the cases before the judge alone and in 75 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

MUNICIPAL COURTS. The municipal courts in the 214 cities with population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in their courts. Traffic cases comprised 84 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over 2,300,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1978. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 16 percent of the new cases filed.

Sixty-nine percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 16 percent at trial and 15 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 69 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 88 percent of those by payment of fine and 12 percent by bond forfeiture. Of the 16 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial the defendant was found guilty in 83 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and 66 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

The above statistics are included in the 50th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. For the past 50 years, the Texas Judicial Council has been collecting information concerning caseloads for the district and appellate courts. Beginning in 1973, the Council expanded its data collection activities by gathering and publishing statistics on case loads of county, municipal and justice of the peace courts.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS

THE HONORABLE T. C. CHADICK

Honorable T. C. Chadick, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, resigned from the Texas Judicial Council upon his elevation to that office on October 6, 1977. He had served over 20 continuous years on the Council - from July 1, 1957 - by appointment of several Governors as an ex-officio member representing the Chief Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals.

Justice Chadick served three terms as President of the Texas Judicial Council during the years 1961 to 1964 and on several important committees of the Council during his long tenure. Of the many services that he performed for the Council, one of the most important was his leadership in obtaining permanent state funding to employ staff assistance for Council operations. Also under his leadership, monthly reports from district clerks were inaugurated.

Justice Chadick was Chief Justice of the Sixth Court of Civil Appeals in Texarkana from January, 1957, until his appointment to the Supreme Court. He served as City Attorney of Winnsboro, 1934-38; County Attorney of Wood County, 1939-41; State Senator, 1941-49; and Judge of the 115th Judicial District Court, 1949-56. He attended Burleson College, Southern Methodist University, Cumberland University and the University of Pennsylvania.

It is accordingly RESOLVED that this Texas Judicial Council hereby permanently records its indebtedness and gratitude and that of its membership to Justice Chadick for his contributions to the Council, for his devoted expenditure of time and effort in this behalf and for his invariably thoughtful consideration and friendship toward fellow Council members.

THE HONORABLE W. ST. JOHN GARWOOD

Honorable Wilmer St. John Garwood, one of the most active and tireless advocates of court improvement and judicial excellence in Texas, retired from the Texas Judicial Council on January 31, 1978, after dedicated membership of over 16 years. Its leader as President for six terms, 1964 to 1970, Justice Garwood initiated and nurtured a large proportion of the Council's most important contributions to the administration of justice in this State.

Justice Garwood was and remains today a most dedicated leader in a multitude of endeavors to provide the people of Texas a court system of the highest excellence. He was instrumental in the creation of the Commission on Judicial Conduct and the attendant disciplinary mechanisms. He was a dedicated member of the Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement which was the basis for all modern proposals for a new Judicial Article of the Texas Constitution. He remains a tireless advocate of the merit plan of selection of judges and has written numerous articles on the subject.

Justice Garwood served as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas from 1948 to 1958. He was born in Bastrop, Texas. After receiving his A.B. from Georgetown University in 1917, Justice Garwood received his L.D. from Harmond Indiana. Garwood received his J.D. from Harvard University in 1922. He studied law at the University of Texas in 1919, and received Phi Delta Phi and Order of the Coif honors from U.T. He taught International Law at the University of Texas School of Law, 1959-61

Justice Garwood is a former Honorary Counsul of Poland for Texas and is a recipient of the Order of Merit from the Republic of Chile. He is past director of the American Judicature Society and trustee of Huston-Tillotson College in Austin. He was the president of the Philosophical Society of Texas in 1958, and in 1968 was awarded the Texas League of Women Voters Award for Outstanding Service to Good Government. He is a life member and trustee of the Texas Law School Foundation, and was president from 1967 to 1968. He was honored by the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas in 1972, at which time the Texas Judicial Council commended him for his service both to the Council and to the welfare of the Texas Judiciary.

It is accordingly RESOLVED that this Texas Judicial Council hereby permanently records its indebtedness and gratitude and that of its membership and staff to Justice Garwood for his contributions to the Council, for his devoted expenditure of time and effort in this behalf and for his invariably thoughtful consideration and friendship toward fellow Council members and Council staff;

Further RESOLVED that this Council's great regret at the termination of Justice Garwood's membership is tempered with the knowledge that he will always continue his strong interest in the work of the Council and with the hope that he will find occasion to attend many meetings of the Council as an ever-welcome guest.

THE HONORABLE LOUIS T. HOLLAND

THE HONORABLE HUGH M. PATTERSON

Honorable Hugh M. Patterson, a member of this Council since March of 1964, retired from the Council on December 31, 1977, thus ending the service of one of the most active members of the past

The demands of a highly successful law practice as a senior partner of one of the leading law firms of Houston, as well as his constant service to lawyer organizations at the local, state and national level, operated to increase rather than limit the extent of his Council contributions.

Hugh M. Patterson was born in Monticello, Arkansas. He received his B.A. from Arkansas College in 1931 and his J.D. from the University of Texas in 1937. After a short practice in Fort Worth, he joined the Houston law firm of Baker and Botts in 1938. # STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

CHIEF JUSTICE JOE R. GREENHILL

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

By Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill

Wednesday, January 31, 1979

Governor Clements, Governor Hobby, Speaker Clayton, Distinguished Members of the Senate and the House, fellow members of the Judiciary, ladies and gentlemen:

The Judiciary and I sincerely appreciate this invitation and opportunity to present this First State of the Judiciary message.

At your last session, your House Bill 828 called upon the Chief Justice to deliver a message to you upon our condition, and upon future directions and needs of the courts.

Let me hasten to add that we appreciate the careful consideration given to us in the past by each member of the Legislature and by Governor Hobby as President of the Senate.

In making this address, I have called upon other judges, particularly the presiding administrative judges and the appellate judges, both civil and criminal. I appreciate their help, and I believe what I say here reflects the view of the great majority of them.

Your invitation is, I think, an appropriate recognition that there are three branches of our government.

The very first article of the Constitution of the Republic of Texas provided that "the powers of this government shall be divided into three departments . . . which shall remain ever separate and distinct."

This provision was carried forward in Article II of our present constitution of 1876 as requiring "three distinct departments, each of which shall be confined to a separate body of magistracy to wit, to those which are Legislative to one, those to the Executive to another, and those which are judicial to another; and no person, or collection of persons, being of these departments, shall exercise any power properly attached to either of the others . . ."

The constitution does not expressly say that the three branches shall be equal. The facts of life are that some groups are more equal than others. But I think that it does mean that there shall be three branches of government which shall be separate, and of equal dignity. All three branches must act, and be in a position to act, if the constitutional mandate of the people is to be carried out.

I mention this at the outset because I have noticed a tendency in the past of some persons, not of these Houses, to regard the State as being made up of two important branches,—the executive and the legislative; and the judiciary is relegated to the status of an agency or bureau.

The point is not that personal egos are offended, because that is not important. What is important is that the people of Texas must have confidence in our judicial system, and are demanding, and have a right to demand, that the third branch of government,—the Judiciary, be an efficient, effective and independent arm of the government.

Those of us, as individuals, in the judiciary, must bear our full share of this responsibility. There are among us, some lazy and inefficient judges. But after all, the judges of this State are ultimately elected by the people.

Most judges, on the other hand, I believe, are dedicated and hard working people who are doing their best with the system and the tools at hand, to make the system work.

A major part of the responsibility, however, is in your hands. The solution to many of the problems of the third branch are within your power to strengthen and correct.

The internal system which we have, and the tools we are given to work with efficiently, must be provided by you.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

A major part of the problem, and the understandable impatience of the people, lies in the administration of criminal justice.

A recent poll taken at Sam Houston State University at the Criminal Justice Center, documents what we all know:

- -that criminal justice is too slow;
- —that 57% of the people fear that they will be a victim of a major crime in the next year;
- —that while most persons accused of crime are fairly treated, the victims of crime are not.

While many people feel that the judiciary should be active in crime prevention, that is not its function.

But it should be our function to bring these accused to justice, with a finding of guilt or innocence, without delay; —and to act with such dispatch that the judicial system acts not only to free the innocent, but affords sure and speedy punishment to the guilty so that there is a deterrent to crime. In this we are not succeeding, though there has been a marked improvement, particularly at the trial court level in recent times.

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

The Republic of Texas, and the State of Texas, began with a unified court system. All courts, including the Supreme Court, had civil and criminal jurisdiction. I am still of the view that this is the best system, and one used by the federal government and all states except two. But I will not dwell upon that here, except in one respect dealing with the Courts of Civil Appeals.

In 1891, one separate court of appeals for criminal cases, as well as courts of civil appeals were created. That was done when the State had a total population of two million, and its largest city was Dallas with 38,000.

There was no need, then, for more than one court of appeals for criminal cases. There certainly is now.

One of the major sources of delay in the disposition of criminal cases is that the appeal in virtually all criminal convictions of whatever nature must go to one court, the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Those judges are able people, and they turn out an amazing number of opinions. But there is no way that one court can handle the load. It cannot, even with an enlarged court sitting in panels, catch up with, or handle in the future the number of criminal cases.

Since 1970, the number of its cases have tripled; and despite diligent work, the Court has fallen further and further behind in its backlog. If the present rate of filings persists, that Court will have a caseload of almost 6,000 cases by 1980.

The situation is now, and I get these facts from the Court itself, that on the average, a case filed in that Court today will not be heard for well over a year. And if either side requests oral argument, the probability is that the case will not be heard for 17 to 18 months.

It is now clear that we must adopt, or perhaps adapt, the intermediate level court system to handle the great bulk of criminal appeals.

At the same time, there should be a mandatory review by the Court of Criminal Appeals of capital cases; and I suggest a direct appeal. Other cases should be taken, or denied, by the Court of Criminal Appeals by discretionary review; i.e., by writ of certiorari as is done by the Supreme Court of the United States.

The people, and you, have already established 14 intermediate appellate courts. A recent constitutional amendment provided that the number of judges on each of these courts could be enlarged; and you have already enlarged three of them to six-judge courts. These courts are authorized to sit in panels; and, if you direct, they could sit in civil and criminal panels. My recommendation is, however, that all of the judges should be empowered to hear both civil and criminal matters.

Six of the present 14 courts of civil appeals could, and would, hear more cases if they had them. They are badly under docketed. The judges are able and willing, but each of these courts get appeals only on an average of about seven cases per month. Our Court adjusts the dockets of the various courts and transfers cases to these courts to equalize the dockets.

The present intermediate appellate courts should be given criminal, as well as civil, appeals. They can handle them; and the judges of the courts are willing to do so. All who have written me, and many have, think this step should be taken.

It would be my view that you could, and should, make the appeal in many criminal cases, certainly including misdemeanors, final, in the court of appeals,—with the Court of Criminal Appeals having power to resolve any conflicting holdings of the various courts, and a discretionary review of other holdings.

In civil matters, many cases are now final in the courts of appeals,—divorces, election contests, and the like; and the system has worked well.

Moreover, less than half of the decisions of the courts of civil appeals are appealed to our Court. And of those in which application is made to us, we take for oral argument only about one out of six or seven cases. The result is that much time and expense is saved, and matters do become final at the court of appeals level. The same should be true of criminal cases.

I, therefore, respectfully suggest that you submit a constitutional amendment to accomplish this result. This proposal is also recommended by the Texas Judicial Council and the Judicial Planning Committee of Texas.

It might be suggested that you create a separate system of intermediate courts of criminal appeals. This would be enormously expensive,—with automatic addition of new judges and clerks of the courts; and the problems of additional court rooms, libraries, law clerks, and equipment. Moreover, our system should be unified insofar as possible and not further bifurcated. We already have more appellate judges in Texas than in any other state save one. You can add, if necessary, one or more judges as needed to existing courts rather than whole new courts and court facilities; and as I suggested, many of our present courts of appeals can handle additional appeals as presently constituted.

The Court of Criminal Appeals has another major problem. Forty per cent of its operating funds now come from the federal government by LEAA grants. Those federal funds are being reduced and may be phased out.

The function of that court is a State responsibility, and it should be State funded.

The same is true with regards to funding of the Office of Court Administration and the Texas Center for the Judiciary which furnishes needed training to new judges.

VIOLENT JUVENILE CRIME

As we are all aware, there is a growing amount in the numbers of violent and serious juvenile crime,—murder, robbery, burglary, and rape. Many are by juveniles old enough to know better but are beneath the age when they may be certified as adults for trial. We would hope that each juvenile could be rehabilitated; and it would not help most of our juvenile offenders to be locked up with adult hardened criminals.

But one may question whether it is realistic to say that Juvenile Courts are equipped to rehabilitate and treat all juveniles, whether they be status offenders, juvenile delinquents, or violent criminals.

Our statutes are beneficently designed to provide rehabilitation for all minors, and without regard to the number of crimes committed, or the seriousness of the offenses. The "trial" of all minors is civil in nature, with the judge, and others, acting as counsellor. The judge does not find the person guilty of a particular crime, and does not sentence the offender.

There is a growing feeling, in some responsible quarters, that adult crimes like murder, robbery by firearm, and rape, deserve adult treatment at least among the older juveniles.

It occurs to me, as it may to you, and to members of the public, that steps must be taken to deal with vicious and violent juvenile crime, and the seriousness of the offense, or offenses, committed should be considered in at least some stages of the matter, as well as the background of the child.

JUVENILE PROBATION

Moreover, in my opinion, there is not adequate provision for juvenile probation. Many counties have no probation boards, or the personnel to handle juvenile probation.

You may wish to consider whether a State Juvenile Probation Commission should be established; or whether the Adult Probation Commission should be given authority over juvenile and adult offenders; or whether the Texas Youth Council should be given this power.

You may also wish to consider whether each county, which does not have one, should be required to establish a juvenile board, or be included in a regional board.

VOIR DIRE

Also in the criminal area, there is another pressing problem, which faces all who are concerned with the great amount of time being taken to select juries in death penalty cases.

The public, with justification, simply cannot understand why it should take weeks or months to select a jury in a capital case—at great expense to the public.

You are familiar with such cases. In one, it took 53 days to select a jury; and the cost to the county of just that voir dire time was over $60,000. In another recent case before the Court of Criminal Appeals, it took 16 days to pick a jury and only five days to try the case. This means, among other things, that the court facilities are unnecessarily at a stand-still while other cases could be tried.

The actions in these and other cases have been within the law, and I intend no criticism of the courts or counsel for these delays. But if this is not corrected, it will cause serious problems to the administration of justice.

Although few would deny that fairness and due process must be carefully applied where a person's life is at stake, certainly all should agree that our trial judges must be given discretion to assure that the selection of a single juror does not consume days or weeks of a court's regular attention.

Such a statute is not necessary in the trial of civil cases; and I urge the trial judges to exercise the discretion which our court's decisions say that they already have to expedite jury selection. But in consultations with the Court of Criminal Appeals, it is felt that a statute is necessary in criminal cases.

I recommend that you enact a statute making the court-adopted civil rule applicable to the trial of criminal cases, including capital cases.

SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

This Legislature, at its last session, enacted a Speedy Trial Act for criminal cases. It requires that persons accused of a crime shall be brought to trial within certain specified periods of time.

A commission appointed by the Governor, has been working on that Act; and some modifications will be suggested to you.

The purpose and thrust of the Act is, in my opinion, a good one.

Since its enactment, the time from arrest to trial has been substantially reduced. The presiding judges of our administrative districts tell me that the Act is working.

In the past, many district judges tried only civil cases. Now most, or many, try both civil and criminal. In El Paso, only two district judges used to try criminal cases. Now all 12 of them do. In San Antonio, over half of the judges try criminal cases. For those judges who felt the need for a refresher course in the trial of criminal cases, a full week's seminar was held in Austin; and many judges attended voluntarily. Any good judge can try civil or criminal cases, and should be prepared to do so.

While the trial judges are making a determined effort to comply with the Speedy Trial Act, they need help from you in the form of staff, administrative help, and court reporters, to insure an undelayed flow of disposition of criminal cases. And while criminal cases should be given priority, the trial judge must also move the civil docket.

TRIAL COURTS

In this regard, the district judges, who are, and should be considered as State officials, should be the concern and responsibility of the State. They can do a better job in trying and disposing of more cases, criminal and civil, if they are given some assistance. The same is true of the judges of the county courts at law.

A court administrator, or at least a secretary and a bailiff, should be available to each of these judges so that they can move cases with dispatch. This is a State responsibility,—a necessary part of the third branch. The people of Texas should afford these necessary tools to the trial judges from the State level, rather than to have the trial judges argue and bargain with the local county commissioners courts.

Speedy criminal justice must begin at the trial court level, and State responsibility at the trial level certainly merits your attention.

FINALITY OF JUDGMENTS IN TRAFFIC CASES

And finally in the so-called criminal areas, there is a mountain of undisposed-of traffic court violations, and appeals from such violations.

A person with financial means, or one who can afford a lawyer, can plead guilty, or nolo contendere, or even be found guilty in a justice or municipal court, and then get a whole new trial (de novo) at the county level. There are many thousands of these cases throughout the State.

These cases must either be tried again or dismissed. Thousands are dismissed each year; which often means that the little people pay and the more affluent do not.

The retrial, or trial de novo, of all such offenses is not only self defeating, but greatly clogs the dockets of the courts.

Several proposals are, or will be, before you for the solution of these problems; and the adoption of a suitable statute would greatly improve the administration of justice.

SMALL CLAIMS COURTS

The recently adopted constitutional amendment authorizing the increase in the jurisdiction of the justice courts should be a major improvement in the accessibility to the courts by those having small claims.

Though many people do not know of their existence, your statutes also provide for Small Claims Courts,—where the filing fee is only $3.00, and the rules of procedure are greatly relaxed. At present, they are presided over by justices of the peace; and the overlapping with the regular justice courts makes the small claims court almost invisible.

Many states have greatly enlarged the function of these courts;—where lawyers are available but are not needed. These are places where persons of little means can have access to a dispute settlement in a minimum amount of time.

If your schedules permit, I respectfully suggest your giving more substance to Small Claims Courts, and that their jurisdiction be raised to $500 or such sum as you see fit. Otherwise, I respectfully suggest your appointment of committees to study the matter before your next session.

LEGAL EDUCATION AND LAWYERS

Experienced and properly trained lawyers greatly contribute to the expeditious, and non reversible trial of criminal and civil cases. Graduates of at least every State supported law school should be prepared properly to represent the citizens of Texas in the courtroom.

The law schools, on balance, do a good job of legal education; and their inability to provide clinical education stems in part from a lack of funds for such training. You may want to consider this in your deliberations as to law schools so that at least those who want to go into the court-rooms will have the opportunity for proper training. Otherwise, they get on-the-job training at the expense of their clients and of the judicial system.

In this regard, the Federal courts are so impatient that they contemplate separate bar examinations to be sure that lawyers are competent in their courts. This should not be necessary.

Traditionally and inherently, the regulation, admission, and discipline of attorneys has been a function of the judicial branch and of the Supreme Court of the various states; and we perceive it to be a proper function of our Court.

CIVIL CASES

I have here emphasized the need for help primarily in the criminal area; and while I will not take much more of your time, there are a few things that need to be said about the civil docket and about courts in general.

You are already familiar with the judicial explosion in both civil and criminal cases.

One way to cut down on the courts' dockets is to reduce the number of cases brought to court. Alternatives to court action, and the reduction in the cost and time of litigation, need to be seriously considered.

ARBITRATION

The Constitution of Texas has provided since 1845 that

"It shall be the duty of the Legislature to pass such laws as may be necessary . . . to decide differences by arbitration . . ." [Art. 16, sec. 13].

In most states, a large volume of litigation is disposed of by arbitration, and I think this should be encouraged. Several states have statutes requiring compulsory arbitration of relatively small claims. The parties do not have to abide by the arbitration; but if arbitration award is appealed to the courts and lost, they must pay the attorney's fees of their adversary and court costs.

I do not advocate going that far, but I do suggest that you consider a more usable voluntary arbitration statute. We do have a statute, but it contains many restrictions which cause it to be seldom used.

NEIGHBORHOOD DISPUTE CENTERS

Some states, led by Florida, are now using neighborhood dispute centers. People having minor conflicts, either civil or criminal, and without the necessity for lawyers, are referred to a dispute center presided over by some respected mediator, a member of the community,—and not necessarily a lawyer.

The LEAA is providing $600,000 for pilot Neighborhood Justice Centers in Atlanta, Los Angeles, and Kansas City; and I'm sure that you, or your committees, will be interested, as we are, to follow their success or failure.

Ultimately, we must have a way of solving minor problems, which are major to the people who have them, with speed and with a relief to the courts' dockets.

VENUE

The congestion in the dockets of the courts and jury time could be substantially reduced by a revision of the venue statutes.

In simple language, venue means a determination as to where a case will be tried. Generally a person may be sued only in the county of his residence. Your Article 1995 provides many exceptions; and the adjudication of these exceptions generate much litigation.

It is a gross extravagance of the time of jurors, litigants, of courtroom facilities, and the judiciary's docket for there to be two separate jury trials in these cases.

Where venue is contested, and it often is, the first trial is to determine where the case is to be tried; i.e., whether the plaintiff can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant was at fault in a particular county. The result of that trial is appealable. After some two years, that matter of where the case is to be tried is finally settled. Then the parties go back and try the case to a second court and jury,—and the appeal starts over again.

The right of a person to be sued in his or her home county is an important one. But like other matters, the proof, or establishment, of that right, and related venue procedures, have gotten out of hand.

We need your help to remove this large volume of cases of venue from our dockets, and to speed to adjudication of cases.

COURT ADMINISTRATION

A few words need to be said about the administration of the court system,—mainly of the district courts and county courts at law.

Because our system was set up in 1891, and our population was largely rural, virtually all court case flow is handled on a local or regional basis. Perhaps in the future, you will want to consider strengthening the court system by providing for more state-wide coordination.

As of now, each trial judge has a large degree of independence; and about the only provisions for coordination and control the judiciary has lies in the hands of the trial judges who preside over the nine regional administrative districts of Texas.

This is the system which we have, and will have for the foreseeable future. I therefore respectfully suggest that since the trial courts are administered by those nine presiding administrative judges, they should be given the tools and the staffs to do their jobs well.

Most of these administrative judges are also active trial judges. They necessarily must spend most of their time in the courtroom. They are, in my opinion, overworked and under paid.

They need a staff to keep them informed as to when other courts and judges are busy or not; when court rooms are in use and when they are not; and as to when judges should be brought in or moved. Your assistance is needed to see that they have the facilities to operate the courts in their regions, in an expeditious and business-like manner.

THE CIVIL DOCKET

The docket of civil cases, trial and appellate, is at present, manageable.

The number of cases which the Courts of Civil Appeals handle has doubled in number in the past few years, and the difficulty of their cases has increased. Nevertheless, the dockets of these 14 courts are current; and, as indicated, they can handle additional cases.

At our latest monthly report,—last month, only 2 submitted cases had been pending in any of the 14 courts in excess of six months time; and both of them have now been disposed of. Civil dockets, both trial and appellate, as well as criminal filings, will continue to grow for several reasons,

- —the growth and complexity of our population;
- —the addition of new causes of action such as those dealing with environmental law, truth in lending, consumer protection and products liability; and the like
- —as well as the increase in the divorce rate and family law problems.

IMPACT STATEMENTS

At this and future sessions, you will probably create additional causes of action, and new forms of relief and accessibility of citizens to the courthouse.

It is respectfully submitted that you consider, with each such bill, a judicial impact statement as well as a financial or budgetary impact statement.

It is not unreasonable that when additional potential cases are added to the judicial dockets, you also consider the courts' ability and capacity to dispose of them.

The Texas Supreme Court's docket is current. Including cases argued only last week, we have only 17 cases which have been argued to us in which opinions have not been written.

While we are authorized by the constitution to sit in sections or panels, all nine justices sit on all matters except in the granting of habeas corpus.

The great bulk of our case load is upon writs of error,—deciding which cases to make final without the delay of oral arguments and written opinions. But we require that an internal memorandum, the equivalent of an opinion, be written by each judge on each case and circulated to the others before it may be brought before the Court for disposition by the entire Court.

Our Court also has many administrative duties,—the promulgation of rules of civil procedure; rules for district and county attorneys; the organization, admission and discipline of court reporters; the admission and discipline of lawyers; the ethics of lawyers and judges and the like.

I spend well over half of my time in working with the nine presiding judges and other administrative matters,—in addition to carrying a full one-ninth of the purely judicial responsibilities.

These matters are not mentioned to belabor our responsibilities, but to dispel the belief held by some, others than yourselves, that our productivity is to be judged by the number of written opinions produced.

Our function, as part of the third branch, is to expedite the proper disposition of cases and to try to make the system work as well as we can.

