The State of Texas } In the Probate Court, County of Dallas } March Term 1868.-

Hon. A. Blaine Chief Justice & County Judge of Dallas county.

Your Petitioner, F. A. Mann, who resides in Dallas county, Texas, represents to the Court that he is the guardian of the person & estate of Gustavus M. Mann who also resides in Dallas co.
 Texas. Petitioner says, he is indebted to his said ward in about the sum of $600.00: That petitioner is in failing & straitened circumstances & his property is liable to be levied upon & sold to pay other debts he is owing: That the securities on his bond as guardian, are R. M. Moore & E. W. Hunt & that he is informed & believes that the said R. M. Moore has filed his petition in Bankruptcy & has been declared to be a Bankrupt & that his estate will not pay one cent on the dollar; in fact that his estate will pay nothing: That E.
 W. Hunt the other security is not more than solvent; that is, he has no property but what is exempt from forced sale by the laws of this state; or at least, if he has any, it is a very little & not near sufficient to satisfy & pay off the debt due by the guardian to his said ward.

The premises considered, petitioner prays, that, as the debt is a bad, or at least, a doubtful one, ~~that~~ he may be allowed to compromise the same by making a deed to his said work for a certain tract of land described in the said bench file, headed "A," & asked to be made a part of this petition. Petitioner says that the said land so offered to be added to his said work is worth in ordinary good times from six to eight dollars an acre, & that it contains one hundred acres.

And, as in duty bound he will ever serve you.
