OVER 37 MILLION WINNERS

IN DECEMBER 2012 / JANUARY 2013

$15 BILLION TO TEXAS EDUCATION, AND COUNTING!

In mid-January, the Texas Lottery Commission announced that lottery sales revenue transfers to the state's Foundation School Fund had surpassed the $15 billion mark! The December revenue transfer of $96.7 million brought the total amount generated for the Foundation School Fund since 1997 to $15.08 billion.

"$15 billion for Texas education is a significant milestone that we are proud to have reached," said Texas Lottery Commission Executive Director Gary Grief. "We appreciate our responsibility to generate revenue for Texas and we continue to strive to increase funding for public education with popular and innovative games."

Approximately 26 cents of every dollar earned by the Texas Lottery goes to the Foundation School Fund to support Texas education.

"I'd like to thank our players, our retailers and our staff for helping the Texas Lottery achieve this goal," said Grief.

Where the Money Goes:

*Approximately $5.3 million was transferred to the Texas Veterans Commission.