We are prepared to handle an additional case load by dividing ourselves into sections,—or panels—as the court did when I was a law clerk, and the court was 3 years behind with its inherited case load. I hope that this will not be necessary; and that we will be able to continue our judicial and administrative responsibilities in an effort to make the third branch operate more efficiently and swiftly.

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

You have delegated to us the power and duty to promulgate rules of civil procedure.

In making these rules, we have worked in cooperation with your committees and with individual Legislators.

The thrust of our efforts has been to expedite and simplify trials so that all may have access to the courts for the speedy disposition of their problems. The costs and speed of service of process and subpoenas have been greatly reduced. The number of jury issues have been greatly reduced and simplified, and have been brought into line with your directive of comparative negligence. The authorization of ten to two jury verdicts has reduced the number of mistrials and the required re-use of courtrooms and juries for new trials.

We are presently working on the reduction of time and expense in discovery proceedings and other matters, including uniform rules of procedure among the nine administrative judicial districts.

JUDICIAL RETIREMENT ACT

The Judicial Retirement Act, authorized by the Constitution and our statutes, was one of the finest things ever done to encourage able men and women to leave their private practice and to accept the Judiciary as a career,—for far less money than they could make in private practice. Let me hasten to add that I do not ask for additional funds or benefits upon the retirement of judges.

The intent of the Retirement Act was to encourage judicial careers and the judicial experience that goes with such service. It began with a requirement of 24 years of service, or ten years next before the age 65.

The statutory eligibility to these benefits have been relaxed, over many legislative sessions, to where a person with four years of military service can earn full judicial retirement in eight years. Thus a person can enter the judiciary and retire at age 45, and be entitled to full judicial retirement when he or she reaches 65.

I suggest that as to persons entering the judiciary in the future, you consider returning, and strengthening, the incentive of a judicial career.

JUDICIAL APPROPRIATIONS

Throughout this message, reference has been made not only to needed structural improvements, but to the need for the personnel and equipment to get the job done.

The latter translates into needed appropriations to allow the third branch to operate efficiently.

We of the third branch heartily agree that there should be zero based budgeting, —that no money should be appropriated, or spent, which is not absolutely necessary to carry out a proper and necessary governmental function.

But, as I stated at the outset, the third branch is one which public demand does operate; and the needs of the third branch can be met and should be met, without measurably affecting the State's overall budget.

In the budgetary material furnished to you by the executive and legislative budget people, are pie charts,—showing how the State's funds are allocated. The amounts shown for the judicial branch either are not shown or need an arrow to point to the very small portion.

The amount allocated on those charts to the other branches of government constitute well over 99% of the funds appropriated.

The amount the third branch receives from the state funds does not amount to even one percent of the total. It receives approximately 1/3 of 1% of your total appropriations.

The total state appropriations for the judiciary for the current fiscal year is a little over $22 million,—approximately the same amount as that for each of the following:

- -the Committee on the Aging, or
- -the Adult Probation Commission, or
- -the San Antonio State Hospital and Special School, or
- —the Support Services Division of Department of Public Safety
- —and only 1/4 of the appropriations for the Department of Corrections.

All of the above are worthwhile and necessary projects; and the comparative appropriations, and their mention, is just to put judicial appropriations in context with other governmental functions.

Other and larger funds are furnished the judiciary by city and county operations, and some funds are received from the federal government.

But over all, the judiciary brings into the system approximately $125 million in revenues in the form of court costs, fines, forfeitures, and other matters. Subtracting the total revenue generated to the total amount expended on the third branch, we are talking about a net of a little over $19 million expended for the entire judicial branch at all levels.

So let me emphasize again, that the third branch can be funded, so that it will work with much greater efficiency, without encroachment on the overall tax structure of the state.

JUDICIAL SELECTION AND TENURE

Finally, a word about the selection and tenure of judges.

The quality of the people who serve as judges is of the utmost importance in carrying out any system of justice under law.

While, as many of you know, I have some strong views, there are reasonable differences of opinion on how judges should be selected and removed. There is, I believe, a great deal of room for improvement; and I hope that at this, or some future session of the Legislature, you will address this subject.

All of the above recommendations for judicial structure, and judicial tools are highly necessary. But in the last analysis, it is the integrity, intelligence, and diligence of the individual judge,—and all of the individual judges,—which will more nearly cause justice to be done in the least possible time.

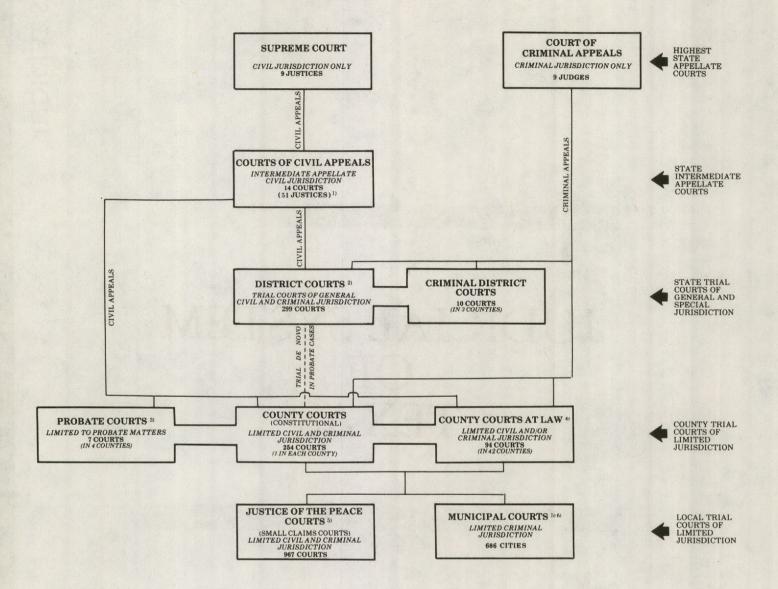

Again, we thank you for the invitation to present this judicial message to you.

I assure you that all of us in the judicial branch appreciate your concern and your help.

THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF TEXAS

Descriptive Outline

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court in civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which is the highest state appellate court in criminal matters. It has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There is no intermediate court for criminal appeals from trial courts, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, which in some metropolitan areas have been established as courts having primarily civil, criminal, domestic relations, or juvenile jurisdiction. It should be noted that the geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and such jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to any previously established court. Each court has one iudge.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge. To relieve the calendar congestion of the single constitutional county courts the legislature has established probate courts and county courts at law in certain counties having large populations.

The Texas Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Since 1953, these justice courts also serve as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city. These courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts limited to the geographic confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace courts and most municipal courts is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in those counties having statutory county courts at law or where by statute the district court has assumed portions of the county court's jurisdiction.

State, county and municipal governments all contribute to the financing of the judicial system in Texas. The State finances the appellate courts and pays a base salary to all courts of civil appeals justices and district judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justices of the peace, and operating costs of district courts except the judge's basic salary. The cities finance the municipal courts.

S.B. 510 of the 65th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $21,279,156 in general revenue funds for the operation of the judiciary in fiscal year 1979. This represents less than one percent of the $2,746,309,238 total general revenue funds appropriated.

District Courts (309)

Jurisdiction: There are 309 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

District courts are trial courts of general jurisdiction, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not exceeding $5,000. (In the counties which have no statutory county courts at law, district courts have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in cases of at least $500 and not exceeding $1,000.)

The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioners court. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil or criminal cases. In some cases, the courts which have criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts.

A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in civil cases.

- 2. Seats: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.
- 3. Membership:
  - a. Number: One judge per court.
  - Selection: Partisan district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of Senate.
  - c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; age 25; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.
  - d. Salaries paid by the State:

eff. 9-1-78 $35,700

Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties, ranging from $600 to $17,000 per year. Total salary must be $1,000 less than received by associate justices of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Supreme Judicial District.

e. Term: Four years.

"Constitutional" County Courts (254)

 Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that there shall be a county court in each county, but not all 254 courts perform judicial functions. The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has concurrent legal authority with justice of the peace courts in civil cases when the contested amount is $200-$500, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually has general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed.

Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists. Decisions from the municipal and justice courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals in civil cases and to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases.

Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

- 2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
- 3. Membership:
  - a. Number: One judge per court.
  - Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
  - c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
  - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
  - e. Term: Four years.

The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue writs and contempt citations.

County Courts at Law (101)

1. Jurisdiction: The Legislature has the authority to create special county courts. One hundred one of these statutory courts have been created in forty-two counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts are intended to exercise in practice subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); but the names do not always disclose their complete functions. In general, the concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court is higher than constitutional county courts.

Geographical Jurisdiction: County-wide.

Justice of the Peace Courts (967)

 Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least 4, and not more than 8 justice precincts, in each of which shall be elected one justice of the peace, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, one additional justice of the peace shall be elected from such precinct.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when the fine does not exceed $200. They have jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $500. A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries when the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills when the amount does not exceed $150.

- 2. Seats: Determined by county commissioners.
- 3. Membership:
  - a. Number: One judge per court.

Municipal Courts

- 1. Jurisdiction: Authorized by statute, municipal courts are operating in 686 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances (predominately traffic offenses). The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the state.
  - Trials in all but four municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of Houston, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls are courts of record with appeals on the record perfected in the municipal court.
- 2. Seats: Determined by the city or town.
- 3. Membership:
  - a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court. A recent survey identified 823 municipal judicial positions in the state.
  - Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city or town as provided by city charter or ordinance.
  - c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city or town.
  - d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city or town. Highly variable.

SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION OF TEXAS COURTS

INTRODUCTION

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which makes the final determination in criminal matters. The state has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There are no intermediate appellate courts for criminal matters, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 309. (Ten of these courts are named "Criminal District Courts," but as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited only to criminal cases on the district level.)

The geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and that jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each court has one judge. The state pays the judge's base salary and some expenses.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge, who also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court in each county, the legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 42 counties. As of January 1, 1979, there are seven probate courts and 92 county courts at law. (Two other courts are authorized, but not implemented by the counties in which they are located as of January 1, 1979.)

The Texas Constitution also provides for a minimum of four justice of the peace courts in each county. Today there are 931 of the justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these justice courts have also served as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city in the state. These courts have original jurisdiction over purported violation of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction over state violations with the justice of the peace courts, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with four exceptions) is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in certain counties noted later, where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual courts. Thus to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters, such as the Family Code, which requires a lawyer-judge to hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.

APPELLATE COURTS

As previously indicated, the Supreme Court is the court of last resort in the state in civil matters. It also has original jurisdiction to issue writs and conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of any judge in the state. It is empowered to make rules for the administration of justice, rules of civil practice and procedure for use in all courts having civil jurisdiction and rules governing the licensing of members of the bar of the state. The Court of Criminal Appeals has final state appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and may issue writs to enforce its judgments. The courts of civil appeals are the intermediate appellate courts of the state, limited however to civil matters.

DISTRICT-LEVEL COURTS

While the jurisdiction of the appellate courts is quite uniform for each level, that of the various trial court levels is not. To meet the diversified characteristics of the state, the legislature has established varying jurisdiction for the same level of courts depending on the location or local needs.

Broadly, the district courts are the general trial courts for the state, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more. The district court has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in cases of at least $500. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts by general law have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000.*

In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a), which was placed in the district courts and county courts at law. The statute did not transfer any eminent domain cases pending in the "constitutional" county court on the effective date of the act, therefore, some county courts are continuing to dispose of eminent domain matters filed before 1971. This article lists several instances where eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred from the county court by "special" law pertaining to only one county. In some instances, this transfer was prior to 1971 and in others pending eminent domain cases were transferred. These situations are to be contrasted with the 1971 general statute which transferred jurisdiction of "new" eminent domain cases.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the legislature cannot reduce the jurisdiction of a constitutional district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961); Zamora v. State, 508 S.W. 2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S.W. Rv. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). See also Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W. 2d 211 (1933) and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W. 2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County expressly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the criminal district court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently the state statutes purport to limit the jurisdiction of 18 district courts to civil matters only. They are:

14th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

17th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

44th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

48th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

58th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

60th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

67th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

68th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

95th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

96th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

101st (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

116th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

134th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

135th (Calhoun, Goliad, Jackson, Refugio, Victoria) - art. 199(135)

136th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)

153rd (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

156th (Aransas, Bee, Live Oak, McMullen, San Patricio)
- art. 199(156)

160th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

The constitutional power to establish "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) apparently does authorize the legislature to establish special district courts with criminal jurisdiction only. Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941). A statute limiting the jurisdiction of a district court to criminal matters was recognized by a court of civil appeals. Cook v. Nelius, 498 S.W. 2d 455 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston 1st 1973, no writ). In a similar situation, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not comment on the question. Pittman v. State, 434 S.W. 2d 352 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

Several district courts with their jurisdiction so limited have been created, but at this time, only three courts are limited to exclusively criminal district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-43)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-44)

Four others are limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Dallas County (arts. 1926-11, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-13, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-14, 1926-16, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)

As will be noted later, other "Criminal District Courts" cannot be categorized as having district-level criminal jurisdiction only because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled the legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention of the legislature that certain district courts give their primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction. Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases and the statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts:

144th (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 175th (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 4 187th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are to give preference to civil cases and civil cases only are to be filed in those courts:

37th (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 45th (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 57th (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 73rd (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 5 131st (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 150th (Bexar) - arts. 199(37), 199(150) 166th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Thirty courts are thusly instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

194th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.021 195th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.022 197th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199a, sec. 3.024 202nd (Bowie) - art. 199a, sec. 3.033(b) 203rd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.030 204th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.031 205th (Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth) - art. 199a. sec. 3.032 207th (Caldwell, Comal, Hays) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b) 208th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.036 209th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.037 214th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.042 Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-45) 226th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.053 227th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.054 228th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.055 230th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.056 232nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.058 248th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.073 252nd (Jefferson) - art. 199a, sec. 3.078 262nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.088 263rd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.089 265th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.091

The 65th Legislature (1977) converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these 31 courts are to "have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters":

The other statutory provision observed above—that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court—is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. Lord v. Clayton, 663 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961). The statutes provide that in fourteen courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
55th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
61st (Harris) - art. 199(11)
80th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

13

In six courts, only criminal cases are to be filed:

174th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(174)

176th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(176)

177th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(177)

178th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(178)

179th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(179)

180th (Harris) – arts. 199(11), 199(180)

Finally, for one court, the legislature has specified that criminal and tax cases only shall be filed:

49th (Webb) - art. 199(111) 14

As noted above, some 94 statutory county courts at law and 7 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised by the county court at law concurrently with the district court. Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified domestic relations matters:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)

County Court at Law of Orange County (art. 1970-349A)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

Three county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters, eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Randall County (art. 1970-371) (eff. 1/1/80, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-373)

County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

Nine county courts at law have, by special statute, concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in eminent domain matters:

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)

County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341a)

County Court at Law of Midland County (art. 1970-370)

Five county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10.000:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

20

Probate and County Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342)

County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369)

Finally, the statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61)

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district court-level jurisdiction and county court-level jurisdiction. In nine counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306

Jones (259th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b)

Robertson (20th District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 96, p. 256

Shackelford (259th District Court) – art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b)

Webb (49th, 111th District Courts) - Acts 1893, ch. 9, p. 5

In two counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court (by general statute enacted in 1971 (art. 3266a), all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction):

Comal (22nd District Court) - Acts 1883, ch. 35, p. 24

21

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, eminent domain and jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases has been transferred to the district court in one county:

Eastland (91st District Court) - art. 1970-141a

In another county, all county civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

In another county, all county court civil and criminal cases appealed from justice of the peace courts, except probate and eminent domain, have been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction in juvenile delinquency cases and in cases where the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art. 1970-314a

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court in four counties:

Mills (35th District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 97, p. 109; Acts 1907, ch. 101, p. 199

San Augustine (1st District Court) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90

Wichita (89th District Court) - art. 1970-166b

In one county all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Glasscock (118th District Court) – art. 1970-320 and Acts 1957, ch. 196, p. 399

In another county, all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court has been transferred to the district court:

Navarro (13th District Court) - art. 1970-326

29

Finally, in six counties, the general jurisdiction in eminent domain cases alone has been transferred from the county to the district courts by special statutes. In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a):

Camp (76th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 592, p. 1952

Fannin (6th District Court) - Acts 1971, ch. 89, p. 820

Gonzales (25th, 2nd 25th District Courts) - Acts 1957, ch. 383, p. 867

Hopkins (8th, 62nd District Courts) - Acts 1967, ch. 44, p. 84

Tarrant - art. 1970-62.1

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the legislature has in several instances given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters. Seven district courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

207th (Caldwell) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)

Criminal District Court of Dallas County - art. 1926-21

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County – art. 1926-21

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County – art. 1926-41

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County – art. 1926-43

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County – art. 1926-44

Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County – art. 1926-45

In two counties, the district and county court have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters normally in the county court and the district court assigns cases to the county court:

Hill (66th District Court) - arts. 1970-333; 1970-333a

Johnson (18th District Court) - art. 1970-335

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Generally speaking, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more and less than $500, general jurisdiction over probate cases and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors whose punishment for the offense upon conviction is by fine exceeding $200 or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts upon trial de novo.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts takes many forms. In the creation of three county courts at law, all civil, criminal and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Houston County (art. 1970-365)

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361)

County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-373)

In the creation of fifteen county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301f)

32

County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)

County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305)

County Court at Law of Collin County (art. 1970-362)

County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)

County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.2)

County Court at Law No. 4 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.3)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County (art. 1970-332a)

County Court at Law of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341a)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)

County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

One county court at law was created to exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters, which had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)

The legislature provided, in the creation of three county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a)

For four county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)

County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)

In one county, all civil, criminal and juvenile jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and it was provided that the courts were to have concurrent jurisdiction in eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343)

Four county courts at law were created with the provision that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in both probate and eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324, 1970-324d)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a, 1970-324d)

County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a.1, 1970-324d)

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Similarly, to another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

When the four Harris County civil courts at law were created, it was provided that all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to them:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-79)

County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)

County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e)

County Civil Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110f)

For one county court at law, all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to it, and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent criminal jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1970-33, 1970-34)

For another in the same county, all civil jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62.2)

Eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred to two county courts at law, and in all other matters the county court at law and "constitutional" county court have concurrent jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of McLennan County (art. 1970-298b)

In nineteen instances, the "constitutional" county court and the county court(s) at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bell County (art. 1970-350)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County (art. 1970-350a)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court at Law of Denton County (art. 1970-352)

County Court at Law of Ector County (art. 1970-346)

County Court at Law of Fort Bend County (art. 1970-364)

County Court at Law of Harrison County (art. 1970-223a)

County Court at Law of Hunt County (art. 1970-354)

County Court at Law of Randall County (art. 1970-371) (eff. 1/1/80, or earlier as may be determined by the county commissioners)

County Court at Law of Smith County (art. 1970-348)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County (art. 1970-348a)

County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369)

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)

In two counties, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate and eminent domain, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction (eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred out of all "constitutional" county courts by general law in 1971):

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

Six of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-3)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-16)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.1)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.1)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court at Law of Henderson County (art. 1970-366)(inactive)

In two counties, the county court and the county court at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters except eminent domain:

County Court at Law of Guadalupe County (art. 1970-351)

County Court at Law of Hays County (art. 1970-358)

Two county courts at law were created with the proviso that they and the county court were to have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters, but that no probate cases were to be filed in the county court at law:

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

In four counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. Under the provisions of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1973, proceedings in these specialized probate courts are on the record and appeals therefrom are to appropriate court of civil appeals rather than to the district court on trial de novo as is the requirement for probate cases tried in the "constitutional" county courts. The statutes creating six of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1970-31a, 1970-31b)

Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31c)

Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a)

Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.2)

Probate Court of Tarrant County (art. 1970-345)

One probate court has concurrent jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court and is to have "primary" responsibility at all times for all mental illness proceedings:

Probate Court No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.3)

50

Another specialized probate court, however, has concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters, but only probate cases are to be filed in the probate court:

Probate and County Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342)

51

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases. Most of these (18) are limited to criminal cases, concurrent with the "constitutional" county court:

County Criminal Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.10)

County Criminal Court No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.12)

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.13)

County Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.14)

County Criminal Court No. 6 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)

County Criminal Court No. 7 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-96)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62a)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62b)

Three county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and further have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court of Appeals of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.20)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62c)

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy does not exceed $500 and in criminal misdemeanors where punishment is by fine only not to exceed $200. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries where the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills where the amount does not exceed $150. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 32 counties, the county court by special statute has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in that county:

52 Armstrong (art. 1970-190)

In two additional counties, the county court at law has by special statute been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts:

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) (inactive)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b)

The county court in eight counties has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in both civil and criminal matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339C)

Finally, one county court at law has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in the county in criminal matters only:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363)

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Municipal courts have original and exclusive jurisdiction over purported violations of city ordinances and concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts over state misdemeanors occurring within the jurisdiction of the municipality where punishment upon conviction is by fine only not to exceed $200.

Trials in all but four municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of Houston, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls, were created by special statutes as municipal courts of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court on the record perfected in the municipal court.

Article 200a, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial districts in the State for administrative purposes. In each such district an active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court serves as the Presiding Judge upon appointment by the Governor.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the judges in the administrative district to consult on the state of business in the courts. The conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the district. The Presiding Judge may assign active or retired district judges residing within the administrative district to any of the district courts within the administrative district.

The Presiding Judge of one administrative district may request the Presiding Judge of another administrative district to assign district judges of that district to sit in the district court located in the administrative district of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges, and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative district for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

- 1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State: of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.
- To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.
- To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.
- 4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.
- 5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

Powers of council

Sec. 6. The Council shall have power

 To hold public meetings or hearings, by and through committees of three or more of its members, require the production of books and documents, require reports from the several courts of this State, including courts not of record, as may be deemed necessary, to administer oaths and take testimony.

For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

- 2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable: provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council; and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent: if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members; but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL 1929 - 1978

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

Courts have historically used judicial decisions to regulate their procedures and administration. Subject to legislatively-imposed constraints, they still do. About a century ago, however, there developed, both in England and America, the concept of a committee of judges to promulgate procedural rules through administrative channels. In the United States, this idea dovetailed with the unified court movement, which Roscoe Pound advocated in his 1906 speech to the American Bar Association. 1 By 1907, the Association had appointed a Special Committee to Suggest Remedies and Formulate Proposed Laws to Prevent Delay and Unnecessary Cost in Litigation, which reported in 1909.2 While the Association did not endorse the report, it was a frequently-referenced authority for the unified court concept.3 Although the report did not mention councils, by 1914 a variety of council prototypes with rule-making authority were being suggested by the new American Judicature Society4 and others. These councils were expected to recommend "business-like" methods for court administration. In 1920, the Society published its Model Judiciary Article, drafted for, and adopted with only slight changes by, the National Municipal League.5 It provided for a judicial council with rule-making authority, composed of presiding judges from various court divisions.6

Within a year of the Model Article, however, the Society shifted its support from a council of judges only, with rule-making authority, to a council of judges and others, with only advisory authority. A council with judges, barristers, and solicitors had replaced the all-judge Rules Committee in England, and advisory councils had been proposed in several states.<sup>7</sup> "[A]dvisory powers," the Society argued, "could be presumed to be sufficient to bring about a satisfactory co-ordination of the work of the several judges and courts." To that end, the Society made three distinct proposals for state adoption: (1) an act to create a council of judges with advisory powers and the authority to invite bar participation; (2) a separate act to vest the council with rule-making authority; and (3) an act to create a conference of all judges of general jurisdiction trial courts.

The two major catalysts for the judicial council movement occurred shortly thereafter. First was the development of the judicial council in Massachusetts, first proposed in the legislature in 1919. Even before its 1924 passage, the Massachusetts legislation was the basis for 1923 statutes in Ohio and Oregon, 10 and after passage, it became the basis for a number of other such statutes. 11 Second, Congress created the Conference of Senior Circuit Judges in 1922. 12 Renamed the Judicial Conference of the United States in 1948, 13 it promulgates rules for federal court procedure (through the Supreme Court and review by Congress) and federal court administration. In its early days, though, it was advisory and consultative, referred to informally as the "federal judicial council," and cited as a major impetus for the state judicial council movement. He by 1925, with the addition of councils in North Carolina and Washington, the Society proclaimed the arrival of the "Judicial Council Era," the growth of which, it observed two years later, "seems little short of miraculous." The movement spread rapidly.

