Procedure, subsequently receives a discharge and dismissal under 1 2 Section 5(c), Article 42.12, and satisfies the requirements of Subsection (e), the person may petition the court that placed the 3 4 defendant on deferred adjudication for an order of nondisclosure under this subsection. Except as provided by Subsection (e), a 5 6 person may petition the court for an order of nondisclosure [under this subsection] regardless of whether the person has been 7 previously placed on deferred adjudication community supervision 8 9 for another offense. After notice to the state, an opportunity for 10 [and] a hearing, and a determination that [on whether] the person is entitled to file the petition and issuance of the order is in the 11 interest of justice, the court shall issue an 12 best order prohibiting criminal justice agencies from disclosing to the public 13 criminal history record information related to the offense giving 1415 rise to the deferred adjudication. A criminal justice agency may 16 disclose criminal history record information that is the subject of 17 the order only to other criminal justice agencies, for criminal 18 justice or regulatory licensing purposes, an agency or entity listed in Subsection (i), or the person who is the subject of the 19 20 order. A person may petition the court that placed the person on deferred adjudication for an order of nondisclosure [on-payment of 21 a $28 fee to the clerk of the court-in addition to any other fee that 22 generally applies to the filing of a civil petition. The payment 23 24 may be made] only on or after:

(1) the discharge and dismissal, if the offense for which the person was placed on deferred adjudication was a misdemeanor other than a misdemeanor described by Subdivision (2);

1 (2) the second anniversary of the discharge and 2 dismissal, if the offense for which the person was placed on 3 deferred adjudication was a misdemeanor under Chapter 20, 21, 22, 4 25, 42, or 46, Penal Code; or

5 (3) the fifth anniversary of the discharge and 6 dismissal, if the offense for which the person was placed on 7 deferred adjudication was a felony.

8 (f-1) A person who petitions the court for an order of 9 nondisclosure under Subsection (d) may file the petition in person, electronically, or by mail. The petition must be accompanied by 10 11 payment of a $28 fee to the clerk of the court in addition to any 12 other fee that generally applies to the filing of a civil petition. 13 The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System shall prescribe a form for the filing of a petition electronically 14 15 or by mail. The form must provide for the petition to be 16 accompanied by the required fees and any other supporting material 17 determined necessary by the office of court administration, including evidence that the person is entitled to file the 18 19 petition. The office of court administration shall make available 20 on its Internet website the electronic application and printable application form. Each county or district clerk's office that 21 22 maintains an Internet website shall include on that website a link to the electronic application and printable application form 23 24 available on the office of court administration's Internet website. 25 On receipt of a petition under this subsection, the court shall provide notice to the state and an opportunity for a hearing on 26 whether the person is entitled to file the petition and issuance of 27

S.B. No. 107 the order is in the best interest of justice. The court shall hold a 1 2 hearing before determining whether to issue an order of 3 nondisclosure, except that a hearing is not required if: 4 (1) the state does not request a hearing on the issue before the 45th day after the date on which the state receives 5 6 notice under this subsection; and 7 (2) the court determines that: 8 (A) the defendant is entitled to file the petition; and 9 10 (B) the order is in the best interest of justice. 11 (g-3) A court may not disclose to the public any information 12 contained in the court records that is the subject of an order of nondisclosure issued under this section. The court may disclose 13 information contained in the court records that is the subject of an 14 order of nondisclosure only to criminal justice agencies for 15 criminal justice or regulatory licensing purposes, to an agency or 16 17 entity listed in Subsection (i), or to the person who is the subject of the order. The clerk of the court issuing an order of 18 nondisclosure under this section shall seal any court records 19 containing information that is the subject of the order as soon as 20 practicable after the date the clerk of the court sends all relevant 21 criminal history record information contained in the order or a 22 23 copy of the order to the Department of Public Safety under 24 Subsection (g).
