Proposed Rules

Before an agency may permanently adopt a new or amended rule, or repeal an existing rule, a proposal detailing the action must be published in the Register at least 30 days before any action may be taken. The 30-day time period gives interested persons an opportunity to review and make oral or written comments on the rule. A public hearing on the proposal may also be granted if such a procedure is requested by a governmental subdivision or agency, or by an association consisting of at least 25 members.

The proposal, as published in the Register, must include a brief explanation of the proposed action; a fiscal statement indicating effect on state or local government; a statement explaining anticipated public benefits and possible economic costs to individuals required to comply with the rule; a request for public comments; a statement of statutory authority under which the proposed rule is to be adopted (and the agency's interpretation of the statutory authority); the text of the proposed action; and a certification statement. The certification information, which includes legal authority, the proposed date of adoption or the earliest possible date that the agency may file notice to adopt the proposal, and a telephone number to call for further information, follows each submission.

Symbology in amended rules. New language added to an existing rule is indicated by the use of bold text. [Brackets] indicate deletion of existing material within a rule.

TITLE 34. PUBLIC FINANCE Part I. Comptroller of Public Accounts Chapter 3. Tax Administration Subchapter N. Ad Valorem Tax Division 34 TAC §§3.231-3.256

The Comptroller of Public Accounts proposes the repeal of §§3.231-3.256, relating to ad valorem taxes. The state ad valorem tax has been repealed by constitutional amendment. The amendment was approved by the voters of Texas on November 2, 1982. For that reason, the Comptroller of Public Accounts no longer has any responsibility for ad valorem taxes of any kind, and these sections are superfluous.

Billy Hamilton, director of revenue estimating, has determined that for the first five-year period the repeals will be in effect there will be no fiscal implications to state or local government as a result of the repeals. There is no anticipated economic cost or benefit to individuals as a result of the repeals.

Comments on the proposal should be submitted to Joe Thrash, P.O. Box 13528, Austin, Texas 78711.

The repeals are adopted under Texas Tax Code, Article 4344, which provides that the comptroller may prescribe, adopt, and enforce rules relating to the enforcement and administration of the Code.

Open Meetings

Agencies with statewide jurisdiction must give at least seven days notice before an impending meeting. Institutions of higher education or political subdivisions covering all or part of four or more counties (regional agencies) must post notice at least 72 hours prior to a scheduled meeting time. Although some notices may be received too late for publication before the meeting is held, all those filed are published in the Register. Notices concerning state agencies, colleges, and universities must contain the date, time, and location of the meeting, and an agenda or agenda summary. Published notices concerning county agencies include only the date, time, and location of the meeting. These notices are published alphabetically under the heading "Regional Agencies" according to the date on which they are filed.

Any of the governmental entities named above must have notice of an emergency meeting, or an emergency revision to an agenda, and the reason for such emergency posted for at least two hours before the meeting is convened. Emergency meeting notices filed by all governmental agencies will be published. However, notices of emergency additions or revisions to a regional agency's agenda will not be published since the original agenda for the agency was not published.

All notices are posted on the bulletin board outside the Office of the Secretary of State on the first floor of the East Wing in the State Capitol. These notices may contain more detailed agendas than space allows to be published in the Register.

Texas Tech University Consultant Proposal Request

In accordance with the provisions of Texas Civil Statutes, Article 6252-11(c), Texas Tech University is soliciting proposals from qualified consultants to perform a study of the university's reproduction services.

To be considered, the consultant must not represent any vendor or manufacturer of reproduction equipment or service. Also, general management consultants with no demonstrable expertise in the analysis of reproduction services will not be considered.

Proposals must include an outline of activities to be performed and their related time frames, an estimate of time required by university personnel, a quoted fee for performing the study, and an itemized estimate of additional expenses. At least three professional references must also be included in the proposal. The study outline must include the following activities.

Organization and Procedures Evaluation. The consultant must determine the current methods of obtaining reproduction services and must determine buying authorities and organizational responsibilities throughout the university. From this evaluation should come a preliminary report analyzing the current issues and problems and possible courses of action to be investigated during alternative evaluations.

Inventory and Cost Analysis. The consultant will perform an accurate inventory of reproduction equipment on campus. The inventory will include historical volume data, price plans, and current equipment and supplies cost. This analysis must also include all labor and facilities allocated for providing or administering reproduction services.

Data Collection. The consultant will perform an in-depth data collection effort of all reproduction sources available to university personnel. This effort must include manual logging of all reproduction devices on campus (approximately 130 machines) to determine the origin of the work, the machine used, job size and special job requirements; a search of appropriate records to quantify the amount of printing being sent off campus to commercial establishments; and a solicitation of the opinions of system users via an opinion questionnaire.

Data Evaluation. The consultant will compile and summarize all data in a report on the current system that will include a comprehensive cost analysis; a simulation of productivity performance of each device in the study, including queue and turnaround; a summary and analysis of questionnaire data; and the consultant's findings and opinions as to what alternative courses of action are open to the university.

Alternatives. The consultant will perform alternative simulations of system changes based on the direction given by the user committee. These simulations will be in the same format as the current system simulation. The simulations will continue until a system has been developed that meets the study objectives and satisfies the user committee.

Final Report. The consultant will prepare a final report that will include a detailed description of all phases and activities related to the study effort, all summary data and simulation comparisons, the final recommendation agreed to by the user committee, and a detailed plan for its implementation.

Implementation. The consultant will develop an implementation plan for system changes. The consultant will also provide a methodology for tracking the changes and their actual, versus projected, impact on cost and productivity.

Support Tools. The consultant should include samples of the various data processing reports and other support tools to be used during the study effort.

Contact. Individuals or firms interested in submitting the proposals may contact R. D. Whipple, Project Coordinator, Texas Tech University, P.O. Box 4301, Lubbock, Texas 79409, (806) 742-2000.

Submission of Proposal. A proposal sent by mail should be addressed to R. D. Whipple, Project Coordinator, Texas Tech University, P.O. Box 4301, Lubbock, Texas 79409. Hand-delivered proposals will be accepted daily between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., except Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, at the following address: R. D. Whipple, Project Coordinator, Texas Tech University, South Center Section of Doak Hall, Lubbock. One original and six copies of the proposal are required. Due date for proposals is April 1, 1983, at 4 p.m., Central Standard Time. Proposals received after that time will not be considered.

Contract Award Procedures. Final selection will be made by the vice-president for finance and administration based upon evaluations and recommendations provided by a panel of university personnel. The university will award a contract to the firm or organization which is considered to be best able to perform the services requested. However, the university reserves the right to reject, in total or part, any and/or all proposals received if it is considered to be in the best interest of the university. Issuance of this request in no way constitutes a commitment by the university to award a contract.