THE TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Judge James W. McClendon might be called the father of the Texas Judicial Council. Articles which he wrote in 1928. while serving as Chief Justice of the Third Court of Civil Appeals, Austin, were certainly motivating factors in the creation of the Council. These articles appeared in the Journal of the American Judicature Society 19 and the Texas Law Review.20 In addition, Judge McClendon spoke before the Association of Judges of the Courts of Civil Appeals, the Texas Bar Association and other groups stressing the advantages of a judicial council which would study and report upon the state's judicial system and make such recommendations for improvement as shown by its investigations to be necessary. Finally, Judge McClendon prepared a draft of a statute which would create an advisory judicial council. His advocacy of the judicial council received quick support from both the Bar Association and the organization of civil appeals judges.

Governor Dan Moody recommended the bill to the Legislature, and in 1929, while in Regular Session, the 41st Legislature created the first Texas advisory civil judicial council.<sup>21</sup> However, in that same year at its First Called Session, the Legislature passed a bill which, in effect, re-enacted the first measure with changes in membership designations.<sup>22</sup> It was codified as article 2328a, V.T.C.S.

In 1953, additional changes were made in the membership of the Council, 23 and in 1969, the amendment 24 of several sections of the statute clarified the obligations of court clerks and other officers to furnish information requested by the Council and incorporated procedures for enforcement of information requests. It also established the official name of the agency as the "Texas Civil Judicial Council," redefined the membership and terms of office, and directed the Council to collect information on the criminal as well as civil business of the courts. In 1975, 25 the word "civil" was removed from the name of the Council and from each statement of its duties thus ending the remaining restrictions on its scope to the civil side of the docket.

Today the Council's membership is composed of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas or another Justice of the Court designated by him to act in his stead, two Justices of the courts of civil appeals, the Chairmen and the immediate past chairmen of the Senate Jurisprudence and House Judiciary Committees, seven members of the State Bar of Texas and two lay-members, one of whom is by profession a journalist.

The Council was created for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement."<sup>26</sup> Its duties include the following:<sup>27</sup>

- To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts; the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.
- 2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar, and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.
- To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.
- To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.
- 5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable.
- To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS 28

Judicial Statistics

Since its inception the Council has been the only agency which collects comprehensive statewide statistics on the operation of Texas courts. The first statistical report by the Council was made in 1930, and contained reports from the Supreme Court, courts of civil appeals and district courts.

From 1930 to 1963 there was little appreciable change in the methods of collecting judicial statistics on district courts. During this period a Council-prepared form was sent annually to the district clerk in each county with instructions for its completion and return.

The data collected also changed little during this period. Generally it included the number of cases filed and disposed of during the year and the number of cases pending at the end of the year. This information was broken down by tax suits, divorce cases, other civil suits and criminal cases. In 1941 information was included on the number of cases that had been pending longer than periods of one, two and five years. In 1959 annulment case statistics were added.

Data was collected on the number of jury trials, the number of cases appealed, the number of new trials granted, the number of paupers' oath trials and appeals, the average cost of contested and uncontested civil cases and the number of days worked by the judge. In every year except 1960 and 1961 the data was collected on a county-wide basis, aggregating the work of all district courts in the county during the year. In those two years the data was collected on a judicial-district basis by having the clerks submit the completed reporting form for each court to the appropriate district judge who inspected it and forwarded it to the Council.

A study of the Council's statistical gathering process in 1962 resulted in a conversion from annual to monthly reporting from the district clerks. The data collected remained essentially the same as under the annual reporting system, but information on the average cost of civil cases and the number of days worked by individual judges was deleted.

A substantial change was made in the reporting forms in 1966, and 1967 marked the first full year of reporting on the new forms. A great deal more information was included. The types of cases reported increased from five to eight with the inclusion of categories for personal injury, workmen's compensation and juvenile cases. The information on the type of dispositions made in each category of cases was more detailed and a quantity of miscellaneous information was included.

Early in 1973, the staff of the Council, representatives of the Governor's Criminal Justice Division, the Office of the Attorney General, and representatives of District Clerks began meetings to revise the district court reporting forms to provide information needed by the various state agencies. thereby eliminating the possibility that the District Clerks would be required to report to the Council, the Criminal Justice Division, and to the Office of the Attorney General. The form was expanded to eight pages. The most significant changes were to break the criminal cases down into 16 different types of crimes and adding many new items in the miscellaneous section-i.e., commitment to T.D.C., commitments to jails, fines assessed, death sentences, life sentences, etc. The other major change was in the new juvenile data which included findings of delinquency or of nondelinquency and miscellaneous information concerning probations granted and revoked, commitments to T.Y.C., attorneys and guardians ad litem appointed, and the cases under advisement. A new section on other proceedings was also included—post conviction writs of habeas corpus, writs of habeas corpus, bond forfeitures, contempt, extradition, etc. The new forms were first used for calendar year 1974.

Statistics on the Court of Criminal Appeals were first reported in 1966, and the data included were similar to that traditionally reported by both the Supreme Court and the courts of civil appeals. This appellate data primarily reflects the number of cases filed and disposed of during the year and the number pending at the end of the year with a breakdown of the types of dispositions made and the status of pending cases.

In 1974, the Council began collecting monthly reports from county courts, justice of the peace courts and municipal courts in cities with a population of 5,000 or more. The county court reports gather basic case accounting data (filed-disposed-pending) in four criminal, four civil and juvenile case type categories. Dispositions are reported such that jury verdicts and non-jury dispositions can be identified. The number of probate cases filed is also reported. The justice of the peace and municipal court reports are more abbreviated, basically recording cases filed, cases disposed and miscellaneous activity.

In 1976, the district and county court reporting forms were revised to collect more detailed information on juvenile cases and a new system of monthly reports from juvenile probation officers was inaugurated. This was a particularly difficult task in that, prior to the development of this system, there was no identification of juvenile probation offices, where they were located, or who were the juvenile probation officers. These reports contain workload information for the juvenile probation offices across the state and demographic information on the youths handled by those departments.

Prior to 1945 the substantial jobs of collecting and tabulating judicial statistics was performed primarily by the members of the Council's Judicial Statistics Committee. In that year, the Secretary of the Council assumed the job. In 1946 the Secretary cooperated with the Bureau of the Census in the collection of joint statistical data. Beginning in 1954 the Legislative Council furnished staff assistance for the task. In 1959 the Council employed a law student to serve as a part-time research assistant, and the collection of judicial statistics was one of his responsibilities. Then in 1962, the Legislature authorized the first full-time Council staff member, a clerk-statistician, to collect and report judicial statistics. Since that time the statistical gathering task has been the job of the Council staff. In 1968 the job classification of the clerk-statistician was changed to Executive Secretary, and a clerk-stenographer was added to the Council staff. Beginning in 1972, the Council began using federal grant funds for much of its staff operations and the staff for statistical compilation has increased with the expanded reports. It now includes a Director of Reporting Systems, an Analyst-Programmer, three records control clerks, and two keypunch operators.

The Annual Report continues to be the primary repository of the Council's statistics. Published separately from the statutorily required report to the Governor and Supreme Court since 1951, these Annual Reports have been used by every Legislature, whether as background information in creating new courts or for other legislation relating to the courts and judicial administration. Through the statistics, the courts themselves are able to judge their accomplishments and effectiveness in comparison with other courts. Law and research libraries and other research agencies in Texas and throughout the United States are on the permanent mailing list of the Council to receive the statistics and, as evidence of their usefulness, this mailing list has steadily increased year by year.

A variety of special statistical reports are made each year. The annual report of juvenile probation offices was first published in 1977. Since 1965, the Council staff monthly prepares a report on the activities of court of civil appeals. Tabulations are included on the number of cases pending in each court broken down by cases submitted but not yet decided, cases set but unsubmitted, and cases unset and unsubmitted. In addition, the number of opinions by each court for the month and the year to date are also included. This summary report is sent to each court of civil appeals and the Supreme Court and is used by the Supreme Court to determine the need for transferring cases among the individual courts to achieve more balanced work loads. For over 10 years the Council staff has prepared a summary report each month for the presiding judges of the nine administrative judicial districts by combining the information contained in the monthly reports from the counties in each administrative district as well as on the other eight districts for purposes of comparison. The objective of this report is to aid the presiding judge in the exercise of his authority (granted in article 200a, V.A.C.S.) to assign judges to serve in districts other than their own. The staff also supplies special compilations of court statistical information in response to requests from both public and private sources. An important example is the preparation of information of case loads, dispositions, trials, and population figures compared with state averages to be used by Legislators in the analysis of bills proposing the creation of new courts.

Integrated Bar

One of the Council's outstanding studies was made in 1934 and concerned the desirability of creating an integrated Bar. Largely the result of this work, a self-governing Bar bill was passed in 1939, which created the State Bar of Texas.<sup>29</sup> Many suggestions by the Council directed toward raising the standards for admission to the Bar have also been adopted.

Civil Practice and Procedure

The Council early made many recommendations relating to civil practice and procedure which were enacted into law by the Legislature. Eleven such measures were passed in 1931, the most notable of which, perhaps, dealt with limitation as affected by pending litigation, a provision for judgment non obstante veredicto.

Rules of Civil Procedure

With the advent of the integrated Bar and through cooperation of that body, the Council drafted a bill providing that the Supreme Court be authorized to adopt new civil procedure rules. A bill vesting authority for promulgation of court rules in the Supreme Court was enacted in 1939.<sup>30</sup> The old civil procedure statutes were repealed and the Supreme Court appointed a committee to assist in drafting the new rules. Eight persons on the 21-member committee were active members of the Council and another was a former Council member. Many of the Council's suggestions were incorporated in the new Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and the committee was retained by the Supreme Court to consider amendments to the Rules.

In 1977, at the request of Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill and Justice Jack Pope, a major staff study was undertaken of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure with particular attention to the appellate process. The thrust of the study was to identify possible future changes in the Rules for consideration by the Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on the Rules. The results of the study were embodied in two memorandums to Justice Pope listing 17 topics for his consideration for future study.

Declaratory Judgment

A Council redraft of a bill to create a Texas Declaratory Judgment Act was adopted by the Legislature in 1943.31

Texas Probrate Code

In 1952, a committee was appointed from the Council to work with committees of the State Bar and the Trust Section of the Texas Bankers Association in drafting a Probate Code. By 1953, the third and fourth drafts of the Code had been prepared. Introduced in the 53rd Legislature, the fourth draft passed the Senate with only one dissenting vote but died on the calendar of the House of Representatives. Four more drafts of the Code were prepared, and the eighth and final draft was introduced in the 54th Legislature. The measure passed and the law became effective on January 1, 1956.<sup>32</sup>

Assignment of Judges

In 1957, the 55th Legislature added a section 5a to article 200a to make retired district judges subject to assignment at their consent.<sup>33</sup> This measure resulted from a study of the subject and recommendation by the Council. Assignment of retired judges has been used effectively and, in many instances, has kept a backlog of pending cases from being built up due to loss of a judge in a particular judicial district.

In 1978, the Council proposed amendments to article 200a to provide that the nine administrative judges be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court rather than the Governor. The proposal would also establish a mechanism for the Chief Justice to temporarily assume the duties of a Presiding Judge who dies, resigns, absences himself, becomes disablingly ill or disqualifies himself, and provides that administrative assistance to Presiding Judges be provided by a state paid "administrative assistant" and county paid staff rather than the district clerk of the Presiding Judge's residence as at present.

Commission on Judicial Conduct

The Council was active in drafting and advocating the adoption of a constitutional amendment to provide a mechanism for the involuntary retirement or removal for cause of district and appellate judges.34 The State Judicial Qualifications Commission was created by Constitutional Amendment adopted by the electorate Nov. 2, 1965,35 and covered justices and judges of the district, criminal district, and appellate courts. The Council later supported the amendment to the Constitution adopted in the general election of 1970 which increased the jurisdiction of the Commission to include all justices and judges of the state and added the sanction of censure, after a hearing, or private reprimand. It also endorsed the amendment adopted in the general election on Nov. 8, 1977, which changed the name of the Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, added two new members and provided for the suspension from office of a judge under certain circumstances. In 1978, it endorsed a proposal to add a municipal judge to the membership of the Commission.

Judicial Article Amendment

The Council proposed an amendment to the Constitution in 1933 that would have established a unified judiciary with few radical alterations in the existing system.<sup>36</sup> The plan required the state to be divided into nine supreme judicial districts, with one member of the Supreme Court and three justices of the court of civil appeals to be elected from each district. The Supreme Court was to have final appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases, thus eliminating the necessity for a separate Court of Criminal Appeals. District judges were to be elected in each of eleven districts within each supreme judicial district. Under the proposal, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court was given supervisory power over court administration and was authorized to transfer judges from one court to another as necessary.

When their proposal was rejected by the Legislature, the Civil Judicial Council in 1934 modified its recommendations, limiting specific recommendations to the appellate courts.<sup>37</sup> The appellate structure envisioned included a nine-member Supreme Court and a Court of Criminal Appeals consisting of five members. Both of these courts were to have power to draw on lower courts for additional judges to dispose of heavy caseloads. The idea of a nine-man Supreme Court and a five member Court of Criminal Appeals subsequently received support and was adopted by amendment to the Constitution in 1945 and 1966 respectively.<sup>38</sup>

After intervening proposals by other groups, the Council again drafted a revised Article V of the Constitution in 1946.<sup>39</sup> The revision provided for a judicial system consisting of a Supreme Court, a Court of Criminal Appeals, Courts of Civil Appeals, and trial courts, all under the administration and supervision of the Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court was authorized under the new structure to establish the office of administrative director to assist in managing the court system and to provide administration at the trial court level. It was also given the power to create and abolish judicial districts, including those of the trial courts and those of the courts of civil appeals.

The Council recommended that judges be appointed by the Governor from a list of names prepared by a nominating commission according to the "merit" or "Missouri" plan for judicial selection. They would then run unopposed in succeeding general elections, subject to a "yes" or "no" vote regarding their retention in office.

Although the Judicial Council proposal was not enacted by the Legislature, many of the ideas it contained reappeared in a proposal published by the State Bar in 1953.40 The members of the State Bar voting on the revision initially supported it, but they rejected the proposal in a later referendum in 1954.41 Several more limited constitutional amendments were proposed by the Council during the 1960's. A proposed amendment to Section 6 of Article V would have authorized the Legislature to increase the size of any court of civil appeals to 5 justices. 42 The Council also endorsed and reaffirmed its support several times during the years for the "Missouri" or "merit" plan of selection and tenure for appellate judges. 43 It recommended the removal of jurisdiction of litigation arising upon exceptions to awards of condemnation commissioners from "constitutional" county courts to district courts.44 Such legislation was passed in 1971 and is now article 3266a. The Council also recommended that the writ jurisdiction of the Court of Criminal Appeals be expanded to include mandamus<sup>45</sup> and that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court be empowered to temporarily assign active or retired justices to assist courts of civil appeals. 46 Both proposals were later adopted by the 65th Legislature (1977) and later approved by the voters.47 The Council's 1968 proposal to allow courts of civil appeals to issue writs of habeas corpus in domestic relations cases was enacted the next year, becoming article 1824a. The removal of contested probate matters from county to district courts, discussed extensively by the Council in 1969, became law in 1973.48

In 1971-1973, the Council staff provided substantial staff assistance to the Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement, which drafted a new judicial article for the Texas Constitution. 49 The Judicial Council devoted one of its meetings during 1972 to consideration of the Task Force draft and approved the proposals, subject to several suggested modifications. The staff also provided substantial assistance to the Judiciary Committee of 1974 Constitutional Convention.

At a meeting early in 1977, the Council endorsed a joint resolution, later introduced by Representative Ben Z. Grant of Marshall, to grant jurisdiction to the existing fourteen courts of civil appeals to hear intermediate appeals in criminal cases. Discussion centered on this proposal being the best approach to solving the problems of delay in the criminal appellate process and the heavy caseload of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Following the defeat of this proposal, the Council in 1978 proposed a constitutional amendment to change the name of the Courts of Civil Appeals to "Courts of Appeals," and drop "civil" from the definition of cases they can hear, thereby allowing the Legislature to grant the courts criminal jurisdiction. (The wording would not automatically confer intermediate criminal appellate jurisdiction upon the present courts of civil appeals.)

Endorsed in principle in 1978 was a constitutional and statutory change to require that in addition to the present qualifications of having practiced law for ten years, any candidate for appointment or election to an appellate judgeship have trial judge experience or an endorsement by 50 attorneys if the candidate is seeking a seat on a court of civil appeals or 100 attorneys if seeking a seat on the Supreme Court or Court of Criminal Appeals.

Administrative Procedure Laws in the United States

A study entitled Administrative Procedure Laws in the United States—A Comparative Study was published by the Council in 1957. The Council's Committee on Administrative Law and Procedure gave direction to the research and writing of the study by A. Howard Colvin, at that time a law student at The University of Texas Law School. Committee recommendations included a draft of an administrative procedures act, which had the approval of the entire Council. In the early phases of the project, the Council Committee met with the State Bar Committee on Administrative Law, since that group had interest in the subject. Representatives of various state departments and agencies which would be affected by a Texas administrative procedures law also attended the meeting.

Members of the Bar Committee did not appear to be in favor of the broad Texas Administrative Procedures Act which had been proposed by that group earlier, and so the Council, with Mr. Colvin's assistance, drafted simplified bill proposals to provide for the "adoption, filing, publication and distribution of rules and regulations of state administrative agencies authorized by law to make such rules and regulations."

Work Load of the Supreme Court and Courts of Civil Appeals

Justice James R. Norvell, before becoming a member of the Council, initiated a study of the intermediate court problem in Texas and asked for suggestions from and active assistance of the Texas Civil Judicial Council on the project. The Council approved Judge Norvell's plan in July, 1958, and assistance of students at The University of Texas and Baylor schools of law was obtained. In addition to statistics regularly published by the Judicial Council, the writ of error history of each case decided by the various courts of civil appeals was obtained. The history included county of origin of the case, whether it was decided by the court in the district where the suit originated or by a court to which the appeal was transferred, and the nature or classification to which the suit belonged.

Justice Norvell became a member of the Council in 1961, and the first report, entitled "Work of the Texas Courts of Civil Appeals, 1951-1958, Inclusive," was published in the Texas Law Review in June, 1960. The report was subsequently expanded to include the years through 1960. Authors of the Law Review article, in addition to Justice Norvell, included another member of the Council, T. C. Chadick, Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, 6th District, Texarkana, and L. Donovan, law student at The University of Texas Law School.

Local Rules of the District Courts of Texas

In 1958, the Texas Civil Judicial Council published a compilation of local court rules to be supplied to anyone in the state requesting them. The study project was initiated by the Council under direction of Judge Abner V. McCall, Council member and, at the time, Dean of the Baylor University Law School. Judge McCall arranged for Baylor law students to collect rules from all counties of Texas, and for the final compilation to be published by the Baylor Law Review. Reprints were obtained by the Council at cost of publication.

The 63rd Legislature (1973) adopted a concurrent resolution<sup>51</sup> directing the Council to compile and complete a set of local court rules, and to develop a proposed set of model local rules for consideration by the Supreme Court. The local court rules were compiled and distributed to members of the Legislature and others as directed by the resolution. Based upon a study of these local rules, the staff prepared several alternative sets of model local rules and distributed them to members of the Legislature, judges and law libraries.

Small Claims Courts

In 1940, the Council recommended to the Legislature the authorization for cities over 75,000 population to create small-claims courts for civil cases of $50.00 or less.<sup>52</sup>

Arbitration

An arbitration bill, under consideration by a committee of the Council for a few years, was approved in 1947 as an amendment to articles 224-238.<sup>53</sup> The bill would have allowed arbitration clauses in contracts for the settlement of future disputes whereas the existing statutes provided for arbitration only in existing disputes.

Judicial Redistricting Board

Representative Robert Fairchild, Chairman of the House of Representatives Committee on Judicial Districts, and members of the committee as co-authors, introduced a resolution before the 58th Legislature (1963) which requested the Council "... to make a comprehensive study of the adequacy of the present system of District Courts in Texas to afford expeditious dispatch of litigation and the need, if any, to redistrict the State for District Court purposes." This H.S.R. No. 348 passed.

In response to this resolution, the Council recommended a Constitutional amendment<sup>54</sup> to create the Texas Judicial Districts Board, which would have a continuing power to reapportion judicial districts, and a statute<sup>55</sup> spelling out the details of the Board's operation, written by Professor Angus S. McSwain, Jr., School of Law, Baylor University under the supervision of the Council and its Redistricting Committee. Judge Abner V. McCall was Chairman of the Redistricting Committee. The proposals passed the House in the next session, but were not reported out of the Senate.

Exemptions from Jury Service

As early as 1949, the Council recommended the reduction of the classes of persons exempted from jury service. 56 Proposals in this area later appear in 1966, with the recommendation that the "freeholder or householder" qualification in paragraph 7 of article 2133 be removed. 57 Such legislation was enacted in 1969. 58

Jury Fees

To discourage the demanding of jury trials merely for dilatory purposes, the Council has twice recommended the Supreme Court raise the jury fee in civil cases, 59 first in 1968 and again in 1977.

Attorney Fees

Article 2226, regarding the recovery of attorney fees in civil suits, was recommended for amendment in 1970.60 The suggested change would simplify and broaden the application of the statute.

Election of Special Judges

To avoid confusion and possibly undesirable results in those relatively rare instances in which special judges are chosen by lawyer-election when the regular judge is absent, ill or disqualified, the Council in 1970 recommended that articles 1887-1890 and any other relevant statutes be amended so as to limit the voting to lawyers residing in the judicial district concerned and to require advance notice of the election.<sup>51</sup>

Modification of the Mansfield Rule

In the family law field, in 1970 the Council recommended statutory modification<sup>62</sup> of the so-called Mansfield Rule of Common law, which, as applied in Texas, prevents both husband and wife from testifying to any fact tending to disprove the legitimacy of a child born to the wife during the legal existence of the marriage. Such a rule is deemed to work practical injustice in a substantial number of cases, even to the child in question and also to spouses, such as one stationed abroad for a protracted period, who thus have serious difficulty in making the necessary proof of non-access, however certain the fact thereof. In the same field, the Council also recommended certain changes regarding residential requirements and venue in divorce actions.

Delays in Criminal Appellate System

From 1970 through 1976, the Council collected data on individual cases filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals, focussing on the time periods between the several steps from the filing of an indictment to final disposition by the Court of Criminal Appeals. This data was analyzed and reported several times during the period of study.<sup>63</sup>

As a result of this study, delays were identified in preparation of the transcript and in the filing of briefs. Amendments to article 40.09, C.C.P., were drafted and submitted to the proper parties for consideration. Several of the proposed changes presented in the draft were later enacted by the 65th Legislature. 64

Juvenile Procedure Manuals

In 1972, the Council published its Manual for Texas Juvenile Court Judges. Supplements were provided users of the Manual as statutory or case law changes demanded, including a complete revision upon adoption of Title 3 of the Texas Family Code in 1973.

In 1977, the Texas Juvenile Probation Manual was published and is being similarly updated. Both of these publications are designed as a combination benchbook and reference work for officials dealing with juvenile offenders.

Studies of Expenditures and Revenues of the Texas Judicial System

The 1973 Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement felt that meaningful modernization of the court system would require the State to assume a large portion of the financial burden now borne largely by local governments, however, little financial data on the present court system was available. Realizing this need for information, both for purposes of presenting the Task Force's proposals to the 63rd Legislature, and for needs of others for information on this subject, the Civil Judicial Council in 1972 requested the Texas Research League to conduct a comprehensive study of state court financing. Working closely with the staff of the Judicial Council, especially regarding the court structure which might be established under authority of the Task Force's proposed judiciary article, the Research League released its report in 1973.65 For the first time, data on the costs and revenues of the court system at all levels was assembled and analyzed. Projections of costs of a revised court system, based on the Task Force's recommendations, were made.

In 1976, a subsequent study of judicial system costs and revenues was conducted by the Council staff. Budgets from the county, state and federal levels were examined and information on municipal expenditures and revenues was gathered by special survey of over 1,000 cities, towns and villages. First published in 1976,66 the report of the study was expanded and refined somewhat and released again in 1977.67

Municipal Courts of Record

The Council in 1976 endorsed a bill for the 65th Legislature to allow cities to establish municipal courts of record.

State of the Judiciary Message

The Council recommended that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court be invited to address the Legislature at the convening of each session. This proposal was embodied in legislation recommended by the Council to the Legislature and this draft was enacted into law in 1977.<sup>68</sup>

Court Reporting Study

The 64th Legislature (1965) passed H.B. 920 which provided that: ". . . the Supreme Court of Texas under its rule-making authority shall provide for the duties and fees of court reporters in all civil judicial proceedings, except as provided by law."

Responding to this legislative directive the Supreme Court referred this matter to the Supreme Court Rules Advisory Committee for advice. The Advisory Committee recommended to the Supreme Court that the Texas Judicial Council be requested to undertake a thorough study of this area and to make recommendations thereon.

