That heretofore to wit: on the 18th day of March, 1899, in the city and county of Dallas, state of Texas, Hattie Malone, who was a resident of said city, county and state, departed this life, and that said decedant at the time of her death held a policy of insurance on her life in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York for the sum of one thousand dollars, which said sum is now due and owing to the estate of decedant by the terms of said policy and that it is necessary that a temporary administration be had upon the estate of decedant in order to collect said insurance money and to defray the expenses of decedant's last sickness and death, which expenses amount in the aggregate to about one hundred dollars and constitute all the debts owing by said estate according to petitioner's best knowledge and belief;
