RETIRED JUDGES Under the Provisions of THE JUDICIAL RETIREMENT SYSTEM

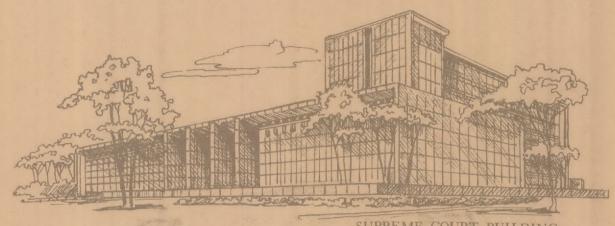

The Judicial Retirement System operates under authority of art. 6228b, V.T.C.S. The basic provision permits voluntary retirement of appellate and district judges at half-pay (of then salary) after ten years service, either upon incapacity or attaining age 65; subject to 10% increase under conditions designed to encourage retirement at age 70. Judges in active service contribute 6% per annum of their salaries to the State General Fund. Retired judges who have elected to continue as judicial officers may be assigned to special duties at active-duty pay rates.

Automatic retirement occurs at age 75.