The Council accepted this request from the Supreme Court in 1976 and directed the President to appoint a committee to report back to the Council on the recommendations and directed the staff of the Council to provide the necessary research for this committee. The President appointed the committee as follows: Mr. Charles R. Griggs, Chairman; Judges John McCraw, Jr. and Joe Ned Dean.

The staff prepared a first draft of a set of working papers for the members of the committee. The committee met in September, 1976 to review the draft and to receive testimony from representatives of the Texas Court Reporters Association. The committee then prepared an interim report which was presented to the Council. The Council reviewed the report and made certain general policy decisions thereof and directed the committee to continue its work and to submit a final report.

The staff of the Council then prepared a second draft of working papers and submitted them to the committee members who prepared their final recommendations.

A survey was conducted of the present fees charged by court reporters for preparation of transcripts, etc., and was included in the final report of the committee to the Council.

As a result of this committee's study, the Council made the following recommendations:

- 1. that a commission be established by appropriate legislation to:
  - a) establish statewide qualifications for court reporters, and
  - b) certify court reporters
- 2. New rules of civil procedure be recommended to:
  - a) provide a more definite definition of the duties of court reporters; and
  - establish as a general principle that supervision of the court reporters duties remains in the individual judges
- 3. New rules of civil procedure be recommended:
  - a) that the judge shall set priorities on the various elements of the workload of the court reporter; and
  - b) that court reporter provide periodic reports to the judge on any backlog of work
- 4. A statewide minimum and maximum fee schedule for court reporters work product be set by rule.
- 5. Court reporters should receive pay for indigent civil cases on same basis as at present in criminal cases.
- A statute is recommended to provide for additional court costs in civil cases to offset county expenses in providing indigency fees and equipment of court reporters office.
- 7. Rule 354 should be amended to allow the court to set an appeal bond higher than the present $500 bond.
- 8. A statute is recommended to require county governments to provide for the basic office equipment for each official court reporter.
- Rule 21c should be amended to provide the civil appellate courts with specific sanctions against court reporters for delay filings.

Specific language to accomplish the above recommendations was made a part of the report.

In addition to the above recommendations, the committee considered the following areas and made the following report thereon to the Council:

- The committee considered the availability of the use of court reporting methods other than shorthand, but determined that it lacked enough information on the various systems at this time to make any specific recommendations thereon.
- 2. The committee observed that the demise of the use of the notice of appeal has resulted in some confusion as to who has the responsibility for certain steps in the appellate process and that Rule 376 needs clarification on this point. The recommendation of specific language was felt not to be within the scope of the committee's responsibilities.
- After considering collaterally the court reporting problems in the criminal appellate system, the committee as a separate report recommended the Council's endorsement of H.B. 270 of the 64th Legislature by Representative Grant which would provide that extension of time in the preparation of transcripts, statement of facts, etc., in criminal appellate cases, could be granted only by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Following closely the recommendations of the Council, the 65th Legislature created the Court Reporters Committee to establish qualifications for and certify to the Supreme Court court reporters for licensing. The Supreme Court amended several rules of civil procedure to better define the duties of court reporters, to strengthen the supervision of court reporters by trial judges, and to standardize the form of statements of fact.

In 1978, the Office of Court Administration, which also serves as staff of the Council, assumed the administrative functions for the Texas Court Reporters Committee.

Capital Murder Study

Early in 1976, the Council conducted a study on capital murder cases in the Texas courts. The report on the study71 was cited extensively by the Attorney General in his defense of Texas capital murder statutes before the U.S. Supreme Court in Jurek v. Texas.72 Questionnaires were directed, on February 4, 1976, to each prosecutor in the state who had jurisdiction of felony cases. The prosecutors were requested to indicate if any capital murder cases had gone to trial (a witness testified before a jury) in their respective jurisdictions between June 14, 1973 (the effective date of the current capital murder statute) and the date of the study. The prosecutors were further requested to complete a report on each case which had gone to trial between those dates. This information provided the basis for the initial report. Subsequently, the information has been updated and extended to more details of the facts of the cases involved. The updated study was of great interest to several members of the 65th Legislature who were considering changes in the capital murder statutes.

Public Information Pamphlets

In 1976, three pamphlets were prepared and supplied to courts for distribution to the public. Entitled, "Your Rights in Municipal Court," "Your Rights in Traffic Cases in the Justice of the Peace Courts" and "Small Claims Court," these small pamphlets were written to give the layman an overview of three court processes with which the general public most often comes in contact.

Pre-Oral Argument Settlement Conferences

Coincidentally with a 1977 Council committee's study of appellate procedure, the Legislative Budget Board proposed to the Legislature an appropriation to three courts of civil appeals for a pilot program of using retired justices to conduct pre-oral argument conferences in the courts to discuss the case, the issues, possibilities of settlement and to dispose of the case if possible. The Council voted to support this program, which did become part of the Appropriations Bill.

Central Staffs for Appellate Courts

The Council approved the recommendation of its 1977 Appellate Procedure Study Committee, chaired by Justice Thomas M. Reavley, that the Legislature provide funds for central professional staffs for each of the appellate courts in the State. (Such an appropriation was made to the Supreme Court.)

State Court Administration

The Council in 1976 recommended passage of the bill drafted by the House Judiciary Committee under the direction of Rep. Ben Z. Grant, Chairman, which would establish an office of state court administration to assist the Supreme Court in its administrative duties, assist all judges and clerks in the discharge of their administrative duties and assist in preparation of budget estimates for state appropriations for the judicial system.

Senate Bill 192 of the 65th Legislature<sup>73</sup> was signed by Governor Dolph Briscoe April 5, 1977, and became effective immediately, creating the state Office of Court Administration. On June 1, 1977, the Supreme Court of Texas implemented the provisions of this statute and appointed the first Administrative Director of the Courts. Under terms of the statute, the staff of the Office of Court Administration also serves as the staff of the Texas Judicial Council. Thus many of the activities of the Office of Court Administration are conducted in the name of the Texas Judicial Council.

During 1977, the staff served the Texas Judicial Council alone until June 1. Thereafter, it served as the staff of the Texas Judicial Council as well as the Office of Court Administration.

Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges

The Council devoted much attention in 1978 to the implementation of article 1200f, V.T.C.S. (Continuing Legal Education for Municipal Court Judges). Enacted by the 65th Legislature, the law directs the Council to discover and encourage the development of courses; promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses; approve or disapprove accreditation of the courses and make an annual report to the Governor, the Attorney General and the City Attorney of the cities of those judges who have not attended a course. The Council is also empowered to grant individual judges waivers from the provisions of the law. Rules of the Council for implementing the new statute were adopted and a committee composed of Justice Charles W. Barrow, Chairman, and Justices W. St.John Garwood and T. C. Chadick was appointed to review applications and make recommendations to the Council in accrediting courses. Upon the retirement of Justices Garwood and Chadick as members of the Council, Mr. Ben Sewell and Mr. Grant Cook were appointed to the committee. As there is no statewide registry of municipal courts or municipal judges, the staff of the Council spent considerable time in locating and identifying the municipal judges of the state to enable the Council to administer this Act.

Voir Dire Examination of Jurors

The occasional extended period devoted to voir dire examination in the trial of cases, a topic studied previously by the Council in 1971,74 came to its attention again in 1978, noting that in certain instances the news media reported extensively on the length of time involved in the selection of a jury. In addition, the 65th Legislature had passed the Speedy Trial Act75 which created some new demands on the courts in disposing of cases. For these reasons, the staff of the Council made an extended study of the voir dire process in this and the other states and presented a report thereon to the Council. After a review of this report, and discussion on the voir dire process at several Council meetings the Council adopted a resolution, which was transmitted to all district and county and appellate judges of the state, recommending that trial judges use their inherent discretion in the jury selection process to reduce excessive voir dire examinations.

In transmitting the resolution to all Texas trial and appellate judges, President Martin Dies, Jr., explained that the adoption of the resolution was not intended to interfere with the discretion of any trial judge in the disposition of a case before his court. Rather it was adopted with the sole intent of aiding those trial judges who wish to avail themselves of the authority they now have to keep voir dire examination within reasonable bounds while ensuring the rights of all parties before the court.

Diversity of Citizenship Cases

At the time of the Council's March 3, 1978, meeting, the U.S. House of Representatives had passed a bill returning diversity of citizenship cases to the state courts. After consideration of the number of cases this would add to the workload of Texas courts, the Council concluded that those cases did properly belong in the state courts, and requested the President of the Council to write Senators Bentsen and Tower expressing the Council's support for the legislation.

MEMBERS

Some of the most prominent lawyers and citizens of Texas have served on the Council. A list of former and present members is contained in the appendix.

OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

The 65th Legislature enacted S.B. 192, which was later codified as art. 2328b, V.T.C.S. Effective April 5, 1977, this statute establishes the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System, to operate at the direction and under the supervision of the Texas Supreme Court, and to perform the duties provided by the Act to ensure the efficient administration of the Texas Judicial System and the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council. The Act provides ten specific duties to be performed by this new office:

Sec. 6. Under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice, the administrative director shall implement the provisions of this Act and the rules of administration and other rules promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this State. He shall:

 assist the justices and judges of the various courts in discharging their administrative duties:

consult with and assist the administrative judges in discharging their duties under provisions of law and rules promulgated by the Supreme Court;

make such recommendations to the Supreme Court as may be appropriate for the implementation of this Act;

- examine the administrative and business methods and systems employed in the offices of the clerks of court and other offices related to and serving the courts and make recommendations for necessary improvement and recommend forms and other documents used to record the business of the courts;
- examine the state of the dockets and practices and procedures of the courts and make recommendations for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice;
- prepare and submit budget estimates of State appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and make recommendations on the expenditure of State funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system; consult with and assist the clerks of court and other officers and employees of the courts and of offices related to and serving the courts to provide for the efficient administration of justice:

consult with and make recommendations to the court administrators and court coordinators of the courts of the State to provide for uniform administration and promote the efficient administration of justice in all courts of the State;

perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief prepare an annual report of the activities of his office to be published in the annual report of the Texas Judicial Council.

In creating this new office, the Legislature did not provide any general revenue appropriations for its operations. As the Act provided for a unified staff for the new agency and the Texas Judicial Council, the State funds ($54,981) and the federal grant funds ($335,092) previously provided for the operations of the Texas Judicial Council were utilized to finance the newly imposed duties and responsibilities with no increase in the size of the staff which had previously served only the Texas Judicial Council. Due to this limited funding, not all aspects of the duties imposed by article 2328b have been fully implemented. However, by the judicious use of the available staff, most of the more basic new responsibilities have been addressed.

Presently the staff of the Office of Court Administration consists of 14 full-time persons and 3 half-time employ-

Reporting Systems

Under the authority of article 2328a, sec. 5, V.T.C.S., which provides for the reporting of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the office receives approximately 1,500 reports each month from the 2,271 courts of the State. These reports are checked upon receipt for internal inconsistencies and entered into a computerized data system maintained through an interagency agreement with the Texas Water Resources Commission. This provides ready access to the current status of the state of the dockets of the courts throughout the State on a county by county basis. Numerous requests are received and complied with throughout the year on this type of information. The monthly reports are submitted to the office on official forms developed in consultation with advisory committees of local court officials and include an eight-page report for the activities of the district courts, a five-page report for county level courts, and one-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

From the statistics reported to the office on the monthly district court reporting forms, a monthly summary is compiled for each of the nine administrative judicial districts of the State. These reports contain information on the number of cases pending at the beginning of the month, new cases added during the month, number of cases disposed of during the month, and the total number of cases pending at the end of the month. The report is provided to the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts by the 10th of the month following the month the statistics are received to provide them with current statistical district court caseload data on all counties within their administrative judicial district. This enables the presiding judges to exercise the managerial oversight necessary to ensure the effective and efficient administration of justice within their individual administrative judicial districts.

This office also developed and maintains a monthly reporting system for the courts of civil appeals to aid the Supreme Court in its responsibility of equalizing the dockets of the courts of civil appeals pursuant to art. 1737, V.T.C.S. A report is submitted to the office each month by each of the fourteen courts of civil appeals on an individual case format. These reports are compiled and analyzed and a monthly report is prepared for the Supreme Court on the status of all cases pending in the fourteen courts of civil appeals. These reports contain pertinent data needed by the Supreme Court to make informed decisions in fulfilling its responsibilities in the equalization of dockets. Following the Supreme Court's determination on the transfer of cases, this office contacts each court of civil appeals to effect the transfer of specific cases between the various courts. During the calendar year 1978, 385 cases were ordered transferred by the Supreme Court among the courts as follows:

80 cases from Dallas to Eastland

70 cases from Dallas to Texarkana

49 cases from Austin to Tyler

20 cases from Houston (1st) to Beaumont

20 cases from Houston (1st) to Eastland

20 cases from Dallas to Waco

20 cases from Dallas to Amarillo

20 cases from Houston (14th) to Waco

20 cases from San Antonio to Waco 20 cases from Houston (14th) to Tyler

16 cases from San Antonio to Beaumont

15 cases from Austin to Fort Worth 15 cases from Austin to Beaumont

Another reporting system maintained by this office is that of the Juvenile Probation System. Approximately 205 reports are received each month from the 180 juvenile probation offices in the State. This 4-page report is checked for accuracy and entered into the computerized data bank for current retrieval to comply with requests received by this office concerning juvenile probation activity.

The above described statistics and information are published on an annual basis in two formal reports, one on the court activity and a separate one on juvenile probation activity.

The Forty-Ninth Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the First Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in May, 1978. Containing 681 pages, the report includes statistical data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for calendar year 1977. Approximately 18,000 monthly statistical reports were compiled and vali-dated during 1977 to produce the statistical data in the Annual Report, with a similar volume anticipated in 1978. Also in the Annual Report are analyses of recent Attorney General's Opinions affecting court operations and articles on the variances in subject-matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts. The report includes summaries of the structure, responsibilities and activities of eleven agencies which work within the Texas judicial system; a thorough descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and court coordinators/administrators in the State. Also included are statistical analyses of assignments by presiding judges of the State's nine administrative judicial districts. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. A total of 4,000 copies were distributed.

Two special reports were included in the Annual Report and also reproduced for separate distribution — one on the financing of the judicial branch of government at all levels and the second a summary of legislation affecting the courts which was passed by the 65th Legislature. The report on financing of the judiciary was developed through an analysis of the State General Appropriations Act, the individual county budgets of the 254 counties of the State. and a special survey of selected municipalities. It covers fiscal year 1976, the latest year for which comparable fiscal records were available. The report on new legislation affecting the courts summarized and explained 112 Acts of the 65th Legislature, Regular Session.

Published and distributed this year was the second annual report on juvenile probation in Texas. Entitled Texas Juvenile Probation Report, this publication contains statistics, analyses, and explanatory text concerning juvenile probation activity and juvenile courts in the State. This report was distributed to all juvenile court judges, juvenile probation officers, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 1,500 copies were distributed.

The production of the Annual Report and the Juvenile Probation Report is primarily an in-house project—copy is delivered to the printers in camera-ready form after being prepared by the staff of the office.

In 1976-1977, this office, at the request of the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office, prepared a 441 page manual for juvenile probation officers. During 1978, a 146-page revision to this manual was written and distributed to all holders of the manual. The revision updates the manual by the addition of all new legislation and all new court decisions affecting juvenile courts and juvenile probation activities.

Legislative Services

During the session of the 65th Legislature, over 100 requests for special reports on proposed or pending bills were received from members of the Legislature and staffs of the various legislative committees having jurisdiction over bills affecting the courts. These requests usually entailed the preparation of individualized reports for reply. A similar level of requests is anticipated during the 66th legislative session.

Preparation for the 66th Legislature occupied much of the staff's time during the past several months. During the calendar year 1978, this office has worked closely with the staffs of the legislative committees on interim studies and reports which will be presented to the 66th Legislature. The staff has drafted over 40 bills for members of the Legislature, judges, and organizations to consider for introduction during the 66th Legislature. The staff has provided assistance to the interim legislative study committees concerning the judiciary, including the House Judiciary and Judicial Affairs Committees, the Senate Jurisprudence Committee and special committees on Judicial Redistricting and Juvenile Crime. The staff also prepares a daily memo analyzing prefiled bills which affect the judicial branch of government and distributes them to the justices of the Supreme Court, the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, and other interested officials of the judiciary. This daily memo will be continued throughout the session, reporting on the progress of bills affecting the judiciary.

Texas Court Reporters Committee

In July, 1978, at the request of the Texas Court Reporters Committee and at the direction of Chief Justice Greenhill, this office assumed the administrative staff function for the Texas Court Reporters Committee. One additional staff person was provided the office to aid in the performance of these additional duties.

The Texas Court Reporters Committee was established by the 65th Legislature and operates pursuant to article 2324b, V.T.C.S., which became effective on August 29, 1977. This article requires each person who desires to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State to be certified by the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Committee. The Committee is charged with the responsibilities of reviewing applications of persons who were engaged in court reporting prior to the enactment of the statute for certification without examination; developing and administering tests on the qualifications and skills for court reporters as set out in the law; collecting fees; certifying successful applicants to the Supreme Court for official certification; conducting hearings on complaints filed against certified shorthand reporters; and revoking certification of reporters for unprofessional conduct, appealable to the district courts.

Since assuming the administrative function of this Committee, three examinations have been administered, in August, September, and October. A total of 319 applicants have taken the exam and 89 were certified as shorthand reporters upon their successful completion of these examinations. In addition, 1,016 applicants were certified after a careful review of their applications without the necessity of an examination under the provisions of sections 6(a) and (b) of this Act. For the first time, a directory of certified reporters was prepared for better utilization of court reporting resources across the State.

Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges

The 65th Legislature enacted art. 1200f, V.T.C.S., which provides for continuing legal education of municipal court judges. This statute provides that each new non-lawyer judge may complete a 24-hour course in the performance of his duties during the first year of service as a municipal court judge and provides for a similar 8-hour course for lawyer-judges. Thereafter each judge may complete an eight (8) hour course annually. The article provides that the Texas Judicial Council is to administer the Act, discover and encourage the offering of appropriate courses to fulfill the requirements of the Act and review all proposed courses and accredit those meeting the requirements of the Act and as established by the Council. The Act further provides that the Council is to make an annual report to the Governor, the Attorney General, and the City Attorney of each city on the non-compliance by individual judges with the provisions of the Act. To implement this law, this office devoted considerable time to the development of courses and seminars meeting the requirements of the Act, monitoring the courses accredited by the Council and recording the attendance of judges attending the courses. As there is no central statewide registry of municipal courts or judges, a considerable amount of time is spent by the staff in locating and identifying the municipal judges of the State. A total of 813 municipal judges are currently

During the calendar year 1978, a total of ten courses accredited by the Council were offered by four different institutions and organizations and a total of 386 municipal court judges have been certified as attending these courses. In addition 37 judges were granted waivers under the provisions of section 4(b) of the Act.

State Appropriation Budget Estimates for the Judiciary

The Act establishing the Office of Court Administation provides that this office shall prepare and submit budget estimates for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government to the Legislature. In fulfilling this responsibility for the 66th Legislature in 1979, the Office of Court Administration has worked with the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning to coordinate the preparation of the budget estimates by the various courts and judicial agencies. This office hosted two one-day conferences in Austin for the appellate courts and judicial agencies to discuss budget preparation, business procedures, and statistical reports. The office also prepared material regarding budgets, statistical reports, microfilming and retention of court records, and other procedures and policies for discussion at the annual conference of the clerks of the courts of civil appeals in November. Staff members of this office have personally conferred with personnel and justices of each of the courts of civil appeals, the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the statewide judicial agencies located in Austin to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budgets. This has opened important lines of communication among all judicial agencies to ensure that the requests for necessary financing for the efficient operation of the judicial branch of government are properly presented to the Legislature.

Technical Assistance and Evaluation

Pursuant to the provisions of article 2328b, V.T.C.S., the office has assumed an increased role in providing and coordinating technical assistance to judges, clerks, and court coordinators in the courts of this State.

Drafts of proposed statewide rules of administration for the judicial system, authorized by section 2 of article 2328b, V.T.C.S., were prepared and submitted to the Supreme Court for its consideration. Likewise, drafts of proposed administrative rules for the nine administrative judicial districts were prepared and provided, upon request, to presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts for consideration by the judges of those districts.

At the request of the Chief Justice of one of the courts of civil appeals, the office has commenced a study of the problems of the retention and storage of records of the cases disposed of by the various courts of civil appeals in the State. This storage of records is causing serious problems currently to several of the courts and has been exacerbated by the recent adoption of the constitutional amendment and enabling legislation increasing the number of justices in three of these courts. Article 1831b, V.T.C.S., provides that the courts of civil appeals may individually develop plans for the microfilming of old records. However, it has been determined that this is an expensive method of preservation of records and further that the Legislature provided no funds for such microfilming. The staff of this office has met on several occasions with representatives of the Local Records Department of the State Archives of the State Library to discuss a possibly more economical solution to this continuing problem.

As a result, contacts have been developed between the Fifth Court of Civil Appeals in Dallas, the First and Fourteenth Courts in Houston, and the Second Court in Fort Worth, and regional depositories maintained by the State Library to devise plans for the transfer of old case records from the courts of civil appeals to the State Archives for temporary storage. In addition, a continuing liaison will be maintained between this office and the State Library to develop a permanent solution to this continuing problem in the most economical manner possible. Several local district clerks' offices have also been given assistance in solving their problems of records management and stor-

The courts in a number of counties in Texas are in the process of developing computer systems to help with the ever-increasing caseloads and to make existing systems flow more efficiently. The staff of this office has consulted with a number of these local courts to provide technical assistance, advice, and guidance in the development of their local systems to ensure the most economical use and compatibility with existing systems in other counties. Some of the types of systems or subsystems developed or being developed in counties of the State include: case docketing, case tracking, jury selection, warrant systems, jail systems, child support, adult probation, and county and district attorney systems.

The Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office and the Judicial Planning Committee have requested that this office provide technical assistance to grant-funded court coordinator projects beginning January 1, 1979. This will add substantial work to the ongoing operations of this office.

Support to Other Agencies

The Office of Court Administration maintains the financial records for the operations of the Judicial Planning Committee, an organization which is authorized by federal legislation to oversee the distribution of Law Enforcement Assistance Administration funds provided to the State of Texas for court projects. By the provisions of this federal legislation, the Chief Justice of the Texas Supreme Court and the Administrative Director of the Office of Court Administration serve as members of the Advisory Committee of the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office. Currently both serve on the Courts Subcommittee of the Criminal Justice Advisory Committee.

Staff members of the office belong to the Texas Criminal Justice Information Users Group (TCJIUG), an incorporated organization consisting of city, county, state, and federal criminal justice agencies in Texas which are involved or contemplating involvement in a computerized system or which use or have access to such a system. This requires attendance at several meetings a year and the usual committee work and assignments between such meetings.

The staff of this office also conducts ten lectures per year at seminars and schools sponsored by the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association to aid in providing the schooling mandated by art. 5972, V.T.C.S., and at seminars for municipal court judges conducted under the provisions of art. 1200f, V.T.C.S. Presentations are also made at County and District Clerks Association conferences and the Texas Court Clerk's Association seminars and meetings to provide technical assistance and encourage the improvement of reporting rates on the monthly court activity reports previously discussed.

This office also maintains a close working relationship with, and provides information on the judicial branch of government and court activities to many other State agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the judiciary, such as the Texas Youth Council, the Local Records Management Division of the State Library, the Judicial Planning Committee, the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office, the County and District Clerks Association, and the Justice of the Peace Training Center. It also provides information on the Texas judicial system to many individual citizens of Texas and other State and private agencies. It maintains contact with the State Court Administrative Offices of other states and with the National Center for State Courts to keep abreast of new developments in the administration of justice in other states and to provide them with information on the Texas judicial system.

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Four meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during 1978 — on March 3rd, June 9th, September 8th and December 1st.

Officers elected for the year beginning July 1, 1978 are: President, Chief Justice Martin Dies, Jr., of the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals in Beaumont; Vice-President, Hon. Ben Z. Grant of Marshall, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Secretary, Justice Charles W. Barrow of the Supreme Court.

Legislative and Rule Proposals

A variety of proposals to the 66th Legislature for legislation and to the Supreme Court for changes in the Rules of Civil Procedure were made by the Council. At its September meeting, the Council endorsed the passage of legislation to provide that the salaries of presiding judges of administrative judicial districts be not less than $5,000 nor more than $15,000; that the per diem for visiting judges be raised from $25.00 to $50.00; that either the State pay the entire salary of district judges or require mandatory supplementation by the counties; and that an administrative assistant be provided each presiding judge of the administrative judicial districts by the State. The necessary bills and resolutions to implement these recommendations were drafted by the staff and contacts made with various members of the Legislature to serve as sponsors of the appropriate legislation.

