WINNERS SPOTLIGHT!

One fateful afternoon in August, Melanie V. Zavala of San Antonio got a visit from her brother, Adam Vara, who came bearing Texas Lottery tickets, as he regularly does. He divvied up the Weekly Grand tickets to scratch, and as luck would have it, Melanie found the top prize totaling $1,040,000 under the one she received.

"I looked at it happen to Zavala said. [Veterans looking back prize, you and thought, 'no, this isn't real, this doesn't me, this doesn't happen to our family,'" "My brother was looking at his John Wayne Cash] ticket with a $5 prize on it and then at my ticket. He finally said, 'That's your won it, you keep it.'"

Zavala plans to share her winnings with her parents and seven siblings. "We're probably going to have another big family barbecue because of this win," Zavala said. "We're always looking for an excuse to have one. This is a good one, I think."

Zavala's brother bought the ticket at the Skyway Food Mart located at 6226 S. Flores in San Antonio.

Marlon J. Boyd of Amarillo wasn't shy about showing his excitement after learning he'd won $1 million playing the Texas Lottery's $500 Million Frenzy scratch-off.

"I turned into Lionel Richie and started 'dancing on the ceiling' when I saw that $1 million on the ticket," Boyd said. "Then I turned into one of those people from The Price Is Right® and started jumping up and down right there in the store. You always want to win the big prize, but when you finally see it on your ticket, it's just amazing!"

Boyd stopped at S. Grand in had. "I've been I work across my intuition Taylor Petroleum Co. #9, located at 2100 Amarillo, to cash in two other tickets he going there for only two weeks because from the store, but on Tuesday told me to go there and buy some tickets."

Boyd says he plans to help his family and his church with his winnings.

"After that, I'm going to keep my dream going and continue with my music," he said. "I plan to stay focused on that, but I might get a new car, too. And, of course, never stop thanking God for this blessing."

Jerry Wilson of Longview depended on numbers he knew well when he penciled in his Cash Five® ticket. The numbers he chose—the birth dates and ages of his immediate family—served him well, bringing him the top prize of $22,064 in the August 1 Cash Five drawing.

“This is money that I can share with my family and also save for my son’s college expenses,” Wilson said.

Wilson purchased the ticket at the EZ Mart #443, 1910 Judson, in Longview. The numbers drawn were 8-29-9-16-5.

“I’ve been playing the lottery since it started,” Wilson said. “I play responsibly and use common sense with the money I’ve won. I feel very happy and blessed to have won this prize.”
