State of Texas,

County of Dallas

In the name of God Amen.
I, Charles Lindskold of the County of Dallas, and State of Texas, being of sound mind and disposing memory, yet conscious of the frailty and uncertainty of life, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking
and making naught all former wills
by me at anytime heretofore made.

First, I hereby order and direct my Executor as soon after my death as practicable to pay off and discharge
all the debts and liabilities that may exist against me at the time of my decease.

Second, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Jenny Lindskold, my homestead of ten acres of land in the County of Dallas, Texas, about four miles South of the City of Dallas, upon which place she now live, for and during her natural life, and at her death,
it is my will and desire, and I do hereby give and bequeath
the said lands to Christopher Ord-ing, as sole legatee.

Third, I give and bequeath to my said wife Janny Lindskolds all my personal property, notes, debts and accounts, owned by me at my death, and that may be left after the payment of my debts.

Fourth, I hereby nominate and appoint Christopher Ording the sole Executor of this my last will and it is my desire and will, and I hereby direct that no bonds or security be required of my Executor and that no action of the County Court be had in relation to this will save and except the probating thereof. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hands and subscribed my name on this the 6th day of March 1899.

Done and signed by the said Charles Lindskolds in presence of us, the undersigned, who were present at the signing of the same.

The above and foregoing instrument was at the date thereof, signed, published, and declared by the said Charles Lindskolds to be, and as his last will and testament in the presence of us, and we at the request of said Charles Lindskolds, and in his presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses, this the 6th day of March 1899

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF)
CHARLES J. LINDSKOLD, DECEASED)

In the Probate Court
Dallas County, Texas.

To the Honorable Kenneth Foree, Judge of said Court:

The application of Christopher Ording respectfully shows:

That Charles J. Lindsfold died in the County of Dallas, State of Texas on the 17th day of March A.D. 1899, and that on said date and for a long time prior thereto the said Charles J. Lindsfold resided and had his domicile in said County.

That the said Charles J. Lindsfold left a will, which is filed herewith, in which this proponent is named as sole executor without bond, and that said testator in said will directed that no other action should be had in this Court in relation to the settlement of his estate than the probating and recording of said will, and the return of an inventory, appraisement and list of claims.

That the estate of said testator consists of ten acres of land in Dallas County, Texas of the probable value of $1200, and personal property of the probable value of $125.

That this proponent resides in Dallas County, Texas, and that he is not disqualified by law from accepting letters testamentary.

Wherefore the said Christopher Ording prays that citation issue to all parties interested in said estate, as provided by law, and that on the hearing hereof said will be admitted to probate and letters testamentary be issued to him in accordance with the direction of said will. And he prays for such other orders as may be necessary or proper in the premises.

) Charles J. Lindskaed Deceased.

Proof of Last Will and Testament of Charles J. Lindskaed Deceased.

This day personally appeared in open Court Allen Johnson who, being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled matter, and examined on behalf of the applicant to prove said Will, says: I was well acquainted with Charles J. Lindskaed deceased, during his lifetime; I knew the above decedent for about four or five years before his death; the signature of the said deceased to the instrument now shown to me, and offered for probate as his last Will and Testament, filed in this Court on the 12th day of January A. D. 1900 and bearing date on the 6th day of March A. D. 1899, was made by the deceased on said last named date at his home in Dallas County, Texas in presence of myself

Allen Johnson and W. M. Edwards

the other subscribing witness; all of said witnesses being over the age of fourteen years. At the time of the making of said Will the testator was of sound and disposing mind and memory, and he declared the said

Will so made by him to be his Last Will and Testament, and I thereupon signed my name as a witness, together with W. M. Edwards at the request of the said testator, in his presence and in the presence of each other. The said deceased at the time of the execution of said instrument was over 21 years of age; the said Charles J.

Lindskaed departed this life on the 17th day of March A. D. 1899

~~about~~ about that date after making said Will, in the County of Dallas in the State of Texas, where and at which time his residence and principal estate was situated.

CHARLES J. LINDSKOLD, DECEASED)

On this the 12th day of March A.D. 1900 came on for hearing the application of Christopher Ording for the probate of the last will and testament of Charles J. Lindskold, deceased, ^{dated March 6, 1899 and filed in this Court January 12, 1900} and for letters; and it appearing to the Court that citation has been served and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by law; and it further appearing to the Court from the testimony adduced and now here reduced to writing, that the testator at the time of executing the said will was over 21 years of age, and that he was of sound mind; that he is dead, and that at the time of his death he resided in this County; that said will was properly executed and is a valid will, and that it was not revoked by the testator; and it further appearing that Christopher Ording is named by said will as sole executor without bond; and the said will having provided that said estate shall be administered by said executor independent of the control of this Court: It is therefore ORDERED that said will be and is hereby admitted to probate as the last will and testament of Charles J. Lindskold, deceased; that said will, together with the application for the probate thereof, and all the testimony in the case be recorded in the minutes of this Court; it is further ordered that letters testamentary be issued to Christopher Ording upon his taking and subscribing the oath prescribed by law, and that after the return of an inventory, appraisal and list of claims of said estate, no further action shall be had in this Court in relation to the settlement of said estate.