At its December meeting, the Council recommended to the 66th Legislature a number of proposals for improving the operations of the State court system and drafts of the proposed legislation were prepared and submitted by the staff:

staff:

 A constitutional amendment and companion statutes to require that any person appointed or elected to an appellate court bench have experience as a judge of a trial court, or the endorsement of 50 or 100 (depending on the court) attorneys;

(2) A constitutional amendment proposing the addition of a municipal court judge to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct;

Statutory amendments to Article 200a, which regulates the assignment of visiting judges, to provide that the nine administrative judges be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court rather than the Governor. The proposal would also establish a mechanism for the Chief Justice to temporarily assume the duties of a presiding judge who dies, resigns, absences himself, becomes disablingly ill or disqualifies himself, and provides that administrative assistance to presiding judges be provided by a State paid "administrative assis-tant" and county paid staff rather than the district clerk of the presiding judge's residence as at present.

(4) A constitutional amendment to change the name of the courts of civil appeals to "Courts of Appeals," and delete "civil" from the definition of cases over which those courts have jurisdiction, thereby allowing the Legislature to grant the courts criminal jurisdiction. (The wording would not automatically confer intermediate criminal appellate jurisdiction upon the present courts of civil appeals.)

Voir Dire Examination of Jurors

One of the more perplexing problems in the administration of justice is the occasional extended period devoted to voir dire examination in the trial of cases. In certain instances the news media has reported extensively on the length of time involved in the selection of a jury. In addition, the 65th Legislature passed the Speedy Trial Act (S.B. 1043) which created some new demands on the courts in disposing of cases. For these reasons, the Council appointed a committee composed of Justice Charles W. Barrow, Chairman, and Council members Judges Ross Doughty and Peter Michael Curry to make an indepth study of the subject. The staff of the Council made an extended study of the voir dire process in this and the other states and presented a report thereon to the Council. After a thorough review of this request, and discussion on the voir dire process at several Council meetings, the Council adopted a resolution which was transmitted to Martin Dies, Jr., President Chief Justice Ninth Court of Civil Appeals Beaumont all district, county, and appellate judges of the State, recommending that trial judges use their inherent discretion in the jury selection process to reduce excessive voir dire examinations.

In transmitting the resolution, President Martin Dies, Jr. explained that adoption of the resolution was not intended to interfere with the discretion of any trial judge in the disposition of a case before his court. Rather it was adopted with the sole intent of aiding those trial judges who wish to avail themselves of the authority they now have to keep voir dire examination within reasonable bounds while ensuring the rights of all parties before the court.

Diversity of Citizenship Cases

At the time of the Council's March 3rd meeting, the U.S. House of Representatives had passed a bill returning diversity of citizenship cases to the state courts. After consideration of the number of cases this would add to the workload of Texas courts, the Council concluded that those cases did properly belong in the state courts, and the President of the Council informed Senators Bentsen and Tower of the Council's support for this legislation.

Reports

The Forty-Ninth Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council was published in the spring. Containing 681 pages, the report contains statistical data on court activity at all levels in the State of Texas for calendar year 1977. Also included are statistical analyses and articles on recent Attorney General's Opinions and variances in subject matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. A total of 4,000 copies were distributed.

Two special reports were included in the Annual Report and also reproduced for separate distribution — one on the financing of the judicial branch of government at all levels and the second a summary of legislation affecting the courts which was passed by the 65th Legislature.

Published and distributed this year was the second annual report on juvenile probation in Texas. Entitled Texas Juvenile Probation Report, this publication contains statistics and explanatory text concerning juvenile probation and juvenile courts in 231 of the 254 counties in the State. This report was distributed to all juvenile court judges, juvenile probation officers, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 1,500 copies were distributed.

Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges

The Council devoted considerable attention to the implementation of article 1200f (Continuing Legal Education for Municipal Court Judges). Enacted by the 65th Legislature (S.B. 387), the law directs the Council to discover and encourage the development of courses; promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses; approve or disapprove accreditation of the courses and make an annual report to the Governor, the Attorney General, and the City Attorney of the cities of those judges who have not attended a course. The Council is also empowered to grant individual judges waivers from the provisions of the law. As there is no statewide registry of municipal court judges, the administrative staff expended considerable time in locating and identifying the municipal judges of the State. As a result, 813 municipal judges were identified by name, city, and address. During the year the Council accredited 13 courses, granted waivers from the educational programs for 35 judges, and denied three requests for waivers. Of the 813 municipal judges identified, 387 have attended accredited courses during this year.

Office of Court Administration

Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., which became operative on June 1, 1977, established the Office of Court Administration. The provisions of that article provide that the Supreme Court shall appoint the Administrative Director of the Courts of the Texas judicial system who, as an additional duty of office, shall serve as the executive director of the Texas Judicial Council. It also provides that the Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary administrative assistance to provide for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council. Because the work of the Texas Judicial Council and the Office of Court Administration is so closely related, reference should be made to the report of that office for a complete view of the operations of the Council.

Texas Court Reporters Committee

In July, 1978, at the request of the Texas Court Reporters Committee and at the direction of Chief Justice Greenhill, the staff assumed the administrative staff function for the Texas Court Reporters Committee. One additional staff person was provided the office to aid in the performance of these additional duties.

Since assuming the administrative function for this committee, three examinations have been administered, in August, September, and October. A total of 319 applicants have taken the exam and 89 were certified as shorthand reporters upon their successful completion of these examinations. In addition, 1,016 applicants were certified after a careful review of their applications without the necessity of an examination. For the first time, a directory of certified reporters was prepared for better utilization of court reporting resources across the State.

Retention and Storage of Civil Appellate Records

staff has commenced a study of the problems of the retention and storage of records of the cases disposed of by the various courts of civil appeals in the State. This storage of records is causing serious problems currently to several of the courts and has been exacerbated by the recent adoption of the constitutional amendment and enabling legislation increasing the number of justices in three of these courts. Article 1831b, V.T.C.S., provides that the courts of civil appeals may individually develop plans for the microfilming of old records. However, it has been determined that this is an expensive method of preservation of records and further that the Legislature provided no funds for such microfilming.

The staff of this office met on several occasions with representatives of the Local Records Department of the State Archives of the State Library to discuss a possibly more economical solution to this immediate problem. As a result, contacts were developed between the Fifth Court of Civil Appeals in Dallas, the First and Fourteenth Courts in Houston, and the Second Court in Fort Worth, and regional depositories maintained by the State Library to devise plans for the transfer of old case records from the courts of civil appeals to the State Archives for temporary storage. In addition, a continuing liaison will be maintained between this office and the State Library to develop a permanent solution to this continuing problem in the most economical manner possible.

Other Matters

While not resulting in final recommendations, several other matters have been researched by the staff and considered by the Council. Among these matters are:

1. Permitting increased television coverage of trial proceedings:

Various measures to encourage the increased use of arbitration in resolving disputes;

 Proposed Rules of Administration to be promulgated by the Supreme Court pursuant to art. 2328b;

4. The consequences of Attorney General Opinion H-1076 requiring the use of 12 person juries in some cases in county courts at law; and Decriminalization of traffic offenses.

TEXAS ADULT PROBATION COMMISSION ____

The 65th Legislature created the Texas Adult Probation Commission with the passage of Senate Bill 39 in 1977. Senate Bill 39 amended article 42.12 and created article 42.121 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. This legislation created the Texas Adult Probation Commission consisting of three judges of the district courts of Texas, two citizens of Texas who are not employed in the Criminal Justice System to be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, three judges of the district courts of Texas, and one citizen of Texas who is not employed in the Criminal Justice System to be appointed by the presiding judge of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. The members of the Commission serve without compensation and the initial members appointed serve terms of two, four, and six years respectively. Thereafter each member shall serve for six years.

The Commission is instructed to establish minimum standards for caseloads, programs, facilities, equipment, and other aspects of the operation of a probation office necessary for the provision of adequate and effective probation services, to establish a code of ethics for probation officers, and provide for the enforcement thereof. The Commission is also empowered to require each probation office in Texas to keep such financial and statistical records as the Commission deems necessary.

The Commission was given the pur-

"To make probation services available throughout the State, to improve the effectiveness of probation services, to provide alternatives to incarceration by providing financial aid to judicial districts for the establishment and improvement of probation services and community-based correctional programs and facilities other than jails or prisons, and to establish uniform administration standards." (article 42.121, sec. 1.01, Code of Criminal Procedure)

In order to accomplish the purposes set forth above, the Commission was provided with $761,000 in fiscal year 1978, and $19 million in fiscal year 1979. The Commission is further empowered to provide financial assistance to judicial districts to achieve the purposes previously stated.

Achievements

In spring of 1978, the Commission adopted the first state-wide standards for adult probation services. Included were standards for administration, probation officer eligibility and training, supervision, caseloads, programs, facilities, equipment and fiscal management

The Commission also adopted a funding policy for fiscal year 1979 which when fully implemented will allow the distribution of approximately $18.2 million to judicial districts for probation departments and community-based corrections.

September 12, 1978 was the day the first state aid payment was made by the Commission to local judicial adult probation departments.

The establishment of the Monthly Caseload Summary Report information system by the Commission in June saw, for the first time in Texas, the routine collection of caseload data from the adult probation departments.

The development of mailing lists and telephone directories by the Commission identified for the first time the chief adult probation officers in Texas and their geographical jurisdictions (there are 106 adult probation departments covering 254 counties of Texas).

Of the 106 departments, 99 are participating in the Commission's stateaid program and nineteen of the 33 non-participating counties are cooperating in reporting statistical informa-

The Telephone Directory of Adult Probation Officers in Texas, published by TAPC, is designed to identify the adult probation officers currently in departments and provide a comprehensive listing of both personnel and offices around the State. The directory is to provide a cross reference document to facilitate communication among professionals and departments. Also a preliminary version of a directory of designated chief fiscal officers (for each probation department participating in state-aid) is in operation.

The 1978 Planning Survey, a joint endeavor by the Commission and Sam Houston State University, was designed to gather baseline data about adult probation services in Texas; this benchmark survey addressed topics such as administrative functions, types of services being provided, volumes of activity, and fiscal information.

In order to utilize existing resources and avoid duplication of costs and services the Commission has entered in Interagency Agreements with:

Sam Houston State University Texas Commission on Alcoholism Texas Department of Community Affairs

Texas Rehabilitation Commission
Office of Court Administration
The Secretary of State's Office
Texas Department of Water Resources

The Commission designed a Compliance With Standards system to provide local adult probation departments a method to assess their operations with Commission Standards.

In addition to formula funding by the Commission, 19 adult probation departments were eligible for and received supplemental funding from the Commission. In initial efforts to improve probation services, the Commission also has funded the establishment of special programs including:

 Pre-sentence investigation units in Beaumont.

2. Misdemeanor probation supervision in Dallas.

 A Community Residential Center as an alternative to incarceration in El Paso.

In the area of education, the Commission surveyed all junior and senior colleges in Texas for correctional courses and training sessions available to adult probation personnel.

The TAPC has also completed the first phase of a survey of probation officers' training, experience, and education.

The Commission sponsored and held a workshop on "The Texas Adult Probation Commission" at the annual Texas Corrections Association Conference, along with another session of the "Impact of Privacy Regulations on Adult Probation Departments."

A Chief Probation Officers' Workshop was held in September by the Commission.

The Commission has cooperated in training and workshop programs sponsored by Sam Houston State University, Texas Corrections Association, and Texas Department of Community Affairs - Drug Abuse Prevention Division.

Numerous requests for technical assistance of both a program and fiscal nature were processed for adult probation departments by the Commission.

The auditing fiscal division of the Commission has established audit programs and procedures. The auditing unit will be responsible for determining that State funds provided to local governmental units are expended in the most responsible manner to accomplish the intent of State laws and Commission guidelines.

Special studies involving items such as felony dispositions; 1977 felony offenses in Texas from "number of offenses reported" through "final dispositions"; and others were conducted by

TAPC.

TEXAS COURT REPORTERS COMMITTEE_

Legislative Authority

The Texas Court Reporters Committee was established by the 65th Legislature and operates pursuant to article 2324b, V.T.C.S. which became effective on August 29, 1977. This article requires each person who desires to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State to be certified by the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Committee. The Committee is charged with the responsibilities of reviewing applications of persons who were engaged in court reporting prior to the enactment of the statute for certification without examination; developing and administering tests on the qualifications and skills for court reporters as set out in the law; collecting fees; certifying successful applicants to the Supreme Court for official certification; conducting hearings on complaints filed against certified shorthand reporters; and revoking certification of reporters for unprofessional conduct, appealable to the district courts.

Specifically the Act provides that:
Section 1. No person may be appointed an official court reporter or deputy court reporter or may engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state unless that person is the holder of a certificate in full force and effect issued by the Supreme Court of Texas.

Sec. 2. A person engaging in the practice of shorthand reporting who violates the provisions of Section 1 of this Act is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor, and each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 3. In this Act, "the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state" means the making of a verbatim record of an oral court proceeding, deposition, or proceeding before a grand jury, referee, or court commissioner by means of written symbols or abbreviations in shorthand or machine shorthand writing or oral stenography.

Sec. 4. There is hereby created the Texas Court Reporters Committee to consist of the following nine members appointed by the supreme

(1) one active district judge who shall serve as the committee's chairman:

(2) two active members of the State Bar who have been practicing members of the bar during more than five consecutive years next preceding their appointment; and

(3) three active official court reporters and three active free-lance court reporters who have been engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state during more than five consecutive years next preceding their appointment.

Sec. 11. (a) Each person to whom a certificate is issued shall, as a condition precedent to its issuance and in addition to any other fee which may be payable, pay the initial certificate fee which shall be fixed by the committee, subject to approval by the supreme court.

(b) Each certificate issued under this Act that has not been renewed shall expire at the date of the second anniversary of the date of the issuance of the certificate. To renew a certificate, the certificate holder shall, on or before the expiration date of the certificate, pay the renewal fee which shall be fixed by the committee, subject to approval by the supreme court.

Sec. 12. (a) The committee shall have the powers and duties enumerated in Subsections (b) through (e) of this section.

(b) The committee shall administer tests to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certificates under this Act. Each test shall be given in two parts to be designated Part A and Part B. Part A shall be composed of five minutes of two-voice dictation of questions and answers given at 225 words per minute, five minutes of dictation of jury charge given at 200 words per minute, and five minutes of dictation of selected literary material given at 180 words per minute. Each applicant shall personally take down the test, either in his own writing or his own voice, and shall reduce to writing the takedown on either a manual or electric typewriter. The minimum passing grade on each section of Part A of the test shall be 95 percent accuracy. An error shall be charged for each wrong word, for each omitted word, for each added word not dictated, for each contraction where read as two words, for two words where read as a contraction, for each misplaced word, for each misplaced period that would materially alter the sense of a group of words or a sentence, for each misspelled word, for each plural or singular where the opposite was dictated, and for each wrong number. If time permits, the applicant may review his transcript but shall use only his original takedown from which his transcript was prepared to review the transcript. Part B of the test shall consist of objective questions touching on elementary aspects of court reporting, spelling, and grammar. The use of a dictionary will not be permitted during Part B of the test. The minimum passing grade on Part B will be 75 percent. Anyone discovered cheating on the tests is disqualified and will not be eligible for retesting for a period of two years.

Sec. 13. (a) On a verified complaint, the committee may revoke any certificate issued under this Act for unprofessional conduct or other sufficient cause after notice and opportunity of a hearing. The notice shall state the cause for the contemplated revocation and the time and place of the hearing and shall be mailed to the registered address of the holder of the certificate at least 30 days before the hearing. Each committee member is empowered to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, and take evidence and require the production of any records concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the committee, at the direction of a majority of the committee. The committee shall reduce to writing a summary of the evidence given before it and shall make a written finding of the facts thereon. A certificate may be reCharles J. voked for fraud, dishonesty, corruption, willful violation of duty, having become incompetent to continue to perform the duties as a court reporter, or fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a certificate under this Act. A disciplinary action of the committee may be appealed by the aggrieved person on trial de novo, with or without a jury, to the district court in the county of the aggrieved person's residence. If the aggrieved party is the official court reporter or deputy court reporter of the court in which the proceeding would be heard, the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district shall appoint the judge of another court or a retired judge to hear and determine the complaint. Sec. 14. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the employment of a shorthand reporter not holding a certificate until a certified shorthand reporter is available. The provisions of this section do not apply to depositions taken outside this state for use in this state.

Sec. 15. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to a party to the litigation involved, his attorney, or to a full-time employee of either.

Sec. 16. (a) No examination shall be required of an applicant who is an official court reporter of any court of record in this state as of the effective date of this Act, and said applicant shall be issued a certificate by the supreme court.

(b) Upon application to the committee, no examination shall be required of any court reporter who can verify that prior to the effective date of this Act said applicant had been actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state. Upon approval by the committee, the supreme court shall issue its certificate.

Rules

Article 2324b provides that the Committee will operate under rules promulgated by the Supreme Court. During its first year of operation the Committee drafted the necessary rules and submitted them to the Supreme Court for its consideration. These rules became effective on November 23, 1977, and were amended on May 9, 1978, and October 2, 1978.

Certification of Reporters

The Committee administers tests to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certification as provided for in Sec. 12 of the Act. On a verified complaint, it may revoke any certificate issued under the Act for unprofessional conduct or other sufficient cause after notice and opportunity of a hearing.

Court reporters who were actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State prior to the effective date of the Act, August 29, 1977, may apply for certification without the necessity of taking an examination, under the provisions of Sec. 16(a) of the

Since beginning operations, the Committee has officially recommended for certification 1,016 persons under the provisions of Section 16(a). In addition, it conducted five examinations — on April 1, June 24, September 9, October 7, and November 4, 1978, for 319 applicants under the provisions of Section 12(b) of the Act. Of these, 89 successfully completed both portions of the test and were officially certified as shorthand reporters. As many of the applicants were unsuccessful at the first or subsequent exams, the 319 applicants represent 171 individuals. During this same period the Committee conducted three (3) formal hearings on appeals filed by applicants.

As of the date of this report, a total of 1,105 persons have been certified as certified shorthand reporters and are therefore eligible to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State. Certified reporters are resident in 111 of 254 counties of the State.

Legislative Recommendations

As a result of the initial year of operation, the Committee has carefully reviewed the provisions of article 2324b, V.T.C.S. and has recommended a number of amendments to this statute to improve the quality of shorthand reporters in the State and to provide for a more efficient and effective administration of the provisions of the Act. The recommendations of the Committee were put into draft form by the administrative staff and has been introduced as House Bill No. 399 by Representative Ben Z. Grant of Marshall.

Recommendations of a substantial nature include the following:

1. A new provision which provides that the Attorney General shall prosecute and defend all actions in which the Texas Court Reporters Committee is a party, or in which the members of the Committee are parties in their representative capacities:

2. Establishment of a specific two year term for each certification, by providing that each certification shall expire on December 31st following the second anniversary of the date of issuance of the certification:

3. Amendment of the provisions of Sec. 14 by providing that a noncertified reporter may be employed in any county in which no certified reporter is a resident;

4. Provision for a termination date of August 29, 1980 for any application for certification without examination under the provisions of Sec. 16 (a) and (b);

5. Amendment of Sec. 16 to provide that the Supreme Court may by rule grant reciprocity to other states in the certification of shorthand reporters, provided that such other states require substantially the same qualifications for certification;

6. Amendment of Sec. 16 to authorize an official seal of office for certified shorthand reporters to authenticate their official acts;

7. Amendment of Article 3746, V.T.C.S., to substitute certified shorthand reporters for notary publics in the authorization of officials to take depositions; and

8. Amendment of article 26, V.T.C.S., to add certified shorthand reporters to the list of persons authorized to administer oaths, affidavits or affirmations within the State.

In addition, a number of "housekeeping" or non-substantial amendments to article 2324b, V.T.C.S., are also recommended.

The Committee

The Texas Court Reporters Committee is composed of an active district judge who serves as chairman; two members of the Bar; three active official court reporters; and three active freelance reporters; who are appointed by the Supreme Court for six year terms.

Administration

In July, 1978, at the request of the Texas Court Reporters Committee and at the direction of Chief Justice Greenhill, the Office of Court Administration assumed the administrative staff function for the Texas Court Reporters Committee. One additional staff person was provided the office to aid in the performance of these additional duties.

the records of the Board's activities are maintained. This office is the filing depository for all Declarations of Intention to Study Law, Applications to take the bar examinations, and Applications from immigrant attorneys. All necessary forms relating to Declarations of Intention to Study Law and Applications are furnished and processed by this office. Further, this office answers all inquiries from declarants, applicants, and immigrant attorneys. Finally, this office records the grades on the bar examinations and releases such grades to the applicants.

At all swearing-in ceremonies of successful candidates by the Supreme Court of Texas, a member of the Board is present for the purpose of certifying the class to the Supreme Court.

The Board holds four regularly scheduled meetings and one or more special called meetings as follows:

The Board holds bi-annual meetings in connection with the two bar examination dates (Winter and Summer) to conduct hearings on good moral character and fitness and to pass on other matters of eligibility questions relating to Texas residency, citizenship, pre-law study, and law study.

The examination is given on the last Wednesday and Thursday of the months of February and July in six Texas cities: Austin, Dallas, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, and Waco

The bar examinations (February and July) consist of two sets of examinations covering 14 subjects, including Legal Ethics. The first is a one day, six-hour multistate (multiple choice type) examination covering six subjects and consisting of 200 questions prepared by nationwide committees and coordinated by the National Conference of Bar Examiners with the assistance of the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey. The second portion of the examination is a one day, seven-hour essay type examination covering eight subjects, the questions for which are divided into four sections and are prepared by eight of the Board members working in teams of two.

Additionally, the Board meets in the Spring, usually during the month of April, to confer with the Deans of the eight Texas law schools and the Justices of the Supreme Court as well as in the Fall in early October to meet with the Justices of the Supreme Court. In conjunction with the Board's Spring and Fall meetings, the Board interviews immigrant attorney applicants from sister states, the District of Columbia, and territories of the United States.

Furthermore, the Board conducts one or more special meetings at the site of the State Bar Convention and in Austin to consider special matters relating to the conduct of the Board's business including the processing of complaints and inquiries from legislators and law school deans.

The predominate aim and purpose of the Board is to ensure to the Supreme Court of Texas that the persons recommended to be licensed by the Court to practice law in the State of Texas have been found to be of good moral character and fitness (fitness being defined as requisite mental and emotional stability); that they possess the necessary educational attainments; and that they have passed a bar examination designed to establish a minimum degree of competency to the end that the consumer public is protected against a person who might be licensed and who might be failing in any of these requirements.

STATE LAW LIBRARY_

The State Law Library was created in 1971 by merging the collections of the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Attorney General. Article 5444b, V.T.C.S., which establishes the State Law Library, provides in part:

Sec. 3. (a) The library is under the control of, and administered by, the State Law Library Board composed of the chief justice of the Supreme Court, the presiding judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Attorney General. Each member of the board may designate a personal representative to serve for him.

(b) Members of the board or their designated representatives are not entitled to compensation for service on the board, but each member or representative is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending meetings and performing official duties, to be paid out of funds appropriated to the board.

Supreme Court:

Court of Criminal Appeals;

- 3. Attorney General's Department:
- 4. commissions, agencies, and boards of the other branches of State government; and

5. citizens of the state.

Presently the library collection includes complete case reports from all jurisdictions in the United States, complete statute and regulatory sources on Texas and federal law, and a wide selection of treatises, looseleaf services and periodicals for current information in all areas of law. There is also an extensive collection of sources on the historical background of Texas law, including Spanish and Mexican codes as well as early Texas materials.

The library has two main reading rooms, located on the first and second floors of the Supreme Court Building. The collection numbers about

STATE COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT IFORMERLY THE STATE JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION

The State Judicial Qualifications Commission was created by Constitutional Amendment adopted by the electorate Nov. 2, 1965, and covered justices and judges of the district, criminal district, and appellate courts. An amendment to the Constitution adopted in the general election of 1970 increased the jurisdiction of the Commission to include all justices and judges of the State and added the sanction of censure, after a hearing, or private reprimand. An amendment adopted in the general election on Nov. 8, 1977, changed the name of the Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, added two new members (one lay member and one justice of the peace), provided for the suspension from office with or without pay by the Commission immediately upon an indictment by a State or Federal Grand Jury for a felony offense, or by the Supreme Court under certain circumstances. Suspension from office is with or without pay, pending final disposition of the charge. It gives to the master the same powers of a district judge relative to contempt for failure to appear as a witness or to produce documents; allows for a private or public reprimand; grants to the Supreme Court the power to prohibit a judge who has been removed from office from holding judic al office in the future; allows the Commission to issue a public statement when sources other than the Commission cause notoriety concerning a judge or the Commission, and upon a recommendation of the Commission, for the suspension, censure, retirement, or removal of a Justice of the Supreme Court, seven Court of Civil Appeals Justices, selected by lot, shall serve in place of the Supreme Court.

