In Re the Estate of :
A. J. Oliver, Deceased. : Suit Pending in the County Court

: Probate Dockett,
April 14th, 1906.

This day came on to be heard, in the administration of the above estate, the application of the Temporary Administrator, to wit, J.E. Coyle, Temporary Administrator herein, be and he is authorized and instructed to sell and dispose of the said property, consisting of a stock of dry goods and groceries at Rowlet , Texas, two C cows, and calves, one pony, and one bale of cotton, one Binder, and one Disc plow, for the highest price possible, at private sale, on cash basis, or credit for the term of six months , subject however to the orders and instructions of this court, and that thereupon, he, the said Administrator, make due report to the said Court in this matter.

Order for Sale of personal property.

In Re The Estate of
A. J. Oliver, Deceased.

In The County Court of Dallas
County, Texas, on the Probate
Dockett.

To the Honorable Court aforesaid:-

And now comes your petitioner, J.E. Coyle, Temporary Administrator of the estate of the aforesaid decedent, and respectfully represents to the Court that it is necessary to sell the following described personal property belonging to said estate for the reason that it is in a position to continually decrease in value and become less valuable to this estate, and that unless the same is sold and disposed of that the heirs herein and the estate in general will suffer therefrom.

That the property desired to be sold is the Stock of Goods located at Rowlett, Texas, Two cows and calves, one pony, one Binder, One Disc plow,  and one bale of cotton, that the stock of goods is valued at about $1000.00, the cows and calves, at forty Dollars for all, the pony at $35, the Binder at $25, the Disc plow at $7.00; that the administrator believes that unless the said property is sold and disposed of that the same will become less valuable; that there is no use to which the estate can safely put said Stock of goods; that said Cows are now fresh and giving milk, and are more valuable and will sell better now than later, that the pony can be of no use to the said estate, and is expensive to keep and maintain, also that the Binder is not necessary to the welfare of the estate and the money tied up therein would be revenue producing, nor is the Disc plow such a piece of property that can be useful to the estate, and will continue to depreciate in value,
and not to

of as great value as the market value in money will be, but that at this time this petitioner is not aware of the amount of the number of bushels of corn that there is on hands.

WHEREFORE PREMISES CONSIDERED? the petitioner prays this Honorable Court, for the issuance of an order giving him the power and authority to sell and dispose of this property as aforesaid, at the best price that he can possibly get, at private sale for cash, subject, however to the approval and further orders of this Honorable Court in this behalf. Together with such regulations, and provisos that your Honor may deem just and proper

I, J.E. Coyle, the Temporary Administrator of the above estate, do solemnly swear that the allegations of fact in this application contained, are true, as herein alleged, so far as I am able to learn, or know.
