In the Name of God, Amen, I, Anna Alicia
O. Cannon being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make and publish this my last will and Testament, hereby revoking all others
by me at any time made.

First: I direct that all my just debts
and funeral expenses be paid.

Second: I give and bequeath to Adelaide Manning, my niece, my diamond and pearl brooch; also my large Cluster ring
set with nine diamonds, and her mother's four Cluster diamond ring.

Third: To my niece, Genevieve Manning,
I give and bequeath her mother's Diamond Ear-rings;
also one of my diamond Earrings to be set in a ring, and my opera glasses.

Fourth: I give and bequeath to Selene Manning, my niece, her mother's three leaf Ear-rings and one of my diamond Earrings to be set in a ring.

Fifth: To my niece, Helen Manning, I bequeath and give her mother's diamond Engagement
and wedding ring, and her mother's opera glasses.

Should anyone of my said nieces shall happen die before graduation, then the articles to be bequeathed to such niece or nieces, to revert to the survivors or survivor of said nieces. These bequests first named are to be delivered to the devises when they shall respectively graduate from school.

Sixth: To my brother-in-law, P. J.
Manning, I give in trust for the use and benefit
of my said nieces, all my silverware household
furniture, library, pictures and works of art.

I also give my phoetax in trust to said Manning to be kept and used for benefit of the members of his family

early.

Seventh: Subject - to the interest of my father, Joseph Campaigne of Floyd Knobs, Floyd County, Indiana, I give and bequeath all my right, title and interest in and to a tract of farming land of 126 acres, situated in Floyd Knobs, Floyd County, Indiana, my above named niece shore and shore alike, but in the event of death of any of them her interest to go to the survivors.

Eighth: To my above named niece, I give and bequeath the two thousand dollars I now have on deposit in the State National Bank of Denver, Tex., which sum I wish to be kept in deposit at interest until my youngest niece Helen, now six years old, shall graduate, when said amount with accrued interest shall be equally divided between my ^{said} niece, or the survivors of them should any of them die before that event.

Ninth: I also give and bequeath to my said niece the two thousand dollars now due me from my brother-in-law P. J. Manning, and secured by his life insurance policy in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, and the same to be put at interest as soon as convenient in good investment securities, and to be divided between my niece, or their survivors, shore and shore alike, when the youngest shall graduate.

Tenth: I constitute and appoint my brother-in-law, P. J. Manning, sole executor of this my will, without bond.

We witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this the 3rd day of February, 1900, in the presence of Mrs E. G. Clifford and Louis F. Kullard, who attest the same at my request.

Be it remembered that
on the hearing of the application
for the probate of the last will
of Anna Alicia O'Connor P. J.
Manning testified as follows:

I knew Mrs Anna Alicia O'Connor, she was my sister-in-
law. She is dead, she died in the City of Dallas on the 12th of February, A. D. 1900. She left an estate consisting of lands and personal property of the probable value of six thousand five hundred dollars. Part of the personal property is situated in Dallas County and State of Texas. She left a will, that herein sought to be probated. I know of no other will left by her. I was acquainted with her at time she executed the will referred to. She was then of sound mind. She was about fifty-two years old
at date of her death.

IN MATTER OF ESTATE OF ANNA ALICIA O'CONNOR, DECEASED.

Answers and depositions of Louis F. Kullak, who resides in San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas, to the accompanying interrogatories propounded to him in the above entitled cause, taken before me, W. H. Lipscomb, a Notary Public in and for Bexar County, Texas, in accordance with the accompanying commission.

To the first interrogatory he answers:

I was acquainted with Anna Alicia O'Connor. I was introduced to her by Mrs. S. B. Heer of Springfield, Missouri, on or about the 3rd day of February, 1900, the date of the will. Anna Alicia O'Connor was at that time residing in the Arthur Building, in San Antonio, Texas.

To the second interrogatory he answers:

I am informed that she died about ten days after executing the will, in the City of Dallas, Texas.

To the third interrogatory he answers:

Yes sir, I know that Anna Alicia O'Connor did execute a will. I was present at the time she executed same. She executed the will on the afternoon of February 3rd, 1900, about 6 P. M. in a south-east room, on the third floor of the Arthur Building, in San Antonio, Texas.

To the fourth interrogatory he answers:

There were subscribing witnesses to said will. I was one of the subscribing witnesses to said will. I became a subscribing witness to said will at the request of the deceased Anna Alicia O'Connor. Said will was dated February 3rd, 1900.

TO THE FIFTH INTERROGATORY HE ANSWERS:

As above stated I became a subscribing witness to said will at the request of Anna Alicia O'Connor. Said will was dated February 3rd, 1900.

To the sixth interrogatory he answers:

Yes sir, said will is before me at the time I am answering these interrogatories, and is in the hands of the officer taking my deposition, Mr. W. H. Lipscomb, a Notary Public of San Antonio, Texas. I attach said will to my answers hereto, and identify same by writing my name at the bottom thereof, with the date of May 16th 1900.

To the seventh interrogatory he answers:

I do not know the age of Anna Alicia O'Connor at the time she executed said will. She appeared to be about 40 years of age. Yes, she was over twenty-one years of age, and appeared to be in complete control of all her mental faculties, and of sound mind.

To the eighth interrogatory he answers:

Anna Alicia O'Connor signed said will in my presence, and declared and acknowledged the same to be her will, and I signed the same as a witness at her request.

To the ninth interrogatory he answers:

I reside in San Antonio, Texas. Am 37 years of age. Am engaged in the real estate and loan business.

To the County Court
of said County and State.

Your applicant - P. J. Manning respectfully shows that he resides in Dallas County and State of Texas, and that he is more than twenty-one years of age, that heretofore and, to wit: the 13th day of February, A. D. 1900, Anna Alicia O'Connor the sister-in-law of your applicant, departed this life in said Dallas County testate. That at time of the execution of her will, which bears date February 3rd A. D. 1900, she was more than twenty-one years of age, and was a female sole, and otherwise capable of executing the same. That the deceased left an estate consisting of an interest in 126 acres of land situated in Flod Knobs, Flord County, Indiana, and of $2000 on deposit in the State National Bank of Des Moines, Texas, and of a debt due her from your applicant in the amount of $2000, and of certain jewelry, silverware, household furniture, library, pictures, works of art, and other personal property, all of which is situated in said Dallas County, Texas, all of the estimated value of $6000⁰⁰.

That by terms of her said will Anna Alicia O'Connor appointed your applicant - sole executor thereof, and provided that no bond be required of him as such.

That your applicant is in no way disqualified to serve as executor of said will

or to accept letters as such executor.

Wherefore your applicant prays that notice hereof be given as required by law, and that said will be admitted to probate, and that he be appointed executor thereof, and that letters issue to him as such, and for general relief.