The Constitution empowers the Commiss on to consider complaints against any justice or judge concerning acts or conduct which are clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or which cast public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice. The Commission may, if it deems necessary, initiate removal proceed ngs or take actions for the involuntary retirement of justices or judges who are disabled to the extent that they are unable to perform their duties, or when their disability is likely to become permanent in nature.

hearings which are confidential. This provides a calm atmosphere for factfinding and the procedural protections necessary to ensure the respondent

Members of the Commission consist of two appellate justices, two district judges, one justice of the peace, two attorneys, and four lay members. The judicial members are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas, the attorneys by the Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas, and the lay members by the Governor of Texas, all with the advice and consent of the Senate. No two members may serve from the same Supreme Judicial District, with the exception of the justice of the peace who is selected from a list of five names submitted by the Executive Committee of the Justice of the Peace and Constables Association of Texas to the Supreme Court and serves at large. The Commission operates under justice or judge a fair hearing. As an alternative to the recommendation for removal or involuntary retirement, the Commission may choose the less harsh remedy of either public reprimand or censure.

It is the policy of the Commission to work with members of the judiciary to improve their image and service to the people of Texas, and a recommendation of removal is resorted to only as a last measure when the problem cannot be resolved in a more constructive way.

In addition to the duties set forth in the Constitution, the Commission serves as a repository for the financial records required by Canon 6, Section C, of the Code of Judicial Conduct which became effective September 1, 1974.

Although most cases are ultimately dismissed, this does not mean that they were without merit. Action was taken at the Commission level to remedy all matters where there appeared to be a breach of judicial ethics on the part of a judge. Many complainants are not familiar with the legal procedure or how the courts operate, the jurisdiction of the judge, their right of appeal, and other aspects of the judicial system. They do know that they are unhappy with the system and want someone to hear their complaint. Usually, by letting them have all the time they need, and then explaining to them why the judge acted or ruled as he did, they are mollified somewhat. The tremendous caseload of the courts and the demand on the time of a judge does not permit him to give to these people the time they feel they deserve. To the individual, his case is the only one — to the judge it is one among hundreds of a similar nature. By serving as an intermediary, taking remedial action when necessary, the Commission feels that it negates much of the animosity toward the judicial system and provides the lay person a better understanding of the judiciary. Prior to the establishment of this Commission, there was no forum to hear complaints against members of the judiciary.

When it appears that a justice or judge is guilty of misconduct which is willful and persistent, or when it appears he cannot perform his duties because of a disability, the Commission acts promptly, adhering strictly to the Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges.

On Jan. 1, 1978 there were 22 complaints pending. During the year 98 new complaints were filed. These cases were disposed of in the following manner: 73 were dismissed as they were without merit or were handled administratively; five judges resigned while under investigation; six were held on the suspense docket pending correction of the alleged wrongdoing; 13 were issued reprimands; two retired; one was suspended without pay while criminal charges were pending and was subsequently tried, found guilty, and sentenced; and two were publicly censured. On Dec. 31, 1978 there were 18 complaints pending.

THE JUDICIAL PLANNING COMMITTEE

Authorization

The 1976 amendments to the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 94-503) give the court of last resort of each state the option of establishing a Judicial Planning Committee. The purposes of such a committee are to 1) plan for the improvement of the courts of the state, and 2) recommend a plan and budget for the expenditures of Criminal Justice Division funds for court projects.

The Supreme Court of Texas, by court order, created a Judicial Planning Committee in May of 1977. The committee is chaired by the Honorable Joe R. Greenhill, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; and its staff activities are supervised by the Honorable Charles W. Barrow, Justice, Supreme Court of Texas.

It has 21 members representing trial and appellate judges, criminal, civil, and juvenile judges, prosecutors and defenders, legislators, general practitioners, and law professors.

courts and working with the Criminal Justice Division in the administration of Law Enforcement Assistance Agency (LEAA) funds for court projects.

The Judicial Planning Committee studied a number of topics of importance to the judiciary and made the following legislative and policy recommendations:

1. The courts of civil appeals should be given appellate jurisdiction in most criminal cases. This would place an intermediate appellate court between the trial courts and the Court of Criminal Appeals, reducing the heavy burden of appeals to that high court. Capital cases would be appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

2. The justice of the peace and municipal courts should be made courts of record. This would avoid having two trials for the same offense—one in the justice or municipal court, and a trial de novo in the county court. This recommendation would reduce the glut of appeals to the county courts, which often results in wholesale dismissals of cases.

3. A plan for court administration, interpreting articles 200a and 2328b in conjunction with one another, should be implemented. The plan would:

a. Maintain a regionalized court administration system rather than developing a centralized court administration system. Texas is too large and diverse a state for a centralized system to be effective.

b. Provide administrative staff to the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts. This will provide them with the resources they need to perform their duties under article 200a.

c. Provide for the appointment of the administrative presiding judges by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. This would promote coordination between the Chief Justice and the presiding judges.

d. Establish an administrative council consisting of the Chief Justice, as chairman, and the nine presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts. This council would serve as an advisory board to the Chief Justice on administrative matters.

e. Provide a state-funded administrative or clerical staff position to each district judge. This would help the courts dispose of more cases more rapidly, thereby reducing the pressure to constantly create new courts to keep pace with caseloads.

4. A statewide system of juvenile probation should be established and administered through the Texas Adult Probation Commission (to be renamed the Texas Probation Commission). Each county should be required to establish a juvenile board to receive and disperse State funds for juvenile probation, to hire the chief juvenile probation officer, and to oversee the juvenile probation office for the county. Counties would be authorized to jointly establish a board to oversee a multi-county probation department.

Grants

The Judicial Planning Committee prepared a plan and budget for the use of 1979 Criminal Justice Division funds for court projects. The budget included approximately 50 grants at a total cost of over $3 million. A variety of projects were funded, including:

Court of Criminal Appeals Assistance Project

2. Office of Court Administration

3. Texas Center for the Judiciary

4. Justice of the Peace Training Center

5. Commission on Judicial Conduct Assistance Project

Court coordinators and administrators to district courts and county courts at law

7. Pre-trial release projects

8. Annex courts

9. Computer assisted transcription projects

Grant applications for all projects were reviewed by the committee. All of the committee's recommendations were adopted by the Criminal Justice Division. In addition, the committee staff coordinated a program to assess the performance of each grant for a court coordinator or administrator. The Texas Association for Court Administration (TACA) provided the personnel for these on-site visits.

Administration

The Judicial Planning Committee is funded by a Law Enforcement Assistance Administration grant. It employs a staff consisting of the executive secretary, a law clerk, and a secretary. The office is housed with the Texas Center for the Judiciary, Texas Law Center, Suite 504, 1414 Colorado Street, Austin, Texas 78711.

JUSTICE COURT TRAINING CENTER _

The Justice Court Training Center is co-sponsored by the Justices of the Peace and Constables Association of Texas and Southwest Texas State University. Funding of the program is made possible from the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 and the Criminal Justice Planning Fund established by the 62nd State Legislature through Senate Bill No. 841.

The goal of the Training Center is to provide training to the more than 900 Texas justices of the peace. Training is available to lawyer and non-lawyer judges but particular emphasis is placed upon the non-lawyer judge.

An intensive 40-hour course is available to newly appointed or elected justices of the peace which satisfies the training requirement for new J.P.'s as established in House Bill No. 168, passed by the 62nd State Legislature. Continuing yearly in-service legal education which is required under the provisions of House Bill No. 81, as passed by the 63rd Legislature is provided utilizing ten 20-hour regional schools held throughout Texas.

The 40-hour training curriculum includes instruction on: Judicial Ethics, Rules of Evidence, Bond Setting, Inquests, Truancy Laws, Complaints, Search Warrants, Examining Trials, Arrest With and Without Warrant, Peace Bonds, Administrative Practices, as well as other duties and responsibilities of the justice court.

During 1977, the 20-hour curriculum was directed at increasing the judge's ability to apply certain skills in the procedural and administrative areas of his

THE TEXAS PROSECUTORS COORDINATING COUNCIL _

In 1974, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. conducted a study of prosecutors' offices in the State of Texas. The purpose of the study, financed by the Criminal Justice Division, was to determine the condition of prosecutors' offices and to identify those areas which required additional attention both at the State and local level. The study made ten proposals. They are as follows:

 To establish a board to investigate complaints of prosecutor misconduct and incompetency.

 To set and implement standards for staffing, compensation, facilities and equipment for prosecutors' offices.

 To increase levels of State and local funding of prosecution activities based on standards.

To redistrict prosecutors' jurisdictions, when appropriate, for more effective prosecution.

 To disseminate information on new laws and court decisions, methods and techniques of prosecution, and administrative procedures.

To provide assistance on criminal appeals and briefing.

 To create a trial assistance group of prosecutors to help local prosecutors dispose of case backlogs or to assist on unusual and difficult cases.

9. To provide training for prosecutors on a systematic and statewide basis.

 To conduct professional development studies to improve the methods and techniques of prosecution.

In response to this study, the House Judiciary Committee did its own study and recommended the creation of a statewide agency to meet the needs of prosecutors as outlined above.

The Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council was created during the 65th Session of the Legislature by article 332d, V.T.C.S. The legislation creating the agency adopted the ten recommendations of the study cited above. The following four broad program objectives for the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council incorporate these ten recommendations. They are:

1. To receive, investigate, and

tency.

2. To provide non-legal assistance to prosecutors by providing information on what other prosecutors are doing, by providing techniques to improve efficiency and productivity, by setting up and implementing minimum standards for prosecutors' offices, by providing information with regards to increased levels of State and local funding, and collecting and reporting of well-researched statistics for the benefit of the Legislature, the Governor, and local prosecutors.

3. To provide legal assistance to prosecutors' offices throughout the legal process; from the beginning when a case is brought to the prosecutor's office for screening through and including the post-conviction process on both the state and federal level. This includes assistance on criminal appeals briefing, trial assistance and the dissemination of new laws and court decisions to prosecutors.

4. To provide for the professional development and training of prosecutors, their assistants and staff by providing funds for their attendance at approved in-service training courses and other necessary specialized courses. To publish professional development manuals for prosecutors and public information booklets which would increase the quality of prosecution and the understanding of prosecution services by the public.

As of November 30, 1978, the Council had investigated 24 formal complaints. Of these, seven were still outstanding. After investigation, the Council determined that three complaints were of such a serious nature that they warranted a hearing before the Council. These hearings resulted in the recommendation in two cases that a removal suit be filed against the prosecutor and in one case that a reprimand be issued. A removal suit has been filed against Oscar B. McInnis, Criminal District Attorney of Hidalgo County, but the other case became moot when the district attorney resigned.

In addition to formal complaints, the Council had handled 66 informal inquiries about prosecutors from July 1, 1978 to November 30, 1978. Most of these inquiries resulted from a misunderstanding of the prosecutors' duties or a lack of communication between the prosecutor and the complain-

In addition, the Council had provided assistance to prosecutors throughout the State 68 times. This assistance has included both legal and non-legal assistance and has ranged from filing an amicus curiae brief with the Court of Criminal Appeals to providing the prosecutor with information as to what agencies in Austin he needs to contact in regard to his problems

The Council has not had the funds or resources to conduct a minimum standards study or to collect and document the necessary statistics to be of substantial benefit to the Legislature and the Governor. However, the Prosecutors Council has, since July 1, answered inquiries and provided information to various other State agencies 59 times. The Council also has not had any funds or resources to provide any professional development and training.

The original Criminal Justice Grant provided for two people to start up the agency and determine the needs of the agency. The continuation grant request has been for five additional people to continue the slow expansion of the agency to absorb the many duties and functions authorized by the Legislature. It is hoped that the Legislature will fund the agency out of State funds in this next session so that the agency does not have to depend on the quixotic nature of federal funds and federal regulations.

It is the policy of the Council to expand the agency as quickly as possible to meet the obligations and duties set out by the Legislature, but the Council does not wish to expand faster than it can competently handle the different functions assigned to it. As a result, the Council has not requested the total number of personnel that it feels it needs all at once, but rather, is seeking to meet its responsibilities in stages, so that each obligation can be competently fulfilled.

In the annual report to the Governor and the Legislature, the Council is charged, by statute, to provide recommendations in regard to changes in jurisdiction, needed funding for local offices, and other matters to improve prosecution within the State.

Jurisdiction is a serious problem because of the haphazard and piecemeal approach that has been taken to designating and carving out prosecutorial districts in Texas. There are many overlapping districts in Texas and many various kinds of prosecutors with varying types of duties. The Council feels that the Legislature and the Governor would be ably served by providing funds to the Council to do a study on the present status of prosecutorial jurisdictions and recommend improve-

In regard to needed funding for local offices, one need only look at the budget to determine the scant attention that has been paid to prosecutorial services. In fiscal 1978, one-half of the State budget was allocated to education. Of the remaining one-half, less than one percent was dedicated to the judicial section of the government, which includes prosecutors. Of that amount, less than one-third of one percent was allocated to prosecution. In fact, less than one-tenth of one percent of the total State budget for fiscal 1978 was dedicated to prosecution. There is an increasing public demand for the professionalization of prosecutors throughout the State, but there has not been a corresponding desire to provide prosecutors with the funding necessary to meet their growing obligations. No session of the Legislature goes by without additional duties and responsibilities being placed on prosecutors. One example of this is the Speedy Trial Act which passed in the last session of the Legislature, but for which no additional funds were provided for the increased workload placed upon each prosecutor throughout the State.

In connection with the need for adequate financial funding of prosecutors' offices, there is also a great need to develop minimum standards for the operation of these offices throughout the State. A study on minimum standards would reveal the needs of prosecutors and would allow the Legislature to develop a comprehensive and logical system for funding prosecutors. Minimum standards would also increase public awareness and approval of prosecutors by giving the public better understanding of what they can expect from prosecutors. The Council would ask the Legislature and the Governor to include in any jurisdictional study, a program to allow the Council to develop minimum standards for prosecutorial offices.

In addition to the other areas, there is a need to investigate the benefits of codifying the laws regarding prosecutors. According to the Legislative Council, there are 6,469 references to prosecutors in 1,131 sections of our statutes. The public, the Legislature, the Governor, and the prosecutors would be served by bringing these various references together so that the duties and responsibilities of prosecutors are clear to all.

The State Bar of Texas was created in 1939 pursuant to article 320 a-1 R.C.S. as "an Administrative Agency of the Supreme Court of Texas The State Bar operates under the Rules Governing the State Bar of Texas promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas and serves the 30,000 plus lawvers of Texas.

The various departments of the Bar provide a variety of services including one of the most extensive continuing legal education programs in the United States. The Professional Development Department, other Committees and Sections assist in the educational program. This program, in addition to continuing the education of all lawyers, attempts to educate the younger practitioners through Skills Courses to understand the more fundamental aspects of the "practice of law." Seminars and institutes are held over the entire State to help lawyers in specific areas of the law and to keep them abreast of new developments. Through the use of videotape equipment and facilities of the Law Center these educational programs are taken to the lawyers and public in general all over the State. The Bar also prepares and distributes manuals and books dealing with various fields of practice.

In addition, the Professional Development Department produces cassette audio tapes concerning bankruptcy, the Tax Reform Act of 1976, commercial practice, managing the lawyer's life. school law, personal injury, products liability, natural resources law, real estate investments, salvation for the solo practitioner, criminal law, municipal judges conference, and commercial

A digest is prepared at the Law Center and distributed to all lawyers weekly. This publication gives the lawyers and judges a summary of significant decisions of the Texas Supreme Court, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, the Texas Courts of Civil Appeals, Federal Court decisions, Attorney General opinions, and the Comptroller's Administrative decisions

The Texas Bar Journal published by the State Bar staff is distributed monthly, except August, to the attorneys of the State and to students attending all of the eight law schools in Texas. Informative articles dealing with specific areas of law, results of disciplinary actions throughout the State, proceedings of the Board of Directors, and other topics of interest to lawyers and judges are published.

The legislative program of the State Bar coordinates the legislative efforts of the Bar's committees and sections. This effort helps ensure an effective voice in the Capitol for the legislative needs of Texas' lawyers and citizens.

The General Counsel's office of the State Bar bears the responsibility of enforcing the Rules of Discipline and suppressing the unauthorized practice of law. It serves as a clearinghouse for the Ethics Committee by providing ethics opinions and making available formal ethics opinions, thereby aiding lawyers in avoiding unintentional griev-

One of the prime programs of the State Bar is the Lawyer Referral Service which receives about 1.100 calls per month. These calls are originated from people who are in the dilemma of not knowing an attorney and needing to find one. The service aims at making the public aware of legal services as well as aiding them in obtaining these

To enhance and aid citizens needing legal services and to reach the 70% of the population which falls in the "middle income" range, the Bar-sponsored program of Prepaid Legal Services provides coverage for policyholders representing 34 different groups. This puts legal services in the "affordable range"

Attorneys also can obtain coverage through the Insurance Trust which sponsors an insurance program for the lawyers of Texas. Among the types of coverage are group life; individual life and disability insurance; major medical; accidental death and dismemberment; daily hospitalization and indemnity; excess major medical; professional liability; and Keogh retirement plans. The Texas Lawyers Insurance Exchange program very recently became one of the first three in the nation to offer attorneys a liability insurance program through the sale of surplus debentures.

The Membership Department serves as a clearinghouse for all address changes for members, processing some 10,000 changes annually. From this centralized up-to-date file, local bars, Sections, Committees, and other bar groups can request mailing lists of lawyers broken down geographically and by special interest area. In addition, it handles the process of record keeping for dues for the 30,000 plus attorneys in the State.

Some of the State Bar's most progressive achievements have been initiated through the Committees structure. There are 48 active committees and 25 sections. The staff assists the committees and sections by maintaining records, scheduling meetings, providing meeting rooms, and coordinating committee activities. Among the committees are Citizen's Legal Education; Effective Participation of Women in the Bar; Lawyer Advertising; and Public Affairs. The direction of both committees and sections is towards upgrading the legal profession to its full potential in responding to the needs of Texas citizens. In addition it involves many attorneys in the process, making them aware of the concerns.

Tying in with so many programs of the Bar is the Texas Bar Foundation. Established in 1965, the Texas Bar Foundation finances programs in continuing legal education and research on legal matters of mutual significance to the Bar and the public. Grants awarded by the Foundation funded such projects as revision of the Penal Code, State Bar tape project.

The age of computerization has ushered in the Tex-Lex office. This office edits for computerization 175-200 opinions per month for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the 14 courts of civil appeals. There are at present 27,100 cases in the Texas bank of the computer system. Through this program the State Bar makes computerized legal research available to its members and does so at no cost to the lawyers.

Perhaps one of the most active groups in the State Bar is the Texas Young Lawyers Association which represents about half of the attorneys in the State. All Texas lawyers under the age of 35 are members of this organization which has 42 active committees. The President and President-Elect are voting members of the State Bar Board of Directors and the President is a member of the Executive Committee.

Activities include the sponsoring of booklets and brochures. Texas Young Lawyers Association also incorporated the Texas Lawyers Credit Union, conducts a National Mock Trial Competition, and is conducting a pilot program whereby young lawyers provide legal support for nonprofit artistic projects. This organization has won the ABA Award of Achievement nine out of the last ten years.

In assisting consumers in locating attorneys in a specific field of law, the pilot program of Legal Specialization was formed. This provides a mechanism for certifying special competence in selected fields of law. The program began in 1975, with three fields: Criminal Law, Family Law, and Labor Law. The fields of Estate Planning and Probate, Civil Trial Law and Personal Injury Trial Law are recent additions to this program.

The Department of Communications is responsible for information dissemination, education, and understanding between the consumer/public, the legal profession, and the media.

This is accomplished through education-oriented functions such as the "Ask A Lawyer" radio series; You and the Law newspaper column; Speakers Bureau; "The Living Law" multi-media slide show; the Careers videotape on the legal profession; the film loan program featuring the films "Our Uncommon Law" and "Liberty and Justice for All." In addition, the Department assists various committees in setting up and carrying through on details for further public education such as Law Day, the First Amendment Panel, and pamphlets. News releases are also an integral function of the Communications Department.

Each year the State Bar of Texas holds its convention at one of five Texas cities. Long-range planning is needed to ensure a smooth running four day event. Planning and support is provided by the staff of the State Bar for the 165 separate convention functions which include Section and Committee meetings, pre-convention institutes, and the various details involved. In addition the Services Department coordinates Board of Directors meetings, new lawyer swearing in ceremonies, judicial swearing in ceremonies, and other special events.

Texas has the largest inmate population of any state in the nation. Inmates and parolees are served by the State Bar of Texas through a threepart program by the Texas Center for Correctional Services. The Volunteers in Parole Project recruits and trains attorney-volunteers to serve as one-toone counselors with parolees in a general non-legal capacity to assist the parolees in reintegrating into society. The Counsel for Indigent Parolees Project provides legal counsel for both adult and juvenile indigent parolees at on-site and final parole revocation hearings. Finally, the Inmate Legal Services Project, which was recently endorsed editorially by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, provides representation to inmates who complain of violations of their civil rights by the Texas Department of Corrections. Where necessary the project appoints lawyers to represent inmates in federal actions.

Comprehensively, the State Bar of Texas assists both attorneys and the public in access to the judicial system of the government and in assessing and meeting the legal needs of Texas citizens.

JUDICIAL SECTION, STATE BAR OF TEXAS _

The Judicial Section is a voluntary association within the State Bar. Membership is open to any member of the State Bar who is serving or has served as a judge or justice of any court of record, federal or state, in the State of Texas. Former judges may participate as honorary members. Activities of the Section are financed by dues fixed by the Executive Committee, except that educational activities are funded by the Texas Center for the Judiciary, which operates under the supervision of the Section's Continuing Legal Education Committee.

The high point of activities each year is the State Judicial Conference which was held in Arlington September 26-29 with 350 judges and their spouses, totaling 650 persons, attending. The threeday conference included addresses by the Honorable Griffin Bell, Attorney General of the United States; the Honorable John Hill, Attorney General of Texas; Chief Justice Joe Greenhill; Presiding Judge John F. Onion, Jr.; President Cullen Smith of the State Bar; and President John Compere of the Texas Young Lawyers Association. A panel discussion on televising trials was presented by the Honorable Abner V. McCall, President of Baylor University; the Honorable Wayne Kearl, Chairman of the Board of KENS-TV, San Antonio, and former Chairman of the Television's Code Board of the National Association of Broadcasters: the Honorable Richard M. Morrhead, Chief, Austin Bureau of the Dal.as Morning News; and Dean George W. Hardy III of the University of Houston School of Law. Another panel discussion on the submission of special issues in civil jury trials featured the Honorable W. James Kronzer of Houston, the Honorable Royal H. Brin of Dallas, and Justice Jack Pope of the Supreme Court.

One afternoon of the conference was devoted to separate seminars for appellate and trial judges. The appellate judges heard a discussion of the content and publication of judicial opinions by the Honorable Robert A. Leflar, retired dean of the School of Law of the University of Arkansas and former justice of the Supreme Court of Arkansas. At the same time, trial judges heard a critique of recent cases concerning deceptive trade practices by the Honorable John H. Boswell of Houston and several practical discussions of everyday problems, including "Docketing and Personnel" by the Honorable Ray Hardy, District Clerk of Harris County; "The Visiting Judge" by Judge Joe Kelley, native of Victoria; and "Scheduling Temporary Hearings and Use of Special Masters" by Judge Annette Stewart of Dallas.

