THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF DALLAS.

In the estate of Joe McCoy, deceased.

To the Honorable H. F. Lively, County Judge of Dallas County, sitting in probate.

Your petitioner, Mrs. Dora McCoy, shows to the Court that she resides in Dallas, Dallas County, Texas. That upon about the 28th day of November, 1904, Joe McCoy who at and before his death at his domicile in the County aforesaid, died in said County intestate.

That at the time of his death the said Joe McCoy was seized and possessed of personal property of the probable value of Five Hundred Dollars.

That there is a necessity for an administration upon the estate of said Joe McCoy, and a necessity for the appointment of a temporary administrator to take said property into his custody and preserve the same from loss, it being now in the hands of persons whose names are unknown to your petitioner, who are selling and disposing thereof.

WHEREFORE, petitioner prays that citation be issued to all parties interested in said estate as required by law; that temporary letters of administration be issued to your petitioner; that upon final hearing thereof, letters of administration be issued to your petitioner, and that such other and further orders be made as to the Court may seem proper.