At business sessions the conference heard memorials to deceased judges, introductions of new judges, and reports of its committees on Continuing Legal Education, Judicial Ethics, Juvenile Courts, Uniform Punishment, Legal Directory, Legal Specialization, and Section By-Laws. The Legislative Committee presented a series of proposals which had been developed on the basis of a questionnaire sent to all members of the Section. After hearing this report, the Section adopted a nineteenpoint legislative program for improvement of the administration of justice in the following respects:

Appointment by trial judges of their own bailiff:

Increased travel allowances for judges of multi-county districts:

Shortening of records in criminal appeals by elimination of voir dire and jury argument when no error is assigned concerning the proceedings;

Appropriations for adequate judicial salaries:

Appropriations for supporting personnel in district courts;

Increased per diem allowance for visiting judges; Selection of alternate jurors in criminal cases;

Authority to limit voir dire in criminal cases:

Designation of incumbents on judicial ballots:

Limitation of appeals from mu-10. nicipal and justice courts after pleas of guilty and nolo contendere:

Appropriations for clerical assistance to presiding administrative judges;

Standard statewide jurisdiction up to $20,000 for county courts with civil jurisdiction;

Salaries for county court at law judges to be fixed at $1,000 less than salaries of district judges, with $20,000 to be appropriated by the State:

Filing fees for county court judges to be same as for district judges;

Authority for county court at law judges to fix salaries of reporters:

Authority for designation of alternate beneficiaries by participants in judicial retirement benefits:

17. Authority for receipt of grand jury reports without presence of the judge;

Authority of State Adult Probation Commission extended to juvenile probation officers; and Establishment of juvenile boards in all counties that do not already have them.

After the annual conference, the Legislative Committee met several times for the purpose of putting these proposals into the form of legislation and obtaining legislative sponsorship for them.

In addition to the educational programs at the annual conference, the Section sponsors several regional judicial conferences. In 1978 these included the South Texas Judicial Conference in Midland in February, the Northeast Texas Judicial Conference in Longview in March, the West Texas Judicial Conference in Lubbock in April, and the Second Administrative Judicial District Conference in Huntsville in June. Other major educational programs were the annual Texas College of the Judiciary in April, and the annual Criminal Justice Conference in May, both at Huntsville. These and other continuing educational programs sponsored by the Section are particularly described in connection with the Texas Center for the Judiciary.

All state judges are subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct approved by the Section and officially adopted by the Supreme Court. The Section's Ethics Committee, composed of nine members, of which Justice Quinten Keith of Beaumont was chairman in 1978, considers recommendations for changes in the Code, and also delivers formal opinions on questions of ethics arising under the Code and submitted by members of the Section.

TEXAS CENTER FOR THE JUDICIARY ____

The Texas Center for the Judiciary is the central agency in Texas providing continuing legal education programs for the State judiciary and supportive personnel. It also provides staff support for the Judicial Section of the State Bar.

Established January 1, 1973, the Center is funded by a grant from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office (LEAA funds) to the State Bar. Operating budget for 1979 is $450,000.

The Judicial Section's Continuing Legal Education Committee is the governing body of the Center. The Center provides staff support for all Judicial Section Committees, including the CLE, Executive, Judicial Ethics, Juvenile Court Judges, Legal Specialization, and Uniform Punishment in Texas Committees.

Educational opportunities provided by the Center under the guidance of the Section's CLE Committee take several forms. In addition to conferences and seminars, the Center prepares and distributes training manuals to Texas judges and provides financial assistance for judges to attend seminars on the national level, such as the National College of the State Judiciary in Reno. Nevada. Publications include the twovolume Benchbook for Texas Trial Judges, Juvenile Court Judges Manual, County and District Clerks Manual, Texas Adult Probation Manual, Texas College of the Judiciary Notebooks, Deskbook for Court Administration, Proceedings of Seminar for County Judges, Judicial Yearbook, Code of Judicial Conduct, Adult Probation and Community Corrections in Texas: A Master Plan 1977, and In Chambers Newsletter.

Continuing education and training programs sponsored by the Center cover the three major areas of criminal law, juvenile law, and the administration of justice. Among the conferences sponsored by the Center in 1978, with the number of persons attending, were:

He also serves as editor of a bimonthly newsletter mailed to members of the Judicial Section. Completing the staff are a financial supervisor and records supervisor.

COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS_

Upon the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. Judge Warren Cunningham of Houston served as the first Chairman of the Committee and was succeeded by Associate Justice Quentin Keith of the Ninth Court of Civil Appeals in Beaumont. During the calendar year 1978, this Committee handed down twelve opinions, numbers 28 through 39, which are reproduced herein. Inquiries concerning requests for opinions should be directed to Jack Dillard, Executive Director of the Texas Center for the Judiciary, P. O. Box 12487, Austin, Texas 78711, phone 512/475-7087.

Opinion No. 28

Question: May a judge continue to serve upon the Texas Commission on the Status of Women without violating the Code of Judicial Conduct?

Assumed Facts: The Commission was created by Executive Order D.B. No. 32, dated August 11, 1977, with the duties and authority of the members defined in Section II of the order. These duties are broadly defined and intended to develop recommendations for policies and programs which will achieve equal opportunity for women throughout the State.

Answer: Based upon the information available, the Committee is of the opinion that membership upon the Texas Commission for the Status of Women would not be in contravention of any of the Canons of Judicial Conduct, provided such service poses no conflict with judicial duties or responsibilities.

Opinion No. 29

Question: Does a judge violate the Code of Judicial Conduct in participating in the trial of a case when one of the lawyers is a member of a firm in which his child is also a partner?

Answer: Subject to the opening words in Canon 3 C (1), "A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to, instances where: [followed by three subdivisions]," the Committee is of the unanimous opinion that the question should be answered in the negative.

Canon 3 C (1), and subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) thereof were lifted word for word from the Canons of Judicial Ethics adopted by the American Bar Association in 1972. We are of the opinion that it is significant that ABA Canon 3 C (1) contains a fourth subdivision which is not to be found in our Canons, reading as follows:

"(d) he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such person:

(ii) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding."

Professor E. Wayne Thode, reporter for the ABA committee which formulated the ABA Canons, comments on subdivision (d) of the ABA Canon, supra, in "Reporter's Notes to Code of Judicial Conduct" (ABA, 1973), p. 15:

"The fact that a lawyer in a proceeding is affiliated with a law firm with which a lawyer-relative of the judge is affiliated does not of itself disqualify the judge. Under appropriate circumstances, the fact that 'his impartiality might reasonably be questioned' under Canon 3C(1), or that the lawyer-relative is known by the judge to have an interest in the law firm that could be 'substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding' under Canon 3C(1) (d) (iii) may require his disqualification.

The Committee adopts Professor Thode's analysis as applicable to the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct.

Opinion No. 30 Question: Does a judge violate Canon 3 B (4) by the appointment of his bailiff as investigator to make social studies in adoption cases when: such appointment is made with the consent of all counsel in the case and only in uncontested matters: and where the prior results were found to be excellent, the task performed diligently, and economically?

Answer: Upon the basis of recited facts, it is the unanimous opinion of the Committee that such action is not violative of the cited provision of the Code of Judicial Conduct

Opinion No. 31

Question: May a judge subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct properly sign a letter endorsing a candidate for elective office in the State Bar of Texas when (a) such letter is addressed to members of the State Bar generally; or (b) such letter is addressed to judges

Answer: The members of the Committee are seriously divided as to an answer applicable to both facets of the question. A majority of the Committee is of the opinion that since the amendment of Canon 7 permits a judge to participate in political activities generally, participation in State Bar election activities is not forbidden. However, the same majority considers such conduct undesirable since such an endorsement might be construed as the lending of the prestige of judicial office to advance the private interests of others in violation of Canon 2 B.

Opinion No. 32 Question: There being two types of retired judges mentioned in subdivision D of the Compliance Section of the Code of Judicial Conduct (those eligible for recall to judicial service and those not eligible), what difference, if any, is there in the applicability of the exemptions mentioned in the subdivision to the two classes of retired judges?

Answer: A retired judge eligible for recall to judicial service must, in the language of subdivision D of the Compliance Section, "refrain from judicial service during the period of an extrajudicial appointment not sanctioned by Canon 5G." There is no such restraint upon a retired judge not eligible for recall to judicial service. Otherwise, there is no difference in the applicability of the exemption provisions to the two classes of retired judges mentioned in the Compliance Section.

Opinion No. 33

Question: After August 31, 1978, active judges subject to the provisions of the Code of Judicial Conduct may not serve as officers or directors of a publicly owned business, defined in Canon 5 C (2) as one having "more than ten owners." Does a retired judge violate any of the Canons of the Code of Judicial Conduct by serving as an officer or director of such a publicly owned business after August 31, 1978?

Answer: No. Although there are two types of retired judges mentioned in subdivision D of the Compliance Section of the Code (those eligible for recall to judicial service and those who are not eligible for recall), both classes of retired judges are exempt from the provisions of Canon 5 C (2) of the Code.

Opinion No. 34

Question: The defeated candidate in a primary election for the office of district judge (where one of the candidates was a constitutional county judge and the other a private attorney) has sought a determination of the Committee as to whether certain advertisements of the winning candidate amounted to a violation of Canon 7 of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Answer: The Committee declines to pass upon the questions of fact for lack of jurisdiction over the parties (neither of whom were at the time subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct) or the subject matter of the inquiry. The Committee acts only as an advisory peer group in determining the application of the Code of Judicial Conduct to undisputed factual situations.

Opinion No. 35

Factual Assumption: A district judge owns a small number of shares of stock in a large international oil company which is frequently a party to litigation in the district courts of his county

Question: Is the district judge required to note his disqualification or to recuse himself in all litigation involving such corporation?

Answer: As we held in Opinion No. 27 (October 17, 1977), this Committee does not have authority to pass upon the question of whether or not a judge is disqualified. The Constitution (Art. 5, Sec. 11) and the statute (Art. 15, V.T.C.S.) speak to the disqualification of a judge. The determination of disqualification is a judicial function.

However, whether a judge should recuse himself from pending litigation presents a question within the authority of this Committee since it is germane to Canon 3 C (3) (b) of the Code of Judicial Conduct. Moreover, under Canon 2 A, a judge "should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judici-

The Committee is of the opinion that such judge should recuse himself from participating in litigation in cases involving corporations in which he owns stock, regardless of the number of shares owned.

Opinion No. 36

(Submitted contingently upon an affirmative answer to the question set out in Opinion No. 35.)

Question: What action, if any, under the Code of Judicial Conduct, should such district judge take to remove the cause of such disqualification or recusation? Answer: Canon 5 C (3) is explicit and mandatory. It requires that a judge manage his financial interests so as "to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified." Divestiture of investments resulting in frequent disqualifications must be accomplished as soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment.

Divestiture is mandatory; but the Committee is unwilling to set a specific time period within which such divestiture must be accomplished. The question posed must be answered by the individual judge bearing in mind the admonitions of Canon 3: "The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law." This requires that a judge be in position to dispose of all cases which reach his docket; and, if his financial affairs frequently prevent his acting on all such matters, he should consider becoming either an investor or a judge, but not a continuation of both activi-

Opinion No. 37

Question: May a judge continue to serve as a director of a mutual savings and loan association, incorporated under prior laws of this State, wherein the depositors own, ratably, all of the reserve funds and assets of the association?

Answer: It is the opinion of the Committee that such an entity falls within the definition of a "publicly owned business" as set out in Canon 5 C (2), of the Code of Judicial Conduct and continued service as a director would be in violation of such Canon.

Opinion No. 38

Question: Assuming that a judge may not continue to serve as a director of a mutual savings and loan association, as mentioned in Opinion No. 37 this date released; may such judge serve as an "advisory" director thereof?

Answer: In the opinion of the Committee, there are at least two reasons why such service is impermissible under the Code of Judicial Conduct: (a) Since he may not serve as a director under Opinion No. 37, supra, he should not be permitted to do indirectly that which he cannot do directly; and (b) such service would be in contravention of Canon 2 B of the Code of Judicial Conduct in that it might be construed as lending the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others.

Opinion No. 39

Question: Does a judge subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct violate Canon 2 B and/or 5 C (4) by accepting an invitation from a firm of attorneys to be entertained with lodging, food and drinks for two nights and three days at a lake lodge? The outing is referred to as the firm's annual "Judicial Conference."

Answer: The Committee assumes that the name of the conference was chosen in jest or inadvertently; and, upon such assumption, gives an affirmative answer to the question as presented. Such answer, however, is confined to the precise factual situation presented.

The Committee is of the opinion that when one assumes judicial office he does not forfeit his right to associate with his friends and acquaintances nor is he condemned to live the life of a hermit. In fact, such a regime would, in the view of the Committee, lessen the effectiveness of the judicial officer.

While a judge should so conduct his personal affairs as to avoid all impropriety and appearance of impropriety, he is not precluded from accepting the hospitality of his friends, attending social activities of bar associations, groups of lawyers, or other citizens.

He should not allow such social relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgments, nor should he permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him.

RECENT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Selected Opinions Affecting Court Operations During 1978

The authorization for the rendition of advisory opinions by the Attorney General is found in section 22 of Article IV of the Texas Constitution and has been more specifically defined in article 4399, V.T.C.S. This is a quasi-judicial function, Glimpse v. Bexar County, 160 S. W. 2d 996 (Tex. Civ. App. San Antonio 1942, writ ref'd), and while the opinions do not have the force of law, they are entitled to be given considerable weight in determining proper construction of statutes. City of Houston v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co., 504 S. W. 2d 554 (Tex. Civ. App. Houston [14th] 1973, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

JUDGES ON ASSIGNMENT

- H-1230 August 18, 1978. A district judge who is eligible for retirement may be assigned as a special judge under article 200a, V.T.C.S., even though he may have been defeated for reelection.
- H-1149 April 3, 1978. A former district judge who is not yet retired is eligible for assignment as a special judge under the circumstances stated in article 200a, V.T.C.S. A judge on special assignment does not qualify for a disability benefit under article 6228b, section 3 if the disability occurs while he is serving on special assignment. A judge on special assignment should pay in retirement contributions an amount equal to six percent of the salary actually paid him. The death benefit plan in article 6228b, section 2(a-1) is available to a judge who serves on special assignment during the month of his death and who otherwise qualifies.
- H-1145 March 28, 1978. A person who meets the tenure requirement for retirement but has not yet reached retirement age is a "former district judge" rather than a "retired district judge" for purposes of article 200a, V.T.C.S. The respective contributions of the state and county to the salary of a former district judge serving on special assignment should be in the same proportion as in the case of a regular judge. A county is not required to assume the full burden of the salary of a former district judge serving on special assignment when state funds appropriated for that purpose have been depleted.
- H-1132 March 9, 1978. A special county judge appointed pursuant to article 30.03, section 2 of the Code of Criminal Procedure need not be reappointed for each case. The special county judge does not serve on or preside over the commissioners court. Article 1933a, V.T.C.S., authorizes the county judge in certain counties to appoint a special judge to handle a single pending case. The judge appointed pursuant to article 30.03, section 2 of the Code of Criminal Procedure may handle probate matters. A county judge who is unwilling to act in a probate matter may appoint a judge pursuant to article 1933a, V.T.C.S., or transfer it to the district court pursuant to section 5 of the Probate Code, provided the requirements of the relevant statute are satisfied.

Article 1934, V.T.C.S., and article 30.03, section 2 of the Code of Criminal Procedure are not in conflict. Each provides a permissible procedure for temporarily replacing an absent or disabled county judge.

SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

- H-1252 October 5, 1978. The Speedy Trial Act does not extend to juvenile court proceedings conducted under Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.
- H-1130 March 1, 1978. A trial de novo in county court following conviction in municipal or justice court is subject to article 32A.02 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, providing for speedy trials of criminal charges. The criminal action commences for purposes of article 32A.02 when the defendant files a valid appeal bond. The defendant's detention, for purposes of article 17.151 of the Code of Criminal Procedure begins when he is actually taken into custody following conviction in the municipal or justice court. The article 17.151 requirement that defendant "be released . . . by reducing the amount of bail" means that bail must be reduced to an amount he can afford to pay.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

- H-1294 December 19, 1978. A justice of the peace or municipal court judge has no authority or power to change a complaint charging a moving violation to a nonmoving violation, and such judgment on an offense not charged would be void.
- H-1203 July 6, 1978. A justice of the peace may not proceed to trial on misdemeanor charges in defendant's absence, where defendant has not pled guilty or nolo contendere in accordance with article 27.14(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure or paid a fine in accordance with article 27.14(c). A cash bond which defendant has not signed is invalid
- H-1204 July 7, 1978. The repeated use of the same jurors in a justice court is not a per se violation of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.
- H-1183 June 12, 1978. A justice of the peace may not maintain his office in an adjoining precinct.

JUVENILE PROCEEDINGS

- H-1301 December 21, 1978. A magistrate who conducts a detention hearing in accordance with section 51.04, Family Code, need not be a licensed attorney. Section 51.04(d) of the Family Code requires the designation of an alternate court when the judge of the juvenile court designated pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) is not an attorney.
- H-1252 October 5, 1978. The Speedy Trial Act does not extend to juvenile court proceedings conducted under Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

SELECTED RECENT COURT DECISIONS

Affecting Court Operations During 1978

APPEAL

The State has no right to appeal adverse judgments in juvenile delinquency cases. The right of appeal is specifically controlled by section 56.01 of the Family Code (not by article 2249, C.C.P.). Section 56.01 gives the right of appeal "on behalf of the child" and does not grant such a right to the State. The predecessor statute gave the right of appeal to "any party aggrieved." The Supreme Court concludes that by this omission the Legislature did not grant the State the right to appeal. CLB v. State, _____ S.W.2d _____ (Tex. 1978)

COURTS

Constitutional county courts continue to have juvenile jurisdiction. In re GBB, 572 S.W.2d 751 (Tex. Crim. App.-El Paso 1978, writ ref'd n.r.e.)

Article 1200cc, V.T.C.S., provides for the establishment of municipal courts in cities of over 1,200,000, which are courts of record from which appeals are taken on record to a county criminal court. These appeals are determined by the appeal court solely on the basis of errors assigned in a motion for new trial as presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared by the municipal court. Held: This procedure did not deny the defendant equal protection of law even though he did not get a trial de novo on appeal, whereas trials de novo are granted defendants from convictions in municipal courts established under the general laws of Texas. Article 1200cc has allowed the courts to be created in a classification that is reasonably related to purpose of providing a feasible and more efficient court system. The problems and conditions in municipal courts in large metropolitan areas differ from those in smaller cities and towns. Ex parte Spring, _____ S.W.2d ____ (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

A complaint filed in a justice of the peace court will not toll the running of the statute of limitations in a felony case. A justice of the peace court had authority to take a complaint and issue a warrant of arrest, but it did not have jurisdiction of felony offense so as to come within ambit of article 12.05, C.C.P. Ex parte Ward, 560 S.W.2d 660 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

The Speedy Trial Act is procedural in nature and is thus applicable to both pending and future actions. The Speedy Trial Act applies to cases pending on July 1, 1978, effective date of the Act.

The time that elapsed after commencement of this criminal action pending at the time the Speedy Trial Act went into effect, but prior to July 1, 1978, is not to be considered when applying time limits set out in article 32A.02, section 1,

C.C.P. July 1 was the effective date for all provisions of the Act, not portions of the Act. Prior to that date, prosecutors, defendants, and courts were not required to take notice of the Act or to take any action under its terms. If the State was not required to take notice of its provisions or to take any action under the Act prior to July 1, the time that elapsed prior to that date cannot be considered when determining motions to dismiss under article 32A.02, section 1. It defies reason to suggest that the State should have anticipated and followed the terms of a statute not in existence at the time such cases were commenced. Moreover, by specifying that the Speedy Trial Act was to become effective on July 1, the Legislature intended to strike a reasonable balance between interests of defendants and interests of the State. Wade v. State, 572 S.W.2d 533 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

The Court of Criminal Appeals now has jurisdiction to issue writs of mandamus to compel speedy trials under the recent amendment to article V, section 5, Texas Constitution. Thomas v. Stevenson, 561 S.W.2d 845 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

If the record shows that the defendant was unable to speak English and the trial was conducted in English, the defendant was denied the constitutional right of confrontation of witnesses and the trial was a nullity since an interpreter was not furnished. Appointment of an interpreter is discretionary with the trial court and reviewable only upon abuse of discretion if the issue is whether or not the party or witness can communicate in the English language. Here, however, the record clearly shows that the defendant could not speak English and the failure to furnish an interpreter was pointed out to the trial court (although not assigned as error on appeal). Baltierra v. State, _____ S.W.2d _____

DEFERRED ADJUDICATION

The defendant plead guilty to the theft of one head of cattle. Pursuant to article 42.12, section 3d(a), C.C.P., the trial court deferred the proceeding without an adjudication of guilt and placed the defendant on probation for five years. Probation was subsequently revoked and the defendant was found guilty of the theft of one head of cattle and was sentenced to ten years. Held: Affirmed. "Probation" as used in article 42.12, section 3d(a), is not the equivalent of "probation" as defined by article 42.12, section 2(b), C.C.P., or article IV, section 11A, Texas Constitution. Thus, "probation" pursuant to article 42.12, section 3d, may be granted before the defendant is "convicted" without violating article IV, section 11A, Texas Constitution.

After revoking "deferred sentence" probation, the trial court can assess greater punishment than that stated in the conditional probation.

The State can recommend a specific punishment to the trial judge, but the recommendation is never binding on the court.

The trial court did not admonish the defendant that: (1) in the event that his "probation" under article 42.12, section 3d(a), C.C.P., should be revoked and an adjudication of guilt entered, the trial court could impose a full range of punishment and was not bound by the probationary term of five years, and (2) that the defendant had the right to request a final adjudication under article 42.12, section 3d, at the time probation was granted. Held: Affirmed. The defendant was admonished as required by article 26.13, C.C.P. The defendant's plea of guilty was freely and voluntarily given. There was no violation of rights to due process and effective assistance of counsel.

On violation of probation granted under article 42.12, section 3d(b), C.C.P., the trial court does not have to proceed with a separate hearing to first determine whether he should proceed to an adjudication and then a second hearing to determine guilt. The trial court can proceed with an adjudication of guilt and then immediately continue with all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and the defendant's appeal as if adjudication of guilt had not been deferred. One hearing affords due process. McNew v. State, ______ S.W.2d _____ (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

GUILTY PLEAS

In receiving the defendant's guilty plea, the trial court asked if the defendant understood the right to trial by jury; the right to be proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; and the right not to testify against self. The trial court asked if the defendant had been promised anything to cause plea and was told "No." Held: Affirmed. There need not be an express inquiry of whether a defendant is freely and voluntarily entering a guilty plea to constitute substantial compliance with the requirements of article 26.13, C.C.P. There being no showing that the defendant was misled or harmed by admonishment, and finding that the trial court was in substantial compliance with the requirements of article 26.13, the Court of Criminal Appeals concludes no error was shown. Richards v. State, 562 S.W.2d 456 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

Four pleas of guilty were entered before the court. Although the trial court inquired about whether there was a plea bargain and was assured by the prosecutor that there was one, he did not inquire of the defendant personally whether the defendant had agreed to the recommended punishment. The trial court denied the defendant's right to appeal. Held: A writ of mandamus will issue if the defendant is not given the right to appeal. The failure to ascertain if the defendant had personally consented to the recommended punishment prevents article 44.02, C.C.P., from being used to prevent appeals. Broggi v. Curry, 571 S.W.2d 940 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

Imprisonment upon conviction of a misdemeanor without representation is permissible. If only a fine is actually assessed in a misdemeanor case, the judgment is not void even though the defendant was indigent, was not represented by counsel, and was convicted under a statute that included imprisonment as a possible punishment. To the extent that it is in conflict with the opinion here, Ex parte Herrin, 537 S.W.2d 33 (Tex. Crim. App. 1976), is overruled.

No statute requires any sort of warning to be given to a defendant in a misdemeanor case when he enters a plea of guilty. Empy v. State, 571 S.W.2d 526 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

The trial court failed to give any admonishment (at the time of the defendant's nolo contendere plea) as required by article 26.13, C.C.P., in effect at the time of the nolo contendere plea. Held: Reversed. There was no showing that the defendant was advised of the range of punishment; nor was it determined that the plea was freely and voluntarily made, etc., as required by article 26.13. Kelley v. State, 573 S.W.2d 28 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

JUDGES

A temporary judge of a home-rule city is at least a de facto judge, since article 1196(a), RCS, does not expressly prohibit appointment.

Without the taking of oath as prescribed by the Texas Constitution, one cannot become either a de jure or a de facto judge, and his acts as such are void. French v. State,

S.W.2d ______ (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

Article 200a, section 5, V.T.C.S., as amended in 1977, does not preclude the assignment of a retired judge more than 70 years old (here 75), Jackson v. State, 567 S.W.2d 222 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

RECORD ON APPEAL

A trial judge may not extend the time for filing the record in the Court of Civil Appeals, and any order purporting to do so is without force and effect. McPherson v. Sawyers, 565 S.W.2d 123 (Tex. Civ. App.-Waco 1978)

A motion was filed to dismiss the temporary administration of the estate pending in the county court of Donley County. Movant did not request a court reporter until the day of the hearing. No court reporter was regularly assigned to the court. Since no court reporter was available, proceedings were recorded on a recording machine. The trial court overruled the motion to dismiss administration. Tapes, purporting to be a recording of the hearing, were forwarded to the Court of Civil Appeals. The Court of Civil Appeals declined to accept untranscribed tapes as a statement of facts and ordered them returned, but at the movant's request an extension of time was granted to have tapes transcribed. No transcript or other statement of facts was forwarded to the Court of Civil Appeals. Held: Affirmed. (In the absence of a statement of facts, the Court of Civil Appeals cannot say the trial court abused its discretion in refusing to dismiss temporary administration.) As to the record, this county court is governed by article 2327, V.T.C.S., and the movant has not brought himself within the requirements of the statute. Under statute, the duty to provide a stenographer is imposed only when a competent stenographer is present or, in any event, when one is available. If the party desiring a stenographer wishes to avail himself of mandatory provision of the statute, he must bring about conditions under which such provision arises, or, in any event, make demand at such a reasonable time as may enable the county judge to provide a stenographer without necessitating a delay in the trial. In re Estate of Swift, 560 S.W.2d 517 (Tex. Civ. App.-Amarillo 1978, no writ)

The trial court rendered a default judgment granting the Wife a divorce and appointing her managing conservator of a minor child. The Husband did not file pleadings or appear in person or by counsel. Neither party requested an official court reporter to be present, and the Husband could not secure a statement of facts when he brought the case to the Court of Civil Appeals for review by writ of error. Held: Judgment for the Wife reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial. The Supreme Court has jurisdiction because the Court of Civil Appeals holding affirming the trial court judgment is in conflict with Smith v. Smith, 544 S.W.2d 121 (Tex. 1976). The facts in this case, as in Smith, disclose that the Husband's right to proper appellate review, due to no fault on his part, can be preserved only by a new trial. (Smith did not rest on a requirement formerly imposed by article 2324, V.T.C.S., that an official court reporter attend and report all trials or on the section 11.14(d). Family Code, requirement that a record be made in parent-child relationship cases unless waived by parties with the court's consent.) Rogers v.

Rogers, 561 S.W.2d 172 (Tex. S. C. 1978)

A court reporter may not refuse to deliver a statement of facts if an appeal bond or a proper exemption therefrom has been filed. Thus, if the appeal bond is sufficient to cover preparation of the appellate record, a court reporter cannot insist on cash in advance as a condition to a transcription of the statement of facts. Wells v. Wells, 570 S.W.2d 224 (Tex. Civ. App.-Houston 1st 1978, no writ)

REVOCATION OF PROBATION

On September 3, 1976, the State filed a motion to revoke the defendant's probation on the basis of an August 13, 1976 D.W.I.; on October 21, 1976, the trial court denied the State's motion to revoke. On November 1, 1976, the State filed another motion to revoke on the same act of D.W.I.: on December 22, 1976, the trial court revoked the defendant's probation. Held: Affirmed. The fifth amendment quarantee against double jeopardy does not prohibit the State from twice subjecting the defendant to a probation revocation proceeding based upon the same alleged probationary violation and fact situation. The double jeopardy protections of the Texas and U.S. Constitutions do not apply when the result is deemed to be neither a conviction nor an acquittal and the proceeding is not considered to be a trial. A probation revocation hearing is not a criminal prosecution but is administrative in nature.

Also, the supervision of probationers is an administrative function of the courts and not a judicial function. A revocation hearing (and the decision to revoke probation or not) is administrative in nature, and the doctrine of res judicata does not apply to such a proceeding. Davenport v. State, 574 S.W.2d 73 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978)

STATISTICS AND ANALYSIS OF COURT ACTIVITY

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least two factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

- One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated or lengthy cases.
- The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities as a result of their position in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

SUPREME COURT 1978

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest State court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the State. It is composed of the Chief Justice and eight associate justices.

A record number of applications for writs of error were filed in the Supreme Court during 1978. Eight hundred sixtynine applications were filed, compared to 766 in 1977 — an increase of 13 percent and 31 percent higher than the tenyear average of 664. In 1978, 110 new "regular causes" — primarily cases in which the Court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion — reached the docket, compared to 103 in 1977 and the ten-year average of 101. New civil mandamus matters jumped from 88 in 1977 to 123 in 1978 (40 percent increase) but criminal mandamus matters decreased from 153 to 34 in 1978.

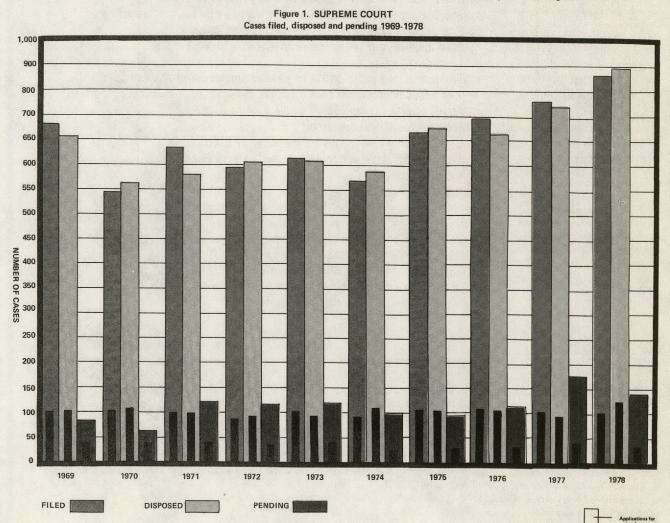

In 1978, the Supreme Court disposed of 79 percent of the regular causes docketed during 1978 or carried over from 1977, one percent more than in 1977. Eighty-six percent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, compared to 81 percent during 1977.

The Court delivered 114 deciding opinions in 1978 compared to 84 in 1977 — an increase of 36 percent. A total of 176 opinions was written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 20 per justice, compared to 12 in 1977.

The Supreme Court disposed of 899 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, compared to 717 in 1977, and an average of 100 per justice. Eleven percent of the 899 applications were granted. Of the granted writs, the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed in 76 percent of the cases for an effective reversal rate of the courts of civil appeals of eight percent.

Thirty-two regular causes were pending at the end of 1978—ten less than at the end of 1977, and one case less than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket at the end of 1978 was 141—18 percent less than the 171 at the end of 1977 but 24 percent more than the ten-year average of 114.

&quot;Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. "Regular Causes" are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. Cases other than "Regular Causes" include such actions as the court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of "Regular Causes."

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest State court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. In addition, pursuant to Article 1811e, V.T.C.S., four special commissioners served the Court at various times during the year.

The recent trend of greatly increased filings slackened somewhat in 1978. The 3,104 new cases docketed in the Court were five percent less than the 3,267 cases docketed during 1977, but were still 67 percent higher than the tenyear average of 1,854.

A total of 1,734 applications for writs of habeas corpus and mandamus were filed during 1978. One thousand five hundred forty-two matters were disposed of in 1978, an increase of 13 percent over the 1977 total of 1,361 and 70 percent higher than the ten-year average.

An amendment to Article 40.09, sec. 16, C.C.P., effective May 25, 1977, gave the Court exclusive power to grant extentions of time for the filing of transcriptions of court reporters' notes, bills of exception and briefs in criminal cases. The Court heard and disposed of 2,434 such applications, compared to 1,887 during the last seven months of 1977.

In 1978, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 51 percent of the cases docketed during the year or carried over from 1977, compared to 57 percent the previous year. Eighty-four percent were disposed of by per curiam opinions, compared to 82 percent in 1977.

Two thousand eight hundred seventy-eight opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1978, four percent more than the 1977 total of 2,778. Twenty-four percent of these were authored opinions.

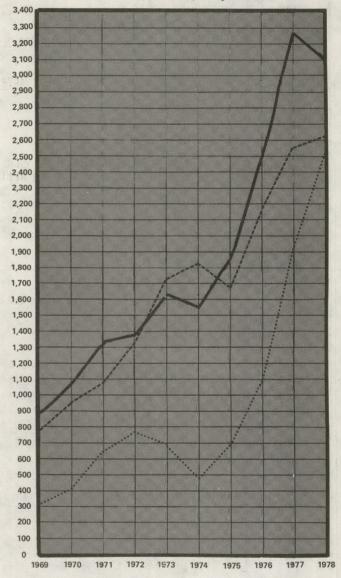

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 77 percent of the cases reviewed and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional 12 percent.

Two thousand five hundred seven docketed cases were pending at the end of 1978 — 32 percent higher than a year earlier and 165 percent higher than the ten-year average of 947.

Based on the service of nine judges, the caseload per judge in the Court of Criminal Appeals remained higher than that of the other appellate courts. The number of cases filed per judge or commissioner decreased slightly to 345 in 1978 from 363 in 1977.

The intermediate State appellate courts in Texas do not have criminal jurisdiction. As a result, appeals in criminal cases are directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals from the district and county courts. Due to the absence of an intermediate appellate court system for criminal cases, the Court of Criminal Appeals hears cases which in other states would be heard by one or more intermediate courts.

FILED ---- PENDING ....

The Court of Criminal Appeals is also burdened by the provision of Article 44.24 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which requires the Court to deliver a written opinion or certificate with citation of supporting authorities in each case it decides. This rule resulted in the nine judges of the Court writing an average of 316 opinions each during 1978. In 1977, the average was 308.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS 1978

The 14 courts of civil appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geographical jurisdiction in a supreme judicial district. Seven of the courts have three justices and three have six, for a total of 51 intermediate appellate justices in the State. (The First and Fourteenth Courts in Houston and the Fifth in Dallas were expanded from three to six justices effective December 1, 1978.)

Cases filed in all the courts of civil appeals during 1978 increased 10 percent over 1977 and were 39 percent higher than the ten-year average. More new cases were filed in 1978 than in 1977 in all but four courts. Of the courts with increased filings, the Tyler Court experienced the largest percentage increase — 44 percent (18 cases) — and the Austin Court the largest increase in actual number of filings — 45 cases. The Dallas Court continued to receive more new filings than any of the other courts — 358 compared to the average of 155 (Figure 5). The two courts at Houston, each of which have jurisdiction over the same geographical area, received a total of 520 new cases, 77 cases more than in 1977.

In 1978, the courts of civil appeals together disposed of 61 percent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from 1977, compared to 64 percent during the previous year. The 1,987 dispositions were 32 percent higher than the tenyear average of 1,506 and five percent higher than 1977's 1,898 dispositions. The First Court in Houston had the highest number of dispositions — 183 compared to the average for the 14 courts of 142.

In 1978, a total of 1,896 opinions were written by the courts of civil appeals, compared to 1,771 in 1977. The Beaumont Court wrote the largest number of opinions — 160 — compared to the average per court of 135 (up from 127 in 1977).

The average number of written opinions per justice for all courts was 45, up from 42 in 1977.

The courts of civil appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 28 percent of the cases disposed, the same as in 1977.

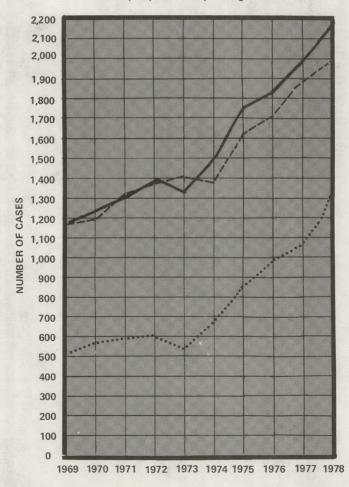

At the end of 1978, 1,304 cases remained on the courts of civil appeals dockets for subsequent disposition, a 21 percent increase over the previous year. The number of cases pending at the end of 1978 was 70 percent higher than the ten-year average of 767. Of the 1,304 cases pending December 31, 1978, 283 had been on the docket six to 12 months and 13 had been pending more than a year.

One hundred twenty-six cases were pending on the docket of the Fourteenth Court in Houston at the close of the year. The number for the other courts ranged down to 58 at Beaumont. The average number pending for all courts was 93, up from 73 at the end of 1977.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a case in a court of civil appeals and its disposition ranged from 4¼ months in the Dallas Court to 8¼ months in the El Paso Court. The average for all courts was 6 months, the same as during 1977. The average lapse of time from the submission of a case to the court and its disposition ranged from one-half of a month in the Houston (First) and Fort Worth Courts to 4¼ months in the Texarkana Court. The average for all courts was 1¾ months.

While the 14 courts of civil appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographical areas, some desirable aspects of unification are achieved by transfer of cases among the courts by order of the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 1738, V.T.C.S. The Supreme Court transferred 407 cases during 1978, compared to 415 transferred in 1977.

FILED --- PENDING ....

The Dallas Court received the most relief from these transfers; of the 407 cases transferred to other courts (disregarding transfers between the two Houston Courts), 192 were transferred from the Dallas Court. The Eastland Court received the most transferred cases — 102.

The net result of these transfers for the year 1978 is shown in Figure 5. The workload of the courts after transfers were made is shown by the total bar above the center line. This workload ranged from 93 cases at El Paso to 223 in the Fourteenth Court in Houston, a range considerably narrower than the range of filings (51 at Eastland to 358 in Dallas).

DISTRICT COURTS 1978

The 305 district courts experienced a four percent increase in new cases filed in 1978 — to 370,382 from 356,042 in 1977. The trend of filings is shown by Figure 9.

New civil cases filed increased three percent over 1977 while criminal cases increased five percent and juvenile cases nine percent.

Civil cases accounted for 74 percent of the new cases filed in 1978. Almost half of the civil cases filed (45 percent) were for divorce or annulment. Personal injury cases (including worker's compensation) comprised nine percent and tax cases seven percent of the civil cases filed — virtually the same as during 1977.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for almost three percent of the total cases filed in district courts.

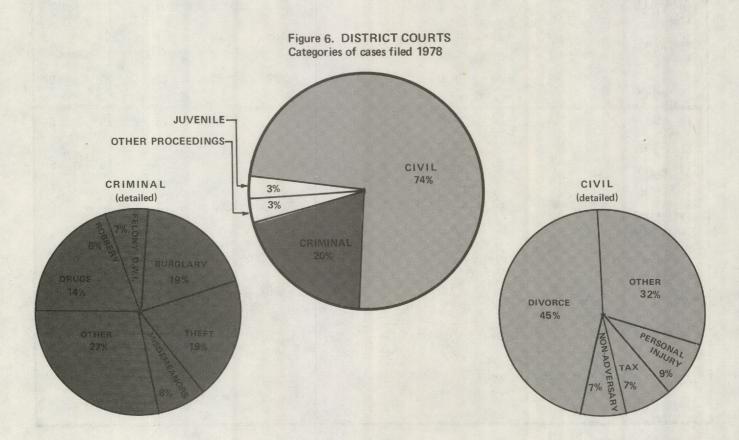

Criminal cases accounted for 20 percent of the total new cases filed in 1978. Of the criminal cases, 19 percent involved a charge of burglary, 19 percent theft, six percent robbery, seven percent felony D.W.I. and 14 percent drug offenses, including marijuana. Sixteen percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder by indictment.

The number of all categories of cases filed in the eight Texas counties with 1970 population over 200,000 increased four percent, the same increase as in all other counties. These eight large population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Jefferson, and Nueces) had 51 percent of the State's population in 1970 and 56 percent of the total cases filed during 1978. Total case filings in the eight counties increased in all but one (Bexar) — as much as a 16 percent increase in Travis County and 14 percent in Nueces County.

Considering criminal cases only, filings increased one percent in the eight urban counties but 12 percent in all other counties. In the urban counties, the changes from 1977 ranged from an increase of 50 percent in Travis County to a decrease of 13 percent in Harris County. Civil case filings also increased in all urban counties — up to a 12 percent increase in Travis County.

In 1978, the district courts of the State disposed of 48 percent of the total cases on their dockets (filed in 1978 or carried over from 1977) — the same as in the previous two years. The district courts in the eight counties with population over 200,000 disposed of 52 percent. In all other counties of the State, 44 percent were disposed of. In all counties, 60 percent of the criminal cases and 45 percent of the civil cases on docket were disposed of during the year. The disposition rate of criminal cases was three percent higher than for 1977 — a possible effect of the Speedy Trial Act, which became effective July 1, 1978.

In the eight urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 64 percent (the same as during 1977) ranging from 72 percent in Jefferson County to 49 percent in El Paso County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 200,000 averaged 56 percent of those on the docket, up from 49 percent in 1977.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 48 percent in the eight urban counties and 41 percent in the rest of the State. The range was from 64 percent in Dallas County to 42 percent in Harris County.

An average of 1,199 cases per judge were disposed of in 1978, down from 1,220 in 1977, a decrease of two percent. The dispositions per judge in the eight counties, with population over 200,000 decreased from 1,531 to 1,416 (eight percent) while in all other counties increased three percent from 960 in 1977 to 986 in 1978.

Fifty percent of all civil cases were disposed of by nonjury trials. (Seventy-one percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Eighteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution and 14 percent at the request of the plaintiff.

Of the 82,695 criminal cases disposed of, in 56 percent the defendant had entered a guilty plea. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 60 percent of the cases and acquitted in 1.2 percent. Thirty-seven percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 23 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 23 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case. In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not-guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 80 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 20 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 67 percent of the cases and acquittals in 33 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 17 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of Felony D.W.I. with 83 percent of the dispositions being by conviction. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was in theft (49 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for Felony D.W.I. — 16 percent were dismissed.

Thirty-five death sentences (up from 24 in 1977) and 420 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during 1978. Eleven thousand one hundred ninety-five persons were committed to the Texas Department of Corrections, 4,957 to local jails and $6,026,500 in fines were assessed.

In the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 55 percent of the cases disposed of. The defendant was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in one percent and 43 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal.

Texas courts granted five percent more divorces in 1978 than in 1977. In 1978, 127,319 divorce cases were disposed of — 47 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Nineteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories. Only 23 percent of the tax cases filed in 1978 or carried over from 1977 were disposed of by the district courts in 1978. Of those dispositions, 38 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff and another 26 percent were default judgments.

agreed judgments and 29 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

The total number of cases pending in the d strict courts at the end of 1978 — 394,032 — was four percent higher than the 378,826 pending at the end of 1977.

Another way to look at the volume of cases pending December 31, 1978, is to assume that no new cases are filed in 1979 and that the district judges dispose of cases at the same rate as during 1978. At that rate, it would take an average of 393 days to dispose of the cases pending at the end of the year. The average for the eight counties with population over 200,000 would be 341 days; for all other counties, 458 days.

COUNTY COURTS 1978

The county clerk in each of Texas' 254 counties is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For 1978, the clerk in 244 counties reported all twelve months, three others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and seven submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 2,943 reports out of a possible 3,048 for the twelvemonth period (97 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 67 percent of the 434,717 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 20 percent and probate 13 percent. New juvenile cases filed were less than one-half percent of the total.

Concerning the criminal cases only, 39 percent (87,605) of those filed or appealed to the county courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated. Fourteen percent (30,987) were for worthless checks and eleven percent (24,542) for violations of law concerning marijuana possession or delivery.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 22 percent of the cases added to the county court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county court.

Of the new civil cases docketed, 45 percent were classified as a suit on debt. Fifteen percent concerned automobile-related damage suits and 0.6 percent were condemnation actions.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county courts of the State disposed of 52 percent of the total criminal, civil and juvenile cases on their dockets (filed during 1978 or carried over from 1977). No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. This disposition rate was highest for criminal cases (57 percent). Forty-one percent of the civil cases on the docket were disposed of and 39 percent of the juvenile cases. Within the criminal cases category, 68 percent of the marijuana charges and 66 percent of the D.W.I. charges were disposed of but only 32 percent of the worthless check cases were disposed.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county courts disposed of 381,484 cases, which is a few tenths of a percent more than the 380,287 cases added to the dockets (excluding probate), up from 98 percent in 1977.

Fifty-one percent of the criminal cases in county courts were disposed of following a plea of guilty or nolo contendere. Thirty-nine percent were dismissed. Trials were held in two percent of the criminal cases, 2,544 before the judge alone and 2,052 before a jury.

The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the worthless check cases — 68 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Pleas of guilty or nolo contendere accounted for 79 percent of the driving while intoxicated and 71 percent of the marijuana case dispositions.

The methods of disposition of civil cases parallel those for criminal cases except that a higher percentage of cases involved a trial. Six percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a trial, 908 before a jury and 4,043 before the judge alone. Forty-nine percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a default or agreed judgment and 42 percent were dismissed.

The county courts disposed of more cases than were added to their dockets during 1978 and the cases pending on the dockets decreased three tenths of one percent from the first to the end of the year — 349,218 on January 1 and 348,021 on December 31. (This does not include probate cases.) Four percent more civil cases but three percent fewer criminal cases were left pending December 31, than on January 1.

JUVENILE ACTIVITY 1978

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court(s) designated must be either a district, criminal district, county court at law or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

Juvenile court activity is therefore reported to the Judicial Council by either the district clerk, or the county clerk, or both, depending on which courts have been designated under Section 51.04.

Looking at total statewide activity, it appears that about 93 percent of the juvenile cases in the state were handled by district courts and the remaining seven percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Combining the reports from both sources produces the table shown below. Statewide, 11,496 new juvenile cases were filed during 1978 — four percent more than in 1977. Of these, 9,899 were for allegations of delinquent conduct (up five percent from 1977) and 1,597 for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision (down two percent). The courts disposed of 13,942 cases — 14 percent more than in 1977. Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 56 percent of the dispositions and a finding of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in one percent. Forty-two percent were dismissed.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS 1978

From various sources, the Judicial Council determined that there were 931 justices of the peace in Texas during 1978. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. All twelve months' activity for 1978 was reported by 642 justices of the peace, 119 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 170 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 8,655 reports out of a possible 11,172 for 1978 (77 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 68 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. During 1978, 1,175,613 traffic cases were filed, ten percent more than during 1977. Non-traffic criminal cases filed were 13 percent more than in 1977 and comprised 21 percent of the total cases filed. Civil cases (including "small claims" cases) provided 11 percent of the new cases filed and the number of those cases increased one percent over 1977.

In addition, the reporting courts received 17,556 peace bond applications (up from 10,741 in 1977) and held 13,404 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In the justice of the peace's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 47,547 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 73,889 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). Fourteen thousand three hundred eighty-four examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held and 11,356 inquests were conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 32,053. Five thousand six hundred seventy-six search warrants were issued and 91,497 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Seventy-one percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 17 percent at trial and seven percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 80 percent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 15 percent that went to trial, 98 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining two percent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 96 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 75 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 58 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Seventeen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 91 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 52 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (37 percent) of civil suits went to trial than criminal cases. Thirty-two percent of the civil suits were settled before trial and 31 percent were dismissed. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported disposing of 1,474,408 cases, which is 85 percent of the 1,738,079 filed. Total dispositions were 11 percent higher than in 1977.

Twenty-two thousand six hundred forty-six cases were appealed from the justice of the peace courts, or one and one-half percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1977 was $38,278,150, 17 percent more than in 1977. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a $3.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

The municipal courts in the 214 cities with 1970 population of 5,000 or greater were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in the court. The residents of these cities represent 71 percent of the population of the entire State, according to the 1970 census. All twelve months' activity for 1978 was reported by 186 of the courts, 14 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 14 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 2,322 reports out of a possible 2,568 for the year (90 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 84 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Over 2,300,000 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1978, about the same as reported during 1977. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 16 percent of the new cases filed.

In addition to those cases, 2,626,420 parking citations were received by the courts and 1,506,187 parking offenses were disposed of. In the municipal judge's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 7,869 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 3,922 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). Fourteen examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 56 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 13,264. Three thousand forty-six search warrants were issued and 57,382 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in three categories: prior to trial, at trial and dismissed. Sixty-nine percent of all cases were disposed of before trial (by payment of fine or forfeiture of bond), 16 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 15 percent were dismissed.

Looking at traffic cases only, 69 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 88 percent of those by payment of fine and 12 percent by bond forfeiture. Of the 16 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 83 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 66 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 68 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Nineteen percent went to trial and 13 percent were dismissed. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 87 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 59 percent of the jury trials.

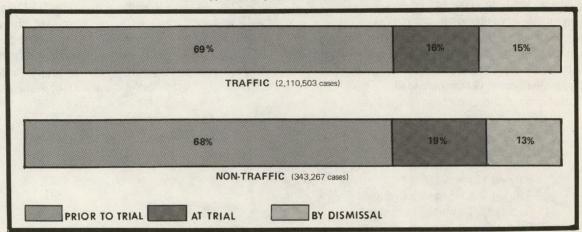

The courts reported disposing of 2,453,770 cases, which is 89 percent of the 2,771,644 filed.

pealed from the municipal courts, a little more than two percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1978 was $59,047,162. This was 10 percent higher than the amount collected by the courts reporting in 1977. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a $3.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State.
